JIM JUSTICE
GOVERNOR

FISCAL YEAR
2023

State of West Virginia - Executive Budget

- Some Budgetary Challenges during budget years FY 2018 – FY 2022, but significant improvements over the last couple of fiscal years.
- Despite a less active economy due to COVID-19 restrictions during FY 2021 actual collections were still above estimate at the end of the Fiscal Year by $5.5 million.
- As a result of an increased Official Estimate of Revenue in FY 2021 and the Legislature not appropriating the full amount, and the additional fiscal year end expirations, we ended FY 2021 with a General Revenue surplus of $30.2 million, with $15.4 million transferred to Rainy Day leaving a General Revenue Unappropriated Surplus Balance of $15.4.
- For the 6th consecutive year, the Governor recommends no Rainy-Day funds are used to balance the FY 2023 budget bill.
- Rainy Day funds continue to be among the best in the country – over $1 Billion as of December 31, 2021
- Fiscal Year 2022 General Revenue collections continue to far exceed FY 2022 Official Estimates of Revenue. General Revenue collections through December 31, 2021 were $393.8 million above the FY 2022 Official Estimates of Revenue.
- FY 2022 Lottery and Excess Lottery FYTD revenues are running about 30.8% ahead of December 31, 2021 FYTD estimates.
- FY 2022 General Revenue cash flow remains strong – we continue to pay our bills on time.
- The FY 2023 General Revenue Estimate is increased over the current fiscal year estimate.
- FY 2023 Total General, Lottery and Excess Lottery of $5,080,221,880 vs FY 2022 total of $4,985,306,000.
- The Governor recommends a balanced FY 2023 budget.
- PEIA fully funded with no programmatic changes or employee premium increases.
- FY 2023 proposed programmatic expenditures are relatively flat with few improvements.
- FY 2023 recommended budget includes General Revenue and Lottery funding for an average of 5% pay raise for state employees, teachers and service personnel. Total cost of around $109 million.
- 100% of Required Retirement Contributions are funded in the FY 2023 budget.
