Foreword

It is the hope of the Editor that this Volume 34 of the WEST VIRGINIA BLUE BOOK will be found practical and useful to its recipients.

The usual information included in the BLUE BOOK has been brought up to date. In addition, such preliminary figures for the 1950 Census as we were able to obtain from the Bureau of Census at the time of compilation have been included.

Then, too, a newly corrected Road Map has been placed on the book cover and a marker for your convenience will be found in the book.

My sincere appreciation goes to all the State, County and City officials who by their kindness and cooperation in furnishing information make this edition possible.

J. HOWARD MYERS

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

(West Virginia State Police)

W. E. BURCHETT, Superintendent

Ground Floor, Main Unit, Capitol

Salary of Superintendent: $6,000 per year. Appointed by Governor, with advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years.

Board of Commissioners: $10 per diem for days actually served in discharge of duties and expenses; consists of two members, bi-partisan, appointed by the Governor, by and with consent of the Senate for a term of two years.

Retirement Board: Consists of the Attorney General, the State Treasurer, the Superintendent, and two members in active service of the department, elected by vote of members, who serve without compensation.

The Department of Public Safety is a state police department with state-wide general police power, created in 1919 to preserve the peace, protect life and property, prevent crime and apprehend criminals. With at least one detachment in each county and a large fleet of two-way radio equipped vehicles, the state police handle a large share of the investigation of major crime and apprehension of dangerous criminals, and take primary responsibility for patrolling the highways, enforcing the traffic laws and preventing motor vehicle accidents, besides many miscellaneous services in the public interest, including duty at the scene of emergencies, riots or disasters.

The Board of Commissioners hears charges filed against any officer or member of the department, including the Superintendent, or appeals of charges filed against officers or members with the Superintendent if the Superintendent fails to suspend or dismiss any officer or member after such charges are filed.

The Retirement Board has power to make, revise and terminate awards from the Department Death, Disability and Retirement Fund to retired or disabled members, or to beneficiaries of deceased members.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Under Chapter 30, Article I, Code 1931, all boards of examination and registration are governed by the following general rules, unless otherwise specifically provided:

Each board is required to adopt an official seal, make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as it deems best, and hold at least two meetings each year. Each board is also given power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and its officers are authorized to administer oaths.

Each applicant for license or registration must transmit with his application an examination fee of $20, unless a different fee is especially provided by law. Each board is allowed to charge $5 for each license or certificate issued and the same sum for every duplicate thereof. All licenses or certificates of registration are required to be numbered serially and to be signed by a majority of the members of the board, and each board has power to revoke, for cause, the certificate it issues. An applicant who has been refused a license, or a licensee whose certificate has been revoked, has the right of appeal from the action of the board to the Circuit Court of the county in which he resides.

Unless otherwise specified, members of boards are allowed $10 per day for each day actually spent in attending sessions of the board or of its committees and in necessary travel, and are entitled to reimbursement for all actual and necessary expenses in carrying out their official duties.

The President having taken the chair, and a quorum being present the journal of the preceding day shall be read, to the end that any mistake may be corrected that may have been made in the entries.

2. The presiding officer of the Senate may call a member to the chair who shall exercise his functions for the time being, but no member by virtue of such appointment, shall preside for a longer period than three days.

3. The presiding officer of the Senate shall have the regulation of such parts of the Capitol and of its passage as are, or may be, set apart for the use of the Senate, its officers and committees.

Admittance to Senate Chamber

4. No person except members of the House of Delegates, the heads of the executive departments, the governor's private secretary, ex-members of the legislature, judges of the supreme court of appeals, circuit courts and of other courts of record, representatives of the press duly accredited to the Committee on Rules, and legislative attaches engaged in the proper discharge of their duties, shall be admitted within the Senate chamber while the Senate is in session. No person, not a member of the Senate, shall, while within the chamber when the Senate is in session, seek in any manner whatsoever to influence the vote or opinion of any Senator on any subject of legislative consideration, under penalty of disbarment from the chamber for the remainder of the legislative session. No attache of the Senate shall, at any time, engage in such activity, under penalty of immediate dismissal by the Committee on Rules.

Duties of the Clerk—Official Journal

5. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk and shall be read the succeeding day. It shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk and delivered to the members without delay. After the printed Journal has been approved and fully marked for corrections, the type from which it was printed shall be changed in accordance therewith, and from the type so corrected shall be printed the number of copies required by law for the regular bound volumes of the Journal. In addition thereto ten copies shall be printed on 6 x 9 heavy weight bond paper, with a certificate at the end thereof signed by the President and Clerk of the Senate certifying that the same is the official Journal of the Senate. They shall be bound in flexible binding and bear the imprint on the back, "Official Journal of the Senate of West Virginia," with designation of regular or extra session and the year. After being signed by the proper officers, two of these copies shall be retained in the office of the Clerk, one copy shall be lodged in the office of the Governor, one with the Secretary of State, one with the Department of Archives and History, and one with the Clerk of the House of Delegates.

7. The Clerks of the Senate and House of Delegates may interchange messages between the hours of adjournment and that of meeting on the following day, so that said message may be read immediately after the usual order of the day.

Powers of the Senate Over Its Members

8. A majority of the Senators shall be necessary to proceed to business; two members may adjourn, and three members may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. On a call of the Senate, the doors shall not be closed against any member until his name shall have been twice called.

9. In case a less number than a quorum of the Senate shall convene, they are hereby authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person or persons by them authorized, for any and all absent members as the majority of such members shall agree, at the expense of such absent members, respectively, unless such excuse for non-attendance shall be made as the Senate, when a quorum is convened, shall judge sufficient; and, in that case, the expense shall be paid out of the contingent fund. And this rule shall apply, as well to the first convention of the Senate at the legal time of meeting, as to each day of the session, after the hour has arrived to which the Senate stood adjourned.

10. No Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms, on any question of complaint of breach of privilege, until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and reported to the Senate, unless by order of the President of the Senate.

15. If a member be called to order, for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table; and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to the censure of the Senate for words spoken in debate, if any member has spoken, or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exceptions to them have been taken.

21. During any debate, any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may arise and speak to the orders of the Senate, if they be transgressed, in case the President does not; but if the President stands up at any time, he is first to be heard.

M. of the Legislative day next preceding its introduction. The original copy shall be the official bill for the use of the Clerk, committees and for the permanent files; the second for printing or copying; and the third for the use of the press and the public.

Each bill shall be numbered, edited and corrected as to form by the Clerk and reported by him to the Senate on the next Legislative day, under the fifth order of business. In case of urgency, on motion for leave agreed to by a majority of the members present, if a quorum, a member may introduce a bill from the floor.

Bills to Be Read on Three Separate Days

34. All bills originating in the Senate shall be read on three separate days, unless in case of urgency, by a vote of four-fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays, on each bill, this rule be dispensed with.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 29.)

Title of Bills

35. In the title of all bills to amend chapters or sections of the Code, or acts passed since the Code was adopted, the several committees to whom they are referred, or by whom they originated, shall insert the subject matter of the chapter.

36. All engrossed bills shall be fully and distinctly read when put upon their passage.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 29.)

Consideration of Bills

37. All bills or business originating in the Senate, shall be considered in the order in which they are introduced and all bills and resolutions received from the House of Delegates shall be introduced in the order in which they are received, unless in either case the Senate otherwise directs.

Resolutions to Lie on Table

Appropriation Bills

39. Bills making appropriations for the pay of members and officers of the Legislature, and for salaries for officers of the government, shall contain no provision on any other subject.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 42.)

Reference to Committees

40. All bills passed by and reported from the House of Delegates shall be read by their titles and referred to the appropriate committees unless the Senate otherwise directs. They shall then be proceeded with in the same manner as Senate bills. All bills introduced on leave shall be read by their titles and referred to the appropriate committee without printing, and shall be treated in committee as resolutions of inquiry, and if the committee report a bill different from one introduced such bill shall be received and treated by the Senate as the original bill, and shall be read a first time and printed, unless in any of the aforesaid cases the Senate shall direct otherwise.

41. On each reading of the bill the Clerk shall state whether it is the first, second or third reading of such bill.

42. On the demand of any two members when a bill is being read for amendment, it shall be read section by section, and when the amendments which may be moved shall be disposed of, the question, unless the Senate otherwise order, shall be taken on ordering the bill to be engrossed and read the third time. If a bill should be ordered to its engrossment and third reading and amendments thereto have been made, the type from which the bill was originally printed shall be changed to conform to the amendments. The bill shall then be re-printed, and shall be the engrossed bill. If no amendments are made the bill as originally printed may be ordered to its third reading and shall become the engrossed bill. All Senate bills so ordered shall be jacketed, endorsed with their number, title, by whom introduced, and if the bill is finally passed, the date of its passage and the signature of the Clerk. If a bill should be passed by the House and returned to the Senate without amendments, or if amended, and the amendments should be agreed to, it shall then be turned over to the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills. In the case of a House bill on second reading if the same be amended, the amendment, or amendments shall be noted in full in typewriting on slips of paper, and attached to the bill at the proper place by the Clerk before the bill is returned to the House, and all amendments shall appear in the Senate Journal.

43. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of its passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

Messages

44. Messages may be introduced in any stage of business except when a question is being put by the presiding officer, while the yeas and nays are being called by the Clerk, or while the ballots are being counted.

Passage of Bills and Joint Resolutions

45. When a bill or joint resolution is put upon its passage, the President shall propound the question, "Shall the bill (or joint resolution as the case may be) pass?" On the passage of every bill or joint resolution the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and be entered on the Journal. When the bill is on the second reading, and the question is upon striking out, the President shall propound the question: "Shall the words be stricken out?"

Motions

46. When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone the question to a different day, to commit, to amend, or to postpone indefinitely, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged.

47. On the first reading of a bill, a motion to reject the bill shall be in order.

Adverse Report by Committee

48. If a committee shall have reported adversely to a bill, the President, immediately after the report of said committee is read shall put the question: "Shall the bill be rejected?", which question shall have precedence over all motions, except a motion to adjourn.

Reconsideration of Vote

49. The question being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the session be drawn again into debate unless reconsidered, and it shall be in order to reconsider any vote only within two legislative days next after the one upon which such vote was taken. A motion to reconsider shall be in order only when made by a Senator who voted with the prevailing side, and when the vote was not taken by yeas and nays all Senators will be conclusively presumed to have voted with the prevailing side.

50. When motions are made for reference of the same subject to a select committee, and to a standing committee, the question in reference to the standing committee shall be first put.

Division of the Question

51. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided; but on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question, but the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition; nor prevent a subsequent motion to simply strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

52. In filling the blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

Previous Question

53. There shall be a motion for the previous question, which being ordered by a majority of the members present, if a quorum, shall have the effect to cut off all debate and bring the Senate to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions on which it has been asked and ordered. The previous question may be asked and ordered upon a single motion, a series of motions, or may be made to embrace and authorize motions and amendments and include the bill to its engrossment and third reading and then, on renewal and second of said motion, to its passage or rejection. It shall be in order pending a motion for or after the previous question shall have been ordered on its passage, for the President to entertain and submit a motion to commit with or without instructions to a standing or select committee; and a motion to lay upon the table shall be in order on the second and third reading of a bill.

A call of the Senate shall not be in order after the previous question is ordered, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the President that a quorum is not present.

All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

Yeas and Nays

54. When the yeas and nays are ordered, or a call of the Senate is directed, the names of the members shall be called in alphabetical order, excepting, however, the name of the President, which shall be called last.

55. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-tenth of the members present, be entered on the Journal and any member may enter any protest on the Journal upon the determination of any question. After the yeas and nays shall have been taken, and before they are counted or entered on the Journal, the Clerk shall read over the names of those who voted in the affirmative and those who voted in the negative, at which time any member shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name.

56. When a bill or joint resolution passed by the Senate shall be amended by the House of Delegates, the question on agreeing to the bill or joint resolution, as amended shall be again voted on by yeas and nays in the Senate, and the result entered upon its Journal. In all such cases the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to the Senate shall be necessary.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 31.)

57. In all elections of officers which may take place in the Senate the vote of a majority of all the members elected to the Senate shall be necessary.

58. In all elections of officers which may take place in the Senate the vote shall be viva voce, and be entered upon the Journal.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 44.)

Executive Session

59. When nominations shall be made in writing by the Governor to the Senate, a future day shall be assigned, unless the Senate unanimously direct otherwise, for taking them into consideration.

60. When acting on the nominations of the Governor, the Senate shall be cleared of all persons except the Clerk, his assistants, the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper, and all such officers shall be sworn to secrecy.

61. All confidential communications made by the Governor to the Senate and all proceedings thereon, shall be by the members thereof kept secret until the Senate shall, by unanimous affirmative vote of the members present, remove the injunction of secrecy. When an executive session of the Senate has been dissolved, the result of its action upon any executive nomination considered therein shall be forthwith certified to the Governor in a formal communication signed by the President and attested by the Clerk.

62. All information and remarks touching the character or qualification of any person nominated by the Governor to office shall be kept secret. The legislative proceedings and the executive proceedings of the Senate shall be kept and recorded in separate books.

Constitutional Amendment

63. When an amendment to be proposed to the Constitution is under consideration, the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate shall not be requisite to decide any question for amendments, or extending to the merits, being short of the final question.

Adjournment

64. When the Senate adjourns each day, it shall stand adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M., the next day, unless the Senate otherwise direct.

65. When the Senate adjourns each day, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the Chair.

Parliamentary Practice

66. In all cases not provided for by the Rules of the Senate or the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Delegates, the Senate shall be governed by the practice in the House of Representatives of the United States.

Suspension of Rule

67. No standing rule or order of the Senate shall be rescinded without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor and no rule shall be suspended except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate present.

Withdrawal of Bills from Committee

68. Any bill, resolution or business may, by a vote of the majority of the members present, be withdrawn from the committee to which it had been referred or be taken from the table, and placed upon the regular or special calendar of the Senate in such order of business as the Senate may direct.

Oaths

Members of the House of Delegates, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe to the following oaths or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Delegate according to the best of my ability, and that I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, from any corporation, company, or person, for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Delegate, on any bill, resolution or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Delegate." These oaths shall be administered in the hall of the house to which the member is elected, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or of a Circuit Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer an oath; and the Secretary of State shall receive and file said oaths subscribed by each member; and no other oath or declaration shall be required as a qualification. Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this State. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 16.)

Under authority of Chap. 4, Art. 1, Sec. 6, of the Code of West Virginia, the presiding officer or Clerk of either house may administer the oaths of office to any member or officer of such house.

Privileged from Civil Arrest

Members of the Legislature shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session, and for ten days before and after the same; and for words spoken in debate, or any report, motion or proposition made in either house, a member shall not be questioned in any other place.—(Const., Art. VI, Sec. 17.)

Compensation

The members of the Legislature shall each receive for his services the sum of five hundred dollars per annum and ten cents for each mile traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government by the most direct route. The Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate shall each receive an additional compensation of two dollars per day for each day they shall act as presiding officers. No other allowance or emolument than that by this section provided shall directly or indirectly be made or paid to the members of either house for postage, stationery, newspapers, or any other purpose whatsoever.—(Const., Art. VI, Sec. 33.)

Members' salaries are paid on the third Wednesday in January of each year.

Resignation and Filling of Vacancies

Resignations of members of the House should be made to the Speaker, Governor and chairman of the executive committee of the party of which the member belongs in the county from which he was elected.

Vacancies in the House are filled by an appointment by the Governor, in each instance from a list of three qualified persons submitted by the county party executive committee. (Ch. 3, Art. 10, Sec. 6 of the Code.)

Organization of the House

The Legislature shall assemble at the seat of government on the second Wednesday of January in each odd-numbered year. While neither the constitution or statute sets the hour for convening, the custom has been for each house to convene at twelve o'clock noon. The constitution says, "The oldest Delegate present shall call the House to Order at the beginning of each new House of Delegates, and preside over it until the Speaker thereof shall have been chosen and taken his seat." (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 35.) Custom has made it the duty of the Clerk of the previous House to call the House to order and call the oldest Delegate present to the chair.

The session is then opened with prayer, following which the Clerk reads a list of the members as certified by the Secretary of State, and all notices of contested elections. The roll is then called to ascertain those present. The next step in the organization is the administering of the oath of office to the members.

With the conclusion of the above formalities the House is ready to proceed to the election of a Speaker. After this election, the election of other officers, i. e., Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper shall be the next order of business. The election of all officers shall be by viva voce vote.

It is then in order to provide by resolution for the adoption of rules to govern the procedure of the House and for informing the Senate that the House is organized. Upon being likewise informed of the organization of the Senate both houses, by resolution, shall raise a joint committee to visit upon the Governor to inform him that they are organized and that they are in readiness to hear his biennial message.

However, at the session of the Legislature following each general election at which a governor, and other state officials are elected, immediately following the organization of the two houses, they shall meet in joint assembly in the hall of the House of Delegates, when the Speaker, before proceeding to any other business, shall open and publish the election returns in the presence of a majority of each house of the Legislature.—(Const., Art. VII, Sec. 3.)

The message of the Governor is usually delivered in person by the Governor before both houses of the Legislature, assembled in joint assembly. When the Governor desires to deliver his message to the joint assembly, it shall be proper to provide by resolution for the convening of a joint session of the two houses.

2. In the election of officers by the House, the vote shall be given viva voce, and a majority of the whole number of votes given, a quorum being present, shall be necessary to elect. If, upon any vote, there be no election, the person having the lowest number of votes shall be dropped, and any votes thereafter given to such person shall not be taken into the counting to affect the result in any way. Questions of Order

6. The Speaker shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the House when demanded by any ten members. Every Member to Vote

25. Every member present when a question is put, or when his name is called, shall vote unless he is immediately and particularly interested therein, or the House excuses him. A motion to excuse a member from voting must be made before the House divides, or before the call of the yeas and nays is commenced, and it shall be decided without debate, except that the member making the motion may briefly state the reason therefor.

Members Shall Be in Place When Voting

26. While the yeas and nays are being taken every member shall be in his seat, and during the session of the House no person other than a member shall occupy the chair of a member.

Quorum

27. On a call of the House, the doors shall not be closed against any member until his name shall have been called twice.

In case a number less than a quorum of the House shall convene, they are hereby authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person or persons by them authorized, for any and all absent members as the majority of such members shall agree, at the expense of such absent members, respectively, unless such excuse for nonattendance shall be made as the House, when a quorum is convened, shall judge sufficient; and, in that case, the expense shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the House. This rule shall apply to the first meeting of the House, at the legal time of meeting, as well as to each day of the session after the hour has arrived to which the House stood adjourned.

29. No member of the House shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms, on any question of complaint of breach of privilege, until the matter is examined by the Committee on Elections and Privileges, and reported to the House of Delegates, unless by order of the Speaker of the House of Delegates.

31. The House of Delegates may punish, by imprisonment, any person not a member, for disrespectful behavior in its presence; for obstructing any of its proceedings, or any of its officers in the discharge of his duties, or for any assault, threat or abuse of any member for words spoken in debate; but such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the termination of the session.—(Const., Art. 6, Sec. 25.)

ORDER AND DECORUM IN DEBATE

Recognition and Decorum

32. When a member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer as "MR. SPEAKER," and, upon being recognized, shall proceed, confining himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personalities and indecorous or disrespectful language.

When a member arises and addresses the Chair, the Speaker may recognize him by name; but no member in debate shall designate another by name.

Recognition by the Chair

33. When two or more members shall rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the one who is to speak first, and his decision shall be final and not open to debate or appeal. However, in all other cases the member who shall rise first and address the Chair shall be first recognized.

Mover of Question to Have Preference in Debate

34. No question shall be debated until it has been propounded by the Speaker, and then the mover of the question shall have the right to open and close the debate thereon.

Member Out of Order

35. When any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, but may be permitted, with leave of the House, to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to; if the decision be in favor of the member so called to order, he is at liberty to proceed; if the decision be against him, and the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House, or such other punishment as the House may properly impose.

Calling to Order for Words Spoken in Debate

36. If a member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down at the Clerk's table. And no member shall be held to answer, or be subjected to the censure of the House, for words spoken in debate, if any other member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words were spoken and before the exception to them was taken.

Decorum During Debate

37. While the Speaker is putting the question, ascertaining the result, or addressing the House, no one shall walk out of or across the House; and when a member is speaking, no one shall engage in conversation or pass between him and the Speaker.

Limitation on Debate

38. No member shall speak except in his place, and not more than twice on a question, except by leave of the House. And if a question be pending at the time of an adjournment and is renewed on the succeeding day, no member who shall have spoken twice on the preceding day shall be permitted again to speak without leave of the House. The House by majority vote may limit debate on any question.

Members Not to Be Disturbed While Speaking

39. No one shall disturb or interrupt a member who is speaking, without his permission, except to call to order if he be transgressing the rules.

Speaking Before Negative is Put

40. When the Speaker is putting the question, any member who has not spoken before to the matter may speak to the question before the negative is put.

PUTTING QUESTIONS AND VOTING

Putting Question; Division

41. All questions shall be put distinctly in this form, to-wit: "As many as are in favor [as the question may be] say 'Aye'," and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are opposed say 'No'." If the Speaker be in doubt as to the result, or if a division is called for by any member, the House shall divide. Those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats and be counted, and afterward those in the negative. The count may be made by the Speaker, or, if he so directs, by the Clerk, or two members, one from each side, to be named for that purpose by the Speaker. When the result is ascertained the Speaker shall rise and state the decision of the House. Such vote shall not be printed in the Journal unless the yeas and nays are called for by not less than nine members of the House prior to the announcement of the decision by the Speaker.

Yeas and Nays

42. On the passage of every bill and joint resolution, and when the yeas and nays on any question are called for by one-tenth of those present, the Speaker shall direct a yea and nay vote to be taken, and every member present shall vote, unless excused. On all roll-calls, when the voting machine is not used, before the result is announced, the Clerk shall read to the House the names of those who voted in the affirmative or in the negative, whichever is the smaller number, and announce the names of those absent and not voting, at which time any member may correct a mistake committed in taking down his vote. The result shall then be announced, and the yeas and nays entered on the Journal, but if the House so orders, the announcement of the result and the entry of the yeas and nays upon the Journal may be postponed to the succeeding day, with liberty to absent members at any time before the result is announced by the Speaker, to appear and vote "Aye" or "No," in the presence of the House; and any member may, in the presence of the House, change his vote before the result is announced. The Journal shall also show those absent and not voting.

When the yeas and nays are called for by a member on any question, the Speaker shall hold this demand in abeyance until debate has closed upon the question under consideration, or until the previous question has been moved and sustained, and if sustained by one-tenth of the members present, the yeas and nays shall be taken.

Upon calls of the House, in taking the yeas and nays, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically, except the name of the Speaker shall be called last.

Pairs

43. Members may pair on any question by filing a signed statement of the same with the Clerk, who shall read the same to the House before the vote is taken. A blank form of pair for use of members shall be provided by the Clerk. No pair shall be recognized unless made in person by the member signing the same, nor unless one or both of the parties thereto are absent.

Division of Question

44. Any member may call for a division of any question before the vote thereon is taken, if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition will remain for the decision of the House, but the member calling for the division of a question shall state in what manner he proposes it shall be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor motion to strike out and insert.

Calling of Yeas and Nays

45. No member or any person shall visit or remain by the Clerk's table while the yeas and nays are being called.

Tie Vote Loses Question

46. In all cases when the House is equally divided, the question shall be lost.

Verification of Vote

47. When a question upon which the yeas and nays have been taken has prevailed or failed by not more than five votes, the Speaker may, upon request of five members, order a verification of the vote. During such verification, no member shall change his vote unless it was erroneously recorded, nor may any member not having voted cast a vote. A verification must be called for immediately after a vote is announced and before any other business has intervened.

Explanation of Vote

48. No member shall be allowed to make any explanation of his vote during the taking of the yeas and nays; but after the roll has been called and the vote announced, any member may explain his vote and the explanation shall be recorded in the Journal if he requests it. The Speaker may limit the time allowed members for explaining votes.

When Members Not to Vote

49. Any member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the House shall disclose the fact and not vote thereon.

Voting by Machine

49-a. A voting machine may be used in taking the yeas and nays on any question, for quorum calls and for determining the result when a division is demanded. When a vote is to be taken on the voting machine the Speaker shall announce the question to be voted upon and direct the Clerk to prepare the machine. The Clerk shall then sound the gong which shall be notice to all members to vote. After reasonable time has been given all members to vote the Speaker shall ask the question, "Have all members voted?" vote himself, if the vote being taken is upon a question on which he is required to vote, and then direct the Clerk to close the machine and ascertain the result. As soon as this is done, the Clerk shall hand the record of the vote to the Speaker and he shall promptly announce the result. No vote may be changed after it has been recorded.

No member shall vote for another member, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who shall vote or attempt to vote for another member may be expelled as a member of the House or punished in such other manner as the House may determine. If a person not a member shall vote or attempt to vote for any member, he shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and may be further punished in such manner as the House may deem proper, in addition to such punishment as may be prescribed by law.

All other rules governing voting and the taking of the yeas and nays, insofar as applicable, shall apply to taking votes by means of the voting machine.

MOTIONS

Stating the Question

50. When a motion is made, it shall be stated by the Speaker; or, being in writing, it shall be passed to the desk and read aloud by the Clerk before debate.

Form of Motion

51. Every motion, except subsidiary or incidental motions, shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any member desires it; but this exception shall not apply to motions to amend.

Withdrawal of Motions

52. After a motion is stated by the Speaker or read by the Clerk, it is deemed to be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment, unless the previous question has been ordered, in which case it can only be withdrawn by leave of the House.

Order and Precedence of Motions

53. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except:
1. To adjourn.
 2. To lay on the table.
 3. For the previous question.
 4. To postpone to a day certain.
 5. To go into a Committee of the Whole on the pending question immediately.
 6. To commit to a Committee of the Whole.
 7. To commit to a Standing Committee.
 8. To commit to a Select Committee.
 9. To amend.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.

These several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence of another motion to amend; and if carried, the bill is rejected.

Motion to Adjourn

54. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the House is voting, or while a member is addressing the House, or when no business has been transacted since the motion to adjourn has been defeated.

Motions Not Debatable

55. The following motions shall be decided without debate, and shall not be amended:

1. To adjourn.
2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.
3. To lay on the table.
4. For the previous question.
5. To suspend the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days.
6. To recess.

Motions Not in Order

56. No motion directing the appropriation or payment of money shall be in order.

Effect of Indefinite Postponement

57. When a question is postponed indefinitely it shall not be again acted on during the session.

Motion to Reconsider

58. A motion to reconsider any question may be made by any member who voted with the majority, or in case of a tie vote, by any member. This motion shall be made on the same or next succeeding legislative day of the House. Such a motion, if seconded, shall take precedence of all other questions, except the consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn, and unless by motion postponed until some future time shall be acted upon at once. A motion to reconsider shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House, and if the House decides to reconsider, any member may thereafter call the subject up for consideration. A motion to reconsider a question, having been put and lost, shall not be renewed.

Debate on Motions to Reconsider

59. Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question which it is proposed to reconsider is debatable. Where debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no member shall speak more than once nor for a longer period than three minutes.

Reconsideration of Question Requiring More Than Majority Vote

60. When a majority of members present vote in the affirmative on any question, but the question be lost because it is one in which the concurrence of a greater number than a majority of a quorum is necessary to an affirmative decision, any member may move for a reconsideration.

Effect of Motion to Table

61. A motion to lay on the table shall only have the effect of disposing of the matter temporarily, and may be taken from the table at any time after the eighth order of business has been passed.

Motion Must Be Germane

62. No motion on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Previous Question

63. When any question is before the House, any member being in order and having the floor may move the previous question, but such motion to be put must be sustained by being seconded by ten members. The question being moved, the Speaker shall say, "Is the motion sustained?" and those favoring the motion shall rise. If a sufficient number arise, the previous question shall be thereby seconded, and the question shall then be put in this form, "Shall the main question be now put?" If this question be decided in the affirmative by a majority of the members voting, a quorum being present, it shall have the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the House to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions upon which it has been asked and ordered, except when the motion applies to the main question, the member in charge of the measure under consideration, shall have five minutes to close the discussion before the vote is taken; and when the motion applies to an amendment the person proposing the amendment shall have three minutes to close the discussion on the amendment. Should the previous question be decided in the negative, the House shall proceed with the matter before it as though the previous question had not been moved.

When a member moves the previous question he shall specifically state in his motion whether it shall apply to the main question and the amendments or to the amendment or amendments only.

The previous question shall not be admitted in the Committee of the Whole.

MEETING OF THE HOUSE

Time of Meeting

64. The House shall meet every day, except Sunday, unless it shall be otherwise directed by special order, precisely at the hour to which it shall have adjourned at its last sitting; but if no hour were fixed at such sitting, then at two o'clock P. M.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Before the next meeting of the House the Clerk shall number such bills as are presented and edit and correct them as to form. When the time for introducing bills is reached in the regular order of business the Clerk shall report each of said bills by the title in the same manner as if the bills were introduced from the floor. This rule shall not deny a member the right to introduce a bill from the floor in case of urgency.

Bills to Be Presented in Triplicate

All bills shall be presented in triplicate and signed by the member introducing the same, the original copy for the use of the committee and for the permanent files of the House, the second for printing and copying, and the third for the use and accommodation of the members of the press, which shall be kept by the Clerk in some convenient place for this purpose.

98. When a bill is reported from committee with the recommendation that it do pass, it shall be placed on the calendar for the succeeding day and come up on first reading unless the House by action otherwise directs. If on the calendar when referred, it shall be replaced on the reading from which it was taken.

If a bill be reported favorably with amendments, the report and Journal shall so show, and when the bill reaches second reading the committee amendments shall be acted upon before other amendments are offered, except amendments to the committee amendments.

If a committee to which a bill has been referred reports that the same ought not to pass, the Speaker shall immediately propound the question, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If this question is decided in the negative, the bill shall be disposed of in the same manner as if reported favorably.

Printing of Bills

Upon any bill there may be a motion to dispense with the Constitutional rule, in order that the bill may be read twice or three times on the same day, and upon the first or second reading of any bill there may be a motion to dispense with the constitutional rule in order that the bill may, upon such reading, be read by its title: Provided, That in all cases there shall be three readings on each bill, and that an engrossed bill shall be fully and distinctly read. (See Const., Art. 6, Sec. 29.)

Bills—First Reading

103. The first reading of a bill shall be for information; and if opposition be made to it, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be lost, it shall be regarded as ordered to its second reading, unless the House otherwise specially directs. On the first reading of a bill, it may at any stage of the reading be rejected on motion.

Bills—Second Reading

104. No bill shall be put upon its second reading until the same shall have been printed and delivered to the members of the House at least one day previous to such reading, unless in case of emergency.

Amending and Engrossing Bills

105. On the second reading of a bill on the demand of any two members, it shall be read section by section for amendment, and when the amendments as may be moved are disposed of, the question, unless the House otherwise order, shall be, if a House bill, "Shall the bill be engrossed and ordered to the third reading?" If a House bill shall be ordered to its engrossment and third reading, and amendments have been made thereto, the type from which the bill was originally printed shall be changed to conform with the amendments. The bill shall then be reprinted and shall be the engrossed bill, and shall be designated as such. If no amendments are made the bill as originally printed may be ordered to its third reading and shall become the engrossed bill, and shall be designated as such. All House bills ordered to their engrossment and third reading shall be jacketed and engrossed with their number, title, by whom introduced, and if the bill is finally passed, the date of its passage and the signature of the Clerk. If a House bill is passed by the Senate and returned to the House without amendment, or if amended and the amendment or amendments be agreed to, it shall then be turned over to the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills. In the case of a Senate bill on second reading, if the same be amended by the House and passed on as amended, the amendment or amendments shall be noted in full on slips of paper in typewriting and attached to the bill at the proper place by the Clerk before the bill is returned to the Senate, and all the amendments shall also appear in the House Journal.

(See Const., Art. 6, Sec. 30.)

Senate Bills

107. Senate bills passed by the Senate and reported to the House shall be referred to the appropriate committee unless the House otherwise directs. After this they shall be treated in the same manner as House bills.

(Const., Art. 14, Sec. 2.) When a proposed amendment to the Constitution is under consideration, the vote of a majority of the members present shall be sufficient to decide an amendment thereto or any collateral or incidental questions thereto short of the final question.

[NOTE: Joint resolutions are used only for amendments to the State Constitution and to ratify amendments to the Federal Constitution. Such resolutions do not have to be submitted to the Governor for his approval.]

(2) Concurrent Resolutions: Concurrent resolutions shall be used for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of the Legislature, for authorizing expenditures incidental to the sessions and business of the Legislature, for agreeing upon adjournments beyond the constitutional limitation, for creating special joint committees, for raising a joint assembly and other inferior and incidental purposes of legislation, and such other purposes as the Legislature may deem proper. The adoption of such resolutions must be concurred in by both houses.

(3) House Resolutions: These simple resolutions shall be used for expressing the will or order of the House on matters in which the concurrence of the Senate is not necessary. A House resolution shall be proper to express the sentiments of the body, to authorize expenditures from its contingent fund, for agreeing upon any question, and for all incidental purposes pertaining to the organization and work of the House.

Introduction of Resolutions

109. All resolutions to be introduced in the House shall be filed with the Clerk not later than two hours prior to the convening of the session at which they are to be introduced. They shall be presented in triplicate and copies shall be for the same purpose as that of bills. When the proper order of business is reached, the Clerk shall proceed in the same manner as if they were introduced from the floor. This rule does not deny a member the right to introduce a resolution from the floor in case of urgency. The different classes of resolutions shall be numbered by the Clerk and entered in full in the Journal.

Action on Resolutions

110. All joint resolutions shall be referred to the appropriate committee, and when any other resolution is presented, containing no reference of the subject thereto to a committee, it shall lie over for one day, to come up under the ninth order of business unless a majority of the House orders otherwise.

PETITIONS

111. All petitions, remonstrances, memorials and other papers addressed to the House shall be filed by the member with the Clerk prior to the convening of the House. When in the regular order of business the time is reached for presenting petitions or any such papers, the Clerk shall read a list of those on file, giving the member's name presenting same and a brief resume of the contents thereof, and the same shall be referred to the committee of the member's selection unless otherwise ordered by the House. Each member, upon filing any such petition, remonstrance or other paper, shall endorse thereon his name, and if not so endorsed it shall not be received. The Journal shall show the name of the member presenting such papers, a brief resume of the contents thereof, and the disposition made of same.

No bill shall be amended on third reading, except by unanimous consent of the members present. Amendments to resolutions other than joint resolutions shall be in order at any time the same are being considered. Committee amendments shall be subject to amendment and shall be disposed of before any other amendments are in order.

Reading and Stating

115. Amendments shall be read by the Clerk and stated by the Speaker before being acted upon.

By Striking Out Enacting Clause

116. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence over another motion to amend, and, if carried, the bill or resolution is rejected.

Amendment to an Amendment

117. A motion to amend a pending amendment may be received, but until it is disposed of no other motion to amend will be in order. But pending such amendment, a motion to amend in the nature of a substitute, and a motion to amend that substitute, may be received, but shall not be voted upon until the original matter is perfected.

Amendment to Have Precedence Over Substitute

118. If a substitute for a bill or resolution be offered, a motion to amend the original bill or resolution shall have precedence.

Motion to Amend to Have Precedence Over One to Strike Out

119. If a motion be made to strike out part of a bill or resolution, a motion to amend the part proposed to be stricken out shall have precedence.

Filling Blanks

120. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time proposed shall be first put, and the question shall be put on names in the order they were nominated.

No Amendment by Way of Rider

121. No amendment by way of rider shall be received to any bill after engrossment.

Agreeing to Senate Amendments

122. When a House bill or House joint resolution shall be amended by the Senate, the question on agreeing to the bill or resolution as amended shall be again voted on by yeas and nays, and the result entered on the Journal, and in such a case the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the House shall be necessary. (Const., Art. 7, Sec. 31.)

Amendment by Section

123. If a bill is being considered section by section, only amendments to the section under consideration shall be in order. After all sections have been considered separately, the whole bill shall be open for amendment except that an amendment seeking to strike out matter previously inserted and containing substantially no new proposition shall not be in order.

Amending Titles

124. After the passage of a bill or joint resolution, amendments to its title may be offered when the title is read for approval.

Amendments to Senate Bills

125. Any Senate bill or resolution may be amended in the same manner as a House bill or resolution. If a Senate bill or resolution is amended the same shall be noted by the Clerk on the jacket containing the same before it is reported to the Senate.

After the reading of a Senate amendment to a House bill or resolution the question shall be, "Will the House concur in the Senate Amendment?" But it shall be in order to move that the House concur in the Senate amendment with an amendment; or that the House refuse to concur and ask the Senate to recede.

If the Senate shall refuse to concur in a House amendment to a Senate bill or resolution, the following motions shall be in order and shall be privileged in the order named: First, That the House recede; Second, That the House insist and ask for a committee of conference; Third, That the House adhere.

Amendments to Be Printed in Journal

126. All amendments proposed, unless withdrawn, shall be printed in the Journal.

Speaking on Amendments

127. On an amendment being moved, a member who has spoken to the main question may speak again to the amendment.

JOURNAL

Clerk to Keep

128. The Clerk of the House, under the direction of the Speaker, shall keep a full and correct Journal of the proceedings.

Approval and Correction

129. When the Journal has been read to the end that any mistake made in the entry may be corrected, if no objection is made, it shall stand approved; but if objection be made, the first question of the House shall be to dispose of the same, and when such objections are disposed of and the Journal corrected, as the House may order, it shall stand as approved.

Printing Official Copies

130. After the printed Journal has been approved and fully marked for correction, the type from which it was printed shall be changed in accordance therewith. From the type so corrected shall be printed the number of copies required by law for the regular bound volumes of the Journal, which shall be properly indexed. In addition thereto six copies shall be printed on 6 x 9 heavy weight bond paper, with a certificate at the end thereof, certifying that the same is the official Journal of the House and the same shall be signed by the Speaker and Clerk. Such printed Journal shall be the official record of the House. They shall be bound in flexible binding, and bear the imprint on the back, "Official Journal of the House of Delegates of West Virginia," with designation of regular or special session, as the case may be, and the year. After being signed by the proper officers, two of these copies shall be retained in the office of the Clerk, and one copy shall be lodged in the office of the Governor, one with the Secretary of State, one with the Department of Archives and History, and one with the Clerk of the Senate.

Journal to Be Printed Daily

131. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to furnish a copy of each day's proceedings of the Journal to the printer, to be printed and distributed without delay.

Inserting Motions in Journal

132. Every written motion made to the House shall be inserted in the Journal with the name of the member making it, unless it be withdrawn on the same day it is submitted.

CHANGE OR SUSPENSION OF RULES

Rescinding or Amending Rules

133. All propositions to amend or rescind any standing rule or order of the House shall be by resolution and be at once referred, without debate, to the Committee on Rules, and shall be reported therefrom within two days. Any such resolution may be adopted by a majority vote, a quorum being present.

[NOTE: The power to make its rules of procedure is given the House under Sec. 24, Art. 6 of the Constitution.]

Suspension of Rules

134. These rules shall not be suspended, except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present. Unless there be a unanimous consent for the suspension of rules, the vote shall be determined by yeas and nays.

[NOTE: The motion to suspend the rules is usually preceded by a member requesting unanimous consent of the House to do a particular thing. If no one objects the House is deemed to assent, and what is desired is allowed accordingly. If objection is made, then the member may move that the rules be suspended for the specific purpose or object he has in view. A motion to lay on the table may not be applied to a motion to suspend the rules. (Hind's Precedents, Sec. 5405.)]

Manual and Rules

135. On any question of order or parliamentary practice where the rules of the House or the joint rules of the House and Senate are silent or inexplicit, Jefferson's Manual and the Digest of the Rules and Practices of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress shall be considered as authority.

[NOTE: Jefferson's Manual was prepared by Thomas Jefferson for his own guidance as President of the United States Senate in the years he was Vice President, from 1797 to 1801. The House of Representatives, in 1837, by rule which still exists, provided that the provisions of the Manual should "govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House." The Manual is regarded by English parliamentarians as the best statement of what the law of Parliament was at the time Jefferson wrote it. (House Manual and Digest), 70th Congress, 1st Sess., Sec. 278.]

In such sessions the Clerk of the House acts as Clerk, assisted by the Clerk of the Senate. The President of the Senate is given a seat to the right of the Speaker and seats are arranged for the members of the Senate.]

Joint Assembly to Open and Publish Election Returns

2. As soon as the Senate, being organized, is informed that the House of Delegates is ready to proceed, as provided by section three of article seven of the Constitution, to open and publish the returns of the elections for state officers, the Senate, preceded by its President and other officers, shall repair in a body to the hall of the House of Delegates. Upon their arrival the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Delegates shall announce the presence of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall then address the Speaker of the House, stating that a majority of the Senate have assembled in the hall of the House of Delegates to be present at the opening and publishing of the returns of the elections for state officers, held on the day of..... The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall invite the President of the Senate to a seat upon his right, and the other members of the Senate and officers thereof to take seats assigned to them, and after announcing that a majority of the House of Delegates is present, shall then open and publish the returns of said election, proceeding by counties in alphabetical order, the Clerks of the two houses each taking down the returns as announced by the Speaker, to be entered upon the Journal of the House; and when completed and estimated the Speaker shall announce the votes received by each person voted for, for each of said offices, and those receiving the largest number of votes shall be by him declared duly elected; and the Senate shall then return to its hall, and if any two or more candidates for any of said offices have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the two houses shall immediately proceed to choose one of such persons for said office by a joint vote, as provided by Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution.

Disagreement and Conference

3. Whenever a measure of one house is amended in the other and the house in which it originated shall refuse to concur in the amendment, the house amending the measure may either insist or recede therefrom. But when a measure originating in one house is amended in the other, the house in which it originated may amend such amendment and a motion therefor shall take precedence of a motion to concur. If said house refuses to concur, the other house may either recede from or insist upon its amendment, and a motion to recede shall take precedence of a motion to insist. The motion to lay on the table or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order in respect to the motion to recede from or to insist.

A motion to recede having failed shall be equivalent to the adoption of a motion to insist and shall be so entered upon the Journal. A motion to insist being decided in the negative, shall be equivalent to the adoption of a motion to recede and shall be so entered upon the Journal. If the motion to insist prevails, the house so insisting shall request a committee of conference on the subject of disagreement, and shall appoint a committee therefor. The other house may thereupon appoint such committee. Unless a different number is agreed upon, such conference committee shall consist of five members from each house.

Such committee shall consider and report upon only the subject matter of the amendment or amendments which were in disagreement, with necessary consequential changes. The committee shall meet at a convenient time, to be agreed upon by their chairmen, and having conferred freely, shall report to their respective houses the result of the conference. In case of agreement, the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the house which refused to concur, and there acted upon; and such action, with the papers referred, shall be immediately reported by the clerk to the other house. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the house in which the measure originated. If an agreement is reached, the report shall be made and signed in duplicate by at least a majority of the conferees from each house, one of the duplicates being retained by the conferees of each house.

Messages Between the Houses

4. When a message is sent by one house to the other, it shall be announced at the door of the house to which it is sent, by the Doorkeeper thereof, if it be in session, and then be respectfully communicated to the presiding officer by the person by whom it may be sent, but no message shall be received during a call of the roll. But the Clerk of one house may communicate a message to the Clerk of the other after adjournment, and any message so sent shall be received by the house to which it is sent whenever it may be in session.

Introduction of Bills

5. No bill, other than an appropriation bill, shall be introduced in either house after the fiftieth day of the session unless permission to introduce the bill be given by a concurrent resolution, setting out the title of the bill, and adopted by a two-thirds vote of all the members of each house present and voting.

One House to Notify Other of Rejection of Bill

6. When a bill or resolution passed in one house is rejected in the other, notice thereof shall be sent to the house in which the same shall have been passed.

Record of Bills

7. The Clerks of the two houses shall keep separate records or registers, in which shall be recorded every action taken by the Senate and House on each bill and resolution.

Clerks to Endorse Bills

8. The Clerks of the two houses shall endorse on each bill a statement of any action taken by their respective bodies.

Notice to Be in Writing

9. Notice to either house of the action of the other shall be in writing, signed by the Clerk of the house giving such notice.

Each House to Have Control of Own Printing

10. Each house may order the printing of bills, resolutions, reports, and other documents without the consent of the other.

Joint Committees

11. Joint standing committees of the Senate and House shall be appointed as follows:

(1) Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills—To consist of five members from each house.

(2) Committee on Joint Rules—To consist of the presiding officers and two members of each house, to be appointed by the presiding officers.

(3) Joint Committee on Government and Finance.—The Joint Committee on Government and Finance shall consist of five members of the Senate and five members of the House of Delegates, of which not more than three of each House shall be members of the same political party, four of the members of the Senate committee shall be appointed by the President of the Senate and four of the members of the House committee shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House. The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House shall be ex officio members of the committee and co-chairmen thereof. The committee shall begin its work as soon as practicable after the adjournment sine die of the regular session of the Legislature.

It shall be the duty of the committee to study and survey generally matters of government and finance and to make a report on its studies and findings, its expenditures and such recommendations as it may deem proper, to succeeding extraordinary and regular sessions of the Legislature; and such committee is hereby vested with power and authority to employ technical and clerical assistants, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of books, records, documents and other papers, and shall be vested with and authorized to exercise all power and authority granted such committees by the statutes and Constitution of the State of West Virginia. The offices of the committee shall be maintained at the capitol building in Charleston, West Virginia.

The expenses of the committee shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate and contingent fund of the House of Delegates in equal amounts. The members of the committee shall receive no remuneration for their services other than actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties hereunder as approved by the committee.

(4) Such other joint committees as may be provided for by concurrent resolution. A bill or resolution referred to a joint committee may be recalled from such committee by the House in which it originated.

Engrossed Bills to Be Filed With Clerk of House

12. All engrossed bills passed by, and joint and concurrent resolutions adopted by both houses shall be filed with the Clerk of the House to be kept with the rolls of the Legislature and to be used by him in printing and publishing the acts of the Legislature.

Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills

13. The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills shall consist of five members of the Senate and five members of the House of Delegates, to be appointed by the presiding officer of each house, whose duty it shall be to compare carefully all bills and joint resolutions passed by both houses, with the enrollment thereof, and to correct any errors or omissions they may discover and to make reports to their respective houses from time to time, of the correctly enrolled bills or joint resolutions. It shall be in order for the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills to report at any time.

Printing Enrolled Bills

14. After a bill has been passed by both houses, the type from which it was originally printed shall be corrected as to any typographical errors that may not previously have been corrected and to include any amendments that may have been made by either house since the last printing of the bill. After the type has been so corrected, two hundred copies of the bill shall be printed (except charter bills, of which only twenty-five of each shall be printed). Twelve of these copies shall be on seven and one-fourth by ten bond paper, twenty-pound basis of at least fifty per cent rag content for the use of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, one of which copies, when properly authenticated, shall become the Enrolled Bill, and the remainder shall be on twenty-pound basis, sulphite bond paper. From these copies all judges shall be furnished enrolled bills as provided for in section fourteen, article one, chapter four of the code.

Authentication of Enrolled Bills

15. Enrolled Bills shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman of the House Committee and the chairman of the Senate Committee, composing such Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, but in the absence of such chairman another member of the committee may act in his stead, and they shall require all bills and joint resolutions before such authentication to be free from interlineations or erasures and destroy any previous enrollments containing any interlineations or erasures. A certificate, showing in which house the bill originated and when it takes effect, signed by the clerks of the two houses, shall be endorsed on the bill. After enrolled bills and joint resolutions are authenticated as aforesaid, they shall be signed by the Speaker of the House and by the President of the Senate.

Presenting Bills to Governor

16. After a bill shall have thus been signed in each house, it shall be presented by the said committee to the Governor, for his approval. The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be entered on the Journal of each house.

Record of Enrolled Bills

17. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Enrolled Bills to keep a record book of all bills presented to the Governor for his approval. The title and number of each bill presented to the Governor shall be entered in this book, and when a bill is presented to him, the date presented and the signature of the Governor, showing receipt of same, shall be entered at the side of each title.

Action of Governor on Bills

18. Every bill disapproved by the Governor shall be returned by him to the house in which it originated, with his objections thereto, unless the Legislature shall, by its adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State within five days after said adjournment.

Every bill approved by the Governor shall, within five days after it is presented to him, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and the fact of said approval communicated by the Governor to the house in which said bill originated.

Every bill which shall be neither approved nor disapproved by the Governor shall immediately, after the expiration of five days from the time it is presented to him, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall forthwith engross thereon a certificate to the following effect: "I certify that the foregoing act, having been presented to the Governor for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of the Legislature in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the State, has become a law without his approval," and shall date and sign the same. The Governor shall notify the house in which the bill originated of each bill becoming a law without his approval.

Upon each bill returned to either house of the Legislature with the objections of the Governor, the Clerks of the Senate and House of Delegates shall engross the action, if any, of their respective houses on the reconsideration and passage of said bill, and sign the same.

Joint Meetings of Committees

19. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its standing committees, and the same or like bill has been referred by the House to one of its committees, the Chairmen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interest of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, may arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of such a bill. All joint committee meetings shall be presided over by the chairman of the Senate committee.

What Shall Be Printed in the Journal

20. The following shall always be printed in the Journal of each house:

- (a) Messages from the Governor and messages from the other house, the titles of all bills and the title and text of all resolutions.
- (b) Every vote taken by yeas and nays in each house, and a brief statement of the contents of each petition, memorial, or paper presented to each house.
- (c) A true and accurate account of the proceedings of each house.

Manner of Printing the Journal and Bills

21. In printing the daily Journal of the proceedings of each house there shall be printed at the top of each page, except the first, the date of the Journal and on the last page of each day's Journal shall be printed the calendar for the next day.

At the top of the first page of each bill, preceding the title and number thereof, there shall be printed the name of the person by whom, or the committee by which, it was introduced and the date of introduction; and at the top of each page, except the first, shall be printed the number of the bill.

Use of Legislative Halls and Offices

22. Permission to use, other than for statutory purposes, either Legislative chamber or offices used by the two houses, may be granted by the President of the Senate or Speaker of the House as the case may be. During legislative sessions, the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate shall have power to regulate the use of the halls and stairways of the parts of the capitol building used by their respective houses, for any purpose whatsoever.

Resolutions

23. Resolutions requiring concurrent action may originate in either house, and shall be of two kinds, namely:

Joint Resolutions: These resolutions shall be used for proposing amendments to the State Constitution and for ratifying amendments to the Federal Constitution. Joint resolutions shall be adopted as provided in section two, article fourteen of the Constitution.

Concurrent Resolutions: Such resolutions shall be used for all purposes not covered by joint resolutions as defined above.

Suspension of Joint Rules

24. No Joint Rule shall be suspended, except by a two-thirds vote of each house, and unless there be unanimous consent, such vote shall be taken by yeas and nays.

Section Four

CONSTITUTIONAL

Declaration of Independence

United States Constitution

Constitution of West Virginia

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

MADE BY THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN STATES IN CONGRESS
AT PHILADELPHIA

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our government:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every state of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injuries. A prince, whose character, is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in general Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

Continuity of Constitutional Operation

3. The provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of this State, are operative alike in a period of war as in time of peace, and any departure therefrom, or violation, thereof, under the plea of necessity, or any other plea, is subversive of good government, and tends to anarchy and despotism.

For the election of representatives to congress, the State shall be divided into districts, corresponding in number with the representatives to which it may be entitled, which districts shall be formed of contiguous counties, and be compact. Each district shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of population, to be determined according to the rule prescribed in the Constitution of the United States.

The State of West Virginia includes the bed, bank and shores of the Ohio River, and so much of the Big Sandy River as was formerly included in the Commonwealth of Virginia; in all territorial rights and property in, and jurisdiction over the same, heretofore reserved by, and vested in, the Commonwealth of Virginia, are vested in and shall hereafter be exercised by the State of West Virginia. And such parts of the said beds, banks and shores as lie opposite, and adjoining the several counties of this State, shall form parts of said several counties respectively.

[All of the territory of West Virginia was taken from the Commonwealth of Virginia and in the first constitution forty-four of the above named counties were designated as forming the State of West Virginia, and in addition the counties of Berkeley, Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Morgan and Pendleton were to be admitted should the constitution be adopted by a vote of the people of the districts comprising the counties. The districts adopted the constitution and these six counties became a part of the State.

The remaining five counties were created by acts of the legislature as follows: Mineral County, from Hampshire County, on February 1, 1866; Grant County, from Hardy County, on February 14, 1866; Lincoln County, from parts of Cabell, Putnam, Kanawha and Boone Counties, on February 23, 1867; Summers County, from parts of Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer and Fayette Counties, on February 27, 1871; and Mingo County, from Logan County, on February 23, 1895.]

Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 51,405; against ratification, 26,651; majority, 24,754.

The Board of Public Works shall deliver to the presiding officer of each House the budgets and a bill for all proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each House shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The Board of Public Works may, before final action thereon by the Legislature, amend or supplement either of said budgets to correct an oversight or in case of an emergency, with the consent of the Legislature by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officers of both Houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said budget bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

The Legislature shall not amend the budget bill so as to create a deficit but may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the Legislature, and by increasing the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein: Provided, however, That the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office; and such bill when and as passed by both Houses shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

Sub-Section C—Supplementary Appropriation Bills

Neither House shall consider other appropriations until the budget bill has been finally acted upon by both Houses, and no such other appropriations shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following:

(1) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein a supplementary appropriation bill; (2) each supplementary appropriation bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made by a tax direct or indirect, to be laid and collected as shall be directed in said bill unless it appears from such budget that there is sufficient revenue available; (3) no supplementary appropriation bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each House by a vote of a majority of the members present, and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage. Each supplementary appropriation bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in section fourteen of article seven of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said section shall apply.

Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as preventing the Legislature from passing in time of war an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State of West Virginia within the protection of section ten of article one of the Constitution of the United States.

Sub-Section D—General Provisions

First: If the "Budget Bill" shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for such further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill; but no other matter than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

Second: The Board of Public Works for the purpose of making up its budgets shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative officers, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for state monies and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as said board shall direct. The Board of Public Works may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies, and all institutions applying for state monies. After such public hearings, it may, in its discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools as provided by law.

Third: The Legislature may, from time to time, enact such laws, not inconsistent with this section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

Fourth: In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this section and any of the other provisions of the Constitution, except amendments thereto heretofore made and ratified by the people, the provisions of this section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the Legislature, as provided by section seven of article seven, or as preventing the Legislature at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the bill or of any other item of such bill or bills.

Motor Fuel and Motor Vehicle Revenue

52. Revenue from gasoline and other motor fuel excise and license taxation, motor vehicle registration and license taxes, and all other revenue derived from motor vehicles or motor fuels shall, after the deduction of statutory refunds and cost of administration and collection authorized by legislative appropriation, be appropriated and used solely for construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways, and also the payment of the interest and principal on all road bonds heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of public highways, and the payment of obligations incurred in the construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways.

53. The Legislature may by general law define and classify forest lands and provide for cooperation by contract between the State and the owner in the planting, protection, and harvesting thereof. Forest lands embraced in any such contract may be exempted from all taxation or be taxed in such manner, including the imposition of a severance tax or charge as trees are harvested, as the Legislature may from time to time provide. But any tax measured by valuation shall not exceed the aggregate rates authorized by section one of article ten of this Constitution.

8. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays) appoint all officers whose offices are established by this Constitution, or shall be created by law, and whose appointment or election is not otherwise provided for, and no such officer shall be appointed or elected by the Legislature.

9. In case of a vacancy, during the recess of the Senate, in any office which is not elective, the Governor shall, by appointment, fill such vacancy, until the next meeting of the Senate, when he shall make a nomination for such office, and the person so nominated, when confirmed by the Senate (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays) shall hold his office during the remainder of the term, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person, after being rejected by the Senate, shall be again nominated for the same office, during the same session, unless at the request of the Senate; nor shall such person be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Senate.

Governor's Power of Removal

14. Every bill passed by the Legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approve, he shall sign it, and thereupon it shall become a law; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the House in which it originated, which House shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the members elected to that House agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by a majority of the members elected to that House, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. But in all such cases, the vote of each House shall be determined by yeas and nays to be entered on the journal. Any bill which shall not be returned by the Governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed with his objections in the office of the Secretary of State within five days after such adjournment, or become a law.

Respecting Appropriations of Monies

15. Every bill passed by the Legislature making appropriations of money, embracing distinct items, shall before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor; if he disapproves the bill, or any item or appropriation therein contained, he shall communicate such disapproval with his reasons therefor to the House in which the bill originated; but all items not disapproved shall have the force and effect of a law according to the original provisions of the bill. Any item or items so disapproved shall be void, unless re-passed by a majority of each House according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the preceding section in reference to other bills.

In case of the death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, or other disability of the Governor, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the President of the Senate, for any of the above named causes, shall become incapable of performing the duties of Governor, the same shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Delegates; and in all other cases where there is no one to act as Governor, one shall be chosen by joint vote of the Legislature. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Governor before the first three years of the term shall have expired, a new election for Governor shall take place to fill the vacancy.

Vacancies in Other Executive Departments

17. If the office of Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, State Superintendent of Free Schools, or Attorney General, shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation; and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

[The amendment to this section was proposed by House Joint Resolution of February 15, 1901 (Acts 1901, p. 460) and ratified at the general election in 1902. For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2 of this article.]

All private rights and interests in lands in this State derived from or under the laws of the State of Virginia, and from or under the Constitution and laws of this State prior to the time this Constitution goes into operation, shall remain valid and secure and shall be determined by the laws in force in Virginia, prior to the formation of this State, and by the Constitution and laws in force in this State prior to the time this Constitution goes into effect.

Land Entry Prohibited

2. No entry by warrant on land in this State shall hereafter be made.

Forfeited Lands

3. All title to lands in this State heretofore forfeited, or treated as forfeited, waste and unappropriated, or escheated to the State of Virginia, or this State, or purchased by either of said States at sales made for the non-payment of taxes and become irredeemable, or hereafter forfeited, or treated as forfeited, or escheated to this State, or purchased by it and become irredeemable, not redeemed, released or otherwise disposed of, vested and remaining in this State, shall be, and is hereby transferred to, and vested in any person (other than those for whose default the same may have been forfeited or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees), for so much thereof as such person has, or shall have had, actual continuous possession of, under color or claim of title for ten years, and who, or those under whom he claims, shall have paid the State taxes thereon for any five years during such possession; or if there be no such person, then to any person (other than those for whose default the same may have been forfeited, or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees), for so much of said land as such person shall have title or claim to, regularly derived, mediately or immediately from, or under a grant from the Commonwealth of Virginia, or this State, not forfeited, which but for the title forfeited would be valid, and who, or those under whom he claims has, or shall have paid all State taxes charged or chargeable thereon for five successive years, after the year 1865, or from the date of the grant, if it shall have issued since that year; or if there be no such person, as aforesaid, then to any person (other than those for whose default the same may have been forfeited, or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees), for so much of said land as such person shall have had claim to and actual continuous possession of, under color of title for any five successive years after the year 1865; and have paid all State taxes charged or chargeable thereon for said period.

Former Owner's Privilege

5. The former owner of any such land shall be entitled to receive the excess of the sum for which the land may be sold over the taxes charged and chargeable thereon, or which, if the land had not been forfeited, would have been charged or chargeable thereon, since the formation of this State, with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, and the costs of the proceedings, if his claim be filed in the circuit court that decrees the sale within two years thereafter.

Land Books—Taxes

When, for any five successive years, the owner of any tract of land, or undivided interest therein, shall not have been charged on such land books with State, county and district taxes thereon, then, by operation hereof, the land, or undivided interest therein, shall be forfeited and the title vested in the State. But if, for any one or more of such five years, the owner of such land, or of any undivided interest therein, shall have been charged with State, county, and district taxes on any part of such land, such part thereof, or undivided interest therein, shall not be forfeited for such cause. And any owner of land so forfeited, or of any interest therein, at the time of the forfeiture thereof, who shall then be an infant, married woman, or insane person, may, until the expiration of three years after the removal of such disability, have the land, or such interest, charged on such land books, with all State and other taxes that shall be, and but for the forfeiture would be, chargeable on the land, or interest therein, for the year one thousand eight hundred sixty-three, and every year thereafter, with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, and pay all taxes and interest thereon for such years, and thereby redeem the land or interest therein: Provided, That such right to redeem shall in no case extend beyond twenty years from the time such land was forfeited.

[This section, prior to its amendment, read as follows: "It shall be the duty of every owner of land to have it entered on the land books of the county in which it, or a part of it, is situated, and to cause himself to be charged with the taxes thereon, and pay the same. When for any five successive years after the year 1869, the owner of any tract of land containing one thousand acres or more, shall not have been charged on such books with State tax on said land, then by operation hereof, the land shall be forfeited and the title thereto vested in the State. But if, for any one or more of such five years, the owner shall have been charged with State tax on any part of the land, such part thereof shall not be forfeited for such cause. And any owner of land so forfeited, or of any interest therein at the time of the forfeiture thereof, who shall then be an infant, married woman, or insane person, may, until the expiration of three years after the removal of such disability, have the land, or such interest charged on such books, with all State and other taxes that shall be, and but for the forfeiture would be, chargeable on the land, or interest therein for the year 1863, and every year thereafter with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum; and pay all taxes and interest thereon for all such years and thereby redeem the land or interest therein: Provided, Such right to redeem shall in no case extend beyond twenty years from the time such land was forfeited."

The amendment as set forth above was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 4, adopted January 22, 1934 (Acts Second Ex. Sess. 1933, p. 583) and was ratified at the general election in 1934. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 257,090; against ratification, 177,796; majority, 79,294.]

WEST VIRGINIA CHILDREN'S HOME

Elkins

Superintendent: Dee B. Gainer. Financial Secretary: Myrtle C. Gainer. Inmates: 75.

The West Virginia Children's Home is located in Elkins. It was established by an act of the Legislature in 1899, and formally opened in 1911, to serve as a Home for orphan and neglected boys and girls. In 1935 an appropriation was allotted for an additional unit. The site upon which the two-story brick building is located, contains a 20-acre tract of ground facing Heavner Avenue. In addition to the ground site for the Home, there is a 127-acre farm used for grazing. A modern dairy barn and chicken houses are located on the Home site and a two-room school building with two teachers, one of whom is the principal, is operated on the County Unit plan. The purpose of the Home is to keep, train, educate and maintain the children between the ages of six to fourteen years, until they can be placed in foster homes. Religious training is provided, and every boy and girl who can do anything is given some job in the Home or on the farm. The sanitary conditions of the Home are excellent and the health of the children is very good. All milk, poultry products and our summer vegetables are raised on the Home site and farm.

WEST VIRGINIA COLORED CHILDREN'S HOME

Huntington

Superintendent: Roy W. Edwards. Financial Secretary: Armintha M. Miller. Inmates 40.

West Virginia Colored Children's Home, located in the City of Huntington, was incorporated in 1900 as West Virginia Normal and Industrial School for Colored Orphans. Purchased by the State in 1911, at which time the name was changed to West Virginia Colored Orphan's Home. For some years the institution was supported by private contributions raised by the general manager and friends and by income from the boarding hall and farm. In 1903 the Legislature made a yearly appropriation of $1,500 and in 1910 this was raised to $3,000. The purpose of this Institution is to provide for negro orphans and neglected children under the age of 19 and such other children of like age that may be surrendered by the Department of Public Assistance or court order to be kept, maintained, educated and trained until they can be placed in foster homes, returned to their own homes or released at the proper age to adequately care for themselves. High School graduates may attend West Virginia State College or Bluefield State College if the Department of Public Assistance, the colleges attended, or other interested organizations help them.

The operating program of this institution provides for the total development of the total child to effective citizenship.

WEST VIRGINIA HOME FOR AGED AND INFIRM COLORED MEN AND WOMEN

McKendree

Superintendent: George W. Coats. Financial Secretary: Ruby E. Cannaday.

The West Virginia Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Men and Women was established in Charleston by an Act of the Legislature in 1923. In December 1928, the institution was moved to Huntington where it remained for several years. The over-crowded and generally run-down condition of the premises then made it necessary to seek other quarters. On September 13, 1941 the institution was moved to McKendree and is now occupying the building and grounds of the formerly operated McKendree Hospital. McKendree is located in Fayette County on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, fifteen miles from Beckley and three miles from Prince.

The institution consists of the main building which houses the offices, treatment room, dental clinic, chapel for religious services, laundry and other hospital facilities for the patients. The institution also has its own postoffice which is located in the main building. Another two-story building which furnishes living quarters for the Superintendent and family and women employees. A two-story farm house which has housing facilities for the farmer and family also houses the men employees. A modern chicken and brooder house is also a part of the farming equipment. Other new equipment in the Home includes a new dining room, all coal furnaces have been replaced with fuel oil burners, modern equipment in the laundry, and reconstruction of all bathrooms with new fixtures.

The institution recently took over a section of powerline which connects it with the main Appalachian powerline at Thayer. This 2300 volt line is being maintained by the institution for its service.

The institution at present houses 86 patients; 45 males and 41 females. There are accommodations for 90 patients, with recent completion of a new ward which takes care of 16 more patients.

The positions for the Home include the superintendent, secretary, physician, dentist, two nurses, matron, chef and two assistants, two laundresses, two orderlies, utility-man and farmer.

The West Virginia Industrial Home for Colored Girls, located in Huntington, was established at a cost of $95,000. The plant, a modern fire-proof building rises beautifully above the seven-acre tract of ground.

In recognition of the economic handicap under which the Negro child is born, commitments through the Juvenile Courts of the state are comparatively few, with usual charges of truancy, incorrigibility and delinquency.

A carefully planned program of Home Economics is in use at all time in connection with everyday life in the institution. In the school department, the elementary grades are taught. Wholesome environment is provided at all times, aiding greatly in adjustment. Various religious faiths are represented by the girls of the school.

PENAL

WEST VIRGINIA PENITENTIARY

Moundsville

Warden: Orel J. Skeen. Business Manager: Robert H. Wells. Inmates: 1,593. Prisoners assigned to road camps and other institutions: 609. Total: 2,202.

West Virginia Penitentiary, located in the City of Moundsville, just off State Route 2, was established in 1866 by an act of the Legislature. The Penitentiary itself is a six-acre enclosure on a ten-acre tract of land surrounded by a solid wall of hand-cut sandstone, 675 x 395 feet, 24 feet high, 7 feet wide at base, tapering to 28 inches at top, on which is a stone walk-way 42 inches wide. Aimed at reducing the hazards of involuntary idleness, several prison industries have been developed through authority of the 1939 Legislature. These shops are now making commodities for which there is a constant demand in the prison and other state institutions. None of the products manufactured are being sold on the open market. Also contributing greatly to relief of idleness is utilization of prisoners on road construction projects. The 1947 Legislature authorized separate management and control of the West Virginia Medium Security Prison at Huttonsville. The West Virginia State Prison for Women has been established at Pence Springs, therefore, all female inmates have been transferred to the new institution.

MEDIUM SECURITY PRISON

Huttonsville

Warden: Ira E. Briers. Financial Secretary: H. B. Walsh. Inmates: 500.

The Medium Security Prison is located on a farm near Huttonsville and is 18 miles south of Elkins on U. S. Routes Nos. 219 and 250. It was established by an act of the Legislature in 1937 and was designed to relieve over-crowding at the West Virginia Penitentiary and at the same time aid in the rehabilitation of prisoners. The majority of the inmates are employed in general farm work but many are employed in other vocational trades. They are quartered in modernly equipped dormitories in which there are no cells. The farm consists of 5,000 acres of which approximately 2,000 acres is suitable for cultivation and pasture. The farm products produced are in excess of the needs of the institution and are sold to other state institutions. The 1947 session of the Legislature separated the Medium Security Prison Farm from the West Virginia Penitentiary and established it as a separate institution. All provisions of the law applicable to the Penitentiary are in effect, except that criminal proceedings against inmates of this institution are brought in the Circuit Court of Randolph County.

On the main floor is an auditorium with a seating capacity of one hundred, basketball court and movie projector equipment for the showing of 16MM films each week and on all holidays. In addition to this there is a cottage for the superintendent, a duplex to house the farm superintendent's family and guests of the institution; a modern chicken house, which houses several hundred chickens, an up-to-date piggery and a new sewage disposal unit. The larger percentage of the 84 acres is taken up in river bottom land, where farming is done on a large scale, supplying the institution with produce in the summer and canned goods as well as frozen vegetables for the winter months. Farming and the crafts are utilized for the relief of idleness in addition to giving those vocational training where it is necessary. Sewing is done on a contract basis for other institutions, plus the garments made for the use of inmates. Recently added to the recreational program is a tennis and badminton court, which can also be used for volley ball. A complete program of rehabilitation is carried out in this institution and all inmates are on their honor from the day they enter the prison.

BERKELEY SPRINGS SANITARIUM

Berkeley Springs

Superintendent: Gracen B. Heare.

Berkeley Springs Sanitarium is located in the City of Berkeley Springs. It offers baths and swimming pools which utilize the warm and medicinal waters of Berkeley Springs. Histories of colonists mentioned the qualities of the water as early as 1736. The 1939 Legislature authorized the Board of Control to lease this institution and grounds to private interests to encourage restoration of the spa to the position of national importance that it held from the time of President Washington until the Civil War. The temperature of the spring water is 74.3 degrees and is invariable, and is said to be helpful in the treatment of rheumatism, gout, diabetes, and skin diseases. The springs are now being expanded to include a modern open air swimming pool and a new bath house which will have Roman Baths and all other types of baths for year-round use. The sanitarium has no facilities for housing patients, but for those who visit Berkeley Springs for baths, there are adequate hotel and boarding house facilities.

The hospital receives, in addition to legally committed patients, persons who make voluntary application for admission, and some patients who are admitted on the certificate of the family physician. An infirmary building designed to provide facilities for the care and treatment of the physically ill patients is equipped with such facilities as operating rooms, sterilizing equipment, laboratory, X-ray, physiotherapy and dental equipment. The prevailing types of treatment for the mentally ill are regularly administered. Barbourville

Superintendent: Mrs. Virginia Comstock, R. N. Business Manager: Charles E. Evans. Number of Patients: 336.

The State in 1941 purchased 23.76 acres of land and the two buildings which were formerly used as dormitories for Morris Harvey College, and patients were moved into the hospital as soon as each section was reconditioned and equipped. On August 1, 1942, the hospital had a population of 270 patients, its capacity at that time. Additional space had been provided through renovation of one of the buildings until the hospital had facilities for 315 patients. The 1947 Legislature made an appropriation for an Administration Building and a Storage Building. These two buildings have been completed and are now in use. The 1949 Legislature made an additional appropriation for renovation of the old buildings, and upon completion of the renovation and the additional space provided by the removal of the administrative offices from one of the dormitories to the new Administration Building, we will have a capacity of 475 beds which will be filled as rapidly as conditions will permit.

LAKIN STATE HOSPITAL

Lakin

Superintendent: S. O. Johnson, M. D. Financial Secretary: L. W. Hemmons.

This institution is located in Mason County, nine miles north of Point Pleasant on State Route 62. It was founded by an act of the Legislature in 1923 and was opened in 1926 for the reception and treatment of negroes suffering from mental and nervous disorders.

There are two main ward buildings consisting of three stories. One housing male and the other female patients. A third building of two stories, located centrally, houses the offices and the several clinics. A hospital cannery, also a fire proof structure and six frame reconditioned structures comprise the buildings in which the activities of the hospital are carried on.

The hospital's present capacity is 410 beds, but there was a yearly, daily average of 440 patients. This capacity will soon now be appreciably increased as the result of reasonable and encouraging appropriations recently made by the Legislature for much needed expansion in the form of new buildings and the renovation of existing facilities. The work of the hospital is fully approved by the American College of Surgeons. It is a member of the American Hospital Association, the West Virginia State Hospital Association and its work is recognized by the American Psychiatric Association.

The hospital campus proper consists of a considerable portion of its approximately 1,300-acre tract which is bounded on the west by the Ohio river and extends for some distance north along highway 62 and to the east. Approximately 600 acres of this area is utilized in diversified farming. This includes, in addition to the usual vegetable and farm crops, a sizeable swine herd, beef herd, dairy herd, poultry farm and also large grazing and pasture lands. Much of the produce grown is used in hospital operations and are safe guarded by the fullest possible utilization of a hospital cannery.

SPENCER STATE HOSPITAL

(Mental)

Spencer

*Superintendent: Thomas S. Knapp, M. D. Assistant Superintendent: (Vacancy).
Financial Secretary: B. E. Holswade. Patients: 1,000.*

The Spencer State Hospital is located in the city of Spencer and was authorized by an act of the Legislature May 7, 1887, and formally opened July 18, 1893. Recognizing the fact that the facilities at Weston State Hospital were being overcrowded, this particular hospital was established. It was initially designated as the Second Hospital for Insane and the name ultimately changed to Spencer State Hospital. Gradual enlargements and improvements have been made with the construction of new buildings and wings, and in 1937 a fifty-five bed hospital clinic for private patients was built at the cost of $147,000.

A modern filtration plant has been completed which provides the hospital with a constant supply of pure water. An excellent cold storage plant has been completed and an occupational therapy building has been finished, but due to the fact that there was no money to equip it, the building is now occupied by bedfast patients.

Many improvements are now projected for this particular hospital, including a new eighty-five bed three-story hospital clinic and construction is expected to start in the very near future. A new and modern dormitory for nurses and attendants has already been started. One of the older buildings is to be completely fireproofed and a new floor is to be added. A new pasteurization plant is to be constructed in the near future.

All forms of modern psychiatric and neurological treatment are available at this hospital. New equipment has been purchased or is on order, which will compare with the most progressive hospitals in the country. The hospital treats patients committed by the State, but voluntary pay patients may be admitted and treated on the same basis. The institution is a member of the West Virginia Hospital Association, the American Hospital Association and has provisional approval by the American College of Surgeons. It is hoped that it will soon become one of the most progressive mental hospitals in the State.

FEDERAL REFORMATORY FOR WOMEN

Alderson

Warden: Miss Nina Kinsella.

Associate Warden: Miss Margaret C. Jones.

Administrative Supervisor: Richard Hendricks.

The Federal Reformatory for Women is situated amidst the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains in Summers, Monroe and Greenbrier Counties. It was established by Act of Congress June 7, 1924, and the buildings and grounds have a value in excess of $2,000,000. It was designed to take care of all women Federal prisoners in the United States and the insular possessions and has a capacity of 500. There are fifteen buildings housing inmates, a Hospital, Administration Building, Laundry, School Building and Auditorium, Storehouse, Shops and an extensive farm with modern dairy, piggery and truck gardens. The Enabling Act specified that each inmate should be given training that would fit her to be self-supporting on her return to society, and the entire program of the institution is based upon this plan for rehabilitation. An intelligent and sincere attempt is made to supplant the old-time theory of punishment with a program of cleanliness, industry and education in citizenship. Classification and casework is highly developed to provide for adequate training within the institution and proper placement in jobs after release.

Major Austin, a veteran of six years service with the Marines during World War II, served most of that time with the Service Command, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific. Other officers attached to the unit are as follows: Captain Elmer H. Dodson, USMCR, Executive Officer, Charleston; Captain Mahlon G. Guthrie, USMCR, Platoon Leader, Charleston; Captain Clarence W. Parkins, USMCR, Platoon Leader, Red House; First Lieutenant William C. Bates, USMCR, Communication Officer, Charleston; First Lieutenant Robert J. Connor, USMCR, Platoon Leader, South Charleston; First Lieutenant James L. Morehead, USMCR, Special Services Officer, South Charleston; First Lieutenant Coyle H. Whitworth, USMCR, Platoon Leader, Charleston; Commissioned Warrant Officer Lawrence S. Demanche, USMCR, Supply Officer, St. Albans; Commander John S. Godbey, (MC), USNR, Medical Officer, Charleston.

Captain Harold R. Gingher, USMC, is Inspector-Instructor of the unit. The Inspector-Instructor staff consists of Master Sergeant William T. Albert, USMC, Sergeant-Major, and Technical Sergeant A. H. Hanson, USMC, Supply Chief, and eight Marine Corps Reserve enlisted men on continuous active duty. He served in the First Engineer Battalion, First Marine Division, during World War II and participated in the Cape Gloucester, Peleliu, and Okinawa campaigns. His other duty assignments since World War II have included the Naval Gun Factory, Washington, D. C., Purdue University Naval ROTC as Marine Officer Instructor and a year with the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, at Fort Belvoir, Va., where he completed the Advanced Engineer Officer's Course. Captain Gingher relieved Major George W. Torbert, USMC, on July 25, 1949. Major Torbert served as the units first Inspector-Instructor from the time of its activation.

The 20th Engineer Company, USMCR(O), is a separate company, operating under the Director, Fifth Marine Corps Reserve District, has an authorized strength of 12 officers and 218 enlisted Marines, plus a Naval Reserve Medical Officer and six Hospital Men.

Drill periods are held weekly on Thursday night with a two-week training period each year at one of the major Marine Corps Bases.

The training to be offered members of the company will include both basic military subjects and activities peculiar to the Engineer Branch, including road construction, bridge construction, air field construction, demolitions, communications, installation and maintenance of water points and other activities in support of the Infantry.

The United States Savings Bonds Division for West Virginia, successor to the Treasury Department's wartime financing organizations in the State—West Virginia War Savings Staff and West Virginia War Finance Committee—came into being on January 1, 1946, following the successful termination of the Victory Loan drive, in which the States army of Bond volunteers achieved an all-time high sales performance of 233 per cent of assigned quota.

Establishment of the Treasury's peacetime Savings Bonds organization was mainly one of consolidating the wartime gains made in the habits of thrift by insuring availability of Savings Bonds and Stamps at as many outlets as possible, and encouraging their purchase by the continuance of the methods so successfully employed during the war.

The United States Savings Bonds Division is a part of the office of the Secretary of the Treasury. National Director is Vernon L. Clark, of Des Moines, Iowa.

State organizations are headed by state directors. Director for West Virginia is Bernard S. Payne, of Charleston, who became identified with the War Savings Staff as Deputy Manager in May, 1942, later being named executive manager of the West Virginia War Finance Committee. Prior to his affiliation with the Bond program, he was engaged in newspaper work in Columbus, Ohio, Welch and Williamson.

Following the retirement from the "firing line" of the hundreds of patriotic West Virginians who gave unstintingly of their time and talents to the war financing effort, a State Advisory Committee was formulated in February, 1946, "to provide every volunteer who so desired a further opportunity for public service." The Committee is composed of approximately one hundred prominent citizens representing business, banking, industry, the church, education, labor, the press, radio, professions, and civic and social organizations. At the request of the Honorable Fred M. Vinson, then Secretary of the Treasury, A. C. Spurr, President of the Monongahela Power Company, of Fairmont, who served as State Chairman of the West Virginia War Finance Committee, accepted the state chairmanship of the advisory committee.

The U. S. Savings Bonds program provides for the financial security of the individual and is of the utmost importance to the national economy. Widespread ownership of Savings Bonds helps effect wide distribution of the national debt, spreads maturities by cutting down the large floating and short-term debt, helps reduce the amount of the debt held by banks and the Federal Reserve System, stabilizes purchasing power, and aids in leveling the peaks and valleys of business. Regular and systematic purchases are made possible through Payroll Savings Plans where people work, and a Bond-A-Month Plan offered by banks to customers with checking accounts.

Three securities comprise the Treasury Department's peacetime Savings Bonds program. They are: Series E, a ten-year appreciation bond bearing interest of 2.9%, compounded semi-annually, when held to maturity; Series F, a twelve-year appreciation bond with a yield of 2.53% if held to maturity; and Series G, a twelve-year current income bond with a yield of 2.5% each year, semi-annually, by Treasury check.

Sales of U. S. Savings Bonds in West Virginia in 1946 totaled $62,475,844, of which $45,187,492, or 72%, was in Series E Bonds to individuals. A study by the Division of Research and Statistics of the Treasury Department revealed that the best sales performances in the nation in 1946 were turned in by the District of Columbia, West Virginia and eleven middle-western farm states.

Sales in 1947 amounted to $62,567,625, a slight increase over the previous year's sales which in the face of rising costs and many other adverse factors represented a remarkable achievement. Purchases of Series E Bonds by individuals accounted for 71 per cent of the total. On the basis of sales performance against quota, West Virginia tied with Illinois for 12th place in the nation in 1947.

For the twelve months' period January 1-December 31, 1948, sales in the State reached a peace-time high of $67,571,739.

In America's "Opportunity Drive," May 16-June 30, 1949, West Virginians purchased $13,450,405 worth of Series "E" U. S. Savings Bonds to top a campaign quota of $10,700,000 by a margin of $2,750,405 and earn for the State national sales honors of a 16th place tie with Texas and New Mexico. Sales represented 126 per cent of quota. Purchase of Savings Bonds in 1949 amounted to $51,621,528.

The nation's 1950 Savings Bonds Campaign, the Independence Drive, with the Liberty Bell as its symbol, began May 15 and extended through July 4. Exact, full-scale replicas of the bell, each weighing 3,900 pounds with its assembly, were reproduced in Annecy-le-Vieux, France, and donated by America's six leading copper companies to the Treasury Department as sales vehicles to tour the nation during the period of the Campaign. At the conclusion of the drive a bell was presented to each state, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Alaska, and Puerto Rico, for permanent display.

Following the completion on July 4 of its state-wide tour of seventy-three cities and towns and all fifty-five counties, West Virginia's bell was placed on exhibition on the first landing of the Washington Street steps of the State Capitol in Charleston where it was to remain until a permanent site on the capitol grounds was decided upon.

West Virginians bought $8,611,838 worth of Savings Bonds in the Independence Drive, $7,092,553 of which was in Series E Bonds credited against a State Campaign quota of $6,663,000 for a sales performance of 106.5 per cent, and a quota-achievement standing of 23rd among the states of the nation.

Sales of Series E, F and G Savings Bonds in the State in 1950 amounted to $31,038,030 on July 17.

WEST VIRGINIA NATIONAL GUARD

(Corrected to September 1, 1950)

OKEY L. PATTESON, Governor
Commander-in-Chief

CHARLES R. FOX, Brigadier General
The Adjutant General

The West Virginia National Guard is authorized and governed by Article I, Chapter 15, of the West Virginia Code and is constituted as both State and Federal force by authority of the National Defense Act approved June 3, 1916, as amended to January 1, 1945, inclusive. The National Guard is a reserve component of the Army of the United States and is composed of officers and enlisted men who volunteer for duty and are qualified in accordance with Federal and State regulations governing same. In time of peace, the National Guard is a State force, controlled by the Adjutant General as a principal military representative of the Commander-in-Chief. The Adjutant General issues, in the name of the Governor, all orders to the National Guard, disburses funds appropriated by the State Legislature for this purpose and acts as Chief of Staff for the Commander-in-Chief. In the event of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult or a case of imminent danger of said events, or in the event of public disaster, the Governor has power to order the West Virginia National Guard or any part thereof, into the active service of the State and to cause them to perform such duty as he shall deem proper. The National Guard is equipped and paid by the Federal Government, but must meet certain organizational and training standards to qualify for Federal recognition. When Congress declares a national emergency and authorizes the use of armed forces requiring troops in excess of those in the Regular Army, the President of the United States may order the National Guard into the active military service of the United States. Initial enlistments in the National Guard are for a period of three years with reenlistments authorized for either one or three years.

OFFICIAL MUNICIPAL REGISTER

(Corrected to September 1, 1950)

CLASS I, II AND III CITIES

Under the provisions of Chapter 56, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 1939, municipal corporations are classified by population as follows: (1) Population in excess of 50,000, Class I city; population more than 10,000 and not more than 50,000, Class II city; and population more than 2,000 and not more than 10,000, Class III city. Municipal corporations not included in these classifications are known as towns or villages.

Transition from one to another class of municipal corporation occurs automatically when the requisite population qualification has been met. Population is determined on the basis of the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States or the Legislature of West Virginia. Census of 1950 is used as basis in determining class of cities listed in Register.

Salem—Harrison County

It was originally New Salem, so named because the settlers who established the town came in a body from Salem, New Jersey. They arrived in the spring of 1792. Two years later, in 1794, it was incorporated.

The first civilized habitation on the land now occupied by the City of Salem was a hunter's camp established by Nicholas Carpenter in 1785 who used it for a hunting and trapping center. He also used it for a sort of crude hotel for himself and his men who drove cattle from Clarksburg to the Ohio river at Marietta which was the nearest market.

Samuel Fitz Randolph purchased the property on which the village was founded in 1790. Mr. Randolph had started with a caravan of pioneer settlers from Salem, New Jersey, who crossed the mountains in 1789 and made their first stop at Woodbridgetown, Pennsylvania. Mr. Randolph, a number of Davises, some Maxsons, and others came on to what is now Salem, after a two and one-half year trek from the sea coast.

Salem was the first settlement of Seventh Day Baptists west of the mountains. It is now the home of Salem College, founded in 1888, and the Industrial Home for Girls established in 1898. Glass has been a major industry. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the George Washington highway and state highway Route No. 23 pass through it. It is the birthplace of Congressman Jennings Randolph and the great writer, Granville Davison Hall, author of Daughter of the Elm, The Rending of Virginia, and many other historical books.

STATE CAPITOL BUILDING

West Virginia's Capitol Building, one of the world's beautiful examples of Italian Renaissance architecture, stands on the north bank of the historic Great Kanawha River in the capital city of Charleston. Its golden dome, rising 300 feet, is a landmark visible both day and night from a number of distant points in the city.

Completed in 1832 at a cost of nearly $10,000,000, the building was designed by Cass Gilbert, an architect of international prominence.

The huge-U-shaped structure consists of a main unit and two wings which are situated on 16 acres of ground. There are 333 rooms and a total floor space of 535,000 square feet. Unlike the exterior of Indiana buff limestone, the interior is laid with Imperial Danby Vermont marble.

In the rotunda is a two-ton crystal chandelier which has 15,000 candle power. It is suspended 180 feet above the floor by a gold chain 54 feet long. Sparkling chandeliers in the House and Senate chambers are made of 10,000 separate pieces of rock crystal.

A specially-prepared paint, "Governor's Blue," covers the walls of the outer reception room of the governor's suite, the show room of the Capitol. A tan rug, 26x60 feet and weighing 1,300 pounds, carpets the floor and is said to be the third largest seamless rug in the world.

Directly beneath the executive suite is the State Museum containing numerous exhibits to illustrate the history, science and social conditions of early West Virginia.

GREAT SEAL OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Great Seal of West Virginia, which also is the Coat of Arms, symbolizes the principal pursuits and resources of West Virginia. Described briefly, the obverse side of the Seal bears the legend, "State of West Virginia," together with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi" (Mountaineers Are Always Free); a farmer stands to the right and a miner to the left of a large ivy-draped rock bearing the date of the state's admission to the Union; in front of the rock are two hunter's rifles upon which rests a Phrygian Cap, or "Cap of Liberty."

The reverse side of the Seal is not in common use today. It was intended to be employed when the Seal was attached to documents by ribbons and suspended in the manner of a medal.

Joseph H. Diss Debar, of Doddridge County, designed the State Seal in 1863 at the request of the first West Virginia Legislature.

STATE FLAG

Before the design of the present State Flag was officially adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1929, West Virginia had been represented by several flags which had proved impractical.

Prominently displayed on the pure white field of today's flag and emblazoned in proper colors is the Coat of Arms, the lower half of which is wreathed by Rhododendron. Across the top, lettered on a ribbon, is the constitutional designation—"State of West Virginia." The white field is bordered on four sides by a strip of blue, and for parade purposes all but the staff side are to be trimmed with gold fringe.

STATE BIRD AND TREE

The brilliantly costumed cardinal and the majestic sugar maple are the state bird and tree of West Virginia.

These were officially declared state emblems by a legislative committee of five on June 18, 1949, after tabulating votes cast by public school children, college students and representatives of civic, sportsmen and bird study groups. Both the bird and the tree are found in virtually all parts of the State.

1950 CENSUS OF POPULATION

PRELIMINARY COUNTS

POPULATION OF WEST VIRGINIA, BY COUNTIES: APRIL 1, 1950

(The figures in this report are preliminary counts of population as compiled in field offices and supersede those for the same areas which have been published in Series PC-1. Figures for some areas not published in Series PC-1 are also included in this report. Additional reports in Series PC-2 will be issued as preliminary counts for other States become available.)

The population of West Virginia as of April 1, 1950, was 1,999,097, according to a preliminary count of the returns of the 1950 Decennial Census of Population, reported today by Roy V. Peel, Director, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. This figure represents a gain of 97,123 or 5.1 percent, over the 1,901,974 inhabitants of the State enumerated in the 1940 Census.

The preliminary population counts shown below represent the number of persons enumerated in the State, each county, and each incorporated place of 1,000 or more, but not the final verified population totals. The final population totals may differ from the preliminary counts because of the allocation to the place of usual residence of persons who were enumerated elsewhere, and because of other revisions.

HOW TO RESERVE CABINS IN STATE PARKS AND FORESTS

Official application blanks for rental of cabins in state parks or forests may be obtained by written, or personal, application to The Division of State Parks, Conservation Commission, State Capitol, Charleston. These blanks must be returned to the Division, properly filled in, before applications can be approved.

Approved applications are listed strictly in order of their receipt, regardless of the identities of the applicants—in other words, cabins are rented upon a "first come, first served" basis. No applications will be received until March 1, and no out-of-state applications will be processed until April 1.

Check or money order in the amount of the total cost must be enclosed with application. Application blanks may be obtained by writing to the address noted.

Limited overnight lodging, obtainable upon request to the park superintendent, may be had at Cacapon and Babcock State Parks. Arrangements for reservation of picnic areas for large groups, play fields, etc., may be had with the park superintendent, direct.

FOREST SERVICE

(U. S. Department of Agriculture)

MONONGAHELA NATIONAL FOREST

Headquarters: Elkins

Monongahela National Forest was proclaimed by President Woodrow Wilson on April 28, 1920, under the Weeks Law. This law of 1911 provides for cooperation by states with the United States in the protection of watersheds of navigable streams. In West Virginia, the national forest was established mainly for flood protection in the Ohio and Potomac River valleys. It is one of a system of 152 national forests and the only national forest wholly in West Virginia.

In administration, the public forest is dedicated to the protection, development, and management of all its resources for the greatest good to the greatest number.

Within the proclaimed boundary there are 1,673,747 acres of which 805,905 acres are owned by the United States. Directly in charge of the national forest is the Forest Supervisor. In the national forest are five ranger districts, each in charge of a district ranger.

The public forest is administered in cooperation with the game, fish, law enforcement and forestry divisions of the Conservation Commission of West Virginia, as for example, in wildlife habitat improvement work, stream stocking, and other wildlife management activities. By law, twenty-five per cent of receipts from the sale of timber and other products and use fees is returned to the nine national forest counties.

At Parsons is one of the largest forest tree nurseries east of the Mississippi River. Its production capacity of 5,000,000 tree seedlings yearly is for reforesting eastern national forests. The Conservation Commission of West Virginia is presently utilizing these nursery facilities, cooperating in meeting its reforestation needs.

FISHING STREAMS AND SPECIES

For the benefit of anglers who desire information relative to stocked fishing streams and nearest towns in which hotel accommodations can be found, the following list has been prepared. Numerous other streams and tributaries other than these listed have received substantial stockings of fish. These, however, are the largest, most important and probably the most capable of supporting extra heavy angling pressure. It must be understood that the order in which they are listed does not indicate the number of fish placed in the stream or the anglers chances of catching fish. Fishing in any of these streams does not necessarily indicate that the Conservation Commission promises the limit of fish to each fisherman. This is intended merely as a guide.

DEPTH AVAILABLE FOR NAVIGATION

(Data furnished by the War Department)

Ohio River—Improvement of the Ohio River, as authorized by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of June 25, 1910, provides for a channel depth of 9 feet in the entire 981 miles of the river by the construction of locks and dams and open channel work. The system of locks and dams throughout the river provides a navigable depth of 9 feet at ordinary river stage. New dams of modern design have been completed near Hogsett, West Virginia, (Gallipolis Locks and Dam), at Montgomery Island, 32 miles below Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and at Emsworth Locks, 6.2 miles below Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Monongahela River, West Virginia and Pennsylvania—The existing project provides for improvement of the river by 13 locks and dams to afford slack-water navigation for its entire length from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to one mile above Fairmont, a distance of 128 miles. The project is approximately complete and the controlling depth between Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Lock 11 (Uffington, West Virginia) 104.95 miles above the mouth is 9 feet and above Lock 11, 7 feet to the upper limits of the project.

Kanawha River, West Virginia—The existing project provides for the construction of 3 modern dams on the Kanawha River, with twin locks at London, Marmet and Winfield, and the Gallipolis locks and dam on the Ohio River, near Hogsett, West Virginia, to furnish a 9-foot navigable depth from the Ohio to a point 90.57 miles above the mouth. The dams at London and Marmet were completed in 1934, and the Winfield dam in 1937. The Gallipolis locks and dam were completed in October, 1937, thus making available a channel depth of 9 feet from the mouth of the river to the head of navigation.

Big Sandy River, West Virginia and Kentucky, including Levisa and Tug Forks—Under the existing project, 3 locks and dams were constructed on the main river, and one lock and dam were constructed each on Levisa Fork and Tug Fork. Only the lower lock and dam on the main river is in operation at the present time to provide a slack-water depth of 6 feet from the Ohio River to a point about 7 miles above the mouth. The remaining two structures on the main river have movable dams which are placed in use only at such times as the needs of navigation require. The Levisa Fork Lock and Dam No. 1 and the Tug Fork Lock and Dam No. 1 have not been operated for several years.

Tygart River Reservoir—The Tygart River Dam, located on the Tygart River, 2¼ miles upstream from Grafton, as authorized by the Public Works Administration January 11, 1934, and approved by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of August 30, 1935, provides for a dam 1,880 feet long and 207 feet high for the storage of 290,000-acre tract of water to control floods and aid navigation in the Monongahela River. The dam has been completed and is now in operation as a unit in the reservoir system for the protection of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and the upper Ohio Valley generally.

Bluestone Reservoir Project—This project, located on the New River near Hinton, was authorized by Presidential executive order in 1935 and approved by Congress under the Flood Control Act of 1936. Construction of the project was begun early in 1942; however, the work was suspended in 1944 because of the war emergency. Construction was resumed in January 1946, and has been prosecuted steadily to the present advanced stage of project completion. The project is expected to cost about thirty million dollars when completed late in 1950. The dam will be 165 feet high and 2,061.5 feet long. The reservoir will have a capacity of 631,000-acre feet to serve a drainage area of 4,565 square miles. During periods of low and normal flows in New River, the elevation of the reservoir will vary about 5 feet, with a minimum pool of 7.8 miles in length and 1,020 acres in area that will utilize about 11,000 acre-feet of the total reservoir capacity. The remaining reservoir capacity will be reserved for impoundment of flood flows as required for flood control.

Little Kanawha River, West Virginia—The existing project provides for 5 locks with fixed dams, to give a navigable depth of 4 feet from the mouth of the river to Creston, a distance of 48 miles. Under this project one lock and dam was constructed and 4 were purchased from the Little Kanawha Navigation Company. Only the lower lock and dam is in operation at the present time to provide a slack water depth of 4 feet from the Ohio River to a point about 14 miles above the mouth. The remaining structures are placed in use only at such times as the needs of navigation require.

- The American Library Association's proposed minimum requirements for listing as a county library has been applied by the West Virginia Library Commission in classifying county libraries in West Virginia. 1. (a) Gives service to all or the major portion of a county or (b) Operates under a county, county district, or regional library law. 2. Receives at least 10 cents per capita income or $5,000 whichever is larger. (In computing income, the actual appropriations plus rentals, fines, etc. are included. 3. Circulates at least 2 books per capita. 4. Gives direct book service to rural people through the medium of branches, stations, bookmobiles, etc. "Libraries must meet three of the four qualifications and must meet 1 and 4."
- Taken from total adult circulation.
- American Library Association recommends budget proportions as follows: 60% personnel, 20% books, 20% operation and a minimum expenditure of $1.50 per capita. The national average is .52 per capita.
- Commissions' first demonstration.
- Appropriation for West Virginia Library Commission. Since Commission supplements library service for all public libraries in the state, the whole appropriation is included in grand total of state wide income for public libraries for purpose of giving more accurate picture of per capita income of public library service in the state.
- Purchased 21,060 books cataloged plus 750 books not cataloged by July 1, 1950.
- Unexpended balance result of difficulty in locating qualified librarians.
- 1940 census.
- Key: WC—Woman's Club; B&PW—Business and Professional Woman's Club; Jr. WC—Junior Woman's Club, CC—Community Chest.
- Included in Kanawha County.
- Five libraries in the state are supported by subscription or privately: Charles Town, White Sulphur Springs, Romney, Union, and Madison. See below for list of librarians for each library listed.

DEPARTMENT OF PROBATION AND PAROLE

R. M. KNOTT, Director

Established by the West Virginia Legislature in 1939, the office of the Director of Probation and Parole has endeavored to set in motion a program that will lead to the rehabilitation of many offenders. Conditional release from custody after an offender has served a portion of his sentence and met certain rigid selective standards has done much, we believe, to aid the reclamation of offenders and will prove of lasting benefit to society in this State.

EMPLOYMENT

The trades, occupations, and professions represented by West Virginia parolees are numerous and encompass every calling from the lowly paid laborer to some higher paid jobs in public life. Usually about 90 percent of parolees are employed. Those who are too old to work and are physically handicapped are excused. The following table lists most of the prevailing occupations which our parolees fit into.

WEST VIRGINIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Definite progress in public health protection was accomplished on the local scene during the fiscal year, 1949-1950. Fifteen full-time health officers, and their staff members, now serve about 60 percent of our population. Another 23 percent is served by part-time health officers who give active direction to the program. Only two counties have no health service. During the past year, public health nurses and sanitarians were added to the communities with the most need, within the limitations of the budget and the personnel supply.

The program of health protection for the citizens of West Virginia functioned on a budget of a little over $2,500,000 during the recently completed fiscal year. Of this amount, about 31 percent was derived from state appropriations, a like contribution comes from local sources, and the remaining 38 percent was provided by the federal government. While this amount still did not provide minimum services to meet the existing health needs of the state, the increased appropriation made possible by the 1949 Legislature, did give impetus to an improved and expanded program of protection.

The medical staff of the State Department of Health was expanded when a deputy state director of health and a director of disease control were employed. This was made possible when the Board of Public Works approved a sufficient salary to induce adequately trained personnel to accept these positions.

An important step toward future accomplishment in public health was the creation of the West Virginia Citizen's Health Planning Committee, a 22 member group of representative citizens from all sections of the state, appointed by the Governor. The purpose of this council is to study current health problems and assist in bringing to the state's citizens a better understanding of their public health needs.

During 1949, there were 52,370 births in West Virginia and 17,211 deaths. This provided a Vital Index of 304 births per 100 deaths which is a very good record. During the past 12 years, the infant death rate has dropped from 71.3 infant deaths per 1,000 live births in 1937 to 39.5 infant deaths per 1,000 live births in 1949. Nearly 75 percent of all deaths in West Virginia during 1949 resulted from ten leading causes. Heart disease continued to lead the list and accounted for 30 percent of all deaths. Cancer maintained second place as a leading killer and claimed 1,999 lives.

There now are over 115 well-child conferences functioning in the State and about 20,000 of the pre-school children were given health supervision during the year. The value of the center recently established for the care of prematurely born infants is beginning to show up in the vital records. The steadily decreasing number of deaths due to prematurity is most encouraging.

Services of the State Hygienic Laboratory continued to increase in scope and volume of work. Over 200,000 laboratory examinations were made to aid the control of sanitation. Another important aspect of laboratory service is the provision of biologics for the prevention of disease.

The program of venereal disease control continued in high gear. Records of the past year show a drop of about 26 percent for syphilis and about 12 percent for gonorrhea, in the number of cases reported. Through the case finding program 1,300 previously unknown cases of venereal disease were discovered. Over 2,500 patients were admitted to the West Virginia Medical Center for diagnosis, observation or treatment.

The dental health program continues to increase its scope. Fundamentally, the program embraces restoration clinics, dental health education activities and fluoride treatment clinics for the partial control of caries.

The prevention of mental illness and the promotion of mental health is a relatively new program so far as the state's public health program is concerned. There are now four full-time clinics in operation and one part-time clinic. The Human Relations in The Classroom program, conducted on a demonstration basis, reached about 7,000 children in 70 different schools.

Almost 1,000 needy cancer patients were given financial assistance in procuring medical and surgical care. This represents an increase of about 160 applicants over the previous year and resulted in the complete exhaustion of funds for the purpose of aiding the needy secure diagnosis and treatment for cancer. At least 126 persons are known to be living today as a result of treatment provided during 1944-45.

Well over 113,000 citizens of West Virginia were given free chest X-rays and over 5,100 persons were examined through the X-ray diagnostic clinics throughout the state. Last year in West Virginia there were about 27 tuberculosis deaths per 100,000 population, which is beginning to compare favorably with the national rate.

Last year 110 hospitals and medical care institutions were approved and granted licenses. Inspections were made in 31 child-caring institutions for the purpose of ascertaining the adequacy of medical care given to the children in these institutions.

Throughout the state, there was increasing activity in the improvement of public water supplies and milk supplies. Major emphasis was placed on the supervision of sanitation in food handling establishments; food handlers were given instruction and the inspection program was intensified.

The industrial hygiene program provided a more extensive professional service than ever before has been available in West Virginia. The number of industrial workers who benefitted goes into the many thousands.

The State Committee of Barbers and Beauticians conducted examinations for over 170 applicants and 350 certificates of registration were issued. All barbers and beauty shops were regularly inspected in the interest of sanitary facilities.

The expansion of the public health nursing service was greater during the past fiscal year than in many previous years. While still far below the number needed to provide even minimum service, there are now 112 nurses giving service in 49 counties. The expansion provided for new services in some counties which had no service previously and permitted better service in counties with existing public health nursing service.

In the field of public health education a noteworthy venture was the working conference on school health which brought together people from the schools and the health departments to work out common problems in the school health program.

The past year saw definite signs of progress in better health protection of our citizens. The active interest and understanding of the Governor and all other state and community leaders played no small part in helping to accomplish our goals.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

(WEST VIRGINIA STATE POLICE)

West Virginia is proud of its state police, nationally recognized as an outstanding law enforcement organization.

Its 200 professional policemen in distinctive forest green uniform perform a large share of the law enforcement in West Virginia. Among their routine duties are the investigation of serious crime, apprehension of dangerous criminals, protection of life and property, patrolling the highways and handling traffic.

The department now has thirty years of tradition and service behind it, having been created in 1919 to cope with conditions following the first World War. West Virginia was a pioneer among state law enforcement agencies, and has been widely copied by other states which have since established such departments.

Particularly admired has been the simple and flexible administrative set-up, which delegates large responsibility to commanders in the field. There is no time-consuming and inefficient division of police work within the organization. The detachment commander and his troopers in the field are trained and competent to handle immediately all police service of any nature when called upon.

The department utilizes the most modern methods, and its effectiveness lies in extreme mobility, with a large fleet of well-equipped two-way radio patrol cars, and an efficient network of radio communication. State policemen move quickly to apprehend dangerous criminals or to reach the scene of disaster or riot when their services are needed to protect life and property.

In Charleston the department maintains an Identification Bureau and Technical Laboratory for scientific examination of evidence. The Identification Bureau serves as the state bureau, receiving fingerprints from all law enforcement agencies for its reservoir of valuable information regarding crime and criminals. The Technical Laboratory has qualified personnel and equipment to make examination of physical evidence to aid in solution of crimes and to strengthen the chain of evidence against the accused in criminal cases. The Technical Laboratory serves city, county and other state law enforcement agencies as well as the state police department.

The success and prestige of the state police department is largely attributed to the high standards set for recruits and to the exceptional training given to every member. Applicants, to be eligible, must be between 21 and 30 years of age, high school graduates, at least 5' 9" tall, weigh not less than 155 pounds, be in good physical condition, and of good moral character as determined by a thorough investigation by a member of the department. Of those eligible, the best men are selected for enlistment by adaptability and intelligence tests and an extremely rigid physical examination.

The recruit entering the department attends a ten-week training school, where he learns military drill, self-defense, criminal law, first aid, investigation, care and use of firearms, techniques of arrest, identification and many other subjects useful to a professional policeman. Throughout his first year the new trooper is on probation, and when assigned to duty he is placed under close supervision until he gains the experience to make him a competent and valuable policeman. The recruit must measure up to the standards of men whose work calls for long hours, arduous duty, self-reliance, and the moral and physical courage which is a tradition of the service.

The new trooper is not eligible for promotion until he has had two years of service. After that his advancement is dependent upon merit as demonstrated by performance of duty, adherence to discipline, the respect which he commands, and his achievements in the apprehension of criminals and the investigation and prevention of crime and motor vehicle accidents, protection of life and property, and his qualities of leadership. The posts of higher responsibilities in the West Virginia State Police are held by veteran officers who have come up through the ranks by years of aggressive and faithful service of the highest order.

Besides their broad functions of law enforcement, the state police perform a host of minor services to benefit the citizen. They are a powerful force for crime prevention as they escort payrolls, attend large public gatherings, and mobilize at the scene of floods, fires or other disasters to discourage looting. The trooper on highway patrol is a powerful deterrent against the automobile thief, the criminal who transports his loot by automobile, and the irresponsible drunken and reckless drivers. The troopers examine all applicants for driver's license and school bus driver's license, inspect school buses and carry on a number of activities related to greater safety on the highway. The state police assist and cooperate with all agencies of government, working with city and county officers, game wardens, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and others in the interest of law and order.

COLLECTION OF REVENUE BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION TAX

West Virginia has imposed since 1921 a business and occupation tax in some form. This tax has been known erroneously as the "Gross Sales Tax," a designation which has included the privilege tax imposed on certain carrier corporations by the terms of Article 12 A, Chapter XI of the Code of West Virginia, as well as the business and occupation tax imposed by the terms of Article 13 of said Chapter XI. Money collected by virtue of these two tax laws is deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund of the State, and constitutes the largest single source of the State's general revenue raised by so-called "indirect" taxation. Several changes were effected by acts of the 1945 and 1947 Legislatures.

The 1945 Legislature changed the Business and Occupation Tax Law, Article 13, Chapter XI of the Code, by authorizing agents of municipalities having a gross sales tax ordinance to inspect and make copies of returns filed with the State Tax Commissioner upon the written request of the mayor of a proper municipality. (This enactment appears as Chapter 89 of the Acts of the Forty-Seventh Legislature of West Virginia.)

The 1947 Legislature also changed Section 3 of the Business and Occupation Tax Law by an enactment which appears as Chapter 153 of the Acts for 1947, under which persons engaged in conducting the business of industrial loans under authority granted by Article 7, Chapter 31, of the Code of 1931, as amended, were exempted from payment of Business and Occupation Tax. Section 2-f of the Business and Occupation Tax Law, imposing the tax on industrial loan companies, was repealed by the Legislature by an act which appears as Chapter 159 of the Acts for 1947.

Article 12-A was amended and reenacted by the 1947 Legislature to provide that no municipal corporation of the State should levy a license or privilege tax on motor vehicle carriers taxed under Section 4 on their gross income from business done within the State.

Business activities under Article 13 are classed and taxed as follows:

A. The mining and production of coal, oil, gas and other minerals, and the production of timber. The tax is measured by the value of the articles mined or produced as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the producer, the rates being applied against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

Coal.....	On each $100.00 value, $1.30
Sand, gravel, or other mineral products not quarried or mined; oil, blast furnace slag.....	On each $100.00 value, 3.90
Natural gas (exemptions include deduction of $5,000 annually).....	On each $100.00 value, 7.80
Limestone or sandstone quarried or mined; and timber.....	On each $100.00 value, 1.95
Other natural resource products.....	On each $100.00 value, 2.60

B. Manufacturing. The tax is measured by the value of the articles manufactured, compounded or prepared for sale in West Virginia, as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the manufacturer or person compounding or preparing the same. The rate of 39 cents on each $100.00 value applies against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of the sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

C. (1) Engaging in the business of selling tangible property, other than at wholesale. The rate, 50 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, without any deduction on account of the cost of the goods sold, operating or other expenses, or losses.

C. (2) Engaging in the business of selling tangible property at wholesale. The rate, 19½ cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, without any deduction on account of the cost of the goods sold, operating, or other expenses, or losses.

D. Certain public utilities. The rates set out below apply against the gross income of the business without deduction of cost of operation, expenses or losses of any kind.

Street Interurban and Electric Railways.....	On each $100.00 value, $1.30
Electric Light and Power Companies (sales and demand charges, domestic purposes and commercial lighting).....	On each $100.00 value, 5.20
Water Companies.....	On each $100.00 value, 4.00
Electric Light and Power Companies (all other sales and demand charges):
Natural Gas Companies; Toll Bridges.....	On each $100.00 value, 3.90
Natural Public Utilities—(Except telegraph and telephone companies, railways and other transportation companies).....	On each $100.00 value, 2.60

E. Engaging in the contracting business. The rate, $2.00 on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business. The term "gross income" is defined as meaning total receipts of the business without deduction for the cost of labor or material, operating, or other expenses, or losses.

G. Amusement business. The rate, 65 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, "gross income" being defined as including the total receipts without any deduction on account of the cost of operation, or other expenses, or losses.

H. All other business including service business. The rate, $1.00 on each $100.00 value, applies against the entire gross income of the business, with no deduction on account of cost of operation, taxes, losses or other expenses.
