Dear President Blair,

It is with the utmost respect that I submit my resignation from the West Virginia Senate, effective September 11, 2021.

During my tenure as Senator, my call has always been to serve and represent the people of the Sixteenth Senatorial District faithfully to the best of my abilities. Over the years, my life has been shaped by the relationships developed while serving in the capacity as Senator. I have been and continue to be incredibly blessed to know and work with such strong and resilient people who are invested in their families, communities, and state.

With the present conditions our state is facing, I feel called to focus all my attention, energies, and abilities in supporting the people by addressing the human condition caused by trauma, depression, fear, and addiction that is becoming more prevalent each day in our families and throughout our communities. Therefore, to do this, I will transition from the legislative branch to the judicial branch to serve the people as a Magistrate as well as continue to serve in ministry as a pastor and priest.

Sincerely,

(a) Any employer, employee, claimant, or dependent who shall feel aggrieved by a decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall have the right to appeal to the West Virginia Intermediate Court of Appeals, created by §51-11-1 et seq. of this code, for a review of such action. The Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, shall likewise have the right to appeal to the Intermediate Court of Appeals any final action taken by the Workers' Compensation Board of Review. The aggrieved party shall file a written notice of appeal with the Intermediate Court of Appeals, with a copy to the Workers' Compensation Board of Review, within 30 days after receipt of notice of the action complained of or, in any event, regardless of notice, within 60 days after the date of the action complained of: Provided, That unless the notice of appeal is filed within the time specified, no appeal shall be allowed: Provided, however, That the time limitation is a condition of the right to appeal and hence jurisdictional. The board shall notify the other parties immediately upon the filing of a notice of appeal. The notice of appeal shall state the grounds for review and whether oral argument is requested. The Workers' Compensation Board of Review, after receiving a copy of the notice of appeal, shall forthwith make up a transcript of any proceedings before the board of review and certify and transmit it to the Intermediate Court of Appeals. The certificate shall incorporate a brief recital of the proceedings in the matter and recite each order entered or decision issued and the date thereof.

(b) The Intermediate Court of Appeals shall set a time and place for the hearing of arguments on each claim and shall notify the interested parties thereof. The review by the court shall be based upon the record submitted to it and such oral argument as may be requested and received. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may affirm, reverse, modify, or supplement the decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review and make such disposition of the case as it determines to be appropriate. Briefs may be filed by the interested parties in accordance with the rules of procedure prescribed by the court. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may affirm the order or decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review or remand the case for further proceedings. It shall reverse, vacate, or modify the order or decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review, if the substantial rights of the petitioner or petitioners have been prejudiced because the Board of Review's findings are:

- (1) In violation of statutory provisions;
- (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Board of Review;
- (3) Made upon unlawful procedures;
- (4) Affected by other error of law;
- (5) Clearly wrong in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record; or
- (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

(c) After a review of the case, the Intermediate Court of Appeals shall issue a written decision and send a copy by mail to the parties.

(1) All decisions, findings of fact, and conclusions of law of the Intermediate Court of Appeals shall be in writing and state with specificity the laws and facts relied upon to sustain, reverse, or modify the Board of Review's decision.

(2) A decision of the Intermediate Court of Appeals is binding upon the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, with respect to the parties involved in the particular appeal. The Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, shall have the right to seek judicial review of a final decision of the Intermediate Court of Appeals, pursuant to ~~§51-11-13~~ §51-11-10 of this code, irrespective of whether the party appeared or participated in the appeal to the Intermediate Court of Appeals.

(d) Instead of affirming, reversing, or modifying the decision of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review, the Intermediate Court of Appeals may, upon motion of any party or upon its own motion, for good cause shown, to be set forth in the order of the court, remand the case to the Board of Review for the taking of such new, additional, or further evidence as in the opinion of the court considers necessary for a full and complete development of the facts of the case. In the event the Intermediate Court of Appeals shall remand the case to the Board of Review for the taking of further evidence, the Board of Review shall proceed to take new, additional, or further evidence in accordance with any instruction given by the court within 30 days after receipt of the order remanding the case. The Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall give to the interested parties at least 10 days' written notice of the supplemental hearing, unless the taking of evidence is postponed by agreement of parties, or by the Board of Review for good cause. After the completion of a supplemental hearing, the Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall, within 60 days, render its decision affirming, reversing, or modifying the former action of the Workers' Compensation Board of Review. The decision shall be appealable to, and proceeded with, by the Intermediate Court of Appeals in the same manner as other appeals. In addition, upon a finding of good cause, the court may remand the case to the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, for further development. Any decision made by the Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, following a remand, shall be subject to objection to the Workers' Compensation Board of Review and not to the Intermediate Court of Appeals. The Intermediate Court of Appeals may remand any case as often as, in its opinion, is necessary for a full development and just decision of the case.

(e) In all proceedings before the Intermediate Court of Appeals, any party may be represented by counsel.

(f) This section becomes effective on July 1, 2022.

Senate Bill 3034, Dividing state into senatorial districts.

On third reading, coming up in regular order, with the right having been granted on October 12, 2021, for amendments to be received on third reading, was reported by the Clerk.

On motions of Senators Rucker, Azinger, Tarr, Boley, and Martin, the following amendment to the bill was reported by the Clerk:

By striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE 2. APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATION.

§1-2-1. Senatorial districts.

(a) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Senate Redistricting Act of ~~2011~~ 2021.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) “County” means the territory comprising a county of this state as such county existed on January 1, ~~2010~~ 2020, notwithstanding any boundary changes thereof made subsequent thereto;

(2) ~~“Block” and “voting district”~~ “Tract”, “block group”, and “block” mean those geographic areas as those terms are respectively defined by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce for the taking of the ~~2010~~ 2020 census of population and described on census maps and data prepared by the Bureau of the Census. Such maps and data are, at the time of this enactment, maintained by the Bureau of the Census and ~~filed in the Redistricting Office of the Joint Committee on Government and Finance~~ have been provided to the West Virginia Legislature;

(3) “Incumbent senator” means ~~a senator elected at the general election held in the year 2010 or at any general election thereafter, with an unexpired term of at least two years in duration.;~~

(A) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2022,

(i) A senator elected at the general election held in the year 2020; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the general election held in 2020.

(B) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2024 or any general election thereafter,

(i) A senator elected at the immediately preceding general election; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the immediately preceding general election.

(c) The Legislature recognizes that in dividing the state into senatorial districts, the Legislature is bound not only by the United States Constitution but also by the West Virginia Constitution; that in any instance where the West Virginia Constitution conflicts with the United States Constitution, the United States Constitution must govern and control, as provided by article VI of the United States Constitution and as recognized in section one, article I of the West Virginia Constitution; that the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts, requires state legislatures to be apportioned so as to achieve equality of population as ~~near~~ nearly as is practicable, population disparities being permissible where justified by rational state policies, and population disparities being presumptively constitutional where the maximum population deviation between the largest and the smallest district is less than 10%, as recognized by the United States Supreme Court in Brown v. Thompson, 462 U.S. 835 (1983) and Evenwel v. Abbott, 136 S.Ct. 1120 (2016); and that the West Virginia Constitution requires two senators to be elected from each senatorial district for terms of four years each, one such senator being elected every two years, with one half of the senators being elected biennially, and requires senatorial districts to be compact, formed of contiguous territory and bounded by county lines. The Legislature finds and declares that it is not possible to divide the state into senatorial districts so as to achieve equality of population as near as is practicable as required by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts and at the same time adhere to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution; but that, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature, in dividing the state into senatorial districts, as described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section, has:

(1) Adhered to the equality of population concept, while at the same time recognizing that from the formation of this state in the year 1863, each Constitution of West Virginia and the statutes enacted by the Legislature have recognized political subdivision lines and many functions, policies, and programs of government have been implemented along political subdivision lines;

(2) Made the senatorial districts compact, consistent with the equality of population concept;

(3) Formed the senatorial districts of “contiguous territory” as that term has been construed and applied by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals;

(4) Deviated from the long-established state policy, recognized in subdivision (1) above, by crossing county lines only when necessary to ensure that all senatorial districts were formed of contiguous territory or when adherence to county lines produced unacceptable population inequalities and only to the extent necessary in order to maintain contiguity of territory and to achieve acceptable equality of population; and

(5) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the community of interests of the people involved.

(d) The Senate shall be composed of thirty-four senators, one senator to be elected at the general election to be held in the year

~~2012~~ 2022, and biennially thereafter for a four-year term from each of the senatorial districts hereinafter in this subsection described and constituted as follows:

(e) The West Virginia Constitution further provides, in section four, article VI thereof, that where a senatorial district is composed of more than one county, both senators for such district shall not be chosen from the same county, a residency dispersal provision which is clear with respect to senatorial districts which follow county lines, as required by such Constitution, but which is not clear in application with respect to senatorial districts which cross county lines. However, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to the West Virginia Constitution in this regard, the following additional provisions, in furtherance of the rationale of such residency dispersal provision and to give meaning and effect thereto, are hereby established:

(1) With respect to a senatorial district which is composed of one or more whole counties and one or more parts of another county or counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same county or from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; and

(2) With respect to a senatorial district which does not contain any whole county but only parts of two or more counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; ~~and~~.

~~(3) With respect to superimposed senatorial districts which contain only one whole county, all senators shall be chosen from such county to represent such senatorial districts.~~

(f) Candidates for the Senate shall be nominated as provided in ~~section four, article five, chapter three~~ §3-5-4 of this code, except that such candidates shall be nominated in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. Candidates for the Senate shall also be elected in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in said section and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. In furtherance of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, no person may file a certificate of candidacy for election from a multi-county senatorial district described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section if he or she resides in the same county ~~and the same such senatorial district wherein also resides~~ as an incumbent senator whose residence is located within that district, whether or not the senatorial numerical designation of that district wherein such incumbent senator resides was is the same as the numerical designation of the district described and constituted by chapter ten six, Acts of the Legislature, Fifth First Extraordinary Session 2001, or was described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section or its immediately prior enactment 2011 wherein the incumbent senator resides. Any vacancy in a nomination shall be filled, any appointment to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be made, and any candidates in an election to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be chosen so as to be consistent with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section.

(g) Regardless of the changes in senatorial district boundaries made by the provisions of subsection (d) of this section, ~~all senators~~ each senator elected at the general election held in the year ~~2008~~ 2018 and at the general election held in the year ~~2010~~ 2020 shall continue to hold ~~their seats~~ his or her seat as ~~members~~ a member of the Senate for the term, and as ~~representatives~~ a representative of the senatorial district, for which ~~each thereof, respectively,~~ he or she was elected. Any appointment made or election held to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be for the remainder of the term and as a representative of the senatorial district, for which the vacating senator was elected or appointed, and any such election shall be held in the district as the same was described and constituted at the time the vacating senator was elected or appointed.

(h) The Secretary of State may promulgate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section, including emergency rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of ~~section five, article three, chapter twenty nine a~~ §29A-3-5 of this code.

§1-2-2b. Precinct and magisterial district boundary changes; notice.

(a) If an election precinct of this state includes territory contained in more than one senatorial or delegate district, as such senatorial districts are established by ~~section one of this article~~ §1-2-1 of this Code and as such delegate districts are established by ~~section two of this article~~ §1-2-2 of this Code, or if following the legislative redistricting accomplished in §1-2-1 or §1-2-2 of this Code an election precinct change, division, or consolidation is necessary pursuant to §3-1-7 of this Code, the county commission of the county in which the precinct is located shall, prior to January ~~21, 2012~~ 22, 2022, alter the boundary lines of its election precincts so that no precinct contains territory included in more than one senatorial or delegate district. Notice of the proposed precinct changes shall be published via Class II-0 legal advertisement.

(b) If a magisterial district boundary change is required pursuant to §7-2-2 of this Code following the legislative redistricting accomplished §1-2-1 or §1-2-2 of this Code, notice of the proposed magisterial district boundary changes shall be published in the manner prescribed in §7-2-2 of this Code for a period of no less than 14 consecutive days prior to the term of court at which such action is proposed to be taken: Provided, That this subsection shall only apply to magisterial district boundary changes prior to January 22, 2022.

On motions of Senators Takubo and Trump, the following amendment to the amendment offered by Senators Rucker, Azinger, Tarr, Boley, and Martin to the bill (S. B. 3034) was reported by the Clerk:

By striking out everything after the article heading and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§1-2-1. Senatorial districts.

(a) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Senate Redistricting Act of ~~2011~~ 2021.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) “County” means the territory comprising a county of this state as such county existed on January 1, ~~2010~~ 2020, notwithstanding any boundary changes thereof made subsequent thereto;

(2) ~~“Block” and “voting district”~~ “Tract”, “block group”, and “block” mean those geographic areas as those terms are respectively defined by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce for the taking of the ~~2010~~ 2020 census of population and described on census maps and data prepared by the Bureau of the Census. Such maps and data are, at the time of this enactment, maintained by the Bureau of the Census and ~~filed in the Redistricting Office of the Joint Committee on Government and Finance~~ have been provided to the West Virginia Legislature;

(3) “Incumbent senator” means ~~a senator elected at the general election held in the year 2010 or at any general election thereafter, with an unexpired term of at least two years in duration;~~

(A) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2022,

(i) A senator elected at the general election held in the year 2020; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the general election held in 2020.

(B) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2024 or any general election thereafter,

(i) A senator elected at the immediately preceding general election; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the immediately preceding general election.

(c) The Legislature recognizes that in dividing the state into senatorial districts, the Legislature is bound not only by the United States Constitution but also by the West Virginia Constitution; that in any instance where the West Virginia Constitution conflicts with the United States Constitution, the United States Constitution must govern and control, as provided by article VI of the United States Constitution and as recognized in section one, article I of the West Virginia Constitution; that the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts, requires state legislatures to be apportioned so as to achieve equality of population as ~~near~~ nearly as is practicable, population disparities being permissible where justified by rational state policies, and population disparities being presumptively constitutional where the maximum population deviation between the largest and the smallest district is less than 10%, as recognized by the United States Supreme Court in Brown v. Thompson, 462 U.S. 835 (1983) and Evenwel v. Abbott, 136 S.Ct. 1120 (2016); and that the West Virginia Constitution requires two senators to be elected from each senatorial district for terms of four years each, one such senator being elected every two years, with one half of the senators being elected biennially, and requires senatorial districts to be compact, formed of contiguous territory and bounded by county lines. The Legislature finds and declares that it is not possible to divide the state into senatorial districts so as to achieve equality of population as near as is practicable as required by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts and at the same time adhere to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution; but that, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature, in dividing the state into senatorial districts, as described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section, has:

(1) Adhered to the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement as delineated in the cases referenced in subsection (c) of this section, while at the same time recognizing that from the formation of this state in the year 1863, each Constitution of West Virginia and the statutes enacted by the Legislature have recognized ~~political subdivision~~ county lines and many functions, policies, and programs of government have been implemented along ~~political subdivision~~ county lines;

(2) Made the senatorial districts ~~as compact as possible~~, consistent with the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement, and with the requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines;

(3) Formed the senatorial districts, without exception, of “contiguous territory” as that term has been construed and applied by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals;

(4) ~~Deviated from the long-established state policy, recognized in subdivision (1) above,~~ requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines by crossing county lines only when necessary to ensure that all senatorial districts were formed of contiguous territory or when adherence to county lines produced unacceptable population inequalities and only to the extent necessary in order to maintain contiguity of territory and to achieve acceptable equality of population;

(5) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the preservation of the cores of districts described and constituted by chapter six, Acts of the Legislature, First Extraordinary Session 2011; and

(6) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the community of interests of the people involved.

(d) The Senate shall be composed of thirty-four senators, one senator to be elected at the general election to be held in the year ~~2012~~ 2022, and biennially thereafter for a four-year term from each of the senatorial districts hereinafter in this subsection described and constituted as follows:

(1) The first senatorial district consists of the following counties, tracts, block groups, and blocks, together with their respective populations from the 2020 federal decennial census:

However, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to the West Virginia Constitution in this regard, the following additional provisions, in furtherance of the rationale of such residency dispersal provision and to give meaning and effect thereto, are hereby established:

(1) With respect to a senatorial district which is composed of one or more whole counties and one or more parts of another county or counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same county or from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; and

(2) With respect to a senatorial district which does not contain any whole county but only parts of two or more counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; ~~and~~.

~~(3) With respect to superimposed senatorial districts which contain only one whole county, all senators shall be chosen from such county to represent such senatorial districts.~~

(f) Candidates for the Senate shall be nominated as provided in ~~section four, article five, chapter three §3-5-4~~ of this code, except that such candidates shall be nominated in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. Candidates for the Senate shall also be elected in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in said section and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. In furtherance of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, no person may file a certificate of candidacy for election from a multi-county senatorial district described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section if he or she resides in the same county ~~and the same such senatorial district wherein also resides~~ as an incumbent senator whose residence is located within that district, whether or not the senatorial numerical designation of that district wherein such incumbent senator resides was is the same as the numerical designation of the district described and constituted by chapter ~~ten~~ six, Acts of the Legislature, Fifth First Extraordinary Session 2001, ~~or was described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section or its immediately prior enactment 2011 wherein the incumbent senator resides~~. Any vacancy in a nomination shall be filled, any appointment to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be made, and any candidates in an election to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be chosen so as to be consistent with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section.

(g) Regardless of the changes in senatorial district boundaries made by the provisions of subsection (d) of this section, ~~all senators~~ each senator elected at the general election held in the year ~~2008~~ 2018 and at the general election held in the year ~~2010~~ 2020 shall continue to hold ~~their seats~~ his or her seat as ~~members~~ a member of the Senate for the term, and as ~~representatives~~ a representative of the senatorial district, for which ~~each thereof, respectively,~~ he or she was elected. Any appointment made or election held to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be for the remainder of the term and as a representative of the senatorial district, for which the vacating senator was elected or appointed, and any such election shall be held in the district as the same was described and constituted at the time the vacating senator was elected or appointed.

(h) The Secretary of State may promulgate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section, including emergency rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of ~~section five, article three, chapter twenty nine a~~ §29A-3-5 of this code.

§1-2-2b. Precinct and magisterial district boundary changes; notice.

(a) If an election precinct of this state includes territory contained in more than one senatorial or delegate district, as such senatorial districts are established by ~~section one of this article~~ §1-2-1 of this Code and as such delegate districts are established by ~~section two of this article~~ §1-2-2 of this Code, or if following the legislative redistricting accomplished in §1-2-1 or §1-2-2 of this Code an election precinct change, division, or consolidation is necessary pursuant to §3-1-7 of this Code, the county commission of the county in which the precinct is located shall, prior to January 21, 2012 22, 2022, alter the boundary lines of its election precincts so that no precinct contains territory included in more than one senatorial or delegate district. Notice of the proposed precinct changes shall be published via Class II-0 legal advertisement.

ARTICLE 2. APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATION.

§1-2-1. Senatorial districts.

(a) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Senate Redistricting Act of ~~2011~~ 2021.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "County" means the territory comprising a county of this state as such county existed on January 1, ~~2010~~ 2020, notwithstanding any boundary changes thereof made subsequent thereto;

(2) ~~"Block" and "voting district"~~ "Tract", "block group", and "block" mean those geographic areas as those terms are respectively defined by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce for the taking of the ~~2010~~ 2020 census of population and described on census maps and data prepared by the Bureau of the Census. Such maps and data are, at the time of this enactment, maintained by the Bureau of the Census and ~~filed in the Redistricting Office of the Joint Committee on Government and Finance~~ have been provided to the West Virginia Legislature;

(3) "Incumbent senator" means ~~a senator elected at the general election held in the year 2010 or at any general election thereafter, with an unexpired term of at least two years in duration.;~~

(A) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2022,

(i) A senator elected at the general election held in the year 2020; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the general election held in 2020.

(B) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2024 or any general election thereafter,

(i) A senator elected at the immediately preceding general election; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the immediately preceding general election.

(c) The Legislature recognizes that in dividing the state into senatorial districts, the Legislature is bound not only by the United States Constitution but also by the West Virginia Constitution; that in any instance where the West Virginia Constitution conflicts with the United States Constitution, the United States Constitution must govern and control, as provided by article VI of the United States Constitution and as recognized in section one, article I of the West Virginia Constitution; that the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts, requires state legislatures to be apportioned so as to achieve equality of population as ~~near~~ nearly as is practicable, population disparities being permissible where justified by rational state policies, and population disparities being presumptively constitutional where the maximum population deviation between the largest and the smallest district is less than 10%, as recognized by the United States Supreme Court in Brown v. Thompson, 462 U.S. 835 (1983) and Evenwel v. Abbott, 136 S.Ct. 1120 (2016); and that the West Virginia Constitution requires two senators to be elected from each senatorial district for terms of four years each, one such senator being elected every two years, with one half of the senators being elected biennially, and requires senatorial districts to be compact, formed of contiguous territory and bounded by county lines. The Legislature finds and declares that it is not possible to divide the state into senatorial districts so as to achieve equality of population as near as is practicable as required by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts and at the same time adhere to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution; but that, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature, in dividing the state into senatorial districts, as described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section, has:

(1) Adhered to the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement as delineated in the cases referenced in subsection (c) of this section, while at the same time recognizing that from the formation of this state in the year 1863, each Constitution of West Virginia and the statutes enacted by the Legislature have recognized ~~political subdivision~~ county lines and many functions, policies, and programs of government have been implemented along ~~political subdivision~~ county lines;

(2) Made the senatorial districts ~~as compact as possible~~, consistent with the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement, and with the requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines;

(3) Formed the senatorial districts, without exception, of “contiguous territory” as that term has been construed and applied by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals;

(4) ~~Deviated from the long-established state policy, recognized in subdivision (1) above,~~ requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines by crossing county lines only when necessary to ensure that all senatorial districts were formed of contiguous territory or when adherence to county lines produced unacceptable population inequalities and only to the extent necessary in order to maintain contiguity of territory and to achieve acceptable equality of population;

(5) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the preservation of the cores of districts described and constituted by chapter six, Acts of the Legislature, First Extraordinary Session 2011; and

(6) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the community of interests of the people involved.

(d) The Senate shall be composed of thirty-four senators, one senator to be elected at the general election to be held in the year ~~2012~~ 2022, and biennially thereafter for a four-year term from each of the senatorial districts hereinafter in this subsection described and constituted as follows:

In furtherance of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, no person may file a certificate of candidacy for election from a multi-county senatorial district described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section if he or she resides in the same county ~~and the same such senatorial district wherein also resides~~ as an incumbent senator whose residence is located within that district, whether or not the senatorial numerical designation of that district wherein such incumbent senator resides was is the same as the numerical designation of the district described and constituted by chapter ~~ten~~ six, Acts of the Legislature, ~~Fifth~~ First Extraordinary Session 2001, or was described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section or its immediately prior enactment 2011 wherein the incumbent senator resides. The Senate proceeded to the twelfth order of business.

Remarks were made by Senator Phillips.

On motion of Senator Takubo, at 5:15 p.m., the Senate recessed until 6 p.m. today.

The Senate reconvened at 7:10 p.m.

At the request of Senator Karnes, and by unanimous consent, the provisions of Rule 54 of the Rules of the Senate, relating to persons entitled to the privileges of the floor, were suspended in order to grant Seth Karnes, son of the Honorable Robert L. The Senate resumed business under the third order.

A message from the Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the amendment by that body, passage as amended, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the House of Delegates amendment, as to

On motion of Senator Trump, the bill was taken up for immediate consideration.

The following House of Delegates amendment to the bill was reported by the Clerk:

After the enacting clause, by striking out the remainder of the bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE 2. APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATION.

§1-2-1. Senatorial districts.

(a) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Senate Redistricting Act of ~~2011~~ 2021.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) “County” means the territory comprising a county of this state as such county existed on January 1, ~~2010~~ 2020, notwithstanding any boundary changes thereof made subsequent thereto;

(2) ~~“Block” and “voting district”~~ “Tract”, “block group”, and “block” mean those geographic areas as those terms are respectively defined by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce for the taking of the ~~2010~~ 2020 census of population and described on census maps and data prepared by the Bureau of the Census. Such maps and data are, at the time of this enactment, maintained by the Bureau of the Census and ~~filed in the Redistricting Office of the Joint Committee on Government and Finance~~ have been provided to the West Virginia Legislature;

(3) “Incumbent senator” means ~~a senator elected at the general election held in the year 2010 or at any general election thereafter, with an unexpired term of at least two years in duration.;~~

(A) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2022,

(i) A senator elected at the general election held in the year 2020; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the general election held in 2020.

(B) For purposes of the general election to be held in the year 2024 or any general election thereafter,

(i) A senator elected at the immediately preceding general election; or

(ii) A senator appointed to complete the term of office of a senator who was elected at the immediately preceding general election.

(c) The Legislature recognizes that in dividing the state into senatorial districts, the Legislature is bound not only by the United States Constitution but also by the West Virginia Constitution; that in any instance where the West Virginia Constitution conflicts with the United States Constitution, the United States Constitution must govern and control, as provided by article VI of the United States Constitution and as recognized in section one, article I of the West Virginia Constitution; that the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts, requires state legislatures to be apportioned so as to achieve equality of population as ~~near~~ nearly as is practicable, population disparities being permissible where justified by rational state policies, and population disparities being presumptively constitutional where the maximum population deviation between the largest and the smallest district is less than 10%, as recognized by the United States Supreme Court in Brown v. Thompson, 462 U.S. 835 (1983) and Evenwel v. Abbott, 136 S.Ct. 1120 (2016); and that the West Virginia Constitution requires two senators to be elected from each senatorial district for terms of four years each, one such senator being elected every two years, with one half of the senators being elected biennially, and requires senatorial districts to be compact, formed of contiguous territory and bounded by county lines. The Legislature finds and declares that it is not possible to divide the state into senatorial districts so as to achieve equality of population as near as is practicable as required by the United States Supreme Court and other federal courts and at the same time adhere to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution; but that, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to all of these provisions of the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature, in dividing the state into senatorial districts, as described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section, has:

(1) Adhered to the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement as delineated in the cases referenced in subsection (c) of this section, while at the same time recognizing that from the formation of this state in the year 1863, each Constitution of West Virginia and the statutes enacted by the Legislature have recognized ~~political subdivision~~ county lines and many functions, policies, and programs of government have been implemented along ~~political subdivision~~ county lines;

(2) Made the senatorial districts ~~as compact as possible~~, consistent with the equality of population ~~concept~~ requirement, and with the requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines;

(3) Formed the senatorial districts, without exception, of “contiguous territory” as that term has been construed and applied by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals;

(4) Deviated from the ~~long established state policy, recognized in subdivision (1) above~~, requirement of section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution that senatorial districts be bounded by county lines by crossing county lines only when necessary to ensure that all senatorial districts were formed of contiguous territory or when adherence to county lines produced unacceptable population inequalities and only to the extent necessary in order to maintain contiguity of territory and to achieve acceptable equality of population;

(5) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the preservation of the cores of districts described and constituted by chapter six, Acts of the Legislature, First Extraordinary Session 2011; and

(6) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the extent feasible, the community of interests of the people involved.

(d) The Senate shall be composed of thirty-four senators, one senator to be elected at the general election to be held in the year ~~2012~~ 2022, and biennially thereafter for a four-year term from each of the senatorial districts hereinafter in this subsection described and constituted as follows:

(e) The West Virginia Constitution further provides, in section four, article VI thereof, that where a senatorial district is composed of more than one county, both senators for such district shall not be chosen from the same county, a residency dispersal provision which is clear with respect to senatorial districts which follow county lines, as required by such Constitution, but which is not clear in application with respect to senatorial districts which cross county lines. However, in an effort to adhere as closely as possible to the West Virginia Constitution in this regard, the following additional provisions, in furtherance of the rationale of such residency dispersal provision and to give meaning and effect thereto, are hereby established:

(1) With respect to a senatorial district which is composed of one or more whole counties and one or more parts of another county or counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same county or from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; and

(2) With respect to a senatorial district which does not contain any whole county but only parts of two or more counties, no more than one senator shall be chosen from the same part or parts of a county to represent such senatorial district; and.

~~(3) With respect to superimposed senatorial districts which contain only one whole county, all senators shall be chosen from such county to represent such senatorial districts.~~

(f) Candidates for the Senate shall be nominated as provided in ~~section four, article five, chapter three~~ §3-5-4 of this code, except that such candidates shall be nominated in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. Candidates for the Senate shall also be elected in accordance with the residency dispersal provisions specified in said section and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section. In furtherance of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, no person may file a certificate of candidacy for election from a multi-county senatorial district described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section if he or she resides in the same county ~~and the same such senatorial district wherein also resides~~ as an incumbent senator whose residence is located within that district, whether or not the senatorial numerical designation of that district wherein such incumbent senator resides was is the same as the numerical designation of the district described and constituted by chapter ~~ten six~~, Acts of the Legislature, ~~Fifth First~~ Extraordinary Session 2001, ~~or was described and constituted in subsection (d) of this section or its immediately prior enactment 2011 wherein the incumbent senator resides~~. Any vacancy in a nomination shall be filled, any appointment to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be made, and any candidates in an election to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be chosen so as to be consistent with the residency dispersal provisions specified in section four, article VI of the West Virginia Constitution and the additional residency dispersal provisions specified in subsection (e) of this section.

(g) Regardless of the changes in senatorial district boundaries made by the provisions of subsection (d) of this section, ~~all senators~~ each senator elected at the general election held in the year ~~2008~~ 2018 and at the general election held in the year ~~2010~~ 2020 shall continue to hold ~~their seats~~ his or her seat as ~~members~~ a member of the Senate for the term, and as ~~representatives~~ a representative of the senatorial district, for which ~~each thereof, respectively,~~ he or she was elected. Any appointment made or election held to fill a vacancy in the Senate shall be for the remainder of the term and as a representative of the senatorial district, for which the vacating senator was elected or appointed, and any such election shall be held in the district as the same was described and constituted at the time the vacating senator was elected or appointed.

(h) The Secretary of State may promulgate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section, including emergency rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of ~~section five, article three, chapter twenty nine a~~ §29A-3-5 of this code.

§1-2-2b. Precinct and magisterial district boundary changes; notice.

(a) If an election precinct of this state includes territory contained in more than one senatorial or delegate district, as such senatorial districts are established by ~~section one of this article~~ §1-2-1 of this Code and as such delegate districts are established by section two of this article §1-2-2 of this Code, or if following the legislative redistricting accomplished in §1-2-1 or §1-2-2 of this Code an election precinct change, division, or consolidation is necessary pursuant to §3-1-7 of this Code, the county commission of the county in which the precinct is located shall, prior to January 21, 2012 22, 2022, alter the boundary lines of its election precincts so that no precinct contains territory included in more than one senatorial or delegate district. Notice of the proposed precinct changes shall be published via Class II-0 legal advertisement.

The nays were: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. 3034) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That the Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

A message from the Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage, to take effect from passage, of

A message from the Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the Senate amendments to, and the passage as amended, of Eng. House Bill 335, Relating to COVID-19 immunizations requirements for employment in the public and private sectors.

Eng. House Bill 339—A Bill to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §31G-1A-7, relating to creating the Broadband Development Fund; providing for the administration of the fund, sources of funding for the fund, and the purposes for expenditures from the fund; authorizing expenditures from the fund from collections and pursuant to legislative appropriations; and requiring certification of projects to Joint Committee on Government and Finance prior to expenditures.

At the request of Senator Takubo, unanimous consent being granted, the bill was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, read a first time, and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Takubo, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Beach, Caputo, Maroney, Nelson, Romano, Smith, Weld, and Woelfel—8.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. 339) passed with its title.

Senator Takubo moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Azinger, Baldwin, Boley, Brown, Clements, Geffert, Grady, Hamilton, Jeffries, Karnes, Lindsay, Martin, Maynard, Phillips, Plymale, Roberts, Rucker, Stollings, Stover, Swope, Sypolt, Takubo, Tarr, Trump, Woodrum, and Blair (Mr. President)—26.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Beach, Caputo, Maroney, Nelson, Romano, Smith, Weld, and Woelfel—8.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. 339) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That the Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

The Senate proceeded to the sixth order of business.

At the request of Senator Takubo, and by unanimous consent, Senator Takubo offered the following pre-adjournment resolution from the floor:

Senate Resolution 303—Raising a committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to notify the House of Delegates that the Senate has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Takubo, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Senator Blair (Mr. President), under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, appointed the following committee to notify the House of Delegates of impending Senate adjournment:

Senators Rucker, Roberts, and Brown.

Subsequently, Senator Rucker reported that the duties assigned by Senate Resolution 303 had been performed.

Thereafter, a three-member delegation from the House of Delegates, namely Delegates Graves, Phillips, and Boggs, announced that that body also had completed its labors and was ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Takubo, unanimous consent being granted, Senator Takubo offered the following resolution from the floor:

Senate Resolution 304—Raising a committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to join with a similar committee of the House of Delegates to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Takubo, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, Senator Blair (Mr. President) appointed the following committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Senate was ready to adjourn:

Senators Swope, Maynard, and Geffert.

Delegates Steele, Foster, and Brown, then announced that they had been appointed by that body to join with the similar committee named by the Senate to wait upon His Excellency and were ready to proceed with this assignment.

Senators Swope, Maynard, and Geffert, comprising the Senate committee, then joined the House committee and proceeded to the executive offices to notify His Excellency, the Governor, of imminent adjournment of this extraordinary session of the Legislature.

Subsequently, Senator Swope, from the joint select committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature had completed the business of this extraordinary session and was ready to adjourn sine die, returned to the chamber and was recognized by the President.

Senator Swope then reported this mission accomplished.

At the request of Senator Maynard, unanimous consent being granted, the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was granted permission, after it has examined, found truly enrolled and presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, bills passed but not presented to him prior to adjournment of this third extraordinary session of the eighty-fifth Legislature in the year two thousand twenty-one, to file its reports with the Clerk and that the same be included in the Journal of the last day of the session; and also, that any communications from His Excellency, the Governor, as to his action on bills after adjournment of the session, be included in the Journal.

In accordance with the foregoing unanimous consent agreement, the following report of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was filed as follows:

Senator Lindsay, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 22nd day of October, 2021, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bills, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

Appendix — Remarks

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE CAPUTO

Tuesday, October 12, 2021

SENATOR CAPUTO: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'm sad to report that yesterday West Virginia lost a great public servant, and I lost a very, very dear friend. Former member of this Senate, Mr. President, Orphy Klempa lost his battle with bladder cancer.

Orphy was a long-time union leader. He served in the West Virginia House of Delegates. He served in the West Virginia Senate. And he finished his career serving as an Ohio County Commissioner. He devoted his entire life to helping people whether it was through his union or through public office.

Mr. President, I would ask at this time that we offer our condolences to his beautiful wife, Mary Jo, and his beautiful family by honoring my friend, Orphy Klempa, with a moment of silence.

HONORABLE
MICHAEL A. WOELFEL

Friday, October 15, 2021

SENATOR WOELFEL: Thank you, Mr. President.

Since we have a few minutes to ponder the future . . . I think I can give us something to think about over the weekend.

Of course, June the seventh of this year you appointed me and others to serve on the Redistricting Committee. And since that time, so many people have put so much effort into that process. I'll start with the Judiciary Chair, the Senator from Morgan. But . . . the Senator from Putnam has been there. My Senator from Marion. I'm leaving the other Senator from Putnam, the Senior Senator from Putnam . . . Anyway, a lot of people but, particularly our staff . . . and I'm leaving some other people out. Of course, the Senator from Brooke and others, anyway . . .

We took that seriously and the staff did an amazing job. And we met in every community in this state virtually. Every area. It felt like every community, I'm sure, to the Senator from Morgan. But everybody put a lot of heart and soul into that. And so, for that, I want to say thank you.

Now, Monday, we're going to have a vote on redistricting it looks like on a map—and every map has had a name on it that I've seen. Now, most of them are named after the Senator from Morgan for some reason . . . But, there are a lot of maps. But there's one map that doesn't have a name. And I'm going to call it the poor bastardized map. It's got no mother, no father, no sponsor that I've seen yet. And that's the map we're going to vote on, on Monday. It's the map that came out of the dark of night a couple of nights ago, really, I think, in contravention of the tenor and the hope and the predictions, the aspirations, of our committee and of our mission.

Now, one of the things I love about being a part of this citizen legislature is that we bring so many different talents from so many different walks of life. I know that in the last few months, I've learned a number of us are epidemiologists. We're experts in climate science. Many other . . . medicine, you name it. But I'm sort of an expert in the West Virginia Constitution. I've litigated over 135 cases in state and federal courts in the last couple of years on the West Virginia Constitution. So, I'm a big fan of the West Virginia Constitution. I want to read a little bit of the Preamble because I think it's very important to us as we vote on this map:

"Since through Divine Providence we enjoy the blessings of civil, political and religious liberty, we, the people of West Virginia, in and through the provisions of this Constitution, reaffirm our faith in and [our] constant reliance upon God and [we] seek [to] diligently . . . promote, preserve and perpetuate good government in the state of West Virginia . . ."

Now, I learned today that to be seated in this body one must take an oath. I know we all take an oath, but you can't be seated without the oath. Now that oath provides in very clear language that we will uphold the Constitution of West Virginia.

Article 6, Section 4 of our West Virginia Constitution—which we all agreed and swore to God that we would uphold—it tells us that our redistricting, our Senate districts, quoting, are to be compact, are to be bounded by county lines.

Now, I will tell you that this map, this map that came out the other night with no name on it, does not comport with the West Virginia Constitution.

Now, you're saying there's a Democrat over there just trying to mislead us maybe, but I'm going to tell you where you're going to hear these words that I've spoken today again. You're going to hear them . . . I don't claim to be Nostradamus, Mr. President, but I will say in December of this year, in December of this year, five people are going to say what I just said. And I'm going to name their names. I'm going to say their names: Chief Justice Evan H. Jenkins, Justice Tim Armstead, Justice Elizabeth D. Walker, Justice John A. Hutchison, Justice William R. Wooton. Because each of those people took an oath when they took the high court, when they put on the robe. And they will, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, they will obey their oath. They will pay no attention to politics. They will apply the law. Because those are the people they are. I know each of them. Many of us do. Those people will not play any kind of political games with a map.

So, I ask us, please, over the weekend, think about your oath. Think about what we've said we would do. Now, we say a lot of prayers in here and I got to tell you . . . I've got about a minute left, I think, Mr. President. I came out of the Greenbrier Valley this morning. Came off Cold Knob. Elevation 4,000 feet where I'm blessed to have a home. Not down with the rich people. Up there where there are more bears than people. And as I came out of there I thought about my forbearers who came from the Emerald Isle and settled in and around Williamsburg, West Virginia. They would gather at midnight in Williamsburg, West Virginia, and they would get on wagons and walk to Ronceverte to Mass. They would walk until 8 o'clock the next morning . . . from midnight. And you couldn't eat. If you were going to take Holy Communion, you could not eat or drink. And they walked that far. That was their faith. An oath meant a lot to those people.

You don't hear me say a prayer because I don't really know that I'm worthy enough to say a public prayer. But they inspired me today to say, please, I know you're serious people. I know you will take your oaths seriously. When you vote on this map, say a prayer, follow your conscience, and follow the Constitution.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Dividing state into senatorial districts

(Adoption of amendment offered by Senators Trump, Takubo, Tarr, Karnes, and Rucker to Eng. Senate Bill 3034)

REMARKS OF HONORABLE RICHARD D. LINDSAY II

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise in opposition to this amendment. My objection is not a reflection of the good work that the Senator from Morgan and Chairman of the Redistricting Committee has committed for the last several weeks and months. It's been a long process. I object because I believe this amendment is a disservice to the people of Kanawha County. It is the one county that is split three ways. Whereas, according to the original bill, Trump 8, that did pass committee, Kanawha County was split in two ways. So, I believe that, again, this amendment is a disservice to the people of Kanawha County in that it is split three ways and I object on that basis.

Two more things that I want to say—just real quick—going back to the work of the committee. I want to take a moment and just thank the staff, Liz Schindzielorz, Adair Sankoff—Brittany Carowick and Wes Toney on our end—that have put in countless hours, stayed many a nights to try to get this final product to the floor. I'm going to speak for the people of West Virginia and thank you for your work.

Otherwise—and I think I'm going to speak for the Senator of the Eighth—we look forward to representing the good people of Jackson, Roane, and Clay.

Thank you.

Dividing state into senatorial districts

(Passage of Eng. Senate Bill 3034)

REMARKS OF HONORABLE CHARLES S. TRUMP IV

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR TRUMP: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'll be brief.

I would be remiss if I didn't join my friend and colleague from the eighth in expressing my appreciation, and the appreciation of the whole body I think, to the staff who worked so hard for so long in crafting this: Liz, Adair, Bev, Brittany, Wes, and I'm sure I'm leaving out people.

I think this is a good plan, Mr. President. In my opinion, it is a constitutional plan.

And I want to also thank you. You, Mr. President, authorized the expenditure of funds for public hearings all around this state. In my opinion, that was an important part of this process. You have And those were in-person and on the Internet. You've made sure, we've all made sure I think this is a really important thing. You know, sometimes the process is as important, or perhaps more important, than the end result. Although it's a process to achieve an end result. But as I stand here on the floor right now, I can say we have never on this floor of the Senate discussed a plan that wasn't available already on the Internet for every person in West Virginia who chose to look at what we were talking about, to see. And I think that level of openness can only be achieved, was only achieved, as a result of your leadership, Mr. President, and your willingness to make that happen. And I'm very grateful for it.

And, you know, this has been an agonizing, in some ways, process. A very interesting process. But, Mr. President, I think our end result is a good work product. It'd be good for the citizens of West Virginia. And I urge passage of the bill.

*(Adoption of Senator Tarr's amendments to Eng.
House Bill 335)*

HONORABLE
MICHAEL J. ROMANO
AND
ERIC J. TARR

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR ROMANO: Will the Senator from Putnam yield?

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Senior Senator from the Fourth yield? Senator yields.

SENATOR ROMANO: Thank you, Mr. President.

Senator, I'm viewing your amendment here. Do you understand that the laws that we're going to violate are not part of the Constitution? The federal laws that are going to be violated by the bill that's before us, that your amendment will apply to, that diminishes the requirements for both a medical exemption and a religious exemption, are not constitutional laws. In other words, our bill will not violate the Constitution, it will be violative of the federal laws, but it will not be declared unconstitutional or invalid.

SENATOR TARR: If there is a federal law that is in contradiction at all to our law here, it would be invalid because federal law trumps as supreme to state law.

SENATOR ROMANO: It doesn't. It doesn't trump . . . federal law does not trump state law . . . the Constitution does. But federal rules and regulations can only be applied to those entities and persons to which it's directed. So, Medicaid and Medicare, if there's a federal requirement that facilities receiving Medicaid and Medicare vaccinate their employees, our law won't be violative of that. Our law will have to be followed by our hospitals and our nursing homes and they will be in violation of Medicare and Medicaid law and their funds could be withheld.

SENATOR TARR: I'm going to read to you the federal Supremacy Clause for anybody who's following along here. The Supremacy Clause of the Constitution of the United States in Article VI, Clause 2 establishes the Constitution, excuse me, establishes that the Constitution, federal laws made pursuant to it and treaties made under its authority constitute the supreme law of the land.

It wouldn't matter if we amended our Constitution, if it was in conflict with federal law, it would be null and void because the federal law is the law of the land.

SENATOR ROMANO: Our law will only be invalid if it's found to be unconstitutional.

What you're going to do is set up a bad decision for our hospitals and nursing homes to make them choose between West Virginia state law, which is this rather watered-down version of a religious and medical exemption, and federal law that is going to mandate vaccines for certain facilities which receive federal funds.

It's kind of like the law in the United States is 70 miles an hour but they enforce that by withholding highway funds. They can't make us have our speed limit at 70 miles an hour. But if we want federal highway funds, our speed limit's 70 miles an hour. It's the same situation here. We're not going to have an unconstitutional law, we're going to have a law that's contrary to theirs. And you're going to put our hospitals and nursing homes in a position to have to make a decision whether they want to get reimbursed from Medicare and Medicaid or subject to legal action by the citizens who work in their facilities and don't want to take vaccines.

I mean, what is the issue, if you could explain it to me, with simply complying with federal law and being able to take advantage of the medical and religious exemptions in federal law?

SENATOR TARR: So, presently, right now, there is nothing in federal law that sets an exemption process for us in West Virginia although there are federal employees that have exemptions.

But I want to go back to something that you said though because I believe you are incorrect on is And most people here know that I am a physical therapist, and I've worked in hospital settings, and I own businesses in health care. I'm very familiar with CMS. I'm very familiar with Medicare reimbursement. I'm very familiar with Medicaid reimbursement. And so, if a rule goes through that says that in order to be paid by Medicaid or Medicare, or to be a contractor therewith, that you have to have a vaccination mandate in place . . . this . . . there's a mandate. This thing . . . this bill does not eliminate mandates. There's nothing in the bill that we are about to consider, nor anything in the amendment that we are considering at this point, that says any entity cannot have a vaccine mandate. So, there is nothing here that's going to conflict with that. And I think that's being mischaracterized.

SENATOR ROMANO: Well, I disagree with you.

What we change is the way that you can be exempted out of that. We essentially are saying by the bill that's before us that you could write on a post-it note that I have a religious objection to taking a vaccine, have it notarized, and you have a religious exemption.

What are we going to do when we have a war, Senator, and we require young men to enter the draft and put their names and their lives at risk? Are we going to allow them to write on a post-it note that I have a religious objection to going and fighting in this war, signed Mike Romano? We won't have any soldiers. And that's the precedent that we're setting here for a religious exemption. That's wrong.

Title VII protects people with religious exemptions, with deeply held religious beliefs. There's a process. It's covered by common law that goes back beyond Muhammad Ali when he tried to get out of Vietnam. And did. And successfully, he did get out of it. And granted, it's not easy. But it's necessary in order to avoid everybody writing on that yellow post-it note, "I don't want to go fight in your war, Mike Romano", and having it notarized.

Do you believe that if we water down those requirements for religious and medical exemptions that we're going to be in compliance with whatever federal mandate or rules that they pass for physical therapists, and nursing homes, and hospitals?

SENATOR TARR: You're talking apples and oranges here.

Federal law, if they are going to enlist somebody to go to war, it doesn't matter what we say here in this state on this. Whatever federal policy they have put in place is going to determine that. So, what I hope is that the members that are hearing this conversation are not confusing the issue because I think, Senator, that may be where people are following you to is a point of confusion. We are not setting federal law. We are not setting anything that's going to have to do with a service member. Any federal law that would come into place would trump anything that we do here.

You know, in fact, anytime that we pass laws in this body, we did one this special session on the ABLE Act—that I believe everybody that was in their chair voted for if I recall correctly—that when we pass a bill that becomes law that then is not consistent with any federal law that may change later, we go back and we bring it in compliance. And the reason we bring it back in compliance is couplefold. One is that, that law has supremacy over ours. The other thing is, is that when you're talking about them, reimbursement issues. So, if on the ABLE Act . . . is a good one to compare it to is because it was who can contribute to a fund that is going to support a disabled person later on so that, that asset does not count against the benefits they receive. We want it to be consistent with that, with the West Virginia federal law . . . excuse me, West Virginia state law with the federal law. And we changed it to do that.

So, I think that you're confusing two issues. You're talking about apples and oranges.

SENATOR ROMANO: I don't quite understand the apples and oranges analogy, but I appreciate it.

I mean, the issue here is if federal law's already in place and we're not circumventing it, why do we need this bill? The medical exemption is in the proposed rules and says that each client, parent or legal guardian of the client's, will be informed of the client's medical condition, behavioral status, attendant risk of treatment, and the rights to refuse to treatment. If facilities cannot take advantage of adverse action of a client or representative, or refuses the vaccine, including social isolation detention, that's for patients. You come down to employees, it says the same thing, that they have to be fully informed and that they can only receive the medical exemption if there's a contraindication medically documented in their medical file that indicates they should not get the vaccine. But my question to you is, Senator, if we're complying with federal law which is already in place, why do we need this bill? There's already a medical exemption, already a religious exemption. So why are we taking the risk and putting our hospitals, nursing homes, and medical providers like you at risk at not receiving reimbursement?

SENATOR TARR: I'll be very happy to speak to that bill in just a little bit after we adopt this amendment.

SENATOR ROMANO: Say it again, sir.

SENATOR TARR: I'll be very happy to speak to the bill itself after the body considers this amendment.

SENATOR ROMANO: Why don't we just put in there instead of having in your amendment where it says that such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any other provisions in here? Why don't we say that it cannot be contrary to federal law? That the religious and medical exemptions cannot be contrary to federal law.

SENATOR TARR: There is . . . Well, for one point, I think this language that you have here's pretty standard for things that we have throughout the code . . . that goes in when legislators have had concerns that if we pass a law and there's a difference between federal law and state law, that we want to have something that expressly states that should it be in conflict, that the federal law has supremacy. Which is . . .

SENATOR ROMANO: Then why don't we say that?

SENATOR TARR: . . . already the case.

SENATOR ROMANO: Why are limiting it just to constitutionality? Why don't we say, "Is contrary to any federal law"?

SENATOR TARR: Because this accomplishes what I intended to accomplish with the amendment, Senator.

SENATOR ROMANO: I'll disagree with you, sir. But . . . let me ask you this. Why is every major hospital, every major medical association in the state, and the Chamber of Commerce all against this bill?

SENATOR TARR: You'd have to ask them why they're against this bill.

SENATOR ROMANO: They're worried about their federal reimbursements under Medicaid and Medicare, sir.

Thank you. You've been very helpful.

SENATOR TARR: I want to add . . .

SENATOR ROMANO: You got something else?

SENATOR TARR: Yeah. I would add that when you look at hospitals, if they're worried about reimbursement, why are there hospital chains with 50 to 100 hospitals, big centers like UPMC, who have no such mandate in place?

SENATOR ROMANO: Well, because when they declared that, sir, I don't believe that these federal rules had been proposed or the mandate declared. I think that'll change. You and I discussed that.

SENATOR TARR: Still not in place.

SENATOR ROMANO: I think that's going to change in short order. Don't you?

SENATOR TARR: No, I don't think so. I think that they may have it but have an exemptions process in place.

SENATOR ROMANO: Let me ask you this question, if UPMC finds itself without Medicare reimbursement, Medicaid reimbursement, how long do you think it will take them to change their policy?

SENATOR TARR: They'll probably change their policy to come into compliance if, and I expect there will be, if there's an exemptions place and process, whatever they have on those rules for exemptions will be there. And the reason I believe they will be is because any other place where these vaccines have been mandated with federal employees, they have exemptions process in place for those federal employees. And we have . . .

SENATOR ROMANO: Say it again.

SENATOR TARR: Any place else that the federal government has mandated vaccines, COVID-19 vaccine, which is what we're talking about, we're not talking about all vaccines here, we're talking about the COVID-19 vaccine, when federal employees have been mandated this, which the feds have oversight with, not West Virginia, they have provided an exemptions process for those employees. So . . .

SENATOR ROMANO: That complied with federal law.

SENATOR TARR: So, when this comes into place through the federal government, I expect they're also going to have exemptions process in place. Should we adopt this amendment, whatever that exemptions process is, trumps this bill.

SENATOR ROMANO: So, to be clear, it's your understanding by the adoption of your amendment, if federal law requires more than a post-it note with your name and a notary, then that's what's going to apply to the citizens of West Virginia.

SENATOR TARR: Yes.

SENATOR ROMANO: Okay, because it's in the legislative record and the first person who goes down to bring an injunction under our bill, should it pass, will certainly have that legislative history of you and I discussing this. So, I just want to be clear.

SENATOR TARR: Certainly.

SENATOR ROMANO: Alright.

Thank you, sir.

HONORABLE
MICHAEL J. MARONEY

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR MARONEY: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'm going to be quick here because I'm out of energy and I just can't believe we're still here on Tuesday night at 7 o'clock.

First of all, point number one is, just in that last conversation, the yielding conversation, the Senator from Harrison is correct with the Medicare/Medicaid stuff. Yeah, I'm not a lawyer, I'm not a physical therapist, but I have been a physician for 30 years. That part's correct. There's going to be issues with that.

But, that being said . . . with three docs, three docs in this caucus with a century worth of experience, not only were none of them . . . none of them being asked . . . As a matter of fact, purposely, secretly, sneakily, working this bill up just so people couldn't see it. The docs . . . didn't ask for one bit of opinion. That's okay. I mean, I'm getting used to that. There are people that win an election in October and they wake up one Wednesday morning and they know everything about everything. I wasn't lucky enough to be one of those people. I do know a hell of a lot about medicine though. But, unfortunately, there's people in here that know more. And they're just going to do what they got to do. [inaudible] second point. I'm not going to argue it anymore.

Third point, I wished my daughter a Happy Birthday yesterday. I'll share just a little tidbit of the conversation. We were chatting and . . . Megan's really smart and very into politics, very much so. She's been on this Senate floor probably a dozen times. She knows the players. She knows the bills . . . the ones that matter. And she said, "Well, Dad, why aren't you going to be here on Monday?" I said, "Well, we got two important things we're working on and, you know, a few other things, but two major things. One of them's . . . You know, remember we talked about those drawing the lines, Megan, when I was telling you that when we were on vacation this summer?" "Oh, yeah, yeah, I remember that. Okay." "Well, that's one of them we're still working out." "What's the other one?" I said, "Well, we got this bill where we're going to be voting on whether or not in West Virginia we're going to let private businesses, you know, do what they want, like, as far as, like . . . with regards to COVID vaccine. So, are we going to step in and tell them what to do? Or are we going to, you know, mandate as a government what businesses do?" And she said, "Well"—and she knew the numbers—she said, "Well, you got 23 Republicans." She said, "That should be easy to stop that." And . . . I said, "Well, no, no, we're the ones . . . we're in charge, Megan . . . we're the ones setting the agenda." I said, "We're the ones putting that bill out there." And she said, "Well, Dad, I thought you told me Democrats didn't like businesses and Republicans did?" I said, "That's true, Megan." I said, "That's true usually. But not in this case. Every now and then there's differences. And this is one of them."

And then I won't . . . And that was a segue into a discussion of hypocrisy. I taught her about hypocrisy, which I won't go into.

And, lastly, she said—and I'm sharing this one because it's funny, in my opinion—she said, "Well, what's that one guy think?" I said, "What one guy, Megan?" She said, "You know, that really smart guy that sits in the front and talks a lot.” I said, “Oh, Senator Trump.” I said, “I don’t know. So, we talked about this last week one time. And, I knew as the bill came over initially, he was against it.” I said, “But we’ve not even talked about it a second time.” And I said, “But we’ll find out tomorrow.”

And this is . . . it’s unbelievable to me that we are going to pass a mandate. Now, I just want people to be clear about mandates. We’re saying we’re stopping a mandate. We’re not stopping a mandate. When people talk about mandates, you’re talking about government mandates telling private citizens and private businesses what to do. That’s what a mandate is. We’re not supposed to interfere with a private employer that sets the terms and conditions of employment for their employees, and have since the beginning of time, to their employees. Then the employees decide if they work there or not. If they can’t agree with the terms and conditions of employment, they don’t work there. If the employers don’t have any employees, then they say, “Whoa. We better rethink and change our terms and conditions.” That’s the way it works.

So, we’re not getting rid of a mandate. I just want everyone in West Virginia to be clear: We are putting a mandate on private businesses. That’s what we’re doing here. And that’s okay. I mean, if that’s what you want to do, that’s what you want to do. It’s the biggest piece of trash I’ve ever seen dumped down the throats of private businesses since I’ve been in the Senate. But that’s fine. You know why? Because we know more than them. We win the election, we know more than doctors, we know more than hospitals, we know more than businesses, we know more than everybody. Because, God for . . . shit, we won an election.

God help West Virginia.

HONORABLE
RON STOLLINGS

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR STOLLINGS: Thank you, Mr. President.

Of course, I do rise in opposition of this bill.

We’re around 51, 52 percent vaccinated in West Virginia, is my understanding. Until we get up to around 70 or 80 percent, we’re not going to have what’s called herd immunity and, therefore, put this pandemic to rest.

The other thing that’s concerning to most health care providers is that this can continue to mutate and become not vaccine preventable. And, again, it’s not really treatable now.

So, again, this bill requires businesses to accept all exemption requests. It eliminates the process that is already in place.

And, again, you know, we ought to be doing things in here that could actually improve public health and the health of our citizens and stop the deaths of our fellow West Virginians. Obviously, this bill goes in the opposite direction. If this bill passes, there will be more West Virginians die because of the softening of the not being required to get vaccinated.

You know, again, when I look at people that have signed on against this passage and then again when you look at Texas, that they said look, we’re not going to do what West Virginia’s doing.

But, you know, the concern I have are the citizens of West Virginia because they are listening to a lot of anti-vax rhetoric and a lot of them are afraid to get the vaccine.

I’ve checked in my office . . . again, we’ve not had one serious reaction and we’ve given a lot of vaccines.

When I look at all the people here that are signed on that are against this, you know, it’s a who’s who of businesses in West Virginia: WVU Medicine, WVU Hospital Association, West Virginia Manufacturers Association, West Virginia Chamber, Mountain Health, Mon Health, United Bank, Jackson Kelly—they’re trying to protect the people that work for them—West Virginia Osteopathic Medical Association, Marshall Health, West Virginia Bankers, CAMC, Dow.

You know, again, we want to get this thing put away. We want to reach herd immunity. That magic herd immunity. And all this does is slows down us reaching this magic 70, 80 percent where we can put this thing to bed, where you can take your mask off, where you can go out in public, where you can have fun, return to some type of normal life.

This bill flies right in the face of that. Right in the face of it.

And so, I hope, like Texas, you know, I hope that we can put this behind us and go ahead and get from 52 percent vaccinated to 70 percent vaccinated and get back to some normalcy in life. Otherwise, I'm telling you, this thing is not going to go away. And furthermore, it's not only not going to go away, it's going to mutate. It's going to mutate to where certain vaccines are not effective against it anymore.

We've lost enough West Virginians. We've lost enough West Virginians. Let's put this away. It conflicts with the federal laws that's coming down the pike. And let's try to get our . . . keep our patients, keep our people safe, and keep our businesses operating and return them to some sense of normalcy as soon as possible.

I urge a "no" vote.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE OWENS BROWN

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR BROWN: Yes.

Since April of 2020, I've been on a coronavirus task force put together by Governor Jim Justice and . . . meeting with Clay Marsh and a group of people concerning the coronavirus. And there's a lot of information out there about the virus and also about the vaccine as being very safe. Other countries in the world, they want this vaccine. And they're looking at Americans and saying, "What's the problem here?"

But the question I'm asking you: Why should another man's religion compromise the health of another human being? Why should another person's freedom of religion may cause the death of another person?

Religious freedom is not an absolute in this country. Nothing . . . freedom is not absolute. You know, you have a social compact that you sign as a people in this country about the government looks out for the general welfare of the people. And it seems as though by having a mandate, this government is looking out for the general welfare of the people in this country.

I know some people say they haven't tested that enough. At one time, before the space [inaudible], there was a computer big as this room. And, at this time, we have everything on this little computer here as big as this room. So, there has been advancements in medicine that doesn't take as long as it took four or five years for the polio vaccine.

And I just think it's really sort of misleading saying that, "Because it hasn't been proven to be effective". But it has. They've been working on this vaccine for about nine years if you look at the news. So, it just isn't something that's just happened yesterday or this past year. It was already in place.

So that's why I'm standing against this bill and this religious exemption because it could cause . . . it compromises individual's health, it compromises a business' general welfare, and it's just . . . a vaccine . . . I mean, it's just not right to compromise another human being's health because of your so-called religious freedom. And I think people will exploit that particular clause. You know, make them prove that they have a deeply religious conviction. Make them prove it.

That's all I have to say.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
RYAN W. WELD

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR WELD: Thank you, Mr. President.

I certainly won't match the passion of my neighbor, the Senator from Tucker. And I very much appreciate his passion on this issue. We've talked many times.

And I rise, Mr. President, in reluctant opposition to this bill. And I do so not because I don't believe that individuals should be free of mandates. I think that nobody should be forced to receive a vaccine if they don't want it. But to be honest with you, Mr. President, I do because this is probably one of the worst, most poorly drafted pieces of legislation that I've ever read in my life in how it tries to go about what it does. And I feel very badly for the people who are seeking a respite from a mandate that they are under from an employer, under its terms, because this bill is going to cause a lot more issues than it solves for the State of West Virginia. And I'll walk us through why.

You know, there's a lot of talk, Mr. President, in Washington of the federal government mandating COVID vaccines for health care facilities and tying that to the reimbursements, hospitals, that kind of thing. But also, for employers with more than 100 employees. And so what becomes problematic is that the legislation that we have before us doesn't comport with federal law in that it doesn't comply with what has been well-settled law set by the U. S. Supreme Court when it comes to a religious exemption on an issue.

In the late sixties, early seventies, there were several court cases that set forth what exactly a religious exemption is. And it defines it as a deeply held religious belief. And so . . . but what we have before us is a test that just says a religious belief. It's not the deeply held, or sincerely held . . . sincerely held religious belief. And so, it's . . . you're putting two tests in place. And you're going to have two levels of trying to comply with federal law because OSHA is talking about applying it to employers that have more than 100 employees. We, under the provisions of this legislation, are applying it to small businesses, large businesses, it doesn't matter. All employers, no matter the size, are going to be held to this legislation. And so, once the federal government puts into place all of its requirements, you're now going to have two sets of rules by which employers have to operate under. You're going to have the State of West Virginia, you're going to have your nonmedical employers, and you're going to have your under 100 employers that are going to have one set of rules, and then you're going to have your medical employers and over 100 that are going to have a different set of rules to follow. And so it's going to be completely different. Two different tests.

And I want to go back to something that was talked about earlier, Mr. President, on federal law superseding state law. And that's true. The federal law does trump state law. However, what happens is not that the state law just disappears off the books. It's still there. We are being held as being violative of federal law. And I'll give you an example. A couple of years ago, we passed into law a veterans' court program across the state. It was a great bill. It was my bill. Supreme Court was behind it. I'm sure it had unanimous support in this body. Fast forward a couple of months, the federal government, National Transportation for Safety Highway—or whatever the agency is called—called the State of West Virginia and said you're going to lose federal funding because we feel that, that veterans' court program may potentially somehow give somebody who has been convicted of a DUI a way out that is other than what is allowed for in federal law. So, your federal highway funding, a large portion of it, is now in jeopardy. So, we had to come back here to Charleston and, during a special session, we had to fix that bill and pass the new one into law or else we would have lost federal highway funding.

So once the federal government passes or sets forth in a rule its mandate for medical employers or for any employer over 100 individuals, it's not that what's before us here if this were to become law just goes away. We'd have to come back to Charleston and fix it. And until that happens, we would be at risk for federal funding on the reimbursements. And so, unfortunately, the legislation that we have before us creates a lot more problems than it does in solving them.

We have in state law already the test for a sincerely held religious belief and that's defined or used in §16-30-12. And so now we're going to have conflicting tests for religious belief within our state code. And that's why the drafting of this bill, wherever this bill came from, you know, if they had gone and looked, they would have seen that we already use the term "sincerely held religious belief". And so now, we're going to have conflicting tests within state law itself.

And so . . . I . . . you know, I go back to the words of South Dakota Governor Kristi Noem, who I think everybody in this room is probably familiar with and her policies, Mr. President. And she talked earlier about the President of the United States should not have the right to tell employers and employees what they can and can't do with the COVID vaccine and neither should she. Because she feels that, that is an individual decision and a workplace decision to be made. And so, I would echo that sentiment as I look through all the issues that this piece of legislation, unfortunately, causes.

Thank you, Mr. President.

(Passage of Eng. House Bill 335)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
TOM TAKUBO

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR TAKUBO: Thank you, Mr. President.

I hate to beat a dead horse but, at the same time, I think I have to get up and speak on this subject.

It's obviously a very sensitive issue. I knew it would be. I think everybody in this room knew it would be. When . . . Hospital Association first called and said, "Hey, Senator, want to let you know that we've all met and we've made a decision that we're going to implement vaccine mandates." I said, "Man, I think that's a bad idea. That's just going to be a tough, tough issue to handle . . . a hot, hot thing to handle . . . but . . ." I asked, you know, "Are you all going to at least get together and do the same policy in terms of medical exemptions and religious . . . ?" And they said, "No." And I said, "How come?" And they said, "Well, because we're all private. We don't do that. Everybody's got their own policies. We're private institutions." And I said, "But why, you know, right now, why do you want to do that?" And they said, "Because we feel it's the right thing to do for the patients we take care of." I said, "Okay. I get it. I agree with you."

I tried to go around because I knew this would eventually make it to the Senate floor. And I knew we would get in a position where we would have to make a vote and so I would try to poll those nurses, and respiratory therapists, and physical therapists, and EKG techs, and all the people that are on the front lines, that are in the ICUs everyday taking care of the sickest of the sick of these people. And I asked them the question, you know, "What do you think? Do you think we should mandate this or not?" And it would probably be about a, you know, 60/40, 70/30 split, mostly in favor, but, you know . . . But when you pose the question a separate way, and I said, "Well, if there were mandates, would you feel more comfortable doing what you do?" And that's almost a hundred percent.

It's tough. It's been scary through the whole process. I remember when this first happened, we would have leadership calls and we would get on with our caucus and we would have to try to think about what we're going to prepare as a state to do. And the models were horrific, if everybody remembers. Because of West Virginia's older population, because we had a very similar demographic that Italy had—and we saw what happened there—we were concerned. And I remember making that comment at the time and I've said it since then, "You just got to follow your hospitals. No matter what is going on out there, your hospitals will tell the tale." Because when people get sick and they can't breathe and they feel like they're smothering and they're going under water, they're going to be in that hospital. And that's completely what's taken place.

And so, you know, it's a shame. Health care is just one of those things—and I'll be fully transparent—that's what's got me in the Senate, first and foremost, is health care. I want to make my state a healthier place. Everett C. [sic] Koop, one of the surgeon generals, they asked him, they said, "Why did you give up your pediatric surgical practice?" And he said, "Because in this position, I can help even more people than I can in the operating room." And that's the way I kind of look at my job here in the Senate.

The vaccines do work. They work tremendously. And I get the angst. I mean, I've got social media too. I listen to all the issues and concerns people have. And I get it. I get it. It's a . . . Two years ago, we would've never dreamt something like this was taking place. But it is and we're having to deal with it.

On your desk, I placed a chart. And when I say the hospitals tell the tale, this is what we see in the hospitals. It's not just here in Charleston, it's every hospital in the country. And if you look at this, there's two lines on this graph. The first one's in January of 2021. On the bottom, there's a green line and then at the top, there's a blue line. And this is what we've seen here. If you look at the immunized line, it barely, it barely gets off of zero. And this is the age-adjusted rates of COVID-19 associated hospitalizations in aged 18 years and older, January through August. And it compares fully vaccinated persons versus unvaccinated. And it perfectly demonstrates what we've seen in our hospitals. Our hospitals right now are over ran. I can tell you case after case after case of patients that the first go-around had advanced cancers, died of heart attack and disease, because they couldn't get in to get their procedures or because they were too afraid to come into the hospitals and get their procedures. What's the big difference between these two is the vaccine. So, if we're all being honest . . . the vaccines do work. It's very evident. Ninety plus percent of our patients on the ventilators right now are unvaccinated. In fact, it's probably closer to a hundred . . . are unvaccinated.

I've taken care of scores and scores . . . and I always ask them if they're lucky enough to survive and get through it . . . ? And I've had to take care of a lot of people that I personally know, that I've seen, and I've watched them die. You know, one of our little . . . orderly, you know, he brings you up to your room and takes you down to your surgical procedure, etc. . . . and he was scared to death. And he was looking at me and when I walked in and saw him, I thought, is that him, when I saw the name? And I walked in for the new consult, and I saw him, and my heart sank. He was in trouble, requiring 100 percent oxygen. And I said, "Did you not take the vaccine?" And he goes, "No. I just . . . was scared about it." He said, "But I'm going to take it as soon as I get out of here." I've heard that story over and over and over and over. And if you're lucky enough to survive it . . . I always talk to the patients, I'll say, "If you had it to do it again, would you take the vaccine?" A hundred percent, well over 100 people has told me this: When you actually live it, and you go through it, and you see what we've all talked about . . . It's hard because you go out here on a day like today and it's beautiful, and we're all sitting in here without masks, it's hard to understand what I saw this morning when I was rounding through the hospital. But for those families and those patients, it's extremely real.

When we talk about should a hospital be allowed to do a vaccine mandate, there's all kinds of scenarios I can give you. And you say, "Well, you know, the vaccine . . . even though you get it, doesn't guarantee you still can't get it." And that's true. It doesn't. It markedly reduces it . . . 60 to 80 percent decrease likelihood that you're going to get it in the first place. It typically decreases the viral load so that you'll be less transmissible. But the most important thing, it's 99.9 percent effective from you landing up seeing me face to face in an ICU.

Just in the past few days, there was a patient. He's a young fellow. He's got other significant medical problems. He's chronically ill. And you say, "Well, why would we do the vaccine though because I hear 95 percent or more of the hospital employees are already vaccinated?" That's true. Ninety-five to even as high as 99 percent in our state, the employees, are already vaccinated. So we're doing legislation here to override private business and other individual choices for somewhere between . . . So, for example, I know it [inaudible] 95 percent vaccinated, about one to two percent have already got exemptions or in the process of it, so it's about three percent. We're doing this for, you know, three to five percent. Now that's important. Every single person is important. I'm not trying to belay that. But you say, "But why would you push this if it's such a small percentage?" Well, here's why. Because this little young fellow was admitted about 30 plus days ago. Non-COVID, tested a couple of times. And then he started developing respiratory symptoms. He started having abnormal things on his chest x-ray. Popping fevers. It's COVID. He's been in the hospital for 30-some days. Where did he get it from? Whoever it was, I'm sure it was unintentional. But had they been vaccinated . . . Maybe it was somebody that was vaccinated, that's a possibility. But the fear, or the concern, that, that gentleman who is immunocompromised, is chronically ill . . . when we're talking about freedoms here . . . he doesn't have the choice. Not everybody has the choice like most of us in this room. And that's what I'm concerned about this bill and what it can do to people.

I got another patient that's critically ill. He's a prisoner. And I rounded on him and I walked through and I got to thinking. I thought, "Well, how in the world did a prisoner get COVID?" Because they said he was a life-long inmate, he can't go anywhere, so . . . I went back. And anytime you have a prisoner in the hospital, the guard has to be with them. And I asked the guard, I said, "Are these inmates not vaccinated?" And he says, "No. No. It's . . . you know . . . they're not." And I said, "Well, how did he get . . . ?" And then I'm looking at him,

I said, "Are you guys vaccinated?" He said, "No. There's no mandate for us to get vaccinated." And I said, "Well, what percentage do you think are?" He said, "Maybe half."

So, an individual . . . and you can blame him, you can say, "Well, he had the option"—he was unvaccinated by the way—but he had the option to be vaccinated, which could have protected him but he, you know, he chose not to. Taxpayers are paying thousands and thousands of dollars to try to help save him, keep him alive. But somebody that's running the penal system may think, "Wow, you know, maybe, maybe it would be the right thing to do to mandate a vaccination amongst the guards for these people that are trapped in here because they've been imprisoned to protect them." I mean there's so many issues that I don't think we've really vetted and thought through that affects their very life, their chance of living. It's not right.

You step out of that and you say, "Well, what about the personal freedom and the choice of those three to five percent I talked about for example?" And I agree. I agree. I'm a hundred percent. You will never see me vote against a freedom bill. But I do have a litmus test of what I call freedom. Freedom only goes so far so long as it doesn't bleed onto another person's freedom. And once you've done that, I don't call that freedom anymore. That's called . . . you know, your choice is more important than my choice.

When you talk about the choices of private business . . . You know, I was having breakfast with my son this weekend. There was a little bit of a wait. We were standing outside waiting to be called in. And he said, "You know, Dad, what are you doing?" You know, I explained to him. And explained to him about the vaccine bill. And he said, "Well, why are you guys debating that?" And I said, "Well, take a look." And we were standing on the sidewalk and you looked into the restaurant to the right, and all the employees were wearing masks. And the food . . . to the left, you look in, none were wearing masks. And I said, "What this bill is about, Trevor, is your personal freedom. It's the freedom of the person who went out and took the bank loans and took the risk of their maybe livelihood to build a business, to start this up. It is their right to run that business the way they choose. And, apparently, looking through the window, they've chose that nobody has to wear a mask. But if you look right through this window—we never had to move—and you look in there, every single person had a mask on. I said, "Whoever owns this business, and went through the same risks, chose to take a different path." And the people that you see working in there, they have a choice. They have a choice whether to work there or, if they don't like the policies, work somewhere else. There's nothing in our Constitution that guarantees anybody a job. And you and I standing out here, we have a choice. We can either choose to go in this restaurant, or this restaurant. And if whether they're having more COVID precautions in the other or not sways that choice, well, that's up to us.

So, this bill takes away that right in my opinion. It takes away that freedom. And that is not right. It's not right for anybody and above.

You know, we've looked at . . . you know, I've been on a trip for the Senate to Japan. We talked to Toyota. You know . . . Toyota . . . I don't think anybody in here would argue that we love having Toyota in West Virginia. And there's 20 plus other companies—I was surprised by that—that come to support Toyota. Toyota's the anchor company but NGK Sparkplug, and so many others We try so hard to get more investment, more business here, but then this type of bill, this type of bill is what I'm so concerned . . . it sinks efforts like that. Because Toyota, they have strict policies and guidelines and everybody I've ever talked to loves working for that plant. But we're going to step in as government with this bill and we're going to tell them, "Well, Toyota, I'm sorry. You're going to do what we tell you to do." Now, if Toyota's having people calling off sick, having contact tracing, missing work, and production starts to slow down and all that, but their plant in Indiana, or their plant in California, or whatever, is just booming, you better believe they won't forget that when the time comes to invest and we're looking for another 200 or 500 or 1,000 jobs for our people, and they'll say, "West Virginia stepped in their business." I mean that's a faux pas we shouldn't be doing.

And then I think, well, what about the electorate? You know, how do they feel about this? Well, 91 percent of those 65 years and older are vaccinated. And I think it's like 75 percent of those 50 or so years old are vaccinated. So, the electorate is saying to us they believe in the vaccines.

You know, what I'm concerned in this bill . . . it's going to create so much confusion and conflict. It's going to create cost because when these people are laid off, waiting for an injunction, waiting for a court date, a lot of companies are going to have to fill somebody in that slot. That they can't just shut down their business. Whether it's a restaurant and it's a waitress, or if it's a waiter, or if it's a hospital and it's a physician . . . I mean somebody needs to keep that going. So however long that takes There's incredible cost when private businesses already have things to take care of this to address this. Why are we getting in and telling these guys how to run their . . . ? I don't know how to run a hospital. I got a medical practice but that doesn't mean I know how to run a hospital.

Finally, I just don't think the bill achieves what its intended purpose is. I know personally many people that this is such a serious, serious issue. And my heart goes out to them. And I've seen the e-mails and I've talked to them in the hospital. And in no way am I discounting your fear or your concerns about taking a vaccine. I'm not. But when you . . . you have to make a decision. There's no yellow button. There's a red and a green button. In a minute here I'm going to have to vote. I just want those people to know what's going on in my head, why I'm having to choose the way I'm choosing. And, at the end of the day, at the end of the day, I have yet to take care of a patient that has had a problem with the vaccine. I have filled out many, many, many death certificates of those who didn't take the vaccine.

So, when it comes down to personal freedoms and choices, yes, I think they should be able to have those. But what's going to make me push the "no" button is for those people that don't have the choice. So if you're a nurse, or a doctor, or a physical therapist, or whatever, and you're working in a hospital, and you're going into a cancer ward, and you're having to take care of usually six to seven patients on a floor, and those patients, whether they are vaccinated or not, their immune systems are compromised, they're weak, or, if you're working in a nursing home and that's my loved one, or you're working in a pediatric unit where they're immunocompromised, I think I owe it to the freedom of those people to allow the institution in which they are being treated in, and the institution in which they have chosen to go for their care and for it to be rendered, to make that decision. They know their institution. They know the situation on the ground best, more so than me. And so, I will not be big government and jump into those situations and try to intervene.

Thank you, Mr. President.

HONORABLE
ROBERT L. KARNES

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR KARNES: Merry Christmas, Mr. President.

I know you're thinking it's a little early for Christmas, but we just gave a Christmas present to all the people that were up here in the gallery. All those heroes from last year, we just gave them a Christmas present. Many of them aren't going to have to worry about paying their mortgage anymore . . . because the house is gone. Many of them aren't going to have to worry about making that car payment anymore . . . because that's going to be gone.

Across West Virginia there are going to be children going hungry for Christmas because we have people that are so desperate to exercise control over people's lives. So desperate to enforce their views on other people that they couldn't vote to make this bill that we just passed, this legislation we passed, they couldn't vote to make it effective immediately. No, they're going to make them wait 90 days for the relief that we're trying to offer. The people that last year worked. So, they didn't get the $600 a week bonus unemployment because they showed up for work. They showed up for work in hospitals, and on the streets protecting our communities. We're giving them a Christmas present this year. We're taking away all those things. And maybe it will pay off into next January whenever they can't afford to pay their children's tuition for next year . . . because they don't have a job. Because we took away that relief because we had to exercise control. We couldn't give them effective immediately on passage. We had to deny them. The people that were heroes last year, we had to deny them that one small piece. I understand there are people that objected to the bill but, effective from passage? You couldn't vote for that either. That's what's going to force them out of work. Because in 90 days, they're all out of a job. That's the way these deadlines are all working right now. They're all out of a job. You know what we're going to give them for Christmas for their kids? Right here. This is what we just gave their kids for Christmas. When they look in the stocking there's going to be that lump of coal because that's all they can afford. Because some people couldn't vote for effective from passage. Anybody that voted that way, you should be ashamed of yourselves.

That's Merry Christmas, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
TOM TAKUBO

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR TAKUBO: Thank you, Mr. President.

You know, one thing I want to be clear about when people . . . Several comments were made about the medical staff, being on the front line, not being heroes. They absolutely were heroes and they still are heroes in my opinion.

I remember very vividly when this all hit and everybody was scared to death and we're all going in doing our job and looking down the ICU as far as you can see and all the pumps are outside to try to minimize going in because every single one of us thought we were at high risk, and some did. Some got it and they aren't here with us anymore. So, they absolutely are heroes. And they continue to do that whether they're vaccinated or not vaccinated. They're still going in. They're taking care of these people.

So, to say that they're not heroes or to say that because we voted against a bill that I think has got the potential to create more confusion, do more harm than its intended purpose, I think that is a misrepresentation.

I do want to separate one thing though. And that is: There is a difference between a hero and a heroic act. And I know it's scary. But when you do a heroic act, when the firefighters and the police ran into the buildings at 9/11, they put others way before themselves. And when people—and I have seen it—they have struggled and struggled and struggled with the idea to take the vaccine, but they do it, and they do it oftentimes not because of them, because they do it because they don't want to take the chance of giving it to the patients that they serve.

And so, please, don't misrepresent those.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE CAPUTO

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR CAPUTO: Thank you, Mr. President.

I know it's late. It's been a long day. It's been a good debate.

But I'm a little offended that I was accused of ruining Christmas for a lot of families. You know, there's a lot of votes taken around here. A lot of them I don't like. A lot of them, matter of fact, I hate. But I never questioned the motives of why another member, in my 25-year career in the Legislature, made a vote.

But how about this, Mr. President? How about Merry Christmas? How about Merry Christmas that moving the effective date of this bill will encourage more people to get vaccinated? How about Merry Christmas to moving the date of this bill will save, maybe, thousands of lives? How about this, Mr. President? How about Merry Christmas to my 10-month-old grandson . . . has a better chance of not contracting the coronavirus because maybe more people will listen to the medical advice, the medical advice of the experts and get vaccinated?

Yeah, I'm a little offended that I got accused of ruining Christmas. I think that remark was absurd. I think that remark was ridiculous. And I think that remark was just downright disrespectful to the people that serve West Virginia.

Mr. President, I want more people to get vaccinated. I think I heard in your words you want more people to get vaccinated. Maybe we have a different way of approaching that, but I think we both want to get to the same finish line. To accuse people of ruining Christmas because of a vote they fully believed in because they're listening to medical advice . . . most ridiculous thing I've heard in my 25-year career in the Legislature.

HONORABLE
MICHAEL T. AZINGER

Tuesday, October 19, 2021

SENATOR AZINGER: Mr. President, I'll be quick.

I just want to defend the Senator from Randolph. If anyone will take the time to peruse their e-mails or read Facebook, these folks that are saying, "Please pass this bill. I'm being fired tomorrow . . . or this Saturday . . . or next week."

This is a very serious thing that we just did. I want to thank the folks that voted for this bill to give these people These are nurses, these are physicians' assistants, these are people in the medical field. These aren't stupid people. These are people that were fearful to take the vaccine. And we as body . . . and the Governor's going to sign . . . and the House of Delegates . . . we're all in agreement on this But I felt like it was a cheap shot and unnecessary to make these people wait 90 days for relief.

So, I just want to stand and, first, thank the body for passing the bill. This was a great day. But I do agree with the Senator from Randolph that it would have just been a simple gesture to make it effective from passage.

Thank you, Mr. President.
