Foreword

Much of the History of West Virginia, both political and otherwise, has been included in this Centennial issue of the West Virginia Blue Book.

It is the hope of the editor that this volume may serve its recipients as a reference for information not readily obtainable elsewhere and that years from now it may still be found a useful part of many libraries.

Considerable effort has been made to assure accuracy of information and easy reference for this edition. I owe thanks and appreciation to donors almost without number for their kind and wholehearted help in providing material.

Heads of Departments of the main Federal agencies, State Departments and the numerous County Clerks who have ever been so kind to me since I began working on the Blue Book are especially high on my list for special thanks. Suffice it to say that without them this work would be a complete failure.

If this Volume 47 of the West Virginia Blue Book, "The Centennial Edition", proves to be a minute part as useful and valuable to its users as I wish it to be, I shall feel very grateful and amply repaid for my efforts.

Sincerely,

J. HOWARD MYERS

WEST VIRGINIA BOARD OF EDUCATION

The West Virginia Board of Education consists of nine members who must be citizens of the State; appointed by the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate for overlapping terms of nine years. No more than five of the appointed members may belong to the same political party. No person shall be eligible for appointment to membership who is a member of any political party executive committee or holds any other public office or public employment under the federal government or under the government of the State or any of the political subdivisions. No member of the board may be removed from office except for official misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty or gross immorality and then only in the manner prescribed by law for the removal by the Governor of State elective officers. At least six meetings shall be held each year upon its own resolution or at the call of the president. Members serve without compensation but are reimbursed for actual expenses incident to the performance of their duties. The secretary who is appointed by the board keeps a record of its proceedings and performs such other duties as the board may prescribe.

Subject to and in conformity with the constitution and laws of West Virginia, the Board of Education determines the educational policies of the State except as to the West Virginia University and Potomac State College, selects the State Superintendent of Free Schools, and makes rules for carrying into effect laws and policies of the State relating to education. The State Board shall have general control, supervision and management of the business and educational affairs of all State colleges and the West Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind.

Acting as the State Board of Vocational Education, the State Board of Education administers and controls the state plans for vocational rehabilitation.

DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY*CLEMENT R. BASSETT, Director*State Office Building No. 2, 112 California Avenue

CLEMENT R. BASSETT, (D), of Welch, was born at Welch, on March 15, 1921; son of Eli A. Bassett and Najla (Khoury) Bassett; education received in the McDowell County public schools, West Virginia University (A.B. degree 1941), and the University of Michigan Law School (LL.B. degree 1948); married to former Mary Elizabeth Peak of Long Island, Virginia; two children—Mary Anne and Margaret Lucile; Presbyterian; Mason, Scottish Rite Bodies, Shriner, The American Legion, Kappa Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Delta, and West Virginia State Bar; served on active duty, United States Army Air Force, 1942-45, two and one-half years of which was overseas with the 8th Air Force; member, United States Air Force Reserves (Captain); Attorney-Examiner with Federal Trade Commission in Chicago, 1948-1953; Trial Examiner with the Public Service Commission of West Virginia, 1954-1957; Assistant Attorney General, State of West Virginia, 1957-1961; appointed Director of Employment Security, January 20, 1961, for the unexpired term ending December 31, 1966.

Salary of Director: $9,000.00 per year. Appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Six years, subject to will and pleasure of Governor.

Advisory Council: $25 per day for each day actually served in discharge of duties, also necessary expenses. Six members appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Six years, subject to will and pleasure of Governor. Two members represent employer interests, two employee interests and two the interest of the general public. Meets first Monday in January, April, July and October. Limit of 30 days' service in any year.

Board of Review: $7,000.00 per year each. Three members appointed by Governor, with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Six years. Nonpartisan. Governor designates chairman.

Purpose is to promote social and economic security by reducing, as far as possible, the hazards of unemployment. Through compulsory system of unemployment reserves, it provides measures of security to families of unemployed persons and guards against menace to health, morals and welfare arising from unemployment. To fulfill these purposes the Department pays weekly unemployment benefits to workers who are unemployed due to lack of work and who are in the labor market. The funds for payment of benefits are derived from a payroll tax paid by West Virginia employers under the terms of the Social Security Act.

Council serves as advisory body to Director. Board of Review hears and determines disputed claims, appoints examiners, organizes appeal tribunals and exercises such additional powers as may be necessary for the proper conduct of a system of administrative review of disputed claims.

(West Virginia State Police)

WILLIAM E. BURCHETT, Superintendent

Ground Floor, Main Unit, Capitol

Salary of Superintendent: $8,000 per year. Appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of the Senate.

Board of Commissioners: $10 per diem for days actually served in discharge of duties and expenses, consists of two members, bi-partisan, appointed by the Governor, by and with consent of Senate for a term of two years.

Retirement Board: Consists of the Attorney General, the State Treasurer, the Superintendent, and two members in active service of the department, elected by vote of members, who serve without compensation.

The Department of Public Safety is a state police department with state-wide general police power, created in 1919 to preserve the peace, protect life and property, prevent crime and apprehend criminals. With at least one detachment in each county and a fleet of two-way radio equipped vehicles, the state police handle a large share of the investigation of major crime and apprehension of dangerous criminals, and take primary responsibility for patrolling the highways, enforcing the traffic laws and preventing motor vehicle accidents, besides many miscellaneous services in the public interest, including duty at the scene of emergencies, riots or disaster.

The Board of Commissioners hears charges filed against any officer or member of the department, including the Superintendent, or appeals of charges filed against officers or members with the Superintendent if the Superintendent fails to suspend or dismiss any officer or member after such charges are filed.

The Retirement Board has power to make, revise and terminate awards from the Department Death, Disability and Retirement Fund to retired or disabled members, or to beneficiaries of deceased members.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION FUND

State Office Building No. 2

112 California Avenue

Salary of Commissioner: $8,000 per year. Appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Six years.

Appeal Board: Three Members appointed by Governor, each receiving a salary of $300 per month. Term: Six years, Bi-partisan, Chairman designated by Governor. Meets first Tuesday in February, April, June, August, October and December; sessions not to exceed 20 days each.

Silicosis Medical Board: Compensation per diem fixed by Commissioner. Three members, licensed physicians, appointed by Commissioner. Term: Six years. Commissioner selects chairman annually.

Occupational Disease Medical Board: Compensation per diem fixed by Commissioner. Three members, licensed physicians, appointed by Commissioner. Term: Six years. Commissioner selects chairman annually.

The Acts provides workmen with hospitalization and medical care for injuries sustained in the course of and growing out of their employment in industry, fixes compensation during their disability, and, in case of death, provides for their dependents. Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board reviews action of Commissioner upon appeal of any employer, employee or dependent. Silicosis Medical Board determines the presence of silicosis, stage and degree of resultant disability. The function of the Occupational Diseases Medical Board is to determine all medical questions relating to cases of compensation for occupational diseases other than silicosis, under the direction and supervision of the Commissioner.

CLETUS B. HANLEY, (D), of Charleston, Kanawha County, was born at Charleston, Kanawha County, July 5, 1923; son of S. # STATE BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Under Chapter 30, Article 1, Code 1931, all boards of examination and registration are governed by the following general rules, unless otherwise specifically provided:

Each board is required to adopt an official seal, make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as it deems best, and hold at least two meetings each year. Each board is also given power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and its officers are authorized to administer oaths.

Each applicant for license or registration must transmit with his application an examination fee of $20, unless a different fee is especially provided by law. Each board is allowed to charge $5 for each license or certificate issued and the same sum for every duplicate thereof. All licenses or certificates of registration are required to be numbered serially and to be signed by a majority of the members of the board, and each board has power to revoke, for cause, the certificate it issues. An applicant who has been refused a license, or a licensee whose certificate has been revoked has the right to appeal from the action of the board to the Circuit Court of the county in which he resides.

Unless otherwise specified, members of boards are allowed $10 per day for each day actually spent in attending sessions of the board or of its committees and in necessary travel, and entitled to reimbursement for all actual and necessary expenses in carrying out their official duties.

Each board is required to make a report annually to the Governor on or before the first day of January, and the secretary of each board is required to prepare and maintain a complete roster of all persons licensed or registered by it.

*The act creating the State Road Commission provided for the appointment of three road commissioners. In 1933, the legislature, amended the road laws and placed the administration of the affairs of the commission in the hands of a single Road Commissioner. Ernest L. Bailey was the first Road Commissioner appointed by Governor Kump under the provisions of the amended act.

**Appointed by Governor Underwood, "to serve temporarily" until the appointment of a permanent Commissioner.

THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE BAR (Integrated)
Offices: State Capitol—Telephone DI 6-8414

Created by the Supreme Court of Appeals under its inherent rule-making power as authorized by Chapter 44, Acts of the Legislature, 1945. The court adopted and promulgated a definition of the practice of law; a code of professional ethics, a code of judicial ethics and a constitution and by-laws for the government of the State Bar, effective May 1, 1947. Its membership consists of all persons lawfully admitted to the practice of law in West Virginia. No person can practice law in the State of West Virginia unless he is a member in good standing of The West Virginia State Bar. There are two classes of membership—active and inactive. The annual active membership fee is now $15.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for more than five years, and $10.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for not more than five years.

The objects of the State Bar are to protect the interests of the public; to advance the administration of justice and the science of jurisprudence; to improve the relations between the public and the Bench and the Bar; to uphold and elevate the standards of honor, integrity, competency and courtesy in the legal profession; and to encourage cordial relations among its members. It is its declared purpose to give effect to pertinent rules of the Supreme Court of Appeals, and to perform the functions expressed in its Constitution and By-Laws. A principal duty of the State Bar is to uphold the standards of professional ethics and to diligently and vigilantly investigate and prosecute violations of these standards.

The State Bar is governed by a Board of Governors, consisting of all officers, except the secretary-treasurer, as ex officio members, and sixteen Governors, one Governor being elected by the members of the Bar by a secret mail ballot in each of the sixteen State Bar Districts. Officers are a president, chairman of the board, first vice president, second vice president and secretary-treasurer.

*Preamble

Since through Divine Providence we enjoy the blessings of civil, political and religious liberty, we, the people of West Virginia, in and through the provisions of this Constitution, reaffirm our faith in and constant reliance upon God and seek diligently to promote, preserve and perpetuate good government in the State of West Virginia for the common welfare, freedom and security of ourselves and our posterity.

ARTICLE I

Relations to the Government of the United States

1. The State of West Virginia is, and shall remain, one of the United States of America. The Constitution of the United States of America, and the laws and treaties made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land.

Internal Government and Police

2. The Government of the United States is a government of enumerated powers, and all powers not delegated to it, nor inhibited to the States, are reserved to the States or to the people thereof. Among the powers so reserved by the States is the exclusive regulation of their own internal government and police; and it is the high and solemn duty of the several departments of government, created by this Constitution, to guard and protect the people of this State from all encroachments upon the rights so reserved.

Continuity of Constitutional Operation

3. The provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of this State, are operative alike in a period of war as in time of peace, and any departure therefrom, or violation thereof, under the plea of necessity, or any other plea, is subversive of good government, and tends to anarchy and despotism.

Representatives to Congress

4. For the election of representatives to Congress, the State shall be divided into districts, corresponding in number with the representatives to which it may be entitled; which districts shall be formed of contiguous counties, and be compact. Each district shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of population, to be determined according to the rule prescribed in the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE II

The State

1. The territory of the following counties, formerly parts of the Commonwealth of Virginia, shall constitute and form the State of West Virginia, viz:

The counties of Barbour, Berkeley, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Calhoun, Clay, Doddridge, Fayette, Gilmer, Grant, Greenbrier, Hampshire, Hancock, Hardy, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Kanawha, Lewis, Lincoln, Logan, Marion, Marshall, Mason, McDowell, Mercer, Mineral, Monongalia, Monroe, Morgan, Nicholas, Ohio, Pendleton, Pleasants, Pocohantas, Preston, Putnam, Raleigh, Randolph, Ritchie, Roane, Summers, Taylor, Tucker, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Webster, Wetzel, Wirt, Wood and Wyoming. The State of West Virginia includes the bed, bank and shores of the Ohio River, and so much of the Big Sandy River as was formerly included in the Commonwealth of Virginia; and all territorial rights and property in, and jurisdiction over the same, heretofore reserved by, and vested in, the Commonwealth of Virginia, are vested in and shall hereafter be exercised by the State of West Virginia. And such parts of the said beds, banks and shores as lie opposite, and adjoining the several counties of this State, shall form parts of said several counties respectively.

[All of the territory of West Virginia was taken from the Commonwealth of Virginia and in the first constitution forty-four of the above named counties were designated as forming the State of West Virginia, and in addition the counties of Berkeley, Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Morgan and Pendleton were to be admitted should the constitution be adopted by a vote of the people of the districts comprising the counties. The districts adopted the constitution and these six counties became a part of the State.]

The remaining five counties were created by acts of the Legislature as follows: Mineral County, from Hampshire County, on February 1, 1866; Grant County, from Hardy County, on February 14, 1866; Lincoln County from parts of Cabell, Putnam, Kanawha and Boone Counties, on February 23, 1867; Summers County, from parts of Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer and Fayette Counties, on February 27, 1871; and Mingo County, from Logan County, on February 23, 1895.]

Powers of Government in Citizens

2. The powers of government reside in all the citizens of the State, and can be rightfully exercised only in accordance with their will and appointment.

Requisites of Citizenship

3. All persons residing in this State, born, or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, shall be citizens of this State.

Equal Representation

4. Every citizen shall be entitled to equal representation in the government, and in all apportionments of representation, equality of numbers of those entitled thereto, shall as far as practical, be preserved.

Provisions Regarding Property

5. No distinction shall be made between resident aliens and citizens as to the acquisition, tenure, disposition or descent of property.

Treason, What Constitutes—Penalty

6. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason, unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. Treason shall be punished according to the character of the acts committed, by the infliction of one, or more, of the penalties of death, imprisonment or fine, as may be prescribed by law.

"Montani Semper Liberi"—State Seal

7. The present seal of the State, with its motto "Montani Semper Liberi", shall be the great seal of the state of West Virginia, and shall be kept by the Secretary of State, to be used by him officially, as directed by law.

Writs, Commissions, Official Bonds—Indictments

8. Writs, grants and commissions, issued under the authority of this State, shall run in the name of, and official bonds shall be made payable to the State of West Virginia. Indictments shall conclude, "Against the peace and dignity of the State."

ARTICLE III

Bill of Rights

1. All men are, by nature, equally free and independent, and have certain inherent rights, of which, when they enter into a state of society, they cannot, by any compact, deprive or divert their posterity, namely: The enjoyment of life and liberty, with the means of acquiring and possessing property, and of pursuing and obtaining happiness and safety.

Magistrates Servants of People

2. All power is vested in, and consequently derived from, the people. Magistrates are their trustees and servants, and at all times amenable to them.

Rights Reserved to People

3. Government is instituted for the common benefit, protection and security of the people, nation or community. Of all its various forms, that is the best, which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety, and is most effectually secured against the danger of maladministration; and when any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes, a majority of the community has an indubitable, inalienable and indefeasible right to reform, alter or abolish it in such manner as shall be judged most conducive to the public weal.

Writ of Habeas Corpus

4. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended. No person shall be held to answer for treason, felony or other crime, not cognizable by a justice, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. No bill of attainder, ex-post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of a contract, shall be passed.

Excessive Bail Not Required

5. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted. Penalties shall be proportioned to the character and degree of the offense. No person shall be transported out of, or forced to leave the State for any offense committed within the same; nor shall any person, in any criminal case, be compelled to be a witness against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty for the same offense.

Unreasonable Search and Seizure Prohibited

6. The rights of the citizens to be secure in their houses, persons, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated. No warrant shall issue except upon probable cause, supported by oath, or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched, or the person or thing to be seized.

Freedom of Speech and Press Guaranteed

7. No law abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, shall be passed; but the Legislature may, by suitable penalties, restrain the publication or sale of obscene books, papers, or pictures, and provide for the punishment of libel, and defamation of character, and for the recovery, in civil actions, by the aggrieved party, of suitable damages for such libel, or defamation.

Relating to Civil Suits for Libel

8. In prosecutions and civil suits for libel, the truth may be given in evidence; and if it shall appear to the jury, that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives, and for justifiable ends, the verdict shall be for the defendant.

Private Property, How Taken

9. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use, without just compensation; nor shall the same be taken by any company, incorporated for the purposes of internal improvement, until just compensation shall have been paid, or secured to be paid, to the owner; and when private property shall be taken, or damaged for public use, or for the use of such corporation, the compensation to the owner shall be ascertained in such manner as may be prescribed by general law: Provided, That when required by either of the parties, such compensation shall be ascertained by an impartial jury of twelve freeholders.

Safeguards for Life, Liberty and Property

10. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, and the judgment of his peers.

Political Tests Condemned

11. Political tests, requiring persons, as a prerequisite to the enjoyment of their civil and political rights, to purge themselves by their own oaths, of past alleged offenses, are repugnant to the principles of free government, and are cruel and oppressive. No religious or political test oath shall be required as a prerequisite or qualification to vote, serve as a juror, sue, plead, appeal, or pursue any profession or employment. Nor shall any person be deprived by law, of any right, or privilege, because of any act done prior to the passage of such law.

Military Subordinate to Civil Power

12. Standing armies, in time of peace, should be avoided as dangerous to liberty. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power; and no citizen unless engaged in the military service of the State, shall be tried or punished by any military court for any offense that is cognizable by the civil courts of the State. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, except in the manner to be prescribed by law.

Right of Jury Trial

13. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy exceeds twenty dollars exclusive of interest and costs, the right of trial by jury, if required by either party, shall be preserved; and in such suit before a justice a jury may consist of six persons. No fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any case than according to the rules of the common law.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of March 7, 1879, Acts 1879, p. 182, and adopted at the next election. Prior to being amended, the section read as follows: "In suits at common law, where the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds twenty dollars, the right of trial by a jury of twelve men, if required by either party, shall be preserved; except that in appeals from judgments of justices, a jury of a less number may be authorized by law; but in trials of civil cases before a justice no jury shall be allowed and no fact tried by a jury shall in any case, be otherwise re-examined than according to the rules of common law."

The amendment as set forth above was proposed by joint resolution of March 7, 1879, and was adopted at the general election in 1880. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 56,482; Against ratification, 34,073; Majority, 22,409. Acts 1879, page 182.]

Trial of Crimes—Provisions in Interest of Accused

14. Trials of crime, and of misdemeanors, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be by a jury of twelve men*, public, without unreasonable delay, and in the county where the alleged offense was committed, unless upon petition of the accused, and for good cause shown, it is removed to some other county. In all such trials, the accused shall be fully and plainly informed of the character and cause of the accusation, and be confronted with the witness against him, and shall have the assistance of counsel, and a reasonable time to prepare for his defense; and there shall be awarded to him compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor.

Religious Freedom Guaranteed

15. No man shall be compelled to frequent or support any religious worship, place or ministry whatsoever; nor shall any man be enforced, restrained, molested or burthened, in his body or goods, or otherwise suffer, on account of his religious opinions or belief, but all men shall be free to profess, and, by argument, to maintain their opinions in matters of religion; and the same shall, in no wise, affect, diminish or enlarge their civil capacities; and the Legislature shall not prescribe any religious test whatever, or confer any peculiar privileges or advantages on any sect or denomination, or pass any law requiring or authorizing any religious society, or the people of any district within this State, to levy on themselves, or others, any tax for the erection or repair of any house for public worship, or for the support of any church or ministry, but it shall be left free for every person to select his religious instructor, and to make for his support such private contracts as he shall please.

Right of Public Assembly Held Inviolable

16. The right of the people to assemble in a peaceable manner, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, or to apply for redress of grievances, shall be held inviolable.

Courts Open to All—Justice Administered Speedily

17. The courts of this State shall be open, and every person, for an injury done to him, in his person, property or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law; and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay.

Conviction Not to Work Corruption of Blood or Forfeiture

18. No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate.

Hereditary Emoluments, Etc., Provided Against

19. No hereditary emoluments, honors or privileges shall ever be granted or conferred in this State.

Preservation of Free Government

20. Free government and the blessings of liberty can be preserved to any people only by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and virtue, and by a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles.

Jury Service for Women

Section 21. Regardless of sex all persons, who are otherwise qualified, shall be eligible to serve as petit jurors, in both civil and criminal cases, as grand jurors and as coroner's jurors.

[This section was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 2, Acts, Regular Session 1955, p. 571, and ratified at the General Election November 6, 1956. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 327,113; Against ratification, 202,002; Majority, 125,111.]

ARTICLE IV

Elections and Officers

1. The *male citizens of the State shall be entitled to vote at all elections held within the counties in which they respectively reside; but no person who is a minor, or of unsound mind, or a pauper, or who is under conviction of treason, felony, or bribery in any election, or who has not been a resident of the State for one year, and of the county in which he offers to vote, for sixty days next preceding such offer, shall be permitted to vote while such disability continues; but no person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be deemed a resident of this State by reason of being stationed therein.

Mode of Voting by Ballot

2. In all elections by the people, the mode of voting shall be by ballot; but the voter shall be left free to vote by either open, sealed or secret ballot, as he may elect.

Voter Not Subject to Arrest on Civil Process

3. No voter, during the continuance of an election at which he is entitled to vote, or during the time necessary and convenient for going to and returning from the same, shall be subject to arrest upon civil process, or be compelled to attend any court, or judicial proceeding, as suitor, juror or witness; or to work upon the public roads; or, except in time of war or public danger, to render military service.

Persons Entitled to Hold Office—Age Requirements

4. No person, except citizens entitled to vote, shall be elected or appointed to any state, county or municipal office; but the Governor and Judges must have attained the age of thirty, and the Attorney General and Senators the age of twenty-five years, at the beginning of their respective terms of service; and must have been citizens of the State for five years next preceding their election or appointment, or be citizens at the time this Constitution goes into operation.

Oath or Affirmation to Support the Constitution

5. Every person elected or appointed to any office, before proceeding to exercise the authority, or discharge the duties thereof, shall make oath or affirmation that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State, and that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his said office to the best of his skill and judgment; and no other oath, declaration, or test shall be required as a qualification, unless herein otherwise provided.

Provisions for Removal of Officials

6. All officers elected or appointed under this Constitution, may, unless in cases herein otherwise provided for, be removed from office for official misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty, or gross immorality, in such manner as may be prescribed by general laws, and unless so removed they shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices until their successors are elected, or appointed and qualified.

General Elections, When Held—Terms of Officials

7. The general elections of State and county officers, and of members of the Legislature, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, until otherwise provided by law. The terms of such officers not elected, or appointed to fill a vacancy, shall, unless herein otherwise provided, begin on the first day of January; and of the members of the Legislature, on the first day of December next succeeding their election. Elections to fill vacancies, shall be for the unexpired term. When vacancies occur prior to any general election, they shall be filled by appointments, in such manner as may be prescribed herein, or by general law, which appointments shall expire at such time after the next general election as the person so elected to fill such vacancy shall be qualified.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 21, 1883, Acts 1883, p. 137, and ratified at the next election. The original section provided that the general election should be held on "the second Tuesday of October," and the change was made in order that the election of State officers would fall on the same day as the presidential election. As a consequential amendment the term of office of members of the Legislature was made to begin on the first day of December instead of the first day of November, as in the original article.]

Further Provisions Regarding State's Officers and Agents

8. The Legislature, in cases not provided for in this Constitution, shall prescribe, by general laws, the terms of office, powers, duties and compensation of all public officers and agents, and the manner in which they shall be elected, appointed and removed.

Impeachment of Officials

9. Any officer of the State may be impeached for maladministration, corruption, incompetency, gross immorality, neglect of duty, or any high crime or misdemeanor. The House of Delegates shall have the sole power of impeachment. The Senate shall have the sole power to try impeachments and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected thereto. When sitting as a court of impeachment, the President of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or, if from any cause it be improper for him to act, then any other judge of that court, to be designated by it, shall preside; and the Senators shall be on oath or affirmation, to do justice according to law and evidence. Judgement in cases of impeachment, shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit, under the State; but the party convicted shall be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law. The Senate may sit during the recess of the Legislature for the trial of impeachments.

Fighting of Duels Prohibited

10. Any citizen of this State, who shall after the adoption of this Constitution, either in, or out of the State fight a duel with deadly weapons, or send or accept a challenge so to do, or who shall act as a second or knowingly aid or assist in such duel, shall, ever thereafter, be incapable of holding any office of honor, trust or profit in this State.

Safeguards for Ballots

11. The Legislature shall prescribe the manner of conducting and making returns of elections, and of determining contested election; and shall pass such laws as may be necessary and proper to prevent intimidation, disorder or violence at the polls, and corruption or fraud in voting, counting the vote, ascertaining or declaring the result, or fraud in any manner upon the ballot.

Registration Laws Provided For

12. The Legislature shall enact proper laws for the registration of all qualified voters of this State.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 22, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 472, and adopted at the next election. The original section read as follows: "No citizen shall ever be denied or refused the right or privilege of voting at an election, because his name is not, or has not been registered or listed as a qualified voter."]

ARTICLE V

Division of Powers

1. The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Departments shall be separate and distinct, so that neither shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others; nor shall any person exercise the powers of more than one of them at the same time, except that justices of the peace shall be eligible to the Legislature.

ARTICLE VI

Legislature

1. The legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and House of Delegates. The style of their Acts shall be, "Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia."

Composition of Senate and House of Delegates

2. The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four, and the House of Delegates of sixty-five members subject to be increased according to the provisions hereinafter contained.

[The Senate is now composed of thirty-two, and the House of Delegates of one hundred members.]

Senators and Delegates—Term of Office

3. Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Delegates for the term of two years. The Senators first elected, shall divide themselves into two classes, one Senator from every district being assigned to each class; and of these classes, the first to be designated by lot in such manner as the Senate may determine, shall hold their seats for two years and the second for four years, so that after the first election, one half of the Senators shall be elected biennially.

Division of State Into Senatorial Districts

4. For the election of Senators, the State shall be divided into twelve Senatorial districts, which number shall not be diminished, but may be increased as hereinafter provided. Every district shall elect two Senators, but, where the district is composed of more than one county, both shall not be chosen from the same county. The district shall be compact, formed of contiguous territory, bounded by county lines, and, as nearly as practicable, equal in population, to be ascertained by the census of the United States. After every such census, the Legislature shall alter the Senatorial Districts, so far as may be necessary to make them conform to the foregoing provision.

[There are now sixteen senatorial districts, as provided by Acts of 1937, ch. 128.]

Senatorial Districts Designated

5. Until the Senatorial Districts shall be altered by the Legislature as herein prescribed, the counties of Hancock, Brooke and Ohio, shall constitute the first Senatorial District; Marshall, Wetzel and Marion, the second; Ritchie, Doddridge, Harrison, Gilmer and Calhoun, the third; Tyler, Pleasants, Wood and Wirt, the fourth; Jackson, Mason, Putnam and Roane, the fifth; Kanawha, Clay, Nicholas, Braxton and Webster, the sixth; Cabell, Wayne, Lincoln, Boone, Logan, Wyoming, McDowell and Mercer, the seventh; Monroe, Greenbrier, Summers, Pocahontas, Fayette and Raleigh, the eighth; Lewis, Randolph, Upshur, Barbour, Taylor and Tucker, the ninth; Preston and Monongalia, the tenth; Hampshire, Mineral, Hardy, Grant and Pendleton, the eleventh; Berkeley, Morgan and Jefferson, the twelfth.

[By the provisions of the reapportionment act of 1937, (Acts 1937, ch. 128) the number of Senatorial Districts was increased to sixteen, the number of Senators to thirty-two, and the counties rearranged in the various districts.]

Provisions for Delegate Representation

6. For the election of Delegates, every county containing a population of less than three fifths of the ratio of representation for the House of Delegates, shall at each apportionment, be attached to some contiguous county or counties, to form a delegate District.

[By the provisions of the Acts of 1901, ch. 10, the House of Delegates consisted of eighty-six members, each county having at least one member. From 1916 to 1952, the House of Delegates consisted of ninety-four members. The House of Delegates now consists of one hundred members. See ch. 166, p. 666, Acts of the Legislature, 1951, Regular Session.]

After Census, Delegate Apportionment

7. After every census the Delegate shall be apportioned as follows: The ratio of representation for the House of Delegates shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of the State by the number of which the House is to consist and rejecting the fraction of a unit, if any, resulting from such division. Dividing the population of every delegate District, and of every county not included in a Delegate District, by the ratio thus ascertained, there shall be assigned to each a number of Delegates equal to the quotient obtained by this division, excluding the fractional remainder. The additional Delegates necessary to make up the number of which the House is to consist, shall then be assigned to those Delegate Districts, and counties not included in a Delegate District, which would otherwise have the largest fractions unrepresented; but every Delegate District and county not included in a Delegate District, shall be entitled to at least one Delegate.

Designation of Delegate Districts

8. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the counties of Pleasants and Wood shall form the first Delegate District, and elect three Delegates; Ritchie and Calhoun, the second, and elect two Delegates; Barbour, Harrison and Taylor the third, and elect one Delegate; Randolph and Tucker, the fourth, and elect one Delegate; Nicholas, Clay and Webster, the fifth, and elect one Delegate; McDowell and Wyoming, the sixth, and elect one Delegate.

[There are now no Delegate Districts, each county having at least one member.]

Further Apportionments

9. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the apportionment of Delegates to the counties not included in Delegate Districts, and to Barbour, Harrison and Taylor counties, embraced in such district, shall be as follows:

To Barbour, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Doddridge, Fayette, Hampshire, Hancock, Jackson, Lewis, Logan, Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer, Mineral, Morgan, Grant, Hardy, Lincoln, Pendleton, Putnam, Roane, Gilmer, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Wetzel, Wirt, Pocahontas, Summers and Raleigh counties one Delegate each.

To Berkeley, Harrison, Jefferson, Marion, Marshall, Mason, Monongalia and Preston counties, two Delegates each.

To Kanawha County, three Delegates.

To Ohio County, four Delegates.

[Many changes have been made in this apportionment. Kanawha County, the largest in population, now has eleven delegates. For the present apportionment, see chapter 166, Acts of the Legislature, 1951, Regular Session].

Arrangement of Senatorial and Delegate Districts

10. The arrangement of the Senatorial and Delegate Districts, and apportionment of Delegates, shall hereafter be declared by law, as soon as possible after each succeeding census taken by authority of the United States. When so declared they shall apply to the first general election for members of the Legislature, to be thereafter held, and shall continue in force unchanged, until such Districts shall be altered, and Delegates apportioned, under the succeeding census.

Additional Territory May Be Admitted Into State

11. Additional territory may be admitted into, and become part of the State, with the consent of the Legislature and a majority of the qualified voters of the State, voting on the question. And in such case provision shall be made by law for the representation thereof in the Senate and House of Delegates, in conformity with the principles set forth in this Constitution. And the number of members of which each house of the Legislature is to consist, shall thereafter be increased by the representation assigned to such additional territory.

Senators and Delegates Required to be Residents of District

12. No person shall be a Senator or Delegate who has not for one year next preceding his election, been a resident within the District or County from which he is elected; and if a Senator or Delegate remove from the District or County for which he was elected, his seat shall be thereby vacated.

Eligibility to Seat in Legislature

13. No person holding a lucrative office under this State, the United States, or any foreign government; no member of Congress; no person who is a salaried officer of any railroad company, or who is sheriff, constable, or clerk of any court of record, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislature.

Bribery Conviction Forfeits Eligibility

14. No person who has been, or hereafter shall be convicted of bribery, perjury, or other infamous crime, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislature. No person who may have collected or been entrusted with public money, whether State, county, township, district, or other municipal organization, shall be eligible to the Legislature, or to any office of honor, trust, or profit in the State, until he shall have duly accounted for and paid over such money according to law.

Senators and Delegates Not to Hold Civil Office for Profit

15. No Senator or Delegate, during the term for which he shall have been elected, shall be elected or appointed to any civil office of profit under this State, which has been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased during such term, except offices to be filled by election by the people. Nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he shall have been elected.

Oath of Senators and Delegates

16. Members of the Legislature, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Delegate) according to the best of my ability"; and they shall also take this further oath, to wit: "I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, from any corporation, company, or person for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Senator (or Delegate), on any bill, resolution, or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Senator (or Delegate)." These oaths shall be administered in the hall of the house to which the member is elected, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or of a Circuit Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer an oath; and the Secretary of State shall record and file said oaths subscribed by each member; and no other oath or declaration shall be required as a qualification. Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this State.

Members of Legislature Privileged from Civil Arrest

17. Members of the Legislature shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session, and for ten days before and after the same; and for words spoken in debate, or any report, motion or proposition made in either house, a member shall not be questioned in any other place.

*Time of Assembly of Legislature

18. The Legislature shall assemble annually at the seat of government, and not oftener, unless convened by the Governor. Regular sessions of the Legislature shall commence on the second Wednesday of January of each year. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Constitution, the board of public works shall, on and after the effective date hereof, submit to the Legislature an annual budget prepared as otherwise required by the Constitution.

[*This section originally read as follows: "The Legislature shall assemble at the seat of Government, biennially, and not oftener, unless convened by the Governor. The first session of the Legislature, after the adoption of this Constitution, shall commence on the third Tuesday of November, 1872; and the regular biennial session of the Legislature shall commence on the second Wednesday of January, 1875, and every two years thereafter, on the same day."

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, adopted March 11, 1953 (Acts 1953, p. 612), and ratified at the general election in November, 1954, the section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 190,877; Against ratification, 137,624; Majority, 53,253.]

Convening of Legislature by Governor

19. The Governor may convene the Legislature by proclamation whenever, in his opinion, the public safety or welfare shall require it. It shall be his duty to convene it, on application in writing, of three fifths of the members elected to each house.

Seat of Government

20. The seat of government shall be at Charleston, until otherwise provided by law.

Provisions for Assembling of Legislature Other Than at the Seat of Government

21. The Governor may convene the Legislature at another place, when, in his opinion, it can not safely assemble at the seat of Government, and the Legislature may, when in session, adjourn to some other place, when in its opinion, the public safety or welfare, or the safety of the members, or their health, shall require it.

*Length of Legislative Session

22. The regular session of the Legislature held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and every second year thereafter shall not exceed sixty days, and the regular session held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-six and every second year thereafter shall not exceed thirty days. During any thirty-day session, the Legislature shall consider no other business than the annual budget bill, except such as may be stated in a proclamation issued by the Governor at least ten days prior to the convening of the session, or such business as may be stated by the Legislature on its own motion in a concurrent resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house. All regular sessions may be extended by the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house.

Concerning Adjournment

23. Neither house shall, during the session, adjourn for more than three days, without the consent of the other. Nor shall either, without such consent, adjourn to any other place than that in which the Legislature is sitting.

*[This section originally read as follows: "No session of the Legislature, after the first, shall continue longer than forty-five days, without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house."]

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, adopted February 12, 1919 (Acts 1919, p. 498), and ratified at the general election in November 1920, it was amended to read: "All sessions of the Legislature, other than extraordinary sessions, shall continue in session for a period not exceeding fifteen days from date of convening, during which time no bills shall be passed or rejected, unless the same shall be necessary to provide for a public emergency, shall be specially recommended by the Governor and passed by a vote of four fifths of the members elected to each house; whereupon, a recess of both houses must be taken until the Wednesday after the second Monday of March following. On reassembling of the Legislature, no bill shall be introduced in either house without a vote of three fourths of all the members elected to each house taken by yeas and nays. The regular sessions shall not continue longer than forty-five days after reconvening, without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 160,929; Against ratification, 122,744; Majority, 38,185.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 9, Acts 1927, p. 350, adopted by the general election in November 1928, this section was amended to read as follows: "All sessions of the Legislature, other than extraordinary sessions, shall continue for a period of sixty days from the date of beginning. But all regular sessions may be extended by the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 275,374; Against ratification, 85,123; Majority, 190,251.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, adopted March 11, 1952 (Acts, 1953, p. 612), and ratified at the general election in November, 1954, the section was again amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 190,877; Against ratification, 137,624; Majority, 53,253.]

Rules Governing Legislative Proceedings

24. A majority of the members elected to each house of the Legislature shall constitute a quorum. But a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, as each house may provide. Each house shall determine the rules of its proceedings and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members. The Senate shall choose, from its own body, a President; and the House of Delegates, from its own body, a Speaker. Each house shall appoint its own officers, and remove them at pleasure. The oldest Delegate present shall call the House to order at the opening of each new House of Delegates, and preside over it until the Speaker thereof shall have been chosen and has taken his seat. The oldest member of the Senate present at the commencement of each regular session thereof shall call the Senate to order, and preside over the same until a President of the Senate shall have been chosen and has taken his seat.

Authority to Punish Members

25. Each house may punish its own members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected thereto, expel a member but not twice for the same offense.

Provisions for Undisturbed Transaction of Business

26. Each house shall have power to provide for its own safety and the undisturbed transaction of its business, and may punish, by imprisonment, any person not a member, for disrespectful behavior in its presence; for obstructing any of its proceedings, or any of its officers in the discharge of his duties, or for any assault, threat or abuse of a member, for words spoken in debate. But such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the termination of the session, and shall not prevent the punishment of any offense, by the ordinary course of law.

Accounting for State Monies

27. Laws shall be enacted and enforced, by suitable provisions and penalties, requiring sheriffs, and all other officers, whether State, county, district or municipal, who shall collect or receive, or whose official duty it is, or shall be, to collect, receive, hold or pay out any money belonging to, or which is, or shall be, for the use of the State or of any county, district, or municipal corporation, to make annual account and settlement therefor. Such settlement, when made, shall be subject to exceptions, and take such direction, and have only such force and effect, as may be provided by law; but in all cases such settlement shall be recorded, and be open to the examination of the people at such convenient place or places as may be appointed by law.

Origination of Bills

28. Bills and resolutions may originate in either house, but may be passed, amended or rejected by the other.

Requirements for Reading of Bills

29. No bill shall become a law until it has been fully and distinctly read, on three different days, in each house, unless in case of urgency, by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays on each bill, this rule be dispensed with: Provided, in all cases, that an engrossed bill shall be fully and distinctly read in each house.

Acts to Embrace But One Object—Time of Effect

30. No act hereafter passed shall embrace more than one object, and that shall be expressed in the title. But if any object shall be embraced in an act which is not so expressed, the act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be so expressed, and no law shall be revived, or amended, by reference to its title only; but the law revived, or the section amended, shall be inserted at large, in the new act. And no act of the Legislature, except such as may be passed at the first session under the Constitution, shall take effect until the expiration of ninety days after its passage, unless the Legislature shall by a vote of two thirds of the members elected to each house, taken by yeas and nays, otherwise direct.

How Bills May Be Amended

31. When a bill or joint resolution, passed by one house, shall be amended by the other, the question on agreeing to the bill, or joint resolution, as amended, shall be again voted on, by yeas and nays, in the house by which it was originally passed, and the result entered upon its journals; in all such cases, the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to such house shall be necessary.

"Majority" Defined

32. Whenever the words, "a majority of the members elected to either House of the Legislature", or words of like import, are used in this Constitution, they shall be construed to mean a majority of the whole number of members to which each house is, at the time, entitled, under the apportionment of representation, established by the provisions of this Constitution.

*Compensation of Members

33. Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars a year, and expenses for one round trip in connection with any session, at the rate of ten cents a mile traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government by the most direct route: Provided, That if party caucuses are held in advance of the date of the assembly of the Legislature in odd-numbered years for the purpose of selecting candidates for officers of the two houses, expenses for travel at the rate herein fixed shall be allowed each member for one round trip in connection with attending such caucus. The Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate shall each receive an additional compensation of five dollars a day for each day served as presiding officer. No other allowance or emolument than that by this section provided shall directly or indirectly be made or paid to the members of either house for postage, stationery, newspapers or any other purpose whatever. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Constitution, the compensation herein provided for shall be paid to each member of the Legislature on and after the adoption of this amendment.

Distribution of Laws and Journals Provided for—Contracts for Printing

34. The Legislature shall provide by law that the fuel, stationery and printing paper, furnished for the use of the State; the copying, printing, binding and distributing the laws and journals; and all other printing ordered by the Legislature, shall be let by contract to the lowest responsible bidder, bidding under a maximum price to be fixed by the Legislature; and no member or officer thereof, or officer of the State, shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in such contract, but all such contracts shall be subject to the approval of the Governor, and in case of his disapproval of any such contract, there shall be a reletting of the same in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

[*The amendment of sections 22 and 33, Art. VI, was proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, adopted February 12, 1919, Acts 1919, p. 456, and ratified at the general election November 2, 1920. The only change made in section 33 was to strike out the words "four dollars per day" and insert "five hundred dollars per annum." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 160,929; Against ratification, 122,744; Majority, 38,185.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 adopted March 11, 1953 (Acts 1953, p. 612), and ratified at the general election in November, 1954, the section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 190,877; Against ratification, 137,624; Majority, 53,253.

Prior to the last amendment, the section read as follows: "The members of the Legislature shall each receive for their services the sum of five hundred dollars per annum and ten cents for each mile traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government by the most direct route. The Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate, shall each receive an additional compensation of two dollars per day for each day they shall act as presiding officers. No other allowance or emolument than that by this section provided shall directly or indirectly be made or paid to the members of either house for postage, stationery, newspapers, or any other purpose whatever."

State Not to be Made Defendant in Any Court, Except in Garnishment Or Attachment Proceedings

35. The State of West Virginia shall never be made defendant in any court of law or equity, except the State of West Virginia, including any subdivision thereof or any municipality therein, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, may be made defendant in any garnishment or attachment proceeding, as garnishee or suggestee.

[This section originally read as follows: "The State of West Virginia shall never be made defendant in any court of law or equity;"]

Under House Joint Resolution No. 3 (Acts, Regular Session, 1935, p. 662), ratified November 3, 1936, this section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 161,386; Against ratification, 61,472; Majority, 99,914.]

Lotteries Prohibited

36. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize lotteries or gift enterprises for any purpose, and shall pass laws to prohibit the sale of lottery or gift enterprise tickets in this State.

Terms of Office Not To Be Extended After Election

37. No law shall be passed after the election of any public officer, which shall operate to extend the term of his office.

Salaries of Officials Cannot Be Increased During Official Terms

38. No extra compensation shall be granted or allowed to any public officer, agent, servant or contractor, after the services shall have been rendered or the contract made; nor shall any Legislature authorize the payment of any claim or part thereof, hereafter created against the State, under any agreement or contract made, without express authority of law; and all such unauthorized agreements shall be null and void. Nor shall the salary of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office, nor shall any such officer, or his or their sureties be released from any debt or liability due to the State: Provided, The Legislature may make appropriations for expenditures hereafter incurred in suppressing insurrection, or repelling invasion.

Local Laws Not to Be Passed in Enumerated Cases

39. The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases; that is to say, for:

- Granting divorces;
  - Laying out, opening, altering and working roads or highways;
  - Vacating roads, town plats, streets, alleys and public grounds;
  - Locating, or changing county seats;
  - Regulating, or changing county or district affairs;
  - Providing for the sale of church property, or property held for charitable uses;
  - Regulating the practice in courts of justice;
  - Incorporating cities, towns or villages, or amending the charter of any city, town or village, containing a population of less than two thousand;
  - Summoning or impaneling grand or petit juries;
  - The opening or conducting of any election, or designating the place of voting;
  - The sale and mortgage of real estate belonging to minors, or others under disability;
  - Chartering, licensing, or establishing ferries or toll bridges;
  - Remitting fines, penalties or forfeitures;
  - Changing the law of descent;
  - Regulating the rate of interest;
  - Authorizing deeds to be made for land sold for taxes;
  - Releasing taxes; releasing title to forfeited lands;
- The Legislature shall provide, by general laws, for the foregoing and all other cases for which provision can be made; and in no case shall a special act be passed, where a general law would be proper, and can be made applicable to the case, nor in any other case in which the courts have jurisdiction, and are competent to give the relief asked for.

Municipal Home Rule

39-a. No local or special law shall hereafter be passed incorporating cities, towns or villages, or amending their charters. The Legislature shall provide by general laws for the incorporation and government of cities, towns and villages, and shall classify such municipal corporations, upon the basis of population, into not less than two nor more than five classes. Such general laws shall restrict the powers of such cities, towns and villages, to borrow money and contract debts, and shall limit the rate of taxes for municipal purposes, in accordance with section one, article ten of the Constitution of the State of West Virginia. Under such general laws, the electors of each municipal corporation, wherein the population exceeds two thousand, shall have power and authority to frame, adopt and amend the charter of such corporation, or to amend an existing charter thereof, and through its legally constituted authority, may pass all laws and ordinances relating to its municipal affairs: Provided, That any such charter or amendment thereto, and any such law or ordinance so adopted, shall be invalid and void if inconsistent or in conflict with this Constitution or the general laws of the State then in effect, or thereafter from time to time enacted.

[This section was proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 3 (Acts Regular Session, 1935, p. 706) and ratified at the general election November 3, 1936. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 150,370; Against ratification, 59,580; Majority, 90,790.]

Limiting Powers of Court or Judge

40. The Legislature shall not confer upon any court, or judge, the power of appointment to office, further than the same is herein provided for.

Each House to Keep Journal of Proceedings

41. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and cause the same to be published from time to time, and all bills and joint resolutions shall be described therein, as well by their title as their number, and the yeas and nays on any question, if called for by one tenth of those present, shall be entered on the journal.

Appropriation Bills to Be Specific

42. Bills making appropriations for the pay of members and officers of the Legislature, and for salaries for the officers of the government, shall contain no provision on any other subject.

Board of Court of Registration of Voters Prohibited

43. The Legislature shall never authorize or establish any board or court of registration of voters.

Election of Legislative, County and Municipal Officers

44. In all elections to office which may hereafter take place in the Legislature, or in any county, or municipal body, the vote shall be viva voce, and be entered on its journals.

Bribery and Attempt to Bribe—Punishment

45. It shall be the duty of the Legislature, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, to provide, by law, for the punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary, of any person who shall bribe, or attempt to bribe, any executive or judicial officer of this State, or any member of the Legislature in order to influence him, in the performance of any of his official or public duties; and also to provide by law for the punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary of any of said officers, or any member of the Legislature, who shall demand, or receive from any corporation, company or person, any money, testimonial, or other valuable thing, for the performance of his official or public duties, or for refusing or failing to perform the same, or for any vote or influence a member of the Legislature may give or withhold as such member; and also to provide by Law for compelling any person, so bribing or attempting to bribe, or so demanding or receiving a bribe, fee, reward, or testimonial, to testify against any person or persons, who may have committed any of said offenses: Provided, That any person so compelled to testify, shall be exempted from trial and punishment for the offense of which he may have been guilty, and concerning which he is compelled to testify; and any person convicted of any of the offenses specified in this section, shall, as a part of the punishment thereof, be forever disqualified from holding any office or position of honor, trust, or profit in this State.

Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors

46. The Legislature shall by appropriate legislation, regulate the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of this State, and any law authorizing the sale of such liquors shall forbid and penalize the consumption and the sale thereof for consumption in a saloon or other public place.

[This section originally read as follows: "Laws may be passed regulating or prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of this State." Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 6 (Acts 1911, p. 289), ratified at the general election in 1912, it was amended to read: "On and after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred fourteen, the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of malt, vinous or spiritous liquors, wine, porter, ale, beer or any intoxicating drink, mixture or preparation of like nature, except as hereinafter provided, are hereby prohibited in this State: Provided, however, That the manufacture and sale and keeping for sale of such liquors for medicinal, pharmaceutical, mechanical, sacramental and scientific purposes, and the manufacture and sale of denatured alcohol for industrial purposes may be permitted under such regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. The Legislature shall, without delay, enact such laws, with regulations, conditions, securities and penalties as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section."

Under Senate Committee Substitute for House Joint Resolution No. 1, (Acts, Regular Session, 1933, p. 532) ratified November 6, 1934, this section was again amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment (1934): For ratification, 276,978; Against ratification, 237,559; Majority, 39,419.]

Incorporation of Religious Denominations Prohibited

47. No charter of incorporation shall be granted to any church or religious denomination. Provisions may be made by general laws for securing the title to church property, and for the sale and transfer thereof, so that it shall be held, used, or transferred for the purposes of such church, or religious denomination.

Homestead Exemption

48. Any husband or parent, residing in this State, or the infant children of deceased parents, may hold a homestead of the value of one thousand dollars, and personal property to the value of two hundred dollars, exempt from forced sale subject to such regulations as shall be prescribed by law: Provided, That such homestead exemption shall in no wise affect debts or liabilities existing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution: And provided further, That no property shall be exempt from sale for taxes due thereon, or for the payment of purchase money due upon said property, or for debts contracted for the erection of improvements thereon.

Property of Married Women

49. The Legislature shall pass such laws as may be necessary to protect the property of married women from the debts, liabilities and control of their husbands.

Plan of Proportional Representation

50. The Legislature may provide for submitting to a vote of the people at the general election to be held in 1876, or at any general election thereafter, a plan or scheme of proportional representation in the Senate of this State; and if a majority of the votes cast at such election be in favor of the plan submitted to them, the Legislature shall, at its session succeeding such election, rearrange the Senatorial Districts in accordance with the plan so approved by the people.

The Budget System

51. The Legislature shall not appropriate any money out of the treasury except in accordance with the following provisions:

Sub-Section A

Every appropriation bill shall be either a budget bill, or a supplementary appropriation bill, as hereinafter mentioned.

Sub-Section B

First: Within ten days after the convening of the Legislature, unless such time shall be extended by the Legislature for the sessions at which the budget is to be submitted, the board of public works, which shall consist of the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Superintendent of Free Schools and Commissioner of Agriculture, shall submit to the Legislature, *two budgets, one for each of the ensuing fiscal years: Each budget shall contain a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the particular fiscal year to which it relates; and shall show the estimated surplus or deficit of revenues at the end of such year. Accompanying each budget shall be a statement showing: (1) The revenues and expenditures for each of the two fiscal years next preceding; (2) the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State; (3) the debts and funds of the State; (4) an estimate of the State's financial condition as of the beginning and end of each of the fiscal years covered by the two budgets above provided; (5) any explanation the board of public works may desire to make as to the important features of any budget and any suggestion as to methods for the reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

Second: Each budget shall be divided into two parts, and the first part shall be designated "Governmental Appropriations" and shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations: (1) For the Legislature as certified to the board of public works in the manner hereinafter provided; (2) for the executive department; (3) for the judiciary department, as provided by law, certified to the Governor by the Auditor; (4) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of any debt of the State of West Virginia hereafter created in conformity with the Constitution and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (5) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (6) for the aid of public schools in conformity with the laws of the State; (7) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution and laws made in pursuance thereof.

Third: The second part shall be designated "General Appropriations", and shall include all other estimates of appropriations.

The board of public works shall deliver to the presiding officer of each house the budgets and a bill for all the proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each house shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The board of public works may, before final action thereon by the Legislature, amend or supplement either of said budgets to correct an oversight or in case of an emergency, with the consent of the Legislature by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officer of both houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said budget bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

The Legislature shall not amend the budget bill so as to create a deficit but may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the Legislature, and by increasing the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein: Provided, however, That the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office; and such bill when and as passed by both houses shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

*This provision has been modified by the amendment of section eighteen of this article, requiring an annual budget.

Fourth: The Governor and such representatives of the boards, officers and commissions of the State expending or applying for State's money as have been designated by the board of public works for this purpose, shall have the right, and when requested by either house of the Legislature it shall be their duty to appear and be heard with respect to any budget bill during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relative thereto.

Sub-Section C—Supplementary Appropriation Bills

Neither house shall consider other appropriations until the budget bill has been finally acted upon by both houses, and no such other appropriations shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following:

(1) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein, a supplementary appropriation bill; (2) each supplementary appropriation bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made by a tax, direct or indirect, to be laid and collected as shall be directed in said bill unless it appears from such budget that there is sufficient revenue available; (3) no supplementary appropriation bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each house by a vote of a majority of the members present, and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage. Each supplementary appropriation bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in section fourteen of article seven of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said section shall apply.

Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as preventing the Legislature from passing in time of war an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State of West Virginia within the protection of section ten of article one of the Constitution of the United States.

Sub-Section D—General Provisions

First: If the "Budget Bill" shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for such further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill; but no other matter than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

Second: The board of public works for the purpose of making up its budgets shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative officers, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for state monies and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as said board shall direct. The estimates for the legislative department, certified by the presiding officer of each house, of the judiciary, as provided by law, certified by the Auditor, and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be transmitted to the board of public works, in such form and at such times as it shall direct, and shall be included in the budget.

The board of public works may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies, and all institutions applying for state monies. After such public hearings it may, in its discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools as provided by law.

Third: The Legislature may, from time to time, enact such laws, not inconsistent with this section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

Fourth: In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this section and any of the other provisions of the Constitutions, except amendments thereto heretofore made and ratified by the people, the provisions of this section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the Legislature, as provided by section seven of article seven, or as preventing the Legislature at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

[This section—added to Article VI—was authorized to be submitted by Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, adopted May 23, 1917 (Acts 1917, p. 69 ex. sess.) and was ratified by a vote of the people at the general election held on the fifth day of November, 1918, as an amendment to the Constitution known as "The Budget Amendment." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 51,405; Against ratification, 26,651; Majority, 24,754.]

If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the bill or of any other item of such bill or bills.

Motor Fuel and Motor Vehicle Revenue

52. Revenue from gasoline and other motor fuel excise and license taxation, motor vehicle registration and license taxes, and all other revenue derived from motor vehicles or motor fuels shall after the deduction of statutory refunds and cost of administration and collection authorized by legislative appropriation, be appropriated and used solely for construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways, and also the payment of the interest and principal on all road bonds heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of public highways, and the payment of obligations incurred in the construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways.

[This section was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 6 (Acts, Regular Session, 1941, p. 589), and ratified at the General Election November 3, 1942. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 228,828; Against ratification, 38,651; Majority, 190,177.]

Forestry

53. The Legislature may by general law define and classify forest lands and provide for cooperation by contract between the State and the owner in the planting, protection, and harvesting thereof. Forest lands embraced in any such contract may be exempted from all taxation or be taxed in such manner, including the imposition of a severance tax or charge as trees are harvested, as the Legislature may from time to time provide. But any tax measured by valuation shall not exceed the aggregate rates authorized by section one of article ten of this Constitution.

[This section was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 7, (Acts, Regular Session, 1945, p. 640) and ratified at the General Election November 5, 1946. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 179,150; Against ratification, 148,104; Majority, 31,046.]

ARTICLE VII

Executive Department

1. The executive department shall consist of a Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture and Attorney General, who shall be ex officio reporter of the court of appeals. Their terms of office shall be four years, and shall commence on the first Monday after the second Wednesday of

[This section originally read as follows: "The executive department shall consist of a Governor, Secretary of State, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney General, who shall be ex officio reporter of the court of appeals. Their terms of office, respectively, shall be four years, and shall commence on the fourth day of March, next after their election. They shall, except the Attorney General, reside at the seat of government during their terms of office, and keep there the public records, books and papers pertaining to their respective offices and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law."

Under House Joint Resolution No. 7 (Acts, First Extraordinary Session, 1933, p. 506), and ratified at the general election November 6, 1934, it was amended to read: "The executive department shall consist of a Governor, Secretary of State, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture and Attorney General, who shall be ex officio reporter of the court of appeals. Their terms of office shall be four years, and shall commence on the first Monday after the second Wednesday of January next after their election. They shall reside at the seat of government, during their terms of office, and keep there the public records, books and papers pertaining to their respective offices, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 251,965; Against ratification, 145,787; Majority, 106,178.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 (Acts, Regular Session, 1957, p. 837), and ratified at the general election November 4, 1958, the section was again amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 230,879; Against ratification, 206,201; Majority, 24,678.]

January next after their election. They shall reside at the seat of government during their terms of office, keep there the public records, books and papers pertaining to their respective offices, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

Election

2. An election for Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture and Attorney General shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed by law.

[This section originally read as follows: "An election for Governor, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer, and Attorney General, shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed in this Constitution or by general law."

Under House Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts, Regular Session, 1901, p. 459), and ratified at the general election in 1902, it was amended to read as follows: "An election for Governor, Secretary of State, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney General, shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed by law."

Certification of Election Returns—Contests

3. The returns of every election for the above-named officers shall be sealed up and transmitted by the returning officers to the Secretary of State, directed to "the Speaker of the House of Delegates," who shall, immediately after the organization of the House, and before proceeding to business, open and publish the same, in the presence of a majority of each house of the Legislature, which shall for that purpose assemble in the Hall of the House of Delegates. The person having the highest number of votes for either of said offices, shall be declared duly elected thereto; but if two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the Legislature shall, by joint vote, choose one of such persons for said office. Contested elections for the office of Governor shall be determined by both houses of the Legislature by joint vote in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by Joint Resolution of February 15, 1901 (Acts 1901, p. 460), and ratified at the general election in 1902. The effect of the amendment was to strike out the following at the end of the original section: "The Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall continue in office, unless sooner removed, until the expiration of the official term of the Governor by whom he shall have been appointed." For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2.]

Eligibility

4. None of the executive officers mentioned in this article shall hold any other office during the term of his service. The Governor shall not be eligible to said office for the four years next succeeding the term for which he was elected.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 15, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 460, and adopted at the next election. The section prior to being amended, read as follows: "Neither the Governor, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer, nor Attorney General, shall hold any other office during the term of his service. The Governor shall be ineligible to said office for the four years next succeeding the term for which he was elected." For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2.]

Chief Executive—Powers

5. The chief executive power shall be vested in the Governor, who shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Governor's Message

6. The Governor shall at the commencement of each session, give to the Legislature information by message, of the condition of the State, and shall recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient. He shall accompany his message with a statement of all money received and paid out by him from any funds, subject to his order, with vouchers therefor; and at the commencement of each regular session, present estimates of the amount of money required by taxation for all purposes.

Extraordinary Legislative Sessions

7. The Governor may on extraordinary occasions convene at his own instance, the Legislature; but when so convened it shall enter upon no business except that stated in the proclamation by which it was called together.

Governor to Nominate Certain Officers

8. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays), appoint all officers whose offices are established by this Constitution, or shall be created by law, and whose appointment or election is not otherwise provided for; and no such officer shall be appointed or elected by the Legislature.

Recess Vacancies—How Filled

9. In case of a vacancy, during the recess of the Senate, in any office which is not elective, the Governor shall, by appointment, fill such vacancy, until the next meeting of the Senate, when he shall make a nomination for such office and the person so nominated, when confirmed by the Senate, (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays) shall hold his office during the remainder of the term, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person, after being rejected by the Senate, shall be again nominated for the same office, during the same session, unless at the request of the Senate; nor shall such person be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Senate.

Governor's Power of Removal

10. The Governor shall have power to remove any officer whom he may appoint in case of incompetency, neglect of duty, gross immorality, or malfeasance in office; and he may declare his office vacant and fill the same as herein provided in other cases of vacancy.

Executive May Remit Fines and Forfeitures

11. The Governor shall have power to remit fines and penalties in such cases and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; to commute capital punishment and, except where the prosecution has been carried on by the House of Delegates, to grant reprieves and pardons after conviction; but he shall communicate to the Legislature at each session the particulars of every case of fine or penalty remitted, or punishment commuted and of reprieve or pardon granted, with his reasons therefor.

Governor Commander-in-Chief of Military Forces

12. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the military forces of the State (except when they shall be called into the service of the United States), and may call out the same to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion.

Official Bond of State Officers

13. When any State officer has executed his official bond, the Governor shall, for such causes and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, require of such officer reasonable additional security; and if the security is not given as required, his office shall be declared vacant, in such manner as may be provided by law.

How Bills Become Laws

14. Every bill passed by the Legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approves, he shall sign it, and thereupon it shall become a law; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such consideration, a majority of the members elected to that house agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other house, by which it shall likewise, be reconsidered, and if approved by a majority of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. But in all such cases, the vote of each house shall be determined by yeas and nays to be entered on the journal. Any bill which shall not be returned by the Governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed with his objections in the office of the Secretary of State, within five days after such adjournment, or become a law.

Respecting Appropriations of Monies

15. Every bill passed by the Legislature making appropriations of money, embracing distinct items, shall before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor, if he disapproves the bill, or any item of appropriation therein contained, he shall communicate such disapproval with his reasons therefor to the house in which the bill originated; but all items not disapproved shall have the force and effect of law according to the original provisions of the bill. Any item or items so disapproved shall be void, unless re-passed by a majority of each house according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the preceding section in reference to other bills.

Vacancy in Governorship, How Filled

16. In case of the death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, or other disability of the Governor, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the President of the Senate, for any of the above named causes, shall become incapable of performing the duties of Governor, the same shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Delegates; and in all other cases where there is no one to act as Governor, one shall be chosen by joint vote of the Legislature. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Governor before the first three years of the term shall have expired, a new election for Governor shall take place to fill the vacancy.

Vacancies in Other Executive Departments

17. If the office of Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture or Attorney General shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them, respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation; and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

[This section originally read as follows: "If the office of Auditor, Treasurer, State Superintendent of Free Schools, or Attorney General, shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be provided by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation, and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury."

In the first amendment of this section, proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts, Regular Session, 1901, p. 460) and ratified at the general election 1902, the only change in the original section was the insertion of the words "Secretary of State" in the first line, and by substitution of the word "prescribed" for the word "provided" in the eighth line.

Executive Heads to Make Reports

18. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all the public institutions of the State, shall at least ten days, preceding each regular session of the Legislature, severally report to the Governor, who shall transmit such report to the Legislature; and the Governor may at any time require information in writing, under oath, from the officers of his department, and all officers and managers of State institutions, upon any subject relating to the condition, management and expenses of their respective offices.

Salaries of Officials

19. The officers named in this article shall receive for their services a salary to be established by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their official terms, and they shall not, after the expiration of the terms of those in office at the adoption of this amendment, receive to their own use any fees, costs, perquisites of office, or other compensation, and all fees that may hereafter be payable by law, for any service performed by any officer provided for in this article of the Constitution, shall be paid in advance into the State treasury.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution adopted February 13, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 459, and ratified at the general election in 1902. This section, prior to amendment read as follows: "The Governor shall receive for his services, a salary of twenty-seven hundred dollars per annum and no additional emolument, allowance or perquisite shall be paid or made to him, on any account. Any person acting as Governor shall receive the emoluments of that office. The Secretary of State shall receive one thousand; the State Superintendent of Free Schools, fifteen hundred; the Treasurer, fourteen hundred; the Auditor, two thousand, and the Attorney General, thirteen hundred dollars per annum; and no additional emolument or allowance, except as herein otherwise provided shall be paid or made out of the treasury of the State to any of the foregoing executive officers on any account."]

Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 56,280; Against ratification, 23,513; Majority, 32,767.]

Judicial Department

1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a supreme court of appeals, in circuit courts and the judges thereof, in such inferior tribunals as are herein authorized and in justices of the peace.

[The amendment of this entire article was proposed by joint resolution of March 6, 1879, Acts 1879, p. 175, and ratified at the general election in 1880.]

Supreme Court of Appeals

2. The supreme court of appeals shall consist of *four judges, any three of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall be elected by the voters of the State and hold their office for the term of twelve years, unless sooner removed in the manner prescribed by this Constitution, except that the judges in office when this article takes effect, shall remain therein until the expiration of their present term of office.

[*The supreme court of appeals consists of five judges, by the provisions of the "Judicial Amendment" set forth at the end of the Constitution, and Acts 1903, ch. 19, amending and reenacting section 1 of chapter 113 of Warth's Code of 1899.]

Scope of Jurisdiction

3. It shall have original jurisdiction in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus, and prohibition. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy, exclusive of costs, is of greater value or amount than one hundred dollars; in controversies concerning the title or boundaries of land, the probate of wills, the appointment or qualification of a personal representative, guardian, committee or curator, or concerning a mill, road, way, ferry or landing; or the right of a corporation or county to levy tolls or taxes; and, also, in case of quo warranto, habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition, and in cases involving freedom or the constitutionality of a law. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases where there has been a conviction for felony or misdemeanor in a circuit court, and where a conviction has been had in any inferior court and been affirmed in a circuit court, and in cases relating to the public revenue, the right of appeal shall belong to the State as well as the defendant, and such other appellate jurisdiction, in both civil and criminal cases, as may be prescribed by law.

Binding Authority of Decisions

4. No decision rendered by the supreme court of appeals shall be considered as binding authority upon any of the inferior courts of this State, except in the particular case decided, unless such decision is concurred in by at least three judges of said court.

Reversal or Affirmance of Judgments

5. When a judgment or decree is reversed or affirmed by the supreme court of appeals, every point fairly arising upon the record of the case shall be considered and decided; and the reason therefor shall be concisely stated in writing and preserved with the record of the case; and it shall be the duty of the court to prepare a syllabus of the points adjudicated in each case concurred in by three of the judges thereof, which shall be prefixed to the published report of the case.

Writ of Error, Supersedeas and Appeal

6. A writ of error, supersedeas, or appeal shall be allowed only by the supreme court of appeals, or a judge thereof, upon a petition assigning error in the judgment of proceedings of the inferior court and then only after said court or judge shall have examined and considered the record and assignment of errors, and is satisfied that there is error in the same, or that it presents a point proper for the consideration of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

Provisions for Filling Supreme Court Vacancies

7. If from any cause a vacancy shall occur in the supreme court of appeals, the Governor shall issue a writ of election to fill such vacancy at the next general election for the residue of the term, and in the meantime he shall fill such vacancy by appointment until a judge is elected and qualified. But if the unexpired term be less than two years the Governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

Officers of Supreme Court

8. The officers of the supreme court of appeals, except the reporter, shall be appointed by the court, or in vacation by the judges, thereof, with the power of removal; their duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law.

Terms of Supreme Court

9. There shall be at least two terms of the supreme court of appeals held annually at such times and places as may be prescribed by law.

Circuit Courts

10. The State shall be divided into *thirteen circuits. For the circuit hereinafter called the first, two judges shall be elected, and for each of the other circuits one judge shall be elected by the voters thereof. Each of the judges so elected shall hold his office for the term of eight years unless sooner removed, in the manner prescribed in this Constitution. The judges of the circuit courts in office when this article takes effect, shall remain therein until the expiration of the term for which they have been elected in the circuits in which they may respectively reside, unless sooner removed as aforesaid. A vacancy in the office of a judge of the circuit court shall be filled in the same manner as is provided for in the case of a vacancy in the office of a judge of the supreme court of appeals. During his continuance in office the judge of a circuit court may reside in the circuit of which he is judge. The business of the first circuit may be apportioned between the judges thereof, and such judges may hold courts in the same county or in different counties within the circuit at the same time or at different times as may be prescribed by law.

Terms of Circuit Court

11. A circuit court shall be held in every county in the State at least three times in each year, and provisions may be made by law for holding special terms of said court. A judge of any circuit may hold the courts in another circuit.

Circuit Court Jurisdiction

12. The circuit court shall have the supervision and control of all proceedings before justices and other inferior tribunals, by mandamus, prohibition and certiorari. They shall, except in cases confined exclusively by this Constitution to some other tribunal, have original and general jurisdiction of all matters at law where the amount in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds fifty dollars; of all cases of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto and prohibition; and of all cases in equity, and of all crimes and misdemeanors. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, civil and criminal, where an appeal, writ of error or supersedeas may be allowed to the judgment or proceedings of any inferior tribunal. They shall also have such other jurisdiction, whether supervisory, original, appellate, or concurrent, as is or may be prescribed by law.

Division of State Into Circuits

13. Until otherwise provided by law, the State shall be divided into the following circuits: The counties of Brooke, Hancock, Ohio and Marshall shall constitute the first circuit; the counties of Monongalia, Marion and Harrison, the second; the counties of Preston, Taylor, Barbour, Tucker and Randolph, the third; the counties of Wetzel, Tyler, Ritchie and Doddridge, the fourth; the counties of Wood, Wirt, and Pleasants, the fifth; the counties of Clay, Gilmer, Jackson, Roane and Calhoun, the sixth; the counties of Putnam, Kanawha and Mason, the seventh; the counties of Cabell, Wayne, Lincoln and Logan, the eighth; the counties of McDowell, Mercer, Raleigh, Wyoming and Boone, the ninth; the counties of Greenbrier, Monroe, Summers, Fayette and Pocahontas, the tenth; the counties of Upshur, Lewis, Braxton, Nicholas and Webster, the eleventh; the counties of Grant, Hardy, Hampshire, Mineral and Pendleton, the twelfth; the counties of Jefferson, Berkeley and Morgan, the thirteenth.

[By various acts of the Legislature, authorized by section 14 following, the above division has been changed and the number of circuits increased to twenty-nine.]

Rearrangements of State Into Circuits

14. The Legislature may rearrange the circuits herein provided for at any session thereof, next preceding any general election of the judges of said circuits, and after the year one thousand eight hundred eighty-eight, may, at any such session, increase or diminish the number thereof.

Special Terms and Judges of Circuit Courts

15. The Legislature shall provide by law for holding regular and special terms of the circuit courts, where from any cause the judge shall fail to attend, or, in attendance, can not properly preside.

Salaries of and Limitation on Judges

16. All judges shall be commissioned by the Governor. The *salary of a judge of the supreme court of appeals shall be two thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and that of a judge of the circuit court shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; and each shall receive the same mileage as members of the Legislature: Provided, That Ohio County may pay an additional sum per annum to the judges of the circuit court thereof; but such allowances shall not be increased or diminished during the term of office of the judges to whom it may have been made. No judge, during his term of office, shall practice the profession of law or hold any other office, appointment, or public trust, under this or any other government, and the acceptance thereof shall vacate his judicial office. Nor shall he, during his continuance therein, be eligible to any political office.

[*Under the judicial amendment proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 15, Acts 1901, page 462, and ratified in 1902, the salaries of the judges of the supreme court of appeals have been fixed by legislative enactment at seventeen thousand five hundred dollars per annum.]

How Judges May Be Removed

17. Judges may be removed from office by a concurrent vote of both houses of the Legislature, when from age, disease, mental or bodily infirmity or intemperance, they are incapable of discharging the duties of their office. But two thirds of all the members elected to each house must concur in such vote, and the cause of removal shall be entered upon the journal of each house. The judge against whom the Legislature may be about to proceed shall receive notice thereof, accompanied with the cause alleged for his removal, at least twenty days before the day on which action is proposed to be taken therein.

General Provisions—Clerk of Circuit Courts

18. The voters of each county shall elect a clerk of the circuit court, whose term of office shall be six years; his duties and compensation and the manner of removing him from office shall be prescribed by law; and when a vacancy shall occur in the office, the circuit court or the judge thereof in vacation shall fill the same by appointment until the next general election. In any case in respect to which the clerk shall be so situated as to make it improper for him to act, the said court shall appoint a clerk to act therein. The clerks of said courts in office when this article takes effect, shall remain therein for the term for which they were elected, unless sooner removed in the manner prescribed by law.

Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

19. The Legislature may establish courts of limited jurisdiction within any county, incorporated city, town or village, with the right of appeal to the circuit court, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law; and all courts of limited jurisdiction heretofore established in any county, incorporated city, town or village, shall remain as at present constituted until otherwise provided by law. The municipal court of Wheeling shall continue in existence until otherwise provided by law, and said court and the judge thereof, shall exercise the powers and jurisdiction heretofore conferred upon them; and appeals in civil cases from said court shall lie directly in the supreme court of appeals.

Regarding Participation in Civil War

20. No citizen of this State who aided or participated in the late war between the government of the United States and a part of the people thereof, on either side, shall be liable to any proceeding, civil or criminal; nor shall his property be seized or sold under final process issued upon judgment or decrees heretofore rendered, or otherwise, because of any act done in accordance with the usages of civilized warfare in the prosecution of said war. The Legislature shall provide, by general laws, for giving full force and effect to this section.

Parts of Common Law Effective

21. Such parts of the common law, and of the laws of this State as are in force when this article goes into operation, and are not repugnant thereto, shall be and continue the law of the State until altered or repealed by the Legislature. All civil and criminal suits and proceedings pending in the former circuit courts of this State, shall remain and be proceeded in before the circuit courts of the counties in which they were pending.

County Courts

22. There shall be in each county of the State a county court, composed of three commissioners, and two of said commissioners shall be a quorum for the trans-action of business, it shall hold four regular sessions in each year, and at such times as may be fixed upon and entered of record by the said court. Provisions may be made by law for holding special sessions of said court.

Terms of Office of County Commissioners

23. The commissioners shall be elected by the voters of the county, and hold their office for the term of six years, except that at the first meeting of said commissioners they shall designate by lot, or otherwise, in such manner as they may determine, one of their number, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, one for four years, and one for six years, so that one shall be elected every two years. But no two of said commissioners shall be elected from the same magisterial district. And if two or more persons residing in the same district shall receive the greater number of votes cast at any election, then only the one of such persons receiving the highest number shall be declared elected, and the person living in another district, who shall receive the next highest number of votes, shall be declared elected. Said commissioners shall annually elect one of their number as president, and each shall receive two dollars per day for his services in court, to be paid out of the county treasury.

Powers of County Courts

24. The County courts, through their clerks, shall have the custody of all deeds and other papers presented for record in their counties, and the same shall be preserved therein, or otherwise disposed of, as now is, or may be prescribed by law. They shall have jurisdiction in all matters of probate, the appointment and qualification of personal representatives, guardians, committees, curators, and the settlement of their accounts, and in all matters relating to apprentices. They shall also, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, have the superintendence and administration of the internal police and fiscal affairs of their counties, including the establishment and regulation of roads, ways, bridges, public landings, ferries and mills, with authority to lay and disburse the county levies: Provided, That no license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in any incorporated city, town or village, shall be granted without the consent of the municipal authorities thereof, first had and obtained. They shall, in all cases of contest, judge of the election, qualification and returns of their own members, and of all county and district officers, subject to such regulations, by appeal or otherwise, as may be prescribed by law. Such courts may exercise such other powers, and perform such other duties, not of a judicial nature, as may be prescribed by law. And provision may be made, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, for the probate of wills, and for the appointment and qualification of personal representatives, guardians, committees and curators during the recess of the regular sessions of the county court. Such tribunals as have been heretofore conferred on, or required of, any court by virtue of the thirty-fourth section of the eighth article of the Constitution of one thousand eight hundred seventy-two, for police and fiscal purposes, shall, until otherwise provided by law, remain and continue as at present constituted in the counties in which they have been respectively established, and shall be and act as to police and fiscal matters in lieu of the county court created by this article until otherwise provided by law. And, until otherwise provided by law, such clerk as is mentioned in the twenty-sixth section of this article, shall exercise any powers and discharge any duties heretofore conferred on, or required of, any court or tribunal established for judicial purposes under the said article and section of the Constitution of one thousand eight hundred seventy-two, or the clerk of such court or tribunal respectively, respecting the recording and preservation of deeds and other papers presented for record, matters of probate, the appointment and qualification of personal representatives, guardians, committees, curators, and the settlement of their accounts, and in all matters relating to apprentices.

Removal of Causes

25. All actions, suits and proceedings not embraced in the next preceding section, pending in a county court when this article takes effect together with the records and papers pertaining thereto, as well as all records and papers pertaining to such actions, suits and proceedings, as have already been disposed of by said courts, shall be transmitted to and filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county, to which office all process outstanding at the time this article goes into operation shall be returned; and said clerk shall have the same power and shall perform the same duties in relation to such records, papers and proceedings as were vested in and required of the clerk of the county court on the day before this article shall take effect. All such actions, suits and proceedings so pending as aforesaid, shall be docketed, proceeded in, tried, heard and determined in all respects by the circuit court, as if such suits and proceedings had originated in said court.

Clerk of County Court

26. The voters of each county shall elect a clerk of the county court, whose term of office shall be six years. His duties and compensation and the manner of his removal shall be prescribed by law. But the clerks of said courts, now in office, shall remain therein for the term for which they have been elected, unless sooner removed therefrom, in the manner prescribed by law.

Districting of County—Election of Justices of the Peace

27. Each county shall be laid off into districts, not less than three nor more than ten in number, and as nearly equal as may be in territory and population. There shall be elected in each district containing a population not exceeding twelve hundred, one justice of the peace, and if the population exceeds that number, two such justices shall be elected therein. Every justice shall reside in the district for which he was elected and hold his office for the term of four years, unless sooner removed in the manner prescribed by law. The districts as they now exist shall remain till changed by the county court.

Jurisdiction of Justice of the Peace

28. The civil jurisdiction of a justice of the peace shall extend to actions of assumpsit, debt, detinue and trover, if the amount claimed, exclusive of interest does not exceed three hundred dollars. The jurisdiction of justices of the peace shall extend through their county; they shall be conservators of the peace and have such jurisdiction and powers in criminal cases as may be prescribed by law. And justices of the peace shall have authority to take the acknowledgement of deeds and other writings, administer oaths, and take and certify depositions. And the Legislature may give to justices such additional civil jurisdiction and powers within their respective counties as may be deemed expedient, under such regulations and restrictions as may be prescribed by general law, except that in suits to recover money or damages, their jurisdiction and powers shall in no case exceed three hundred dollars. Appeals shall be allowed from judgments of justices of the peace in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Reformation of County Courts

29. The Legislature shall, upon the application of any county, reform, alter or modify the county court established by this article in such county, and in lieu thereof, with the assent of a majority of the voters of such county voting at an election, create another tribunal for the transaction of the business required to be performed by the county court created by this article; and in such case all the provisions of this article in relation to the county court shall be applicable to the tribunal established in lieu of said court. And when such tribunal has been established it shall continue to act in lieu of the county court until otherwise provided by law.

Incompatible Offices

30. The office of commissioner and justice of the peace, shall be deemed incompatible. Vacancies in the office of the commissioner, clerk of the county court and justices of the peace, shall be filled by the county court of the county until the next general election.

ARTICLE IX*County Organization

1. The voters of each county shall elect a surveyor of lands, a prosecuting attorney, a sheriff, and one and not more than two assessors, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of four years.

Constables, Coroners and Overseers of the Poor

2. There shall also be elected in each district of the county, by the voters thereof, one constable, and if the population of any district shall exceed twelve hundred, an additional constable, whose term of office shall be four years, and whose powers as such shall extend throughout their county. The assessor shall, with the advice and consent of the county court, have the power to appoint one or more assistants. Coroners, overseers of the poor and surveyors of roads, shall be appointed by the county court. The foregoing officers, except the prosecuting attorneys, shall reside in the county and district for which they shall be respectively elected.

Sheriffs—Consecutive Terms Prohibited

3. The same person shall not be elected sheriff for two consecutive full terms; nor shall any person who acted as his deputy be elected successor to such sheriff, nor shall any sheriff act as deputy of his successor; nor shall he during his term of service, or within one year thereafter, be eligible to any other office. The retiring sheriff shall finish all business remaining in his hands, at the expiration of his term; for which purpose his commission and official bond shall remain in force. The duties of the office of sheriff shall be performed by him in person, or under his superintendence.

Malfeasance and Misfeasance in Office

4. The presidents of the county courts, the justices of the peace, sheriffs, prosecuting attorneys, clerks of the circuit and of the county courts, and all other county officers shall be subject to indictment for malfeasance, misfeasance, or neglect of official duty and upon conviction thereof, their offices shall become vacant.

Commissioning of Officers Not Otherwise Provided For

5. The Legislature shall provide for commissioning such of the officers herein mentioned, as it may deem proper, not provided for in this Constitution, and may require any class of them to give bond with security for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

Compensation—Deputies

6. It shall further provide for the compensation, the duties and responsibilities of such officers, and may provide for the appointment of their deputies and assistants by general laws.

Conservators of the Peace

7. The president of the county court and every justice and constable shall be a conservator of the peace throughout his county.

Formation of New Counties

8. No new county shall hereafter be formed in this State with an area of less than four hundred square miles; nor with a population of less than six thousand; nor shall any county, from which a new county, or part thereof shall be taken, be reduced in area below four hundred square miles, nor in population below six thousand. Nor shall a new county be formed without the consent of a majority of the voters residing within the boundaries of the proposed new county, and voting on the question.

ARTICLE X*Taxation and Finance

1. Subject to the exceptions in this section contained, taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the State, and all property, both real and personal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value to be ascertained as directed by law. No one species of property from which a tax may be collected shall be taxed higher than any other species of property of equal value; except that the aggregate of taxes assessed in any one year upon personal property employed exclusively in agriculture, including horticulture and grazing, products of agriculture as above defined, including livestock, while owned by the producer, and money, notes, bonds, bills and accounts receivable, stocks and other similar intangible personal property shall not exceed fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of value thereon and upon all property owned, used and occupied by the owner thereof exclusively for residential purposes and upon farms occupied and cultivated by their owners or bona fide tenants, one dollar; and upon all other property situated outside of municipalities, one dollar and fifty cents; and upon all other such property situated within municipalities, two dollars; and the Legislature shall further provide by general law for increasing the maximum rates authorized to be fixed by the different levying bodies upon all classes of property by submitting the question to the voters of the taxing units affected, but no increase shall be effective unless at least sixty per cent of the qualified voters shall favor such increase, and such increase shall not continue for a longer period than three years at any one time, and shall never exceed by more than fifty per cent the maximum rate herein provided and prescribed by law; and the revenue derived from this source shall be apportioned by the Legislature among the levying units of the State in proportion to the levy laid in said units upon real and other personal property; but property used for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes, all cemeteries, public property, the personal property, including livestock, employed exclusively in agriculture as above defined and the products of agriculture as so defined while owned by the producers may by law be exempted from taxation; household goods to the value of two hundred dollars shall be exempted from taxation. The Legislature shall have authority to tax privileges, franchises, and incomes of persons and corporations and to classify and graduate the tax on all incomes according to the amount thereof and to exempt from taxation incomes below a minimum to be fixed from time to time, and such revenues as may be derived from such tax may be appropriated as the Legislature may provide. After the year nineteen hundred thirty-three, the rate of the state tax upon property shall not exceed one cent upon the hundred dollars valuation, except to pay the principal and interest of bonded indebtedness of the State now existing.

[This section, prior to its amendments, read as follows: "Taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the State, and all property, both real and personal shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as directed by law. No one species of property, from which a tax may be collected, shall be taxed higher than any other species of property of equal value; but property used for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes, all cemeteries and public property may, by law, be exempted from taxation. The Legislature shall have power to tax, by uniform and equal laws, all privileges and franchises of persons and corporations."

The amendment as above set forth was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 3, adopted August 10, 1932, Acts 1932 (extraordinary session), chapter 9, page 16, and was ratified at the general election in 1932. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 335,482; Against ratification, 43,931; Majority, 291,551.]

Bank Deposits and Money Exempt from Ad Valorem Property Taxes

1-a. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding section, bank deposits and money shall not be subject to ad valorem property taxation.

Capitation Tax

2. The Legislature shall levy an annual capitation tax of one dollar upon each male inhabitant of the State who has attained the age of twenty-one years, which shall be annually appropriated to the support of free schools. Persons afflicted with bodily infirmity may be exempted from this tax.

Receipts and Expenditures of Public Monies

3. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in pursuance of an appropriation made by law, and on a warrant issued thereon by the Auditor; nor shall any money or fund be taken for any other purpose than that for which it has been or may be appropriated or provided. A complete and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public monies shall be published annually.

Limitation on Contracting of State Debt

4. No debt shall be contracted by this State, except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion or defend the State in time of war; but the payment of any liability other than that for the ordinary expenses of the State, shall be equally distributed over a period of at least twenty years.

Power of Taxation

5. The power of taxation of the Legislature shall extend to provisions for the payment of the State debt, and interest thereon, the support of free schools, and the payment of the annual estimated expenses of the State; but whenever any deficiency in the revenue shall exist in any year, it shall, at the regular session thereof held next after the deficiency occurs, levy a tax for the ensuing year, sufficient with the other sources of income, to meet such deficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of such year.

Credit of State Not to Be Granted in Certain Cases

6. The credit of the State shall not be granted to, or in aid of any county, city, township, corporation or person; nor shall the State ever assume, or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of any county, city, township, corporation or person; nor shall the State ever hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder in any company or association in this State or elsewhere, formed for any purpose whatever.

Duties of County Authorities in Assessing Taxes

7. County authorities shall never assess taxes, in any one year, the aggregate of which shall exceed ninety-five cents per one hundred dollars' valuation, except for the support of free schools; payment of indebtedness existing at the time of adoption of this Constitution; and for the payment of any indebtedness with the interest thereon, created under the succeeding section, unless such assessment, with all questions involving the increase of such aggregate, shall have been submitted to the vote of the people of the county, and have received three fifths of all the votes cast for and against it.

Bonded Indebtedness of Counties, Etc.

8. No county, city, school district, or municipal corporation, except in cases where such corporations have already authorized their bonds to be issued, shall hereafter be allowed to become indebted, in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate, exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; nor without, at the same time, providing for the collection of a direct annual tax on all taxable property therein, in the ratio, as between the several classes or types of such taxable property, specified in section one of this article, separate and apart from and in addition to all other taxes for all other purposes, sufficient to pay, annually, the interest on such debt, and the principal thereof, within, and not exceeding thirty-four years. Such tax, in an amount sufficient to pay the interest and principal on bonds issued by any school district not exceeding in the aggregate three per centum of such assessed value, may be levied outside the limits fixed by section one of this article: Provided, that no debt shall be contracted under this section, unless all questions connected with the same, shall have been first submitted to a vote of the people, and have received three fifths of all the votes cast for and against the same.

[This section, prior to its amendment, read as follows: "No county, city, school district, or municipal corporation, except in cases where such corporations have already authorized their bonds to be issued, shall hereafter be allowed to become indebted, in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate, exceeding five per centum, on the value of the taxable property therein to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; nor without, at the same time, providing for the collection of a direct annual tax, sufficient to pay, annually, the interest on such debt, and the principal thereof, within, and not exceeding thirty-four years: Provided, that no debt shall be contracted under this section, unless all questions connected with the same, shall have been first submitted to a vote of the people, and have received three fifths of all the votes cast for and against the same."

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, (Acts, Regular Session, 1949, p. 716) ratified at the general election on November 7, 1950, this section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 340,054; Against ratification, 150,251; Majority, 189,803.]

Municipal Taxes to Be Uniform

9. The Legislature may, by law, authorize the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages, for corporate purposes, to assess and collect taxes; but such taxes shall be uniform, with respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the authority imposing the same.

Better Schools Amendment

10. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Constitution to the contrary, the maximum rates authorized and allocated by law for tax levies on the several classes of property for the support of public schools may be increased in any school district for a period not to exceed five years, and in an amount not to exceed one hundred per cent of such maximum rates, if such increase is approved, in the manner provided by law, by at least sixty per cent of the qualified voters of the school district.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Constitution to the contrary, the maximum rates provided for tax levies by school districts on the several classes of property may be used entirely for current expense purposes; and all levies required for principal and interest payments on any bonded indebtedness, now or hereafter contracted, not to exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, the value to be ascertained in accordance with section eight of this article, shall be laid separate and apart and in addition to such maximum rates, but in the same proportions as such maximum rates are levied on the several classes of property.

[This section was proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 8 (Acts, Regular Session, 1957, p. 840) and ratified at the general election November 4, 1958. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 282,423; Against ratification, 165,741; Majority, 116,682.]

ARTICLE XI

Corporations

1. The Legislature shall provide for the organization of all corporations hereafter to be created, by general laws, uniform as to the class to which they relate; but no corporation shall be created by special law: Provided, That nothing in this section contained, shall prevent the Legislature from providing by special laws for the connection, by canal, of the waters of the Chesapeake with the Ohio River by the line of the James River, Greenbrier, New River and Great Kanawha.

Corporate Liabilities or Indebtedness

2. The stockholders of all corporations and joint stock companies, except banks and banking institutions, created by laws of this State, shall be liable for the indebtedness of such corporations to the amount of their stock subscribed and unpaid, and no more.

Exclusive Privileges Prohibited

3. All existing charters or grants of special or exclusive privileges under which organization shall not have taken place, or which shall not have been in operation within two years from the time this Constitution takes effect, shall thereafter have no validity or effect whatsoever: Provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the execution of any bona fide contract heretofore lawfully made in relation to any existing charter or grant in this state.

Rights of Stockholders

4. The Legislature shall provide by law that every corporation, other than a banking institution, shall have power to issue one or more classes and series within classes of stock, with or without par value, with full, limited or no voting powers, and with preferences and special rights and qualifications, and that in all elections for directors or managers of incorporated companies, every stockholder holding stock having the right to vote for directors, shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, for the number of shares of stock owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors or managers to be elected, or to cumulate said shares, and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock, shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner.

[This section originally read as follows: "The Legislature shall provide by law that in all elections for directors or managers of incorporated companies, every stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, for the number of shares of stock owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors or managers to be elected, or to cumulate said shares, and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock, shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts, Regular Session, 1957, p. 839), and ratified at the general election November 4, 1958, the section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 211,977; Against ratification, 154,175; Majority, 57,802.]

Street Railroads

5. No law shall be passed by the Legislature, granting the right to construct and operate a street railroad within any city, town or incorporated village, without requiring the consent of the local authorities having the control of the street or highway proposed to be occupied by such street railroad.

Banks

6. The Legislature may provide by general law for the creation, organization, and regulation of banking institutions.

[This section originally read as follows: "The Legislature may provide, by general banking law, for the creation and organization of banks of issue or circulation, but the stockholders of any bank hereafter authorized by the laws of this State, whether of issue, deposit or discount, shall be personally liable to the creditors thereof over and above the amount of stocks held by them respectively to an amount equal to their respective shares so held, for all its liabilities accruing, while they are such stockholders."

Under House Joint Resolution No. 3 (Acts, Regular Session, 1937, p. 581), ratified November 8, 1938, this section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 139,985; Against ratification, 62,241; Majority, 77,744.]

Railroads

7. Every railroad corporation organized or doing business in this State shall annually, by their proper officers, make a report under oath, to the auditor of public accounts of this State, or some officer to be designated by law, setting forth the condition of their affairs, the operations of the year, and such other matters relating to their respective railroads as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall pass laws enforcing by suitable penalties the provisions of this section.

Rolling Stock Considered Personal Property

8. The rolling stock and all other movable property belonging to any railroad company or corporation in this State, shall be considered personal property and shall be liable to execution and sale in the same manner as the personal property of individuals; and the Legislature shall pass no law exempting any such property from execution and sale.

Railroads, Public Highways

9. Railroads heretofore constructed, or that may hereafter be constructed in this State, are hereby declared public highways and shall be free to all persons for the transportation of their persons and property thereon, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law; and the Legislature shall, from time to time, pass laws, applicable to all railroad corporations in the State, establishing reasonable maximum rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight, and providing for the correction of abuses, the prevention of unjust discriminations between through and local or way freight and passenger tariffs, and for the protection of the just rights of the public, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties,

Stations to Be Established

10. The Legislature shall, in the law regulating railway companies, require railroads running through, or within a half mile of a town, or village, containing three hundred or more inhabitants, to establish stations for the accommodation of trade and travel of said town or village.

Competing Lines—Legislative Permission

11. No railroad corporation shall consolidate its stock, property or franchise with any other railroad owning a parallel or competing line, or obtain the possession or control of such parallel or competing line, by lease or other contract, without the permission of the Legislature.

Right of Eminent Domain

12. The exercise of the power and the right of eminent domain shall never be so construed or abridged as to prevent the taking, by the Legislature, of the property and franchises of incorporated companies already organized, and subjecting them to the public use, the same as of individuals.

ARTICLE XII

Education

1. The Legislature shall provide, by general law, for a thorough and efficient system of free schools.

Supervision of Free Schools

2. The general supervision of the free schools of the State shall be vested in the West Virginia Board of Education, which shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law. The board shall consist of nine members to be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for overlapping terms of nine years, except that the original appointments shall be for terms of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight and nine years, respectively. No more than five members of the board shall belong to the same political party, and in addition to the general qualifications otherwise required by the Constitution, the Legislature may require other specific qualifications for membership on the board. No member of the board may be removed from office by the Governor except for official misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty, or gross immorality, and then only in the manner prescribed by law for the removal by the Governor of state elective officers.

The West Virginia Board of Education shall, in the manner prescribed by law, select the State Superintendent of Free Schools who shall serve at its will and pleasure. He shall be the chief school officer of the State, and shall have powers and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

The State Superintendent of Free Schools shall be a member of the Board of Public Works as provided by subsection B, section fifty one, article six of this Constitution.

[This section originally read as follows: "The State Superintendent of Free Schools shall have a general supervision of free schools, and perform such other duties in relation thereto as may be prescribed by law. If in the performance of any such duty imposed upon him by the Legislature he shall incur any expenses, he shall be reimbursed therefor: Provided, The amount does not exceed five hundred dollars in any one year."

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 (Acts, Regular Session, 1957, p. 837), and ratified at the general election November 4, 1958, the section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 230,879; Against ratification, 206,201; Majority, 24,678.]

County Superintendents

3. The Legislature may provide for county superintendents and such other officers as may be necessary to carry out the objects of this article and define their duties, powers and compensation.

Existing Permanent and Invested School Fund

4. The existing permanent and invested school fund, and all money accruing to this State from forfeited, delinquent, waste and unappropriated lands; and from lands heretofore sold for taxes and purchased by the State of Virginia, if hereafter redeemed or sold to others than this State; all grants, devises or bequests that may be made to this State, for the purposes of education or where the purposes of such grants, devises or bequests are not specified; this State's just share of the literary funds of Virginia, whether paid over or otherwise liquidated; and any sums of money, stocks or property which this State shall have the right to claim from the State of Virginia for educational purposes; the proceeds of the estates of persons who may die without leaving a will or heir, and of all escheated lands; the proceeds of any taxes that may be levied on the revenues of any corporation; all monies that may be paid as an equivalent for exemption from military duty; and such sums as may from time to time be appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose, shall be set apart as a separate fund to be called the "School Fund", and invested under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, in the interest-bearing securities of the United States, or of this State, or if such interest-bearing securities can not be obtained, then said "School Fund" shall be invested in such other solvent, interest-bearing securities as shall be approved by the Governor, Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor and Treasurer, who are hereby constituted the "Board of the School Fund", to manage the same under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and the interest thereof shall be annually applied to the support of free schools throughout the State, and to no other purpose whatever. But any portion of said interest remaining unexpended at the close of the fiscal year shall be added to and remain a part of the capital of the "School Fund": Provided, That all taxes which shall be received by the State upon delinquent lands, except the taxes due to the State thereon, shall be refunded to the county or district by or for which the same were levied.

[This section is modified by the "Irreducible School Fund Amendment" set forth at the end of the Constitution.]

Support of Free Schools

5. The Legislature shall provide for the support of free schools by appropriating thereto the interest of the invested "School Fund," the net proceeds of all forfeitures and fines accruing to this State under the laws thereof; the State capitation tax, and by general taxation of persons and property or otherwise. It shall also provide for raising in each county or district, by the authority of the people thereof, such a proportion of the amount required for the support of free schools therein as shall be prescribed by general laws.

School Districts

6. The school districts into which any county is now divided shall continue until changed in pursuance of law.

Levies for School Purposes

7. All levies that may be laid by any county or district for the purpose of free schools shall be reported to the clerk of the county court, and shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, be collected by the sheriff, or other collector who shall make annual settlements with the county court; which settlements shall be made a matter of record by the clerk thereof, in a book to be kept for that purpose.

Mixed Schools Prohibited

8. White and colored persons shall not be taught in the same school.

Certain Acts Prohibited

9. No person connected with the free school system of the State, or with any educational institution of any name or grade under State control, shall be interested in the sale, proceeds or profits of any book or other thing used, or to be used therein, under such penalties as may be prescribed by law: Provided, That nothing here shall be construed to apply to any work written, or thing invented by such person.

Creation of Independent Free School Districts

10. No independent free school district, or organization shall hereafter be created, except with the consent of the school district or districts out of which the same is to be created, expressed by a majority of the voters voting on the question.

Appropriation for State Normal Schools

11. No appropriation shall hereafter be made to any State normal school, or branch, thereof, except to those already established and in operation, or now chartered.

Legislature to Foster General School Improvements

12. The Legislature shall foster and encourage moral, intellectual, scientific and agricultural improvements; it shall, whenever it may be practicable, make suitable provisions for the blind, mute and insane, and for the organization of such institutions of learning as the best interests of general education in the State may demand.

ARTICLE XIII

Land Titles

1. All private rights and interests in lands in this State derived from or under the laws of the State of Virginia, and from or under the Constitution and laws of this State prior to the time this Constitution goes into operation, shall remain valid and secure and shall be determined by the laws in force in Virginia, prior to the formation of this State, and by the Constitution and laws in force in this State prior to the time this Constitution goes into effect.

Land Entry Prohibited

2. No entry by warrant on land in this State shall hereafter be made.

Forfeited Lands

3. All title to lands in this State heretofore forfeited, or treated as forfeited, waste and unappropriated, or escheated to the State of Virginia, or this State, or purchased by either of said states at sales made for the non-payment of taxes and become irredeemable, or hereafter forfeited, or treated as forfeited, or es-cheated to this State, or purchased by it and become irredeemable, not redeemed, released or otherwise disposed of, vested and remaining in this State, shall be, and is hereby transferred to, and vested in any person (other than those for whose default same may have been forfeited or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees), for so much thereof as such person has, or shall have had, actual continuous possession of, under color or claim of title for ten years, and who, or those under whom he claims, shall have paid the State taxes thereon for any five years during such possession; or if there be no such person, then to any person (other than those for whose default the same may have been forfeited, or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees) for so much of said land as such person shall have title or claim to, regularly derived, mediately or immediately from, or under a grant from the commonwealth of Virginia, or this State, not forfeited, which but for the title forfeited would be valid, and who, or those under whom he claims has, or shall have paid all State taxes charged or chargeable thereon for five successive years, after the year 1865, or from the date of the grant, if it shall have issued since that year; or if there be no such person, as aforesaid, then to any person (other than those for whose default the same may have been forfeited, or returned delinquent, their heirs or devisees), for so much of said land as such person shall have had claim to and actual continuous possession of, under color of title for any five successive years after the year 1865, and have paid all state taxes charged or chargeable thereon for said period.

Waste and Unappropriated Lands

4. All lands in this State, waste and unappropriated, or heretofore or hereafter for any cause forfeited, or treated as forfeited, or escheated to the State of Virginia, or this State, or purchased by either and become irredeemable, not redeemed, released, transferred or otherwise disposed of, the title whereto shall remain in this State till such sale as is hereinafter mentioned be made, shall by proceedings in the circuit court of the county in which the lands or a part thereof, are situated, be sold to the highest bidder.

Former Owner's Privilege

5. The former owner of any such land shall be entitled to receive the excess of the sum for which the land may be sold over the taxes charged and chargeable thereon, or which, if the land had not been forfeited, would have been charged or chargeable thereon, since the formation of this State, with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, and the cost of the proceedings, if his claim be filed in the circuit court that decrees the sale, within two years thereafter.

Land Books—Taxes

6. It shall be the duty of every owner of land, or of an undivided interest therein, to have such land, or such undivided interest therein, entered on the land books of the county in which it, or a part of it, is situated, and to cause himself to be charged with taxes legally levied thereon and pay the same. When, for any five successive years, the owner of any tract of land, or undivided interest therein, shall not have been charged on such land books with state, county and district taxes thereon, then, by operation hereof, the land, or undivided interest therein shall be forfeited and the title vested in the State. But if, for any one or more of such five years, the owner of such land, or of any undivided interest therein, shall have been charged with state, county, and district taxes on any part of such land, such part thereof, or undivided interest therein, shall not be forfeited for such cause. And any owner of land so forfeited, or of any interest therein, at the time of the forfeiture thereof, who shall then be an infant, married woman, or insane person, may, until the expiration of three years after the removal of such disability, have the land, or such interest, charged on such land books, with all state and other taxes that shall be, and but for the forfeiture would be chargeable on the land, or interest therein, for the year one thousand eight hundred sixty-three, and every year thereafter, with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, and pay all taxes and interest thereon for such years, and thereby redeem the land or interest therein: Provided, That such right to redeem shall in no case extend beyond twenty years from the time such land was forfeited.

[This section originally read as follows: "It shall be the duty of every owner of land to have it entered on the land books of the county in which it, or a part of it, is situated, and to cause himself to be charged with the taxes thereon, and pay the same. When for any five successive years after the year 1869, the owner of any tract of land containing one thousand acres or more, shall not have been charged on such books with state tax on said land, then by operation hereof, the land shall be forfeited and the title thereto vested in the State. But if, for any one or more of such five years, the owner shall have been charged with state tax on any part of the land, such part thereof, shall not be forfeited for such cause. And any owner of land so forfeited, or of any interest therein at the time of the forfeiture thereof, who shall then be an infant, married woman, or insane person may, until the expiration of three years after the removal of such disability, have the land, or such interest charged on such books, with all state and other taxes that shall be, and but for the forfeiture would be, chargeable on the land, or interest therein for the year 1863, and every year thereafter with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum; and pay all taxes and interest thereon for all such years and thereby redeem the land or interest therein: Provided, Such right to redeem shall in no case extend beyond twenty years from the time such land was forfeited." Under House Joint Resolution No. 4, Acts, Second Extraordinary Session, 1933, p. 583, ratified at the general election on November 6, 1934, this section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 275,374; Against ratification, 85,123; Majority, 190,251.]

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments

1. No convention shall be called, having the authority to alter the Constitution of the State, unless it be in pursuance of a law; passed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to each house of the Legislature and providing that polls shall be opened throughout the State, on the same day therein specified, which shall not be less than three months after the passage of such law, for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters on the question of calling a convention. And such convention shall not be held unless a majority of the votes cast at such polls be in favor of calling the same; nor shall the members be elected to such convention, until, at least, one month after the result of the vote shall be duly ascertained, declared and published. And all acts and ordinances of the said convention shall be submitted to the voters of the State for ratification or rejection, and shall have no validity whatever until they are ratified.

How Amendments Are Made

2. Any amendment to the Constitution of the State may be proposed in either house of the Legislature; and if the same, being read on three several days in each house, be agreed to on its third reading, by two thirds of the members elected thereto, the proposed amendment, with the yeas and nays, thereon, shall be entered on the journals, and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide by law, for submitting the same to the voters of the State for ratification or rejection at the next general election thereafter, and cause the same to be published, at least three months before such election in some newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is printed. And if a majority of the qualified voters, voting on the question at the polls held pursuant to such law, ratify the proposed amendment, it shall be in force from the time of such ratification, as part of the Constitution of the State. If two or more amendments be submitted at the same time, the vote on the ratification or rejection shall be taken on each separately.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The Judicial Amendment

[Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 15 (Acts 1901, p. 462). Ratified in November, 1902. Vote on this amendment: For ratification, 54,676; Against Ratification, 24,710; Majority, 29,966.]

The Supreme Court of Appeals shall consist of five judges. Those judges in office when this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until their terms shall expire, and the Legislature shall provide for the election of an additional judge of said court at the next general election, whose term shall begin on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred five, and the Governor shall, as for a vacancy, appoint a judge of said court to hold office until the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred five. The judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals and of the circuit courts shall receive such salaries as shall be fixed by law, for those now in or those hereafter to come into office.

The Irreducible School Fund Amendment

[Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 28 (Acts 1901, p. 465). Ratified in November, 1902. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 56,694; Against ratification, 24,763; Majority, 31,931.]

The accumulation of the school fund provided for in section four of article twelve, of the Constitution of this State, shall cease upon the adoption of this amendment, and all money to the credit of said fund over one million dollars, together with the interest on said fund, shall be used for the support of free schools of this State. All money and taxes heretofore payable into the treasury under the provisions of said section four, to the credit of the school fund, shall be hereafter paid into the treasury to the credit of the general school fund for the support of the free schools of the State.

The Good Roads Amendment of 1920

[Proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 15 (Acts 1919, p. 502). Ratified November 2, 1920. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 248,689; Against ratification, 130,569; Majority, 118,120.]

The Legislature shall make provision by law for a system of state roads and highways connecting at least the various county seats of the State, and to be under the control and supervision of such state officers and agencies as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall also provide a state revenue to build, construct, and maintain, or assist in building, constructing and maintaining the same and for that purpose shall have power to authorize the issuing and selling of state bonds, the aggregate outstanding amount of which, at any one time, shall not exceed fifty million dollars.

When a bond issue as aforesaid is authorized, the Legislature shall at the same time provide for the collection of an annual state tax sufficient to pay annually the interest on such debt, and the principal thereof within and not exceeding thirty years.

The Good Roads Amendment of 1928

[Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 17 (Acts 1927, p. 361). Ratified November 6, 1928. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 360,597; Against ratification, 92,885; Majority, 267,712.]

The Legislature shall have power to authorize the issuing and selling of state bonds not exceeding in the aggregate thirty-five million dollars in addition to the state bonds which were authorized to be issued and sold by the amendment to the Constitution proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 15, adopted February 15, 1919, and afterwards ratified by a vote of the people. The proceeds of said additional bonds hereby authorized to be issued and sold shall be used and appropriated solely for the building and constructing, or for assisting in building and constructing the system of state roads and highways provided for by the amendment to the Constitution above mentioned.

When a bond issue as aforesaid is authorized, the Legislature shall at the same time provide for the collection of an annual state tax sufficient to pay annually the interest on such debt and to pay the principal thereof within and not exceeding thirty years.

Secondary Road Bonds Amendment of 1948

[Proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts 1947, p. 727.) Ratified November 2, 1948. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 475,272; Against ratification, 163,578; Majority, 311,693.]

The Legislature shall have power to authorize the issuing and selling of state bonds not exceeding in the aggregate fifty million dollars in addition to the state bonds which were authorized to be issued and sold by the amendment to the Constitution proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 15, adopted February fifteenth, one thousand nine hundred nineteen, and afterwards ratified by a vote of the people, and Senate Joint Resolution No. 17, adopted by the Legislature at the regular session, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, and afterwards ratified by a vote of the people. The proceeds of said additional bonds hereby authorized to be issued and sold shall be used and appropriated solely for the building and construction, or for assisting in building and constructing a system of state secondary roads and highways.

When a bond issue as aforesaid is authorized, the Legislature shall at the same time provide for the collection of an annual state tax sufficient to pay annually the interest on such debt and to pay the principal thereof within and not exceeding thirty years.

Veterans' $90,000,000.00 Bonus Amendment

[Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 6, (Acts 1949, p. 686.) Ratified November 7, 1950. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 431,979; Against ratification, 139,445; Majority, 292,534.]

The Legislature shall by law provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds, not to exceed in the aggregate ninety million dollars, which shall be in addition to all other state bonds heretofore authorized. The proceeds of such additional bonds, or so many thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, shall be used and appropriated solely for the purpose of paying a cash bonus to veterans of World War I and World War II. Such bonus shall be paid to all persons who rendered active service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I between the sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred seventeen, and the eleventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred eighteen, both dates inclusive, or in World War II between the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred forty-one, and the second day of September, one thousand nine hundred forty-five, both dates inclusive, or in both such wars, who were bona fide residents of the State of West Virginia at the time of their entry into such service and for a period of at least six months prior thereto, who were not dishonorably discharged from such forces, and who within the periods specified above actively served in such armed forces for a period of at least ninety days. Such a bonus shall also be paid to any disabled veteran, otherwise qualified, who was discharged within ninety days after entering the services because of a service-connected disability. The amount of such bonus shall be calculated on the basis of ten dollars for each month, or major fraction thereof, served within the territorial limits of the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia, and fifteen dollars for each month, or major fraction thereof, served outside such limits, but such amount shall in no case exceed three hundred dollars for those who served only within the territorial limits specified above, and four hundred dollars for those who served outside such limits. The bonus to which any deceased veteran would be entitled, if living, shall be paid only to the following surviving relatives of such veteran, if such relatives are residents of this State when application for payment is made: Any unmarried widow, or if none, any child or children under the age of sixteen, or if none, any dependent parent or parents.

Whenever the Legislature shall provide for the issuance of any bonds under the authority of the amendment, it shall at the same time provide for the levy and collection of an additional cigarette tax, or an additional tax on nonintoxicating beer, or an additional charge on the sale of each bottle of wine and liquor, or an additional general consumers sales tax, or a graduated income tax, or any two or more thereof, in such amount as may be required to pay annually the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof within and not exceeding thirty years.

Korean Veterans' Bonus Amendment

[Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 7, (Acts, Regular Session, 1955, p. 572), and ratified at the General Election, November 6, 1956. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 476,936; Against ratification, 88,968; Majority, 387,968.]

The Legislature shall by law provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds, which shall be in addition to all other state bonds heretofore issued, for the following purposes:

(1) The paying of a cash bonus to veterans of the armed forces of the United States who served during the Korean conflict. Such bonus shall be paid to all persons who rendered active service in the armed forces of the United States between the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifty, and the twenty-seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred fifty-three, both dates inclusive, who were bona fide residents of the State of West Virginia at the time of their entry into such service and for a period of at least six months prior thereto, who were not dishonorably discharged from such service, and who within the period specified above actively served in such armed forces for a period of at least ninety days. Such a bonus shall also be paid to any disabled veteran, otherwise qualified, who was discharged within ninety days after entering the services because of a service-connected disability. The amount of such bonus shall be calculated on the basis of ten dollars for each month, or major fraction thereof, served within the territorial limits of the forty-eight states and the district of Columbia, and fifteen dollars for each month, or major fraction thereof, served outside such limits, but such amounts shall in no case exceed three hundred dollars for those who served only within the territorial limits specified above, and four hundred dollars for those who served outside such limits. The bonus to which any deceased veteran would be entitled, if living, shall be paid only to the following surviving relative of such veteran, if such relatives are residents of this State when application for payment is made: Any unmarried widow, or if none, any child or children under the age of sixteen, or if none, any dependent parent or parents.

The principal amount of bonds to be issued for the purpose provided in paragraph (1) above shall not exceed the principal amount of the ninety million dollars bonds authorized by the veterans bonus amendment submitted by chapter nineteen of the acts of the Legislature of West Virginia of one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, regular session, and ratified by the people of West Virginia at the general election held on the seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred fifty (hereinafter referred to as "Veterans Bonus Amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty"), which shall not have been issued on the date of the ratification of this amendment by the people of West Virginia: Provided, however, That such bonds issued under the provisions of paragraph (1) above may be funded or refunded at any time in the manner provided in paragraph (2) below.

(2) The funding or refunding of all or any part of the bonds heretofore issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty. Said bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty, may be so funded or refunded either on the maturity date of said bonds or on any date on which said bonds are callable prior to maturity, and if any of said bonds have not matured or are not then callable prior to maturity, the Legislature may nevertheless provide at any time for the issuance of refunding bonds to fund or refund such bonds on the dates when said bonds mature or on any date on which said bonds are callable prior to maturity, and for the investment or reinvestment of the proceeds of such refunding bonds in direct obligations of the United States of America until the date or dates upon which such bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty mature or are callable prior to maturity.

The principal amount of bonds issued under the provisions of paragraph (2) above shall not exceed the principal amount of the bonds to be funded or refunded thereby.

Such bonds for the purposes authorized in paragraphs (1) and (2) above may be issued from time to time as separate issues for such purposes or as combined issues for such purposes.

Whenever the Legislature shall provide for the issuance of any bonds under the authority of this amendment, it shall at the same time provide for the levy and collection of an additional cigarette tax, or an additional tax on nonintoxicating beer, or an additional charge on the sale of each bottle of wine and liquor, or an additional general consumers sales tax, or a graduated income tax, or any two or more thereof, in such amount as may be required to pay annually the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof within and not exceeding thirty years, and all such taxes or charges so levied shall be irrevocably dedicated for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds until such principal of and interest on such bonds is finally paid and discharged, and any of the covenants, agreements or provisions in the acts of the Legislature levying such taxes or charges shall be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction by any of the holders of said bonds. The additional taxes on cigarettes and nonintoxicating beer and additional charges on the sale of each bottle of alcoholic liquor, provided for in chapter six, one hundred eighty-four and one hundred eighty-seven of the acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, regular session, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one, shall continue to be pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty, or bonds issued pursuant to this amendment to fund or refund such bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty: Provided, however, That upon the funding or refunding of all outstanding bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty, or the deposit in trust of sufficient funds to pay all the principal of and interest on such outstanding bonds issued pursuant to said veterans bonus amendment of one thousand nine hundred fifty to their respective dates of maturity or to the first date upon which said bonds are callable prior to maturity, the taxes and charges provided for in said chapter six, one hundred eighty-four and one hundred eighty-seven of the acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, regular session, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one, may be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued under any of the provisions of this amendment.

CONSTITUTION WEST VIRGINIA 1863

The State.

1. The State of West Virginia shall be and remain one of the United States of America. The Constitution of the United States, and the laws and treaties made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land.

2. The following counties, formerly parts of the State of Virginia, shall be included in, and form part of, the State of West Virginia, namely: The counties of Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall, Wetzel, Marion, Monongalia, Preston, Taylor, Pleasants, Tyler, Ritchie, Doddridge, Harrison, Wood, Jackson, Wirt, Roane, Calhoun, Gilmer, Barbour, Tucker, Lewis, Braxton, Upshur, Randolph, Mason, Putnam, Kanawha, Clay, Nicholas, Cabell, Wayne, Boone, Logan, Wyoming, Mercer, McDowell, Webster, Pocahontas, Fayette, Raleigh, Greenbrier and Monroe.

And if a majority of the votes cast at the election or elections held, as provided in the schedule hereof, in the district composed of the counties of Pendleton, Hardy, Hampshire, and Morgan, shall be in favor of the adoption of this Constitution, the said four counties shall be included in, and form part of, the State of West Virginia; and if the same shall be so included, and a majority of the votes cast at the said election or elections, in the district composed of the counties of Berkeley, Jefferson and Frederick shall be in favor of the adoption of this constitution, then the three last mentioned counties shall also be included in, and form part of, the State of West Virginia.

The State of West Virginia shall also include so much of the bed, banks and shores of the Ohio river as heretofore appertained to the State of Virginia; and the territorial rights and property in, and the jurisdiction of whatever nature over, the said bed, banks and shores heretofore reserved by, or vested in, the State of Virginia, shall vest in, and be hereafter exercised by, the State of West Virginia.

3. The powers of Government reside in all the citizens of the State, and can be rightfully exercised only in accordance with their will and appointment.

4. The Legislative, Executive and Judicial departments of the Government shall be separate and distinct. Neither shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others. No person shall be invested with or exercise the powers of more than one of them at the same time.

5. Writs, grants and commissions issued under state authority, shall run in the name of, and official bonds shall be made payable to, The State of West Virginia. Indictments shall conclude "against the peace and dignity of the State of West Virginia."

6. The citizens of the State are the citizens of the United States residing therein; but no person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be deemed a resident of this State by reason of being stationed therein.

7. Every citizen shall be entitled to equal representation in the government, and in all apportionments of representation, equality of numbers of those entitled thereto shall, as far as practicable, be preserved.

ARTICLE II.

Bill of Rights.

1. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended except when in time of invasion, insurrection or other public danger, the public safety may require it. No person shall be held to answer for treason, felony or other crime not cognizable by a justice, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of a contract, shall be passed.

2. Excessive bail shall not be required, or excessive fines imposed, or cruel and unusual punishments inflicted. Penalties shall be proportioned to the character and degree of the offence. No person shall be compelled to be a witness against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offence.

3. The right of the citizens to be secure in their houses, persons, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated. No warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons and things to be seized.

4. No law abridging freedom of speech or of the press shall be passed; but the legislature may provide for the restraint and punishment of the publishing and vending of obscene books, papers and pictures, and of libel and defamation of character, and for the recovery, in civil actions, by the aggrieved party, of suitable damages for such libel or defamation. Attempts to justify and uphold an armed invasion of the state, or an organized insurrection therein, during the continuance of such invasion or insurrection, by publicly speaking, writing or printing, or by publishing or circulating such writing or printing, may be, by law, declared a misdemeanor, and punished accordingly.

5. In prosecutions and civil suits for libel, the truth may be given in evidence; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the verdict shall be for the defendant.

6. Private property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation. No person, in time of peace, shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power.

7. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy exceeds twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury, if required by either party, shall be preserved. No fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any case than according to the rules of the common law.

8. The trial of crimes and misdemeanors, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be by jury, and shall be held publicly and without unreasonable delay, in the county where the alleged offence was committed, unless upon petition of the accused and for good cause shown, or in consequence of the existence of war or insurrection in such county, it is removed to, or instituted in, some other county. In all such trials the accused shall be informed of the character and cause of the accusation, and be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have the assistance of counsel for his defense, and compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor.

9. No man shall be compelled to frequent or support any religious worship, place or ministry whatsoever; nor shall any man be enforced, restrained, molested or burthened in his body or goods, or otherwise suffer, on account of his religious opinions or belief; but all men shall be free to profess, and by argument to maintain, their opinions in matters of religion, and the same shall in no wise affect, diminish or enlarge their civil capacities. And the Legislature shall not prescribe any religious test whatever; or confer any peculiar privileges or advantages on any sect or denomination; or pass any law requiring or authorizing any religious society, or the people of any district within this state, to levy on themselves or others, any tax for the erection or repair of any house for public worship, or for the support of any church or ministry; but it shall be left free to every person to select his religious instructor, and to make for his support such private contract as he shall please.

10. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. Treason shall be punished, according to the character of the acts committed, by the infliction of one or more of the penalties, of death, imprisonment, fine, or confiscation of the real and personal property of the offender, as may be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE III.

Elections and Officers.

1. The white male citizens of the State shall be entitled to vote at all elections held within the election districts in which they respectively reside; but no person who is a minor, or of unsound mind, or a pauper, or who is under conviction of treason, felony, or bribery in an election, or who has not been a resident of the state for one year, and of the county in which he offers to vote for thirty days, next preceding such offer, shall be permitted to vote while such disability continues.

2. In all elections by the people the mode of voting shall be by ballot.

3. No voter, during the continuance of an election at which he is entitled to vote, or during the time necessary and convenient for going to and returning from the same, shall be subject to arrest upon civil process or be liable to attend any court or judicial proceeding as suitor, juror or witness; or to work upon the public roads; or, except in time of war or public danger, to render military service.

4. No persons, except citizens entitled to vote, shall be elected or appointed to any State, county or municipal office. Judges must have attained the age of thirty-five years, the Governor the age of thirty years, and the Attorney General and Senators the age of twenty-five years, at the beginning of their respective terms of service; and must have been citizens of the State for five years next preceding, or at the time this Constitution goes into operation.

5. Every person elected or appointed to any office or trust, civil or military, shall, before proceeding to exercise the authority or discharge the duties of the same, make oath or affirmation that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of this State; and every citizen of this State may, in time of war, insurrection or public danger, be required by law to make the like oath or affirmation, upon pain of suspension of his right of voting and holding office under this Constitution.

6. All officers elected or appointed under this constitution may be removed from office for misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty, or other causes, in such manner as may be prescribed by general laws; and unless so removed, shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices, until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified.

7. The general elections of State and County officers, and of members of the Legislature, shall be held on the fourth Thursday of October. The terms of such officers and members, not elected or appointed to fill a vacancy, shall, unless herein otherwise provided, begin on the first day of January next succeeding their election. Elections to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired term. Vacancies shall be filled in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

8. The Legislature, in cases not provided for in this Constitution, shall prescribe by general laws, the terms of office, powers, duties and compensation of all public officers and agents, and the manner in which they shall be elected, appointed and removed.

9. No extra compensation shall be granted or allowed to any public officer, agent or contractor, after the services shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into. Nor shall the salary or compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his term of office.

10. Any officer of the State may be impeached for maladministration, corruption, incompetence, neglect of duty, or any high crime or misdemeanor. The House of Delegates shall have the sole power of impeachment. The Senate shall have the sole power to try impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, the Senators shall be on oath or affirmation; and no persons shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under the State; but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment according to law. The Senate may sit during the recess of the Legislature, for the trial of impeachments.

11. Any citizen of this State, who shall after the adoption of this Constitution, either in or out of the State, fight a duel with deadly weapons, or send or accept a challenge so to do; or who shall act as a second, or knowingly aid or assist in such duel, shall ever thereafter be incapable of holding any office of honor, trust or profit under this state.

12. The Legislature may provide for a registry of voters. They shall prescribe the manner of conducting and making returns of elections, and of determining contested elections; and shall pass such laws as may be necessary and proper to prevent intimidation, disorder or violence at the polls, and corruption or fraud in voting.

ARTICLE IV.

Legislature.

1. The Legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and House of Delegates. The style of their acts shall be, "Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia."

2. The Senate shall be composed of eighteen and the House of Delegates of forty-seven members, subject to be increased according to the provisions herein-after contained.

3. The term of office of Senators shall be two years, and that of Delegates one year. The Senators first elected shall divide themselves into two classes, one Senator from every district being assigned to each class; and of these classes, the first, to be designated by lot in such manner as the Senate may determine, shall hold their offices for one year, and the second for two years; so that after the first election one-half of the Senators shall be elected annually.

4. For the election of Senators, the State shall be divided into nine Senatorial Districts; which number shall not be diminished, but may be increased as hereinafter provided. Every district shall choose two Senators, but after the first election both shall not be chosen from the same county. The districts shall be equal, as nearly as practicable, in white population, according to the returns of the United States census. They shall be compact, formed of contiguous territory, and bounded by county lines. After every such census, the Legislature shall alter the Senatorial Districts, so far as may be necessary to make them conform to the foregoing provisions.

5. Any Senatorial District may at any time be divided, by county lines or otherwise, into two sections, which shall be equal, as nearly as practicable, in white population. If such division be made, each section shall elect one of the Senators for the district; and the Senators so elected shall be classified in such manner as the Senate may determine.

6. Until the Senatorial Districts are altered by the Legislature after the next census, the counties of Hancock, Brooke and Ohio shall constitute the first Senatorial District; Marshall, Wetzel and Marion the second; Monongalia, Preston and Taylor the third; Pleasants, Tyler, Ritchie, Doddridge and Harrison the fourth; Wood, Jackson, Wirt, Roane, Calhoun and Gilmer the fifth; Barbour, Tucker, Lewis, Braxton, Upshur and Randolph the sixth; Mason, Putnam, Kanawha, Clay and Nicholas the seventh; Cabell, Wayne, Boone, Logan, Wyoming, Mercer and McDowell the eighth; and Webster, Pocahontas, Fayette, Raleigh, Greenbrier and Monroe the ninth.

7. For the election of Delegates, every county containing a white population of less than half the ratio of representation for the House of Delegates, shall, at each apportionment, be attached to some contiguous county or counties, to form a Delegate District.

8. When two or more counties are formed into a Delegate District, the Legislature shall provide by law that the Delegates to be chosen by the voters of the district shall be, in rotation, residents of each county, for a greater or less number of terms, proportioned, as nearly as can be conveniently done, to the white population of the several counties in the district.

9. After every census the Delegates shall be apportioned as follows:

The ratio of representation for the House of Delegates shall be ascertained by dividing the whole white population of the State by the number of which the House is to consist, and rejecting the fraction of a unit, if any, resulting from such division.

Dividing the white population of every Delegate District, and of every county not included in a Delegate District, by the ratio thus ascertained, there shall be assigned to each a number of Delegates equal to the quotient obtained by this division, excluding the fractional remainder.

The additional Delegates necessary to make up the number of which the House is to consist, shall then be assigned to those Delegate Districts, and counties not included in a Delegate District, which would otherwise have the largest fractions unrepresented. But every Delegate District and county not included in a Delegate District, shall be entitled to at least one Delegate.

10. Until a new apportionment is declared, the counties of Pleasants and Wood shall form the first Delegate District; Calhoun and Gilmer the second; Clay and Nicholas the third; Webster and Pocahontas the fourth; Tucker and Randolph the fifth; and McDowell, Wyoming and Raleigh the sixth. The first Delegate District shall choose two Delegates, and the other five, one each.

11. The Delegates to be chosen by the first Delegate District shall, for the first term, both be residents of the county of Wood; and for the second term, one shall be a resident of Wood, and the other of Pleasants county; and so in rotation. The Delegate to be chosen by the second Delegate District shall for the first term, be a resident of Gilmer, and for the second, of Calhoun county. The Delegate to be chosen by the third Delegate District shall, for the first two terms, be a resident of Nicholas, and for the third term of Clay county. The Delegate to be chosen by the fourth Delegate District shall, for the first two terms, be a resident of Pocahontas, and for the third term of Webster county. The Delegate to be chosen by the fifth Delegate District shall, for the first three terms, be a resident of Randolph, and for the fourth term of Tucker county. And the Delegate to be chosen by the sixth Delegate District shall, for the first term, be a resident of Raleigh, for the second term of Wyoming, for the third term of Raleigh, for the fourth term of Wyoming, and for the fifth term of McDowell county; and so, in each case, in rotation.

12. Until a new apportionment is declared, the apportionment of Delegates to the counties not included in Delegate Districts, shall be as follows:

To Barbour, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Doddridge, Fayette, Hancock, Jackson, Lewis, Logan, Mason, Mercer, Putnam, Ritchie, Roane, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Wetzel and Wirt counties, one Delegate each.

To Harrison, Kanawha, Marion, Marshall, Monongalia and Preston counties, two Delegates each.

To Ohio county, three Delegates.

To Greenbrier and Monroe counties together, three Delegates, of whom, for the first term, two shall be residents of Greenbrier, and one of Monroe county; and for the second term, two shall be residents of Monroe and one of Greenbrier county; and so in rotation.

13. If the counties of Pendleton, Hardy, Hampshire and Morgan become part of this State, they shall, until the next apportionment, constitute the tenth Senatorial District, and choose two Senators. And if the counties of Frederick, Berkeley and Jefferson become part of this State, they shall until the next apportionment, constitute the eleventh Senatorial District and choose two Senators. And the number of the Senate shall be, in the first case twenty, and in the last twenty-two, instead of eighteen.

14. If the seven last named counties become part of this State, the apportionment of Delegates to the same shall, until the next apportionment, be as follows: to Pendleton and Hardy, one each; to Hampshire, Frederick and Jefferson, two each; and the counties of Morgan and Berkeley shall form the seventh Delegate District, and choose two Delegates; of whom, for the first term, one shall be a resident of Berkeley and the other of Morgan county; and for the second term, both shall be residents of Berkeley county; and so in rotation.

But if the counties of Pendleton, Hardy, Hampshire and Morgan become part of this State, and Frederick, Berkeley and Jefferson do not, then Pendleton, Hardy and Morgan counties shall each choose one Delegate and Hampshire two, until the next apportionment.

The number of the House of Delegates shall, instead of forty-seven, be in the first case fifty-seven, and in the last fifty-two.

15. The arrangement of the Senatorial and Delegate Districts, and apportionment of Delegates, shall hereafter be declared by law, as soon as possible after each succeeding census taken by authority of the United States. When so declared, they shall apply to the first general election for members of the Legislature to be thereafter held, and shall continue in force, unchanged until such districts are altered and Delegates apportioned under the succeeding census.

16. Additional territory may be admitted into and become part of this State with the consent of the Legislature. And in such case, provision shall be made by law for the representation of the white population thereof in the Senate and House of Delegates, in conformity with the principles set forth in this Constitution. And the number of members of which each branch of the Legislature is to consist, shall thereafter be increased by the representation assigned to such additional territory.

17. No person shall be a member of the Legislature who shall not have resided within the district or county for which he was chosen one year next preceding his election; and if a Senator or Delegate remove from the district or county for which he was chosen, his office shall be thereby vacated.

18. No person holding an office of profit under this state or the United States, shall be a member of the Legislature.

19. No person who may have collected, or been entrusted with public money, whether State, county, township or municipal, shall be eligible to the Legislature, or to any office of honor, trust or profit, until he shall have duly accounted for and paid over such money according to law.

20. The Legislature shall meet once in every year, and not oftener, unless convened by the Governor. The regular sessions shall begin on the third Tuesday of January.

21. The Governor may convene the Legislature by proclamation, whenever in his opinion, the public safety or welfare shall require it. It shall be his duty to convene them on application of a majority of the members elected to each branch.

22. The Seat of Government shall be at the city of Wheeling, until a permanent Seat of Government be established by law.

23. When, for any cause, the Legislature, in the opinion of the Governor, cannot safely meet at the Seat of Government, the Governor, by proclamation, may convene them at another place.

24. No session of the Legislature, after the first, shall continue longer than forty-five days, without the concurrence of three-fourths of the members elected to each branch.

25. Neither branch, during the session, shall adjourn for more than two days, without the consent of the other. Nor shall either, without such consent, adjourn to any other place than that in which the Legislature is then sitting.

26. Each branch shall be the judge of the elections, qualifications and returns of its own members.

27. A majority of each branch shall constitute a quorum to do business. But a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

28. The Senate shall choose from their own body a President, and the House of Delegates one of their own number as Speaker: Each branch shall appoint its own officers and remove them at pleasure; and shall determine its own rules of proceeding.

29. Each branch may punish its own members for disorderly behavior; and with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present, expel a member, but not a second time for the same offence.

30. Each branch shall have the power necessary to provide for its own safety, and the undisturbed transaction of its business; and may punish, by imprisonment, any person not a member, for disrespectful behavior in its presence, obstructing any of its proceedings, or any of its officers in the discharge of his duties, or for any assault, threatening or abuse of a member for words spoken in debate. But such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the termination of the session, and shall not prevent the punishment of any offence by the ordinary course of law.

31. For words spoken in debate, or any report, motion or proposition made in either branch, a member shall not be questioned in any other place.

32. Members of the Legislature shall, in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session, and for ten days before and after the same.

33. Senators and Delegates shall receive for their services a compensation not exceeding three dollars a day during the session of the Legislature, and also ten cents for every mile they shall travel in going to and returning from the place of meeting by the most direct route. The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall, respectively, receive an additional compensation of two dollars a day.

34. Bills and resolutions may originate in either branch, to be passed, amended or rejected by the other.

35. No bill shall become a law until it has been fully and distinctly read on three different days in each branch; unless in cases of urgency, three-fourths of the members present dispense with this rule.

36. No law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title.

37. On the passage of every bill the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and be entered on the journal; and no bill shall be passed by either branch without the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected thereto.

38. The presiding officer of each branch shall sign, before the close of the session, all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature.

39. Each branch shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and cause the same to be published from time to time; and the yeas and nays on any question, if called for by one-fifth of those present, shall be entered on the journal.

ARTICLE V.

Executive.

1. The chief Executive power shall be vested in a Governor, who shall be elected by the voters of the State, and hold his office for the term of two years, to commence on the fourth day of March next succeeding his election. The person acting as Governor shall not be elected or appointed to any other office during his term of service.

2. The Governor shall reside at the Seat of Government; shall receive two thousand dollars for each year of his service, and during his continuance in office shall receive no emolument from this or any other government.

3. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the military forces of the State; shall have power to call out the militia to repel invasion, suppress insurrection and enforce the execution of the laws; shall conduct in person, or in such manner as may be prescribed by law, all intercourse with other States; and during the recess of the Legislature shall fill temporarily all vacancies in office, not provided for by this Constitution or the Legislature, by commissions to expire at the end of thirty days after the commencement of the succeeding session of the Legislature. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; communicate to the Legislature at each session thereof the condition of the State, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he may deem expedient. He shall have power to remit fines and penalties in such cases and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; to commute capital punishment; and, except when the prosecution has been carried on by the House of Delegates, to grant reprieves and pardons after conviction; but he shall communicate to the Legislature, at each session, the particulars of every case of fine or penalty remitted, of punishment commuted, and of reprieve or pardon granted, with his reasons for remitting, commuting or granting the same.

4. The Governor may require information in writing from the officers of the Executive Department, upon any subject pertaining to their respective offices; and also the opinion in writing of the Attorney General upon any question of law relating to the business of the Executive Department.

5. Returns of the election of Governor shall be made, in the manner and by the persons designated by the Legislature, to the Secretary of the State, who shall deliver them to the Speaker of the House of Delegates on the first day of the next session of the Legislature. The Speaker shall, within ten days thereafter, in the presence of a majority of each branch of the Legislature, open the said returns, when the votes shall be counted. The person having the highest number of votes, if duly qualified, shall be declared elected; but if two or more have the highest and an equal number of votes, one of them shall thereupon be chosen Governor by the joint vote of the two branches. Contested elections for Governor shall be decided by a like vote, and the mode of proceeding in such cases shall be prescribed by law.

6. In case of the removal of the Governor from office, or of his death, failure to qualify within the time prescribed by law, resignation, removal from the seat of Government, or inability to discharge the duties of the office, the said office with its compensation, duties and authority, shall devolve upon the President of the Senate; and in case of his inability or failure from any cause to act, on the Speaker of the House of Delegates. The Legislature shall provide by law for the discharge of the Executive functions in other necessary cases.

7. A Secretary of the State, a Treasurer and an Auditor shall be elected at the same time, and for the same term as the Governor. Their duties shall be prescribed by law. The Secretary of the State shall receive thirteen hundred, the Treasurer fourteen hundred, and the Auditor fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

8. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint all military officers above the rank of colonel.

ARTICLE VI.

Judiciary.

1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a supreme court of appeals and circuit courts, and such inferior tribunals as are herein authorized.

2. The state shall be divided into nine circuits. The counties of Hancock, Brooke, Ohio and Marshall shall constitute the first; Monongalia, Preston, Tucker and Taylor, the second; Marion, Harrison and Barbour, the third; Wetzel, Tyler, Pleasants, Ritchie, Doddridge and Gilmer, the fourth; Randolph, Upshur, Lewis, Braxton, Webster and Nicholas, the fifth; Wood, Wirt, Calhoun, Roane, Jackson and Clay, the sixth; Kanawha, Mason, Putnam and Fayette, the seventh; Cabell, Wayne, Boone, Logan, Wyoming and Raleigh, the eighth; and Pocahontas, Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer and McDowell, the ninth. If the counties of Pendleton, Hardy, Hampshire and Morgan become a part of the State, they shall constitute another circuit, to be called the tenth. And if the counties of Frederick, Berkeley and Jefferson become a part of this State, they shall constitute the eleventh circuit.

3. The Legislature may, from time to time, re-arrange the circuits; and after the expiration of five years from the time this Constitution goes into operation, and thereafter, at periods of ten years, may increase or diminish the number of circuits, or the number of courts in a year, as necessity may require.

4. For each circuit, a Judge shall be elected by the voters thereof, who shall hold his office for the term of six years. During his continuance in office he shall reside in the circuit of which he is Judge.

5. A circuit court shall be held in every county at least four times a year, unless otherwise provided by law in pursuance of the third section of this Article. The Judges may be required or authorized to hold the courts of their respective circuits alternately, and a Judge of one circuit to hold a court in any other circuit.

6. The circuit court shall have the supervision and control of all proceedings before justices and other inferior tribunals, by mandamus, prohibition or certiorari. They shall, except in cases confided exclusively by this Constitution to some other tribunal, have original and general jurisdiction of all matters at law, where the amount in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds twenty dollars, and of all cases in equity, and of all crimes and misdemeanors. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases civil and criminal, where an appeal, writ of error or supersedeas may be allowed to the judgment or proceedings of any inferior tribunal. They shall also have such other jurisdiction, whether supervisory, original, appellate or concurrent, as may be prescribed by law.

7. The Supreme Court of Appeals shall consist of three Judges, any two of whom shall be a quorum. They shall be elected by the voters of the State, and shall hold their offices for the term of twelve years; except that of those first elected, one, to be designated by lot in such manner as they may determine, shall hold his office for four years; another, to be designated in like manner, for eight years; and the third for twelve years; so that one shall be elected every four years after the first election.

8. The Supreme Court of Appeals shall have original jurisdiction in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus and prohibition. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy, exclusive of costs, is of greater value or amount than two hundred dollars; in controversies concerning the title or boundaries of land, the probate of wills, the appointment or qualification of a personal representative, guardian, committee, or curator, or concerning a mill, road, way, ferry, or landing, or the right of a corporation or county to levy tolls or taxes; and also in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus and prohibition, and cases involving freedom, or the constitutionality of a law. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases where there has been a conviction for felony or misdemeanor in a circuit court, and such other appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases as may be prescribed by law.

9. When a judgment or decree is reversed or affirmed by the supreme Court of Appeals, every point made and distinctly stated in writing in the cause, and fairly arising upon the record of the case, shall be considered and decided, and the reasons therefor shall be concisely and briefly stated in writing, and preserved with the records of the case.

10. When any Judge of the Court of Appeals is so situated in regard to any case pending before it, as to make it improper for him to aid in the trial of the same, or is under any other disability, the remaining Judges may call to their assistance a Judge of the circuit court, who shall act as a Judge of the Court of Appeals in the cases to which such disability relates.

11. Judges shall be commissioned by the Governor. The salary of a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall be two thousand, and that of a Judge of a circuit court eighteen hundred dollars per annum, and each shall receive the same allowance for necessary travel as members of the Legislature.

12. No Judge, during his term of service, shall hold any other office, appointment or public trust, under this or any other government, and the acceptance thereof shall vacate his judicial office; nor shall he, during his continuance therein, be eligible to any political office.

13. Judges may be removed from office for misconduct, incompetence or neglect of duty, or on conviction of an infamous offence, by the concurrent vote of a majority of all the members elected to each branch of the Legislature, and the cause of removal shall be entered on the journals. The Judge, against whom the Legislature may be about to proceed, shall receive notice thereof, accompanied by a copy of the causes alleged for his removal, at least twenty days before the day on which either branch of the Legislature shall act thereon.

14. The officers of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall be appointed by the Court, or by the Judges thereof in vacation. Their duties, compensation and tenure of office, shall be prescribed by law.

15. The voters of each county shall elect a Clerk of the Circuit Court, whose term of office shall be four years. His duties and compensation, and the mode of removing him from office, shall be prescribed by law; and when a vacancy shall occur in the office, the Judge of the Circuit Court shall appoint a Clerk, who shall discharge the duties of the office until the vacancy is filled. In any case, in respect to which the Clerk shall be so situated as to make it improper for him to act, the Court shall appoint a substitute.

16. At every regular election of a Governor, an Attorney General shall also be elected. He shall be commissioned by the Governor; shall perform such duties, and receive such compensation as may be prescribed by law, and be removable in the same manner as the Judges.

17. The Legislature may establish courts of limited jurisdiction within any incorporated town or city, subject to appeal to the Circuit Courts.

ARTICLE VII.

Counties and Townships.

1. Every County shall be divided into not less than three, nor more than ten townships, laid off as compactly as practicable, with reference to natural boundaries, and containing, as nearly as practicable, an equal number of white population, but not less than four hundred. Each Township shall be designated, "The Township of _____ in the County of _____," by which name it may sue and be sued.

2. The voters of each Township, assembled in stated or special Township meeting, shall transact all such business relating exclusively to their Township as is herein, or may be by law, required or authorized. They shall annually elect a Supervisor, Clerk of the Township, Surveyor of Roads for each precinct in their Township, Overseer of the Poor, and such other officers as may be directed by law. They shall also, every four years, elect one Justice; and if the white population of their Township exceeds twelve hundred in number, may elect an additional Justice; and every two years shall elect as many Constables as Justices. The Supervisor, or in his absence, a voter chosen by those present, shall preside at Township meetings and elections, and the Clerk shall act as clerk thereof.

3. The Supervisors chosen in the Townships of each county shall constitute a Board, to be known as "The Supervisors of the County of _____," by which name they may sue and be sued, and make and use a common seal, and enact ordinances and by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of the State. They shall meet statedly at least four times in each year at the Court House of their county, and may hold special and adjourned meetings. At their first meeting after the annual Township election, and whenever a vacancy may occur, they shall elect one of their number President of the Board; and appoint a Clerk, who shall keep a journal of their proceedings, and transact such other business pertaining to his office as may be by them or by law required, and whose compensation they shall fix by ordinance and pay from the county treasury.

4. The Board of Supervisors of each County, a majority of whom shall be a quorum, shall, under such general regulations as may be prescribed by law, have the superintendence and administration of the internal affairs and fiscal concerns of their County, including the establishment and regulation of roads, public landings, ferries and mills; the granting of ordinary and other licenses; and the laying, collecting and disbursement of the county levies; but all writs of ad quod damnum shall issue from the Circuit Courts. They shall from time to time appoint the places for holding elections in the several Townships of their County; and shall be the judges of the election, qualifications and returns of their own members, and of all County and Township officers.

5. The voters of every county shall elect a Sheriff, Prosecuting Attorney, Surveyor of Lands, Recorder, one or more Assessors, and such other county officers as the Legislature may from time to time direct or authorize; the duties of all of whom shall be prescribed and defined, as far as practicable, by general laws. All the said county officers shall hold their offices for two years, except the Sheriff, whose term of office shall be four years. The same person shall not be elected Sheriff for two consecutive full terms, nor shall any person who has acted as deputy of any Sheriff be elected his successor, nor shall any Sheriff act as the deputy of his successor; but the retiring Sheriff shall finish all business remaining in his hands at the expiration of his term, for which purpose his commission and official bond shall continue in force. The duties of all the said officers shall be discharged by the incumbents thereof in person, or under their superintendence. The Board of Supervisors shall designate one or more constables of their respective counties to serve process and levy executions, when the Sheriff thereof is a party defendant in a suit instituted therein, or is under any other disability.

6. The Recorder, in addition to the duties incident to the recording of inventories, and other papers relating to estates, and of deeds and other writings, the registering of births, marriages and deaths, and the issuing of marriage licenses, shall have authority, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, to receive proof of wills and admit them to probate, to appoint and qualify personal representatives, guardians, committees and curators, to administer oaths, take acknowledgements of deeds and other writings, and relinquishments of dower.

7. The Legislature shall, at their first session, by general laws, provide for carrying into effect the foregoing provisions of this article. They shall also provide for commissioning such of the officers therein mentioned as they may deem proper, and may require any class of them to give bond with security for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices, and for accounting for and paying over, as required by law, all money which may come to their hands by virtue thereof. They shall further provide for the compensation of the said officers by fees, or from the county treasury; and for the appointment, when necessary, of deputies and assistants, whose duties and responsibilities shall be prescribed and defined by general laws. When the compensation of an officer is paid from the county treasury, the amount shall be fixed by the Board of Supervisors, within limits to be ascertained by law.

8. The civil jurisdiction of a justice shall extend to actions of assumpsit, debt, detinue and trover, if the amount claimed, exclusive of interest does not exceed one hundred dollars, when the defendant resides, or, being a non-resident of the State, is found, or has effects or estate within his township, or when the cause of action arose therein; but any other justice of the same county may issue a summons to the defendant to appear before the justice of the proper township, which may be served by a constable of either township. In case of a vacancy in the office of justice or constable in any township having but one, or of the disability to act of the incumbent, any other justice or constable of the same county may discharge the duties of their respective offices within the said township. The manner of conducting the aforesaid actions, and of issuing summonses and executions, and of executing and making return of the same, shall be prescribed by law; and the Legislature may give to justices and constables such additional civil jurisdiction and powers, within their respective townships, as may be deemed expedient.

9. Every justice and constable shall be a conservator of the peace throughout his county, and have such jurisdiction and powers in criminal cases therein as may be prescribed by law. Jurisdiction of all misdemeanors and breaches of the peace, punishable by fine not exceeding ten dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, may be, by law, vested in the Justices.

10. Either party to a civil suit brought before a Justice, where the value in controversy, or the damages claimed, exceeds twenty dollars; and the defendant, in such cases of misdemeanor or breach of the peace as may be made by law cognizable by a single Justice, when the penalty is imprisonment or a fine exceeding five dollars, shall be entitled to a trial by six jurors, if demanded, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

11. In all cases an appeal shall lie, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, from the judgment or proceedings of a Justice or Recorder, to the Circuit Court of the County, excepting judgment of Justices in assumpsit, debt, detinue and trover, and for fines, where the amount does not exceed ten dollars exclusive of interest and costs, and where the case does not involve the freedom of a person, the validity of a law, or the rights of a corporation or county to levy tolls or taxes.

12. No new county shall be formed having an area of less than four hundred square miles; or if another county be thereby reduced below that area; or if any territory be thereby taken from a County containing less than four hundred square miles. And no new county shall be formed containing a white population of less than four thousand; or if the white population of another county be thereby reduced below that number; or if any county containing less than four thousand white inhabitants be thereby reduced in area. But the Legislature may, at any time, annex any county containing less than four thousand white inhabitants to an adjoining county or counties as part thereof.

13. The Board of Supervisors may alter the bounds of a Township of their county, or erect new Townships therein, with the consent of a majority of the voters of each Township interested, assembled in stated Township meeting, or in a meeting duly called for the purpose, subject to the provisions of the first section of this article.

14. Nothing contained in this article shall impair or affect the charter of any municipal corporation, or restrict the power of the Legislature to create or regulate such corporations.

ARTICLE VIII.

Taxation and Finance.

1. Taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the State, and all property, both real and personal shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as directed by law. No one species of property from which a tax may be collected, shall be taxed higher than any other species of property of equal value; but property used for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes, and public property, may, by law, be exempted from taxation.

2. A capitation tax of one dollar, shall be levied upon each white male inhabitant who has attained the age of twenty-one years.

3. The Legislature shall provide for an annual tax, sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the State for each year; and whenever the ordinary expenses of any year shall exceed the income, shall levy a tax for the ensuing year, sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of such year.

4. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in pursuance of appropriations made by law, and an accurate and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be published annually.

5. No debt shall be contracted by this State, except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war.

6. The credit of the State shall not be granted to, or in aid of, any county, city, town, township, corporation or person; nor shall the State ever assume or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of any county, city, town, township, corporation or person, unless incurred in time of war or insurrection for the benefit of the State.

7. The Legislature may at any time direct a sale of the stocks owned by the State in banks and other corporations, but the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the liquidation of the public debt; and hereafter the State shall not become a stockholder in any bank. If the State become a stockholder in any association or corporation for purposes of internal improvement, such stock shall be paid for at the time of subscribing, or a tax shall be levied for the ensuing year, sufficient to pay the subscription in full.

8. An equitable proportion of the public debt of the Commonwealth of Virginia, prior to the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall be assumed by this State; and the Legislature shall ascertain the same as soon as may be practicable, and provide for the liquidation thereof, by a sinking fund sufficient to pay the accruing interest, and redeem the principal within thirty-four years.

ARTICLE IX.

Forfeited and Unappropriated Lands.

1. All private rights and interests in lands in this State, derived from or under the laws of the State of Virginia, prior to the time this Constitution goes into operation, shall remain valid and secure, and shall be determined by the laws heretofore in force in the State of Virginia.

2. No entry by warrant on land in this State shall be hereafter made; and in all cases where an entry has been heretofore made and has been or shall be so perfected as to entitle the locator to a grant, the Legislature shall make provision by law for issuing the same.

3. The Legislature shall provide for the sale of all lands in the State heretofore forfeited to the State of Virginia for the non-payment of the taxes charged thereon for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, or any year previous thereto, or for the failure of the former owners to have the same entered on the land books of the proper county and charged with the taxes due thereon for the said or any year previous thereto, under the laws of the State of Virginia, and also of all waste and unappropriated lands, by proceedings in the Circuit Courts of the county where such lands are situated.

4. All lands within this State, returned delinquent for non-payment of taxes to the State of Virginia since the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, where the taxes, exclusive of damages, do not exceed twenty dollars; and all lands forfeited for the failure of the owners to have the same entered on the land books of the proper county, and charged with the taxes chargeable thereon since the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, where the tract does not contain more than one thousand acres, are hereby released and exonerated from forfeiture, and from the delinquent taxes and damages charged thereon.

5. All lands in this State heretofore vested in the State of Virginia by forfeiture, or by purchase at the Sheriffs' sales for delinquent taxes, and not released or exonerated by the laws thereof, or by the operation of the preceding section, may be redeemed by the former owners, by payment to this State of the amount of taxes and damages due thereon at the time of such redemption, within five years from the day this Constitution goes into operation; and all such lands not so released, exonerated or redeemed, shall be treated as forfeited, and proceeded against and sold as provided in the third section of this article.

6. The former owner of any tract of land in this State sold under the provisions of this article, shall be entitled to receive the excess of the sum for which such tract may be sold over the taxes and damages charged and chargeable thereon, and the costs, if his claim be filed in the Circuit Court which decreed the sale, within two years thereafter.

ARTICLE X.

Education.

1. All money accruing to this State, being the proceeds of forfeited, delinquent, waste and unappropriated lands; and of lands heretofore sold for taxes and purchased by the state of Virginia, if hereafter redeemed, or sold to others than this State; all grants, devises or bequests that may be made to this State for the purposes of education or where the purposes of such grants, devises or bequests are not specified; this State's just share of the Literary fund of Virginia, whether paid over or otherwise liquidated, and any sums of money, stocks or property which this State shall have the right to claim from the State of Virginia for educational purposes; the proceeds of the estates of all persons who may die without leaving a will or heir, and of all escheated lands; the proceeds of any taxes that may be levied on the revenues of any corporation hereafter created; all monies that may be paid as an equivalent for exemption from military duty; and such sums as may from time to time be appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose, shall be set apart as a separate fund, to be called the School Fund, and invested under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, in the interest bearing securities of the United States, or of this State; and the interest thereof shall be annually applied to the support of free schools throughout the State, and to no other purpose whatever. But any portion of said interest remaining unexpended at the close of a fiscal year, shall be added to, and remain a part of, the capital of the School Fund.

2. The Legislature shall provide, as soon as practicable, for the establishment of a thorough and efficient system of free schools. They shall provide for the support of such schools by appropriating thereto the interest of the invested school fund, the net proceeds of all forfeitures, confiscations and fines accruing to this State under the laws thereof; and by general taxation on persons and property, or otherwise. They shall also provide for raising, in each township, by the authority of the people thereof, such a proportion of the amount required for the support of free schools therein as shall be prescribed by general laws.

3. Provision may be made by law for the election and prescribing the powers, duties and compensation of a General Superintendent of free schools for the State, whose term of office shall be the same as that of the Governor; and for a County Superintendent for each county; and for the election, in the several townships, by the voters thereof, of such officers, not specified in this Constitution, as may be necessary to carry out the objects of this article; and for the organization, whenever it may be deemed expedient, of a State Board of Instruction.

4. The Legislature shall foster and encourage moral, intellectual, scientific and agricultural improvement; they shall, whenever it may be practicable, make suitable provisions for the blind, mute and insane, and for the organization of such institutions of learning as the best interests of general education in the State may demand.

ARTICLE XI.

Miscellaneous.

1. No lottery shall be authorized by law; and the buying, selling or transferring of tickets or chances in any lottery shall be prohibited.

2. No charter of incorporation shall be granted to any church or religious denomination. Provision may be made by general laws for securing the title to church property, so that it shall be held and used for the purposes intended.

3. The Circuit Courts shall have power, under such general regulations as may be prescribed by law, to grant divorces, change the names of persons, and direct the sales of estates belonging to infants and other persons under legal disabilities, but relief shall not be granted by special legislation in such cases.

4. Laws may be passed regulating or prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of this State.

5. The Legislature shall pass general laws whereby any number of persons associated for mining, manufacturing, insuring or other purpose useful to the public, excepting banks of circulation and the construction of works of internal improvement, may become a corporation, on complying with the terms and conditions thereby prescribed; and no special act incorporating, or granting peculiar privileges to any joint stock company or association, not having in view the issuing of bills to circulate as money or the construction of some work of internal improvement, shall be passed. No company or association, authorized by this section, shall issue bills to circulate as money. No charter of incorporation shall be granted under such general laws, unless the right be reserved to alter or amend such charter at the pleasure of the Legislature, to be declared by general laws. No act to incorporate any bank of circulation or internal improvement company, or to confer additional privileges on the same, shall be passed, unless public notice of the intended application for such act be given under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law.

6. For the election of representatives to Congress, the State shall be divided into districts, corresponding in number with the representatives to which it may be entitled; which districts shall be formed of contiguous counties and be compact. Each district shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal federal number, to be determined according to the rule prescribed in the second section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States.

7. The children of slaves born within the limits of this State after the fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, shall be free; and all slaves within the said State who shall, at the time aforesaid, be under the age of ten years, shall be free when they arrive at the age of twenty-one years; and all slaves over ten and under twenty-one years, shall be free when they arrive at the age of twenty-five years; and no slave shall be permitted to come into the State for permanent residence therein.

[This section as originally adopted was as follows:

"7. No slave shall be brought, or free person of color be permitted to come, into this State for permanent residence."

The act of Congress admitting West Virginia into the Union, made it a condition of such admission, that this section should be stricken out, and the seventh section as it now stands, substituted. It was to make this proposed change that the Convention was re-assembled February twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three. The convention agreed to the amendment February seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and it was ratified by the people on the twenty-sixth day of the following March.]

8. Such parts of the common law and of the laws of the State of Virginia as are in force within the boundaries of the State of West Virginia, when this Constitution goes into operation, and are not repugnant thereto, shall be and continue the law of this state until altered or repealed by the Legislature. All offences against the laws of Virginia heretofore committed within the boundaries of this State shall be cognizable in the courts of this State, in the same manner they would be if hereafter committed within this State. All civil and criminal suits and proceedings pending in the County or Circuit Courts of the State of Virginia, held within the said boundaries, shall be docketed and thereafter proceeded in before the Circuit Courts of the proper county; and all such suits and proceedings pending in the Supreme and District Courts of Appeals of the State of Virginia, if the defendant in the court below resides within the said boundaries, or the subject of the suit is land or other property situated or being therein, and the plaintiff is entitled to prosecute in this State, shall be docketed, and thereafter proceeded in before the Supreme Court of Appeals thereof.

9. The records, books, papers, seals and other property and appurtenances of the former Circuit or County Courts, within the State of West Virginia, shall be transferred to, and remain in, the care and custody of the Circuit Courts of the respective counties; to which all process outstanding at the time this Constitution goes into operation shall be returned, and by which new process in suits then pending, or previously determined, in the said former Courts, may be issued in proper cases. Copies and transcripts of the records and proceedings of the said former Courts shall be made and certified by the Courts having the care and custody of such records and proceedings, or the proper officers thereof, and shall have the same force and effect as if they had been heretofore properly made and certified by the said former Courts.

ARTICLE XII.

Amendments.

1. No Convention shall be called, having the authority to alter the Constitution of the State, unless it be in pursuance of a law passed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature, and providing that polls shall be held throughout the State, on the same day therein specified, which shall not be less than three months after the passage of such law, for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters on the question of calling a Convention. And such Convention shall not be held unless a majority of the votes cast at such polls be in favor of calling the same; nor shall the members be elected to such Convention, until at least one month after the result of the polls shall be duly ascertained, declared and published. And all acts and ordinances of the said Convention shall be submitted to the voters of the State for ratification, or rejection, and shall have no validity whatever, until they are ratified, and in no event shall they, by any shift or device, be made to have any retrospective operation or effect.

2. Any amendment to the Constitution of the State may be proposed in either branch of the Legislature; and if the same, being read on three several days in each branch, be agreed to on its third reading, by a majority of the members elected thereto, the proposed amendment, with the yeas and nays thereon, shall be entered on the journals, and referred to the Legislature at the first session to be held after the next general election; and shall be published, at least three months before such election, in some newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is printed. And if the proposed amendment be agreed to during such session, by a majority of the members elected to each branch, it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide by law for submitting the same to the voters of the State, for ratification or rejection. And if a majority of the qualified voters, voting upon the question at the polls held pursuant to such law, ratify the proposed amendment, it shall be in force from the time of such ratification, as a part of the Constitution of the State. If two or more amendments be submitted at the same time, the vote on the ratification or rejection, shall be taken on each separately.

WEST VIRGINIA CHILDREN'S HOME

Elkins

Superintendent: Glenn W. Gainer. Financial Secretary: Martha H. Gainer. Children: 53.

The West Virginia Children's Home, located in Elkins, was established by an act of the Legislature in 1899 and formally opened in 1911. In 1935 an additional unit was built to the two-story brick structure located on the 20-acre tract of land, located on Heavner Avenue. The purpose of the Home is to provide for orphan and neglected children, between the ages of 6 to 14 years, although they can remain here until they are 21 years of age. Children are admitted to the Home either by a Court order or the Department of Public Assistance to be kept, maintained, educated and trained until they can return to their former homes or placed in foster homes. In addition to the 20 acres of the Home campus, the institution owns 10 acres of farm land located on Leading Creek and 117 acres known as the Darby Memorial Farm, situated at the head of Woolwine Hollow. This acreage furnishes vegetables and grazing for beef cattle and grain for hogs. There are 25 head of cattle and 42 head of hogs, on the Home's farm. At the present time a two-room school is operated on the Home Campus by the Board of Education where the children attend until they complete the 7th grade, after which they complete their education in the Junior and Senior High Schools in the city of Elkins. The Home provides all school supplies and other educational aids in keeping with the best educational standards. Religious training is provided by the local churches, and the children attend Church and Sunday School of their choice. The Home provides a group singing once a week for all the children and four of the children are taking voice lessons. They also take part in the various Youth activities provided by the local churches. The boys and girls belong to the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, which provides many activities the year around. The Home Campus is provided with modern playground equipment, including an open air swimming pool.

WEST VIRGINIA TRAINING SCHOOL

St. Marys

Superintendent: Colin A. Anderson, M.D. Resident Children: 400.

The West Virginia Training School is situated four miles north of St. Marys, at Spring Run on State Route 2, in Pleasants County. It was established in 1921 by an act of the Legislature. The property consists of 694 acres, part of which is under cultivation. The School is operated for the purpose of providing complete care for mentally deficient and retarded children. The aims of the School are to promote happiness, self-reliance, socialization, vocational training, and to attempt to equip those children who are able to return to community life.

Medical and psychiatric care is offered along with classes of an educational and vocational nature. A full time physiotherapist is now on the staff, working in an equipped physiotherapy ward. A Home Economics unit is in full operation for the purpose of giving the girls instruction in running a normal house with modern kitchen appliances. Occupational therapy classes are planned to develop potential skills, and are graded and diversified in an endeavor to reveal any latent abilities. The children produce lovely articles in these classes, and they have won numerous awards in open competition throughout the state.

The School works in close cooperation with the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, through whom direct job placements are made, of courses of special training at the Vocational Rehabilitation Center at Dunbar are arranged.

It is recognized that some children are unable to benefit from a training program, and for these custodial care is provided, always with a view to increasing their comfort and safety, as well as promoting some degree of self care and independence.

A large recreation hall provides facilities for indoor games, and with ample staging for concerts and programs by the children themselves. Three school buses are available, and the children are taken to outside community activities and to local Churches. A school choir is in training. In 1961 a Charter was granted for a Boy Scout Troop. Supervised outdoor playground activities are also available, and there is a picnic area with tables and other facilities on the hillside above the school.

Located on the School grounds are: an Administration Building including school rooms, other class rooms, and a large visitors' room; a children's Cottage Ward; one large Dormitory Building housing also a Dispensary and small Infirmary; a Staff Apartment building of twenty-seven rooms; a new Laundry Building with the most up-to-date equipment. A purebred dairy herd will be purchased and a modern milk processing plant is in course of erection. A 60' x 30' swimming pool and a beauty shop are in the late planning stages.

The School has a staff of 156.

Davis

Superintendent: Cecil E. Parsons. Business Manager: Pat Sagace. Enrollment: 86.

The West Virginia Forestry Camp for Boys is located at Davis, Tucker County, one mile west of Route 32. It was authorized by an act of the Legislature in 1955 and established in 1956. It houses youthful male offenders between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one who have been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a criminal offense, other than a capital offense, and who in the opinion of the committing court, is amenable to discipline other than in close confinement. It is strictly an honor camp and offers a work program of outdoor activity conducted in cooperation with the West Virginia Conservation Commission in the upkeep and general maintenance of the Blackwater Falls State Park.

The Camp consists of four frame buildings, two occupied by resident supervisors, one serves as an office and one a shower room. There are eight steel clad frame army type buildings which include two dormitories, a commissary, a kitchen, and dining hall, a laundry, a chapel, a library and dentist office combined building and a recreation hall.

A movie projector is provided for showing 16 mm films each week and on all holidays.

A year round athletic program has been developed. This consists of football, soft ball, basketball and horse-shoe. The Camp paper, THE BREEZE, is published monthly by the boys of the Camp. The boys have their own Choir. Church services are held every Sunday at the Camp Chapel.

The staff consists of the Superintendent, Business Manager, Camp Secretary, Guidance Counselor, Athletic Director, Chaplain, Doctor, Dentist, matron, three cooks and eight supervisors.

WEST VIRGINIA INDUSTRIAL HOME FOR GIRLS

Industrial

Superintendent Martha J. Williams. Financial Secretary: Margaret P. Hull. Capacity: 195, Enrollment: 191.

West Virginia Industrial Home for Girls is located one mile west of Salem, on U. S. Route 50. It was established by an act of the Legislature on February 18, 1897, and formally opened May 5, 1899. It is built on a 72-acre tract of which 38 acres were donated by the citizens of Salem.

From Jones Cottage, the first building, the plant has grown to include the following: Silver Hall Cottage in 1914; Sutton Cottage in 1928; Ava Standard Cottage in 1942; McCullough Cottage built in 1905, has been replaced by a new modern cottage which houses fifty girls. The Administration Building also built in 1942, includes offices and visiting rooms on the first floor. Living quarters for the Superintendent, Business Manager, with guest rooms comprise the second floor. The plant also includes the school building erected in 1915, which is called the Johnson School, with a very modern gymnasium completed in 1951. A large four-temperature storage building was completed in 1953. The Home also has its own clinic.

The girls receive standard elementary and accredited first class high school training in the very fine and well planned school program. Classes are offered from the first grade through the twelfth grade. The school is under the close supervision of the State Department of Education. The high school has operated as a first class high school since 1937. Some of the courses offered are food, clothing, nutrition, home planning, English, journalism, library training, mathematics, business training, art, music, physical education, history, civics, sociology, biology and geography. To date 317 girls have been graduated from high school and 776 from eighth grade. The school building includes a well equipped practice kitchen. The school affords a year-round recreational program (softball, badminton, shuffleboard, roller skating, basketball, ballet dancing, etc.) All girls are members of the Harrison County Junior Red Cross Chapter. They take an active part in making many things such as tray mats, stuffed animals and dolls, tray favors, water glass collars, Christmas baskets, etc., to be sent to Veterans Hospitals, orphanages, overseas and homes for the aged. There are also five groups of Y-Teens which include almost all of the girls. The school also has a well stocked library, auditorium, with seating capacity of 270, and a movie projector for showing 16 MM films, film strip projector and screen.

The girls receive domestic training by actual practice in the cottages where they live. They also receive religious training with chapel services conducted by a minister each Sunday. A program of rehabilitation is being carried out through the carefully planned work of the school, in the dormitories in which the girls live, and the administration of the institution.

WEST VIRGINIA INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Grafton

Superintendent: William T. Flanagan. Assistant Superintendent: Samuel T. Humphreys. Business Manager: James Facemire. Enrollment: 277.

The West Virginia Industrial School for Boys is located at Pruntytown, three miles west of Grafton on U. S. Route 50. It was established by an Act of the Legislature in 1889 and formally opened July 21, 1891. In addition to the principal buildings, which are located on the main campus consisting of approximately 55 acres, the school owns and operates a farm of approximately 1,900 acres on which are located a considerable number of farm buildings. The boys work on the farm during the farming season at which time emphasis is placed on the training value of such a program, directed toward improving work habits and maintaining discipline standards. For use at the School a dairy herd of registered cows is maintained on the farm and the milk is pasteurized in the modern pasteurization plant of the institution.

The school now has a vocational rehabilitation training program consisting of four certified vocational instructors for full time vocational instruction in the fields of industrial arts, simple mechanics, welding and electricity. As funds become available, this highly important phase of the program is to be expanded. In addition to this, there are training units in shoe repairing and baking. The school also maintains the following units in which the boys receive a certain amount of training. Painting, plumbing, printing, laundering, woodwork, canning, auto mechanics and carpentry. The academic school is operated on approved state standards and contains grades one through ten. In compliance with the state law, those under sixteen years of age are required to attend academic school for a term of nine months each year. A well planned recreation and physical education program operates under the supervision of competent men. Football, basketball (indoor and outdoor), baseball, softball, volleyball and horseshoe pitching form the backbone of this program.

A Social Service Department classifies each boy upon his reception, presents him for parole and/or discharge at the proper time and maintains liaison between County and State Authorities. In most instances, the boys are placed in cottages according to their age or size or both. An Honor System has been established as a stimulant to good behavior and achievement for the boys and it is working well. There is a 4-H Club and arrangements have made it possible for the forming of a Boy Scout Troop. A Drum and Bugle Corps, consisting of approximately 40 boys, is in operation and appears at many parades and festivals throughout the year. A full-time Chaplain, especially trained for this work, offers classes in religious education in the academic school and holds weekly religious services for the boys, and carries on a program of counseling and guidance.

PENAL

WEST VIRGINIA PENITENTIARY

Moundsville

Warden: O. C. Boles. Business Manager: Wm. J. Murphy.

As of March 2, 1962, the inmate population of the West Virginia Penitentiary was 1,619. There are 146 inmates housed at Camp Fairchance which is near the institution on the institution farm. These men are employed in the operation of the farm, mine, etc.

There are 363 inmates employed in Industry producing paint, tobacco, soap, clothing, license plates, mattresses, tire recapping, and print shop.

All the commodities manufactured at the institution are for sale to state agencies, county and city governments. Prison produced goods are never sold on the open market, nor out of the state.

The Penitentiary is located on a ten-acre plot of ground with six acres enclosed by a 24 foot high cut stone wall. There are 1,224 cells in use and 160 new cells that will be ready in the near future.

MEDIUM SECURITY PRISON

Huttonsville

Warden: Frank B. King. Business Manager: H. B. Walsh. Inmates: 600.

The Medium Security Prison is located on a farm near Huttonsville and is 18 miles south of Elkins on U. S. Routes 219 and 250. It was established by an act of the Legislature in 1937 and was designed to relieve over-crowding at the West Virginia Penitentiary and at the same time aid in the rehabilitation of prisoners. The majority of the inmates are employed in general farm work but many are employed in other vocational trades. They are quartered in modernly equipped dormitories in which there are no cells. The farm consists of 5,000 acres of which approximately 2,000 acres are suitable for cultivation and pasture. The farm products produced are in excess of the needs of the institution and are sold to other state institutions. Much of the foods grown on the farm is canned in the very modern equipped cannery. The 1947 session of the Legislature separated the Medium Security Prison Farm from the West Virginia Penitentiary and established it as a separate institution. All provisions of the law applicable to the Penitentiary are in effect, except that criminal proceedings against inmates of this institution are brought in the Circuit Court of Randolph County.

WEST VIRGINIA STATE PRISON FOR WOMEN

Pence Springs

Superintendent: Mrs. Grace S. Gose. Financial Secretary: Mrs. Melba L. Richmond. Capacity: 60. Present Population: 41.

The West Virginia State Prison for Women was established by an Act of the West Virginia Legislature in 1947. Prior to that time women who were sentenced in West Virginia were housed in one wing of the State Penitentiary at Moundsville. The Prison is located at Pence Springs, Summers County, on Route No. 3 fifteen miles east of the city of Hinton.

The Prison is situated on a 205.6 acre tract of land which consists of well kept grounds, fifty acres of fertile farm land and several acres of woodland. The main building is well suited for its present use. It is a large three story red brick with full sized basement and attic. The first floor has a spacious living room, staff and inmate dining rooms, kitchen, business offices, commissary, quarantine unit and storage rooms. The second and third floors consist of inmate rooms, hospital unit, security unit, and officers quarters. The basement has a large room which is used for sewing and crafts and other sections which are used for laundry, walk-in-freezer, photography room, storage rooms, coal bins and furnace room, and quarters for the male officers on duty. Near the main building is the Chapel and assembly room. The assembly room is furnished with an electric organ and eighty individual chairs. In the basement is a well equipped cannery for the mass production of canned and frozen foods. Outside the security fence is the Superintendent's four-room cottage and a Duplex which has a furnished apartment for the Financial Secretary and an apartment for guests of the institution. There is also a garage, storage and farm equipment building and piggery on the grounds.

The farm supplies the institution with fresh vegetables in the summer and canned and frozen vegetables for winter. The sewing and craft department is used for vocational training. Many garments are made for institutional use and classes are taught in weaving. Rugs are woven for inmate rooms, as well as many pieces of linen and upholstery material. The inmates are taught the art of cooking and serving through the food service and the laundry assignments prepares many girls for work in home or commercial laundries.

A complete program of rehabilitation is provided in the institution. A religious program is carried out with visiting ministers coming each week. Several interested Church and laymen groups have visited the institution and conducted services. The Sunday School conducted by the inmates is well attended.

HOSPITALS AND SANITARIUMS

ANDREW S. ROWAN MEMORIAL HOME

Sweet Springs

Superintendent Albert Pierce Traynham, M.D. Business Manager: L. N. Reed.

The Andrew S. Rowan Memorial Home for aged men and women was established by an act of the Legislature in 1945 and opened to guests July 1, of the same year.

This Institution is located at Sweet Springs, Monroe County, in the heart of the Blue Grass Section, on State Route No. 3 midway between Union and White Sulphur Springs.

There are many historical facts and traditions connected with the buildings and grounds. The oldest and largest building was completed in 1833 and is of the Thomas Jefferson design and named in his honor. A ninety-six bed annexation to this building has recently been completed. There are six hundred ninety acres including two hundred twenty-five of farm, and pasture lands and approximately thirty buildings. The dormitory used for men is now undergoing quite extensive repairs and alterations. A sprinkler system is being installed in most of the buildings even though some of the buildings are already fire proof. An excellent herd of registered Holstein cows is kept on the farm which supplies the guests with a bountiful supply of milk. The recently installed milk plant is one of the best to be found in this county.

Guests are admitted through the Department of Public Assistance or by transfer from other State Institutions and must have attained the age of sixty-five years.

BARBOURSVILLE STATE HOSPITAL

Barboursville

Superintendent: (Vacancy). Clinical Director: Dr. Bonifacio B. Gonzalez. Physicians: Raymond H. Curry, M.D., and W. D. Bourn, M.D. Business Manager: John Queen. Number of Patients: 397.

The Barboursville State Hospital, located at Barboursville, Cabell County, and reached by U. S. Route 60, was opened January 20, 1942. The hospital was originally called Barboursville Unit of Weston State Hospital. The 1947 Legislature changed the name to Barboursville Unit of Huntington State Hospital, and the 1949 Legislature, established it as Barboursville State Hospital. The State in 1941 purchased 23.76 acres of land and the two buildings which were formerly used as dormitories for Morris Harvey College, and patients were moved into the hospital as soon as each section was reconditioned and equipped. On August 1, 1942, the hospital had a population of 270 patients, its capacity at that time. Additional space has been provided through renovation of one of the buildings until the hospital had facilities for 315 patients. The 1947 Legislature made an appropriation for an Administration Building and a Storage Building. These two buildings have been completed and are now in use. The 1949 Legislature made an additional appropriation for construction of a modern laundry building and for renovation of the old buildings, and upon completion of the renovation and the additional space provided by the removal of the administrative offices from one of the dormitories to the new Administration Building, it has a capacity of 402 beds.

The 1957 Legislature appropriated $100,000 for construction and furnishing of a Male Employees Dormitory.

Berkeley Springs

Superintendent: A. C. Unger.

Berkeley Springs Sanitarium is located in the City of Berkeley Springs. It offers baths and swimming pools which utilize the warm and medicinal waters of Berkeley Springs. Histories of colonists mentioned the qualities of the water as early as 1736, and prior to that, American Indians, who were subject to rheumatism knew of its medicinal qualities and called it the "healing waters." It was the first health and pleasure resort in the colonies. The temperature of the spring water is 74.3 degrees and is invariable, and is helpful in the treatment of rheumatism, gout, diabetes, and skin diseases. The springs have been expanded to include a modern open air swimming pool with modern dressing facilities and sunbathing, and an additional new bath house which has Roman Baths and all other types of baths for year-round use. The new bath house also has a solarium or sun deck, which is modern and meets present day requirements. The sanitarium has no facilities for housing patients, but for those who visit Berkeley Springs for baths, there are adequate hotel and boarding house facilities.

At no time in the more than two hundred and twenty-five years of resort history, which included patronage of George Washington and Lord Fairfax, were the famous springs so well equipped to treat patients or accommodate the vacationist, as they are today.

DENMAR STATE HOSPITAL

Beard

Superintendent: (Vacancy). Business Manager: Harry E. Wilmoth. Patients: 144. Female 72. Male 72.

Denmar State Hospital, formerly known as Denmar Sanitarium, is located approximately 15 miles south of Marlinton, 5 miles off U. S. Route 219 in Pocahontas County, was established by an act of the Legislature in 1957, for the chronically ill. Care and treatment is available to any person, a resident of the State of West Virginia, who first is a patient in any institution other than a penal institution, and second, any person having been approved by the commissioner of Public Institutions.

The hospital is healthfully situated on an 185-acre tract of land at about 2,200 feet above sea level on an eminence overlooking the Greenbrier River in the Allegheny Mountains.

FAIRMONT EMERGENCY HOSPITAL*(Surgical)*Fairmont

Superintendent: Philip Johnson, M.D., F.A.C.S., F.I.C.S., F.I.M.A. Business Manager: Ernest Berle. Patients: 68.

Fairmont Emergency Hospital was established in 1899 for the purpose of treating persons injured in their usual occupations. The hospital accepts surgical and maternity pay cases and is the surgical clinic for the Industrial School for Boys at Pruntytown, the Industrial School for Girls at Salem, the West Virginia Training School at St. Marys, the Children's Home at Elkins, the Medium Security Prison at Huttonsville, the Spencer State Hospital at Spencer, the Weston State Hospital at Weston, the Barboursville State Hospital at Barboursville, the Forestry Camp at Davis, Lakin State Hospital at Lakin and from the West Virginia Penitentiary at Moundsville. No charge whatsoever is made for these cases. The work of the current year at regular hospital prices represents more than the total cost of the operation of the institution. The purpose of the institution at present is rapid service surgical rehabilitation.

HOPEMONT SANITARIUM*(Tuberculosis)*Hopemont

Superintendent: Fred A. Kennedy, M.D. Business Manager: Henry J. McKinley. Capacity: 322.

Hopemont Sanitarium on a 600-acre tract of land, is located at Hopemont, near Terra Alta, in Preston County and was founded in 1913. It accepts all ages of tuberculosis in any form in adults and children and admits all chronic respiratory diseases for diagnosis.

The institution consists of four fireproof hospital units under one roof. Also, Conley Hospital, a separate unit, is used to hospitalize tuberculosis prisoners under maximum security regulations. Other units of the sanitarium consist of residences, nurses' home, main dining hall, post office and laundry.

A registered Holstein herd is maintained to provide pasteurized and homogenized milk for the institution, and a piggery provides pork.

Two hospital units with a 50-bed capacity and adjoining classrooms are set aside for the children with tuberculosis. A qualified full-time teacher is provided by the Board of Education to teach patients (children and adults) in the schoolrooms or at the bedside. Grade and high school courses are given.

The hospital is fully equipped for complete diagnosis and treatment of pulmonary disease, including surgery.

HUNTINGTON STATE HOSPITAL*(Mental)*Huntington

Superintendent: E. B. J. Whitmore, Jr., M.D. Business Manager: Julius C. Fry. Total number of patients: 1,225.

Huntington State Hospital, located in the City of Huntington, was established in 1897 by an act of the Legislature as a Home for Incurables. The name of the institution was changed in 1901 to the West Virginia Asylum and in 1916 to Huntington State Hospital.

The Hospital is devoted to the treatment of mental illness. The Hospital receives both voluntary and legally committed patients, and the prevailing types of treatment are administered. Those charged with minor law violations from the districts served by this Hospital are studied psychiatrically for the Courts.

The physical plant includes six ward buildings for patients, two of these being original buildings, an administration building; two buildings used for quarters for employees (one of these being the original administration building), residence for the superintendent; three residences for physicians a short distance from the hospital grounds; power house; laundry; building for occupational therapy and recreation; main kitchen; shops for maintenance in the basement of one ward building. Medical-surgical services for the Hospital were recently transferred to one of the new ward buildings as part of a general move to house all bed and non-ambulatory patients in fire-resistant buildings.

An in-resident Psychiatric affiliation program has been started for student nurses. We now have students from the Wheeling Hospital affiliated here. A Psychiatric Nurses' program is also being conducted for student nurses from Marshall University.

Vocational Rehabilitation Division has a pilot program established at Huntington State Hospital for the retaining of those who have been mentally ill.

A Hospital Farm, consisting of 698 acres plus other leased lands, is located on the Guyandotte River a mile southeast of Barboursville, and is served by State Route 10. The farm is devoted to providing poultry, eggs, pork and milk to the hospital. A registered herd of Holstein milk cows is maintained.

LAKIN STATE HOSPITAL

Lakin

Superintendent: R. E. Walden, M.D. Business Manager: Lenzy G. Austin. Number of patients: 502.

Lakin State Hospital was founded by an act of the Legislature in 1919 and was opened in 1926 for the reception and treatment of Negroes suffering from mental and nervous disorders; however, the staff and patient population have been integrated since 1954. Presently, the institution is the district hospital for Mason, Jackson, Wood, and Putnam counties.

The physical lay-out of Lakin State Hospital on the immediate grounds consists of the following: two main buildings of three stories each, one housing male and the other female patients. Other fireproof structures include a two-story office building, a cannery, two recently constructed modern employee dormitories, a heating plant, a duplex for physicians and a Medical Center which is presently being used for private voluntary admissions, short term in-hospital study, diagnosis and treatment and for out-patient services. Also recently constructed is a new building which houses the kitchen, dining areas for both patients and employees, offices for ancillary personnel, library, canteen, class room, etc. In addition, there are, on the immediate hospital grounds, five frame reconconditioned structures in which certain allied functions of the hospital such as laundry, recreation, and work shops are conducted.

In 1957 the former Boys' Industrial School was acquired by Lakin State Hospital. The main building and dwelling houses have been converted into apartments for employees, and the gymnasium is used for patient and employee recreational activities. The Lakin, West Virginia, Post Office is also still located on these grounds.

The hospital is a member of the Mental Hospital Institute of the American Psychiatric Association and in 1952 received the Hospital of the Year Award, a national recognition by the American Psychiatric Association. For the past eleven years, a Psychiatric Aide of the Year has been cited for excellency in the care of mentally ill patients. This, too, is a national recognition by the American Psychiatric Association.

Most of the accepted methods of treatment including electro-convulsive therapy, insulin coma therapy, occupational therapy, Music therapy, recreational therapy, Psychotherapy, Educational therapy, and Vocational Rehabilitation, in addition to full utilization of the tranquilizing drugs, are employed to advantage in an effort to make the institution a treatment hospital rather than an institution of custodial care. The type of treatment the patient receives is determined on an individual basis.

PINECREST SANITARIUM*(Tuberculosis)*Beckley

Superintendent: H. S. Edwards, M.D. Business Manager: Okey A. Mills.

Pinecrest Sanitarium, located in Raleigh County at Beckley, was authorized by an act of the Legislature in 1927 and formally opened March 18, 1930. At that time the sanitarium was known as Rutherford Sanitarium but at the session of the 1934 Legislature was changed to Pinecrest Sanitarium.

Pinecrest Sanitarium is located just outside the city limits of Beckley on Federal Routes 19-21 and State Highways 3-41 with thirty-minute bus service connecting with the city and the Atlantic Greyhound bus lines, also with the C. & O. Railway in Beckley and Prince.

The sanitarium has a fifty-acre campus, and a 250-acre farm, which is modernly equipped for farming, and a dairy herd of 95 Holstein cows supplying milk for the institution, also a large number of hogs supply pork and pork products, all consumed by the institution. Pinecrest Sanitarium is composed of four modern fireproof units all connected under one roof, with 640 beds for patients, a modern fireproof nurses' home, four modern dwellings for staff physicians, seven cottages for employees, a central heating plant, dairy barn, hog barn, laundry and numerous outside buildings.

Patients admitted to Pinecrest Sanitarium are assigned to individual physicians who carry out therapeutic procedures that are recommended by the entire staff. In this manner, the patient is given the benefit of consultation by the entire medical staff. The Pinecrest staff is composed of a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Thoracic Surgeon, five full-time physicians, two X-ray technicians and two laboratory technicians, with ample office employees.

The ambulatory patients have the privilege of being entertained in the modern auditorium by moving pictures and plays produced by local talent. They also take their meals cafeteria in a spacious dining room. The Sanitarium is modern in every respect, with the most modern equipment available for the treatment of tuberculosis, both surgical and medical. A recreational director and trained medical social workers are employed full-time. The Sanitarium has the services of a full-time Chaplain and assistant.

SPENCER STATE HOSPITAL*(Mental)*Spencer

The Spencer State Hospital is located in the city of Spencer, Roane County. It was authorized by an act of the Legislature in May 1887 and formally opened in 1893.

The hospital's bed capacity is 1,030 and the population averages around 1,000 patients. The hospital staff is composed of seven physicians, all of whom have had at least five years experience and special training courses in psychiatry. There is a very active and well trained social service department and an active nursing staff which includes six registered nurses and two practical nurses. The hospital also provides dental treatment and has a modern high speed dental unit. The physically ill are treated in a separate medical department with the newest methods available. Electrocardiogram, laboratory and modern X-ray unit helps in the treatment and diagnoses of these patients.

The Spencer State Hospital adopted the open door policy and at the present time 76% of our patients reside on open wards. There are no mechanical restraints employed at the hospital. All forms of psychiatric treatment, such as psychotherapy, electro-convulsive therapy, chemotherapy and an active occupational and recreational therapies are utilized at the hospital. A new program, a class in remotivation for patients, has been in effect for a year which has added a great deal to the hospital's therapeutic success.

The hospital serves eight counties (Pleasants, Wirt, Calhoun, Roane, Clay, Kanawha, Fayette and Boone) which have a total population of approximately 400,000. In addition to the legally committed patients, the hospital also admits persons who make a voluntary application for admission.

The hospital is indebted to volunteer groups made up of citizens from Roane County and the City of Spencer, who have greatly assisted in the expansion of the Occupational Therapy and Recreational Programs.

WELCH EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

(Surgical)

Superintendent: Kenneth N. Byrne, M.D. Financial Secretary: Miss Carole Arnold.

Welch Emergency Hospital, located in the City of Welch, was established in 1899, on a three-acre tract given to the state by J. J. Sperry for this purpose. Its particular service was to the miners in that region, but now takes care of a large part of the charity cases of Southern West Virginia. The patient load has increased, the average daily census now being 116 patients.

There has been extensive remodeling of kitchen and three dining rooms, X-ray, and laboratory. The hospital now has an obstetrical room fully equipped, (666 deliveries last year); 17,481 patients were treated in the out-patient department which maintains a 97 per cent occupancy.

WESTON STATE HOSPITAL

Superintendent: Neil M. McFadyen, M.D. Business Manager: John H. Cranford, Jr. Patients: 2,300.

The Weston State Hospital is located in the City of Weston. It is the oldest state institution in West Virginia, authorized on March 22, 1858, by an act of the Virginia Assembly. There was considerable delay in the construction of the hospital due to the Civil War, and the first patients were received on October 22, 1864. The hospital has grown from an initial capacity of 35 patients to 2,325.

The hospital is maintained and equipped to provide adequate treatment for all types of mental and nervous illness, both voluntarily and court committed; in addition, all mentally ill tubercular patients in the entire state are cared for in a specially constructed building. A surgical section has been added whereby all types of tubercular surgery are provided. In addition, a modern specially constructed building has been erected to take care of all criminally insane in the State. A 107-bed neuropsychiatric clinic building is in operation and the hospital is equipped to provide various types of treatment, including psychotherapy, occupational and recreational therapies and electro-shock therapy. The facilities consist of laboratory, X-ray, social services and psychology departments. A personnel building has been constructed and two other buildings constructed to house patients which replace old buildings which have outlived their usefulness. The staff includes a chiropodist, beautician and barber. On May 20, 1955, a section of the male wards was designated as the West Virginia Soldiers' Home and is administered by the medical hospital staff, all war veterans being admitted here for treatment.

A registered herd of Holstein cows is maintained, thus providing the hospital with an adequate supply of high grade milk, processed in a modern, pasteurized plant fully approved by the State Board of Health. A coal mine at the Western end of the farm operated by the Hospital furnishes coal for the four boilers in the power plant which supplies the heating, hot water and steam requirements for the Institution.

The building and outlying farms occupy some 600 acres of land in Lewis County. The hospital grounds are large and spacious with many shade trees and provide excellent recreational facilities for the patients.

WEST VIRGINIA REHABILITATION CENTER

Institute

The West Virginia Rehabilitation Center was acquired by the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation on July 1, 1955, to provide special services needed to rehabilitate its severely disabled clients. As a multiple disability center—a complex facility equipped and staffed to serve all types of disablements—it is composed of seven fire-proof brick buildings situated on a sprawling 35-acre tract of level land 3.5 miles west of Charleston. Because the Center is the only facility in the State which provides a combination of medical, psycho-social, and vocational services, its benefits are in sharp demand and vital to the successful rehabilitation of many individuals having such disabilities as broken backs, blindness, amputations, cerebral palsy, mental illness, mental retardation, strokes, severe heart disability, and speech and hearing difficulties.

As a pivotal point for the Division's statewide case-service program, the Center is a means of bringing all elements of the rehabilitative process to bear on the problems of disability in a single, concerted effort. Here psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, vocational counselors, teachers, therapists, nurses, and physicians are all assembled under the same roof, enabling each specialist to contribute the special skills of his discipline toward "total treatment" of the severely disabled client.

Services currently being offered at the Center may be grouped under three broad categories—vocational evaluation, rehabilitation treatment and vocational training. Vocational evaluation involves an intensive study of the individual to help the client set for himself realistic vocational goals. Rehabilitation treatment provides a full range of medical services—including physical and occupational therapy, special diets, surgery, and medications—to restore the handicapped individual to his highest level of efficiency. Vocational training is offered in 17 occupational fields to prepare the disabled client to accept gainful employment following his release from the Center.

The Center's dormitory capacity is 225. A modern 200-seat cafeteria, a recreation and game room, a snack bar and a library-study room all serve to create a pleasant atmosphere for clients enrolled at this facility.

ALDERSON-BROADDUS COLLEGE

Philippi

Alderson-Broaddus College is an institution of Christian higher education established in 1871 as Broaddus College, and in 1932 Alderson Junior College was merged with it. Sponsored by the West Virginia Baptist Convention, and affiliated with the American Baptist Convention, it is fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the West Virginia State Department of Education, as a four-year co-educational liberal arts college. It is a member of the Association of American Colleges, the American Association of Schools of Religious Education, and the American Baptist Education Association.

The instructional program is organized under four divisions: Humanities, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, and Vocational and Professional Studies. A student selects a field of concentration within one of these divisions, after completing an initial general education program. In addition to offerings in the Liberal Arts, there are professional programs of study in business administration, Christian education, elementary education, medical technology, music education, nursing, physical education, radiologic technology, secondary education and secretarial studies. The pre-professional programs include dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, ministry and social work. These curricula lead to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. The academic year begins in the second week of September and is divided into two semesters. There is a summer session.

Completing five major building units in the past four years, the campus development program, in anticipation of the College centennial, is moving toward a resident student body of approximately 800. The present enrollment is 550, and the total student costs are $1,350 per year. Ample scholarships and unique work opportunities are available to worthy students.

8379TH AIR FORCE RESERVE RECOVERY GROUP

United States Air Force

Rhodes and MacCorkle Avenues, SW, South Charleston

The 8379th Air Force Reserve Recovery Group administers to and supports three Air Force Reserve Recovery Squadrons and one Air Reserve Squadron within West Virginia. Their mission is that of supporting aircraft disposal, aircraft recovery, and reconstitution of Air Force residual resources within their assigned area. These units, in a ready posture, will be capable of supporting Continental United States command requirements for dispersal during periods of increased tension or national emergency. In the event active forces elect to disperse aircraft at preselected bases, these units will support this dispersal to the maximum extent possible. In war, many aircraft may not be able to land at their own bases or preplanned alternates. In order to recover these and other aircraft, these units will man predesignated airfields.

U. S. ARMY ENGINEER DISTRICT, HUNTINGTON

502 Eighth Street, Huntington 1, West Virginia

Congress has delegated to the Corps of Engineers responsibility for the development, construction, operation and maintenance of navigation facilities, flood control structures, and related improvements.

The Civil Works Program of the Corps of Engineers is divided on the basis of watershed drainage areas. The Ohio River drainage basin includes all of West Virginia except the eastern Panhandle, which is in the Potomac River Basin. The Huntington District of the Ohio River Division encompasses that part of the Ohio River Basin in West Virginia downstream from Capatina in Marshall County. The Pittsburgh District encompasses the upstream remainder of the Ohio River Basin including the Basin of the Monongahela River. The Potomac River Basin is included in the Baltimore District of the North Atlantic Division.

Responsibility for military construction in the entire State of West Virginia rests with the U.S. Army Engineer District, Louisville, Kentucky, Corps of Engineers.

on the Monongahela River. Operation of the navigation structures on Little Kanawha and Big Sandy Rivers for commercial navigation has been discontinued. Navigation is not a feature of the Potomac River located in West Virginia.

Improvement of the navigation facilities includes construction of modern high lift structures to replace existing obsolete dams. On the Ohio River two of these structures are complete. Greenup Locks and Dam, Greenup, Kentucky replaced Locks and Dams, 27, 28, 29 and 30. New Cumberland Locks and Dams, New Cumberland, West Virginia, replaced Locks and Dams, 7, 8 and 9. Other navigation structures now under construction on the Ohio River are: Pike Island Locks and Dam, Wheeling, West Virginia, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 10 and 11; Belleville Locks and Dam, Belleville, West Virginia, which will replace Locks and Dams 18, 19 and 20; Captain Anthony Meldahl Locks and Dam, Chilo, Ohio, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 31, 32, 33 and 34; Markland Locks and Dam, Markland, Indiana, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 35, 36, 37, 38 and 39. Partial reconstruction and additional improvements of McAlpine Locks and Dam, Louisville, Kentucky, are in progress. West Virginia will benefit from the construction of these modern navigation improvements on the Ohio River.

Modernization of the obsolescent Monongahela River navigation structures in the upper reaches of the waterway is also currently in progress. Hildebrand Lock and Dam and modification of Dam 8 have been completed. Those navigation structures now under construction on the Monongahela River are: Opekiska Lock and Dam, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 14 and 15 and Maxwell Locks and Dam, which, when integrated with reconstruction of Dam 4, will replace Locks and Dams 5 and 6.

Flood control reservoirs within the State constructed by the Corps of Engineers are Bluestone Reservoir on New River, near Hinton; Sutton Reservoir on Elk River near Sutton; and Tygart Reservoir on Tygart River near Grafton. Summersville Dam and Reservoir on Gauley River is under construction. Others are authorized by Congress and will be constructed as funds are appropriated.

Floodwalls completed by the Corps of Engineers in West Virginia are located at Parkersburg, Point Pleasant, Huntington, Ceredo-Kenova, Ridgeley, W. Va.-Cumberland, Md. (one project) and Elkins, and one is under construction at Williamson. Channel improvement projects have been completed on Brush Creek at Princeton, West Virginia, and on Meadow River at East Rainelle. Several completed snagging and clearing channel improvement projects have reduced or alleviated flood damage along the smaller tributaries of the main rivers within the State.

United States Marine Corps activities in West Virginia include five organized reserve companies with a total authorized strength of 582 officers and men, and a regular Marine Corps recruiting station in South Charleston with sub-Offices located in eight major West Virginia cities.

All of the state's present Marine reserve units were organized during and after the Korean conflict. There were two Marine Reserve companies in the state prior to Korea. Both were activated after hostilities broke out there in June 1950.

Each reserve unit has a staff of regular Marine officers and enlisted men to instruct, support and advise. This staff is called the Inspector-Instructor staff.

Marine reserve units are an active part in any community. They are always ready for parades, color guards, funeral details, and other civic functions where military personnel can be of service.

The annual "Toys for Tots" campaign is one of the proudest achievements of each Reserve unit. The Marine reserves collect, repair and distribute toys to thousands of children in West Virginia, and the total for the nation last year was in excess of 5,000,000 toys.

UNITED STATES ARMY RECRUITING MAIN STATION, FAIRMONT

310 Gaston Avenue

Fairmont, West Virginia

Telephone 363-9250 or 363-9251

The United States Army Recruiting Main Station, Fairmont, has the primary mission of securing through voluntary enlistment the maximum number of qualified male and female persons for the United States Army and to process into the service Army and Air Force applicants through the Joint Recruiting Processing Unit. The secondary mission is to induct into the U. S. Armed Forces those persons forwarded to this Main Station by Selective Service, and examining, both mentally and physically, applicants for all branches of the Armed Forces.

This activity encompasses twenty-six (26) counties of Northern West Virginia, three (3) counties of Ohio, two (2) counties of Maryland, and two (2) counties of Pennsylvania. This includes approximately 13,774 square miles of land area.

There is a total of eighteen (18) Recruiting Stations under the jurisdiction of this Main Station. These Recruiting Stations are manned by twenty (20) recruiters in eighteen different cities.

FEDERAL REFORMATORY FOR WOMEN

Alderson

Warden: Gladys V. Bowman

Associate Warden (Treatment): Virginia McLaughlin

Superintendent of Industries: Marjorie Porterfield

The Federal Reformatory for Women is situated in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains in Summers and Monroe Counties. It was established by Act of Congress June 7, 1924, and the buildings and grounds have a value in excess of $2,000,000. It was designed to take care of all women Federal sentenced prisoners in the United States and the insular possessions and has a capacity of 600. There are fifteen buildings housing inmates, a hospital, administration building, a garment factory, laundry, vocational shops building, school building and auditorium, home economics department, cannery, storehouse, shops and an extensive farm with modern dairy and truck gardens. The Enabling Act specified that each inmate should be given training that would fit her to be self-supporting on her return to society, and the entire program of the institution is based upon this plan for rehabilitation. An intelligent and sincere attempt is made to supplant the old-time theory of punishment with a program of cleanliness, industry and education in citizenship. Classification and casework are highly developed to provide for adequate training within the institution and proper placement in jobs after release.

VETERAN ADMINISTRATION CENTER

Center Director: Donald S. Slade.
Assistant Center Director: Jerome R. Dolezal.
Chief of Staff: Harry Eisenberg, M.D.

The Newton D. Baker General Hospital of the United States Army was taken over by the Veterans Administration and opened for patients on November 15, 1946. The hospital is now known as the Veterans Administration Center.

The reservation comprises approximately 187 acres of land, 100 buildings, its own water and sewage systems. It has spur trackage from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for freight deliveries and passenger transportation is available by bus from many of the surrounding communities.

Veterans Administration Center has an authorized capacity of 840 hospital beds and 500 domiciliary beds. The hospital beds are proportioned as follows: 251 for Tuberculosis Service, 354 for General Medical and Surgical Service, and 235 for Intermediate Service.

The majority of the buildings comprising the hospital plant are connected by enclosed corridors. This group includes the administrative offices, all of the clinics, the operating suite, twenty-one wards, domiciliary barracks, mess halls, recreation halls, canteen, library, and warehouse.

The Veterans Employment Representative is attached to the staff of the public employment service in the State. He is administratively responsible to the Secretary of Labor through the Chief of the Veterans Employment Service for the execution of the Secretary's veterans' placement policies through the public employment service in the State. In cooperation with the public employment service staff in the State, he shall—

"(a) be functionally responsible for the supervision of the registration of veterans in local employment offices for suitable types of employment and for placement of veterans in employment;

"(b) assist in securing and maintaining current information as to the various types of available employment in public works and private industry or business;

"(c) promote the interest of employers in employing veterans;

"(d) maintain regular contact with employers and veterans' organizations with a view of keeping employers advised of veterans available for employment and veterans advised of opportunities for employment; and

"(e) assist in every possible way in improving working conditions and the advancement of employment of veterans."

The Veterans Employment Representative assists the Director of the Department of Employment Security with problems concerning veterans employment.

GOVERNOR'S COMMITTEE

On Employment of the Physically Handicapped

112 California Avenue, Charleston 5

The Governor Committee is affiliated with the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, and promotes programs in the interest of handicapped persons seeking employment opportunities within the state.

Federal, State and private agencies, whose activities are coordinated in serving handicapped persons and disabled veterans, cooperate fully in effecting programs such as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week," High School Essay Contests (pertaining to the handicapped); Award of Merit and Outstanding Service; Physician's awards; Handicapped Employer Awards; high school poster contests; and community planning for handicapped groups.

Participating actively are the following agencies: Veterans Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs, organized labor, Division Vocational Rehabilitation, Department Employment Security, State Executive Department, veterans organizations, and the Veterans Employment Service.

The Committee Chairman serves at the will and pleasure of the Governor. Individual members recommended by local community committees are either reappointed or newly appointed each year by the Chief Executive.

West Virginia has one of the largest state committees in the nation and its members are representative of Federal, State and municipal government, industry, labor, civic, veterans, fraternal, medical, ministerial, women, and other groups throughout the state.

The committee is a non-dues paying organization and at times when finances are necessary for contest prizes the required amounts are secured from generous employers who have been responsible for so many successful programs.

Congress has determined that the first full week in each October shall be observed as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" throughout the Nation. This week's observance is intended to be a reminder to those employers who remain reluctant in employing handicapped workers. National, state and local media of press, radio and television have carried the message of the handicapped in an excellent coverage of the various programs.

BERKELEY

Second oldest county in West Virginia. Created in 1772 from the northern third of Frederick County (Virginia), and named for Norborne Berkeley (Baron de Botetourt), Colonial Governor of Virginia from 1768 to 1770.

At Bunker Hill, in this county, in 1726, Morgan Morgan founded the first permanent settlement of record in Western Virginia. In commemoration of this event, the State of West Virginia has erected a monument in Bunker Hill State Park, and has placed a marker at the grave of Morgan Morgan which is in a cemetery near the park.

The first Episcopal Church (Christ Church) in what is now West Virginia was erected at Bunker Hill by Morgan Morgan in 1740. Three years later (about 1743), the first Baptist Church (Mill Creek Church) was organized at Gerrardstown.

Leading Industries and Chief Agricultural Products: Men's hosiery, canneries, clothing, cement and road materials, woolen fabrics, Corning Glass Works, fruit, vegetables, hay and grain, dairying, livestock, poultry.

OFFICIAL MUNICIPAL REGISTER

CLASS I, II AND III CITIES

Under the provisions of Chapter 56, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 1939, municipal corporations are classified by population as follows: Population in excess of 50,000, Class I city; population more than 10,000 and not more than 50,000, Class II city; and population more than 2,000 and not more than 10,000, Class III city. Municipal corporations not included in these classifications are known as towns or villages.

Transition from one to another class of municipal corporation occurs automatically when the requisite population qualification has been met. Population is determined on the basis of the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States or the Legislature of West Virginia. Census of 1960 is used as basis in determining class of cities listed in Register.

Hartford—Mason County

(Magisterial Districts: Graham and Waggener).

Hartford is located on a portion of land of Colonel Andrew Waggener, who received a patent of about 4,000 acres granted to him by King George III of England, for his services in the French and Indian War. The patent was issued in December 1772.

It was established as a town in 1853, and surveyed and laid out by the County Surveyor Thomas Hogg, and the first coal mine opened the same year. The first salt manufactured was in 1856, by some eastern capitalists from Connecticut, who named the town in honor of Hartford in that state. The same year William Harpold began operating a saw mill and boat yard and began manufacturing salt and this salt furnace is still operating and now named the Liverpool Salt Company.

The success of the early business and progress made in building up the town was due to the public spirited enterprises of William Harpold.

It was incorporated as Hartford City, March 5, 1868, and George W. Moredock was first mayor. Population 376.

The industries are: Agriculture, salt, manufacturing, coal mining and the making of cement and cinder blocks. The Churches are: Methodist, Baptist, United Brethren and Church of Christ in Christian Union.

Salem—Harrison County

(Magisterial District: Tenmile).

It was originally New Salem, so named because the settlers who established the town came in a body from Salem, New Jersey. They arrived in the spring of 1792. Two years later, in 1794, it was incorporated.

The first civilized habitation on the land now occupied by the City of Salem was a hunter's camp established by Nicholas Carpenter in 1785 who used it for a hunting and trapping center. He also used it for a sort of crude hotel for himself and his men who drove cattle from Clarksburg to the Ohio River at Marietta which was the nearest market.

Samuel Fitz Randolph purchased the property on which the village was founded in 1790. Mr. Randolph had started with a caravan of pioneer settlers from Salem, New Jersey, who crossed the mountains in 1789 and made their first stop at Woodbridgetown, Pennsylvania. Mr. Randolph, a number of Davises, some Maxsons, and others came on to what is now Salem, after a two and one-half year trek from the sea coast.

Salem was the first settlement of Seventh Day Baptists west of the mountains. It is now the home of Salem College, founded in 1838, and the Industrial Home for Girls established in 1898. Glass has been a major industry. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the George Washington highway and state highway route No. 23 pass through it. It is the birthplace of United States Senator Jennings Randolph and the great writer, Granville Davison Hall, author of Daughter of the Elm, The Rending of Virginia, and many other historical books.

Wheeling—Ohio County

(Magisterial Districts: Center, Clay, Madison, Union, Washington, Webster, Richland, Richie and Triadelphia).

County seat. Settled in 1769 by Ebenezer Zane and followers. Name derived from Indian word, "Wheelin," which name was used for years prior to the Zane settlement to designate the creek which bisects the city. In 1793 the existence of Wheeling as a town became evident when Zane divided the settlement into lots, but Wheeling was not incorporated as a town until 1806.

Although the peace treaty with the Indians was still in effect when Zane settled here, he and his followers immediately built a fort, which they called "Fort Henry." Here was fought in September, 1782, the last battle of the American Revolution.

First church in Wheeling—Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal, erected in 1818-19 on land given by Noah Zane. W. W. Barron, Governor of West Virginia in 1963 stands beside the 35-star flag, representing the fact of West Virginia becoming a state in 1863.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

DESCRIPTION OF THE FLAG

The Flag of the United States of America has 13 horizontal stripes—7 red and 6 white—the red and white stripes alternating, and a union which consists of white stars of five points on a blue field placed in the upper quarter next to the staff and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe from the top. The number of stars is the same as the number of States in the Union. The canton or union now contains 50 stars. On the admission of a State into the Union a star will be added to the union of the Flag, and such addition will take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding such admission.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

STATE FLAG

Before the design of the present State Flag was officially adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1929, West Virginia had been represented by several flags which had proved impractical.

Prominently displayed on the pure white field of today's flag and emblazoned in proper colors is the Coat of Arms, the lower half of which is wreathed by Rhododendron. Across the top, lettered on a ribbon, is the constitutional designation—"State of West Virginia." The white field is bordered on four sides by a strip of blue, and for parade purposes all but the staff side are to be trimmed with gold fringe.

GREAT SEAL OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Great Seal of West Virginia, which also is the Coat of Arms, symbolizes the principal pursuits and resources of West Virginia. Described briefly, the obverse side of the Seal bears the legend, "State of West Virginia," together with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi" (Mountaineers Are Always Free); a farmer stands to the right and a miner to the left of a large ivy-draped rock bearing the date of the state's admission to the Union; in front of the rock are two hunter's rifles upon which rests a Phrygian Cap, or "Cap of Liberty."

The reverse side of the Seal is not in common use today. It was intended to be employed when the Seal was attached to documents by ribbons and suspended in the manner of a medal.

Joseph H. Diss Debar, of Doddridge County, designed the State Seal in 1863 at the request of the first West Virginia Legislature.

STATE CAPITOL

West Virginia's Capitol Building, one of the world's beautiful examples of Italian Renaissance architecture, stands on the north bank of the historic Great Kanawha River in the capital city of Charleston. Its golden dome, rising 300 feet, as a landmark visible both day and night from a number of distant points in the city.

Completed in 1932 at a cost of nearly $10,000,000, the building was designed by Cass Gilbert, an architect of international prominence.

The huge U-shaped structure consists of a main unit and two wings which are situated on 16 acres of ground. There are 333 rooms and a total floor space of 535,000 square feet. Unlike the exterior of Indiana buff limestone, the interior is laid with Imperial Danby Vermont marble.

In the rotunda is a two-ton crystal chandelier which has 15,000 candle power. It is suspended 180 feet above the floor by a gold chain 54 feet long. Sparkling chandeliers in the House and Senate chambers are made of 10,000 separate pieces of rock crystal.

A specially-prepared paint, "Governor's Blue," covers the walls of the outer reception room of the governor's suite, the show room of the Capitol. A light Turquoise rug, 27x74 feet and weighing 1,996 pounds, carpets the floor.

Directly beneath the executive suite is the State Museum containing numerous exhibits to illustrate the history, science and social conditions of early West Virginia.

STATE BIRD

Resplendent in his plumage of scarlet, the Cardinal was made West Virginia's official bird by concurrent resolution of the 1949 legislature. The male of the species is a rich scarlet with a mask and shading of black, while the young and female are somewhat less brilliant. The cardinal measures approximately eight inches in length and ranges from New York State to the Gulf States and as far West as Oklahoma. His scientific name is Richmondena cardinalis cardinalis.

STATE FLOWER

The Rhododendron maximum, or "big laurel," was designated the official floral emblem of the Mountain State at the suggestion of Governor Albert Blakeslee White on January 23, 1903. It is a shrub of the heath family, and is distinctive for its large evergreen leaves and delicately impressive pale pink or white bloom, mottled with either red or yellow flecks. The big laurel is a mountaineer through and through, preferring as it does the upland climate of the Appalachian and Allegheny ranges. ....

STATE TREE

The Sugar Maple, or Acer saccharum as it is known scientifically, abounds in West Virginia and was made West Virginia's official tree by concurrent resolution of the 1949 Legislature. ...It produces an excellent wood for furniture construction, lighter and stronger than oak. West Virginia Sugar Maples also produce much of the maple syrup for which Vermont is famous. A single tree is 70-120 feet high and produces two to three pounds of sugar when "sugared off." It has a five-lobed leaf and produces a small wing-shaped seed pod.

STATE ANIMAL

The Black Bear . . . Euarctos americanus actually, he is strongly tinted with brown. His habitat in West Virginia has been reduced to approximately 12 counties in the Eastern Mountain Region, though he still roams freely through 36 states and Canada. Either one or two cubs (rarely three) are born at a time, weighing about eight ounces each. The adult reaches an average maximum weight of 250 pounds, though they have been known to attain 650 pounds.

DESCRIPTION OF THE STATE

West Virginia became a State in 1863 after separating from Virginia at the time of the Civil War. It is bounded on the north by Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland; on the south by Virginia and Kentucky; and on the west by Kentucky and Ohio. West Virginia has been termed "the most northern southern state, and the most eastern western state, the most western eastern state and the most southern northern state."

It is essentially mountainous, the Appalachian Range having several spurs therein. Its western parts drain into the Ohio River and its eastern portions drain into the Potomac.

The climate is moderate.

West Virginia is the largest coal-producing State in the Union. Reported production 1883-1961—6,577,390,267 short tons with estimated recoverable reserve 59,633,732,900 short tons. The State ranks high in the production of petroleum, natural gas, iron ore, iron and steel products, glass and glass ware, chemicals and chemical products. The Kanawha Valley is recognized as the Nation's chemical center.

West Virginia produces more hardwood than any other State; excepting Arkansas, and has vast timber wealth, including yellow poplar, birch, ash, oak, spruce, hemlock and walnut. Chief agricultural products are wheat, corn, oats, hay, potatoes, tobacco, apples, peaches, plums and grapes.

Although it is believed that some white settlers crossed the Potomac and located on or near the site of Shepherdstown as early as 1719, Morgan Morgan is credited with being the first white man to build a permanent home in this State, near Bunker Hill, Berkeley County in 1726. Out of the groups of French and English settlers and the struggle between them, came the French and Indian War, and the first armed conflict on West Virginia soil. Dunmore's war followed, in which the pioneers took part, and the battle of Point Pleasant, most important on record for West Virginians, was hailed as the first battle of the Revolution. That battle took place at the mouth of the Great Kanawha River in 1774. In the Revolutionary War that followed, no region sent more men to the East under Washington and his sub-commanders, or did more valiant defense of the "back door" of the embryonic United States, than did the men from West Virginia.

The Civil War, which brought about the separation of western Virginia from the mother State, saw the men of West Virginia in the middle of the fighting. The first battle of the conflict between the States was fought at Philippi, in Barbour County, and the famous John Brown "Insurrection" took place at Harpers Ferry. The State provided leaders on both sides. General Thomas J. ("Stonewall") Jackson, brilliant Confederate leader and the most prominent West Virginian of them all, hailed from Lewis County, while the State contributed to the Union Generals Lightburn, Kelley and Harris.

The State's mountains, forests and streams offer attractive recreational facilities. White Sulphur Springs, in Greenbrier County, is world famous.

Institutions of learning in the State are West Virginia University, Marshall University, Potomac State College of West Virginia University, Bluefield State College, Concord College, Fairmont State College, Glenville State College, Shepherd College, West Liberty State College, West Virginia Institute of Technology, West Virginia State Schools for the Deaf and Blind and West Virginia State College. Principal private and denominational colleges are: Alderson-Broadus College, Beckley College, Bethany College, Davis and Elkins College, De Sales Heights Visitation Academy, Linsly Military Institute, Greenbrier College, Greenbrier Military School, Morris Harvey College, Mont De Chantal Visitation Academy, Salem College, West Virginia Wesleyan College and Wheeling College.

WEST VIRGINIA HISTORIC COMMISSION

By Dr. Charles P. Harper, Chairman

The new West Virginia Historic Commission was authorized by the West Virginia Legislature in the passage of Senate Bill No. 123, March 2, 1961, and effective ninety days from passage. It amended Chapter Seventeen of the Code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, by adding a new article designated Article Twenty-four. It was introduced in the Senate by Senator Lyle A. Smith, of Huntington, and sponsored in the House of Delegates by Delegate William McCoy, Jr., of Pendleton county.

The purpose of the Commission is to "erect and preserve adequate markers along its roads and highways pointing out to future generations the important role played by our State in the dynamic development of our country". It is "authorized and empowered to purchase new road markers, replace old road markers, protect, preserve and display the Fairfax stone, purchase markers for new highways", and "formulate and write appropriate copy for such markers".

The Commission consists of five members, appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, for a term of four years. The Director of the State Department of Archives and History is ex-officio secretary-treasurer of the Commission. On May 24, 1961, Governor W. W. Barron appointed the following members, their terms beginning June first: Dr. Roy Bird Cook, Charleston; Miss Cecile R. Goodall, Charleston; Dr. Charles P. Harper, Huntington; Dr. Eugene E. Hutton, Jr., Elkins; and Mr. Ervin S. Queen, Logan, who were confirmed by the Senate, June 6, 1961. Dr. James L. Hupp, of Buckhannon, Director of the Department of Archives and History, became ex-officio secretary-treasurer of the Commission on July 1, 1961. In 1962 Governor W. W. Barron appointed Mr. Ross B. Johnston of Charleston to fill the vacancy on the Commission caused by the death of Dr. Cook on November 23, 1961.

The first meeting of the new Commission, held July 1, 1961, with the secretary-treasurer, Dr. Hupp, presiding, elected Dr. Harper chairman. Invited representatives included Mr. Phil Conley, Vice President of the West Virginia Centennial Commission; Mr. Sam G. McEwen, Executive Secretary and Public Information Officer of the State Road Commission; Mr. Boyd B. Stutler, member of the Civil War Centennial Commission of West Virginia; and Dr. Edward V. McMichael, State Archeologist.

The chairman explained that the purpose of the meeting was to determine how the West Virginia Historic Commission could cooperate with the agencies and commissions represented. It was agreed that the responsibility for the establishment of roadside parks and "overlooks", and the placing of the highway markers was the responsibility of the State Road Commission; the designing and furnishing of these highway markers, the responsibility of the West Virginia Historic Commission. The representatives of the other commissions and the Archeologist offered their services in securing correct information for the inscriptions on the highway markers to be erected on or near historic, prehistoric and scenic sites.

Although the appropriation for the purchase of the new highway markers was not available until July 1, 1962, the Commission, in the meantime, prepared for the ordering of markers to be erected in time for the Centennial celebration. A recent survey of historic and prehistoric sites by the chairman of the Commission, in cooperation with local civic, historical and patriotic organizations and individuals in the State, included over two hundred and fifty sites recommended for highway markers. Another survey of state highway markers placed during the 1930's was made by the State Road Commission. It showed over four hundred in good condition, twenty-five needing relocation, and seventy missing or broken beyond repair.

In accordance with the recent surveys and recommendations, the West Virginia Historic Commission decided to replace twenty-five or more of the missing or broken markers and purchase at least one hundred others for hitherto unmarked historic, prehistoric or scenic sites. The replaced markers would include only county seats and towns and sites of state-wide interest. The inscriptions would be the same as that on the missing or broken markers unless changes were necessary because of new locations or errors. The markers for newly recommended sites would be erected on or near those of state-wide interest and significance. It was decided that as far as possible, all of the highway markers would be erected either in parks, roadside parks or "overlooks" on government right-a-way, where motorists could park cars, read the markers and visit the sites.

The Commission has approved markers for one hundred ten historic, prehistoric or scenic sites, one or more in forty-two of the fifty-five counties. These include sixty-three historic, thirteen prehistoric and six scenic sites, which have never been marked by highway markers. The historic sites are divided into ten Indian or settlements; Revolutionary War, three; War of 1812, one; and the War Between the States, twenty-three. The prehistoric sites include GRAVE CREEK MOUND, in Moundsville; SOUTH CHARLESTON MOUND, on U. S. 60, in South Charleston; the INDIAN MOUND, in Camden Park, near Huntington; the MAY MOORE MOUND in Mason County; the INDIAN MOUND, in the Romney Cemetery; the INDIAN MOUNDS AND EARTHWORKS, in Dunbar; and the INDIAN VILLAGE and INDIAN WALLS, near Montgomery. Scenic sites marked are: SPRUCE KNOB, the highest point in the State, west of U. S. 33, near Circleville; the SMOKE HOLE, U. S. 250, north of Upper Tract; and SENECA ROCKS, at the junction of U. S. 33 and W. Va. 28, at Mouth of Seneca, all in Pendleton county. The Commission also approved the replacement of twenty-five of the missing or broken markers, one or more in seventeen different counties.

The first marker furnished by the West Virginia Historic Commission and erected by the State Road Commission was dedicated on the anniversary of the passage of the legislation authorizing the Commission, March 2, 1963. It was the OLD TOLL HOUSE marker on the old James River and Kanawha Turnpike in front of the restored old Toll House in Barboursville, Cabell county. The dedication was sponsored by the Barboursville Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which had restored the Old Toll House. The guest speaker was the chairman of the Historic Commission. The first of the replacement markers, the William Jennings BRYAN FAMILY, was erected in the Kiwanivista roadside park on U. S. 60, between Barboursville and Ona by the State Road Commission. It was dedicated March 30th, by the West Virginia Chapter of the Daughters of 1812, the Buford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the chairman of the Historic Commission. The other markers are being dedicated by appropriate local organizations as part of their Centennial celebration, usually on the anniversary of the event.

In addition to the one hundred ten markers furnished by the West Virginia Historic Commission and erected by the State Road Commission, private organizations are sponsoring markers in their communities or state-wide as their contribution to the Centennial celebration. These markers are of the same size and design as those furnished by the Commission and are likewise placed in parks, roadside parks and "overlooks". Sixty-five sponsored markers have been approved by the Commission.

The West Virginia Historic Commission's program for the next year calls for the replacement of most of the still missing or broken markers, especially those placed at the State and county lines. This program should bring the total for the State up to seven hundred. In addition to erecting the new markers, the State Road Commission is relocating, painting and beautifying old markers and sites.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

During its second year of operations, the Department of Commerce steadily grew in stature as the fountainhead of West Virginia's economic recovery effort. Forging a close-knit team of business, labor, and local and federal governments, the Department could point with great pride by the end of 1962 to the role it had played in the best business year in the state's history.

Both the volume and the scope of the Department's activities expanded appreciably between mid-1962 and mid-1963, and a general uptrend in the economy of the state was becoming evident as the summer of 1963 began.

Unemployment was on the decline in virtually all the state's principal labor markets. Between April, 1962, and April, 1963, the rate of unemployment had dropped 21.4 per cent in the Bluefield area, 11.9 per cent in Parkersburg, 8.6 per cent in Welch. The big Huntington-Ashland labor market had an unemployment rate of only 9 per cent, the lowest figure in six years, and the Charleston total stood at 6.8 per cent, only a little above the national average.

As the Department of Commerce pointed the way to a more prosperous era in West Virginia, these were some of the major developments in work toward achievement of that goal:

*Twenty-seven new industrial plants have located in West Virginia cities and towns since July 1, 1962. These new industries have provided employment potential of 1,269 new jobs, representing nearly $4.5 million in new payrolls. More than $17 million is being spent by new plant builders for materials, construction, labor, taxes and the like to help West Virginia grow.

Plant expansions since July 1, 1962 totaled 24, representing 2,055 potential new jobs and $62,702,000 in total investment.

From July 1, 1962 through April, 1963 a total of 57 out-of-state industrialists visited West Virginia communities and towns in search of industrial sites.

*Participation in the Industrial Development Authority, created as a $2 million fund under Department of Commerce auspices in 1961, continued to expand. Near the end of fiscal 1963, nine industrial loans totaling $756,000 had been made to new or expanding industries in the state. Three of these companies already have begun repayment of their loans.

The 1963 Legislature increased the IDA allocation by $600,000 and expanded the program to include loans to travel development groups interested in developing the tourist potential of their communities.

A new interest in local industrial and travel development has been generated by the Authority, and projected figures indicate that applications for industrial loans through IDA will more than double in the coming fiscal year.

*The Department continued an aggressive program of seeking more federal contracts for West Virginia firms, with remarkable results. The state's share in defense contracts rose from $34 million in fiscal year 1960—which ranked our state 50th in the nation—to $134 million in fiscal 1962, placing us 30th among the states. Early in 1963, the FMC Corp. of South Charleston was awarded a $47 million contract, the largest single contract given a West Virginia firm since World War II.

*The Accelerated Public Works Program established by the Federal Government was coordinated and encouraged with Department of Commerce assistance after its inception late in 1962. Although many localities in the state had been unable to plan public facility projects and were hard pressed for matching funds, by April, 1962, the state had received more than $21 million in federal grants for 117 projects. This will mean about $35 million total new construction and 3,500 man-years of employment.

*Private investment in new accommodation facilities reaching an all-time high of over 17½ million dollars in the past two years. This includes investments and proposed investments in room accommodations, tourist centers, park facilities, etc.

*The Department of Commerce joined with the Federal Government and Department of Natural Resources in a far-reaching plan to develop a vast tourist complex to serve the entire eastern half of the nation, and prepared applications for a number of loans and grants in this area. In all, the Department of Commerce has requested more than 23 million dollars in loans and grants from the Area Redevelopment Administration. A number of these requests have been approved and most of the pending requests are receiving favorable consideration in that federal office.

*The City and County Planning Assistance Program was first initiated in West Virginia late in 1959 with four municipal planning projects totaling approximately $67,800. Today the (701) program administered and or assisted by the Planning and Research Division consists of 23 municipalities and seven counties. These projects represent a total cost of approximately $751,000.

By the end of April, 1963, West Virginia projects sought through ARA totaled 116, with 112 of these already processed or under consideration at ARA. Of these, 45 have been approved, with a dollar value of $8,963,855 in loans and grants. A flurry of additional approvals was anticipated as the fiscal year neared a close.

Fifty of the fifty-one West Virginia counties designated as redevelopment areas by the ARA have submitted Overall Economic Development Programs to the Planning and Research Division for review.

*An unprecedented number of communities launched intensive advertising and promotion programs, including publication of a number of brochures. Over $100,000 has been spent by the individual communities for advertising and promotion during the past two years. The Department is encouraging this effort.

West Virginia's first comprehensive travel survey—a study designed to lead to the state's first master plan of development for tourist attractions—was launched June 1, 1962 as a joint venture with the West Virginia University Center for Resource Development. That study is to be completed by July 1963.

For the first time several glass companies in the state united to finance and produce a brochure and conduct tours aimed at attracting tourists to visit such hand-blown glass-producing operations.

*Community enterprise, cooperation and willingness to establish new tourist information centers was displayed at all unparalleled rate. At the start of the fiscal year July 1, 1961, West Virginia had only one tourist information center. By June 1963, 16 such information centers were operating within the state.

*Arts and Crafts, the newest division under the Commerce Department, was established to help develop markets for goods produced by state craftsmen. As a result of the work of this division, eight new markets or outlets have been established since the Arts and Crafts program came into being. The program is picking up momentum and state-wide interests, and participation is increasing daily.

The Arts and Crafts Division is seeking to establish a formal training program and field extension service to assist craftsmen and to develop new markets.

*The month of May, 1963, saw the breaking of ground for the handsome West Virginia Pavilion at the New York World's Fair, which opens early in 1964. This pavilion will be built and supervised by the Department. Upon completion of its use in New York, it will be brought to Charleston to serve as a museum for the state.

WEST VIRGINIA RIVERS

SOURCES AND MOUTHS OF PRINCIPAL STREAMS

Big Sandy River

Formed by the junction of Tug Fork and Levisa Fork at Louisa, Kentucky. Mouth, junction with Ohio at Kenova, Wayne County, West Virginia.

Cheat River

Formed by the junction of Black Fork and Shavers Fork at Parsons, West Virginia. Mouth, junction with Monongahela River at Point Marion, Pennsylvania.

Coal River

Source in central part of Raleigh County. Mouth, junction with Kanawha River at St. Albans, Kanawha County.

Elk River

Source in western part of Pocahontas County. Mouth, junction with Kanawha River at Charleston, Kanawha County.

Gauley River

Source in western part of Pocahontas County. Mouth, junction with New River in Fayette County to form Kanawha River.

Greenbrier River

Source in northern part of Pocahontas County. Mouth, junction with New River just above Hinton in Summers County.

Guyandotte River

Source in southern part of Raleigh County. Mouth, junction with Ohio River at Huntington, Cabell County.

Kanawha River

Formed by the junction of New and Gauley Rivers just above Kanawha Falls in Fayette County. Mouth, junction with Ohio River at Point Pleasant, Mason County.

Little Kanawha River

Source in southern part of Upshur County. Mouth, junction with Ohio River at Parkersburg.

Monongahela River

Formed by the junction of Tygart and West Fork Rivers at Fairmont. Joins the Allegheny River at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to form the Ohio River.

New River

Source in southern part of Watauga County in northwest corner of North Carolina. Mouth, junction with Gauley River in Fayette County to form Kanawha River.

Ohio River

Formed by the junction of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mouth, junction with Mississippi River at Cairo, Illinois.

Potomac River

Formed by the junction of the North and South branches near Green Spring, Hampshire County. Mouth, Chesapeake Bay.

North Branch Potomac River

Source of Fairfax Stone which today marks western limits of Maryland and corners of Grant and Tucker Counties. Mouth, junction with South Branch to form Potomac River.

South Branch Potomac River

Source near Hightown, Highland County, Virginia. Mouth, junction with North Branch to form Potomac River near Green Spring, Hampshire County.

Tug Fork

Source in southwestern part of McDowell County. Mouth, junction with Levisa Fork to form Big Sandy River at Louisa, Kentucky.

Tygart River

Source in northern part of Pocahontas County. Mouth, junction with West Fork River at Fairmont to form Monongahela River.

West Fork River

GEOGRAPHICAL CENTER OF WEST VIRGINIA

The geographical center of the State is  $4\frac{1}{4}$  miles southwest of Sutton, 6 miles south of Flat Woods, and 4 miles west of Centralia.

DEPTH AVAILABLE FOR NAVIGATION

(Data furnished by the War Department and the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Huntington)

Ohio River—Improvement of the Ohio River, as authorized by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of June 25, 1910, provides for a channel depth of 9 feet in the entire 981 miles of the river by the construction of locks and dams and open channel work. The system of locks and dams throughout the river provides a navigable depth of 9 feet at ordinary river stage. New dams of modern design have been completed near Hogsett, West Virginia. (Gallipolis Locks and Dams), at Montgomery Island, 32 miles below Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and at Emsworth Locks, 6.2 miles below Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Extension of the Ohio River navigation system presently includes three high lift dams on the Kanawha River and four navigation structures on the Monongahela River; Greenup Locks and Dam, Greenup, Kentucky, replaced Locks and Dams 27, 28, 29 and 30. New Cumberland Locks and Dam, New Cumberland, replaced Locks and Dams 7, 8 and 9. Other navigation structures now under construction on the Ohio River are: Pike Island Locks and Dam, Wheeling, replacing existing Locks and Dams 10 and 11. Belleville Locks and Dam, Belleville, replacing Locks and Dams 18, 19 and 20; Captain Anthony Meldahl Locks and Dam, Chilo, Ohio, replacing existing Locks and Dams 31, 32, 33 and 34; Markland Locks and Dam, Markland, Indiana, replacing existing Locks and Dams 35, 36, 37, 38 and 39. Reconstruction and improvements of McAlpine Locks and Dam, Louisville, Kentucky, are in progress. West Virginia will benefit from the construction of these modern navigation improvements on the Ohio River.

Monongahela River, West Virginia and Pennsylvania—The existing project provides for improvement of the river by 13 locks and dams to afford slack-water navigation for its entire length from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to one mile above Fairmont, a distance of 128 miles. The project is approximately complete and the controlling depth between Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Lock 11 (Uffington, West Virginia) 104.95 miles above the mouth is 9 feet and above Lock 11, 7 feet to the upper limits of the project.

Modernization of the Monongahela River navigation structures in the upper reaches of the waterway is currently in progress. Hildebrand Lock and Dam and modification of Dam 8 have been completed. Those navigation structures now under construction are: Opekiska Lock and Dam, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 14 and 15 and Maxwell Locks and Dam, which, when integrated with reconstruction of Dam 4, will replace Locks and Dams 5 and 6.

Kanawha River, West Virginia—Three high lift dams on the Kanawha River, with twin locks at London, Marmet and Winfield, and Gallipolis locks and dam on the Ohio River, near Hogsett, West Virginia, furnish a 9-foot navigable depth from the Ohio to a point 90.57 miles above the mouth. The dams at London and Marmet were completed in 1934, and the Winfield dam in 1937. The Gallipolis locks and dam were completed in October, 1937, thus making available a channel depth of 9 feet from the mouth of the river to the head of navigation.

Big Sandy River, West Virginia and Kentucky, including Levisa and Tug Forks—Under the existing project, 3 locks and dams were constructed on the main river, and one lock and dam were constructed each on Levisa Fork and Tug Fork. Only the lower lock and dam on the main river is in operation at the present time to provide slack-water depth of 6 feet from the Ohio River to a point about 7 miles above the mouth. The remaining two structures on the main river have movable dams which are placed in use only at such times as the needs of navigation require. The Levisa Fork Lock and Dam No. 1 and the Tug Fork Lock and Dam No. 1 have not been operated for several years. Operation of the navigation structures has been discontinued.

Tygart River Reservoir—The Tygart River Dam, located on the Tygart River,  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles upstream from Grafton, as authorized by the Public Works Administration January 11, 1934, and approved by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of August 30, 1935, provides for a dam 1,880 feet long and 207 feet high for the storage of 290,000-acre tract of water to control floods and aid navigation in the Monongahela River. The dam is in operation as a unit in the reservoir system for the protection of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and the upper Ohio Valley generally.

Bluestone Reservoir Project—This project, located on the New River near Hinton, was authorized by Presidential executive order in 1935 and approved by Congress under the Flood Control Act of 1936. Construction of the project was begun early in 1942; however, the work was suspended in 1944 because of the war emergency. Construction which was resumed in January 1946, is completed. The dam is 165 feet high and 2,061.5 feet long. The reservoir has a capacity of 631,000 acre-feet to serve a drainage area of 4,565 square miles. During periods of low and normal flows in New River, the elevation of the reservoir varies about 5 feet, with a minimum pool of 7.8 miles in length and 1,020 acres in area that utilizes about 11,000 acre-feet of the total reservoir capacity. The remaining reservoir capacity will be reserved for impoundment of flood flows as required for flood control.

Little Kanawha River, West Virginia—Five locks with fixed dams gave a navigable depth of 4 feet from the mouth of the river to Creston, a distance of 48 miles. One lock and dam was constructed and 4 were purchased from the Little Kanawha Navigation Company. Only the lower lock and dam is in operation at the present time to provide a slack water depth of 4 feet from the Ohio River to a point about 14 miles above the mouth. The remaining structures are placed in use only at such times as the needs of navigation require.

Operation of the navigable structures on Little Kanawha for commercial navigation has been discontinued.

RESERVATION OF CABINS IN STATE PARKS AND FORESTS

Official forms for rental of cabins in parks and forests may be obtained by written or personal application to the Department of Natural Resources, Division of Parks and Recreation, State Office Building No. 1 Charleston 5, West Virginia. These forms must be returned to the Division of Parks and Recreation, properly filled in, together with check or money order for the full amount of the rental, plus tax, before applications can be processed.

Applications are listed strictly in order of their receipt, regardless of identities of the applicants—in other words, cabins are rented upon a "first come, first served" basis. No applications are accepted until January 15, and no out-of-state applications are processed until February 15.

Overnight lodging is obtainable upon request to Cacapon Lodge at Cacapon State Park, Berkeley Springs; Blackwater Lodge, Blackwater Falls State Park, Davis; Mont Chateau, RFD 6, Morgantown; and limited lodging is available at Babcock and Watoga State Parks by contacting the park superintendent at either of these parks. Overnight lodging is available for men in the Fishermen's Lodge at Bluestone State Park, Hinton.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Monongahela National Forest

Headquarters: Elkins

Monongahela National Forest was proclaimed by President Woodrow Wilson on April 28, 1920, under the Weeks Law. This law of 1911 provides for the cooperation by states with the United States, and the protection of watersheds of navigable streams. In West Virginia, the national forest was established for flood protection in the Ohio and Potomac River valleys. It is one of a system of about 150 national forests and the only national forest wholly in West Virginia. The Clark-McNary Act of June 7, 1924, broadened the objectives to provide for reforestation and production of timber. The Multiple Use Act of June 12, 1960, provides that National Forests shall be managed for outdoor recreation, range, timber, watershed, hunting and fishing.

The public forest is dedicated to the protection, development, and management of all its resources for the greatest good to the greatest number.

Within the proclaimed boundary there are 1,641,981 acres of which 805,668 acres are owned by the United States. Directly in charge of the national forest is the Forest Supervisor. In the national forest are six ranger districts, each in charge of a district ranger.

Counties in the National Forest, and their current acreage in National Forest ownership are:

|------------------|---------------|------------------|---------|
| Grant .....      | 14,126        | Pocahontas ..... | 276,840 |
| Greenbrier ..... | 98,843        | Preston .....    | 3,891   |
| Nicholas .....   | 23,434        | Randolph .....   | 170,263 |
| Pendleton .....  | 60,170        | Tucker .....     | 93,702  |
|                  | Webster ..... |                  | 64,697  |

The public forest is administered in cooperation with several conservation agencies, including the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources. Twenty-five per cent of receipts from the sale of timber and other products and use fees is returned to the nine national forest counties for schools (80%) and roads (20%).

At Parsons is one of the largest forest tree nurseries east of the Mississippi River. It is used by the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources.

Research Center Leader: George R. Trimble, Jr. _____ Elkins
3,640 acres of forest dedicated to research in growing and logging hardwood timber. Experiments are conducted in frequency and amount of cutting and their effect on water production, future timber and financial returns, also to illustrate good techniques of equipment and road location.

FISHING STREAMS AND SPECIES

For the benefit of anglers who desire information relative to stocked fishing streams and nearest towns in which hotel accommodations can be found, the following list has been prepared. Numerous other streams and tributaries other than these listed have received substantial stockings of fish. These, however, are the largest, most important and probably the most capable of supporting extra heavy angling pressure. It must be understood that the order in which they are listed does not indicate the number of fish placed in the stream or the anglers chances of catching fish. Fishing in any of these streams does not necessarily indicate that the Conservation Commission promises the limit of fish to each fisherman. This is intended merely as a guide.

OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENTS IN WEST VIRGINIA IN 1962

By R. C. TUCKER

Assistant State Geologist

ABSTRACT

The total number of wells drilled in West Virginia in 1962, reported to February 22, 1963, was 1557, an increase of 168, or 12.10%. Permits to drill or deepen issued by the Oil and Gas Division of The W. Va. Department of Mines totaled 1,649, an increase of 117, or 7.64%. 263 permits to drill were cancelled during the year, mostly permits issued previous to 1962. Dropped from the list of wells uncompleted at the end of the year were many locations carried from year to year but completed with no record of when completed or the results.

Abandoned during the year were 83 gas wells and 147 oil wells, or a total of 230 wells. These abandonments are all wells drilled before permits were required (May 1929). No information as to the exact number of abandonments of wells drilled since May 1929 is available as these wells are abandoned under original drilling permit numbers. Wells completed were: gas, 870; oil, 101; oil and gas wells, 329; storage, water-injection, brine, rock salt, and pressure wells, 58; dry holes, 199; total 1,557. Compared with 1961, gas wells increased 61, or 7.54%; oil wells increased 42, or 71.19%; oil and gas wells increased 33, or 11.15%; storage and other wells decreased 7, or 26.15%; dry holes increased 39, or 24.38%, the percentage of dry holes to total completions being 12.77%. Depth of wells ranged from 246 to 17,111 feet, compared with 250 to 10,805 in 1961. Total footage drilled was 3,404,165½ feet, a decrease of 43,557½ feet, or 12.63% under 1961 (3,447,723 feet). The average depth of wells (2,184 feet) decreased 298 feet over the 1961 average (2,482 feet), or 12.08%. The total initial daily open flow of the gas wells was 1,624,082 cu. ft., an increase of 353,770 M. cu. ft., or 27.85% over the 1961 total (1,271,312 M. cu. ft.). The size of the gas wells ranged from 2 to 25,500 M. cu. ft. compared with 5 to 20,850 M. cu. ft. in 1961. The total daily initial oil was 15,165½ barrels, an increased of 5,686¾ barrels over 1961 (9,478½ barrels) or 60%. The size of the oil wells ranged from ¼ to 410 barrels, compared with ½ to 400 barrels in 1961. The number of wells drilling or unreported if completed at the end of the year was 576, 80 less than in 1961, or a decrease of 12.19%.

Since we receive drilling and scout reports from several major companies the status of practically every drilling well was known. Only 200 letters were sent to the operators whose wells were at completion depth or testing after fracture—replies were received from about one-half of the operators. It is believed that total completions will be greater than herein reported as also the production since many wells were reported as testing after fracture. The total initial gas production after fracture is generally several times the production before fracture. Approximately 90% of the wells were fractured during the year. The West Virginia University collects information concerning fracturing of wells and issues an annual report showing details for each of the wells fractured. Some of the records received show oil and gas wells as low as 2 M. c. f. and ¼ bbl. oil. Fracturing results were not shown in the official records. No operator would save any well whose production was that low.

The average size of gas wells was 1,569 M. cu. ft. compared with 1,328 M. cu. ft. in 1961, an increase of 241 M. cu. ft. or 11.06%. In calculating this average the number of gas wells was increased by one-half of the number of oil and gas wells (165) or 1,035 wells. The average size of the oil wells was 57.2 barrels compared with 45.8 barrels in 1961, an increase of 11.4 barrels, or 25.2%. One-half the oil and gas wells (164) was added to the 101 oil wells (or a total of 265) in calculating this average.

Preliminary estimates of production for 1962: gas, 253,400,000 M. cu. ft., compared with 248,400,000 M. cu. ft. in 1961; an increase of 5,000,000 M. cu. ft., or 2+%; oil 3,470,000 bbls., an increase of 710,000 barrels over the 1961 estimate (2,760,000 barrels) or 25.7%. Possibly 38,000,000 M. went to storage. Gas is stored in West Virginia from four other states. The estimated number of producing wells at the end of 1962; gas, 18,277; oil, 12,880. The table of operations gives statistics by Counties.

The table of oil and gas operations in West Virginia by Counties in 1962 gives the pertinent facts regarding results. Comparison totals for the preceding four years are also shown in the bottom four lines of the table.

Permits to drill or deepen issued by the State Department of Mines totaled 1,649, or 117 more than in 1961, an increase of 7.62%. There were 263 cancellations of drilling permits during the year, or dropped from uncompleted list.

Abandonments of gas wells during the year (wells drilled before May 1929) totaled 83, compared with 117 in 1961.

61 more gas wells, 42 more oil wells, 33 more oil and gas wells, 7 less storage et al. wells, and 39 more dry holes were completed in 1962 than in 1961.

In 1962, the percentages were: gas wells, 55.88%; oil wells, 6.49%; oil and gas wells, 21.13%; storage et al. wells, 3.72%; and dry holes 12.78%. If the storage et al. wells are left out of the total completions (1,557 minus 58 equals 1,499 wells) the percentages would be: gas wells, 58.04%; oil wells, 6.74%; oil and gas wells, 21.95%; and dry holes, 13.27%.

Total completions were 1,557 as against 1,389 in 1961, an increase of 61 or 7.54%. Doddridge County, with 222 completions, topped the list of completions by Counties, followed by Lewis, 200; Ritchie, 200; Gilmer, 129, and Kanawha, 125. These five counties accounted for 876 completions, or 56.3% of the total completions.

83 gas wells (those drilled before May 1929) were abandoned during the year, while 147 oil wells were abandoned in 1962. Pleasants County accounted for 107 of the oil well abandonments. No information as to exact number of abandonments of wells drilled since May 1929 is available as these wells are abandoned under the original drilling permit numbers. Of the wells uncompleted or unreported if completed at the end of the year, 268, or 46.5% were from four counties, Lewis, Doddridge, Ritchie and Gilmer.

Drilling depths ranged from 246 to 17,111 feet, as against 250 to 10,085 feet in 1961.

The total footage drilled (3,404,165½ feet) decreased 43,557½ feet under the 1961 total (3,447,723 feet), or 12.63%. The total footage drilled does not include any footage for wells tabulated as drilling. The actual footage drilled would be slightly less than given if the original depth of wells deepened were known and subtracted from the total given. For comparative purposes, footage for deeper drilling would be nearly the same from year to year. The average depth (2,184 feet) is 298 feet less than in 1961 (2,482 feet), or 12.08%.

The total initial daily open flow of gas wells was 1,624,082 M. cu. ft., an increase of 353,770 M. cu. ft. over the 1961 total, or 27.85% over the 1961 total (1,271,312 M. cu. ft.)

The range in size of the gas wells was 2 to 25,500 M. cu. ft. compared with 5 to 20,850 M. cu. ft. in 1961.

The average size of the gas wells was 1,569 M. cu. ft. compared with 1,328 M. cu. ft. in 1961, an increase of 241 M. cu. ft. or 11.06%.

The total daily initial oil was 15,165¼ barrels, an increase of 5,686¼ barrels over 1961 (9,478½ barrels), or 60%.

The range in size of the oil wells was ¼ to 410 barrels daily, compared with ½ to 400 barrels in 1961.

The average size of the oil wells was 57.2 barrels compared with 45.8 barrels in 1961, an increase of 11.4 barrels or 25.2%.

In calculating the average size of the wells, half of the total number of oil and gas wells ½ of 329 (165-164) (fifth column in table) was added to the total gas wells and total oil wells as given in the third and fourth columns of the table.

At the end of the year, 576 wells were drilling or unreported if completed. This was 80 less than in 1961, a decrease of 12.19%.

Six counties (Lewis, Kanawha, Gilmer, Upshur, Doddridge, and Ritchie) had a daily open flow of 1,129,595 M. cu. ft. or 69.56% of the total for the State.

Five counties (Doddridge, Gilmer, Ritchie, Lewis and Roane) had daily initial oil of 13,643½ barrels, or 90% of the total for the State.

Preliminary estimates of production for 1961: gas, 353,400,000 M. cu. ft.; compared with 248,400,000 cu. ft. in 1961, an increase of 5,000,000 M. cu. ft. or 2+%; oil, 3,470,000 bbls., an increase of 710,000 bbls. over the 1961 estimate (2,760,000 bbls.), or 25.7%. Possibly 38,000,000 M. went to storage. Gas is stored in W. Va. from four other states.

The estimated number of producing wells at the end of 1962: gas 18,277; oil 12,880. The number might be reduced somewhat if the number of wells abandoned under drilling permit numbers (drilled since May 1929) were known.

Several wells drilling are to be storage wells, in Marshall, Putnam, Roane, Tucker and Upshur Counties.

Forty-three wells were drilled to the Oriskany Sand or deeper horizons in 1962 with six still drilling.

Several Devonian Shale gas wells were drilled in the southwestern part of the State.

Many new wells and several old ones were fractured with generally favorable results. Studies are now being made by the West Virginia University on declines in production after fracturing.

Secondary recovery operations for oil are continuing in the State.

Several Benson Sand gas wells were completed in 1962 in Barbour, Lewis, and Upshur Counties, and one reported in Braxton County.

Many major companies are taking an active interest in West Virginia. The Phillips Petroleum Company well in Marion County was drilled to 17,111 feet, the deepest well in the State. A few are now drilling below 10,000 feet.

The Annual Reports of the Oil and Gas Division of the W. Va. Department of Mines give results for each well whose record has been filed. This report usually shows more completions than that of the Department of Mines.

ANALYSIS OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

DENZIL L. GAINER, STATE AUDITOR

Section 1—Summary

Revenues collected for the operation of state government are deposited into various funds as provided by statute and the constitution. Many of these funds are dedicated for specific purposes and are carried in separate accounts and expended only for the purposes authorized by law. These include the General School Fund, State Road Fund, Federal Funds, and various others designated as Special Revenue Funds. Approximately 55 per cent of all revenues collected during the 1961-62 fiscal year are within this group of dedicated funds. All revenues not dedicated for specific purposes are deposited into the General Revenue Fund from which the Legislature makes appropriations for the operation of the various departments, schools and institutions.

Total revenues collected for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1962, amounted to 327 million dollars as compared to 286 million for the previous fiscal year, an increase of some 41 million dollars. This is summarized as follows:

SECTION II—SUMMARY

The expenditures shown in this section are detailed to show total expenditures by function of state government without regard to the fund from which paid. Intra-fund and inter-fund transfers are eliminated so as to reflect actual operating costs.

All expenditures from appropriated accounts shown in this report include those for the 30-day period (July, 1962) as well as those from July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962.

Total expenditures for the appropriation year 1961-62 amounted to 330 million dollars, compared to 281 million for the previous year, an increase of some 49 million dollars. This is summarized as follows:

COLLECTION OF REVENUE, BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION TAX AND TRANSPORTATION PRIVILEGE TAX

West Virginia has imposed since 1921 a Business and Occupation Tax in some form. This tax has been known erroneously as the "Gross Sales Tax," a designation which has included the privilege tax imposed on certain carrier corporations by the terms of Article 12-A, Chapter XI of the Code of West Virginia, as well as the Business and Occupation Tax imposed by the terms of Article 13 of said Chapter XI. Collections by virtue of these two tax laws are deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund of the State, and constitute the largest single source of the State's general revenue raised by so-called "indirect" taxation.

These taxes are license taxes imposed for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia. The amount of tax to be paid is usually measured by the amount of gross income received before the deduction of any expense whatsoever. Under the production and manufacturing classifications of the Business and Occupation Tax Law the measure of the tax is the value of the article produced or manufactured as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof, provided, the proceeds of sale are indicative of the true value of the article. Every person in business is subject to the tax and if more than one person engages in a single activity or transaction, as in the case of the contractor and subcontractor, each must pay the tax measured by his entire income regardless of the tax paid by the other.

A. Production of Coal and Other Natural Resource Products. The tax is measured by the value of the articles mined or produced as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the producer, the rates being applied against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

| Coal .....   | On each $100.00 value, $1.35 |
| Sand, gravel, or other mineral products not quarried or mined; oil, blast furnace slag ..... | On each 100.00 value, 3.95     |
| Natural gas (exemptions include deduction of $5,000 annually) .....                         | On each 100.00 value, 7.85     |
| Limestone or sandstone quarried or mined; and timber .....                                   | On each 100.00 value, 2.00     |
| Other natural resource products .....  | On each 100.00 value, 2.60     |

B. Manufacturing. The tax is measured by the value of the articles manufactured, compounded or prepared for sale in West Virginia, as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the manufacturer or person compounding or preparing the same. The rate, 40 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of the sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

C. (1) Business of Selling Tangible Property, Other Than at Wholesale. The rate, 50 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, without any deduction on account of the cost of the goods sold, operating or other expenses, or losses.

C. (2) Business of Selling Tangible Property at Wholesale. The rate, 25 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, without any deduction on account of the cost of the goods sold, operating, or other expenses, or losses.

D. Public Service or Utility Business. The rates set out below apply against the gross income of the business without deduction of cost or operation, expenses or losses of any kind.

|--|--------------------------------|
| Street Interurban and Electric Railways .....  | On each $100.00 value, $1.30 |
| Electric Light and Power Companies (sales and demand charges, domestic purposes & commercial lighting) ..... | On each 100.00 value, 5.20     |
| Water Companies .....  | On each 100.00 value, 4.00     |

|--|---------|---------------|------|
| Electric Light and Power Companies (all other sales and demand charges) .....  | On each | 100.00 value, | 3.90 |
| Natural Gas Companies: Toll Bridges .....  | On each | 100.00 value, | 3.90 |
| Other Public Utilities—(Except telegraph and telephone companies, railways and other transportation companies) ..... | On each | 100.00 value, | 2.60 |

E. Contracting Business. The rate, $2.60 on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business. The term "gross income" is defined as meaning total receipts of the business without deduction for the cost of labor or material, operating, or other expenses, or losses.

G. Amusement Business. The rate, 65 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the gross income of the business, "gross income" being defined as including the total receipts without any deduction on account of the cost of operation, or other expenses, or losses.

H. Service Business or Calling Not Otherwise Specifically Taxed. The rate, $1.05 on each $100.00 value, applies against the entire gross income of the business, with no deduction on account of cost of operation, taxes, losses or other expenses.

I. Business of Furnishing Property for Hire. The rate, $1.05 on each $100.00 value, applies against the entire gross income of the business, with no deduction on account of cost or operation, taxes, losses or other expenses.

J. Small Loan Business. The rate, $1.05 on each $100.00 value, applies against the entire gross income of the business, with no deduction on account of cost of operation, taxes, losses or other expenses.

Business activities under Article 12-A are classed and taxed as follows:

A. Motor Vehicle Carriers, Railroad Car Corporations, Express Corporations or Companies. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intra-state income, and $1.50 on each $100.00 or pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

B. (1) Telephone Corporations, $2.75 on each $100.00 of gross intra-state income and $2.75 on each $100.00 or pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

(2) Telegraph Corporations. $5.00 on each $100.00 of gross intra-state income and $5.00 on each $100.00 pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

C. Pipe Line Corporations. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intra-state income (effective July 1, 1953—prior to that date $3.50) and $3.50 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

D. Persons or Corporations, Operating Airlines, Steamboats or Other Floating Property, $3.00 on each $100.00 of gross intra-state income and $3.00 on each $100.00 pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

E. Railroad Corporations, 50 cents on each $100.00 of assessed value of all property within the State of West Virginia, and $4.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

To the normal rates imposed by Article 12-A there is added, in all cases, a surtax of 30 per cent of the normal tax.

Annual exemption of $50.00 of the tax due is provided under both the Business and Occupation and Transportation Privilege Tax Statutes.

Authorized agents of municipalities having a Gross Sales Tax Ordinance are permitted to inspect and make copies of returns filed with the State Tax Commissioner upon the written request of the Mayors of such municipalities.

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL

Shortly after World War II, the West Virginia State Medical Association, together with the State's dentists, nurses, pharmacists and others, brought forcefully to the attention of the Legislature the need for a modern Medical Center in the Mountain State.

At that time, President Irvin Stewart of the University publicly asserted that unless a sound and continuing method of financing the project could be found, which would not impose further drains on an already inadequately financed university, West Virginia University could not accept the new responsibility.

Convinced of the soundness of this reasoning, the 1951 Legislature passed, on March 9, 1951, HB 268, the soft drinks tax.

The dedicated tax allowed immediate planning. Therefore, in the summer of 1951, a building committee was selected, consultants employed, discussions with health professions educators around the state initiated, and a contract for an overall site plan made.

C. E. Silling and Associates of Charleston, W. Va. were hired as chief architects.

Construction cost for it and equipment totaled $1,424,538.

Meanwhile, plans were finalized for the teaching laboratories and classrooms building—or what is known today as the Basic Sciences Building.

Construction for this unit—comprising 555,000 square feet of floor space in a five-story building—was begun in the summer of 1954 and completed and ready for occupancy in the summer of 1957. The cost of this building was $13,782,625, including fixed equipment.

The hospital, built in the form of an offset cross and attached to the Basic Sciences Building, has 12 floors, eight of which have patient beds. There are a total of 522 beds, 563,000 square feet of floor space and the cost was $15,897,777, including fixed equipment. Construction began in the summer of 1957 and was completed in January, 1960.

The hospital opened in August, 1960 and the first class of third-year medical students enrolled the next month. Thus 9 years elapsed between the passage of the enabling legislation, which triggered definitive planning and completion of construction.

In the 9 years, total net income from the soft drinks tax amounted to $28,755,321. On two occasions, the construction costs outstripped the income, necessitating additional legislative appropriations from general funds totaling $2.8 million.

Federal contribution to the program, in the form of Hill-Burton funds, and a Health Facilities Grant, has amounted to $2.8 million. Hence, of the total project cost of $31 million all but $5.6 million has come from the soft drinks tax.

Educational programs at the Medical Center train West Virginians for these health professions: medicine and medical technology, dentistry and dental hygiene, nursing and pharmacy.

In addition, there are graduate programs offered in such fields as biochemistry, microbiology, pharmacology, bacteriology and others.
