HISTORY OF THE CAPITOL

Courtesy of Robert R. Bowers, Director
Travel Development Division
W. Va. Department of Commerce

Immune to time and weather, the majestic dome and imposing columns of West Virginia's Capitol form a perfect picture of permanence and stability.

It is difficult to conceive that at one time, when West Virginia was in its infancy, the seat of government was switched at intervals between Wheeling and Charleston, in opposite ends of the State.

West Virginia's first Capitol was the Linsly Institute Building in Wheeling. Another Wheeling structure, the Custom House, is sometimes given this distinction, but was never the Capitol. The Custom House was the site of the Constitutional Convention held in November, 1861. It also served as headquarters for Francis H. Pierpont's Reorganized Government in Virginia until June 20, 1863, when the new State of West Virginia was admitted to the Union. The Reorganized Government of Virginia, under Pierpont, was then moved to Alexandria, Virginia and later to Richmond.

The Capitol's travels began in 1870, seven years after Arthur I. Boreman, the first governor, was inaugurated in Wheeling. The State Legislature designated Charleston as the Capitol, effective April 1, 1870. Citizens of the newly chosen seat of government provided a packet for the transportation of State officials and archives down the Ohio River and east of the Kanawha River to Charleston. Offices were established in churches, schools and other buildings while a new three-story Capitol was being constructed.

Charleston remained the Capitol for five years, until the 1875 Legislature voted for a temporary return to Wheeling. There, offices were located in the Linsly Building for a time, and then in an $80,000 stone building, donated by grateful Wheeling citizens.

However, the 1877 Legislature decided to abolish this mobile Capitol once and for all. An election was ordered to be held on August 7 of that year to enable the citizens of West Virginia to select their permanent Capitol. The cities voted upon were Clarksburg, Martinsburg, and Charleston. Charleston won.

A $390,000 Capitol was opened on May 1, 1885; the State officials and their staffs having been transferred by two steamers and a barge from Wheeling. The new Capitol served for 36 years until its destruction by fire on January 3, 1921. A so-called "Pasteboard Capitol" was completed the following February, and was used until March 2, 1927, when it too was destroyed by fire.

In these make-shift quarters, the extraordinary session of the 1921 Legislature authorized construction of the present Capitol. The same year, an architect was appointed and the present site, on the north bank of the Kanawha, was chosen. The west wing was erected in 1924-25; the east wing, 1926-27 and the main unit, 1930-32.

This building, of stone and marble, was designed by Cass Gilbert during a period of resurgent classical influence and is one of the world's superb examples of Italian Renaissance architecture. It was completed at a cost of nearly $10 million and has been designated one of the most beautiful of the state capitols.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE CAPITOL

Architect—Cass Gilbert.

Completed—February, 1932.

Cost—$9,491,180.03.

Ground occupied—16 acres.

Legislative chambers—Second floor, main unit.

Chandelier in dome—Imported crystal; weight, two tons; 15,000 candle power; 179' 9" from floor; gold chain, 54 feet long; lowered by hand winch at a set speed, requiring 3½ hours to lower and 4½ to return to stationary position.

Liberty Bell replica—North steps; presented to the State as commendation for 1950 Savings Bond drive; exact in size and tone.

Carvings in halls leading to entrances of Senate and House Chambers symbolize facets of the State's history and progress.

Greek and Roman gods carved on entrances to the three units personify such assets as agriculture, wisdom, commerce, etc.

Cass Gilbert, designer of the Capitol, describes it as follows:

“The building is classic in style and what might be correctly termed as Renaissance; the architectural forms are Roman with the single exception of the Doric vestibule at the ground floor of the river side of the building.

“The porticos and colonnades of the exterior are distinctly Roman, the main porticos being of Roman Corinthian order, which was, of course, indirectly derived from the Greek precedent, and the other porticos or collonnades are of modified Roman Doric type. The exterior of the dome closely follows the Roman precedent, although I know of none as high in proportion among Roman examples.”

There were approximately 210,000 visitors to the Capitol during 1966.

GOVERNORS OF THE MOUNTAIN STATE

West Virginia has had 15 Democratic governors, 12 Republican and one Independent.

Daniel D. T. Farnsworth, (R) Upshur County, served the shortest term, six days. As president of the Senate, he succeeded Arthur I. Boreman, February 26, 1869, upon the latter's election to the U. S. Senate. He left office, March 4, 1869, when the governor-elect, William Erskine Stevenson, (R) Wood County, was inaugurated.

John Jeremiah Jacob, (D) Hampshire County, served the longest term, six years, from March 4, 1871, to March 3, 1877. During his first term, governors were elected for two years and could succeed themselves. As an Independent, he was elected a second term of four years under the new Constitution of 1872.

STATE MUSEUM

Located in the State Capitol, directly under the executive suite, the State Museum is probably the best known of West Virginia's museums. Under the direction of the State's historian and archivist, the museum is illustrative of the history and science of the State and the social conditions and life of its people, past and present.

The Museum is open daily for the convenience of visitors, and a total of 136,879 visitors registered for the year 1966.

DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

CLEMENT R. BASSETT, Commissioner

State Office Building No. 2, 112 California Avenue

Salary of Commissioner: $14,000.00 per year. Appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Four years, runs concurrently with Governor.

Advisory Council: $25 per day for each day actually served in discharge of duties, also necessary expenses. Nine members appointed by Governor, by and with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Six years, subject to will and pleasure of Governor. Three members represent employer interests, three employee interests and three the interests of the general public. Meets first Monday in January, April, July and October. Limit of 30 days' service in any year.

Board of Review: $8,200.00 per year each. Three members appointed by Governor, with advice and consent of Senate. Term: Four years, runs concurrently with Governor. Nonpartisan. Governor designates chairman.

Purpose is to promote social and economic security by reducing, as far as possible, the hazards of unemployment. Through compulsory system of unemployment reserves, it provides measures of security to families of unemployed persons and guards against menace to health, morals and welfare arising from unemployment. To fulfill these purposes the Department pays weekly unemployment benefits to workers who are unemployed due to lack of work and who are in the labor market. The funds for payment of benefits are derived from a payroll tax paid by West Virginia employers under the terms of the Social Security Act.

Council serves as advisory body to Commissioner. Board of Review hears and determines disputed claims, appoints examiners, organizes appeal tribunals and exercises such additional powers as may be necessary for the proper conduct of a system of administrative review of disputed claims.

STATE BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Under Chapter 30, Article 1, Code 1931, all boards of examination and registration are governed by the following general rules, unless otherwise specifically provided:

Each board is required to adopt an official seal, make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as it deems best, and hold at least two meetings each year. Each board is also given power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and its officers are authorized to administer oaths.

Each applicant for license or registration must transmit with his application an examination fee of $20, unless a different fee is especially provided by law. Each board is allowed to charge $5 for each license or certificate issued and the same sum for every duplicate thereof. All licenses or certificates of registration are required to be numbered serially and to be signed by a majority of the members of the board, and each board has power to revoke, for cause, the certificate it issues. An applicant who has been refused a license, or a licensee whose certificate has been revoked has the right to appeal from the action of the board to the Circuit Court of the county in which he resides.

Unless otherwise specified, members of boards are allowed $10 per day for each day actually spent in attending sessions of the board or of its committees and in necessary travel, and entitled to reimbursement for all actual and necessary expenses in carrying out their official duties.

Each board is required to make a report annually to the Governor on or before the first day of January, and the secretary of each board is required to prepare and maintain a complete roster of all persons licensed or registered by it.

Each bill or resolution shall be numbered, edited and corrected as to form by the Clerk and reported by him to the Senate on the next legislative day, under the fifth order of business. In case of urgency, on motion for leave agreed to by a majority of the members present, if a quorum, a member may introduce a bill or resolution from the floor.

Bills and Joint Resolutions to Have Three Readings

34. All bills and joint resolutions originating in the Senate shall be read on three separate days, unless in case of urgency, by a vote of four-fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays, on each bill or joint resolution, this rule may be dispensed with.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 29.)

41. On each reading of the bill the Clerk shall state whether it is the first, second or third reading of such bill.

42. On the demand of any two members when a bill is being read for amendment, it shall be read section by section, and when the amendments which may be moved shall be disposed of, the question, unless the Senate otherwise order, shall be taken on ordering the bill to be engrossed and read the third time. If a bill should be ordered to its engrossment and third reading and amendments thereto have been made, the type from which the bill was originally printed shall be changed to conform to the amendments. The bill shall then be re-printed, and shall be the engrossed bill. If no amendments are made the bill as originally printed may be ordered to its third reading and shall become the engrossed bill. All Senate bills so ordered shall be jacketed, endorsed with their number, title, by whom introduced, and if the bill is finally passed, the date of its passage and the signature of the Clerk. In the case of a House bill on second reading if the same be amended, the amendment or amendments shall be noted in full in typewriting on slips of paper, and attached to the bill at the proper place by the Clerk before the bill is returned to the House, and all amendments shall appear in the Senate Journal.

46. A motion to reconsider shall be in order only when made by a Senator who voted with the prevailing side, and when the vote was not taken by yeas and nays all Senators will be conclusively presumed to have voted with the prevailing side.

51. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided; but on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question, but the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition; nor prevent a subsequent motion to simply strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Filling Blanks

52. In filling the blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

Previous Question

53. There shall be a motion for the previous question, which being ordered by a majority of the members present, if a quorum, shall have the effect to cut off all debate and bring the Senate to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions on which it has been asked and ordered. The previous question may be asked and ordered upon a single motion, a series of motions, or may be made to embrace and authorize motions and amendments and include the bill to its engrossment and third reading and then, on renewal and second of said motion, to its passage or rejection. It shall be in order pending a motion for or after the previous question shall have been ordered on its passage, for the President to entertain and submit a motion to commit with or without instructions to a standing or select committee; and a motion to lay upon the table shall be in order on the second and third reading of a bill.

A call of the Senate shall not be in order after the previous question is ordered, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the President that a quorum is not present.

The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-tenth of the members present, be entered on the Journal and any member may enter any protest on the Journal upon the determination of any question. After the yeas and nays shall have been taken, and before they are counted or entered on the Journal, the Clerk shall read over the names of those who voted in the affirmative and those who voted in the negative, at which time any member shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name.

Senate Bill Amended by House

56. When a bill or joint resolution passed by the Senate shall be amended by the House of Delegates, the question of agreeing to the bill or joint resolution, as amended, shall be again voted on by yeas and nays in the Senate, and the result entered upon its Journal. In all such cases the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to the Senate shall be necessary.—(Const., art. 6, sec. 31.)

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

INTRODUCTORY

Membership of the House

By an act of the Legislature (Ch. 1, First Extraordinary Session, 1964), the House of Delegates shall consist of one hundred members. Seven Delegate Districts, embracing fifteen counties, have a total of nine Delegates. The other ninety-one Delegates are allocated to the other forty counties on the basis of population. Delegates are elected for a term of two years.

No person shall be a Delegate who has not for one year next preceding his election, been a resident within the district or county from which he is elected, and if a Delegate remove from the district or county for which he was elected, his seat shall be thereby vacated. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 12.)

No person holding a lucrative office under this State, the United States, or any foreign government; no member of Congress; no person who is a salaried officer of any railroad company, or who is sheriff, constable, or clerk of any court of record, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislature. No person who may have collected or been entrusted with public money, whether State, county, township, district or other municipal organization, shall be eligible to the Legislature, or to any office of honor, trust, or profit in this State, until he shall have duly accounted for and paid over such money according to law. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 14.)

No Senator or Delegate, during the time for which he shall have been elected, shall be elected or appointed to any civil office of profit under this State, which has been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased during such term, except offices to be filled by election by the people. Nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he shall have been elected. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 15.)

Oaths

Members of the House of Delegates, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe to the following oaths or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Delegate according to the best of my ability, and that I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, from any corporation, company, or person, for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Delegate, on any bill, resolution or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Delegate." These oaths shall be administered in the hall of the house to which the member is elected, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or of a Circuit Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer an oath; and the Secretary of State shall receive and file said oaths subscribed by each member; and no other oath or declaration shall be required as a qualification. Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this State. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 16.)

The Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate shall each receive an additional compensation of five dollars per day for each day they shall act as presiding officers. No other allowance or emolument than that by this section provided shall directly or indirectly be made or paid to the members of either house for postage, stationery, newspapers, or any other purpose whatsoever. (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 33.)

Members' salaries are paid on the third Wednesday in January of each year.

Resignation and Filling of Vacancies

Resignations of members of the House should be made to the Speaker, Governor and chairman of the executive committee of the party of which the member belongs in the county from which he was elected.

Vacancies in the House are filled by an appointment by the Governor, in each instance from a list of three qualified persons submitted by the county party executive committee. (Ch. 3, Art. 10, Sec. 6 of the Code.)

Organization of the House

The Legislature shall assemble at the seat of government on the second Wednesday of January in each year. At the sessions held in odd-numbered years officers are elected for two-year terms. While neither the Constitution nor statute sets the hour for convening, the custom has been for each house to convene at twelve o'clock noon. The Constitution says, "The oldest Delegate present shall call the House to Order at the beginning of each new House of Delegates, and preside over it until the Speaker thereof shall have been chosen and taken his seat." (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 24.) Custom has made it the duty of the Clerk of the previous House to call the House to order and call the oldest Delegate present to the chair to preside until a Speaker is elected.

The session is then opened with prayer, following which the Clerk reads a list of the members as certified by the Secretary of State, and all notices of contested elections. The roll is then called to ascertain those present. The next step in the organization is the administering of the oath of office to the members.

With the conclusion of the above formalities the House is ready to proceed to the election of a Speaker. After this election, the election of other officers, i. e., Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper shall be the next order of business. The election of all officers shall be by viva voce vote.

It is then in order to provide by resolution for the adoption of rules to govern the procedure of the House and for informing the Senate that the House is organized. Upon being likewise informed of the organization of the Senate, both houses, by resolution, shall raise a joint committee to visit upon the Governor to inform him that they are organized and that they are in readiness to receive any message or communication he may desire to present.

However, at the session of the Legislature following each general election at which a governor, and other state officials are elected, immediately following the organization of the two houses, they shall meet in joint assembly in the hall of the House of Delegates, when the speaker, before proceeding to any other business, shall open and publish the election returns in the presence of a majority of each house of the Legislature. (Const., Art. VII, Sec. 3.)

The message of the Governor is usually delivered in person by the Governor before both houses of the Legislature, assembled in joint assembly. When the Governor desires to deliver his message to the joint assembly, it shall be proper to provide by resolution for the convening of a joint session of the two houses.

ELECTION AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Officers and Their Compensation

1. The House, at the commencement of each Legislature, shall elect a Speaker, Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeeper. All officers, except the Speaker, shall receive such compensation as the House may determine.

If, upon any vote, there be no election, the person having the lowest number of votes shall be dropped, and any votes thereafter given to such person shall not be taken into the counting to affect the result in any way. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERSAbsence From the House

24. No member shall absent himself from the service of the House unless he have leave, or be sick and unable to attend, but any member who conscientiously believes that the seventh day of the week ought to be observed as the Sabbath shall be excused from attending upon the House on that day.

Every Member to Vote

25. Every member present when a question is put, or when his name is called, shall vote unless he is immediately and particularly interested therein, or the House excuses him. A motion to excuse a member from voting must be made before the House divides, or before the call of the yeas and nays is commenced, and it shall be decided without debate, except that the member making the motion may briefly state the reason therefor.

Members Shall Be in Places When Voting

26. While the yeas and nays are being taken every member shall be in his seat, and during the session of the House no person other than a member shall occupy the chair of a member.

Quorum

27. A majority of all the members elected to the House shall be necessary to proceed to business; seven members may adjourn, and ten members may order a call of the House, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. On a call of the House, the doors shall not be closed against any member until his name shall have been called twice.

When Less Than Quorum Present

28. In case a number less than a quorum of the House shall convene, they are hereby authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person or persons by them authorized, for any and all absent members as the majority of such members shall agree, at the expense of such absent members, respectively, unless such excuse for nonattendance shall be made as the House, when a quorum is convened, shall judge sufficient; and, in that case, the expense shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the House. This rule shall apply to the first meeting of the House, at the legal time of meeting, as well as to each day of the session after the hour has arrived to which the House stood adjourned.

Taking Members Into Custody

29. No member of the House shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms, on any question of complaint of breach of privilege, until the matter is examined by the Committee on Elections and Privileges, and reported to the House of Delegates, unless by order of the Speaker of the House of Delegates.

Punishment of Members

30. The House of Delegates may punish its own members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected thereto, expel a member, but not twice for the same offense. (Const., Art. 6, Sec. 25.)

Providing for Undisturbed Transaction of Business

31. The House of Delegates may punish, by imprisonment, any person not a member, for disrespectful behavior in its presence; for obstructing any of its proceedings, or any of its officers in the discharge of his duties, or for any assault, threat or abuse of any member for words spoken in debate; but such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the termination of the session. (Const., Art. 6, Sec. 26.)

ORDER AND DECORUM IN DEBATERecognition and Decorum

32. When a member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer as "MR. SPEAKER," and, upon being recognized, shall proceed, confining himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personalities and indecorous or disrespectful language.

When a member arises and addresses the Chair, the Speaker may recognize him by name; but no member in debate shall designate another by name.

Recognition by the Chair

33. When two or more members shall rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the one who is to speak first, and his decision shall be final and not open to debate or appeal. However, in all other cases the member who shall rise first and address the Chair shall be first recognized.

Mover of Question to Have Preference in Debate

34. No question shall be debated until it has been propounded by the Speaker, and then the mover of the question shall have the right to open and close the debate thereon.

Member Out of Order

35. When any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, but may be permitted, with leave of the House, to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to; if the decision be in favor of the member so called to order, he is at liberty to proceed; if the decision be against him, and the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House, or such other punishment as the House may properly impose.

Calling to Order for Words Spoken in Debate

36. If a member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down at the Clerk's table. And no member shall be held to answer, or be subjected to the censure of the House, for words spoken in debate, if any other member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words were spoken and before the exception to them was taken.

Decorum During Debate

37. While the Speaker is putting a question, ascertaining the result, or addressing the House, no one shall walk out of or across the House; and when a member is speaking, no one shall engage in conversation or pass between him and the Speaker.

Limitation on Debate

38. No member shall speak except in his place, and not more than twice on a question, except by leave of the House. And if a question be pending at the time of an adjournment and is renewed on the succeeding day, no member who shall have spoken twice on the preceding day shall be permitted again to speak without leave of the House. The House by majority vote may limit debate on any question.

Members Not to Be Disturbed While Speaking

39. No one shall disturb or interrupt a member who is speaking, without his permission, except to call to order if he be transgressing the rules.

Speaking Before Negative Is Put

40. When the Speaker is putting the question any member who has not spoken before to the matter may speak to the question before the negative is put.

PUTTING QUESTIONS AND VOTINGPutting Questions; Division

41. All questions shall be put distinctly in this form, to-wit: "As many as are in favor [as the question may be] say 'Aye'." and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are opposed say 'No'." If the Speaker be in doubt as to the result, or if a division is called for by any member the House shall divide. Those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats and be counted, and afterwards those in the negative. The count may be made by the Speaker, or, if he so directs, by the Clerk, or two members, one from each side, to be named for that purpose by the Speaker. When the result is ascertained the Speaker shall rise and state the decision of the House. Such vote shall not be printed in the Journal unless the yeas and nays are called for by not less than nine members of the House prior to the announcement of the decision by the Speaker.

Yeas and Nays

42. On the passage of every bill and joint resolution, and when the yeas and nays on any question are called for by one tenth of those present, the Speaker shall direct a yeas and nays vote to be taken, and every member present shall vote, unless excused. On all roll calls, when the voting machine is not used, before the result is announced, the Clerk shall read to the House the names of those who voted in the affirmative or in the negative, whichever is the smaller number, and announce the names of those absent and not voting, at which time any member may correct a mistake committed in taking down his vote. The result shall then be announced, and the yeas and nays entered on the Journal, but if the House so orders, the announcement of the result and the entry of the yeas and nays upon the Journal may be postponed to the succeeding day, with liberty to absent members at any time before the result is announced by the Speaker, to appear and vote "Aye" or "No," in the presence of the House; and any member may, in the presence of the House, change his vote before the result is announced. The Journal shall also show those absent and not voting.

When the yeas and nays are called for by a member on any question, the Speaker shall hold this demand in abeyance until debate has closed upon the question under consideration, or until the previous question has been moved and sustained, and if sustained by one-tenth of the members present, the yeas and nays shall be taken.

Upon calls of the House, in taking the yeas and nays, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically, except the name of the Speaker shall be called last.

Pairs

43. Members may pair on any question by filing a signed statement of the same with the Clerk, who shall read the same to the House before the vote is taken. A blank form of pair for use of members shall be provided by the Clerk. No pair shall be recognized unless made in person by the member signing the same, nor unless one or both of the parties thereto are absent.

Division of Question

44. Any member may call for a division of any question before the vote thereon is taken, if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition will remain for the decision of the House, but the member calling for the division of a question shall state in what manner he proposes it shall be divided. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor motion to strike out and insert.

Calling of Yeas and Nays

45. No member or any person shall visit or remain by the Clerk's table while the yeas and nays are being called.

Tie Vote Loses Question

46. In all cases when the House is equally divided, the question shall be lost.

Verification of Vote

47. When a question upon which the yeas and nays have been taken has prevailed or failed by not more than five votes, the Speaker may, upon request of five members, order a verification of the vote. During such verification, no member shall change his vote unless it was erroneously recorded, nor may any member not having voted cast a vote. A verification must be called for immediately after a vote is announced and before any other business has intervened.

Explanation of Vote

48. No member shall be allowed to make any explanation of his vote during the taking of the yeas and nays; but after the roll has been called and the vote announced, any member may explain his vote and the explanation shall be recorded in the Journal if he requests it. The Speaker may limit the time allowed members for explaining votes.

When Members Not to Vote

49. Any member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the House shall disclose the fact and not vote thereon.

Voting by Machine

49-a. A voting machine may be used in taking the yeas and nays on any question, for quorum calls and for determining the result when a division is demanded. When a vote is to be taken on the voting machine the Speaker shall announce the question to be voted upon and direct the Clerk to prepare the machine. The Clerk shall then sound the gong which shall be notice to all members to vote. After reasonable time has been given all members to vote the Speaker shall ask the question, "Have all members voted?" vote himself, if the vote being taken is upon a question on which he is required to vote, and then direct the Clerk to close the machine and ascertain the result. As soon as this is done, the Clerk shall hand the record of the vote to the Speaker and he shall promptly announce the result. No vote may be changed after it has been recorded.

No member shall vote for another member, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who shall vote or attempt to vote for another member may be expelled as a member of the House or punished in such other manner as the House may determine. If a person not a member shall vote or attempt to vote for any member, he shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session and may be further punished in such manner as the House may deem proper, in addition to such punishment as may be prescribed by law.

All other rules governing voting and the taking of the yeas and nays, in so far as applicable, shall apply to taking votes by means of the voting machine.

MOTIONSStating the Question

50. When a motion is made, it shall be stated by the Speaker; or, being in writing, it shall be passed to the desk and read aloud by the Clerk before debate.

Form of Motion

51. Every motion, except subsidiary or incidental motions, shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any member desires it; but this exception shall not apply to motions to amend.

Withdrawal of Motions

52. After a motion is stated by the Speaker or read by the Clerk, it is deemed to be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment, unless the previous question has been ordered, in which case it can only be withdrawn by leave of the House.

Order and Precedence of Motions

53. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except:
1. To adjourn.
 2. To lay on the table.
 3. For the previous question.
 4. To postpone to a day certain.
 5. To go into a Committee of the Whole on the pending question immediately.
 6. To commit to a Committee of the Whole.
 7. To commit to a Standing Committee.
 8. To commit to a Select Committee.
 9. To amend.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.

These several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence of another motion to amend; and if carried, the bill is rejected.

Motion to Adjourn

54. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the House is voting, or while a member is addressing the House, or when no business has been transacted since the motion to adjourn has been defeated.

Motions Not Debatable

55. The following motions shall be decided without debate, and shall not be amended:

1. To adjourn.
2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.
3. To lay on the table.
4. For the previous question.
5. To suspend the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days.
6. To recess.

Motions Not in Order

56. No motion directing the appropriation or payment of money shall be in order.

Effect of Indefinite Postponement

57. When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not be again acted on during the session.

Motion to Reconsider

58. A motion to reconsider any question may be made by any member who voted with the majority, or in case of a tie vote, by any member. This motion shall be made on the same or next succeeding legislative day of the House. Such a motion, if seconded, shall take precedence of all other questions, except the consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn, and unless by motion postponed until some future time shall be acted upon at once. A motion to reconsider shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House, and if the House decides to reconsider, any member may thereafter call the subject up for consideration. A motion to reconsider a question, having been put and lost, shall not be renewed.

Debate on Motions to Reconsider

59. Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question which it is proposed to reconsider is debatable. Where debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no member shall speak more than once nor for a longer period than three minutes.

Reconsideration of Question Requiring More Than Majority Vote

60. When a majority of members present vote in the affirmative on any question, but the question be lost because it is one in which the concurrence of a greater number than a majority of a quorum is necessary to an affirmative decision, any member may move for a reconsideration.

Effect of Motion to Table

61. A motion to lay on the table shall only have the effect of disposing of the matter temporarily, and may be taken from the table at any time after the eighth order of business has been passed.

Motion Must Be Germane

62. No motion on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Previous Questions

63. When any question is before the House, any member being in order and having the floor may move the previous question, but such motion to be put must be sustained by being seconded by ten members. The question being moved, the Speaker shall say, "Is the motion sustained?" and those favoring the motion shall rise. If a sufficient number arise, the previous question shall be thereby seconded, and the question shall then be put in this form, "Shall the main question be now put?" If this question be decided in the affirmative by a majority of the members voting, a quorum being present, it shall have the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the House to a direct vote upon the immediate question or questions upon which it has been asked and ordered, except when the motion applies to the main question, the member in charge of the measure under consideration, shall have five minutes to close the discussion before the vote is taken; and when the motion applies to an amendment the person proposing the amendment shall have three minutes to close the discussion on the amendment. Should the previous question be decided in the negative, the House shall proceed with the matter before it as though the previous question had not been moved.

When a member moves the previous question he shall specifically state in his motion whether it shall apply to the main question and the amendments or to the amendment or amendments only.

The previous question shall not be admitted in the Committee of the Whole.

MEETING OF THE HOUSE

Time of Meeting

64. The House shall meet every day, except Sunday, unless it shall be otherwise directed by special order, precisely at the hour to which it shall have adjourned at its last sitting; but if no hour were fixed at such sitting, then at two o'clock P. M.

Messages from the Governor and Senate, communications and reports from state officers, reports from the Committee on Elections, which involve the right of a member to his seat, reports from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reports from the Committee on Rules, and reports of Conference Committees may be received at any time when the House is not actually engaged in taking a vote on some question, in which case it shall be received as soon as the result of the vote is announced. 69. Local bills shall be placed upon a special calendar to be known as the Local Bill Calendar, and on Friday of each week, after the ninth order of business is passed, shall be taken up and disposed of before any other business is acted upon: Provided, That this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of local bills at such times as the House may determine after the last Friday within the constitutional duration of the regular sessions of the Legislature.

If a committee to which a bill has been referred reports that the same ought not to pass, the Speaker shall immediately propound the question, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If this question is decided in the negative, the bill shall be disposed of in the same manner as if reported favorably.

Printing of Bills

99. The Clerk shall have all bills printed that are ordered to second reading, and such other bills as the House may order printed.

Recommitment of Bills

100. A bill may be recommitted at any time before it passes. Should such recommitment take place after its engrossment, and an amendment be reported, the bill shall be placed on second reading when reported back.

Reading Bills

101. Before any bill is read by the Clerk, he shall state to the House whether it is on first, second or third reading.

Bills to Have Three Readings

102. No bill shall become a law until it has been fully and distinctly read on three different days, unless in case of urgency, by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays on each bill, this rule be dispensed with. Upon any bill there may be a motion to dispense with the Constitutional rule, in order that the bill may be read twice or three times on the same day, and upon the first or second reading of any bill there may be a motion to dispense with the constitutional rule in order that the bill may, upon such reading, be read by its title: Provided, That in all cases there shall be three readings on each bill, and that an engrossed bill shall be fully and distinctly read. (See Const., Art. 6, Sec. 29.)

Bills—First Reading

103. The first reading of a bill shall be for information; and if opposition be made to it, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be lost, it shall be regarded as ordered to its second reading, unless the House otherwise specially directs. On the first reading of a bill, it may at any stage of the reading be rejected on motion.

Bills—Second Reading

104. No bill shall be put upon its second reading until the same shall have been printed and delivered to the members of the House at least one day previous to such reading, unless in case of emergency.

Amending and Engrossing Bills

105. On the second reading of a bill on the demand of any two members, it shall be read section by section for amendment, and when the amendments as may be moved are disposed of, the question, unless the House otherwise order, shall be, if a House bill, "Shall the bill be engrossed and ordered to the third reading?" If a House bill shall be ordered to its engrossment and third reading, and amendments have been made thereto, the type from which the bill was originally printed shall be changed to conform with the amendments. The bill shall then be reprinted and shall be the engrossed bill, and shall be designated as such. If no amendments are made the bill as originally printed may be ordered to its third reading and shall become the engrossed bill, and shall be designated as such. All House bills ordered to their engrossment and third reading shall be jacketed and engrossed with their number, title, by whom introduced, and if the bill is finally passed, the date of its passage and the signature of the Clerk. If a House bill is passed by the Senate and returned to the House without amendment, or if amended and the amendment or amendments be agreed to, it shall then be turned over to the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills. In the case of a Senate bill on second reading, if the same be amended by the House and passed on as amended, the amendment or amendments shall be noted in full on slips of paper in typewriting and attached to the bill at the proper place by the Clerk before the bill is returned to the Senate, and all the amendments shall also appear in the House Journal.

Time Bills to Go Into Effect

106. In the passage of a bill by the House, a motion may be made that it take effect from its passage, or at some time other than ninety days after its passage; and if said motion be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to the House, taken by yeas and nays, the Clerk shall communicate that fact to the Senate along with the bill. (See Const., Art. 6, Sec. 30.)

Senate Bills

107. Senate bills passed by the Senate and reported to the House shall be referred to the appropriate committee unless the House otherwise directs. After this they shall be treated in the same manner as House bills.

RESOLUTIONS

108. Resolutions shall be of three classes, as follows:

(1) Joint Resolutions: All proposed amendments to the Constitution shall take the form of a joint resolution, which shall be subject to the rules which govern the proceedings on bills, except that it shall be read on three several days, and, to be adopted, must on its third reading be agreed to by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to the House. (Const., Art. 14, Sec. 2.) When a proposed amendment to the Constitution is under consideration, the vote of a majority of the members present shall be sufficient to decide an amendment thereto or any collateral or incidental questions thereto short of the final question.

[Note: Joint resolutions are used only for amendments to the State Constitution and to ratify amendments to the Federal Constitution. Such resolutions do not have to be submitted to the Governor for his approval.]

(2) Concurrent Resolutions: Concurrent resolutions shall be used for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of the Legislature, for authorizing expenditures incidental to the sessions and business of the Legislature, for agreeing upon adjournments beyond the constitutional limitation, for creating special joint committees, for raising a joint assembly and other inferior and incidental purposes of legislation, and such other purposes as the Legislature may deem proper. The adoption of such resolutions must be concurred in by both houses.

(3) House Resolutions: These simple resolutions shall be used for expressing the will or order of the House on matters in which the concurrence of the Senate is not necessary. A House resolution shall be proper to express the sentiments of the body, to authorize expenditures from its contingent fund, for agreeing upon any question, and for all incidental purposes pertaining to the organization and work of the House.

Introduction of Resolutions

109. All resolutions to be introduced in the House shall be filed with the Clerk not later than two hours prior to the convening of the session at which they are to be introduced. They shall be presented in triplicate and copies shall be for the same purpose as that of bills. When the proper order of business is reached, the Clerk shall proceed in the same manner as if they were introduced from the floor. This rule does not deny a member the right to introduce a resolution from the floor in case of urgency. The different classes of resolutions shall be numbered by the Clerk and entered in full in the Journal.

Action on Resolutions

110. Upon introduction, all resolutions shall be read by their titles and referred to the appropriate committee. Resolutions, other than joint resolutions proposing amendments to the State Constitution, reported from committee shall lie over one day, be inserted in full in the Journal and come up under the ninth order of business the following legislative day. Joint resolutions proposing amendments to the State Constitution shall be treated as bills and proceedings thereon shall be in accordance with section two, article fourteen of the State Constitution.

Resolutions adopted by the Senate and reported to the House shall be subject to the same rule as that governing resolutions introduced in the House.

PETITIONS

111. All petitions, remonstrances, memorials and other papers addressed to the House shall be filed by the member with the Clerk prior to the convening of the House. When in the regular order of business the time is reached for presenting petitions or any such papers, the Clerk shall read a list of those on file, giving the member's name presenting same and a brief resume of the contents thereof, and the same shall be referred to the committee of the member's selection unless otherwise ordered by the House. Each member, upon filing any such petition, remonstrance or other paper, shall endorse thereon his name, and if not so endorsed it shall not be received. The Journal shall show the name of the member presenting such papers, a brief resume of the contents thereof, and the disposition made of same.

113. No amendment shall be in order that is not germane to the matter under consideration; and the Speaker, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the proposed amendment.

Time for Offering

114. Amendments may be offered to any bill or joint resolution and acted upon on their second reading and before they are ordered to their engrossment and third reading. No bill shall be amended on third reading, except by unanimous consent of the members present. Amendments to resolutions other than joint resolutions shall be in order at any time the same are being considered. Committee amendments shall be subject to amendment and shall be disposed of before any other amendments are in order.

Reading and Stating

115. Amendments shall be read by the Clerk and stated by the Speaker before being acted upon.

By Striking Out Enacting Clause

116. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence over another motion to amend, and, if carried, the bill or resolution is rejected.

Amendment to an Amendment

117. A motion to amend a pending amendment may be received, but until it is disposed of no other motion to amend will be in order. But pending such amendment, a motion to amend in the nature of a substitute, and a motion to amend that substitute, may be received, but shall not be voted upon until the original matter is perfected.

Amendment to Have Precedence Over Substitute

118. If a substitute for a bill or resolution be offered, a motion to amend the original bill or resolution shall have precedence.

Motion to Amend to Have Precedence Over One to Strike Out

119. If a motion be made to strike out part of a bill or resolution, a motion to amend the part proposed to be stricken out shall have precedence.

Filling Blanks

120. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time proposed shall be first put, and the question shall be put on names in the order they were nominated.

No Amendment by Way of Rider

121. No amendment by way of rider shall be received to any bill after enactment.

Agreeing to Senate Amendments

122. When a House bill or House joint resolution shall be amended by the Senate, the question on agreeing to the bill or resolution as amended shall be again voted on by yeas and nays, and the result entered on the Journal, and in such a case the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the House shall be necessary. (Const., Art. 6, Sec. 31.)

Amendment by Section

123. If a bill is being considered section by section, only amendments to the section under consideration shall be in order. After all sections have been considered separately, the whole bill shall be open for amendment except that an amendment seeking to strike out matter previously inserted and containing substantially no new proposition shall not be in order.

Amending Titles

124. After the passage of a bill or joint resolution, amendments to its title may be offered when the title is read for approval.

Amendments to Senate Bills

125. Any Senate bill or resolution may be amended in the same manner as a House bill or resolution. If a Senate bill or resolution is amended the same shall be noted by the Clerk on the jacket containing same before it is reported to the Senate.

After the reading of a Senate amendment to a House bill or resolution the question shall be, "Will the House concur in the Senate Amendment?" But it shall be in order to move that the House concur in the Senate amendment with an amendment; or that the House refuse to concur and ask the Senate to recede.

If the Senate shall refuse to concur in a House amendment to a Senate bill or resolution, the following motions shall be in order and shall be privileged in the order named: First, That the House recede; Second, That the House insist and ask for a committee of conference; Third, That the House adhere.

Amendments to Be Printed in Journal

126. All amendments proposed, unless withdrawn, shall be printed in the Journal.

127. On an amendment being moved, a member who has spoken to the main question may speak again to the amendment.

JOURNALClerk to Keep

128. The Clerk of the House, under the direction of the Speaker, shall keep a full and correct Journal of the proceedings.

Approval and Correction

129. When the Journal has been read to the end that any mistake made in the entry may be corrected, if no objection is made, it shall stand approved; but if objection be made, the first question of the House shall be to dispose of the same, and when such objections are disposed of and the Journal corrected, as the House may order, it shall stand as approved.

Printing Official Copies

130. After the printed Journal has been approved and fully marked for correction, the type from which it was printed shall be changed in accordance therewith. From the type so corrected shall be printed the number of copies required by law for the regular bound volumes of the Journal, which shall be properly indexed. In addition thereto six copies shall be printed on 6x9 heavy weight bond paper, with a certificate at the end thereof, certifying that the same is the official Journal of the House and the same shall be signed by the Speaker and Clerk. Such printed Journal shall be the official record of the House. They shall be bound in flexible binding, and bear the imprint on the back, "Official Journal of the House of Delegates of West Virginia," with designation of regular or special session, as the case may be, and the year. After being signed by the proper officers, two of these copies shall be retained in the office of the Clerk, and one copy shall be lodged in the office of the Governor, one with the Secretary of State, one with the Department of Archives and History, and one with the Clerk of the Senate.

Journal to Be Printed Daily

131. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to furnish a copy of each day's proceedings of the Journal to the printer, to be printed and distributed without delay.

Form and Content of Journal

132. The Journal shall be kept and published in minute form so as to show a running account of all proceedings and actions taken. Every written motion, unless it be withdrawn on the same day submitted and before action has been taken thereon, and such other material and matters required by these rules and the joint rules of the Senate and House shall be printed in the Journal. No remarks of members, speeches, newspaper editorials and articles, or other material shall be printed in the daily Journal, except explanations of votes as provided by these rules and such portions of remarks as may be necessary for the record in instances where a member may be called to order for words spoken in debate.

The Clerk shall keep and publish an Appendix to the bound and official Journals of each session of the House. There shall be included in the Appendix all remarks of members and other material ordered printed by the House.

An address or remarks by a member made on the floor of the House may be printed in the Appendix with the consent of the House only on the request of the member making such address or remarks.

CHANGE OR SUSPENSION OF RULESRescinding or Amending Rules

133. All propositions to amend or rescind any standing rule or order of the House shall be by resolution and be at once referred, without debate, to the Committee on Rules, and shall be reported therefrom within two days. Any such resolution may be adopted by a majority vote, a quorum being present.

[Note: The power to make its rules of procedure is given the House under Sec. 24, Art. 6 of the Constitution.]

Suspension of Rules

134. These rules shall not be suspended, except by a vote of at least two thirds of the members present. Unless there be a unanimous consent for the suspension of rules, the vote shall be determined by yeas and nays.

[Note: The motion to suspend the rules is usually preceded by a member requesting unanimous consent of the House to do a particular thing. If no one objects the House is deemed to assent, and what is desired is allowed accordingly. If objection is made, then the member may move that the rules be suspended for the specific purpose or object he has in view. A motion to lay on the table may not be applied to a motion to suspend the rules. (Hind's Precedents, Sec. 5405.)]

Manual and Rules

135. On any question of order or parliamentary practice where the rules of the House or the joint rules of the House and Senate are silent or inexplicit, Jefferson's Manual and the Digest of the Rules and Practices of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress shall be considered as authority.

[Note: Jefferson's Manual was prepared by Thomas Jefferson for his own guidance as President of the United States Senate in the years he was Vice President, from 1797 to 1801. The House of Representatives, in 1837, by rule which still exists, provided that the provisions of the Manual should "govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House." The Manual is regarded by English parliamentarians as the best statement of what the law of Parliament was at the time Jefferson wrote it. (House Manual and Digest), 70th Congress, 1st Sess., Sec. 278.]

Lounging Prohibited in the Hall of the House

139. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to prevent all persons not connected with the Legislature from assembling in the halls at any time when the House is not in session for the purpose of lounging or loafing. 140. No person shall be permitted to hawk, peddle or offer for sale any article of traffic at any time within the hall of the House; and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to strictly enforce this rule.

[NOTE: It is the custom to hold joint assemblies in the House Chamber and they are presided over by the Speaker. In such sessions the Clerk of the House acts as Clerk, assisted by the Clerk of the Senate. The President of the Senate is given a seat to the right of the Speaker and seats are arranged for the members of the Senate.]

Joint Assembly to Open and Publish Election Returns

2. As soon as the Senate, being organized, is informed that the House of Delegates is ready to proceed, as provided by section three of article seven of the Constitution, to open and publish the returns of the elections for state officers, the Senate, preceded by its President and other officers, shall repair in a body to the hall of the House of Delegates. Upon their arrival the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Delegates shall announce the presence of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall then address the Speaker of the House, stating that a majority of the Senate have assembled in the hall of the House of Delegates to be present at the opening and publishing of the returns of the elections for state officers, held on the day of The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall invite the President of the Senate to a seat upon his right, and the other members of the Senate and officers thereof to take seats assigned them, and after announcing that a majority of the House of Delegates is present, shall then open and publish the returns of said election, proceeding by counties in alphabetical order, the Clerks of the two houses each taking down the returns as announced by the Speaker, to be entered upon the Journal of the House; and when completed and tabulated the Speaker shall announce the votes received by each person voted for, for each of said offices, and those receiving the largest number of votes shall be by him declared duly elected; and the Senate shall then return to its hall; and if any two or more candidates for any of said offices have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the two houses shall immediately proceed to choose one of such persons for said office by a joint vote, as provided by Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution.

Disagreement and Conference

3. Whenever a measure of one house is amended in the other and the house in which it originated shall refuse to concur in the amendment, the house amending the measure may either insist or recede therefrom. But when a measure originating in one house is amended in the other, the house in which it originated may amend such amendment and a motion therefor shall take precedence of a motion to concur. If said house refuses to concur, the other house may either recede from or insist upon its amendment, and a motion to recede shall take precedence of a motion to insist. The motion to lay on the table or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order in respect to the motion to recede from or to insist.

A motion to recede having failed shall be equivalent to the adoption of a motion to insist and shall be so entered upon the Journal. A motion to insist being decided in the negative, shall be equivalent to the adoption of a motion to recede and shall be so entered upon the Journal. If the motion to insist prevails, the house so insisting shall request a committee of conference on the subject of disagreement, and shall appoint a committee therefor. The other house may thereupon appoint such committee. Unless a different number is agreed upon, such conference committee shall consist of five members from each house.

Such committee shall consider and report upon only the subject matter of the amendment or amendments which were in disagreement, with necessary consequential changes. The committee shall meet at a convenient time, to be agreed upon by their chairmen, and having conferred freely, shall report to their respective houses the result of the conference. In case of agreement, the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the house which refused to concur, and there acted upon; and such action, with the papers referred, shall be immediately reported by the clerk to the other house. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the house in which the measure originated. If an agreement is reached, the report shall be made and signed in duplicate by at least a majority of the conferees from each house, one of the duplicates being retained by the conferees of each house.

Messages Between the Houses

4. When a message is sent by one house to the other, it shall be announced at the door of the house to which it is sent, by the Doorkeeper thereof, if it be in session, and then be respectfully communicated to the presiding officer by the person by whom it may be sent, but no message shall be received during a call of the roll. But the clerk of one house may communicate a message to the clerk of the other after adjournment, and any message so sent shall be received by the house to which it is sent whenever it may be in session.

10. Each house may order the printing of bills, resolutions, reports, and other documents without the consent of the other.

Joint Committees

11. Joint standing committees of the Senate and House shall be appointed as follows:

(1) Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills—To consist of five members from each house.

(2) Committee on Joint Rules—To consist of the presiding officers and two members of each house, to be appointed by the presiding officers.

(3) Such other joint committees as may be provided for by concurrent resolution. A bill or resolution referred to a joint committee may be recalled from such committee by the house in which it originated.

Engrossed Bills to Be Filed With Clerk of House

12. All engrossed bills passed by, and joint and concurrent resolutions adopted by, both houses shall be filed with the Clerk of the House to be kept with the rolls of the Legislature and to be used by him in printing and publishing the acts of the Legislature.

Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills

13. The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills shall consist of five members of the Senate and five members of the House of Delegates, to be appointed by the presiding officer of each house, whose duty it shall be to compare carefully all bills and joint resolutions passed by both houses, with the enrollment thereof, and to correct any errors or omissions they may discover and to make reports to their respective houses from time to time, of the correctly enrolled bills or joint resolutions. It shall be in order for the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills to report at any time.

Printing Enrolled Bills

14. After a bill has been passed by both houses, the type from which it was originally printed shall be corrected as to any typographical errors that may not previously have been corrected and to include any amendments that may have been made by either house since the last printing of the bill. After the type has been so corrected, two hundred copies of the bill shall be printed (except charter bills, of which only twenty-five of each shall be printed). Twelve of these copies shall be on seven and one fourth by ten bond paper, twenty-pound basis of at least fifty per cent rag content for the use of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, one of which copies, when properly authenticated, shall become the Enrolled Bill, and the remainder shall be on twenty-pound basis, sulphite bond paper. From these copies all judges shall be furnished enrolled bills as provided for in section fourteen, article one, chapter four of the code.

Authentication of Enrolled Bills

15. Enrolled bills shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman of the House Committee and the chairman of the Senate Committee, composing such Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, but in the absence of such chairman another member of the committee may act in his stead, and they shall require all bills and joint resolutions before such authentication to be free from interlineations or erasures and destroy any previous enrollment containing any interlineations or erasures. A certificate, showing in which house the bill originated and when it takes effect, signed by the clerks of the two houses, shall be endorsed on the bill. After enrolled bills and joint resolutions are authenticated as aforesaid, they shall be signed by the Speaker of the House and by the President of the Senate.

Presenting Bills to Governor

16. After a bill shall have thus been signed in each house, it shall be presented by the said committee to the Governor, for his approval. The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be entered on the Journal of each house.

Record of Enrolled Bills

17. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Enrolled Bills to keep a record book of all bills presented to the Governor for his approval. The title and number of each bill presented to the Governor shall be entered in this book, and when a bill is presented to him, the date presented and the signature of the Governor, showing receipt of same, shall be entered at the side of each title.

18. Every bill disapproved by the Governor shall be returned by him to the house in which it originated, with his objections thereto, unless the Legislature shall, by its adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State within five days after said adjournment.

Every bill approved by the Governor shall, within five days after it is presented to him, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and the fact of said approval communicated by the Governor to the house in which said bill originated.

Every bill which shall be neither approved nor disapproved by the Governor shall immediately, after the expiration of five days from the time it is presented to him, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall forthwith engross thereon a certificate to the following effect: "I certify that the foregoing act, having been presented to the Governor for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of the Legislature in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the State, has become a law without his approval," and shall date and sign the same. The Governor shall notify the house in which the bill originated of each bill becoming a law without his approval.

Upon each bill returned to either house of the Legislature with the objections of the Governor, the Clerks of the Senate and House of Delegates shall engross the action, if any, of their respective houses on the reconsideration and passage of said bill, and sign the same.

Joint Meetings of Committees

19. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its standing committees, and the same or like bill has been referred by the House to one of its committees, the chairmen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interest of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, may arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of such bill. All joint committee meetings shall be presided over by the chairman of the Senate committee.

What Shall Be Printed in the Journal

20. The following shall always be printed in the Journal of each house:

- (a) Messages from the Governor and messages from the other house, the titles of all bills and the title and text of all resolutions.

Use of Legislative Halls and Offices

22. THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE BAR (Integrated)Offices: State Capitol—Telephone 346-8414

Created by the Supreme Court of Appeals under its inherent rule-making power as authorized by Chapter 44, Acts of the Legislature, 1945. The court adopted and promulgated a definition of the practice of law; a code of professional ethics, a code of judicial ethics and a constitution and by-laws for the government of the State Bar, effective May 1, 1947. Its membership consists of all persons lawfully admitted to the practice of law in West Virginia. No person can practice law in the State of West Virginia unless he is a member in good standing of The West Virginia State Bar. There are two classes of membership—active and inactive. The annual active membership fee is now $20.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for more than five years, and $10.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for not more than five years.

The objects of the State Bar are to protect the interests of the public; to advance the administration of justice and the science of jurisprudence; to improve the relations between the public and the Bench and the Bar; to uphold and elevate the standards of honor, integrity, competency and courtesy in the legal profession; and to encourage cordial relations among its members. It is its declared purpose to give effect to pertinent rules of the Supreme Court of Appeals, and to perform the functions expressed in its Constitution and By-Laws. A principal duty of the State Bar is to uphold the standards of professional ethics and to diligently and vigilantly investigate and prosecute violations of these standards.

The State Bar is governed by a Board of Governors, consisting of all officers, except the secretary-treasurer, as ex officio members, and sixteen Governors, one Governor being elected by the members of the Bar by a secret mail ballot in each of the sixteen State Bar Districts. Section Four

CONSTITUTIONAL

Declaration of Independence

United States Constitution

Constitution of West Virginia

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

MADE BY THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN STATES IN CONGRESS
AT PHILADELPHIA

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:
For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:
For imposing taxes on us without our consent:
For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:
For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our government:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character, is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and holds them, as we hold the rest of mankind enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in general Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are and of right ought to be, free and independent States: that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

Since through Divine Providence we enjoy the blessings of civil, political and religious liberty, we, the people of West Virginia, in and through the provisions of this Constitution, reaffirm our faith in and constant reliance upon God and seek diligently to promote, preserve and perpetuate good government in the State of West Virginia for the common welfare, freedom and security of ourselves and our posterity.

ARTICLE I

Relations to the Government of the United States

1. The State of West Virginia is and shall remain, one of the United States of America. The Constitution of the United States of America, and the laws and treaties made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land.

Internal Government and Police

2. The Government of the United States is a Government of enumerated powers, and all powers not delegated to it, nor inhibited to the States, are reserved to the States or to the people thereof. Among the powers so reserved by the States is the exclusive regulation of their own internal government and police; and it is the high and solemn duty of the several departments of government, created by this Constitution, to guard and protect the people of this State from all encroachments upon the rights so reserved.

Continuity of Constitutional Operation

3. The provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of this State, are operative alike in a period of war as in time of peace, and any departure therefrom, or violation thereof, under the plea of necessity, or any other plea, is subversive of good government, and tends to anarchy and despotism.

*Adopted by the Legislature March 6, 1959. Ratified by the Voters November 8, 1960.

Representatives to Congress

4. For the election of representatives to Congress, the State shall be divided into districts, corresponding in number with the representatives to which it may be entitled; which districts shall be formed of contiguous counties, and be compact. Each district shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of population, to be determined according to the rule prescribed in the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE II

The State

1. The territory of the following counties, formerly parts of the Commonwealth of Virginia, shall constitute and form the State of West Virginia, viz:

The counties of Barbour, Berkeley, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Calhoun, Clay, Doddridge, Fayette, Gilmer, Grant, Greenbrier, Hampshire, Hancock, Hardy, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Kanawha, Lewis, Lincoln, Logan, Marion, Marshall, Mason, McDowell, Mercer, Mineral, Monongalia, Monroe, Morgan, Nicholas, Ohio, Pendleton, Pleasants, Pocahontas, Preston, Putnam, Raleigh, Randolph, Ritchie, Roane, Summers, Taylor, Tucker, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Webster, Wetzel, Wirt, Wood and Wyoming. The State of West Virginia includes the bed, bank and shores of the Ohio River, and so much of the Big Sandy River as was formerly included in the Commonwealth of Virginia; and all territorial rights and property in, and jurisdiction over the same, heretofore reserved by, and vested in, the Commonwealth of Virginia, are vested in and shall hereafter be exercised by the State of West Virginia. And such parts of the said beds, banks and shores as lie opposite, and adjoining the several counties of this State, shall form parts of said several counties respectively.

[All of the territory of West Virginia was taken from the Commonwealth of Virginia and in the first constitution forty-four of the above named counties were designated as forming the State of West Virginia, and in addition the counties of Berkeley, Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Morgan and Pendleton were to be admitted should the constitution be adopted by a vote of the people of the districts comprising the counties. The districts adopted the constitution and these six counties became a part of the State.

The remaining five counties were created by acts of the Legislature as follows: Mineral County, from Hampshire County, on February 1, 1866; Grant County, from Hardy County, on February 14, 1866; Lincoln County from parts of Cabell, Putnam, Kanawha and Boone Counties, on February 23, 1867; Summers County, from parts of Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer and Fayette Counties, on February 27, 1871; and Mingo County, from Logan County, on February 23, 1895.]

ARTICLE III

Bill of Rights

1. All men are, by nature, equally free and independent, and have certain inherent rights, of which, when they enter into a state of society, they cannot, by any compact, deprive or divert their posterity, namely: The enjoyment of life and liberty, with the means of acquiring and possessing property, and of pursuing and obtaining happiness and safety.

Magistrates Servants of People

2. All power is vested in, and consequently derived from, the people. Magistrates are their trustees and servants, and at all times amenable to them.

Of all its various forms, that is the best, which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety, and is most effectually secured against the danger of maladministration; and when any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes, a majority of the community has an indubitable, inalienable and indefeasible right to reform, alter or abolish it in such manner as shall be judged most conducive to the public weal.

4. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended. No person shall be held to answer for treason, felony or other crime, not cognizable by a justice, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. Political Tests Condemned

11. Political tests, requiring persons, as a prerequisite to the enjoyment of their civil and political rights, to purge themselves by their own oaths, of past alleged offenses, are repugnant to the principles of free government, and are cruel and oppressive: No religious or political test oath shall be required as a prerequisite or qualification to vote, serve as a juror, sue, plead, appeal, or pursue any profession or employment. Nor shall any person be deprived by law, of any right, or privilege, because of any act done prior to the passage of such law.

The military shall be subordinate to the civil power; and no citizen unless engaged in the military service of the State, shall be tried or punished by any military court for any offense that is cognizable by the civil courts of the State. Prior to being amended, the section read as follows: "In suits at common law, where the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds twenty dollars, the right of trial by a jury of twelve men, if required by either party, shall be preserved; except that in appeals from judgments of justices, a jury of a less number may be authorized by law; but in trials of civil cases before a justice no jury shall be allowed and no fact tried by a jury shall in any case, be otherwise re-examined than according to the rules of common law."

1. The legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and House of Delegates. The style of their Acts shall be, "Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia."

Composition of Senate and House of Delegates

2. The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four, and the House of Delegates of sixty-five members subject to be increased according to the provisions hereinafter contained.

[The Senate is now composed of thirty-four, and the House of Delegates of one hundred members.]

Senators and Delegates—Term of Office

3. Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Delegates for the term of two years. The Senators first elected, shall divide themselves into two classes, one Senator from every district being assigned to each class; and of these classes, the first to be designated by lot in such manner as the Senate may determine, shall hold their seats for two years and the second for four years, so that after the first election, one half of the Senators shall be elected biennially.

Division of State Into Senatorial Districts

4. For the election of Senators, the State shall be divided into twelve Senatorial districts, which number shall not be diminished, but may be increased as herein-after provided. Every district shall elect two Senators, but, where the district is composed of more than one county, both shall not be chosen from the same county. The district shall be compact, formed of contiguous territory, bounded by county lines, and, as nearly as practicable, equal in population, to be ascertained by the census of the United States. After every such census, the Legislature shall alter the Senatorial Districts, so far as may be necessary to make them conform to the foregoing provision.

[There are now seventeen senatorial districts, as provided by Chapter 1, Acts, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964 (Code, Ch. 1, Art. 2)]

Senatorial Districts Designated

5. Until the Senatorial Districts shall be altered by the Legislature as herein prescribed, the counties of Hancock, Brooke and Ohio, shall constitute the first Senatorial District; Marshall, Wetzel and Marion, the second; Ritchie, Doddridge, Harrison, Gilmer and Calhoun, the third; Tyler, Pleasants, Wood and Wirt, the fourth; Jackson, Mason, Putnam and Roane, the fifth; Kanawha, Clay, Nicholas, Braxton and Webster, the sixth; Cabell, Wayne, Lincoln, Boone, Logan, Wyoming, McDowell and Mercer, the seventh; Monroe, Greenbrier, Summers, Pocahontas, Fayette and Raleigh, the eighth; Lewis, Randolph, Upshur, Barbour, Taylor and Tucker, the ninth; Preston and Monongalia, the tenth; Hampshire, Mineral, Hardy, Grant and Pendleton, the eleventh; Berkeley, Morgan and Jefferson, the twelfth.

[By the provisions of the reapportionment act of 1937, (Acts 1937, Ch. 128) the number of Senatorial Districts was increased to sixteen, the number of Senators to thirty-two, and the counties rearranged in the various districts.]

[Under the reapportionment act of 1964, Acts, Ch. 1, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964 (Code, Ch. 1, Art. 2), the number of senatorial districts was fixed at seventeen. The County of Kanawha embraces two districts, the eighth and the seventeenth. The other fifty-four counties are arranged into sixteen districts, each consisting of two or more counties.]

Provisions for Delegate Representation

6. For the election of Delegates, every county containing a population of less than three fifths of the ratio of representation for the House of Delegates, shall at each apportionment, be attached to some contiguous county or counties, to form a delegate District.

(By the provisions of the Acts of 1901, Ch. 10, the House of Delegates consisted of eighty-six members, each county having at least one member. From 1916 to 1952, the House of Delegates consisted of ninety-four members. In 1951, the membership was increased to one-hundred members with each county continuing to have at least one member. Under Ch. 1, Acts 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964, the membership was again fixed at one-hundred, but seven delegate districts were established, embracing fifteen counties, and allotted a total of nine delegates.)

After Census, Delegate Apportionment

7. After every census the Delegate shall be apportioned as follows: The ratio of representation for the House of Delegates shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of the State by the number of which the House is to consist and rejecting the fraction of a unit, if any, resulting from such division. Dividing the population of every delegate District, and of every county not included in a Delegate District, by the ratio thus ascertained, there shall be assigned to each a number of Delegates equal to the quotient obtained by this division, excluding the fractional remainder. The additional Delegates necessary to make up the number of which the House is to consist, shall then be assigned to those Delegate Districts, and counties not included in a Delegate District, which would otherwise have the largest fractions unrepresented; but every Delegate District and county not included in a Delegate District, shall be entitled to at least one Delegate.

Designation of Delegate Districts

8. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the counties of Pleasants and Wood shall form the first Delegate District, and elect three Delegates; Ritchie and Calhoun, the second, and elect two Delegates; Barbour, Harrison and Taylor the third, and elect one Delegate; Randolph and Tucker, the fourth, and elect one Delegate; Nicholas, Clay and Webster, the fifth, and elect one Delegate; McDowell and Wyoming, the sixth, and elect one Delegate.

[There are now seven Delegate Districts, each county having at least one member.]

Further Apportionments

9. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the apportionment of Delegates to the counties not included in Delegate Districts, and to Barbour, Harrison and Taylor counties, embraced in such district, shall be as follows:

To Barbour, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Doddridge, Fayette, Hampshire, Hancock, Jackson, Lewis, Logan, Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer, Mineral, Morgan, Grant, Hardy, Lincoln, Pendleton, Putnam, Roane, Gilmer, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Wetzel, Wirt, Pocahontas, Summers and Raleigh counties one Delegate each.

To Berkeley, Harrison, Jefferson, Marion, Marshall, Mason, Monongalia and Preston counties, two Delegates each.

To Kanawha County, three Delegates.

To Ohio County, four Delegates.

[Many changes have been made in this apportionment. Kanawha County, the largest in population, now has fourteen delegates. For the present apportionment, see Chapter 1, Acts of the Legislature, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964.]

Arrangement of Senatorial and Delegate Districts

10. The arrangement of the Senatorial and Delegate Districts, and apportionment of Delegates, shall hereafter be declared by law, as soon as possible after each succeeding census taken by authority of the United States. When so declared they shall apply to the first general election for members of the Legislature, to be thereafter held, and shall continue in force unchanged, until such Districts shall be altered, and Delegates apportioned, under the succeeding census.

Additional Territory May Be Admitted Into State

11. Additional territory may be admitted into, and become part of the State, with the consent of the Legislature and a majority of the qualified voters of the State, voting on the question. And in such case provision shall be made by law for the representation thereof in the Senate and House of Delegates, in conformity with the principles set forth in this Constitution. And the number of members of which each house of the Legislature is to consist, shall thereafter be increased by the representation assigned to such additional territory.

Nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he shall have been elected.

Oath of Senators and Delegates

16. Members of the Legislature, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Delegate) according to the best of my ability"; and they shall also take this further oath, to wit: "I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, from any corporation, company, or person for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Senator (or Delegate), on any bill, resolution, or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Senator (or Delegate)." These oaths shall be administered in the hall of the house to which the member is elected, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or of a Circuit Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer an oath; and the Secretary of State shall record and file said oaths subscribed by each member; and no other oath or declaration shall be required as a qualification. Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this State.

Length of Legislative Session

22. The regular session of the Legislature held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and every second year thereafter shall not exceed sixty days, and the regular session held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-six and every second year thereafter shall not exceed thirty days. All regular sessions may be extended by the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house.

51. The Legislature shall not appropriate any money out of the treasury except in accordance with the following provisions:

Sub-Section A

Every appropriation bill shall be either a budget bill, or a supplementary appropriation bill, as hereinafter mentioned.

Sub-Section B

First: Within ten days after the convening of the Legislature, unless such time shall be extended by the Legislature for the sessions at which the budget is to be submitted, the board of public works, which shall consist of the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Superintendent of Free Schools and Commissioner of Agriculture, shall submit to the Legislature, *two budgets, one for each of the ensuing fiscal years: Each budget shall contain a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the particular fiscal year to which it relates; and shall show the estimated surplus or deficit of revenues at the end of such year. Accompanying each budget shall be a statement showing: (1) The revenues and expenditures for each of the two fiscal years next preceding; (2) the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State; (3) the debts and funds of the State; (4) an estimate of the State's financial condition as of the beginning and end of each of the fiscal years covered by the two budgets above provided; (5) any explanation the board of public works may desire to make as to the important features of any budget and any suggestion as to methods for the reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

Second: Each budget shall be divided into two parts, and the first part shall be designated "Governmental Appropriations" and shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations: (1) For the Legislature as certified to the board of public works in the manner hereinafter provided; (2) for the executive department; (3) for the judiciary department, as provided by law, certified to the Governor by the Auditor; (4) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of any debt of the State of West Virginia hereafter created in conformity with the Constitution and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (5) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (6) for the aid of public schools in conformity with the laws of the State; (7) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution and laws made in pursuance thereof.

Third: The second part shall be designated "General Appropriations", and shall include all other estimates of appropriations.

The board of public works shall deliver to the presiding officer of each house the budgets and a bill for all the proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each house shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The board of public works may, before final action thereon by the Legislature, amend or supplement either of said budgets to correct an oversight or, in case of an emergency, with the consent of the Legislature by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officer of both houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said budget bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

The Legislature shall not amend the budget bill so as to create a deficit but may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the Legislature, and by increasing the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein: Provided, however, That the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office; and such bill when and as passed by both houses shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

*This provision has been modified by the amendment of section eighteen of this article, requiring an annual budget.

Fourth: The Governor and such representatives of the boards, officers and commissions of the State expending or applying for State's money as have been designated by the board of public works for this purpose, shall have the right, and when requested by either house of the Legislature it shall be their duty to appear and be heard with respect to any budget bill during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relative thereto.

Sub-Section C—Supplementary Appropriation Bills

Neither house shall consider other appropriations until the budget bill has been finally acted upon by both houses, and no such other appropriations shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following:

(1) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein, a supplementary appropriation bill; (2) each supplementary appropriation bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made by a tax, direct or indirect, to be laid and collected as shall be directed in said bill unless it appears from such budget that there is sufficient revenue available; (3) no supplementary appropriation bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each house by a vote of a majority of the members present, and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage. Each supplementary appropriation bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in section fourteen of article seven of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said section shall apply.

Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as preventing the Legislature from passing in time of war an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State of West Virginia within the protection of section ten of article one of the Constitution of the United States.

Sub-Section D—General Provisions

First: If the "Budget Bill" shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for such further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill; but no other matter than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

Second: The board of public works for the purpose of making up its budgets shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative officers, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for state monies and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as said board shall direct. The board of public works may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies, and all institutions applying for state monies. After such public hearings it may, in its discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools as provided by law.

Third: The Legislature may, from time to time, enact such laws, not inconsistent with this section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

Fourth: In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this section and any of the other provisions of the Constitutions, except amendments thereto heretofore made and ratified by the people, the provisions of this

[This section—added to Article VI—was authorized to be submitted by Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, adopted May 23, 1917 (Acts 1917, p. 69 ex. sess.) and was ratified by a vote of the people at the general election held on the fifth day of November, 1918, as an amendment to the Constitution known as "The Budget Amendment." section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the Legislature, as provided by section seven of article seven, or as preventing the Legislature at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the bill or of any other item of such bill or bills.

Motor Fuel and Motor Vehicle Revenue

52. Revenue from gasoline and other motor fuel excise and license taxation, motor vehicle registration and license taxes, and all other revenue derived from motor vehicles or motor fuels shall after the deduction of statutory refunds and cost of administration and collection authorized by legislative appropriation, be appropriated and used solely for construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways, and also the payment of the interest and principal on all road bonds heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of public highways, and the payment of obligations incurred in the construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways.

53. The Legislature may by general law define and classify forest lands and provide for cooperation by contract between the State and the owner in the planting, protection, and harvesting thereof. Forest lands embraced in any such contract may be exempted from all taxation or be taxed in such manner, including the imposition of a severance tax or charge as trees are harvested, as the Legislature may from time to time provide. But any tax measured by valuation shall not exceed the aggregate rates authorized by section one of article ten of this Constitution.

The person having the highest number of votes for either of said offices, shall be declared duly elected thereto; but if two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the Legislature shall, by joint vote, choose one of such persons for said office. Contested elections for the office of Governor shall be determined by both houses of the Legislature by joint vote in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by Joint Resolution of February 15, 1901 (Acts 1901, p. 460), and ratified at the general election in 1902. The effect of the amendment was to strike out the following at the end of the original section: "The Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall continue in office, unless sooner removed, until the expiration of the official term of the Governor by whom he shall have been appointed." For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2.]

8. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays), appoint all officers whose offices are established by this Constitution, or shall be created by law, and whose appointment or election is not otherwise provided for; and no such officer shall be appointed or elected by the Legislature.

Recess Vacancies—How Filled

In case of a vacancy, during the recess of the Senate, in any office which is not elective, the Governor shall, by appointment, fill such vacancy, until the next meeting of the Senate, when he shall make a nomination for such office and the person so nominated, when confirmed by the Senate, (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays) shall hold his office during the remainder of the term, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person, after being rejected by the Senate, shall be again nominated for the same office, during the same session, unless at the request of the Senate; nor shall such person be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Senate.

How Bills Become Laws

14. Every bill passed by the Legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approves, he shall sign it, and thereupon it shall become a law; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such consideration, a majority of the members elected to that house agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other house, by which it shall likewise, be reconsidered, and if approved by a majority of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. But in all such cases, the vote of each house shall be determined by yeas and nays to be entered on the journal. Any bill which shall not be returned by the Governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed with his objections in the office of the Secretary of State, within five days after such adjournment, or become a law.

Any item or items so disapproved shall be void, unless re-passed by a majority of each house according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the preceding section in reference to other bills.

Vacancy in Governorship, How Filled

In case of the death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, or other disability of the Governor, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the President of the Senate, for any of the above named causes, shall become incapable of performing the duties of Governor, the same shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Delegates; and in all other cases where there is no one to act as Governor, one shall be chosen by joint vote of the Legislature. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Governor before the first three years of the term shall have expired, a new election for Governor shall take place to fill the vacancy.

Vacancies in Other Executive Departments

17. If the office of Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture or Attorney General shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them, respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation; and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation, and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury."]

In the first amendment of this section, proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts, Regular Session, 1901, p. 460) and ratified at the general election 1902, the only change in the original section was the insertion of the words "Secretary of State" in the first line, and by substitution of the word "prescribed" for the word "provided" in the eighth line.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 (Acts, Regular Session, 1957, p. 837), and ratified at the general election November 4, 1958, the section was again amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 230,879; Against ratification, 206,201; Majority, 24,678.]

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution adopted February 13, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 459, and ratified at the general election in 1902. This section, prior to amendment read as follows: "The Governor shall receive for his services a salary of twenty-seven hundred dollars per annum and no additional emolument, allowance or perquisite shall be paid or made to him, on any account. Any person acting as Governor shall receive the emoluments of that office. The Secretary of State shall receive one thousand; the State Superintendent of Free Schools, fifteen hundred; the Treasurer, fourteen hundred; the Auditor, two thousand, and the Attorney General, thirteen hundred dollars per annum; and no additional emolument or allowance, except as herein otherwise provided shall be paid or made out of the treasury of the State to any of the foregoing executive officers on any account."

Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 56,280; Against ratification, 23,513; Majority, 32,767.]

U. S. ARMY ENGINEER DISTRICT, HUNTINGTON CORPS OF ENGINEERS

502 Eighth Street, Huntington, West Virginia 25721

Congress has delegated to the Corps of Engineers responsibility for the development, construction, operation and maintenance of navigation facilities, flood control structures, and related improvements.

The Civil Works Program of the Corps of Engineers is divided on the basis of watershed drainage areas. The Ohio River drainage basin includes all of West Virginia except the eastern Panhandle, which is in the Potomac River Basin. The Huntington District of the Ohio River Division encompasses that part of the Ohio River Basin in West Virginia downstream from New Martinsville in Wetzel County. The Pittsburgh District encompasses the upstream remainder of the Ohio River Basin including the Basin of the Monongahela River. The Potomac River Basin is included in the Baltimore District of the North Atlantic Division.

Responsibility for military construction in the entire State of West Virginia rests with the U.S. Army Engineer District, Louisville, Kentucky, Corps of Engineers.

Extension of the Ohio River navigation system in West Virginia presently includes three high lift dams on the Kanawha River and four navigation structures on the Monongahela River. Operation of the navigation structures on Little Kanawha and Big Sandy Rivers for commercial navigation has been discontinued. Navigation is not a feature of the Potomac River located in West Virginia.

Improvement of the navigation facilities includes construction of modern high lift structures to replace existing obsolete dams. On the Ohio River five of these structures are complete. Greenup Locks and Dam, Greenup, Kentucky, replaced Locks and Dams 27 and 28 in West Virginia, 29 and 30 in Kentucky. New Cumberland Locks and Dam, New Cumberland, West Virginia, replaced Locks and Dams 7, 8 and 9 in West Virginia. Pike Island Locks and Dam, Wheeling, replaced Locks and Dams 10 and 11 in West Virginia. Others completed are Markland Locks and Dam, Markland, Indiana, and Captain Anthony Meldahl Locks and Dam, Chilo, Ohio. Other navigation structures now under construction on the Ohio River in West Virginia are: Belleville Locks and Dam, Belleville, West Virginia, which will replace Locks and Dams 18, 19 and 20; Racine Locks and Dam, Letart, West Virginia, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 21, 22 and 23; Hannibal Locks and Dam, New Martinsville, West Virginia, which replaces Locks and Dams 12, 13 and 14; and Willow Island Locks and Dam, Waverly, West Virginia, which will replace Locks and Dams 15, 16 and 17. West Virginia will benefit from the construction of these modern navigation improvements on the Ohio River.

Modernization of the obsolescent Monongahela River navigation structures in the upper reaches of the waterway is also currently in progress. Hildebrand Lock and Dam and modification of Dam 8 have been completed. Those navigation structures now under construction on the Monongahela River are: Opekiska Lock and Dam, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 14 and 15 and Maxwell Locks and Dam, which, when integrated with reconstruction of Dam 4, will replace Locks and Dams 5 and 6.

Flood control reservoirs within the State constructed by the Corps of Engineers are Bluestone Reservoir on New River, near Hinton; Sutton Reservoir on Elk River near Sutton; Tygart Reservoir on Tygart River near Grafton; and Summersville Reservoir on Gauley River near Summersville. East Lynn Reservoir on Twelvepole Creek near East Lynn is under construction. Other reservoirs in the design stage are: Beech Fork on Twelvepole Creek; Burnsville on Little Kanawha River; and R. D. Bailey (formerly Justice) on Guyandot River.

Local protection projects completed by the Corps of Engineers in West Virginia are located at Parkersburg, Point Pleasant, Huntington, Ceredo-Kenova, Ridgeley, W. Va.-Cumberland, Md. (one project) and Elkins, and Williamson. Channel improvement projects have been completed on Brush Creek at Princeton, West Virginia, and on Meadow River at East Rainelle. Several completed snagging and clearing channel improvement projects have reduced or alleviated flood damage along the smaller tributaries of the main rivers within the State.

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

United States Marine Corps activities in West Virginia include two organized reserve companies with a total authorized strength of 204 officers and men, and a regular Marine Corps recruiting station in South Charleston with sub-Offices located in six major West Virginia cities; Bristol, Virginia and Pikeville, Kentucky.

All of the state's present Marine reserve units were organized during and after the Korean conflict. There were two Marine Reserve companies in the state prior to Korea. Both were activated after hostilities broke out there in June 1950.

Each reserve unit has a staff of regular Marine officers and enlisted men to instruct, support and advise. This staff is called the Inspector-Instructor staff.

Marine reserve units are an active part in any community. They are always ready for parades, color guards, funeral details, and other civic functions where military personnel can be of service.

The annual "Toys for Tots" campaign is one of the proudest achievements of each Reserve unit. The Marine reserves collect, repair and distribute toys to thousands of children in West Virginia, and the total for the nation last year was in excess of 5,000,000 toys.

A breakdown of the state's Marine reserve companies and recruiting station is as follows:

The Federal Reformatory for Women is situated in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains in Summers and Monroe Counties. It was established by Act of Congress June 7, 1924, and the buildings and grounds have a value in excess of $2,000,000. It was designed to take care of all women Federal sentenced prisoners in the United States and the insular possessions and has a capacity of 600. There are fifteen buildings housing inmates, two separate housing units for youth and juvenile offenders, a hospital, administration building, a garment factory, laundry, vocational shops building, school building, chapel and auditorium, storehouse, and shops. The Enabling Act specified that each inmate should be given training that would fit her to be self-supporting on her return to society, and the entire program of the institution is based upon this plan for rehabilitation. An intelligent and sincere attempt is made to supplant the old-time theory of punishment with a program geared to changing attitude and creating new and constructive goals. Classification and casework are highly developed to provide for adequate training within the institution and proper placement in jobs after release.

Office of Executive Secretary, Room 615, State Office Building

112 California Avenue, Charleston 25305

The Governor's Committee is affiliated with the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, and promotes programs in the interest of handicapped persons seeking employment opportunities within the state.

Federal, State and private agencies, whose activities are coordinated in serving handicapped persons and disabled veterans, cooperate fully in effecting programs such as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week." High School Research Contests (pertaining to the handicapped); Award of Merit and Outstanding Service; Physician's awards; Handicapped Employer Awards; high school poster contests; and community planning for handicapped groups.

Participating actively are the following agencies: Veterans Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs, organized labor, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Department Employment Security, State Executive Department, veterans organizations, and the Veterans Employment Service.

The Committee Chairman serves at the will and pleasure of the Governor. Individual members recommended by local community committees are either reappointed or newly appointed each year by the Chief Executive.

Members of the West Virginia Committee represent Federal, State and Municipal government, industry, labor, civic, veterans, fraternal, medical, ministerial, women, and other groups throughout the state.

The committee is a non-dues paying organization and at times when finances are necessary for contest prizes the required amounts are secured from generous employers who have been responsible for so many successful programs.

Congress has determined that the first full week in each October shall be observed as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" throughout the Nation. This week's observance is intended to be a reminder to those employers who remain reluctant in employing handicapped workers. National, state and local media of press, radio and television have carried the message of the handicapped in an excellent coverage of the various programs.

*Superintendent: William T. Flanagan. Financial Secretary: Opal Flanagan.
Children: 67.*

The West Virginia Children's Home, located in Elkins, was established by an act of the Legislature in 1899 and formally opened in 1911. In 1935 an additional unit was built to the two-story brick structure located on the 20-acre tract of land, located on Heavner Avenue. The purpose of the Home is to provide for orphan and neglected children, between the ages of 6 to 14 years, although they can remain here until they are 21 years of age. Children are admitted to the Home either by a Court order or the Department of Public Assistance to be kept, maintained, educated and trained until they can return to their former homes or placed in foster homes. In addition to the 20 acres of the Home campus, the institution owns 10 acres of farm land located on Leading Creek and 117 acres known as the Darby Memorial Farm, situated at the head of Woolwine Hollow. This acreage furnishes vegetables and grazing for beef cattle and grain for hogs. There are 30 head of cattle and 42 head of hogs, on the Home's farm. At the present time a two-room school is operated on the Home Campus by the Board of Education where the children attend until they complete the 7th grade, after which they complete their education in the Junior and Senior High Schools in the city of Elkins. The Home provides all school supplies and other educational aids in keeping with the best educational standards. Religious training is provided by the local churches, and the children attend Church and Sunday School of their choice. The Home provides a group singing once a week for all the children. They also take part in the various Youth activities provided by the local churches. The Home Campus is provided with modern playground equipment, including an open air swimming pool.

COLIN ANDERSON CENTERSt. Marys

*Acting Superintendent: E. E. Mazon, M.D. Business Manager: W. J. Murphy.
Total Number of Patients: 544.*

The Colin Anderson Center is located four miles north of St. Marys, on State Route 2, in Pleasants County. It was established in 1921, by an act of the Legislature, as the West Virginia Training School. A 1965 Legislative act changed the name of the institution to the Colin Anderson Center, in honor of the late Dr. Anderson, who served as Superintendent, with dedication and devotion, from 1958 until his death in 1964.

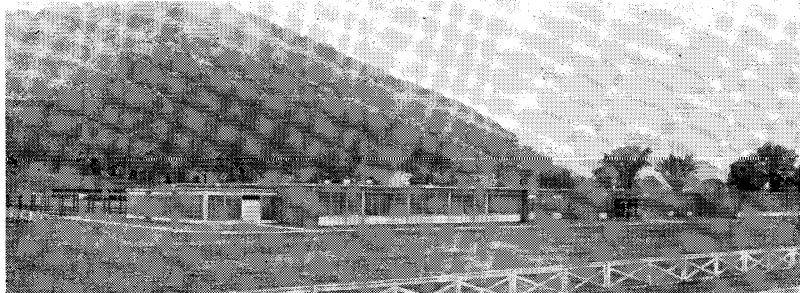

The property consists of 694 acres, part of which is under cultivation. A dairy herd is maintained and provides the hospital with an abundant supply of high grade milk, processed in a modern pasteurization plant, fully approved by the State Board of Health.

The Center is operated for the purpose of providing complete care for mentally deficient and retarded children. The aims of the Center are to promote happiness, self-reliance, socialization, vocational training, and to attempt to equip those children who are able to return to community life.

Medical and dental care is offered, along with classes of an educational and vocational nature. Occupational therapy classes are planned to develop potential skills, and are graded and diversified in an endeavor to reveal any latent abilities. A Vocational Rehabilitation Unit was established at the Center in January 1965. Children are also accepted for training courses at the Rehabilitation Center at Institute. It is recognized that some children are unable to benefit from a training program, and for these, custodial care is provided, always with a view to increasing their comfort and safety, as well as promoting some degree of self-care and independence.

A large recreation hall provides facilities for indoor games and has a stage for the presentation of the children's programs and for programs given by community groups. Three school buses are available to take the children to outside community activities. In 1964 a charter was granted for a Boy Scout Troop and the organization of a Girl Scout Troop is now in the planning stages. In use during the summer months are a swimming pool 60' x 30' and a wading pool 75' x 45' for the smaller children. Supervised outdoor playground activities are available and there is a picnic area and day camp with tables and other facilities.

Located on the grounds are: an Administration and Ancillary Services Building, which includes a Beauty Shop and a Barber Shop; two Cottage Wards; a large Dormitory building; a Staff Apartment Building; a modern laundry; and a Crib Ward Building. The Crib Ward opened in June 1964, and has 200 beds divided into ten and twenty bed wards. It is air conditioned and has two solararia which have solar glass to filter out ultra violet light. This building contains x-ray, electrocardiograph and electroencephalogram departments, a dental unit and laboratory. There are also two infirmaries of ten beds each; examination and treatment rooms; and physiotherapy department. The Center has a staff of 367.

A large four-temperature storage building was completed in 1953. The Home also has its own clinic.

The girls receive standard elementary and accredited first class high school training in the very fine and well planned school program. Classes are offered from the first grade through the twelfth grade. The school is under the close supervision of the State Department of Education. WEST VIRGINIA INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYSGrafton

Superintendent: James W. Facemire. Assistant Superintendent: Chas. N. Taylor. Business Manager: H. E. Ferrell. Enrollment: 277.

The West Virginia Industrial School for Boys is located at Pruntytown, three miles west of Grafton on U. S. Route 50. It was established by an Act of the Legislature in 1889 and formally opened July 21, 1891. In addition to the principal buildings, which are located on the main campus consisting of approximately 55 acres, the school owns and operates a farm of approximately 1,900 acres on which are located a considerable number of farm buildings. The boys work on the farm during the farming season at which time emphasis is placed on the training value of such a program, directed toward improving work habits and maintaining discipline standards. For use at the School a dairy herd of registered cows is maintained on the farm and the milk is pasteurized and homogenized in the modern plant of the institution.

The school now has a vocational rehabilitation training program consisting of certified vocational instructors for full time vocational instruction in the fields of industrial arts, auto mechanics, welding and electricity. As funds become available, this highly important phase of the program is to be expanded. In addition to this, there are training units in shoe repairing and baking. The school also maintains the following units in which the boys receive a certain amount of training. Painting, plumbing, printing, laundering, woodwork, canning, auto mechanics and carpentry. The academic school is operated on approved state standards and contains grades one through ten. In compliance with the state law, those under sixteen years of age are required to attend academic school for a term of nine months each year. A Social Service Department classifies each boy upon his reception, presents him for parole and/or discharge at the proper time and maintains liaison between County and State Authorities. In most instances, the boys are placed in cottages according to their age or size or both. An Honor System has been established as a stimulant to good behavior and achievement for the boys and it is working well. A Drum and Bugle Corps, consisting of approximately 40 boys, is in operation and appears at many parades and festivals throughout the year, and there is now an active Boy Scout Troop. A full-time Chaplain, especially trained for this work, offers classes in religious education in the academic school and holds weekly religious services for the boys, and carries on a program of counseling and guidance.

BERKELEY SPRINGS SANITARIUM

Berkeley Springs

Superintendent: Henry C. Lawyer.

Berkeley Springs Sanitarium is located in the City of Berkeley Springs. It offers baths and swimming pools which utilize the warm and medicinal waters of Berkeley Springs. Histories of colonists mentioned the qualities of the water as early as 1736, and prior to that, American Indians, who were subject to rheumatism knew of its medicinal qualities and called it the "healing waters." It was the first health and pleasure resort in the colonies. The temperature of the spring water is 74.3 degrees and is invariable, and is helpful in the treatment of rheumatism, gout, diabetes, and skin diseases. The springs have been expanded to include a modern open air swimming pool with modern dressing facilities and sunbathing, and an additional new bath house which has Roman Baths and all other types of baths for year-round use. The new bath house also has a solarium or sun deck, which is modern and meets present day requirements. The sanitarium has no facilities for housing patients, but for those who visit Berkeley Springs for baths, there are adequate hotel, motel and restaurant facilities.

At no time in the more than two hundred and twenty-five years of resort history, which included patronage of George Washington and Lord Fairfax, were the famous springs so well equipped to treat patients or accommodate the vacationist, as they are today.

Lakin

Superintendent: K. E. Byrne, M.D. Business Manager: Ward F. Webb. Number of patients: 439.

Lakin State Hospital was founded by an act of the Legislature in 1919 and was opened in 1926 for the reception and treatment of Negroes suffering from mental and nervous disorders; however, the staff and patient population have been integrated since 1954. Presently, the institution is the district hospital for Mason, Jackson, Wood and Putnam counties.

The physical lay-out of Lakin State Hospital on the immediate grounds consists of the following: Building A and Building B, both three story brick structures which houses male and female patients respectively. The Treatment Center for Emotionally Disturbed Children is located in Building C, which also has administrative office areas, laboratory and X-ray unit, and central supply. Recently constructed is a new building which houses the kitchen, dining area for patients, offices for ancillary personnel, library, canteen, conference room, etc. In addition, there are, on the immediate hospital grounds, five frame reconditioned structures in which certain allied functions of the hospital such as laundry, recreation, and work shops are conducted.

In 1957 the former Boys' Industrial School was acquired by Lakin State Hospital. The main building and the dwelling houses have been converted into apartments for employees, farm and mechanical shops. The spacious gymnasium now being renovated is used for both patient therapy and employee recreational activities. The Lakin Post Office is also located on these grounds.

The hospital is a member of the Mental Hospital Institute of the American Psychiatric Association and in 1952 received its gold medal for achievement—which is a national award. For eleven years, a Psychiatric Aide of the Year was cited for excellency in the care of mentally ill patients. This, too, was a national recognition by the American Psychiatric Association, until its discontinuance in 1963.

A rehabilitation center is located on the hospital grounds in what was formerly the male employees' dormitory. In this building are the remedial and special education classrooms, beauty parlor, homemaking unit, manual arts shop and offices for related personnel.

Most of the accepted methods of diagnosis and treatment are utilized including clinical observation, social service, psychological testing, neurological and electroencephalography as indicated, occupational therapy, music therapy, recreational therapy, psychotherapy, educational therapy, and vocational rehabilitation, in addition to full utilization of the tranquilizing drugs, in an effort to maintain the institution as a treatment hospital rather than an institution for custodial care.

PINECREST SANITARIUM(Tuberculosis)*Beckley

Superintendent: H. S. Edwards, M.D. Business Manager: Roy J. Virden.

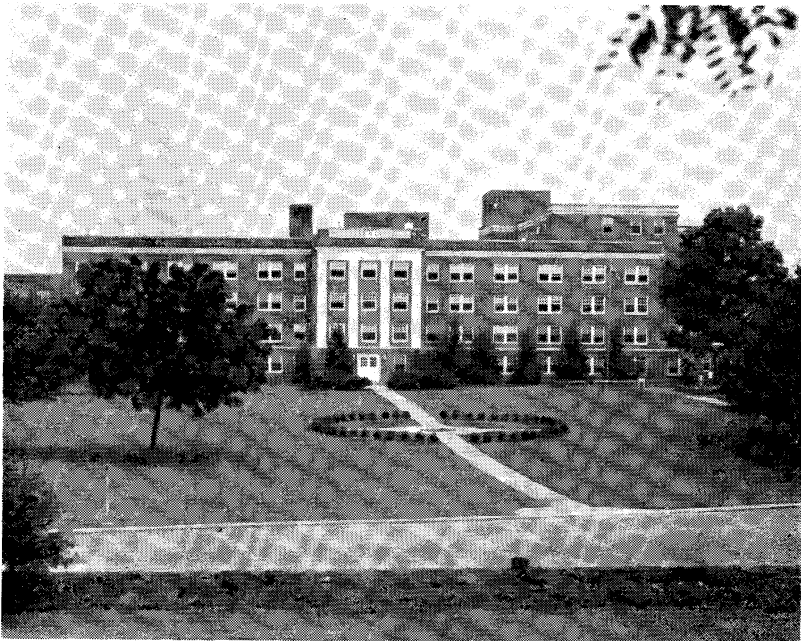

Pinecrest Sanitarium, located in Raleigh County at Beckley, was authorized by an act of the Legislature in 1927 and formally opened March 18, 1930. At that time the sanitarium was known as Rutherford Sanitarium but at the session of the 1934 Legislature was changed to Pinecrest Sanitarium.

Pinecrest Sanitarium is located just outside the city limits of Beckley on Federal Routes 19-21 and State Highways 3-41 with thirty-minute bus service connecting with the city and the Atlantic Greyhound bus lines, also with the C. & O. Railway in Beckley and Prince.

The sanitarium has a fifty-acre campus, and a 250-acre farm, which is modernly equipped for farming, and a dairy herd of 95 Holstein cows supplying milk for the institution, also a large number of hogs supply pork and pork products, all consumed by the institution. Pinecrest Sanitarium is composed of four modern fireproof units all connected under one roof, with 621 beds for patients, a modern fireproof nurses' home, five modern dwellings for staff physicians, seven cottages for employees, a central heating plant, dairy barn, hog barn, laundry and numerous outside buildings.

Patients admitted to Pinecrest Sanitarium are assigned to individual physicians who carry out therapeutic procedures that are recommended by the entire staff. In this manner, the patient is given the benefit of consultation by the entire medical staff. The Pinecrest staff is composed of a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Thoracic Surgeon, six full-time physicians, two X-ray technicians and two laboratory technicians, with ample office employees.

The ambulatory patients have the privilege of being entertained in the modern auditorium by moving pictures and plays produced by local talent. The Sanitarium is modern in every respect, with the most modern equipment available for the treatment of tuberculosis, both surgical and medical. A recreational director and trained medical social workers are employed full-time. The Sanitarium has the services of a full-time Chaplain and assistant.

SPENCER STATE HOSPITAL(Mental)*Spencer

Acting Superintendent: Leslie J. Borbely, M.D. Business Manager: Victor N. Goldberg.

The Spencer State Hospital is located in the city of Spencer, Roane County. It was authorized by an act of the Legislature in May 1887 and formally opened in 1893.

The hospital proper is located on a tract of land comprised of 180 acres, a portion of which is devoted to a large dairy farm which provides a constant supply of fresh milk for the hospital. The farm also supports a large number of hogs which supplies pork and pork products for the use of the institution. An additional 295 acres is located about two miles from the hospital in an area known as Trotter Lake and it serves as a recreational area for the patients as well as a water shed for a dam that impounds approximately 25,000,000 gallons of water.

The hospital's bed capacity is 1,030 and the population averages around 1,000 patients. The hospital staff is composed of eight physicians, all of whom have had at least five years experience and special training courses in psychiatry. There is a very active and well trained social service department and an active nursing staff which includes seven registered nurses and two practical nurses. The hospital also provides dental treatment and has a modern high speed dental unit. The physically ill are treated in a separate medical department with the newest methods available. Electrocardiogram, laboratory and modern X-ray unit helps in the treatment and diagnoses of these patients.

The Spencer State Hospital adopted the open door policy and at the present time 76% of our patients reside on open wards. There are no mechanical restraints employed at the hospital. All forms of psychiatric treatment, such as psychotherapy, electro-convulsive therapy, chemotherapy and an active occupational and recreational therapies are utilized at the hospital. A new program, a class in remotivation for patients, has been in effect for a year which has added a great deal to the hospital's therapeutic success.

The hospital serves eight counties (Pleasants, Wirt, Calhoun, Roane, Clay, Kanawha, Fayette and Boone) which have a total population of approximately 400,000. In addition to the legally committed patients, the hospital also admits persons who make a voluntary application for admission.

The hospital is indebted to volunteer groups made up of citizens from Roane County and the City of Spencer, who have greatly assisted in the expansion of the Occupational Therapy and Recreational Programs.

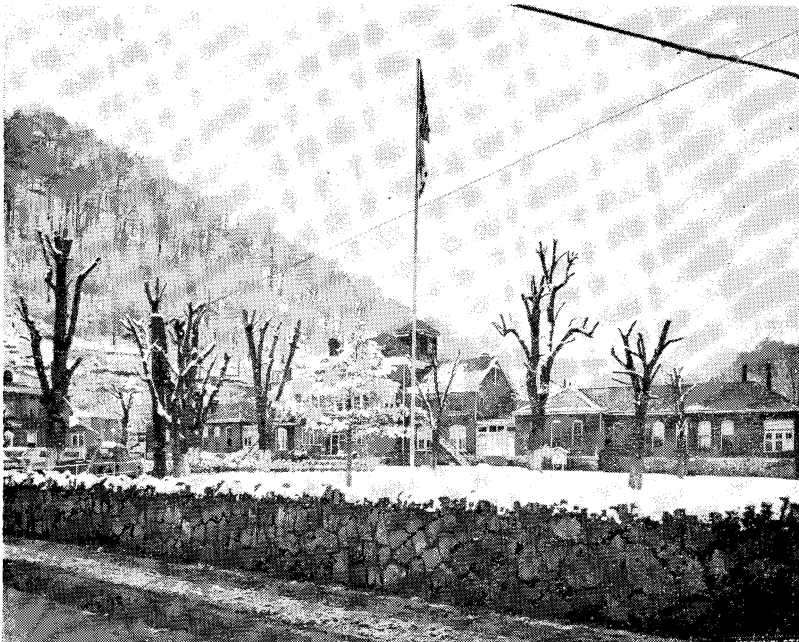

In January 1964, a special program was initiated at this institution which incorporates the concept of group orientation in a comprehensive intensive alcohol treatment unit. A trained team consisting of members representing all disciplines, at all levels, from a psychiatrist who is the director and active participant, to and including psychiatric aides, constitutes the therapeutic community principle with regard to the leadership personnel. The patient becomes a member of a group, each of whom interact freely on a very personal basis with one another, which helps to develop interpersonal skills in meaningful communication. This unit is the first of its kind to operate in the State of West Virginia. Since January, 1965, this unit has been strengthened by additional personnel provided by funds supplied by a Federal Hospital Improvement Project Grant amounting to over $350,000.00 over a four year period.

The application of above mentioned principles of social psychiatry to an overall treatment program throughout the hospital because of the eminent success with alcoholics is now envisioned. An adaptation to this approach was developed for regressed patients three months ago. A similar program for emotionally disturbed children and most of our patients at the time of admission is being activated. Our chief purpose being shorter stay in hospital, more intensive treatment, prevention of regression, further upgrading of patients and ultimate reduction of overcrowding.

WELCH EMERGENCY HOSPITAL(Surgical)WelchSuperintendent: Dr. Jorge Ribeiro, M.D.

Welch Emergency Hospital, located in the City of Welch, was established in 1899 on a three-acre tract given to the State by J. J. Sperry for this purpose. At that time was the only hospital in the city. Now it takes care of a large part of surgical and obstetrical cases of Southern West Virginia the load increasing progressively every month.

In the past year nurse stations were placed on the first floor. A complete remodeling of dining room and kitchen has been completed and also application of a sprinkler system as required by fire regulations. The operating room is being remodeled at present, including central air conditioning system.

WESTON STATE HOSPITAL

(Mental)

Weston

Superintendent: Cornelia B. Wilbur, M.D. Business Manager: Charles L. Lamb.
Patients: 2,220.

The Weston State Hospital is located in the City of Weston. It is the oldest state institution in West Virginia, authorized on March 22, 1858, by an act of the Virginia Assembly. There was considerable delay in the construction of the hospital due to the Civil War, and the first patients were received on October 22, 1864. The hospital has grown from an initial capacity of 35 patients to 1,600.

The hospital is maintained and equipped to provide adequate treatment for all types of mental and nervous illness, both voluntarily and court committed. The hospital plant includes specially constructed buildings to take care of all criminally insane in the State, mentally ill tubercular patients, and two geriatric buildings for men and women. A section of the male wards is designated as the West Virginia Soldiers' Home and is administered by the hospital medical staff. All war veterans are admitted here for treatment. The hospital is equipped to provide various types of treatment, including psychotherapy, occupational and recreational therapies and electro-shock therapy. The facilities consist of a laboratory, x-ray, social services, pathology department, psychology department and an In-service Training Program for the psychiatric aides.

There is a Vocational Rehabilitation Center on the grounds and a Half-Way House for the training and rehabilitation of the mentally ill.

The hospital has 615 employees including 11 physicians, a dentist, 13 registered nurses, a registered dietician, a chiropodist, beautician and barber. A consulting staff of local physicians help provide additional services to the patients.

A registered herd of Holstein cows is maintained, thus providing the hospital with an adequate supply of high grade milk, processed in a modern, pasteurized plant fully approved by the State Board of Health. A coal mine at the Western end of the farm operated by the Hospital furnishes coal for the four boilers in the power plant which supplies the heating, hot water and steam requirements for the Institution.

The building and outlying farms occupy some 600 acres of land in Lewis County. The hospital grounds are large and spacious with many shade trees and provide excellent recreational facilities for the patients.

WEST VIRGINIA REHABILITATION CENTER AND WORKSHOP

Institute

William G. Winchell, Administrator. William R. Phelps, Assistant Administrator.

The West Virginia Rehabilitation Center is a facility designed to prepare physically and mentally disabled adults for employment and is an integral part of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. The Center is located 3.5 miles west of Charleston on West Virginia Route 25 at Institute. Its thirty-five acre campus adjoins that of West Virginia State College. It was first established in 1955 in buildings formerly occupied by the West Virginia School for the Negro Deaf and Blind. The original buildings, made available to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation upon integration of the state's two schools for the deaf and blind, have been extensively altered and improved to make them suitable for use by disabled of all types. As presently constituted, the Center is housed in 11—several interlocking—fireproof brick buildings with covered walkways.

The Center is multidisability, accepting all types of handicapped clients as long as there is reasonable assurance of eventual return to employment. A sixty bed nursing unit makes it possible to accept the paraplegic, quadriplegic, and hemiplegic who in the early stages of rehabilitation require help with activities of daily living. Through intensive physical therapy and self-help training, such individuals are able to progress to the point where living in a dormitory and engagement in vocational training is possible.

In addition to the sixty bed nursing unit, the Center can house 279 clients in pleasant, attractive dormitories. This gives a total resident capacity of 339. Alterations now underway on the women's dormitory will increase this capacity by 50 to 389.

In the development of the Center, it was anticipated that a considerable number of disabled living in the adjacent communities of Dunbar, Nitro, St. Albans, and Charleston would be served on an out-patient or commuter basis. A capacity for service was, therefore, established considerably above that for residency. Service capacity now stands at 415 and with alterations now underway which will not only make it possible to serve 500 clients or more, but to provide a wider range of service.

Services provided to the disabled by the Center are designed to improve employment capabilities of the disabled. These may be grouped into four major classifications.

Vocational evaluation includes an assessment of medical, psychological, social, and vocational factors affecting ability to obtain and hold employment. It is accomplished during a two to four week period of residence at the Center. Medical evidence attesting to the nature of the disability is required as a part of the pre-admission workup. This is supplemented by examination by the Center Medical Director and by consultants in orthopedics, psychiatry, neurology, ophthalmology, and internal medicine where indicated.

Center staff psychologists evaluate information accompanying client on admission and does such additional psychological studies as indicated. Highly trained social workers make an assessment through interviews and group work techniques of the social factors influencing the client's potential for work. Vocational counselors provide information about job requirements and assist the client in matching his capabilities to requirements of jobs.

Information from all these sources is correlated and compared in weekly staff meetings. As a result of sharing of information in these staff meetings, additional techniques may be suggested to gain added insight into the client's potentiality. These may include assignment to work evaluation unit for job sample testing, job tryout in training programs of the Center and in business concerns within the community, and extended periods of prevocational training either in special classes or in the Sheltered Workshop.

Vocational training offered at the Center is designed to meet the needs of disabled persons with a minimum of duplication of training offered in public vocational schools or private colleges. Courses are intensive and practical, designed to enable the client to qualify for entry into positions in vocational fields in as short a time as practical. Remedial education programs are offered to assist the individual having added handicaps of poor reading or computational ability.

Formally organized courses are offered in: stenography, junior accounting, clerk-typist, PBX operation, transcription, sewing, upholstery, electrical appliance repair, radio-TV service, auto mechanics, auto body repair, service station attendant, drafting, horticulture, and nurse aides. On-the-job training is provided in building maintenance, janitorial service, maid work, cooking and baking, and kitchen helper. Courses vary from four months to a year or more in length of time.

Rehabilitation treatment is the term applied to a variety of services designed to distinguish these from purely medical treatment. It includes: (1) nursing unit service to improve self-care capability; (2) physical and occupational therapy to improve the level of functioning; (3) pre-prosthetic therapy, limb fitting, and training in the use of the appliance after fitting; and (4) speech and auditory training.

Sheltered employment—a sheltered workshop with a staff of eleven, a potential for employment of 100 disabled individuals is the fourth major service. The workshop provides reality testing of the individual's capacity to adjust to work situations. The workshop aids in the development of appropriate work habits and work tolerance. Contracts are negotiated in competition with private industry and rigid cost accounting of production is done to insure that all possible costs of providing work experience are covered. The major objective, however, is provision of work experience to disabled workers rather than monetary profit.

Services are provided by a staff of 130 professional and lay persons. The 1966 operating budget was over $1.1 million.

The major source of referral for Center services is the agency's network of five district and thirteen branch offices. Direct referrals are accepted from Workman's Compensation, Veterans' Administration, Crippled Children's Division, and a limited number of private paying cases. A very limited number of referrals are accepted from the vocational rehabilitation agencies of adjoining states.

REHABILITATION HOUSES

Huntington

The West Virginia Division of Vocational Rehabilitation operates two Rehabilitation Houses in a quiet residential section of Huntington for the benefit of discharged mental patients. The homes—which are often referred to as “Halfway Houses”—are intended to ease the abrupt transition between the state mental institution and the patient’s home community. Only patients who have previously been treated at a state mental institution are eligible to receive services from the two homes.

Since the houses were established in 1960, 224 patients have received services and only 44 had to be readmitted to hospitals.

Both houses are three-story brick homes—nicely furnished with attractive surroundings. The House for Women can accommodate twelve residents and two houseparents. The House for Men has a capacity of 15, including houseparents.

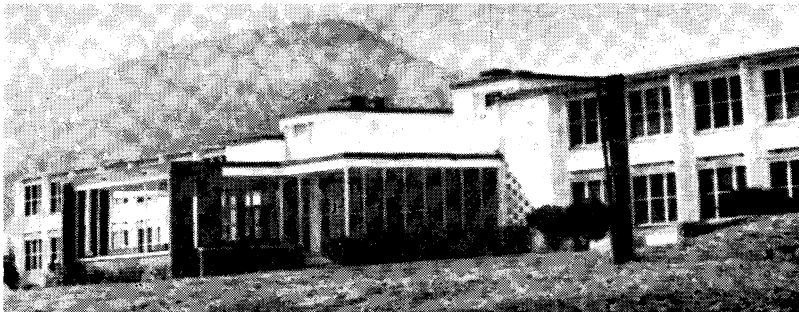

All of the patients who are sent to the houses are assigned household duties and are encouraged to accept gainful employment in the community. Home-cooked meals and an active recreation program, both within the houses and the community, help to make life pleasant for the former patients. All are on self-medication and are visited once each week by a physician from Huntington State Hospital.

Vocational training or re-training is provided to those who show a need for it. This may be offered through the State Rehabilitation Center, local trade schools, colleges, or through local business firms which are willing to provide on-the-job instruction. Successful job placement of the Rehabilitation House resident is the ultimate goal of all rehabilitation efforts. This is probably the biggest step for the ex-patient in his return to community living.

Weston

In January of 1966 the Division dedicated a Rehabilitation House at Weston State Hospital. The House with a capacity of 48 is located on the grounds of the hospital. The Division made extensive alterations on existing buildings and constructed a greenhouse and apartment to give the Rehabilitation House a pleasant homelike atmosphere.

Since the house began accepting clients, 42 have been through the program. Four clients have been closed rehabilitated, 17 are in employment in the community, and three are in training. Currently, 30 clients are residing in the house.

RANDOLPH

Randolph County was formed from Harrison in 1787 and included all of the present county of Tucker, all of Barbour east of the river, all of Upshur east of Buckhannon River, and a considerable portion of Pocahontas and Webster. It lost territory in 1821 when Pocahontas was formed; again in 1843 when Barbour came into existence, and in 1851 it gave up some of its territory to Upshur and five years later 350 square miles were cut off to form Tucker; and in 1860 Webster took a strip; and after all of these losses Randolph still is the largest county in the State. It was named for Edmund Jennings Randolph, Governor of Virginia 1786-1788. The white man's home on the waters of the Monongahela, within West Virginia, was first planted in Randolph. In this county occurred the first Indian massacre in the State. From that beginning, the county has been an historical center down to the present.

Kumbrabow State Forest and part of the Monongahela National Forest are located in this county.

Fossil Tree Park, in which are found large numbers of fossilized trees, is located a short distance west of Elkins. Southeast of Huttonsville, on White Mountain (elevation over 4,000 feet), the federal forces maintained the highest fortified camp in the War Between the States.

OFFICIAL
MUNICIPAL REGISTER

(Corrected to September 1, 1966)

CLASS I, II AND III CITIES

Under the provisions of Chapter 56, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 1939, municipal corporations are classified by population as follows: Population in excess of 50,000, Class I city; population more than 10,000 and not more than 50,000, Class II city; and population more than 2,000 and not more than 10,000, Class III city. Municipal corporations not included in these classifications are known as towns or villages.

Transition from one to another class of municipal corporation occurs automatically when the requisite population qualification has been met. Population is determined on the basis of the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States or the Legislature of West Virginia. Census of 1960 is used as basis in determining class of cities listed in Register.

The information contained in bold type below the various cities has been compiled from an extensive survey by the Legislative Interim Committee concerning the Municipal Code.

Salem—Harrison County
(Magisterial District: Tenmile).

It was originally New Salem, so named because the settlers who established the town came in a body from Salem, New Jersey. They arrived in the spring of 1792. Two years later, in 1794, it was incorporated.

The first civilized habitation on the land now occupied by the City of Salem was a hunter's camp established by Nicholas Carpenter in 1785 who used it for a hunting and trapping center. He also used it for a sort of crude hotel for himself and his men who drove cattle from Clarksburg to the Ohio River at Marietta which was the nearest market.

Samuel Fitz Randolph purchased the property on which the village was founded in 1790. Mr. Randolph had started with a caravan of pioneer settlers from Salem, New Jersey, who crossed the mountains in 1789 and made their first stop at Woodbridgetown, Pennsylvania. Mr. Randolph, a number of Davises, some Maxsons, and others came on to what is now Salem, after a two and one-half year trek from the sea coast.

Salem was the first settlement of Seventh Day Baptists west of the mountains. It is now the home of Salem College, founded in 1888, and the Industrial Home for Girls established in 1898. Glass has been a major industry. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the George Washington highway and state highway route No. 23 pass through it. It is the birthplace of United States Senator Jennings Randolph and the great writer, Granville Davison Hall, author of Daughter of the Elm, The Rending of Virginia, and many other historical books.

Wheeling—Ohio County

(Magisterial Districts: Center, Clay, Madison, Union, Washington, Webster, Richland, Ritchie and Triadelphia).

County seat. Settled in 1769 by Ebenezer Zane and followers. Name derived from Indian word, "Wheelin," which name was used for years prior to the Zane settlement to designate the creek which bisects the city. In 1793 the existence of Wheeling as a town became evident when Zane divided the settlement into lots, but Wheeling was not incorporated as a town until 1806 by the General Assembly of Virginia.

Although the peace treaty with the Indians was still in effect when Zane settled here, he and his followers immediately built a fort, which they called "Fort Henry." Here was fought in September, 1782, the last battle of the American Revolution. It was during this siege that the famous legend of Betty Zane was established, when she braved a storm of gunfire to carry powder from the Zane cabin to the fort.

Wheeling was the state's capital until 1870 and again from 1875 to 1880 when the government was moved to Charleston.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

DESCRIPTION OF THE FLAG

The Flag of the United States of America has 13 horizontal stripes—7 red and 6 white—the red and white stripes alternating, and a union which consists of white stars of five points on a blue field placed in the upper quarter next to the staff and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe from the top. The number of stars is the same as the number of States in the Union. The canton or union now contains 50 stars. On the admission of a State into the Union a star will be added to the union of the Flag, and such addition will take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding such admission.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

STATE FLAG

Before the design of the present State Flag was officially adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1929, West Virginia had been represented by several flags which had proved impractical.

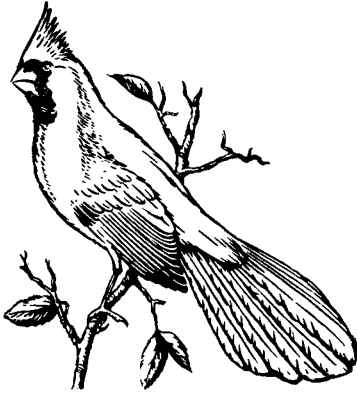

Prominently displayed on the pure white field of today's flag and emblazoned in proper colors is the Coat of Arms, the lower half of which is wreathed by Rhododendron. Across the top, lettered on a ribbon, is the constitutional designation—"State of West Virginia." The white field is bordered on four sides by a strip of blue, and for parade purposes all but the staff side are to be trimmed with gold fringe.

GREAT SEAL OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Great Seal of West Virginia, which also is the Coat of Arms, symbolizes the principal pursuits and resources of West Virginia. Described briefly, the obverse side of the Seal bears the legend, "State of West Virginia," together with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi" (Mountaineers Are Always Free); a farmer stands to the right and a miner to the left of a large ivy-draped rock bearing the date of the state's admission to the Union; in front of the rock are two hunter's rifles upon which rests a Phrygian Cap, or "Cap of Liberty."

The reverse side of the Seal is not in common use today. It was intended to be employed when the Seal was attached to documents by ribbons and suspended in the manner of a medal.

Joseph H. Diss Debar, of Doddridge County, designed the State Seal in 1863 at the request of the first West Virginia Legislature.

STATE BIRD

Resplendent in his plumage of scarlet, the Cardinal was made West Virginia's official bird by concurrent resolution of the 1949 legislature. The male of the species is a rich scarlet with a mask and shading of black, while the young and female are somewhat less brilliant. The cardinal measures approximately eight inches in length and ranges from New York State to the Gulf States and as far West as Oklahoma. His scientific name is Richmondena cardinalis cardinalis.

STATE FLOWER

The Rhododendron maximum, or "big laurel," was designated the official floral emblem of the Mountain State at the suggestion of Governor Albert Blakeslee White on January 23, 1903. It is a shrub of the heath family, and is distinctive for its large evergreen leaves and delicately impressive pale pink or white bloom, mottled with either red or yellow flecks. The big laurel is a mountaineer through and through, preferring as it does the upland climate of the Appalachian and Allegheny ranges.

STATE TREE

The Sugar Maple, or Acer saccharum as it is known scientifically, abounds in West Virginia and was made West Virginia's official tree by concurrent resolution of the 1949 Legislature. It produces an excellent wood for furniture construction, lighter and stronger than oak. West Virginia Sugar Maples also produce much of the maple syrup for which Vermont is famous. A single tree is 70-120 feet high and produces two to three pounds of sugar when "sugared off." It has a five-lobed leaf and produces a small wing-shaped seed pod.

STATE ANIMAL

The Black Bear . . . Euarctos americanus actually, he is strongly tinted with brown. His habitat in West Virginia has been reduced to approximately 12 counties in the Eastern Mountain Region, though he still roams freely through 36 states and Canada. Either one or two cubs (rarely three) are born at a time, weighing about eight ounces each. The adult reaches an average maximum weight of 250 pounds, though they have been known to attain 650 pounds.

THE MOVEMENT FOR THE FORMATION OF THE WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

(By Dr. James L. Hupp, State Historian and Archivist)

Soon after the formation of the State of West Virginia and the close of the Civil War, some thoughtful West Virginians saw the necessity of collecting and protecting the annals, records and artifacts of the new-born State. So in 1869 an organization, known as the West Virginia Historical Society, was organized to save its history of early and more recent times for those who were to come after them. After holding fourteen annual meetings, the last in 1884, the society ceased to exist.

Many of the people who had memories of the interest in the old society and the good it had accomplished, sought to bring it back to life again. A meeting was held and a new society was organized under the name of the Trans-Allegheny Historical Society. It appears that this Society soon went the way of the original Society. During its existence it produced a publication known as the "Trans-Allegheny Historical Magazine." Seven issues are known to have been published.

In 1890, the West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society was organized and its work was continued until the establishment of the State Department of Archives and History was created by an Act of the State Legislature. This Historical and Antiquarian Society published from 1901 to 1905 the "West Virginia Historical Magazine" and collected a considerable amount of material—books, artifacts, relics and curios.

Thus, previous to 1905, three historical societies had been organized in West Virginia, the first having a continued existence of fourteen years; the second, two years; and the third, fourteen years. Among their membership were found the names of hundreds of leading citizens who earnestly desired that the State's history should be rescued, collected and preserved in systematic durable form.

This, these organizations could not do. Thoughtful men saw this. They knew that other states were doing this work at public expense under the direction of laws enacted for this purpose and that if done at all in West Virginia, it must be done this way.

As far back as 1891, just following the formation of the Historical and Antiquarian Society Governor A. B. Fleming in his Governor's Message on January 14, 1891 to the State Legislature spoke as follows with reference to forming what is now the West Virginia Department of Archives and History, under the heading Historical Society.

"I submit herewith a communication from the West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society and commend the same to your careful perusal."

As a follow-up of the Governor's suggestion, members of the State Legislature had the Historical Society through its secretary, Virgil A. Lewis, make an appeal to the Legislature for aid in carrying forward the work it had undertaken to do. This appeal was referred to the Committee on Taxation and Finance and on the evening of the 16th of February, 1891, a committee of the Society went before the Committee on Taxation and Finance and explained the objects, aims and needs of the Historical and Antiquarian Society and the following was included in the report and passed as a General Appropriation without a dissenting voice:

"To The West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society. One thousand dollars, to be paid out of the revenues of 1890, and one thousand dollars out of the revenues of 1891, in the aggregate two thousand dollars, for the purpose of collecting, purchasing and preserving relics, books, etc., pertaining to the history of West Virginia—the articles which may be collected, and purchased by the said funds, to be and remain the property of the state, and to be held in trust by said society for the said state.”

At the 1893 session of the Legislature Governor Fleming in his State of the State Message on January 11, 1893 presented the following under the heading Historical Society:

“I submit a communication from the West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society, setting forth what it is accomplishing and stating the Society’s needs. Its collections are interesting and valuable, and the gentlemen who have from the inception of its work manifested so much zeal in the prosecution thereof are deserving of the thanks of the people.

An appropriation by the Legislature of 1891 was made for the Society’s use in the collection and preservation of relics, books, etc., relating to the history of the State, and I recommend that the State recognize the Society as a State institution, extend all necessary aid and furnish the Society suitable rooms for the care and exhibit of its collection, conditioned, however, upon the transfer to the State of the legal title to said collection.”

Governor William A. MacCorkle in his Biennial Message to the Legislature of West Virginia session of 1895 spoke as follows under the heading The Historical Society:

“The Historical Society has been very active during the last two years and has accomplished a great amount of good. In addition to its regular work it has undertaken the care of the World’s Fair Exhibit. The Society has lately taken care in reference to adding to the World’s Fair collection. This work will be prosecuted until the Society has a full and complete exhibit of the manufactures of the State. I ask the attention of the Legislature to this Society, it has gathered together a splendid collection and one which is especially valuable from a historical standpoint. It is especially necessary at this time, that the Legislature should make liberal appropriation to this work, for the reason that just at this period of the State’s history a large amount of very valuable historical data can be obtained, which, after this generation, will be forever lost. This proposition also applies with great force to historical relics. A good library is being collected which in the course of time must be the State Library. Whilst this Society is not a State Department, its work, is carefully and economically done, and I hope that the Legislature will comply with the recommendations of the Executive Committee, no money can be spent from which the State will reap more good. The appropriation heretofore made has been entirely too small to do the work absolutely required.”

Under the heading of The West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society Governor George W. Atkinson in his first message to the State Legislature on July 11, 1899 spoke as follows:

“This institution deserves the favorable consideration and liberal support of your body.

The organization of the Society, in 1891, relieved the State from the odium of being the, then, only State in the Union without a Historical Society.

The beginning was small, and the progress at first necessarily slow. The members contributed a little money and a few books, relics, curios, etc.; from their own private libraries and cabinets; and they were given the use, temporarily of one of the committee rooms in this building.

When the State exhibits at Chicago were brought back here, they were turned over to the care and keeping of this Society; and the Legislature put in their charge a number of valuable government books, State reports, etc., for which there was no room in the State Library room.

With these valuable acquisitions the Society was given the use of the largest room in the building, formerly used as an armory.

For several years past, your body has voted them certain sums of money for current expenses, and to aid in purchasing books, relics, etc., and carrying out the general purposes of the Society. The members and executive officers of the Society have worked "con amore." No salaries have been paid except a moderate one for librarian.

The State has reserved title to everything it has turned over to the Society, and the Society has formally conveyed to the State their title to all their present collection of whatever kind, (except loans made to the Society), everything they may hereafter acquire (except loans), so that, whatever your body may do for the Society, you will be doing virtually for the State, as the State is the sole and entire owner of everything the Society now has or may hereafter acquire, (except loans).

Those who have not been familiar with the growth of the Society's collection, will, upon visiting their room now, be surprised to see what the energy and activity of the Society has accomplished.

Their collection is now an exceedingly varied, interesting and valuable one. It has filled their large room to overflowing and the crowded condition of their present exhibits and the constant accessions being made, render the necessity for more room imperative.

The present quarters are entirely unsuitable in many respects, for the great and growing importance of this Society, its work and its collections. The room is on the third floor and is accessible with more or less difficulty and labor, and as this building is by no means a fire-proof structure, the whole collection is in constant danger of destruction by fire; and this danger is all the more felt from the fact that the more valuable articles in the collection are of such a character that no satisfactory insurance can be had upon them. Insurance companies pay losses on intrinsic values; but how would you fix the intrinsic value of an autograph of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, LaFayette, Ben Franklin, Daniel Boone and others of like character, or of old and valuable books, maps, etc., out of print, and not to be had at any price, or interesting relics and curios, impossible to replace?

Few of these things have much of what the insurance companies call intrinsic value, but their sentimental and aesthetic value is very great. To illustrate:

A year or so ago a gentleman from Kentucky, and a member of the Kentucky Historical Society, was in the rooms of our Historical Society, and saw an autograph report of a survey made by Daniel Boone, in this valley, in 1791. Wishing his Society to possess so interesting a relic of the brave old pioneer who founded the great State of Kentucky, this gentleman asked if our Society would part with the relic; he was told no, that it was not for sale. Pressing the matter, he asked if we would take $100 for it; again he was assured that it was not on the market. He then asked if $500 would tempt us, and when the answer was the same he said: "Well, if you will make me an offer at, not exceeding $1,000, and give me a ten days option, to see and consult our Society, I think we would buy it;" but he had to leave without the option. An insurance company might, possibly, be willing to pay five cents as the intrinsic value of this report, signature, frame and glass.

In view of the valuable work the Society has done, is doing, and is expected to do in the future, in the interests of the State; in view of their urgent need of more accessible, roomy and better arranged quarters, and in view of the constant danger to which their valuable library and general museum are now exposed, I recommend that your body adopt the suggestion I have made to erect a fire-proof building for the occupancy, uses and purposes of this Society, and for other purposes therein stated.

The importance and necessities of the case justify such an appropriation; the condition of our treasury fully warrants it, and I feel sure the public will appreciate it.

Governor George W. Atkinson in his State of the State Message to the Legislature on January 9, 1901 spoke as follows regarding the West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society:

"The West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society, is in a prosperous and promising condition; it is adding steadily to its library and museum, both of which are highly appreciated and largely visited by the public.

In order to more fully carry out the purposes of the Society, it has decided to publish a Historical Magazine in which to gather up and preserve the past and current history of the State; the first number of this magazine will be issued and laid on the desks of the members early in the session to give them an idea of the intent and scope of the work intended.

The Society has fully vested in State all its rights and title to its books, general collections and whatever it has.

The Board of Public Works has assigned to the Society one floor in the new Annex building, which will give it room for a much better display of what it has and allow for expansion.

The Society has now accomplished much under difficulties and with very little aid, compared with what other States have done and are doing for their Historical Societies.

Our Society has now become one of the valuable educational institutions of the State, and I recommend that you grant it a liberal appropriation to carry on its work; say $5,000 for the two years."

In the First Biennial Message to the Legislature of West Virginia, Session of 1903, Governor Albert B. White spoke as follows regarding the Historical and Antiquarian Society:

"The West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society should be a State institution and called the State Museum, or other suitable name. It is a private corporation, but it is furnished rooms, accommodations and nearly all its expenses by the State, and yet the State government has no control over it, cannot prescribe the hours that its rooms shall be left open, knows nothing of its receipts or expenditures, and has no voice in its managements or control. Its government should be vested in a non-partisan board of directors. It is believed that these changes would result in the increased usefulness of this Society."

In the Second Biennial Message of Governor Albert B. White to the Legislature of West Virginia, January 11, 1905 with the heading A State Library and Historical Society he spoke as indicated below:

"The third floor of the Annex affords the opportunity for the establishment of a State Library and Historical Museum which should be under the direct charge and control of a state board. In my message two years ago I endorsed what my predecessor had said in his message to the Legislature of 1901 about the necessity of some action being taken by the Legislature to have our public records gone over and those missing in the Archives perfected and completed.

The State Library should be made the depository of the publications of every department of the State from the foundation of the State. One of the most important works of the library board would be to have all the missing public records, papers and documents from 1861 to the present time supplied as far as possible; to collect, edit, classify, print them in a series; and to devise and adopt a systematic plan for the preservation and classification of our State Archives, in the future, in the library to be established under their control. The West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society, a private corporation, is now endeavoring to do some of this work, and occupies the room in the Capitol building designed for the Armory of the National Guard. Such of its property as belongs to the State should be taken over by the proposed State Library and Historical Society Board, and I hope it will be the pleasure of the Legislature to create such a board and start this needed work at once.

The Armory is an unsafe and unsuitable place for any valuable collection of books and documents, and is needed by the National Guard, which should be given possession of those quarters. There is at present no place where the reports and publications of the various departments of the State can be kept or are kept, and West Virginia should have a State Library and Historical Museum of its own. I earnestly commend this subject to the attention of the Legislature."

Governor Albert B. White's second address to the Legislature on January 11, 1905 was so effective that the Senate early in the session presented a bill establishing the Bureau of Archives and History and before the session closed, it had passed both houses and had become a law.

The law provided that the Department should take over all property, of whatever character, which had been purchased with state money and then held in trust for the State of West Virginia by the West Virginia Historical and Antiquarian Society, this to be a part of the collection of the Bureau of Archives and History.

From the time of the creation of the Department of Archives and History by action of the State Legislature in 1905, the responsibilities of the Department have been spelled out quite specifically by law as follows:

"There shall be established a State Bureau of Archives and History in which shall be collected for permanent preservation, so far as it can now be done, all valuable papers and documents relating to the settlement of the state; to the period of the reorganized government of Virginia and to the erection and formation of West Virginia out of the territory of the mother state, with biographical matter pertaining to the men who were prominent then, together with all missing public records, state papers, documents of the legislature, executive and judicial departments, and the reports of all state officials, boards of regents and directors of state institutions, educational, charitable, penal and otherwise, from the twentieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, to which the annual additions shall be added as produced. In this bureau there shall be devised and adopted a systematic plan for the preservation and classification of all the state archives of the past, present, and future. In the said bureau there shall also be collected books, pamphlets, papers, and other works of history, biography, and kindred subjects as are usually found in such collections, together with the works of West Virginia authors and such others as will properly illustrate the bibliography of the state. In connection with the collections in said bureau, there may be a museum illustrative of history, science, the social conditions and life of the people of our country, past and present."

The Department of Archives and History maintains an Archival Section for the collection of documents relating to the history of the State, the public records and official reports of the State; and Historical Section for the collection of works of history, biography and kindred subjects relating to the State together with the works of West Virginia authors and such others as will properly compose the bibliography of the State; and a Museum Section illustrative of the history and science of the State, and social conditions and life of its people, past and present.

This was launched the West Virginia Department of Archives and History, the Directors of which have been through the years as follows:

Virgil A. Lewis, 1905-12; Arthur J. Thompson (acting) 1912-13; Henry S. Green, 1913-17; Wilson M. Foulk, 1917-19; Clifford R. Myers, 1919-35; Mrs. Innis C. Davis, 1935-41; Mrs. Bess E. Harrison, 1941-46; Mrs. Roy Bird Cook, 1946-53; Mrs. Dale Thomas, 1953-57; Kenneth Kyle McCormick, 1957-61; James Lloyd Hupp, 1961-1969.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

ADMINISTRATIVE

In every endeavor, the West Virginia Department of Commerce, which completed its fifth year of operation on June 30, 1966, eminently reflects the new growth and grandeur of West Virginia.

Industrial and Travel Development attained new objectives; planning services were broadened in scope and accomplishment; and new units, such as the Appalachian Development Office, were designed to better serve West Virginia. The Department's efforts clearly document the progress report of the Mountain State.

Under the leadership of Angus E. Peyton, who became Commissioner of the Department on September 1, 1965, and his assistants, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Richard H. Slavin, whose appointment became effective October 1, 1965, and Administrative Assistant Robert B. Moran, the Department expanded its goals and set a new course toward achievement.

The Department of Commerce vigorously reflects the new spirit of enthusiasm and devotion to making West Virginia a better place to live, work and play.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

Working with industry and local planning units, the Industrial Development Division and its Director, Fielding H. Lewis, developed new records in many major categories. Forty-four of the State's 55 counties are benefiting from 121 new or expanded industries. This represents a 30 per cent increase over the previous year and almost a 50 per cent jump over the 1963-64 period. The other counties can boast of encouraging prospects for the new year and at the same time can feel the effects of 27 new coal mines and 15 mine expansion projects recorded during fiscal 1965-66.

These new and expanded constructions (according to industry's own estimates) will produce employment for 4,500 and capital investment of over $360 million. With the inclusion of investments announced, under construction or completed by public utilities, West Virginia's industrial growth will reach the billion dollar mark in a single fiscal year. This figure is exclusive of coal development and usual commercial expansion.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

The West Virginia Industrial Development Authority, established in 1961, continues to be a vital factor in the State's economic development. During the 12-month period ending June 30, 1966, IDA approved 11 loans totaling $675,000 for new and expanding industries. Based upon the applicants' own estimates, annual payrolls of these industries will provide a total annual income of $2,201,196 and employment of 1,008.

TRAVEL DEVELOPMENT

By every measure, the past fiscal year was truly a banner one for the Travel Development Division, under Director Robert R. Bowers. The Governor's First Annual Conference on Travel, held in April at Oglebay Park, stressed this record achievement. The more than 300 West Virginia business leaders who convened there generally agreed that travel and tourism constitutes a highly important segment of our State's economy and promises to become one of West Virginia's leading employers. Cooperating with travel clubs, travel industry representatives, public utilities, news media and allied organizations, the Travel Division took part in many vital developments in promoting tourism.

Retail sales in West Virginia's travel industry rose to a record high of $417 million, which is an increase of $24 million over 1964. Seven hundred jobs in travel industries were created in 1965 and the State's tourist accommodation business opened approximately 600 lodging units, while existing motels added 540 units. This constituted a total capital investment of $5.6 million in the State's tourist boom. At the close of the fiscal year, 570 additional units were being constructed at an estimated cost of $5 million.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

The Arts and Crafts Section continues to lend technical assistance to State craftsmen and to offer product development and marketing advice. New products such as coal plaques, coal and wooden pen sets, "mountain girl" reproductions, coal miner, lumberjack and engineer reproductions and contour map plaques will benefit both our artists and our industries.

PLANNING AND RESEARCH

Under the direction of Ralph L. Hottel, the Planning and Research Division has grown phenomenally during the past fiscal year. With a federal grant of $95,685, which was matched by $31,895 in State services, a community planning advisory service was launched in January 1966 at the first Governor's Conference on the Community. A statewide development plan was inaugurated in July 1965 under a federal grant of $270,850, which was matched by $90,284 in State funds and services. When completed, the plan will provide guidelines for orderly and sound economic development in West Virginia.

Seventeen communities and four counties have completed comprehensive development plans under the federal 701 program, which is administered by this division. Currently, 15 communities and ten counties are preparing comprehensive programs and seventeen applications have been submitted to the federal government and are awaiting approval. Under the 701 program, the division provides information on planning concepts and appropriate federal programs, helps communities implement their plans and publishes a bimonthly newsletter, THE ADVISOR.

SPECIAL PROJECTS

The prime emphasis of the Special Projects Division, which is headed by Mrs. Louise Miragliotta, Coordinator, centers upon the Governor's Progress Corps. The organization continued orientation meetings, selected new county chairmen and stressed in all its efforts cooperation between State and local agencies. There are now 90,000 Progress Corps members pledged to promote West Virginia. The overall goal of the Corps is to keep members, both within and outside the State, informed of the attributes and potentials of West Virginia so they all may take pride in serving the Mountain State as goodwill ambassadors.

WASHINGTON LIAISON OFFICE

The West Virginia Liaison Office in Washington, D. C., has had a very active year. Its interest in export matters and the formation of the second West Virginia World Trade Mission highlighted the special projects of this division. J. Henry Barbour, director of the Washington office, organized the mission, prepared the advance scheduling in Europe and finally served as mission director during the trip in June. This trade mission, industry organized and government approved, was paid for entirely by the members. The World Trade Mission stressed four objectives: export sales, trust promotion, industrial development and area redevelopment.

INLAND WATERWAYS—FEDERAL

(Data furnished by the Department of the Army)

Ohio River—Improvement of the Ohio River for navigation, as authorized by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of 25 June 1910, provides for a minimum channel depth of 9 feet in the entire 981 miles of the river by the construction of locks and dams and open channel work. The original system completed in 1929, and major modifications completed in 1937, resulted in 46 lock and dam structures including the Gallipolis Locks and Dam near Apple Grove.

The Ohio River modernization and replacement program now under way will reduce the total navigation projects to 19, providing larger locks and deeper pools. New projects adjoining West Virginia include the pool of Greenup Locks and Dam, completed in June 1964 between Kentucky, West Virginia and Ohio, a proposed third lock for the Gallipolis project, the Racine Locks and Dam under construction near Letart, the Belleville Locks and Dam under construction at Belleville, the Willow Island Locks and Dam under construction at Willow Island, the Hannibal Locks and Dam under construction at New Martinsville, the Pike Island Locks and Dam completed in September 1965 at Wheeling, and the New Cumberland Locks and Dam completed in September 1961 near New Cumberland.

Monongahela River, West Virginia and Pennsylvania—The existing project provides for improvement of the river by 11 locks and dams to afford slackwater navigation for its entire length from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to one mile from Fairmont, West Virginia, a distance of 128.7 miles. The controlling depth between Pittsburgh and Lock and Dam 14 at Opekiska, West Virginia, 115.3 miles above the mouth, is 9 feet, and above Lock 14, 7 feet to the upper limits of the project.

Modernization of the Monongahela River navigation structures in the upper reaches of the waterway in West Virginia is approximately complete. Morgantown and Hildebrand Locks and Dams and modification of Dam 8 have been completed; and Opekiska Lock and Dam, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 14 and 15 and extend the 9-foot controlling depth to the head of the river, is nearly complete. A proposed replacement for existing Lock 8 is now being investigated.

Kanawha River, West Virginia—Three high-lift dams on the Kanawha River and the Gallipolis Dam on the Ohio River provide a minimum channel depth of 9 feet on the Kanawha River for 91 miles from the mouth to Deep Water. Each Kanawha River dam has twin locks, and the Kanawha Valley Power Company has a hydroelectric plant at each site. The two upstream dams, London and Marmet, were completed in 1934, Winfield Dam in 1937, and Gallipolis Dam in the Ohio River in 1937 as part of the Kanawha River improvement.

Sutton Reservoir—The Sutton Reservoir, located on the Elk River near Sutton, was authorized by Congress in the Flood Control Act of 1938. Sealing of mine workings at the site was begun in 1949, but work on the dam was not started until 1956.

Construction of the project was completed in January 1961. The dam is of concrete, 210 feet high and 1,178 feet long. The reservoir has a total capacity of 265,300 acre-feet and controls a drainage area of 537 square miles. A minimum pool 5.9 miles in length, with a surface area of 270 acres and a capacity of 4,100 acre-feet, is maintained during the winter. A seasonal pool with a maximum length of 14.5 miles, surface area of 1,520 acres and storage of 60,100 acre-feet, is maintained for low-flow augmentation and recreation. The remaining reservoir capacity is utilized for flood control storage.

Tygart River Dam—The Tygart River Dam, located on the Tygart River 2.25 miles upstream of Grafton, West Virginia, was authorized by the Public Works Administration January 11, 1934 and approved by Congress in the River and Harbor Act of August 30, 1935. The concrete gravity dam is 1,921 feet in length at the top and rises 230 feet above the river bed. The structure provides for the gross controlled storage of 287,700 acre-feet of water and is operated as a unit in the reservoir system for the protection of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and the upper Ohio River Valley. In addition to flood control, the reservoir provides for low water discharge regulation annually, by the gradual release of stored spring flood waters during the summer-fall period to assure a river flow of 340 cubic feet per second at Lock and Dam 8, Monongahela River. The storage of 100,000 acre-feet of water is allotted for this purpose.

FLOOD CONTROL RESERVOIRS—FEDERAL

(Data furnished by the Department of the Army)

Bluestone Reservoir—The Bluestone Reservoir, located on the New River near Hinton, was authorized by Presidential executive order in 1935 and approved by Congress in the Flood Control Act of 1936. Construction of the project was begun early in 1942, suspended in 1944 because of the war emergency, resumed in 1946, and completed in June 1952. The dam, of concrete construction, is 165 feet high and 2,048 feet long. The reservoir has a capacity of 631,000 acre-feet to serve a drainage area of 4,565 square miles. During periods of low and normal flows in New River, the elevation of the reservoir varies about 3 feet, with a minimum pool 9.5 miles in length and 1,800 acres in area that utilizes about 30,900 acre-feet of the total reservoir capacity. The remaining reservoir capacity is reserved for impoundment of flood flows as required for flood control.

Summersville Reservoir—The Summersville Reservoir, located on Gauley River, near Summersville, was started in 1960 and is nearing completion. The dam is a rock-fill type, with a maximum height of 357 feet and a top length of 2,280 feet. It will provide a maximum capacity of 390,800 acre feet of storage for flood water of which 163,400 acre feet may be used for low flow augmentation in the Kanawha River in summer. The reservoir will be operated as a unit of a coordinated reservoir system for flood protection in the Gauley, Kanawha, and Ohio River Valleys.

BLOOMINGTON RESERVOIR

The Bloomington Reservoir Project was authorized by Congress in 1962 as a unit of the comprehensive water resource development plan for the Potomac River Basin. The damsite is located in Mineral County, West Virginia, and Garrett County, Maryland, on the North Branch Potomac River about 8 miles upstream from the mouth of Savage River. The dam will be rolled earth and rockfill structure with a maximum height of 296 feet and a top length of 2,130 feet. The reservoir will have a capacity of 128,000 acre-feet and will control a drainage area of 263 square miles. The project will provide low flow augmentation, flood control, and recreation. Construction is scheduled to begin in 1967 provided the States of Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia and the District of Columbia meet the requirements for local cooperation as set forth in the authorizing act.

LOCAL FLOOD PROTECTION PROJECTS

Bayard, West Virginia—The project is located on the North Branch Potomac River and was constructed under authority of Section 205 of the Flood Control Act of 1962. The protection works consist of approximately 2,000 feet of channel improvements, 1,200 feet of levees, 283 feet of concrete retaining walls, drainage structures, and the reconstruction of the highway bridge carrying West Virginia Route 90 over Buffalo Creek. The project was completed in 1964.

Blaine, West Virginia and Kitzmiller, Maryland—The project is located on the North Branch Potomac River and was constructed under authority of Section 205 of the Flood Control Act of 1962. The protection works for these communities consist of 4,700 feet of channel improvement, 5,800 feet of levees, 30 feet of retaining wall, and drainage structures. The project was completed in 1964.

Ridgeley, West Virginia, and Cumberland, Maryland—Ridgeley, in Mineral County, is located on the south bank of the North Branch Potomac River, opposite the city of Cumberland, Maryland. Protective works for these communities include about 3.3 miles of channel improvements on the North Branch and its tributary, Wills Creek, supplemented by a system of earth levees and concrete floodwalls. The project includes three pumping stations with related interior drainage facilities, eight pressure conduits totaling 11,200 feet in length, and an industrial water-supply dam. Three highway bridges and a railroad bridge were reconstructed. The project was completed in 1959. Additional channel improvement on the North Branch Potomac River was completed in 1964.

WEST VIRGINIA'S HIGHWAY MARKER PROGRAM

By Dr. Charles P. Harper, Chairman
West Virginia Historic Commission

As early as 1932, the Jefferson County Historical Society of West Virginia and the local chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution erected highway markers at historic sites in Jefferson county. These markers are similar in size and design to those placed by the first and present State Commission. The plaques are of white metal with black lettering and most of them include the State Seal. Among those still standing are: HAPPY RETREAT at Charles Town; HAREWOOD on W. Va. Rt. 51; and SHEPHERDSTOWN placed by the Jefferson County Historical Society, which also sponsored the new marker "LOCUST HILL", near Charles Town. The RUINS OF ST. GEORGE'S CHAPEL at the site on W. Va. Rt. 51 and SHEPHERDSTOWN were erected by the Bee Line Chapter and the Pack Horse Ford Chapter respectively of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Credit should also be given to local chapters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the Confederacy, county historical societies and other historical and civic organizations for paving the way for a highway marker program by placing stone and bronze markers at historic sites before the nineteen thirties.

The first state highway marker program was developed during the thirties by the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers in cooperation with the Works Progress Administration, the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and the State Road Commission. It adopted a marker of the same size and practically the same design including the State Seal which is used today.

The first commission placed four hundred forty-two highway markers at historic, prehistoric and scenic sites in the state. The number included: two hundred fifty-six single and thirty-one double (different event on each side) markers on or near historic sites; fourteen at scenic and five at prehistoric sites; ninety-six at county-county lines and forty at county-state lines. The county-state line markers have only the West Virginia county inscription and that of the adjoining state.

Later twenty-six historic markers were placed at the state institutions in twenty-two of the fifty-five counties. This number included nine hospitals and sanitariums, five state colleges and West Virginia University, five undergraduate schools, four correctional institutions and two welfare homes.

In 1937 the State Road Commission published a West Virginia Historic and Scenic Highway Markers booklet. It shows the inscription and location of the highway markers and gives a brief history of different sections of the state including maps and pictures. Several years later the State Road Commission also printed a large map of West Virginia showing the primary state roads and the location and title of the historic and scenic markers throughout the state. It includes the four hundred forty-two markers erected during the thirties and the twenty-six placed shortly thereafter. They are also listed on the margin by counties and location.

A quarter of a century passed before another historic highway marker program was established. During that time over one hundred of the old markers were either missing or broken beyond repair.

The West Virginia Historic Commission, authorized by Legislative Act of March 2, 1961, was established to promote the state during the West Virginia and War Between the States Centennial celebrations. It is empowered with the assistance of the West Virginia State Road Commission, to replace old markers and erect new "markers along its roads and highways pointing out for future generations the important role played by our state in the dynamic development of our country."¹ A Legislative Act of March 10, 1965 authorized the Commission to publish a marker booklet which it may sell at a reasonable price. With the publication of this booklet, the major purpose of the Commission will be accomplished.

The Commission, with the excellent cooperation of the Signs and Markings division of the State Road Commission and interested civic and historical organizations and individuals, has placed two hundred ninety new markers at historic, prehistoric, scenic and geological sites. Sixty-one of the markers have been sponsored (plaques paid for) by private organizations and individuals.² Twenty-two new state-state line and sixty-four new county-county line markers have been placed on hitherto unmarked highways.³ The state-state line markers have a West Virginia inscription and the name of the county on one side and the adjoining state's inscription on the other.

The Commission has replaced sixty-six broken or missing markers at historic sites marked in the thirties, one prehistoric, four scenic, thirty-five county-county line and sixteen state-state line. Five new markers have been replaced.

All new markers have the inscription—West Virginia Historic Commission—and the year the marker was purchased on the base of the plaque, also the title of the sponsoring organization if sponsored (plaque paid for), the old ones do not. One hundred fifty-six markers were placed during the Centennial Year, 1963. These include eighty-seven historic markers, fifty-two geological, nine scenic and nine prehistoric sites. One hundred fifty-five markers were erected in 1964. Eighty nine of these are county-county line, thirty state-state line, twenty-nine historic sites, four prehistoric and three scenic. Seventy-two markers placed in 1965 include sixty-two historic, seven county-county line, two state-state line and one scenic. Placement of twenty-five historic, four county-county line and six state-state line markers in 1966 and the replacement of five broken (new) markers makes a total of four hundred eighteen erected by the present Commission the past four years. This number includes three hundred ninety-eight single markers and twenty double (different event on each side).⁴

The attached list gives the number of each kind of old and new markers by counties in the State now which were sponsored (plaques purchased) by the old West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, the present West Virginia Historic Commission and private organizations and individuals, and placed by the State Road Commission.

DRIVER IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

(Point System)

West Virginia's Driver Improvement Program, as administered by the Department of Motor Vehicles, is designed to eliminate the chronically careless driver from the state's highway system.

Under the program "points" are assigned to those convicted of various moving traffic violations. Conviction notices are forwarded to the Department of Motor Vehicles, which maintains each individual's driving record and statistics.

An operator receiving a total of 6 points is sent a warning letter by the Department, outlining the need for more careful driving. Individuals reaching the 9 to 12 point level are required to appear before a Department Reviewing Officer, at which time the most serious cases are subject to suspension of their operator's privileges.

Forest Service

Monongahela National Forest

Headquarters: Elkins

Monongahela National Forest was proclaimed by President Woodrow Wilson on April 28, 1920, under the Weeks Law. This law of 1911 provides for the cooperation by states with the United States, and the protection of watersheds of navigable streams. In West Virginia, the national forest was established for flood protection in the Ohio and Potomac River valleys. It is one of a system of about 150 national forests and the only national forest wholly in West Virginia. The Clark-McNary Act of June 7, 1924, broadened the objectives to provide for reforestation and production of timber. The Multiple Use Act of June 12, 1960, provides that National Forests shall be managed for outdoor recreation, range, timber, watershed, hunting and fishing.

The public forest is dedicated to the protection, development, and management of all its resources for the greatest good to the greatest number.

Within the proclaimed boundary there are 1,642,177 acres of which 808,096 acres are owned by the United States. Directly in charge of the national forest is the Forest Supervisor. In the national forest are six ranger districts, each in charge of a district ranger.

Counties in the National Forest and their current acreage in National Forest ownership are:

Grant	14,575	Pocahontas	277,768
Greenbrier	99,349	Preston	3,891
Nicholas	23,434	Randolph	171,003
Pendleton	60,290	Tucker	93,059
		Webster	64,727

The public forest is administered in cooperation with several conservation agencies, including the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources. Twenty-five per cent of receipts from the sale of timber and other products and use fees is returned to the nine national forest counties for schools (80%) and roads (20%).

FISHING STREAMS AND SPECIES

For the benefit of anglers who desire information relative to stocked fishing streams and nearest towns in which hotel accommodations can be found, the following list has been prepared. Numerous other streams and tributaries other than these listed have received substantial stockings of fish. These, however, are the largest, most important and probably the most capable of supporting extra heavy angling pressure. It must be understood that the order in which they are listed does not indicate the number of fish placed in the stream or the anglers chances of catching fish. Fishing in any of these streams does not necessarily indicate that the Department of Natural Resources promises the limit of fish to each fisherman. This is intended merely as a guide.

Section I—Summary

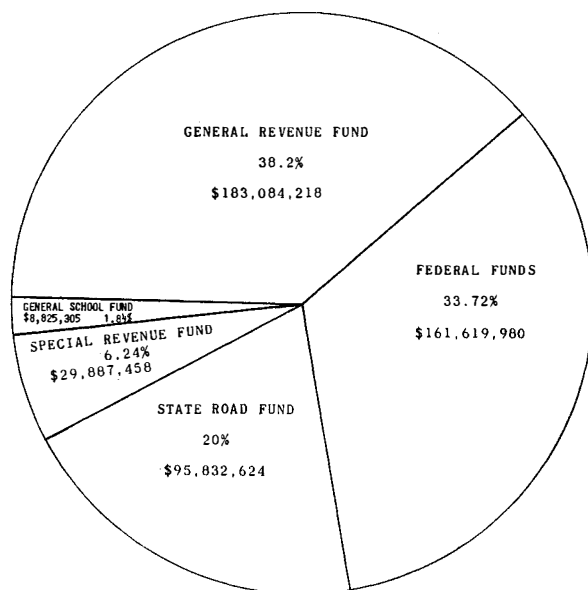

Revenues collected for the operation of state government are deposited into various funds as provided by statute and the constitution. Many of these funds are dedicated for specific purposes and are carried in separate accounts and expended only for the purposes authorized by law. These include the General School Fund, State Road Fund, Federal Funds, and various others designated as Special Revenue Funds. Approximately 61 per cent of all revenues collected during the 1965-66 fiscal year are within this group of dedicated funds. All revenues not dedicated for specific purposes are deposited into the General Revenue Fund from which the Legislature makes appropriations for the operation of the various departments, schools and institutions.

Total revenues collected for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1966, amount to $479.2 million dollars as compared to $429.1 million for the previous fiscal year, an increase of some $50 million dollars. This is summarized as follows:

	(Millions of Dollars)
	INCREASE	DECREASE
General Revenue Fund	16.5	—
State Road Fund	—	9.3
Federal Funds	39.0	—
Special Revenue Funds	3.8	—
Total Increase	50.0	—

For details of increases and decreases within the various funds, see statement of "Comparison of Net Receipts".

COLLECTION OF BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION TAX AND PRIVILEGE TAX ON CERTAIN CARRIER CORPORATIONS (TRANSPORTATION PRIVILEGE TAX)

The Business and Occupation Tax, Chapter 11, Article 13, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended, is a tax levied for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia. The tax is measured by the application of rates against values of products, gross proceeds of sales, or gross income according to the classification of the business activity in which the taxpayer is engaged. Despite the commonly applied erroneous name, "Gross Sales Tax", it is not a sales tax. Neither is it a transaction tax in the sense that once it is paid on a particular article or service or activity it need not again be paid. It is not, strictly speaking, an income tax, although in most instances, the gross income is the measure of the tax. Under the production and manufacturing classifications the measure of the tax is the value of the article produced or manufactured as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof, provided the proceeds of sale are indicative of the true value of the article. If more than one person engages in a single activity or transaction, as in the case of the contractor and sub-contractor, each must pay a tax measured by his entire income regardless of the tax paid by the other.

The Privilege Tax on Certain Carrier Corporations, commonly and hereafter referred to as the Transportation Privilege Tax, Chapter 11, Article 12A, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended, is a tax for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia levied on railroad corporations, steamboats, steamships or other floating property, motor vehicle carriers, railroad car corporations, telephone and telegraph corporations and airline corporations.

With the exception of railroad corporations, the tax is measured by the application of rates against gross income from all business beginning and ending within the State of West Virginia, and in addition by the application of rates to a percentage of total net income, such percentage being determined as provided by Section 5 of the law. The tax on railroad corporations is measured by the application of rates to the value of the total property, tangible and intangible, in this State as determined by the Board of Public Works for the purposes of the general property tax and in addition by the application of rates to a percentage of total net income.

Activities subject to the Transportation Privilege Tax are not subject to Business and Occupation Tax.

The revenue collected by virtue of these two tax laws is deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund of the State and constitute the largest single source of the State's general revenue raised by so called "indirect" taxation.

The business classifications under the Business and Occupation Tax Law are as follows:

A. Production of Coal and Other Natural Resource Products. The tax is measured by the value of the articles mined or produced as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the producer, the rates being applied against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

Coal	$1.35 per $100.00
Sand, gravel, or other mineral products not quarried or mined;
oil, blast furnace slag	$3.95 per $100.00
Natural gas (exemptions include deduction of $5,000 annually) ...	$7.85 per $100.00
Limestone or sandstone quarried or mined; and timber	$2.00 per $100.00
Other natural resource products	$2.60 per $100.00

B. Manufacturing, Compounding or Preparing for Sale. The tax is measured by the value of the articles manufactured, compounded or prepared for sale in West Virginia, as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the manufacturer or person compounding or preparing the same. The rate, 40 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of the sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

C. (1) Business of Selling Tangible Property at Retail. There is levied a tax of 50 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

(2) Business of Selling Tangible Property at Wholesale. There is levied a tax of 25 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

D. Public Service or Utility Business. The tax rates set forth hereinbelow are levied on the gross income of the following businesses:

Street Interurban and Electric Railways	$1.30 per $100.00
Electric Light and Power Companies (sales) and demand charges, domestic purposes and commercial lighting	$5.20 per $100.00
Water Companies	$4.00 per $100.00
Electric Light and Power Companies (all other sales and demand charges):	$3.90 per $100.00
Natural Gas Companies: Toll Bridges	$3.90 per $100.00
Other Public Utilities—(Except telegraph and telephone companies, railways and other transportation companies)	$2.60 per $100.00

E. Contracting. There is levied a tax of $2.00 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

G. Amusement. There is levied a tax of 65 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

H. Service Business or Calling Not Otherwise Specifically Taxed. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

I. Business of Furnishing Property for Hire. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

J. Small Loan and Industrial Loan. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

An annual exemption of $50.00 is provided under the Business and Occupation Tax Law for each person, as defined by the statute, engaged in business in the state.

The business classifications under the Transportation Privilege Tax Law are as follows:

A. Motor Vehicle Carriers, Railroad Car Corporations, Express Corporations or Companies. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income, and $1.50 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

B. (1) Telephone Corporations. $2.75 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $2.75 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

(2) Telegraph Corporations. $5.00 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $5.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

C. Pipe Line Corporations. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income (effective July 1, 1953—prior to that date $3.50) and $3.50 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

D. Airline Corporations and Operations of Steamboat or Other Watercraft. $3.00 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $3.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

E. Railroad Corporations. 50 cents on each $100.00 of assessed value of all property within the State of West Virginia and $4.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

To the normal rates imposed by Article 12-A there is added, in all cases, a surtax of 30 per cent of the normal tax.

An annual exemption of $50.00 and an additional credit of five per cent of the tax due after the deduction of said exemption is provided under the Transportation Privilege Tax Law for persons engaged in business in the state.

Authorized agents of municipalities having a Gross Sales Tax Ordinance are permitted to inspect and make copies of returns filed with the State Tax Commissioner upon the written request of the Mayors of such municipalities.

PERSONAL INCOME TAX

The West Virginia Personal Income Tax Act (W. Va. Code, ch. 11, art. 21) was enacted by the 1961 regular session of the legislature on February 10, 1961, and signed by the Governor on February 14, 1961. The provisions of the Act applied to all taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1961, including that part which elapsed prior to the effective date of the Act. The Act was applied to taxable years beginning prior to and ending in the year 1961, but the tax imposed for any such year was on a prorated basis.

Description of Tax: The West Virginia Income Tax Act imposes a personal income tax on the taxable income of all resident individuals, and resident estates and trusts, irrespective of where such income is earned. Nonresident individuals, estates and trusts are taxed only upon income derived from West Virginia sources. Corporations and partnerships are not subject to the West Virginia income tax. A trust or other unincorporated organization which by reason of its activities is exempt from federal income tax is also exempt from West Virginia income tax.

The Act adopted for West Virginia personal income tax purposes follows the provisions of the federal income tax laws relating to the determination of income. As adopted, the West Virginia Income Tax Act is a conformity statute. The same general concepts of income, gain, loss and deduction are employed in the West Virginia Act as are employed in the federal income tax law. The method used to make reference to the federal law is general in scope. With the exception of several rather technical modifications, West Virginia adjusted gross income is federal adjusted gross income. Amendments made to the federal income tax law which affect income, gain, loss and deduction are reflected in the West Virginia income tax law by periodic legislative enactments. The conformity with the federal income tax law was adopted to simplify preparation of state income tax returns, to improve enforcement of the state income tax through better use of information obtained from federal income tax audits, and to aid interpretation of the state tax law through increased use of federal judicial and administrative determinations and precedents.

Deductions. An individual, resident or nonresident, may use the West Virginia standard deduction on his state return, regardless of whether he used the standard deduction or claimed itemized deductions on his federal return. The West Virginia standard deduction of an individual is ten (10) percent of his West Virginia adjusted gross income or $1,000, whichever is less. A resident or nonresident individual may elect to use itemized deductions in computing his West Virginia taxable income only if he claimed itemized deductions for the same year on his federal return. Itemized deductions for residents are the same as federal deductions, with the exception: nonresidents' deductions must be attributed to or connected with West Virginia sources.

Personal Exemptions. An individual, resident or nonresident, is allowed an exemption of $600.00 for each exemption to which he is entitled for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes. A husband and wife who file joint federal but separate West Virginia returns may each claim only the exemptions to which he or she would have been entitled if separate federal returns had been filed. The exemption for an estate or trust is $600.00.

Rate of Tax. For all taxable years or portions thereof ending prior to January 1, 1963, the West Virginia income tax rate was six (6) per centum of the federal income tax which would have been imposed on an identical amount of federal taxable income. For taxable years or portions thereof beginning on or after January 1, 1963, the West Virginia income tax rate, which is equally applicable to individuals, estates and trusts, is a graduated rate which begins at 1.2% of West Virginia taxable income. The maximum rate is 5.5% of the West Virginia taxable income. The West Virginia Income Tax Act provides only two rate schedules; one for joint returns and surviving spouses, and one for individuals and heads of household.

Credits Against Tax. The West Virginia Income Tax Act provides credits against the personal income tax for: (1) business and occupation tax imposed against the taxpayer; (2) transportation privilege tax imposed against the taxpayer; (3) West Virginia income tax withheld from the individual's wages or salary; (4) estimated income tax payments made by the individual; (5) income taxes paid by residents to other states; and (6) income taxes paid by nonresidents to their state of residence. No federal credits are allowed against the West Virginia income tax.

WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF WELFARE FOOD STAMP PROGRAM

The Food Stamp Program in West Virginia has been in operation in McDowell County since May, 1961, and in Logan, Mingo and Wayne Counties since November, 1962. In November, 1965, the program was expanded into seven additional counties—Boone, Clay, Fayette, Kanawha, Lincoln, Raleigh and Webster. In May, 1966, it again was expanded into seven more counties, including Braxton, Greenbrier, Mercer, Nicholas, Monroe, Summers and Wyoming. The Department of Welfare anticipated another expansion of the Food Stamp Program within the 1966-67 fiscal year.

The program is a joint undertaking of the United States Department of Agriculture and the West Virginia Department of Welfare. Households in economic need who do not receive welfare, as well as those who receive a grant of assistance, are eligible to participate. Eligible households purchase food stamp coupons in accordance with their monthly income and the number of persons in the household and are provided a sufficient amount of additional bonus, or free coupons, to insure nutritional meals. For example, a six-member household with a net monthly income of $165.00 would pay $68.00 in cash, and would receive free, or bonus, coupons in the amount of $40.00 to make a total of $108.00 the household has to spend for foods of its choice.

The program contributes to a household's dignity and self-respect with its provision for participation according to income. The household can use the money formerly spent for food for recreation, clothing and other necessities. The program not only increases the buying power of participating households, but also benefits the retail grocer and the wholesale merchant as well by the use of the bonus or free coupons. The food stamp coupons, redeemable at retail stores designated by the United States Department of Agriculture, have meant significant boosts for the economy in the various counties where the program is in operation. The Food Stamp Program is considered superior to that involving the direct distribution of Federal donated foods for a number of reasons. The most important reason is that it provides the household with an adequate diet and help in accordance to need. The administrative cost, primarily borne by the State, is largely offset by increased sales tax revenue on new business generated by issuance of the bonus stamps.

The following statistics reflect the average number of households participating in the Food Stamp Program by county since its inception, up until June 30, 1966.
