10 A BILL to amend and reenact §31A-2-8 of the Code of West Virginia,
11 1931, as amended, relating to the Commissioner's Assessment
12 and Examination Fund; allowing the Commissioner of Banking to 13 assess state banking institutions quarterly rather than on a
14 semiannual basis by establishing additional assessment dates
15 on April 1 and October 1; and providing that the Commissioner
16 of Banking shall prepare and send bank assessments by March 15
17 and September 15.

18 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

19 That §31A-2-8 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended,
20 be amended and reenacted, to read as follows:

21 ARTICLE 2. DIVISION OF BANKING.

22 §31A-2-8. Commissioner's assessments and examination fund;
23 assessments, costs and expenses of examinations;
24 collection.

1 (a) All moneys collected by the commissioner from financial 2 institutions and bank holding companies for assessments,
3 examination fees, investigation fees or other necessary expenses
4 incurred by the commissioner in administering such duties shall be 5 paid to the commissioner and paid by the commissioner to the 6 treasurer of the state to the credit of a special revenue account
7 to be known as the "commissioner's assessment and examination fund"
8 which is hereby established. The assessments and fees paid into 9 this account shall be appropriated by law and used to pay the costs
10 and expenses of the Division of Banking and all incidental costs
11 and expenses necessary for its operations. At the end of each 12 fiscal year, if the fund contains a sum of money in excess of 13 twenty percent of the appropriated budget of the Division of 14 Banking, the amount of the excess shall be transferred to the 15 General Revenue Fund of the state. The Legislature may appropriate 16 money to start the special revenue account.

17 (b) The commissioner of banking shall charge and collect from 18 each state banking institution or other financial institution or 19 bank holding company and pay into a special revenue account in the 20 State Treasury for the Division of Banking assessments as follows:

21 (1) For each state banking institution, a ~~semiannual~~ quarterly
22 assessment payable on January 1, ~~and April 1,~~ July 1, and October 23 1 each year, computed upon the total assets of the banking
24 institution shown on the report of condition of the banking

1 institution filed as of the preceding ~~June 30 and December 31~~, June
 2 30, September 30, December 31 and March 31, respectively, as 3 follows:

17 (2) For each regulated consumer lender, an annual assessment
 18 payable on July 1, each year, computed upon the total outstanding 19 gross loan balances and installment sales contract balances net of 20 unearned interest of the regulated consumer lender shown on the 21 report of condition of the regulated consumer lender as of the 22 preceding thirty-first day of December, respectively, as follows:

23 Total Outstanding Balances

		But Not	This		Of Excess
	Over	Over	Amount	Plus	Over
3	$ 0	$ 1,000,000	800	-	-
4	1,000,000	5,000,000	800	.000400	1,000,000
5	5,000,000	10,000,000	2,400	.000200	5,000,000
6	10,000,000	-	4,200	.000100	10,000,000

7 If a regulated consumer lender's records or documents are 8 maintained in more than one location in this state, then eight 9 hundred dollars may be added to the assessment for each additional 10 location.

11 In addition to the assessment provided in this subdivision,
12 the commissioner shall charge and collect from each regulated
13 consumer lender the actual and necessary costs and expenses
14 incurred in connection with any examination of a regulated consumer 15 lender.

16 (3) For each credit union, an annual assessment as provided
17 for in section eight, article one, chapter thirty-one-c of this 18 code as follows:

19 Total Assets

		But Not	This		Of Excess
	Over	Over	Amount	Plus	Over
22	$ 0	$ 100,000	100	-	-
23	100,000	500,000	300	-	-

2	1,000,000	5,000,000	500	.000400	1,000,000
3	5,000,000	10,000,000	2,100	.000200	5,000,000
4	10,000,000	-	3,100	.000100	10,000,000

5 (4) For each bank holding company, an annual assessment as 6 provided for in section eight, article eight-a of this chapter.
7 The annual assessment may not exceed ten dollars per million
8 dollars in deposits rounded off to the nearest million dollars.

9 (c) The commissioner shall each December ~~and each~~ March, June
10 and September prepare and send to each state banking institution a 11 statement of the amount of the assessment due. The commissioner
12 shall further, each June, prepare and send to each regulated 13 consumer lender and each state credit union a statement of the 14 amount of the assessment due. The commissioner shall annually, 15 during the month of January, prepare and send to each bank holding 16 company a statement of the amount of the assessment due.

17 State banking institution assessments may be prescribed every 18 ~~six~~ three months, not later than June 15 ~~and September 15~~, December 19 15~~7~~ and March 15 by written order of the commissioner, but shall 20 not exceed the maximums as set forth in subsection (b) of this 21 section. In setting the assessments the primary consideration
22 shall be the amount appropriated by the Legislature for the 23 Division of Banking for the corresponding annual period.
24 Reasonable notice of the assessments shall be made to all

1 interested parties. All orders of the commissioner for the purpose
2 of setting assessments are not subject to the provisions of the 3 West Virginia administrative procedures act under chapter twenty-4 nine-a of this code.

5 (d) For making an examination within the state of any other 6 financial institution for which assessments are not provided by 7 this code, the commissioner of banking shall charge and collect
8 from such other financial institution and pay into the special 9 revenue account for the Division of Banking the actual and 10 necessary costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith, as 11 fixed and determined by the commissioner. Banks that provide only 12 trust or other nondepository services, nonbanking subsidiaries of 13 bank holding companies that provide trust services, nonbanking
14 subsidiaries of banks that provide trust services and any trust
15 entity that is jointly owned by federally insured depository
16 institutions may be assessed for necessary costs and expenses
17 associated with an examination pursuant to this subsection.

18 (e) If the records of an institution are located outside this 19 state, the institution at its option shall make them available to 20 the commissioner at a convenient location within the state or pay 21 the reasonable and necessary expenses for the commissioner or his 22 or her representatives to examine them at the place where they are 23 maintained. The commissioner may designate representatives,
24 including comparable officials of the state in which the records

1 are located, to inspect them on his or her behalf.

2 (f) The commissioner of banking may maintain an action for the 3 recovery of all assessments, costs and expenses in any court of 4 competent jurisdiction.

5

6 NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to allow the Commissioner
7 of Banking to assess state banks on a quarterly rather than 8 semiannual basis.
