10 A BILL to amend and reenact §18A-4-3 of the Code of West Virginia,
11 1931, as amended, relating to increased salary increments paid
12 to principals and assistant principals.

13 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

14 That §18A-4-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended,
15 be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

16 ARTICLE 4. SALARIES, WAGES AND OTHER BENEFITS.

17 §18A-4-3. State minimum annual salary increments for principals
18 and assistant principals.

19 (a) In addition to any salary increments for principals and 20 assistant principals, in effect on ~~the first day of January, two~~ 21 ~~thousand eight~~ July 1, 2011, and paid from local funds, and in 22 addition to the county schedule in effect for teachers, the county
23 board shall pay each principal a principal's salary increment and 24 each assistant principal an assistant principal's salary increment

1 as prescribed by this section from state funds appropriated for the 2 salary increments.

3 (b) State funds for this purpose shall be paid within the West
 4 Virginia public school support plan in accordance with article
 5 nine-a, chapter eighteen of this code.

6 (c) The salary increment in this section for each principal
 7 shall be determined by multiplying the basic salary for teachers in 8 accordance with the classification of certification and of training
 9 of the principal as prescribed in this article by the appropriate
 10 percentage rate prescribed in this section according to the number
 11 of teachers supervised.

(d) The salary increment in this section for each assistant principal shall be determined in the same manner as that for principals using the number of teachers supervised by the principal under whose direction the assistant principal works, except that the percentage rate shall be fifty percent of the rate prescribed for the principal.

(e) Salaries for employment beyond the minimum employment term shall be at the same daily rate as the salaries for the minimum employment terms.

(f) For the purpose of determining the number of teachers supervised by a principal, the county board shall use data for the second school month of the prior school term and the number of teachers shall be interpreted to mean the total number of professional educators assigned to each school on a full-time equivalency basis: Provided, That if there is a change in

1 circumstances because of consolidation or catastrophe, the county
2 board shall determine what is a reasonable number of supervised
3 teachers in order to establish the appropriate increment percentage
4 rate.

5 (g) No county may reduce local funds allocated for salary
6 increments for principals and assistant principals in effect on ~~the~~ 7 ~~first day of January, two thousand eight~~ January 1, 2011, and used
8 in supplementing the state minimum salaries as provided in this
9 article, unless forced to do so by defeat of a special levy, or a
10 loss in assessed values or events over which it has no control and 11 for which the county board has received approval from the state
12 board prior to making the reduction.

13 (h) Nothing in this section prevents a county board from 14 providing, in a uniform manner, salary increments greater than 15 those required by this section.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to increase salary increments paid to principals and assistant principals.
