

1 shall utilize the Pay Connexion program of the Bureau of Child
2 Support Enforcement. Payments may be made to this program either 3 by automatic deduction from the payor's checking account or by 4 monthly charges to the payor's credit card. If a self-employed 5 payor fails to make payments for sixty days, the payor shall 6 receive a warning letter that they are in arrears. If no payment
7 is received for ninety days, the Bureau of Child Support
8 Enforcement may take steps to revoke the business license of the 9 self-employed payor.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require self-employed persons to participate in the Bureau of Child Support Enforcement's Pay Connexion program.

This section is new; therefore, it has been completely underscored.