 12 13BB-2, §11-13BB-3, §11-13BB-4 and §11-13BB-5; and to amend 13 and reenact §11-21-12 of said code, all relating to 14 establishing a tax credit for graduates of a higher education
 15 institution for a portion of the interest paid on student
 16 loans; requiring the Joint Committee of Government and Finance
 17 to review the effectiveness of the tax credit; establishing a 18 modification reducing federal adjusted gross income for recent 19 graduates of higher education institutions; and providing for 20 the promulgation of rules by the Tax Commissioner.

21 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

22 That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended
 23 by adding thereto a new article, designated §11-13BB-1, §11-13BB-2, 24 §11-13BB-3, §11-13BB-4 and §11-13BB-5; and that §11-21-12 of said
 25 code be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

26 ARTICLE 13BB. TAX CREDIT FOR PAYMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION LOANS.

1 §11-13BB-1. Legislative findings.

2 The Legislature finds and declares that:

3 (1) The State of West Virginia faces a demographic problem due
4 to the inability of our state in the past two decades to attract 5 and retain the younger generation into our state;

6 (2) The loss of young professionals and skilled workers is a
7 self perpetuating cycle and requires decisive and creative action
8 to reverse the trend;

9 (3) The retention, recruitment, and advancement of young 10 talent is critical to the future success of our state's economy,
11 communities and intellectual infrastructure;

12 (4) States are in a stiff competition for the coveted younger 13 demographic and are employing innovative strategies to create an 14 economy and community attractive to this younger generation;

15 (5) The increase of intellectual capital through the 16 attraction of the younger generation will enable the state to 17 become more attractive to national and global companies to relocate
18 to the State of West Virginia;

19 (6) Providing the younger generation with an incentive to 20 live, work, and play in West Virginia will increase the 21 intellectual capital of the state and combat the demographic 22 problem currently facing West Virginia and is therefore in the best 23 interest of the State of West Virginia.
