Interim
Bill

[Introduced January 19, 2011; referred to the Committee on Health and Human Resources; and then to the Committee on Finance.]

FISCAL NOTE

A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article, designated §49-6F-1, §49-6F-2, §49-6F-3, §49-6F-4, §49-6F-5, §49-6F-6, §49-6F-7 and §49-6F-8, all relating to establishing the Office of Child Advocacy; defining terms; providing powers and duties of the Office of Child Advocacy; providing qualifications, term of office and salary of the director; granting authority for the director to hire staff; providing the director and staff of the Office of Child Advocacy to investigate and monitor the Division of Child Protective Services and Division of Juvenile Services; authorizing access by Office of Child Protective Services and certain Division of Corrections records and information;
allowing communication with children involved in Child Protective Services investigations and in the custody of the Division of Juvenile Services; providing for confidentiality

1 of certain information; and granting immunity to office from 2 liability in specified circumstances.

3 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

4 That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended
5 by adding thereto a new article, designated §49-6F-1, §49-6F-2, 6 §49-6F-3, §49-6F-4, §49-6F-5, §49-6F-6, §49-6F-7 and §49-6F-8, all 7 to read as follows:

8 ARTICLE 6F. OFFICE OF CHILD ADVOCACY.

9 §49-6F-1. Purpose.

10 The Legislature is committed to providing for the well being 11 of children and families of the State of West Virginia. Securing 12 a future for some of our most vulnerable citizens, those involved 13 in abuse and neglect proceedings and those with behavioral health 14 problems, has proven to be a daunting and on-going effort for the 15 Legislature. Further, disposition of these children to assure 16 state resources are being maximized towards assisting these 17 children as they enter into adulthood is a vital government
18 function, therefore the Legislature creates the Office of Child 19 Advocacy. The director is charged with coordinating efforts on 20 behalf of children and families involved in the state system; to 21 work with advocacy groups; to advocate and promote systematic 22 reforms; and to recommend changes in law, policy, rule or procedure 23 necessary to enhance the protection of children and families
24 involved in abuse and neglect and foster care matters, and advance 25 proper and effective management of behavioral health services for 1 children.

2 §49-6F-2. Definitions.

3 In this article:

4 (1) "Child or children" means a person or persons yet to 5 attain the age of eighteen years, or a person who has attained the 6 age of eighteen years or older when jurisdiction of the agency over 7 that person is continued as a result of agency jurisdiction over 8 that person when he or she was under the age of eighteen years.

9 (2) "Child abuse and neglect" means child abuse and neglect as 10 those terms are defined in section three, article one of this 11 chapter.

12 (3) "Child Fatality Review Team" means the Child Fatality 13 Review Team as established by section five, article five-d of this 14 chapter.

15 (4) "Child protective services" means the state agency within 16 the Department of Health and Human Resources charged with the 17 responsibility for review, investigation and placement of children 18 involved in child abuse and neglect matters established in article 19 six-a, chapter forty-nine of this code.

20 (5) "Director" means the Director of the Office of Child 21 Advocacy.

22 (6) "Division of juvenile services" means the state agency
23 within the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety charged 24 with the responsibility for juvenile detention and corrections as 25 provided by article five-e of this chapter.

1 (7) "Multidisciplinary team" means the multidisciplinary team
2 as defined by section three, article one of this chapter.

3 (8) "Office" means the Office of Child Advocacy.

4 (9) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department of 5 Health and Human Resources.

6 §49-6F-3. Office of Child Advocacy created to monitor child
7 protective services and Division of Juvenile 8 Services; office to be independent.

9 (a) There is created the Office of Child Advocacy to promote 10 public awareness and understanding of child protective services and 11 the Division of Juvenile Services, to monitor and ensure compliance 12 with administrative acts, relevant statutes, legislative rules and 13 internal policies pertaining to child protective services and the 14 Division of Juvenile Services and the investigations, placement, 15 supervision and treatment of children in child abuse and neglect 16 cases, foster care and placement, treatment and state operated and 17 contracted youth and social services, including treatment of those 18 children with behavioral health issues.

19 (b) The director reports directly to the Governor.

20 (c) The Office of Child Advocacy and the staff of the office
21 is independent of the Department of Health and Human Resources.
22 Neither agency may prevent, inhibit or prohibit the office from 23 initiating, carrying out or completing any investigation, review or 24 other activity within the office's statutory duties and deemed 25 necessary by the director.

1 §49-6F-4. Appointment; qualifications; term of office.

2 (a) The Office of Child Advocacy is under the direct 3 supervision of the director. The director is the executive and 4 administrative head of the office and shall be appointed by the 5 Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The director 6 shall be qualified by training and experience to direct the 7 operations of the Office of Child Advocacy.

8 (b) The director:

9 (1) Shall serve on a full-time basis;

10 (2) May not hold political office in the government of the 11 state either by election or appointment while serving as director;

12 (3) Shall be a citizen of the state;

13 (4) Is entitled to receive an annual salary as provided by the 14 Governor; and

15 (5) Is exempt from coverage under the classified service as 16 provided in section four, article six, chapter twenty-nine of this 17 code.

18 (c) The director shall hold office for a term of three years
19 and shall continue to hold office until reappointed or until a 20 successor is appointed. The Governor may remove the director only 21 for neglect of duty, misconduct or inability to perform duties.
22 Any vacancy shall be filled by similar appointment for the 23 remainder of the unexpired term.

24 §49-6F-5. Powers and duties of the Office of Child Advocacy;
25 hiring of staff.

1 (a) The powers and duties of the director include, but are not 2 limited to:

3 (1) Reviewing, monitoring and investigation of the performance 4 of services for children as rendered by the state, foster care and 5 placement, treatment, and state operated and contracted youth and 6 social services, including housing of status offenders and 7 treatment of children with behavioral health issues;

8 (2) Inspection and review of the operations, policies and 9 procedures of foster homes, group homes, residential treatment 10 facilities, shelters for the care of abused or neglected children, 11 facilities and programs for children with behavioral health issues
12 or any other public or private residential setting in which a child 13 has been placed by the state.

14 (3) Intervention in disposition orders and placements, by 15 petition to the court for hearings for modification of a 16 dispositional order as authorized by section fourteen, article 17 five, chapter forty-nine of this code when the director believes 18 the best interests of a juvenile are not reflected in the 19 disposition order. The presiding court shall consider the petition 20 and at the discretion of the court may revise or modify the order 21 accordingly. The director may, at his or her discretion, appeal any 22 such order.

23 (4) Reporting to the Legislative Oversight Commission on 24 Health and Human Resources Accountability annually by December 31
25 of each calendar year, concerning the state of each state entity's

1 specific duties in child abuse and neglect matters, and provide 2 nonconfidential information and assistance to the commission as it 3 may otherwise request;

4 (5) Acting as a neutral and nonadversarial arbiter in disputes 5 between citizens and the Division of Child Protective Services and 6 the Division of Juvenile Services;

7 (6) Making recommendations to the Governor for legislative or 8 administrative changes designed to improve the state's performance 9 in responding to child abuse and neglect cases as well as the 10 prosecuting attorney and judiciary's role in the protection of 11 children from child abuse and child neglect, and for the housing 12 and treatment of adjudicated delinquent youth;

13 (7) Reviewing, evaluating, reporting on and making
14 recommendations concerning the procedures established by the state 15 in providing services to children who are at risk of abuse or 16 neglect, in the custody of the state or any child who receives 17 child protective services and the Division of Juvenile Services;

18 (8) Reviewing, evaluating, reporting on and making
19 recommendations concerning the selection, assistance and monitoring 20 of foster care homes, to assure proper placement and services to 21 children placed in foster homes;

22 (9) Remaining knowledgeable and informed regarding current 23 law, changes in the law and trends in the law relating to child 24 abuse child neglect and juvenile services, and to answer queries 25 from the public regarding same;

1 (10) Remaining knowledgeable and informed concerning the 2 state's administrative practices, procedures and policies as they 3 relate to the protection of children;

4 (11) Filing legal actions in abuse and neglect cases and for 5 issues arising from disposition of adjudicated juvenile 6 delinquents, including, but not limited to, actions in mandamus, 7 prohibition or declaratory judgment actions that seek to require 8 governmental officials to perform necessary activities to 9 adequately serve and protect children or to prohibit those 10 officials from engaging in actions that are counterproductive to 11 the protection and welfare of children;

12 (12) Dissemination of information to the public on the 13 objectives of the office, the services the office provides and the 14 methods by which the office may be contacted, including, but not 15 limited to, a toll-free telephone number to receive and respond to 16 calls from citizens and a web page describing the services 17 available through the office;

18 (13) Aiding the Governor and the Legislature in proposing 19 methods of achieving increased coordination and collaboration among 20 state agencies and entities, including the judiciary, to ensure 21 maximum effectiveness and efficiency in the provision of services 22 to children;

23 (14) Providing necessary training and technical assistance to 24 child protective services, Division of Juvenile Services 25 prosecuting attorneys and the judiciary on issues relevant to the

1 performance of their respective duties with regard to child abuse
2 and child neglect;

3 (15) Applying for and accepting grants, gifts and bequests of 4 funds from other entities, states, federal and interstate agencies 5 for the purpose of carrying out the lawful responsibilities of the 6 Office of Child Advocacy; and 7 (16) Doing all necessary activities intended to improve the 8 child protective services division and the Division of Juvenile 9 Services.

10 (b) The director may appoint an adequate number of staff to 11 properly perform the duties of the office. The total compensation 12 of the staff shall be within the limits of the amounts appropriated 13 by the Legislature for personal services of the office. All staff 14 shall serve at the will and pleasure of the director.

15 §49-6F-6. Access to information; communication with children;
16 confidentiality.

17 (a) The director shall have access to:

18 (1) All written reports of child abuse and neglect matters
19 including the names of all children involved in investigation, 20 treatment or placement by child protective services;

21 (2) All records of local multidisciplinary teams created 22 pursuant to the provisions of section two, article five-d of this 23 chapter;

24 (3) All current and archived records maintained by child
25 protective services;

1 (4) All court documents, including but not limited to,
2 pleadings, petitions, orders and discovery information;

3 (5) All on-line case management information;

4 (6) All records of child fatality review teams created 5 pursuant to section five, article five-d of this chapter; and

6 (7) All state institutions serving children, and state
7 licensed facilities or residences for the purposes of carrying out 8 this article.

9 (b) The director may communicate privately, by mail or orally,
10 with any child who is the subject of a child protective services 11 investigation, or otherwise in the custody of the department of 12 health and human services;

13 (c) All records of the office pertaining to the care and 14 treatment of a child shall remain confidential and are subject to 15 the same confidentiality requirements as set forth in section one, 16 article seven of this chapter. These records are not subject to 17 any method of legal compulsion without a showing of good cause by 18 the circuit or family court. Information contained in the records 19 may not be disclosed publicly in any manner that would disclose 20 identifying information about complainants or witnesses. The 21 records are exempt from the freedom of information act as provided 22 by chapter twenty-nine-b of this code.

23 §49-6F-7. Admissibility of evidence; testimony regarding official 24 duties; exceptions.

25 (a) Neither the director nor the staff of the Office of Child

1 Advocacy may be compelled in any judicial or administrative 2 proceeding to testify or produce evidence regarding the exercise of 3 the official duties of the director. All related memoranda, work 4 product, notes and case files of the office are confidential, not 5 subject to discovery, judicial or administrative subpoena or other 6 method of legal compulsion and are not admissible as evidence in a 7 judicial or administrative proceeding.

8 (b) The privilege described in subsection (a) of this section 9 does not apply when:

10 (1) The office has direct knowledge of an alleged crime and 11 the testimony, evidence or discovery sought is relevant to that 12 allegation;

13 (2) The office has received a threat of, or becomes aware of 14 a risk of, imminent serious harm to any person, and the testimony, 15 evidence or discovery sought is relevant to that threat or risk; or 16 (3) The director has been asked to provide general information

17 regarding the general operation of or the general processes 18 employed at his or her office.

19 §49-6F-8. Immunity from liability for good faith performance of 20 duties.

21 (a) An employee of the Office of the Child Advocacy is not 22 liable for good faith performance under this article.

23 (b) No discriminatory, disciplinary or retaliatory action may 24 be taken against an employee of the state, an employee of a 25 contracting agency of the state, a foster parent, or a recipient of 1 service from child protective services or Division of Juvenile 2 Services for any communication made, or information given or 3 disclosed, to aid the Office of Child Advocacy in carrying out its 4 responsibilities, unless the communication or information is made, 5 given or disclosed maliciously or not in good faith.

6 (c) All communications by the employees of the Office of Child
7 Advocacy if reasonably related to the requirements of this section 8 and done in good faith are privileged. This privilege serves as a 9 defense in any action brought in libel or slander.
