10 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by 11 adding thereto a new section, designated §48-13-703, relating 12 to permitting the restructuring of child support payments of 13 an inmate who is released from the custody of the Division of 14 Corrections or United States Bureau of Prisons under certain 15 circumstances; and providing that one judge may assume 16 authority over all child support obligations of the former 17 inmate.

18 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

19 That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended 20 by adding thereto a new section, designated §48-13-703, to read as 21 follows:

22 ARTICLE 13. GUIDELINES FOR CHILD SUPPORT AWARDS.

23 §48-13-703. Restructuring of payments upon release of inmate.

1        Upon his or her release from the custody of the Division of 2 Corrections or the United States Bureau of Prisons, a person who is 3 gainfully employed and is subject to a child support obligation or 4 obligations and from whose weekly disposable earnings an amount in 5 excess of forty percent is being withheld for the child support
6 obligation or obligations may, within eighteen months of his or her 7 release, petition the court having jurisdiction over the case or 8 cases to restructure the payments to an amount that allows the 9 person to pay his or her necessary living expenses. In order to 10 achieve consistency and fairness, one judge may assume jurisdiction 11 over all the cases the person may have within that circuit of the 12 court. In apportioning the available funds, the court shall give 13 priority to the person's current child support obligations:
14 Provided, That a minimum of $50 per month shall be paid in each 15 case.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to allow an inmate upon release from custody to restructure child support payments under the jurisdiction of one judge.

This section is new; therefore, strike-throughs and underscoring have been omitted.
