

The Committee on the Judiciary moves to amend the bill on page eighteen, section five, line twenty, following the words "duration of the access", by striking out "If a traditional access route has become unusable or unavailable due to the actions of the landowner, an authorized person may petition the circuit court to order the landowner to make necessary repairs to the traditional access route or to develop a new access route of the same kind as previously existed."