

H. B. 2549

(By Delegates M. Smith, Phillips, L., Moore, White, Marcum and Miley)

[Introduced February 19, 2013; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary then Finance.]

FISCAL NOTE

A BILL to amend and enact §50-1-3, §50-1-8, §50-1-9 and §50-1-9a of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, all relating to increasing salaries of those magistrates and their staffs whose salaries were reduced as a result of the 2010 census to precensus amounts; providing an effective date; and providing that the salary increase is retroactive to January 1, 2013.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §50-1-3, §50-1-8, §50-1-9 and §50-1-9a of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. COURTS AND OFFICERS.

§50-1-3. Salaries of magistrates.

(a) The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals has held that a salary system for magistrates which is based upon the population that each magistrate serves does not violate the equal protection

1 clause of the Constitution of the United States;

2       (2) The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals has held that
3 a salary system for magistrates which is based upon the population
4 that each magistrate serves does not violate section thirty-nine, 5 article VI of the Constitution of West Virginia;

6       (3) The utilization of a two-tiered salary schedule for 7 magistrates is an equitable and rational manner by which 8 magistrates should be compensated for work performed;

9       (4) Organizing the two tiers of the salary schedule into one 10 tier for magistrates serving less than eight thousand four hundred 11 in population and the second tier for magistrates serving eight 12 thousand four hundred or more in population is rational and 13 equitable given current statistical information relating to 14 population and caseload; and 15       (5) That all magistrates who fall under the same tier should 16 be compensated equally.

17       (b) The salary of each magistrate shall be paid by the state.
18 Magistrates who serve fewer than eight thousand four hundred in 19 population shall be paid annual salaries of $30,625 and magistrates 20 who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in population shall 21 be paid annual salaries of $37,000: Provided, That on and after 22 the first day of July, two thousand three, magistrates who serve 23 fewer than eight thousand four hundred in population shall be paid 24 annual salaries of $33,625 and magistrates who serve eight thousand

1 four hundred or more in population shall be paid annual salaries of 2 $40,000: Provided, however, That on and after the first day of 3 July, 2005, magistrates who serve fewer than eight thousand four 4 hundred in population shall be paid annual salaries of $43,625 and 5 magistrates who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in 6 population shall be paid annual salaries of $50,000: Provided
7 further, That on and after the first day of July, 2011, magistrates 8 who serve fewer than eight thousand four hundred in population 9 shall be paid annual salaries of $51,125 and magistrates who serve 10 eight thousand four hundred or more in population shall be paid 11 annual salaries of $57,500.

12 (c) For the purpose of determining the population served by 13 each magistrate, the number of magistrates authorized for each 14 county shall be divided into the population of each county. For the 15 purpose of this article, the population of each county is the 16 population as determined by the last preceding decennial census 17 taken under the authority of the United States government.

18 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the 19 contrary, any magistrate whose salary was decreased as a result of 20 the 2010 United States census shall have his or her salary 21 increased to the precensus amount. This section is effective upon 22 date of passage and is retroactive to January 1, 2013.

23 §50-1-8. Magistrate court clerks; salaries; duties; duties of 24 circuit clerk.

1           (a) In each county having three or more magistrates the judge 2 of the circuit court or the chief judge of the circuit court, if 3 there is more than one judge of the circuit court, shall appoint a 4 magistrate court clerk. In all other counties the judge may 5 appoint a magistrate court clerk or may by rule require the duties 6 of the magistrate court clerk to be performed by the clerk of the 7 circuit court, in which event the circuit court clerk is entitled 8 to additional compensation in the amount of $2,500 per year. The 9 magistrate court clerk serves at the will and pleasure of the 10 circuit judge.

11           (b) Magistrate court clerks shall be paid a monthly salary by 12 the state. Magistrate court clerks serving magistrates who serve 13 less than eight thousand four hundred in population shall be paid 14 up to $26,436 per year and magistrate court clerks serving 15 magistrates who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in 16 population shall be paid up to $31,344 per year: Provided, That on 17 and after July 1, 2006, magistrate court clerks serving magistrates 18 who serve less than eight thousand four hundred in population shall 19 be paid up to $31,436 per year and magistrate court clerks serving 20 magistrates who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in 21 population shall be paid up to $36,344 per year: Provided,
22 however, That on and after July 1, 2007, magistrate court clerks
23 serving magistrates who serve less than eight thousand four hundred 24 in population shall be paid up to $36,436 per year and magistrate

1 court clerks serving magistrates who serve eight thousand four 2 hundred or more in population shall be paid up to $41,344 per year:
3 Provided further, That after the effective date of this section,
4 any general salary increase granted to all state employees, whose 5 salaries are not set by statute, expressed as a percentage increase 6 or an "across-the-board" increase, may also be granted to 7 magistrate court clerks. For the purpose of determining the 8 population served by each magistrate, the number of magistrates
9 authorized for each county shall be divided into the population of 10 each county. The salary of the magistrate court clerk shall be 11 established by the judge of the circuit court, or the chief judge 12 of the circuit court if there is more than one judge of the circuit 13 court, within the limits set forth in this section.

14 (c) In addition to other duties that may be imposed by the 15 provisions of this chapter or by the rules of the Supreme Court of 16 Appeals or the judge of the circuit court or the chief judge of the 17 circuit court if there is more than one judge of the circuit court, 18 it is the duty of the magistrate court clerk to establish and 19 maintain appropriate dockets and records in a centralized system 20 for the magistrate court, to assist in the preparation of the 21 reports required of the court and to carry out on behalf of the 22 magistrates or chief magistrate if a chief magistrate is appointed, 23 the administrative duties of the court.

24 (d) The magistrate court clerk, or if there is no magistrate

1 court clerk in the county, the clerk of the circuit court, may 2 issue all manner of civil process and require the enforcement of 3 subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in magistrate court.

4 (e) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the 5 contrary, any magistrate court clerk whose salary was decreased as 6 a result of the 2010 United States census shall have his or her 7 salary increased to the precensus amount. This section is 8 effective upon date of passage and is retroactive to January 1, 9 2013.

10 §50-1-9. Magistrate assistants; salary; duties.

11 (a) In each county there shall be one magistrate assistant for 12 each magistrate. Each magistrate assistant shall be appointed by 13 the magistrate under whose authority and supervision and at whose 14 will and pleasure he or she shall serve. The assistant shall not 15 be a member of the immediate family of any magistrate and shall not 16 have been convicted of a felony or any misdemeanor involving moral 17 turpitude and shall reside in the State of West Virginia. For the 18 purpose of this section, "immediate family" means the relationships 19 of mother, father, sister, brother, child or spouse.

20 (b) A magistrate assistant shall have the duties, clerical or 21 otherwise, assigned by the magistrate and prescribed by the rules
22 of the Supreme Court of Appeals or the judge of the circuit court 23 or the chief judge of the circuit court if there is more than one 24 judge of the circuit court. In addition to these duties,

1 magistrate assistants shall perform and are accountable to the 2 magistrate court clerks with respect to the following duties:

3 (1) The preparation of summons in civil actions;

4 (2) The assignment of civil actions to the various 5 magistrates;

6 (3) The collection of all costs, fees, fines, forfeitures and 7 penalties which are payable to the court;

8 (4) The submission of moneys, along with an accounting of the 9 moneys, to appropriate authorities as provided by law;

10 (5) The daily disposition of closed files which are to be 11 located in the magistrate clerk's office;

12 (6) All duties related to the gathering of information and 13 documents necessary for the preparation of administrative reports
14 and documents required by the rules of the Supreme Court of Appeals 15 or the judge of the circuit court or the chief judge of the circuit 16 court if there is more than one judge of the circuit court;

17 (7) All duties relating to the notification, certification and 18 payment of jurors serving pursuant to the terms of this chapter;

19 (8) All other duties or responsibilities whereby the 20 magistrate assistant is accountable to the magistrate court clerk 21 as determined by the magistrate.

22 (c) Magistrate assistants shall be paid a monthly salary by 23 the state. Magistrate assistants serving magistrates who serve
24 less than eight thousand four hundred in population shall be paid

1 up to $23,148 per year and magistrate assistants serving 2 magistrates who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in
3 population shall be paid up to $26,244 per year: Provided, That on 4 and after July 1, 2006, magistrate assistants serving magistrates
5 who serve less than eight thousand four hundred in population shall 6 be paid up to $28,148 per year and magistrate assistants serving 7 magistrates who serve eight thousand four hundred or more in 8 population shall be paid up to $31,244 per year: Provided,
9 however, That on and after July 1, 2007, magistrate assistants
10 serving magistrates who serve less than eight thousand four hundred
11 in population shall be paid up to $33,148 per year and magistrate 12 assistants serving magistrates who serve eight thousand four 13 hundred or more in population shall be paid up to $36,244 per year:
14 Provided further, That after the effective date of this section, 15 any general salary increase granted to all state employees, whose 16 salaries are not set by statute, expressed as a percentage increase 17 or an "across-the-board" increase, may also be granted to 18 magistrate assistants. For the purpose of determining the 19 population served by each magistrate, the number of magistrates
20 authorized for each county shall be divided into the population of 21 each county. The salary of the magistrate assistant shall be 22 established by the magistrate within the limits set forth in this 23 section.

24 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the

1 contrary, any magistrate assistant whose salary was decreased as a 2 result of the 2010 United States census shall have his or her
3 salary increased to the precensus amount. This section is 4 effective upon date of passage and is retroactive to January 1, 5 2013.

6 §50-1-9a. Magistrate court deputy clerks; duties; salary.

7 (a) Whenever required by workload and upon the recommendation 8 of the judge of the circuit court, or the chief judge of the 9 circuit court if there is more than one judge of the circuit court, 10 the Supreme Court of Appeals may, by rule, provide for the 11 appointment of magistrate court deputy clerks, not to exceed 12 seventy-two in number. The magistrate court deputy clerks shall be 13 appointed by the judge of the circuit court, or the chief judge if 14 there is more than one judge of the circuit court, to serve at his 15 or her will and pleasure under the immediate supervision of the 16 magistrate court clerk.

17 (b) Magistrate court deputy clerks shall have the duties, 18 clerical or otherwise, as may be assigned by the magistrate court 19 clerk and as may be prescribed by the rules of the Supreme Court of 20 Appeals or the judge of the circuit court or the chief judge if 21 there is more than one judge of the circuit court. Magistrate 22 court deputy clerks may also exercise the power and perform the 23 duties of the magistrate court clerk as may be delegated or 24 assigned by the magistrate court clerk.

1 (c) A magistrate court deputy clerk may not be an immediate 2 family member of any magistrate, magistrate court clerk, magistrate 3 assistant or judge of the circuit court within the same county, may 4 not have been convicted of a felony or any misdemeanor involving 5 moral turpitude and must reside in this state. For purposes of 6 this subsection, "immediate family member" means a mother, father, 7 sister, brother, child or spouse.

8 (d) Magistrate court deputy clerks shall be paid an annual 9 salary by the state on the same basis and in the same amounts 10 established for magistrate assistants in each county, as provided 11 in section nine of this article.

12 (e) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the 13 contrary, any magistrate court deputy clerk whose salary was 14 decreased as a result of the 2010 United States census shall have 15 his or her salary increased to the precensus amount. This section 16 is effective upon date of passage and is retroactive to January 1, 17 2013.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to increasing salaries of those magistrates and their staffs whose salaries were reduced as a result of the 2010 census to precensus amounts. The bill provides an effective date. The bill provides that the salary increase is retroactive to January 1, 2013.
