VIA HAND DELIVERY

The Honorable Jeffrey V. Kessler
President, West Virginia Senate
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia 25305

Dear President Kessler:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return enrolled Senate Bill No. 307.

I disapprove this bill because it embraces more than one object in violation of section thirty, article VI of the Constitution of West Virginia. In addition to authorizing the establishment of community corrections programs for the pre-trial release of certain offenders at the county level, the bill amends the article of the West Virginia Code regulating bail bondsmen in criminal cases throughout West Virginia.

For this reason, I must disapprove the bill. However, I encourage the Legislature to reconsider this matter and return it to my desk for approval.

Sincerely,

Governor
