10 A BILL to amend and reenact §5-10-17 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; to amend 11 and reenact §7-14D-5 of said code; to amend and reenact §8-22A-6 of said code; to amend 12 and reenact §15-2A-3 of said code; to amend and reenact §16-5V-6 of said code; and to 13 amend and reenact §18-7A-13 of said code, all relating to retirement system participation; 14 clarifying that police officers and firefighters hired after a certain date are members of the 15 West Virginia Municipal Police and Firefighters Retirement System; clarifying that 16 members first employed in covered employment in the West Virginia Deputy Sheriffs 17 Retirement System, West Virginia Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement 18 System or the West Virginia Emergency Medical Services Retirement System shall 19 participate in only one retirement system administered by the Consolidated Public 20 Retirement Board in which the member has the earliest date of hire; and specifying that 21 members of the Public Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System

1 and the Teachers' Retirement System who are employed in an additional job that requires 2 membership in the West Virginia Deputy Sheriff Retirement System, the West Virginia
3 Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement System or the West Virginia
4 Emergency Medical Services Retirement System shall abide by the concurrent employment 5 provisions of said system and participate in only one system administered by the 6 Consolidated Public Retirement Board.

7 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

8 That §5-10-17 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted; 9 that §7-14D-5 of said code be amended and reenacted; that §8-22A-6 of said code be amended and 10 reenacted; that §15-2A-3 of said code be amended and reenacted; that §16-5V-6 of said code be 11 amended and reenacted; and that §18-7A-13 of said code be amended and reenacted, all to read as 12 follows:

13 CHAPTER 5. GENERAL POWERS AND AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNOR, 14 SECRETARY OF STATE AND ATTORNEY GENERAL; BOARD OF PUBLIC
15 WORKS; MISCELLANEOUS AGENCIES, COMMISSIONS, OFFICES, PROGRAMS, 16 ETC.

17 ARTICLE 10. WEST VIRGINIA PUBLIC EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT ACT.

18 §5-10-17. Retirement system membership.

19 The membership of the retirement system consists of the following persons:

20 (a) All employees, as defined in section two of this article, who are in the employ of a 21 political subdivision the day preceding the date it becomes a participating public employer and who

1 continue in the employ of the participating public employer on and after that date shall become 2 members of the retirement system; and all persons who become employees of a participating public 3 employer on or after that date shall thereupon become members of the system; except as provided 4 in subdivisions (b), ~~and~~ (c) and (d) of this section.

5 (b) The membership of the Public Employees Retirement System shall not include any person 6 who is an active contributing member of, or who has been retired by, any of the state Teachers
7 retirement systems, the Judges Retirement System, any Retirement System of the West Virginia State
8 Police, the Deputy Sheriff Retirement System or any municipal retirement system for either, or both, 9 police or firefighter; and the Bureau of Employment Programs, by the Commissioner of the Bureau, 10 may elect whether its employees will accept coverage under this article or be covered under the 11 authorization of a separate enactment: Provided, That the exclusions of membership do not apply 12 to any member of the State Legislature, the Clerk of the House of Delegates, the Clerk of the State
13 Senate or to any member of the legislative body of any political subdivision provided he or she once 14 becomes a contributing member of the retirement system: Provided, however, That any retired 15 member of the State Police Death, Disability and Retirement Fund, the West Virginia State Police 16 Retirement System, the Deputy Sheriff Retirement System and any retired member of any municipal 17 retirement system for either, or both, police or firefighter may on and after the effective date of this 18 section become a member of the retirement system as provided in this article, without receiving 19 credit for prior service as a municipal police officer or firefighter or as a member of the State Police 20 Death, Disability and Retirement Fund, the West Virginia State Police Retirement System or the 21 Deputy Sheriff Retirement System: Provided further, That any retired member of the State Police

1 Death, Disability and Retirement Fund, the West Virginia State Police Retirement System, the 2 Deputy Sheriff Retirement System and any retired member of any municipal retirement system for 3 either, or both, police or firefighters, who begins participation in the retirement system established 4 in this article on or after July1,2005, may not receive a combined retirement benefit in excess of one 5 hundred five percent of the member's highest annual salary earned while either a member of the 6 retirement system established in this article or while a member of the other retirement system or 7 systems from which he or she previously retired when adding the retirement benefit from the 8 retirement system created in this article to the retirement benefit received by that member from the 9 other retirement system or systems set forth herein from which he or she previously retired: And 10 provided further, That the membership of the retirement system does not include any person who 11 becomes employed by the Prestera Center for Mental Health Services, Valley Comprehensive Mental 12 Health Center, Westbrook Health Services or Eastern Panhandle Mental Health Center on or after 13 July1,1997, And provided further, That membership of the retirement system does not include any 14 person who becomes a member of the federal Railroad Retirement Act on or after July1, 2000.

15 (c) Any member of the State Legislature, the Clerk of the House of Delegates, the Clerk of 16 the State Senate and any employee of the State Legislature whose employment is otherwise classified 17 as temporary and who is employed to perform services required by the Legislature for its regular 18 sessions or during the interim between regular sessions and who has been or is employed during 19 regular sessions or during the interim between sessions in seven consecutive calendar years, as 20 certified by the Clerk of the House in which the employee served, or any member of the legislative 21 body of any other political subdivision shall become a member of the retirement system provided

1 he or she notifies the retirement system in writing of his or her intention to be a member of the 2 system and files a membership enrollment form as prescribed by the Board of Trustees, and each 3 person, upon filing his or her written notice to participate in the retirement system, shall by that act 4 authorize the Clerk of the House of Delegates or the Clerk of the State Senate or such person or 5 legislative agency as the legislative body of any other political subdivision shall designate to deduct 6 the member's contribution, as provided in subsection (b), section twenty-nine of this article, and after 7 the deductions have been made from the member's compensation, the deductions shall be forwarded 8 to the retirement system.

9 (d) Any employee, as defined in section two of this article, who has concurrent employment 10 in an additional job or jobs which would require the employee to be a member of the West Virginia
11 Deputy Sheriff Retirement System, the West Virginia Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters
12 Retirement System or the West Virginia Emergency Medical Services Retirement System shall abide 13 by the concurrent employment statutory provisions of said retirement system and shall participate 14 in only one retirement system administered by the board.

15 ~~(d)~~ (e) If question arises regarding the membership status of any employee, the Board of 16 Trustees has the final power to decide the question.

17 ~~(e)~~ (f) Any individual who is a leased employee is not eligible to participate in the system.
18 For the purposes of this article, the term "leased employee" means any individual who performs 19 services as an independent contractor or pursuant to an agreement with an employee leasing 20 organization or other similar organization. If a question arises regarding the status of an individual 21 as a leased employee, the board has final authority to decide the question.

1 CHAPTER 7. COUNTY COMMISSIONS AND OFFICERS.

2 ARTICLE 14D. DEPUTY SHERIFF RETIREMENT SYSTEM ACT.

3 §7-14D-5. Members.

4 (a) Any deputy sheriff first employed by a county in covered employment after the effective 5 date of this article shall be a member of this retirement system and does not qualify for membership 6 in any other retirement system administered by the board, so long as he or she remains employed in 7 covered employment: Provided, That any deputy sheriff who has concurrent employment in an 8 additional job or jobs which would require the deputy sheriff to be a member of the West Virginia
9 Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement System or the West Virginia Emergency
10 Medical Services Retirement System shall participate in only one retirement system administered 11 by the board, and the retirement system applicable to the concurrent employment for which the 12 employee has the earliest date of hire shall prevail. The membership of any person in the plan 13 ceases: (1) Upon the withdrawal of accumulated contributions after the cessation of service; (2) 14 upon retirement; (3) at death; or (4) upon the date, if any, when after the cessation of service, the 15 outstanding balance of any loan obtained by the member pursuant to section twenty-three of the 16 article, plus accrued interest, equals or exceeds the accumulated contributions of the member.

17 (b) Any deputy sheriff employed in covered employment on the effective date of this article 18 shall within six months of that effective date notify in writing both the county commission in the 19 county in which he or she is employed and the board, of his or her desire to become a member of the 20 plan: Provided, That this time period is extended to January 30, 1999, in accordance with the 21 decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in West Virginia Deputy Sheriffs' Association, et al v.

1 James L. Sims, et al, No. 25212: Provided, however, That any deputy sheriff employed in covered 2 employment on the effective date of this article has an additional time period consisting of the ten-3 day period following the day after which the amended provisions of this section become law to notify 4 in writing both the county commission in the county in which he or she is employed and the board
5 of his or her desire to become a member of the plan. Any deputy sheriff who elects to become a 6 member of the plan ceases to be a member or have any credit for covered employment in any other 7 retirement system administered by the board and shall continue to be ineligible for membership in 8 any other retirement system administered by the board so long as the deputy sheriff remains 9 employed in covered employment in this plan: Provided further, That any deputy sheriff who elects
10 during the time period from July 1, 1998 to January 30, 1999 or who so elects during the ten-day 11 time period occurring immediately following the day after the day the amendments made during the 12 1999 legislative session become law, to transfer from the Public Employees Retirement System to 13 the plan created in this article shall contribute to the plan created in this article at the rate set forth 14 in section seven of this article retroactive to July 1, 1998. Any deputy sheriff who does not 15 affirmatively elect to become a member of the plan continues to be eligible for any other retirement
16 system as is from time to time offered to other county employees but is ineligible for this plan
17 regardless of any subsequent termination of employment and rehire.

18 (c) Any deputy sheriff employed in covered employment on the effective date of this article 19 who has timely elected to transfer into this plan as provided in subsection (b) of this section shall be 20 given credited service at the time of transfer for all credited service then standing to the deputy 21 sheriff's service credit in the Public Employees Retirement System regardless of whether the credited

1 service (as that term is defined in section two, article ten, chapter five of this code) was earned as 2 a deputy sheriff. All the credited service standing to the transferring deputy sheriff's credit in the 3 Public Employees Retirement Fund System at the time of transfer into this plan shall be transferred 4 into the plan created by this article, and the transferring deputy sheriff shall be given the same credit
5 for the purposes of this article for all service transferred from the Public Employees Retirement
6 System as that transferring deputy sheriff would have received from the Public Employees 7 Retirement System as if the transfer had not occurred. In connection with each transferring deputy 8 sheriff receiving credit for prior employment as provided in this subsection, a transfer from the 9 Public Employees Retirement System to this plan shall be made pursuant to the procedures described 10 in section eight of this article: Provided, That a member of this plan who has elected to transfer from 11 the Public Employees Retirement System into this plan pursuant to subsection (b) of this section may 12 not, after having transferred into and become an active member of this plan, reinstate to his or her 13 credit in this plan any service credit relating to periods of nondeputy sheriff service which were 14 withdrawn from the Public Employees Retirement System prior to his or her elective transfer into 15 this plan.

16 (d) Any deputy sheriff who was employed as a deputy sheriff prior to the effective date of 17 this article, but was not employed as a deputy sheriff on the effective date of this article, shall 18 become a member upon rehire as a deputy sheriff. For purposes of this subsection, the member's 19 years of service and credited service in the Public Employees Retirement System prior to the 20 effective date of this article shall not be counted for any purposes under this plan unless: (1) The 21 deputy sheriff has not received the return of his or her accumulated contributions in the Public

1 Employees Retirement System pursuant to section thirty, article ten, chapter five of this code; or (2)
2 the accumulated contributions returned to the member from the Public Employees Retirement
3 System have been repaid pursuant to section thirteen of this article. If the conditions of subdivision 4 (1) or (2) of this subsection are met, all years of the deputy sheriff's covered employment shall be 5 counted as years of service for the purposes of this article.

6 (e) Once made, the election provided in this section is irrevocable. All deputy sheriffs first 7 employed after the effective date and deputy sheriffs electing to become members as described in 8 this section shall be members as a condition of employment and shall make the contributions 9 required by section seven of this article.

10 (f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, any individual who is a leased
11 employee is not eligible to participate in the plan. For purposes of this plan, a "leased employee" 12 means any individual who performs services as an independent contractor or pursuant to an 13 agreement with an employee leasing organization or similar organization. If a question arises 14 regarding the status of an individual as a leased employee, the board has final power to decide the 15 question.

16 CHAPTER 8. MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

17 ARTICLE 22A. WEST VIRGINIA MUNICIPAL POLICE OFFICERS AND 18 FIREFIGHTERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

19 §8-22A-6. Members.

20 (a) A police officer or firefighter ~~first employed~~ hired in covered employment after the 21 effective date of this article by a municipality or municipal subdivision which has established and

1 maintained a policemen's pension and relief fund or a firemen's pension and relief fund pursuant to 2 section sixteen, article twenty-two of this chapter and which is a participating employer, shall be a 3 member of this retirement plan: Provided, That any police officer or firefighter who has concurrent 4 employment in an additional job or jobs which would require the police officer or firefighter to be 5 a member of the West Virginia Deputy Sheriff Retirement System or the West Virginia Emergency
6 Medical Services Retirement System shall participate in only one retirement system administered 7 by the board, and the retirement system applicable to the concurrent employment for which the 8 employee has the earliest date of hire shall prevail.

9 (b) Except as provided in section thirty-two of this article, a police officer or firefighter who 10 is a member of the Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement System may not have 11 credit for covered employment in any other retirement system applied as service credit in the 12 Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement System.

13 (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, any individual who is a leased
14 employee is not eligible to participate in the plan. For purposes of this plan, a "leased employee"
15 means any individual who performs services as an independent contractor or pursuant to an 16 agreement with an employee leasing organization or similar organization. If a question arises 17 regarding the status of an individual as a leased employee, the board has final power to decide the 18 question.

19 CHAPTER 15. PUBLIC SAFETY.

20 ARTICLE 2A. WEST VIRGINIA STATE POLICE RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

21 §15-2A-3. Continuation and administration of West Virginia State Police Retirement System;

1 leased employees; federal qualification requirements.

2 (a) The West Virginia State Police Retirement System is continued. It is contemplated that 3 substantially all of the members of the retirement system shall be qualified public safety employees
4 as defined in section two of this article. Any West Virginia state trooper employed by the agency 5 on or after the effective date of this article shall be a member of this retirement system and may not 6 qualify for membership in any other retirement system administered by the board so long as he or 7 she remains employed by the State Police: Provided, That any state trooper who has concurrent 8 employment in an additional job or jobs which would require the state trooper to be a member of the 9 West Virginia Deputy Sheriff Retirement System, the West Virginia Municipal Police Officers and 10 Firefighters Retirement System or the West Virginia Emergency Medical Services Retirement
11 System shall abide by the statutory provisions of said retirement system related to concurrent 12 employment and participate in only one retirement system administered by the board.

13 (b) Any individual who is a leased employee shall not be eligible to participate in the system.
14 For purposes of this system, a "leased employee" means any individual who performs services as an 15 independent contractor or pursuant to an agreement with an employee leasing organization or other
16 similar organization. If a question arises regarding the status of an individual as a leased employee, 17 the board has final power to decide the question.

18 (c) The board created pursuant to article ten-d, chapter five of this code shall administer the 19 retirement system. The board may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with and conduct all 20 the business of the system in the name of the West Virginia State Police Retirement System.

21 (d) This fund is intended to meet the federal qualification requirements of Section 401(a) and

1 related sections of the Internal Revenue Code as applicable to governmental plans. Notwithstanding 2 any other provision of state law, the board shall administer the retirement system to fulfill this intent
3 for the exclusive benefit of the employees, members, retirants and their beneficiaries. Any provision 4 of this article referencing or relating to these federal qualification requirements shall be effective as 5 of the date required by federal law. The board may promulgate rules and amend or repeal conflicting 6 rules in accordance with the authority granted to the board pursuant to section one, article ten-d, 7 chapter five of this code to assure compliance with this section.

8 CHAPTER 16. PUBLIC HEALTH.

9 ARTICLE 5V. EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES RETIREMENT SYSTEM ACT.

10 §16-5V-6. Members.

11 (a) Any emergency medical services officer first employed by a county or political 12 subdivision in covered employment after the effective date of this article shall be a member of this 13 retirement plan as a condition of employment and upon membership does not qualify for 14 membership in any other retirement system administered by the board, so long as he or she remains 15 employed in covered employment: Provided, That any emergency medical services officer who has 16 concurrent employment in an additional job or jobs which would require the emergency medical 17 services officer to be a member of the West Virginia Deputy Sheriff Retirement System or the West 18 Virginia Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters Retirement System shall participate in only one 19 retirement system administered by the board, and the retirement system applicable to the concurrent 20 employment for which the employee has the earliest date of hire shall prevail.

21 (b) Any emergency medical services officer employed in covered employment by an

1 employer which is currently a participating public employer of the Public Employees Retirement 2 System shall notify in writing both the county commission in the county or officials in the political 3 subdivision in which he or she is employed and the board of his or her desire to become a member 4 of the plan by December 31, 2007. Any emergency medical services officer who elects to become 5 a member of the plan ceases to be a member or have any credit for covered employment in any other 6 retirement system administered by the board and shall continue to be ineligible for membership in 7 any other retirement system administered by the board so long as the emergency medical services 8 officer remains employed in covered employment by an employer which is currently a participating 9 public employer of this plan: Provided, That any emergency medical services officer who does not 10 affirmatively elect to become a member of the plan continues to be eligible for any other retirement
11 system as is, from time to time, offered to other county employees but is ineligible for this plan
12 regardless of any subsequent termination of employment and rehire.

13 (c) Any emergency medical services officer who was employed as an emergency medical 14 services officer prior to the effective date, but was not employed on the effective date of this article, 15 shall become a member upon rehire as an emergency medical services officer. For purposes of this 16 section, the member's years of service and credited service prior to the effective date shall not be 17 counted for any purposes under this plan unless the emergency medical services officer has not 18 received the return of his or her accumulated contributions in the Public Employees Retirement 19 System pursuant to section thirty, article ten, chapter five of this code. The member may request in 20 writing to have his or her accumulated contributions and employer contributions from covered 21 employment in the Public Employees Retirement System transferred to the plan. If the conditions

1 of this subsection are met, all years of the emergency medical services officer's covered employment 2 shall be counted as years of service for the purposes of this article.

3 (d) Any emergency medical services officer employed in covered employment on the 4 effective date of this article who has timely elected to transfer into this plan as provided in subsection 5 (b) of this section shall be given credited service at the time of transfer for all credited service then 6 standing to the emergency medical services officer's service credit in the Public Employees 7 Retirement System regardless of whether the credited service (as that term is defined in section two, 8 article ten, chapter five of this code) was earned as an emergency medical services officer. All 9 credited service standing to the transferring emergency medical services officer's credit in the Public
10 Employees Retirement System at the time of transfer into this plan shall be transferred into the plan 11 created by this article and the transferring emergency medical services officer shall be given the same 12 credit for the purposes of this article for all service transferred from the Public Employees 13 Retirement System as that transferring emergency medical services officer would have received from 14 the Public Employees Retirement System as if the transfer had not occurred. In connection with each 15 transferring emergency medical services officer receiving credit for prior employment as provided 16 in this subsection, a transfer from the Public Employees Retirement System to this plan shall be 17 made pursuant to the procedures described in this article: Provided, That any member of this plan 18 who has elected to transfer from the Public Employees Retirement System into this plan pursuant 19 to subsection (b) of this section may not, after having transferred into and becoming an active 20 member of this plan, reinstate to his or her credit in this plan any service credit relating to periods 21 in which the member was not in covered employment as an emergency medical services officer and

1 which service was withdrawn from the Public Employees Retirement System prior to his or her 2 elective transfer into this plan.

3 (e) Once made, the election made under this section is irrevocable. All emergency medical 4 services officers employed by an employer which is a participating public employer of the Public
5 Employees Retirement System after the effective date and emergency medical services officers 6 electing to become members as described in this section shall be members as a condition of 7 employment and shall make the contributions required by this article.

8 (f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, any individual who is a leased
9 employee is not eligible to participate in the plan. For purposes of this plan, a "leased employee"
10 means any individual who performs services as an independent contractor or pursuant to an 11 agreement with an employee leasing organization or similar organization. If a question arises
12 regarding the status of an individual as a leased employee, the board has final power to decide the 13 question.

14 CHAPTER 18. EDUCATION.

15 ARTICLE 7A. STATE TEACHERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

16 §18-7A-13. Membership in retirement system; cessation of membership; reinstatement of 17 withdrawn service.

18 The membership of the retirement system shall consist of the following:

19 (a) New entrants, whose membership in the system is compulsory upon employment as 20 teachers and nonteachers: Provided, That any teaching member or nonteaching member, as defined 21 in section three of this article, who has concurrent employment in an additional job or jobs which

1 would require the teaching member or nonteaching member to be a member of the West Virginia
2 Deputy Sheriff Retirement System, the West Virginia Municipal Police Officers and Firefighters
3 Retirement System or the West Virginia Emergency Medical Services Retirement System shall abide
4 by the concurrent employment statutory provisions of said retirement system and shall participate 5 in only one retirement system administered by the retirement board.

6 (b) The membership of the retirement system shall not include any person who is an active 7 member of or who has been retired by the West Virginia Public Employees Retirement System, the 8 judge's retirement system, or the retirement system of the West Virginia State Police or the 9 supplemental retirement system as provided in section four-a, article twenty-three of this chapter.

10 The membership of any person in the retirement system ceases: (1) Upon the withdrawal of 11 accumulated contributions after the cessation of service; (2) upon effective retirement date; (3) at 12 death; or (4) upon the date, if any, when after the cessation of service, the outstanding balance of any 13 loan obtained by the member pursuant to section thirty-four of this article or section five, article 14 seven-d of this chapter, plus accrued interest, equals or exceeds the member's accumulated 15 contributions.

16 (c) Any former member of the retirement system who has withdrawn accumulated 17 contributions but subsequently reenters the retirement system may repay to the retirement fund the 18 amount withdrawn, plus interest at a rate set by the board, compounded annually from the date of 19 withdrawal to the date of repayment: Provided, That no repayment may be made until the former 20 member has completed two years of contributory service after reentry; and the member shall be 21 accorded all the rights to prior service and experience as were held at the time of withdrawal of the

1 accumulated contributions: Provided, however, That no withdrawn service may be reinstated that 2 has been transferred to another retirement system from which the member is currently or will in the 3 future draw benefits based on the same service. The interest paid shall be deposited in the reserve 4 fund.

5 (d) No member is eligible for prior service credit unless he or she is eligible for prior service 6 pension, as prescribed by section twenty-two of this article; however, a new entrant who becomes 7 a present teacher as provided in this subdivision shall be considered eligible for prior service pension 8 upon retirement.

9 (e) Any individual who is a leased employee is not eligible to participate in the system. For 10 purposes of this system, a "leased employee" means any individual who performs services as an 11 independent contractor or pursuant to an agreement with an employee leasing organization or other 12 similar organization. If a question arises regarding the status of an individual as a leased employee, 13 the board has final power to decide the question.
