3 award calculated under the same terms and conditions that applied on the day before the effective
4 date of this article;

5 (2) For a student enrolled in an eligible institution other than a state institution of higher
6 education, the annual award is equal to, but may not exceed, the lesser of the cost of tuition or 7 $4,750, except that a student who was awarded and used a PROMISE scholarship annual award prior 8 to January 1, 2010, shall continue to receive the annual award calculated under the same terms and 9 conditions that applied on the day before the effective date of this article;

10 (3) The annual award may exceed $4,750, if the commission determines that adequate funds
11 are available, but in any case, may not be greater than the actual cost of tuition;

12 (4) The annual award shall be used by an eligible institution to supplement, but may not 13 supplant, a tuition and fee waiver for which the individual is eligible pursuant to section five, six-a,

2 pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (1), subsection (b), section three of this article; and

3 (B) The student meets all other renewal requirements of this code and of commission rules.

4 (d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission shall strongly encourage,
5 prospective candidates for the PROMISE scholarship to perform at least twenty hours of unpaid

14 including circumstances when program funds are not sufficient to provide awards to all eligible
15 applicants. The commission may not use any of the following methods:

10 a rule to implement the provisions of this section as an emergency rule pursuant to the provisions
11 of article three-a, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code. The rule is subject to the prior approval of the 12 Legislative Oversight Commission on Education Accountability.

13 (4) Any rule promulgated by the commission pursuant to previous enactments of this article
14 in effect on the effective date of the amendment and reenactment of this article in the year 2009
15 remains in effect until amended, modified, repealed or replaced by the commission.
