FISCAL NOTE

A BILL to amend and reenact §18C-7-6 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to making home schooled students eligible for a PROMISE scholarship without taking the GED test.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §18C-7-6 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7. WEST VIRGINIA PROVIDING REAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR MAXIMIZING IN-STATE STUDENT EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM.

§18C-7-6. Promise scholarship program requirements; legislative rule.

- (a) A PROMISE scholarship annual award shall meet the following conditions:
 - (1) For a student enrolled in a state institution of higher education, the annual award is

1 equal to the lesser of the cost of tuition or $4,750, except that a student who was awarded and
 2 used a PROMISE scholarship annual award prior to January 1, 2010, shall continue to receive the 3 annual award calculated under the same terms and conditions that applied on the day before the 4 effective date of this article;

5 (2) For a student enrolled in an eligible institution other than a state institution of higher
 6 education, the annual award is equal to, but may not exceed, the lesser of the cost of tuition or 7 $4,750, except that a student who was awarded and used a PROMISE scholarship annual award
 8 prior to January 1, 2010, shall continue to receive the annual award calculated under the same
 9 terms and conditions that applied on the day before the effective date of this article;

10 (3) The annual award may exceed $4,750, if the commission determines that adequate
 11 funds are available, but in any case, may not be greater than the actual cost of tuition;

12 (4) The annual award shall be used by an eligible institution to supplement, but may not
 13 supplant, a tuition and fee waiver for which the individual is eligible pursuant to section five,
 14 six-a, seven or seven-b, article ten, chapter eighteen-b of this code.

15 (b) The total cost of all scholarships awarded by the commission in any year may not 16 exceed the amount of funds available to the commission during that fiscal year.

17 (c) In order to be eligible to receive a PROMISE scholarship award an individual shall:

18 (1) Submit a scholarship award application to the commission:

19 (A) Within two years of ~~graduating~~ completing a secondary education program in ~~from a~~
 20 public, private or home ~~high school or within two years of acquiring a general equivalency~~
 21 degree if provided instruction in the home or other approved place pursuant ~~in compliance with~~
 22 ~~to~~ subsection (c), section one, article eight, chapter eighteen of this code; or

1 (B) Within seven years of initially entering military service, and within one year of
2 discharge from military service, if the individual has entered the United States armed services
3 within two years after graduating from high school;

4 (2) Apply for and submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid;

5 (3) Maintain a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 grading scale in the required
6 core and elective course work necessary to prepare students for success in post-secondary 7 education at the associate and baccalaureate degree levels as determined by the commission, if
8 the individual has completed not more than one semester or term at an institution of higher 9 education, excluding credits earned in advanced placement, international baccalaureate, dual 10 credit and comparable courses while the student is enrolled in high school;

11 (4) Maintain appropriate academic progress toward the completion of a degree at the 12 undergraduate education level as determined by the commission if the individual has completed
13 more than one semester or term at an institution of higher education, excluding credits earned in 14 advanced placement, international baccalaureate, dual credit and comparable courses while the 15 student is enrolled in high school;

16 (5) Be a United States citizen or legal immigrant to the United States;

17 (6) Meet additional objective standards the commission considers necessary to promote 18 academic excellence and to maintain the financial stability of the fund; and

19 (7) Enroll in an eligible institution. A student enrolled at an eligible institution who 20 receives a PROMISE scholarship award may retain and renew the scholarship to complete his or 21 her undergraduate education at that institution or any other eligible institution under the 22 following circumstances:

1 (A) The institution at which the student is enrolled loses its status as an eligible
2 institution pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (1), subsection (b), section three of this 3 article; and

4 (B) The student meets all other renewal requirements of this code and of commission
5 rules.

6 (d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission shall strongly encourage,
7 prospective candidates for the PROMISE scholarship to perform at least twenty hours of unpaid
8 community service while in high school to help prepare them for success in post-secondary 9 education. The community service may include, but is not limited to, participation with 10 nonprofit, governmental or community-based organizations designed with any or all of the 11 following purposes:

12 (1) Improving the quality of life for community residents;

13 (2) Meeting the needs of community residents; or

14 (3) Fostering civic responsibility.

15 (e) The commission shall promulgate a legislative rule in accordance with the provisions
16 of article three-a, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code.

17 (1) The rule shall include at least the following provisions:

18 (A) The amount of a PROMISE scholarship award in combination with aid from all other
19 sources may not exceed the cost of education at the institution the recipient is attending. This 20 provision does not apply to members of the West Virginia National Guard, recipients of an 21 Underwood-Smith teacher scholarship and recipients of a West Virginia engineering, science and 22 technology scholarship;

1 (B) Additional objective standards the commission considers necessary:

2 (i) To promote academic excellence;

3 (ii) To maintain the financial stability of the fund; and

4 (iii) To operate the program within the limits of available funds.

5 (C) Provisions for making the highest and best use of the PROMISE Scholarship Program

6 in conjunction with the West Virginia College Prepaid Tuition and Savings Program Act set forth

7 in article thirty, chapter eighteen of this code;

8 (D) A provision defining the relationship of PROMISE scholarship awards to all other

9 sources of student financial aid to ensure maximum coordination. The provision shall include

10 the following:

11 (i) Methods to maximize student eligibility for federal student financial aid;

12 (ii) A requirement that PROMISE scholarship awards not supplant tuition and fee

13 waivers; and

14 (iii) Clarification of the relationship between the PROMISE Scholarship Program, tuition

15 savings plans and other state-funded student financial aid programs;

16 (E) A method for awarding scholarships within the limits of available appropriations,

17 including circumstances when program funds are not sufficient to provide awards to all eligible

18 applicants. The commission may not use any of the following methods:

19 (i) Providing for an annual PROMISE scholarship award that is less than the amounts

20 provided for in this section; or

21 (ii) Eliminating any current recipient from eligibility; and

22 (F) A method for applicants to appeal determinations of eligibility and renewal.

1 (2) The rule may provide for or require the following at the commission’s discretion:

2 (A) Requiring repayment of the amount of the scholarship, in whole or in part, if a
3 scholarship recipient chooses to work outside the state after graduation. The rule may not require 4 a recipient to repay a scholarship, in whole or in part, unless the prospective recipient has been
5 informed of this requirement in writing before initial acceptance of the PROMISE scholarship
6 award;

7 (B) Targeting a portion of the scholarship funds to be used for applicants enrolled in an 8 engineering, science, technology or other designated program;

9 (C) Determining what other sources of funding for higher education are to be deducted
10 from the PROMISE scholarship award; and

11 (D) Providing additional criteria as determined by the commission.

12 (3) The Legislature finds that an emergency exists and, therefore, the commission shall 13 file a rule to implement the provisions of this section as an emergency rule pursuant to the 14 provisions of article three-a, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code. The rule is subject to the prior 15 approval of the Legislative Oversight Commission on Education Accountability.

16 (4) Any rule promulgated by the commission pursuant to previous enactments of this
17 article in effect on the effective date of the amendment and reenactment of this article in the year
18 2009 remains in effect until amended, modified, repealed or replaced by the commission.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to make home schooled students eligible for a PROMISE scholarship without taking the GED test.
