5 ARTICLE 10. ARBITRATION.

6 §55-10-1. Short title.

7 This article may be cited as the Revised Uniform Arbitration Act.

8 §55-10-2. Declaration of public policy; legislative findings.

9 (a) The Legislature finds that:

10 (1) Arbitration, as a form of alternative dispute resolution, offers in many instances a more
11 efficient and cost-effective alternative to court litigation.

12 (2) The United States has a well-established and emphatic federal policy in favor of arbitral
13 dispute resolution, as identified both by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §1, et seq., and the 14 decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States.

15 (3) Arbitration already provides participants with many of the same procedural rights and 16 safeguards as traditional litigation, and ensuring that those rights and safeguards are guaranteed to 17 participants will ensure that arbitration remains a fair and viable alternative to court litigation and 18 guarantee that no party to an arbitration agreement is unfairly prejudiced by agreeing to an arbitration
19 agreement or provision.

20 (b) It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of West Virginia and in the public
21 interest to favor the enforcement of arbitration agreements, including arbitration provisions contained 22 in other contracts or agreements.

23 §55-10-3. Definitions.

1 In this article:

2 “Arbitration organization” means an association, agency, board, commission or other entity
3 that is neutral and initiates, sponsors or administers an arbitration proceeding or is involved in the 4 appointment of an arbitrator.

5 “Arbitrator” means an individual appointed to render an award, alone or with others, in a 6 controversy that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate.

7 “Court” means a circuit court in this state.

8 “Knowledge” means actual knowledge.

9 “Person” means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited 10 liability company, association, joint venture or government; governmental subdivision, agency or 11 instrumentality; public corporation; or any other legal or commercial entity.

12 “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an 13 electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

14 §55-10-4. Notice.

15 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, a person gives notice to another person by 16 taking action that is reasonably necessary to inform the other person in ordinary course, whether or 17 not the other person acquires knowledge of the notice.

18 (b) A person has notice if the person has knowledge of the notice or has received notice.

19 (c) A person receives notice when it comes to the person’s attention or the notice is delivered
20 at the person’s place of residence or place of business or at another location held out by the person
21 as a place of delivery of such communications.

22 §55-10-5. When article applies.

23 (a) This article governs an agreement to arbitrate made on or after July 1, 2015.

1 (b) This article governs an agreement to arbitrate made before July 1, 2015, if all the parties
2 to the agreement or to the arbitration proceeding so agree in a record. Such record may be made at 3 any point and, for the mutual covenants contained therein, no additional consideration is required
4 by either party.

5 (c) Any agreement to arbitrate renewed or continued on or after July 1, 2015, shall be 6 governed by this agreement and, for the mutual covenants contained therein, no additional 7 consideration is required by either party.

8 §55-10-6. Effect of agreement to arbitrate; nonwaivable provisions.

9 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a party to an
10 agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding may waive or the parties may vary the effect
11 of the requirements of this article to the extent permitted by law.

12 (b) Before a controversy arises that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate, a party to the 13 agreement may not:

14 (1) Waive or agree to vary the effect of the requirements of sections seven, eight, ten,
15 nineteen, twenty-eight or thirty of this article;

16 (2) Agree to unreasonably restrict the right under section eleven of this article to notice of 17 the initiation of an arbitration proceeding;

18 (3) Agree to unreasonably restrict the right under section fourteen of this article to disclosure 19 of any facts by a neutral arbitrator; or

20 (4) Waive the right under section eighteen of this article of a party to an agreement to 21 arbitrate to be represented by a lawyer at any proceeding or hearing under this article, but an 22 employer and a labor organization may waive the right to representation by a lawyer in a labor 23 arbitration.

1 (c) A party to an agreement to arbitrate or arbitration proceeding may not waive, or the parties
2 may not vary the effect of, the requirements of this section or sections five, nine, sixteen, twenty,
3 twenty-two, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, thirty-one, thirty-two or thirty-three 4 of this article.

5 §55-10-7. Application for judicial relief.

6 (a) Except as otherwise provided in section thirty of this article, an application for judicial 7 relief under this article must be made by motion to a West Virginia circuit court as specified in 8 section twenty-nine of this article and heard in accordance with the rules of civil procedure
9 governing motions.

10 (b) Unless a civil action involving the agreement to arbitrate is pending, notice of an initial 11 motion to the court under this article must be served in the manner provided by law for the service
12 of a summons in a civil action. Otherwise, notice of the motion must be given in the manner 13 provided by the rules of civil procedure for serving motions in pending cases.

14 §55-10-8. Validity of agreement to arbitrate.

15 (a) An agreement contained in a record to submit to arbitration any existing or subsequent 16 controversy arising between the parties to the agreement is valid, enforceable and irrevocable except 17 upon a ground that exists at law or in equity for the revocation of a contract.

18 (b) The court shall decide whether an agreement to arbitrate exists or a controversy is subject 19 to an agreement to arbitrate.

20 (c) An arbitrator shall decide whether a condition precedent to arbitration has been fulfilled
21 and whether a contract containing a valid agreement to arbitrate is enforceable.

22 (d) If a party to a judicial proceeding challenges the existence of, or claims that a controversy
23 is not subject to, an agreement to arbitrate, the arbitration proceeding may continue pending final

1 resolution of the issue by the court, unless the court otherwise orders.

2 §55-10-9. Motion to compel or stay arbitration.

3 (a) On motion of a person showing an agreement to arbitrate and alleging another person's 4 refusal to arbitrate pursuant to the agreement:

5 (1) If the refusing party does not appear or does not oppose the motion, the court shall order
6 the parties to arbitrate; and

7 (2) If the refusing party opposes the motion, the court shall proceed summarily to decide the 8 issue and order the parties to arbitrate unless it finds that there is no enforceable agreement to 9 arbitrate.

10 (b) On motion of a person alleging that an arbitration proceeding has been initiated or 11 threatened but that there is no agreement to arbitrate, the court shall proceed summarily to decide
12 the issue. If the court finds that there is an enforceable agreement to arbitrate, it shall order the 13 parties to arbitrate.

14 (c) If the court finds that there is no enforceable agreement, it may not, pursuant to subsection
15 (a) or (b) of this section, order the parties to arbitrate.

16 (d) The court may not refuse to order arbitration because the claim subject to arbitration lacks
17 merit or grounds for the claim have not been established.

18 (e) If a proceeding involving a claim referable to arbitration under an alleged agreement to 19 arbitrate is pending in court, a motion under this section must be made in that court. Otherwise a 20 motion under this section may be made in any court as provided in section twenty-nine of this article.

21 (f) If a party makes a motion to the court to order arbitration, the court on just terms shall stay
22 any judicial proceeding that involves a claim alleged to be subject to the arbitration until the court
23 renders a final decision under this section.

1 (g) If the court orders arbitration, the court on just terms shall stay any judicial proceeding
2 that involves a claim subject to the arbitration. If a claim subject to the arbitration is severable, the 3 court may limit the stay to that claim.

4 §55-10-10. Provisional remedies.

5 (a) Before an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act, the court, upon motion
6 of a party to an arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, may enter an order for provisional 7 remedies to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding to the same extent and under the 8 same conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action.

9 (b) After an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act:

10 (1) The arbitrator may issue such orders for provisional remedies, including interim awards, 11 as the arbitrator finds necessary to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding and to 12 promote the fair and expeditious resolution of the controversy to the same extent and under the same 13 conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action; and

14 (2) A party to an arbitration proceeding may move the court for a provisional remedy only 15 if the matter is urgent and the arbitrator is not able to act timely or the arbitrator cannot provide an 16 adequate remedy.

17 (c) A party does not waive a right of arbitration by making a motion under subsection (a) or 18 (b) of this section.

19 §55-10-11. Initiation of arbitration.

20 (a) A person initiates an arbitration proceeding by giving notice in a record to the other 21 parties to the agreement to arbitrate in the agreed manner between the parties or, in the absence of 22 agreement, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and obtained, or by service as 23 authorized for the commencement of a civil action. The notice must describe the nature of the 1 controversy and the remedy sought.

2 (b) Unless a person objects for lack or insufficiency of notice under section seventeen of this
3 article not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing, the person by appearing at the hearing
4 waives any objection to lack of or insufficiency of notice.

5 §55-10-12. Consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings.

6 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, upon motion of a party to 7 an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding, the court may order consolidation of 8 separate arbitration proceedings as to all or some of the claims if:

9 (1) There are separate agreements to arbitrate or separate arbitration proceedings between the 10 same persons or one of them is a party to a separate agreement to arbitrate or a separate arbitration
11 proceeding with a third person;

12 (2) The claims subject to the agreements to arbitrate arise in substantial part from the same
13 transaction or series of related transactions;

14 (3) The existence of a common issue of law or fact creates the possibility of conflicting 15 decisions in the separate arbitration proceedings; and

16 (4) Prejudice resulting from a failure to consolidate is not outweighed by the risk of undue 17 delay or prejudice to the rights of or hardship to parties opposing consolidation.

18 (b) The court may order consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to some claims 19 and allow other claims to be resolved in separate arbitration proceedings.

20 (c) The court may not order consolidation of the claims of a party to an agreement to arbitrate
21 if the agreement prohibits consolidation.

22 §55-10-13. Appointment of arbitrator; service as a neutral arbitrator.

23 (a) If the parties to an agreement to arbitrate agree on a method for appointing an arbitrator,

1 that method must be followed, unless the method fails. If the parties have not agreed on a method,
2 the agreed method fails or an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable to act and a successor has not
3 been appointed, the court, on motion of a party to the arbitration proceeding, shall appoint the 4 arbitrator. An arbitrator so appointed has all the powers of an arbitrator designated in the agreement
5 to arbitrate or appointed pursuant to the agreed method.

6 (b) An individual who has a known, direct and material interest in the outcome of the 7 arbitration proceeding or a known, existing and substantial relationship with a party may not serve
8 as an arbitrator required by an agreement to be neutral.

9 §55-10-14. Disclosure by arbitrator.

10 (a) Before accepting appointment, an individual who is requested to serve as an arbitrator, 11 after making a reasonable inquiry, shall disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and 12 arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any known facts that a reasonable person would 13 consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, including:

14 (1) A financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding; and

15 (2) An existing or past relationship with any of the parties to the agreement to arbitrate or the 16 arbitration proceeding, their counsel or representatives, a witness or another arbitrator.

17 (b) An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the agreement to 18 arbitrate and arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any facts that the arbitrator learns 19 after accepting appointment which a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the 20 impartiality of the arbitrator.

21 (c) If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by subsection (a) or (b) of this section to be 22 disclosed and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the arbitrator based 23 upon the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground under section twenty-five of this article for

1 vacating an award made by the arbitrator.

2 (d) If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by subsection (a) or (b) of this section,
3 upon timely objection by a party, the court, under section twenty-five of this article, may vacate an 4 award.

5 (e) An arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator who does not disclose a known, direct and 6 material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing and substantial
7 relationship with a party is presumed to act with evident partiality under section twenty-five of this 8 article.

9 (f) If the parties to an arbitration proceeding agree to the procedures of an arbitration
10 organization or any other procedures for challenges to arbitrators before an award is made,
11 substantial compliance with those procedures is a condition precedent to a motion to vacate an award
12 on that ground under section twenty-five of this article.

13 §55-10-15. Action by majority.

14 If there is more than one arbitrator, the powers of an arbitrator must be exercised by a 15 majority of the arbitrators, but all of them shall conduct the hearing under section seventeen of this 16 article.

17 §55-10-16. Immunity of arbitrator; competency to testify; attorney's fees and costs.

18 (a) An arbitrator or an arbitration organization acting in that capacity is immune from civil 19 liability to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a judicial capacity.

20 (b) The immunity afforded by this section supplements any immunity under other law.

21 (c) The failure of an arbitrator to make a disclosure required by section fourteen of this article
22 does not cause any loss of immunity under this section.

23 (d) In a judicial, administrative or similar proceeding, an arbitrator or representative of an

1 arbitration organization is not competent to testify, and may not be required to produce records as 2 to any statement, conduct, decision or ruling occurring during the arbitration proceeding, to the same
3 extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply:

4 (1) To the extent necessary to determine the claim of an arbitrator, arbitration organization
5 or representative of the arbitration organization against a party to the arbitration proceeding; or

6 (2) To a hearing on a motion to vacate an award under section twenty-five of this article if 7 the moving party establishes prima facie that a ground for vacating the award exists.

8 (e) If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator, arbitration organization or 9 representative of an arbitration organization arising from the services of the arbitrator, organization
10 or representative or if a person seeks to compel an arbitrator or a representative of an arbitration
11 organization to testify or produce records in violation of subsection (d) of this section, and the court
12 decides that the arbitrator, arbitration organization or representative of an arbitration organization
13 is immune from civil liability or that the arbitrator or representative of the organization is not 14 competent to testify, the court shall award to the arbitrator, organization or representative reasonable 15 attorneys' fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation.

16 §55-10-17. Arbitration process.

17 (a) An arbitrator may conduct an arbitration in such manner as the arbitrator considers 18 appropriate for a fair and expeditious disposition of the proceeding. The authority conferred upon 19 the arbitrator includes the power to hold conferences with the parties to the arbitration proceeding 20 before the hearing and, among other matters, determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and 21 weight of any evidence.

22 (b) An arbitrator may decide a request for summary disposition of a claim or particular issue:

23 (1) If all interested parties agree; or

1 (2) Upon request of one party to the arbitration proceeding if that party gives notice to all
2 other parties to the proceeding, and the other parties have a reasonable opportunity to respond.

3 (c) If an arbitrator orders a hearing, the arbitrator shall set a time and place and give notice
4 of the hearing not less than five days before the hearing begins. Unless a party to the arbitration 5 proceeding makes an objection to lack or insufficiency of notice not later than the beginning of the 6 hearing, the party's appearance at the hearing waives the objection. Upon request of a party to the 7 arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, or upon the arbitrator's own initiative, the 8 arbitrator may adjourn the hearing, from time to time, as necessary but may not postpone the hearing
9 to a time later than that fixed by the agreement to arbitrate for making the award unless the parties
10 to the arbitration proceeding consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear and decide the 11 controversy upon the evidence produced although a party who was duly notified of the arbitration
12 proceeding did not appear. The court, on request, may direct the arbitrator to conduct the hearing 13 promptly and render a timely decision.

14 (d) At a hearing under subsection (c) of this section, a party to the arbitration proceeding has 15 a right to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy and to cross examine witnesses
16 appearing at the hearing.

17 (e) If an arbitrator ceases or is unable to act during the arbitration proceeding, a replacement 18 arbitrator must be appointed in accordance with section thirteen of this article to continue the 19 proceeding and to resolve the controversy.

20 §55-10-18. Representation by lawyer.

21 A party to an arbitration proceeding may be represented by a lawyer licensed to practice law
22 in the State of West Virginia.

23 §55-10-19. Witnesses; subpoenas; depositions; discovery.

1 (a) An arbitrator may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness and for the production
2 of records and other evidence at any hearing and may administer oaths. A subpoena must be served
3 in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and, upon motion to the court by a party to 4 the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner for enforcement of subpoenas in 5 a civil action.

6 (b) In order to make the proceedings fair, expeditious and cost effective, upon request of a 7 party to or a witness in an arbitration proceeding, an arbitrator may permit a deposition of any
8 witness to be taken for use as evidence at the hearing, including a witness who cannot be subpoenaed
9 for or is unable to attend a hearing. The arbitrator shall determine the conditions under which the 10 deposition is taken.

11 (c) An arbitrator may permit such discovery as the arbitrator decides is appropriate in the 12 circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties to the arbitration proceeding and other 13 affected persons and the desirability of making the proceeding fair, expeditious and cost effective.

14 (d) If an arbitrator permits discovery under subsection (c) of this section, the arbitrator may 15 order a party to the arbitration proceeding to comply with the arbitrator's discovery-related orders,
16 issue subpoenas for the attendance of a witness and for the production of records and other evidence 17 at a discovery proceeding and take action against a noncomplying party to the extent a court could 18 if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this state.

19 (e) An arbitrator may issue a protective order to prevent the disclosure of privileged 20 information, confidential information, trade secrets and other information protected from disclosure
21 to the extent a court could if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this state.

22 (f) All laws compelling a person under subpoena to testify and all fees for attending a judicial 23 proceeding, a deposition or a discovery proceeding as a witness apply to an arbitration proceeding

1 as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this state.

2 (g) The court may enforce a subpoena or discovery-related order for the attendance of a
3 witness within this state and for the production of records and other evidence issued by an arbitrator
4 in connection with an arbitration proceeding in another state upon conditions determined by the court
5 so as to make the arbitration proceeding fair, expeditious and cost effective. A subpoena or 6 discovery-related order issued by an arbitrator in another state must be served in the manner provided
7 by law for service of subpoenas in a civil action in this state and, upon motion to the court by a party
8 to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner provided by law for 9 enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action in this state.

10 §55-10-20. Judicial enforcement of preaward ruling by arbitrator.

11 If an arbitrator makes a preaward ruling in favor of a party to the arbitration proceeding, the 12 party may request the arbitrator to incorporate the ruling into an award under section twenty-one of 13 this article. A prevailing party may make a motion to the court for an expedited order to confirm the 14 award under section twenty-four of this article, in which case the court shall summarily decide the 15 motion. The court shall issue an order to confirm the award unless the court vacates, modifies or 16 corrects the award under section twenty-five or twenty-six of this article.

17 §55-10-21. Award.

18 (a) An arbitrator shall make a record of an award. Such record should set forth findings of 19 fact and conclusions of law that support the award. The record must be signed or otherwise
20 authenticated by any arbitrator who concurs with the award. The arbitrator or the arbitration 21 organization shall give notice of the award, including a copy of the award, to each party to the 22 arbitration proceeding.

23 (b) An award must be made within the time specified by the agreement to arbitrate or, if not

1 specified therein, within the time ordered by the court. The court may extend, or the parties to the 2 arbitration proceeding may agree in a record to extend, the time. The court or the parties may do so
3 within or after the time specified or ordered. A party waives any objection that an award was not
4 timely made unless the party gives notice of the objection to the arbitrator before receiving notice
5 of the award.

6 §55-10-22. Change of award by arbitrator.

7 (a) On motion to an arbitrator by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the arbitrator may 8 modify or correct an award:

9 (1) Upon a ground stated in section twenty-six of this article;

10 (2) Because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award upon a claim submitted by
11 the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

12 (3) To clarify the award.

13 (b) A motion under subsection (a) of this section must be made and notice given to all parties
14 within twenty days after the moving party receives notice of the award.

15 (c) A party to the arbitration proceeding must give notice of any objection to the motion
16 within ten days after receipt of the notice.

17 (d) If a motion to the court is pending under section twenty-four, twenty-five or twenty-six 18 of this article, the court may submit the claim to the arbitrator to consider whether to modify or 19 correct the award:

20 (1) Upon a ground stated in section twenty-four of this article;

21 (2) Because the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award upon a claim submitted by
22 the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

23 (3) To clarify the award.

1 (e) An award modified or corrected pursuant to this section is subject to sections twenty-one,
2 twenty-four, twenty-five and twenty-six of this article.

3 §55-10-23. Remedies; fees and expenses of arbitration proceeding.

4 (a) An arbitrator may award punitive damages or other exemplary relief if such an award is
5 authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim and the evidence produced at the hearing
6 justifies the award under the legal standards otherwise applicable to the claim.

7 (b) An arbitrator may award reasonable attorney's fees and other reasonable expenses of 8 arbitration if such an award is authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim or by the 9 agreement of the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

10 (c) As to all remedies other than those authorized by subsections (a) and (b) of this section, 11 an arbitrator may order such remedies as the arbitrator considers just and appropriate under the 12 circumstances of the arbitration proceeding. The fact that such a remedy could not or would not be 13 granted by the court is not a ground for refusing to confirm an award under section twenty-four of 14 this article or for vacating an award under section twenty-three of this article.

15 (d) An arbitrator's award shall provide for the payment of expenses and fees, together with 16 other expenses to be split among the parties, as provided by the parties' agreement or the rules of the 17 arbitration organization.

18 (e) If an arbitrator awards punitive damages or other exemplary relief under subsection (a)
19 of this section, the arbitrator shall specify in the award the basis in fact justifying and the basis in law
20 authorizing the award and state separately the amount of the punitive damages or other exemplary 21 relief.

22 §55-10-24. Confirmation of award.

23 After a party to an arbitration proceeding receives notice of an award, the party may make

1 a motion to the court for an order confirming the award at which time the court shall issue a 2 confirming order unless the award is modified or corrected pursuant to section twenty-two or 3 twenty-six of this article or is vacated pursuant to section twenty-five of this article.

4 §55-10-25. Vacating award.

5 (a) Upon motion to the court by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the court shall vacate 6 an award made in the arbitration proceeding if:

7 (1) The award was procured by corruption, fraud or other undue means;

8 (2) There was:

9 (A) Evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator;

10 (B) Corruption by an arbitrator; or

11 (C) Misconduct by an arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

12 (3) An arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing upon showing of sufficient cause for 13 postponement, refused to consider evidence material to the controversy or otherwise conducted the 14 hearing contrary to section seventeen of this article, so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a 15 party to the arbitration proceeding;

16 (4) An arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

17 (5) There was no agreement to arbitrate, unless the person participated in the arbitration 18 proceeding without raising the objection under section seventeen of this article not later than the 19 beginning of the arbitration hearing; or

20 (6) The arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation of an arbitration as 21 required in section nine so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a party to the arbitration 22 proceeding.

23 (b) A motion under this section must be filed within ninety days after the moving party

1 receives notice of the award pursuant to section twenty-one of this article or within ninety days after 2 the moving party receives notice of a modified or corrected award pursuant to section twenty-two 3 of this article, unless the moving party alleges that the award was procured by corruption, fraud or 4 other undue means, in which case the motion must be made within ninety days after the ground is 5 known or by the exercise of reasonable care would have been known by the moving party.

6 (c) If the court vacates an award on a ground other than that set forth in subdivision (5),
7 subsection (a) of this section, it may order a rehearing. If the award is vacated on a ground stated
8 in subdivision (1) or (2), subsection (a) of this section, the rehearing must be before a new arbitrator.
9 If the award is vacated on a ground stated in subdivision (3), (4) or (6), subsection (a) of this section,
10 the rehearing may be before the arbitrator who made the award or the arbitrator's successor. The 11 arbitrator must render the decision in the rehearing within the same time as that provided in section 12 twenty-one of this article for an award.

13 (d) If the court denies a motion to vacate an award, it shall confirm the award unless a motion
14 to modify or correct the award is pending.

15 §55-10-26. Modification or correction of award.

16 (a) Upon motion made within ninety days after the moving party receives notice of the award
17 pursuant to section nineteen of this article or within ninety days after the moving party receives 18 notice of a modified or corrected award pursuant to section twenty-two of this article, the court shall 19 modify or correct the award if:

20 (1) There was an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in the 21 description of a person, thing or property referred to in the award;

22 (2) The arbitrator has made an award on a claim not submitted to the arbitrator and the award
23 may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the claims submitted; or

1 (3) The award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of the decision on the 2 claims submitted.

3 (b) If a motion made under subsection (a) of this section is granted, the court shall modify
4 or correct and confirm the award as modified or corrected. Otherwise, unless a motion to vacate is 5 pending, the court shall confirm the award.

6 (c) A motion to modify or correct an award pursuant to this section may be joined with a 7 motion to vacate the award.

8 §55-10-27. Judgment on award; attorneys' fees and litigation expenses.

9 (a) Upon granting an order confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing, modifying or 10 correcting an award, the court shall enter a judgment in conformity therewith. The judgment may 11 be recorded, docketed and enforced as any other judgment in a civil action.

12 (b) A court may allow reasonable costs of the motion and subsequent judicial proceedings.

13 (c) On application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under section
14 twenty-four, twenty-five or twenty-six of this article, the court may add reasonable attorneys' fees
15 and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred in a judicial proceeding after the award is made 16 to a judgment confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing, modifying or correcting an award.

17 §55-10-28. Jurisdiction.

18 (a) A court of this state having jurisdiction over the controversy and the parties may enforce 19 an agreement to arbitrate.

20 (b) An agreement to arbitrate providing for arbitration in this state confers exclusive 21 jurisdiction on the court to enter judgment on an award under this article.

22 §55-10-29. Venue.

23 A motion pursuant to section seven of this article must be made in the circuit court of the

1 county in which the agreement to arbitrate specifies the arbitration hearing is to be held or, if the
2 hearing has been held, in the circuit court of the county in which it was held. Otherwise, the motion
3 may be made in the court of any county in which an adverse party resides or has a place of business
4 or, if no adverse party has a residence or place of business in this state, in the circuit court of 5 Kanawha County, West Virginia. All subsequent motions must be made in the court hearing the 6 initial motion unless the court otherwise directs.

7 §55-10-30. Appeals.

8 (a) An appeal may be taken from:

9 (1) An order denying a motion to compel arbitration;

10 (2) An order granting a motion to stay arbitration;

11 (3) An order confirming or denying confirmation of an award;

12 (4) An order modifying or correcting an award;

13 (5) An order vacating an award without directing a rehearing; or

14 (6) A final judgment entered pursuant to this article.

15 (b) An appeal under this section must be taken as from an order or a judgment in a civil 16 action.

17 §55-10-31. Uniformity of application and construction.

18 In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to 19 promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

20 §55-10-32. Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

21 The provisions of this article governing the legal effect, validity or enforceability of 22 electronic records or signatures, and of contracts performed with the use of such records or 23 signatures, shall conform to the requirements of Section 102 of the Electronic Signatures in Global

1 and National Commerce Act, Pub. L. No. 106-229, 114 Stat. 464 (2000).

2 §55-10-33. Savings clause.
