13 it was made, then the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, or may enforce the remainder of 17 thereof may be unconscionable, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present 18 evidence as to its setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

19 (3) For the purpose of this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this chapter 20 is not unconscionable.

21 §46A-2-122. Definitions.

22 For the purposes of this section and sections one hundred twenty-three, one hundred

1 twenty-four, one hundred twenty-five, one hundred twenty-six, one hundred twenty-seven, one 2 hundred twenty-eight, one hundred twenty-nine, and one hundred twenty-nine-a of this article, the 3 following terms shall have the following meanings:

4 (a) "Consumer" means any natural person obligated or allegedly obligated to pay any debt.

5 (b) "Claim" or "debt" means any obligation or alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money 6 arising out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance or service which is the subject 7 of the transaction is primarily for personal, family or household purposes, whether or not such 8 obligation has been reduced to judgment.

9 (c) "Creditor" means any person who offers or extends credit creating a debt or to whom a

20 or the mails in any business the principal purpose of which is the collection of any debts, or who 21 regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, debts owed or due or asserted to be 22 owed or due another. Notwithstanding the exclusion provided by clause (6) of the this paragraph,

1 the term includes any mortgage or other loan servicer, and any creditor who, in the process of 2 collecting his or its own debts, uses any name other than his or its own which would indicate that 3 a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such debts. "Debt collector" does not include --

4 (1) Any officer or employee of a creditor while, in the name of the creditor, collecting debts 5 for such creditor;

6 (2) Any person while acting as a debt collector for another person, both of whom are related 7 by common ownership or affiliated by corporate control, if the person acting as a debt collector does 8 so only for persons to whom it is so related or affiliated and if the principal business of such person 9 is not the collection of debts;

18 owed or due another to the extent such activity: (i) Is incidental to a bona fide fiduciary obligation 19 or a bona fide escrow arrangement; (ii) concerns a debt which was originated by such person, 20 including any affiliate of such person; or (iii) concerns a debt obtained by such person as a secured 21 party in a commercial credit transaction involving the creditor.

22 (f) "Person" shall have the meaning set forth in W.Va. Code §46A-1-102(31).

1 §46A-2-125. Oppression and abuse.

2 No debt collector shall unreasonably oppress or abuse any person in connection with the 3 collection of or attempt to collect any claim alleged to be due and owing by that person or another.
4 Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is deemed to violate 5 this section:

6 (a) The use of profane or obscene language or language that is intended to unreasonably 7 abuse the hearer or reader;

8 (b) ~~The placement of telephone calls~~ Engaging any person in telephone conversation without 9 disclosure of the caller's identity and with the intent to annoy, harass or threaten any person at the 10 called number;

11 (c) Causing expense to any person in the form of long distance telephone tolls, telegram fees 12 or other charges incurred by a medium of communication, by concealment of the true purpose of the 13 communication; and

14 (d) ~~Causing a telephone to ring or~~ Engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly 15 or continuously, or at unusual times or at times known to be inconvenient, with intent to annoy,

17 circumstances to the contrary, a debt collector shall assume that the convenient time for 18 communicating with a consumer is after 8 o'clock antemeridian and before 9 o'clock postmeridian, 19 local time at the consumer's location.

20 §46A-2-126. Unreasonable publication.

21 No debt collector shall unreasonably publicize information relating to any alleged 22 indebtedness or consumer. For purposes of this section, a debt collector does not unreasonably

1 publicize information relating to any alleged indebtedness by identifying themselves to the debtor 2 by name, identifying their employer by name, if expressly requested by the debtor, or by providing 3 a telephone number or other contact information to the debtor. Without limiting the general 4 application of the foregoing, the following conduct is deemed to violate this section:

5 (a) The communication to any employer or his or her agent before judgment has been 6 rendered of any information relating to an employee's indebtedness other than through proper legal 7 action, process or proceeding;

8 (b) The disclosure, publication, or communication of information relating to a consumer's 9 indebtedness to any relative or family member of the consumer if such person is not residing with 10 the consumer, except through proper legal action or process or at the express and unsolicited request 11 of the relative or family member;

12 (c) The disclosure, publication or communication of any information relating to a consumer's 13 indebtedness to any other person other than a credit reporting agency, by publishing or posting any 14 list of consumers, commonly known as "deadbeat lists," except lists to prevent the fraudulent use of 15 credit accounts or credit cards, by advertising for sale any claim to enforce payment thereof, or in 16 any manner other than through proper legal action, process or proceeding; and 17 (d) The use of any form of communication to the consumer, which ordinarily may be seen 18 by any other persons, that displays or conveys any information about the alleged claim other than the 19 name, address and phone number of the debt collector.

20 Nothing in this chapter prohibits a creditor or debt collector from communicating with any 21 person other than the consumer for the purpose of acquiring or confirming the consumer's place of 22 abode and telephone numbers. For purposes of this chapter, "communication" or "communicating"

1 or any derivation of those terms does not include the filing of a complaint or other document, 2 pleading or filing with any court.

3 §46A-2-128. Unfair or unconscionable means.

4 No debt collector may use unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any 5 claim. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is deemed 6 to violate this section:

7 (a) The seeking or obtaining of any written statement or acknowledgment in any form that 8 specifies that a consumer's obligation is one incurred for necessities of life where the original 9 obligation was not in fact incurred for such necessities;

10 (b) The seeking or obtaining of any written statement or acknowledgment in any form 11 containing an affirmation of any obligation by a consumer who has been declared bankrupt, ~~without~~

14 to applicable bankruptcy law;

15 (c) The collection or the attempt to collect from the consumer all or any part of the debt 16 collector's fee or charge for services rendered: Provided, That attorney's fees, court costs and other 17 reasonable collection costs and charges necessary for the collection of any amount due upon 18 delinquent educational loans made by any institution of higher education within this state may be 19 recovered when the terms of the obligation so provide. Recovery of attorney's fees and collection 20 costs may not exceed thirty-three and one-third percent of the amount due and owing to any such 21 institution: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to limit 22 or prohibit any institution of higher education from paying additional attorney fees and collection

1 costs as long as such additional attorney fees and collection costs do not exceed an amount equal to 2 five percent of the amount of the debt actually recovered and such additional attorney fees and 3 collection costs are deducted or paid from the amount of the debt recovered for the institution or paid 4 from other funds available to the institution;

5 (d) The collection of or the attempt to collect any interest or other charge, fee or expense 6 incidental to the principal obligation unless such interest or incidental fee, charge or expense is 7 expressly authorized by the agreement creating or modifying the obligation and not otherwise 8 prohibited by statute or regulation;

9 (e) Any communication with a consumer ~~whenever it appears~~ made more than seventy-two 10 hours after the debt collector (or creditor) receives written notice, either on paper or electronically, 11 from the consumer or his or her attorney, that the consumer is represented by an attorney specifically 12 with regard to the subject debt. To be effective under this subsection, such notice must clearly state 13 ~~and the attorney's name, and address~~ and telephone number. ~~are known, or could be easily~~ 14 ~~ascertained;~~ Communication with a consumer is not prohibited under this subsection if unless the 15 attorney fails to answer correspondence, return phone calls or discuss the obligation in question, or 16 if unless the attorney consents to direct communication with the consumer. Regular account 17 statements provided to the consumer and notices required to be provided to the consumer pursuant 18 to applicable law do not constitute prohibited communications; and 19 (f) When the debt is beyond the statute of limitations for filing a legal action for collection, 20 failing to provide the following disclosure informing the consumer in its initial written 21 communication with such consumer that:

22 (1) When collecting on a debt that is not past the date for obsolescence provided for in

1 Section 605(a) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U. S. C. 1681c: "The law limits how long you
2 can be sued on a debt. Because of the age of your debt, (INSERT OWNER NAME) cannot sue you 3 for it. If you do not pay the debt, (INSERT OWNER NAME) may report or continue to report it to 4 the credit reporting agencies as unpaid"; and

5 (2) When collecting on debt that is past the date for obsolescence provided for in Section 6 605(a) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U. S. C. 1681c: "The law limits how long you can be 7 sued on a debt. Because of the age of your debt, (INSERT OWNER NAME) cannot sue you for it 8 and (INSERT OWNER NAME) cannot report it to any credit reporting agencies.

9 ARTICLE 5. CIVIL LIABILITY AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES.

10 §46A-5-101. Effect of violations on rights of parties; limitation of actions.

11 (1) If a creditor or debt collector has violated the provisions of this chapter applying to 12 ~~collection of excess charges~~, security in sales and leases, disclosure with respect to consumer leases, 13 receipts, statements of account and evidences of payment, limitations on default charges, assignment 14 of earnings, authorizations to confess judgment, illegal, fraudulent or unconscionable conduct, any 15 prohibited debt collection practice, or restrictions on interest in land as security, assignment of 16 earnings to regulated consumer lender, security agreement on household goods for benefit of 17 regulated consumer lender, and renegotiation by regulated consumer lender of a loan discharged in 18 bankruptcy, the consumer has a cause of action to recover: (a) Actual damages; and in addition a 19 ~~right in an action to recover from the person violating this chapter a penalty in an amount determined~~
20 ~~by the court not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.~~ (b) (1) In the case 21 of an action by an individual, such additional damages as the court may allow, but such additional 22 damages awarded under this article shall not exceed $1,000 per consumer credit sale, consumer lease

1 or consumer loan, not per violation; or (2) in the case of a class action: (i) Such amount for each
2 named plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (a); and (ii) such amount as the court may 3 allow for all other class members, without regard to a minimum individual recovery, not to exceed 4 the lesser of $500,000 or 1 percent of the net worth of the creditor or debt collector, as applicable.

5 With respect to violations arising from consumer credit sales or consumer loans ~~made pursuant to~~ 6 ~~revolving charge accounts or revolving loan accounts, or from sales as defined in article six of this~~ 7 ~~chapter~~, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than four years after the 8 violations occurred. ~~With respect to violations arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer~~ 9 ~~loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one year after the due date of~~ 10 ~~the last scheduled payment of the agreement.~~

11 (2) If a creditor has violated the provisions of this chapter respecting authority to make 12 regulated consumer loans, the loan is void and the consumer is not obligated to pay either the 13 principal or the loan finance charge. If he or she has paid any part of the principal or of the finance 14 charge, he or she has a right to recover in an action the payment from the person violating this 15 chapter or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments or 16 enforcement of rights arising from the debt. With respect to violations arising from regulated 17 consumer loans made pursuant to revolving loan accounts, no action pursuant to this subsection may 18 be brought more than four years after the violation occurred. With respect to violations arising from 19 other regulated consumer loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one 20 year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge 21 was paid.

22 (3) A consumer is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this chapter, and

1 if he or she has paid an excess charge he or she has a right to a refund. A refund may be made by 2 reducing the consumer's obligation by the amount of the excess charge. If the consumer has paid an 3 amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the consumer may recover in an 4 action the excess amount from the person who made the excess charge or from an assignee of that 5 person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against 6 the consumer arising from the debt.

7 (4) If a creditor has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this 8 chapter, the consumer may, in addition to recovering such excess charge, also recover from the 9 creditor or the person liable in an action ~~a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than~~ 10 ~~one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.~~ (a) Actual damages; and (b) (1) In the case 11 of an action by an individual, such additional damages as the court may allow, but such additional 12 damages awarded under this article shall not exceed $1,000 per consumer credit sale, consumer lease
13 or consumer loan, not per violation; or (2) in the case of a class action: (i) Such amount for each
14 named plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (a); and (ii) such amount as the court may 15 allow for all other class members, without regard to a minimum individual recovery, not to exceed 16 the lesser of $500,000 or one percent of the net worth of the creditor or the person liable, as 17 applicable. With respect to excess charges arising from consumer credit sales or consumer loans 18 ~~made pursuant to revolving charge accounts or revolving loan accounts~~, no action pursuant to this 19 subsection may be brought more than four years after the time the excess charge was made. ~~With~~ 20 ~~respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer loans no action~~ 21 ~~pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one year after the due date of the last~~ 22 ~~scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made.~~

1 (5) Except as otherwise provided, a violation of this chapter does not impair rights on a debt.

2 (6) If an employer discharges an employee in violation of the provisions prohibiting 3 discharge, the employee may within ninety days bring a civil action for recovery of wages lost as a 4 result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. Damages 5 recoverable shall not exceed lost wages for six weeks.

6 (7) A creditor has no liability for a penalty under subsection (1) or subsection (4) of this 7 section if within ~~fifteen~~ forty-five days after discovering an error, and prior to the institution of an 8 action under this section or the receipt of written notice of the error, the creditor notifies the person 9 concerned of the error and corrects the error: (a) Within fifteen days if the error affects no more than 10 two consumers; or (b) within sixty days if the error affects more than two consumers. If the violation 11 consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the consumer a corrected copy of the writing containing 12 the error is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, 13 correction shall be made by an adjustment or refund.

14 (8) If the creditor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation is unintentional 15 or the result of a bona fide error of fact notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably 16 adapted to avoid any such violation or error, no liability is imposed under subsections (1), (2) and 17 (4) of this section, and the validity of the transaction is not affected.

18 §46A-5-106. Adjustment of damages for inflation.

19 In any claim brought under this chapter applying to illegal, fraudulent or unconscionable 20 conduct or any prohibited debt collection practice, the court may adjust the damages awarded 21 pursuant to section one hundred one of this article to account for inflation from ~~the time that the~~ 22 ~~West Virginia consumer credit and protection act became operative, specifically 12:01 a.m. on the~~

1 ~~first day of September, one thousand nine hundred seventy-four, September 1, 2015~~ to the time of 2 the award of damages in an amount equal to the consumer price index. Consumer price index means 3 the last consumer price index for all consumers published by the United States department of labor.

4 §46A-5-107. Venue.

5 Any civil action or other proceeding brought by a consumer to recover actual damages or a 6 penalty, or both, from a debt collector or a creditor, founded upon illegal, fraudulent or 7 unconscionable conduct, or prohibited debt collection practice, or both, shall be brought either in the 8 circuit court of the county in which the plaintiff has his or her legal residence at the time of the civil 9 action, or in the circuit court of the county in which the debt collector or a creditor has its principal 10 place of business or, if the debt collector or creditor is an individual, in the circuit court of the county 11 of his or her legal residence.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to reform provisions of the West Virginia Consumer Credit and Protection Act relating to collection of indebtedness, and to make the act more consistent with the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.

§46A-5-107 is new; therefore, it has been completely underscored.
