2 ARTICLE 1. DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATION OF CHAPTER.

3 §29A-1-2. Definitions of terms used in this chapter.

- 4 For the purposes of this chapter:
- 5 (a) "Agency" means any state board, commission, department, office or officer authorized 6 by law to make rules or adjudicate contested cases, except those in the legislative or judicial 7 branches.
- (b) "Contested case" means a proceeding before an agency in which the legal rights, duties, interests or privileges of specific parties are required by law or Constitutional right to be determined after an agency hearing, but does not include cases in which an agency issues a license, permit or certificate after an examination to test the knowledge or ability of the applicant where the controversy concerns whether the examination was fair or whether the applicant passed the examination and shall does not include rule making.
- (c) "Interpretive rule" means every rule, as defined in subsection (i)(j) of this section, adopted by an agency independently of any delegation of legislative power which is intended by the agency to provide information or guidance to the public regarding the agency's interpretations, policy or opinions upon the law enforced or administered by it and which is not intended by the agency to be determinative of any issue affecting private rights, privileges or interests. An interpretive rule may not be relied upon to impose a civil or criminal sanction nor to regulate private conduct or the exercise of private rights or privileges nor to confer any right or privilege provided by law and is not admissible in any administrative or judicial proceeding for such that purpose, except where the interpretive rule established the conditions for the exercise of discretionary power as herein provided

- 1 in this subsection. However, an interpretive rule is admissible for the purpose of showing that the 2 prior conduct of a person was based on good faith reliance on such the rule. The admission of such 3 the rule in no way affects any legislative or judicial determination regarding the prospective effect 4 of such the rule. Where any provision of this code lawfully commits any decision or determination 5 of fact or judgment to the sole discretion of any agency or any executive officer or employee, the 6 conditions for the exercise of that discretion, to the extent that such the conditions are not prescribed 6 by statute or by legislative rule, may be established by an interpretive rule and such rule is admissible 8 in any administrative or judicial proceeding to prove such the conditions.
- 9 (d) "Legislative exempt rule" means every rule, as defined in subsection (j) of this section, 10 promulgated by an agency or relating to a subject matter that is exempt from the rule-making
  11 provisions of article three of this chapter, under section three, article one of this chapter or any other 12 section of this code.
- (d) (e) "Legislative rule" means every rule, as defined in subsection (i)(j) of this section, proposed or promulgated by an agency pursuant to this chapter. Legislative rule includes every rule which, when promulgated after or pursuant to authorization of the Legislature, has: (1) The force of law; or (2) supplies a basis for the imposition of civil or criminal liability; or (3) grants or denies a specific benefit. Every rule which, when effective, is determinative on any issue affecting private rights, privileges or interests is a legislative rule. Unless lawfully promulgated as an emergency rule, a legislative rule is only a proposal by the agency and has no legal force or effect until promulgated by specific authorization of the Legislature. Except where otherwise specifically provided in this code, legislative rule does not include: (A) Findings or determinations of fact made or reported by an agency, including any such findings and determinations as that are required to be made by any

- 1 agency as a condition precedent to proposal of a rule to the Legislature; (B) declaratory rulings issued
- 2 by an agency pursuant to the provisions of section one, article four of this chapter; (C) orders, as
- 3 defined in subdivision (e) of this section; or (D) executive orders or proclamations by the Governor
- 4 issued solely in the exercise of executive power, including executive orders issued in the event of
- 5 a public disaster or emergency.
- 6 (e) (f) "Order" means the whole or any part of the final disposition (whether affirmative,
- 7 negative, injunctive or declaratory in form) by any agency of any matter other than rule making.
- 8 (f) (g) "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations or public or
- 9 private organizations of any character.
- 10 (g) (h) "Procedural rule" means every rule, as defined in subsection (i)(j) of this section,
- 11 which fixes rules of procedure, practice or evidence for dealings with or proceedings before an
- 12 agency, including forms prescribed by the agency.
- (h) (i) "Proposed rule" is a legislative rule, interpretive rule or a procedural rule which has
- 4 not become effective pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or law authorizing its promulgation;
- (i) (j) "Rule" includes every regulation rule, standard or statement of policy or interpretation
- 16 of general application and future effect, including the amendment or repeal thereof of the rule,
- 17 affecting private rights, privileges or interests, or the procedures available to the public, adopted by
- 18 an agency to implement, extend, apply, interpret or make specific the law enforced or administered
- 19 by it or to govern its organization or procedure, but does not include regulations rules relating solely
- 20 to the internal management of the agency, nor regulations rules of which notice is customarily given
- 21 to the public by markers or signs, nor mere instructions. Every rule shall be classified as "legislative
- 22 rule," "interpretive rule" or "procedural rule," all as defined in this section, and shall be is effective

- 1 only as provided in this chapter.
- 2 (j) (k) "Rule making" means the process for the formulation, amendment or repeal of a rule
- 3 as provided in this chapter.

4 §29A-1-3a. Technical amendments to a current rule.

- 5 The provisions of this chapter do not apply to purely technical amendments to a current rule,
- 6 including but not limited to, correcting addresses, phone numbers, punctuation, spelling, code
- 7 citations or internal citations, numbering or grammatical errors. An agency may make these
- 8 amendments by filing the corrected rule with the Secretary of State's office.

9 §29A-1-3b. Void rules.

- If an agency ceases to exist, through the operation of law or by statute, any rules adopted or
- 11 promulgated by the agency are void on the date the agency ceases to exist, unless the agency's
- 12 rule-making power and its rules have been transferred to another agency.

13 ARTICLE 3. RULE MAKING.

14 §29A-3-1a. Filing proposed amendments to an existing rule; and repealing an existing rule.

- (a) Rules promulgated to amend existing rules may be filed on a section by section basis
- 16 without having to refile in the state register all of the other sections of an existing series numbered
- 17 rule: Provided, That such filing shall list, by proper citation, those sections, not amended, which are
- 18 directly affected by those sections amended: Provided, however, That amendments so filed An Review Committee.

5 (1) The Secretary of State, acting under the authority provided for in section fifteen-a of this article, or the Attorney General, acting under the authority provided for in section fifteen-b of this article, disapproves the emergency rule because: (A) The emergency rule or an amendment to the emergency rule exceeds the scope of the law authorizing or directing the promulgation thereof of the rule; (B) an emergency does not exist justifying the promulgation of the emergency rule; or (C) the emergency rule was not promulgated in compliance with the provisions of this section. An emergency rule may not be disapproved pursuant to the authority granted by paragraphs clauses (A) 12 or (B) of this subdivision on the basis that the Secretary of State or the Attorney General disagrees 13 with the underlying public policy established by the Legislature in enacting the supporting authorizing legislation. An emergency rule which would otherwise be approved as being necessary to comply with a time limitation established by this code or by a federal statute or regulation may not be disapproved pursuant to the authority granted by paragraphs (A) or (B) of this subdivision on the basis that the agency has failed to file the emergency rule prior to the date fixed by such the time limitation. When the supporting authorizing statute specifically directs an agency to promulgate an emergency rule, or specifically finds that an emergency exists and directs the promulgation of an emergency rule, the emergency rule may not be disapproved pursuant to the authority granted by paragraph (B) of this subdivision. An emergency rule may not be disapproved on the basis that the 22 Legislature has not specifically directed an agency to promulgate the emergency rule, or has not

- 1 specifically found that an emergency exists and directed the promulgation of an emergency rule;
- 2 (2) The agency has not previously filed and fails to file a notice of public hearing on the
- 3 proposed rule within thirty days of the date the proposed rule was filed as an emergency rule, in
- 4 which case the emergency rule expires on the thirty-first day;
- 5 (3) The agency has not previously filed and fails to file the proposed rule as approved by the
- 6 agency following the close of the public comment period with the Legislative Rule-Making Review
- 7 Committee within ninety days of the date the proposed rule was filed as an emergency rule, in which
- 8 case the emergency rule expires on the ninety-first day;
- 9 (4) The Legislature has authorized or directed promulgation of an authorized legislative rule
- 10 dealing with substantially the same subject matter since such the emergency rule was first
- 11 promulgated, in which case the emergency rule expires on the date the authorized rule is made
- 12 effective; or
- 13 (5) The Legislature has, by law, disapproved of such the emergency rule, in which case the
- 4 emergency rule expires on the date the law becomes effective.
- 15 (b) Any amendment to an emergency rule made by the agency shall be filed in the State
- 16 Register and does not constitute a new emergency rule for the purpose of acquiring additional time
- 17 or avoiding the expiration dates in subdivision (2), (3), (4) or (5), subsection (a) of this section:
- 18 Provided, That such the emergency amendment shall become becomes effective upon the approval
- 19 of the Secretary of State in accordance with section fifteen-a of this article or upon approval of the
- 20 Attorney General in accordance with section fifteen-b of this article or upon the forty-second day
- 21 following such the filing, whichever occurs first.
- (c) Once an emergency rule expires due to the conclusion of fifteen months or due to the

- 1 effect of subdivision (2), (3), (4) or (5), subsection (a) of this section, the agency may not refile the 2 same or similar rule as an emergency rule.
- (d) The provision An agency may not use the provisions of this section shall not be used to avoid or evade any provision of this article or any other provisions of this code, including any provisions for legislative review and approval of proposed rules. Any emergency rule promulgated for any such that purpose may be contested in a judicial proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 8 (e) The Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee may review any emergency rule to 9 determine: (1) Whether the emergency rule or an amendment to the emergency rule exceeds the 10 scope of the law authorizing or directing the its promulgation thereof; (2) whether there exists an 11 emergency justifying the promulgation of such the emergency rule; and (3) whether the emergency
  12 rule was promulgated in compliance with the requirements and prohibitions contained in this section.
  13 The committee may recommend to the agency, the Legislature, or the Secretary of State such any 14 action as it may deem proper it determines appropriate.
- (f) For the purposes of this section, an emergency exists when the promulgation of an emergency rule is necessary: (1) For the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety or welfare; (2) to comply with a time limitation established by this code or by a federal statute or regulation; or (3) to prevent substantial harm to the public interest.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to amend the state Administrative Procedures Act. It defines the term "legislative exempt rule" and adds that term to the provisions regarding the requirements for amendments to existing rules, proposed new rules and the repeal of existing rules. Provisions are added regarding rules of agencies which cease to exist and technical amendments to existing rules. The bill also establishes filing and adoption requirements for legislative exempt rules. The bill makes all legislative rules effective from passage and requires a list of interested parties be provided with emergency rules. The bill changes the number of copies required when filing an emergency rule.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.

§29A-1-3a and §29A-1-3b are new, therefore strike-throughs and underscoring have been omitted.

This bill is recommended for passage by the Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee.
