

Senate Bill No. 507

(By Senators Trump and Plymale)

[Introduced February 17, 2015;
referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.]

A BILL to amend and reenact §31-20-5e of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to allowing emails and other types of electronic communications to and from regional jail inmates be monitored, intercepted, recorded and disclosed; and providing exception for attorney-client privileged communications.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §31-20-5e of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 20. WEST VIRGINIA REGIONAL JAIL AND CORRECTIONAL FACILITY AUTHORITY.

§31-20-5e. Monitoring of inmate telephone calls and electronic communications; procedures and restrictions; attorney-client privilege protected and exempted.

1 (a) The executive director or his or her designee is authorized to monitor, intercept, record
2 and disclose the content of telephone calls and, if available to inmates, emails and other forms of 3 electronic communications to or from inmates housed in regional jails in accordance with the
4 following provisions:

[S. B. NO. 507]

1 (1) All inmates housed in regional jails shall be notified in writing that their telephone
2 conversations, emails and other forms of electronic communications may be monitored, intercepted,
3 recorded and disclosed;

4 (2) Only the executive director and his or her designee shall have access to recordings of
5 inmates' telephone calls, emails and other forms of electronic communications unless disclosed
6 pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection;

7 (3) Notice shall be prominently placed on or immediately near every telephone or other
8 communication device that may be monitored;

9 (4) The contents of inmates' telephone calls, emails and other forms of electronic
10 communications may be disclosed to the appropriate law-enforcement agency only if the disclosure 11 is:

12 (A) Necessary to safeguard the orderly operation of the regional jails;

13 (B) Necessary for the investigation of a crime;

14 (C) Necessary for the prevention of a crime;

15 (D) Necessary for the prosecution of a crime;

16 (E) Required by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

17 (F) Necessary to protect persons from physical harm or the threat of physical harm;

18 (5) Recordings of telephone calls may be destroyed after twelve months unless further
19 retention is required for disclosure pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection or, in the discretion
20 of the executive secretary, for other good cause. ~~and~~

21 ~~(6)~~ (b) To safeguard the sanctity of the attorney-client privilege, an adequate number of 22 telephone lines that are not monitored shall be made available for telephone calls between inmates

[S. B. NO. 507]

1 and their attorneys. Such calls shall not be monitored, intercepted, recorded or disclosed in any
2 matter. If inmates have access to email or other forms of electronic communications, the executive
3 director shall develop a system that allows inmates to confidentially communicate with their
4 attorneys thereby safeguarding the sanctity of the attorney-client privilege.

(NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to allow emails and other types of electronic communications to and from regional jail inmates be monitored, intercepted, recorded and disclosed. The bill provides an exception for attorney-client privileged communications.
