1 A BILL to amend and reenact §3-10-1, §3-10-3 and §3-10-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931,
2 as amended, all relating to filling of vacancies in elected offices; requiring the Governor to 3 call a special election in the event of a vacancy in the office of United States Senator 4 except in certain circumstances; requiring the Governor to fill a vacancy in the United 5 States Senate by appointment; and allowing the appointee to serve until a successor is 6 elected and certified to fill the unexpired term.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

1 That §3-10-1, §3-10-3 and §3-10-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be 2 amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 10. FILLING VACANCIES.

§3-10-1. Elections to fill vacancies.

1 (a) When a vacancy occurs in an elected office of the state or county, it shall be filled
2 according to the processes set forth in this article. As used in this article, unless otherwise
3 indicated by the context:

4 (1) "General cutoff date" means the eighty-fourth day before the general election that 5 immediately precedes the general election where the office would be on the ballot for election if 6 there were not a vacancy; and

7 (2) "Primary cutoff date" means the eighty-fourth day before the primary election that 8 immediately precedes the general cutoff date.

9 (b) When this article requires an appointment to fill a vacancy in an elected office, the 10 appointment shall be made within thirty days of the vacancy, unless this code specifically states
11 a different time period for the specific office. The term that the appointee holds the office shall 12 depend on when the vacancy occurs, as follows:

13 (1) If the vacancy occurs after the primary cutoff date, then that appointee shall hold the 14 office until the end of the term of office: Provided, That if the vacancy for any county office or 15 United States Senate occurs during the window after the primary cutoff date, but before the 16 general cutoff date, the process contained in sections four, six, seven and eight of this article, 17 depending on the specific office vacated, shall be followed; or

18 (2) If the vacancy occurs on or before the primary cutoff date, then the office shall be filled 19 at the following regular primary and subsequent general election pursuant to this article and the 20 appointee shall hold the office until a qualified replacement is elected and certified at that general
21 election. The elected replacement shall hold the office until the end of the original term of office.

22 (c) If an election is required to fill the vacancy by subsection (b) of this section and the 23 other provisions of this article, the election shall proceed depending on when the vacancy occurs
24 and in which office it occurs. Elections to fill vacancies shall be held at the same places, and 25 superintended, conducted and returned, and the result ascertained, certified and declared, in the 26 same manner, and by the same officers, as in general elections, unless otherwise stated in this 27 article.

28 (1) For a vacancy in the Office of Governor, the times for the special elections contained
29 in section two of this article shall control. The proclamation entered pursuant to section two of this 30 article by the person acting as Governor shall include the dates for the special candidate filing
31 period, if necessary, and shall follow the requirements set forth in this section. All aspects of this 32 section, where not in conflict with section two of this article, shall also be followed. If a regularly 33 scheduled primary or general election fits within the times for the special elections contained in 34 section two of this article, the special elections shall be conducted in conjunction with the regularly
35 scheduled election or elections. If a special election is required by section two of this article and 36 it cannot be held in conjunction with the regular election dates, then the compensation of election
37 officers shall be reimbursed pursuant to section nine of this article.

38 (2) For a vacancy in the offices of United States House of Representatives or United States
39 Senate, the times for the special election, if necessary, contained in section four of this article
40 shall control. All aspects of this section, where not in conflict with section four of this article, shall 41 also be followed. ~~(A) With regard to United States House of Representatives~~ these offices, the 42 proclamation entered pursuant to section four of this article by the Governor shall include the 43 dates for the special candidate filing period, if necessary, and shall follow the requirements set 44 forth in this section. If a regularly scheduled primary or general election fits within the times for 45 the special elections contained in section four of this article, the special elections shall be 46 conducted in conjunction with the regularly scheduled election or elections. If a special election is 47 required by section two of this article and it cannot be held in conjunction with the regular election 48 dates, then the compensation of election officers shall be reimbursed pursuant to section nine of 49 this article.

50 ~~(B) With regard to United States Senate, if a special general election following the regular~~ 51 ~~general election is required by section four of this article, and it cannot be held in conjunction with~~ 52 ~~the regular election dates, then the compensation of election officers shall be reimbursed pursuant~~ 53 ~~to section nine of this article~~

54 (3) For all other offices, the Governor, or other person granted authority by this article,
55 shall issue a proclamation stating that the office will appear on the next regular primary election
56 and subsequent general election, in order to fill the vacancy: Provided, That if the vacancy for any 57 county office occurs during the window after the primary cutoff date, but before the general cutoff
58 date, the process contained in sections six, seven and eight of this article shall be followed. If the 59 candidate filing period for the next regular primary election has closed or has less than one week
60 remaining, the proclamation shall provide for a special primary candidate filing period. If there are 61 less than eighty-four days between the vacancy and the next regular primary election, then the 62 proclamation shall state that the office will appear on the subsequent regular primary election and 63 corresponding general election following the next regular primary election.

64 (d) (1) If a special candidate filing period is necessary, it shall begin no sooner than the 65 day after the proclamation and shall close no earlier than close of business on the fourteenth day
66 following the proclamation. A notarized declaration of candidacy and filing fee provided by section
67 seven, article five of this chapter shall be filed either in person, by United States mail, electronic

68 means or any other means authorized by the Secretary of State and received by the appropriate
69 office before the close of the filing period. For petition in lieu of payment of filing fees, a candidate
70 seeking nomination for the vacancy may utilize the process set forth in section eight-a, article five 71 of this chapter: Provided, That the minimum number of signatures required is equivalent to one 72 qualified signature per one whole dollar of the filing fee for that office.

73 (2) If a primary election is required by the provisions of this article:

74 (A) For all statewide, multicounty and legislative elections, drawing for the primary election
75 ballot position will take place at the Secretary of State's office twenty-four hours after the end of 76 the filing period. For each major political party on the ballot, a single drawing by lot shall determine
77 the candidate ballot position for ballots statewide. This drawing shall be witnessed by four clerks
78 of the county commission chosen by the West Virginia Association of County Clerks, with no more 79 than two clerks representing a single political party.

80 (B) For county elections, drawing for the primary election ballot position will take place at 81 the county clerk's office twenty-four hours after the end of the filing period. For each major political

87 pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section two, article six of this chapter. If a general
88 election required by this article occurs in conjunction with a regularly scheduled primary election,
89 the general election shall be listed along with the nonpartisan portion of each ballot in the order
90 of offices provided for regular ballots in this chapter.

91 (e) When an election is required to fill a vacancy, the date of the election and offices to be 92 elected, as well as any other information required in the proclamation, shall be published prior to 93 such election as a Class I-O legal advertisement in compliance with the provisions of article three,

94 chapter fifty-nine of this code, and the publication area for such publication shall be each county
95 of the state that is eligible to vote in the election for those offices.

96 (f) If an election is required by this article, citizens having no party organization or affiliation
97 may nominate candidates as provided by sections twenty-three and twenty-four, article five of this 98 chapter: Provided, That when an election is required by the provisions of this article to be held at 99 some time other than with a regularly scheduled election, all certificates nominating candidates 100 shall be filed with the appropriate official no later than ninety days before the election.
