Introduced

Senate Bill 31

By Senators Karnes and Rucker

[Introduced February 8, 2017; referred to the Committee on Health and Human Resources; and then to the Committee on the Judiciary]
A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §33-16G-10, relating to prohibiting abortion coverage in qualified health care plans issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2018; and providing an exception to the prohibition when a mother's life is in danger.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §33-16G-10, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 16G. WEST VIRGINIA HEALTH BENEFIT EXCHANGE ACT.

Abortion coverage in qualified health plans offered through the exchange, whether the exchange is run solely by the state, in partnership with the federal government or solely by the federal government, is prohibited in those plans issued or renewed on or after January 1, 2018: Provided, That the prohibition does not prohibit coverage of abortion if the mother's life is in danger.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to prohibit abortion coverage in qualified health care plans on or after January 1, 2018, with the exception for coverage when a mother's life is in danger.
