 3 release program and spend six months in a work release center; and providing that 70
 4 percent of their earnings shall be held in an account and provided to them at the successful 5 completion of the six-month period.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 12. PROBATION AND PAROLE.

§62-12-9. Conditions of release on probation.

1 (a) Release on probation is conditioned upon the following:

2 (1) That the probationer may not, during the term of his or her probation, violate any 3 criminal law of this or any other state or of the United States;

4 (2) That the probationer may not, during the term of his or her probation, leave the state 5 without the consent of the court which placed him or her on probation;

6 (3) That the probationer complies with the conditions prescribed by the court for his or her 7 supervision by the probation officer;

8 (4) That in every case in which the probationer has been convicted of an offense defined 9 in §61-8-12 of this code or §62-8B-1 et seq. of this code or §62-8D-1 et seq. of this code, against 10 a child, the probationer may not live in the same residence as any minor child, nor exercise
 11 visitation with any minor child and may have no contact with the victim of the offense: Provided,
 12 That the probationer may petition the court of the circuit in which he or she was convicted for a 13 modification of this term and condition of his or her probation and the burden rests upon the 14 probationer to demonstrate that a modification is in the best interest of the child;

15 (5) That the probationer pay a fee, not to exceed $20 per month, to defray costs of 16 supervision: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and 17 makes a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the fee without undue 18 hardship. All moneys collected as fees from probationers pursuant to this subdivision shall be

19 deposited with the circuit clerk who shall, on a monthly basis, remit the moneys collected to the 20 State Treasurer for deposit in the State General Revenue Fund; ~~and~~

21 (6) That the probationer is required to pay the fee described in §62-1C-4 of this code:
22 Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and makes a 23 determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the fee without undue hardship; and

24 (7) Probationers who have served 10 or more years are required to participate in a work
25 release program and spend six months in a work release center. Seventy percent of the wages 26 or other compensation earned by the probationer at the work release center shall be held in an 27 account and provided to him or her at the successful completion of the six-month period.

28 (b) In addition, the court may impose, subject to modification at any time, any other 29 conditions which it may determine advisable, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

30 (1) That the probationer make restitution or reparation, in whole or in part, immediately or 31 within the period of probation, to any party injured by the crime for which he or she has been 32 convicted: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and makes 33 a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay restitution without undue hardship;

34 (2) That the probationer pays any fine assessed and the costs of the proceeding in 35 installments directed by the court: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition 36 of probation and makes a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the costs 37 without undue hardship;

38 (3) That the probationer makes contributions from his or her earnings, in sums directed by 39 the court, for the support of his or her dependents; and

40 (4) That the probationer, in the discretion of the court, is required to serve a period of 41 confinement in jail of the county in which he or she was convicted for a period not to exceed one 42 third of the minimum sentence established by law or one third of the least possible period of 43 confinement in an indeterminate sentence, but in no case may the period of confinement exceed 44 six consecutive months. The court may sentence the defendant within the six-month period to

45 intermittent periods of confinement including, but not limited to, weekends or holidays and may 46 grant to the defendant intermittent periods of release in order that he or she may work at his or 47 her employment or for other reasons or purposes as the court may determine appropriate:
48 Provided, That the provisions of §62-11A-1 et seq. of this code do not apply to intermittent periods
49 of confinement and release except to the extent directed by the court. If a period of confinement
50 is required as a condition of probation, the court shall make special findings that other conditions 51 of probation are inadequate and that a period of confinement is necessary.

52 (c) Circuit courts may impose, as a condition of probation, participation in a day report 53 center.

54 (1) To be eligible, the probationer must be identified as moderate to high risk of reoffending
55 and moderate to high criminogenic need, as determined by the standardized risk and needs
56 assessment adopted by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia under §62-12-6(d) of this 57 code, and applied by a probation officer or day report staff. In eligible cases, circuit courts may 58 impose a term of up to one year: Provided, That notwithstanding the results of the standardized 59 risk and needs assessment, a judge may impose, as a term of probation, participation in a day
60 report center program upon making specific written findings of fact as to the reason for departing 61 from the requirements of this subdivision.

62 (2) The day report center staff shall determine which services a person receives based on 63 the results of the standardized risk and needs assessment and taking into consideration the other 64 conditions of probation set by the court.

65 (d) For the purposes of this article, "day report center" means a court-operated or court-66 approved facility where persons ordered to serve a sentence in this type of facility are required to 67 report under the terms and conditions set by the court for purposes which include, but are not 68 limited to, counseling, employment training, alcohol or drug testing or other medical testing.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to requiring probationers who have served 10 or more years to participate in a work release program and spend six months in a work release center. The bill provides that 70 percent their earnings shall be held in an account and provided to them at the successful completion of the six-month period.
