ARTICLE 4. COURT ACTIONS.

§49-4-604. Disposition of neglected or abused children; case plans; dispositions; factors to be considered; reunification; orders; alternative dispositions.

1 (a) Child and family case plans. — Following a determination pursuant to §49-4-602 of 2 this code wherein the court finds a child to be abused or neglected, the department shall file with 3 the court a copy of the child’s case plan, including the permanency plan for the child. The term 4 “case plan” means a written document that includes, where applicable, the requirements of the 5 family case plan as provided in §49-4-408 of this code and that also includes, at a minimum, the 6 following:

7 (1) A description of the type of home or institution in which the child is to be placed, 8 including a discussion of the appropriateness of the placement and how the agency which is 9 responsible for the child plans to assure that the child receives proper care and that services are 10 provided to the parents, child, and foster parents in order to improve the conditions that made the 11 child unsafe in the care of his or her parent(s), including any reasonable accommodations in 12 accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U. S. C. §12101 et seq., to parents 13 with disabilities in order to allow them meaningful access to reunification and family preservation 14 services;

15 (2) A plan to facilitate the return of the child to his or her own home or the concurrent 16 permanent placement of the child; and address the needs of the child while in relative or foster 17 care, including a discussion of the appropriateness of the services that have been provided to the 18 child.

19 The term “permanency plan” refers to that part of the case plan which is designed to 20 achieve a permanent home for the child in the least restrictive setting available. The plan must 21 document efforts to ensure that the child is returned home within approximate time lines for 22 reunification as set out in the plan. Reasonable efforts to place a child for adoption or with a legal 23 guardian should be made at the same time, or concurrent with, reasonable efforts to prevent 24 removal or to make it possible for a child to return to the care of his or her parent(s) safely. If 25 reunification is not the permanency plan for the child, the plan must state why reunification is not 26 appropriate and detail the alternative, concurrent permanent placement plans for the child to 27 include approximate time lines for when the placement is expected to become a permanent 28 placement. This case plan shall serve as the family case plan for parents of abused or neglected 29 children. Copies of the child's case plan shall be sent to the child's attorney and parent, guardian 30 or custodian or their counsel at least five days prior to the dispositional hearing. The court shall 31 forthwith proceed to disposition giving both the petitioner and respondents an opportunity to be 32 heard.

33 (b) Report of Guardian ad Litem. A guardian ad litem, appointed pursuant to §49-4-34 601(f)(1) of this code, shall conduct an independent investigation of the facts of the case; meet 35 with the child face-to-face, unless the court specifically determines that such a meeting would be 36 inappropriate given the age, medical or psychological condition of the child; actively participate in 37 all aspects of litigation; and provide a thoroughly analyzed and meaningful recommendation to 38 the court. The guardian ad litem shall submit a written report to the court prior to the dispositional 39 hearing. Copies of the guardian ad litem's report shall be sent to the parties or their counsel and, 40 upon discretion of the court, to persons entitled to notice and the right to be heard at least five 41 days prior to the dispositional hearing. A dispositional hearing may proceed without a written 42 guardian ad litem report if the parties have waived the requirement that the guardian ad litem's 43 report be submitted prior to disposition, and upon a finding of good cause by the presiding judge.
44 Upon petition of the guardian ad litem, the court, in its discretion, may seal the report or redact
45 information contained in the report. Guardians ad litem are precluded from testifying, but may 46 proffer, as to any aspect of the report. The report shall include, at a minimum, the following 47 information:

48 (1) A brief summary of the procedural posture of the case;

49 (2) The dates the guardian ad litem had contact with the child and the nature of the contact;

50 (3) The names of each person interviewed, the date of the interview, and the person's 51 relationship to the child;

52 (4) A summary of the information obtained from the interviews and observations obtained 53 from the investigation;

54 (5) The documents reviewed during the course of the investigation and a brief summary 55 of the contents;

56 (6) The child's placement history, visitation schedule, and current status of the child's 57 education, health, services, and contact with siblings and relatives;

58 (7) The parents' current status and ability to care for the child;

59 (8) When appropriate, the child's expressed wishes and any issue that the child requests 60 that the court consider;

61 (9) The recommendation of the guardian ad litem that addresses the best interest of child 62 regarding custody, visitation, and permanent placement;

63 (10) Obtain the signature of a foster parent or kinship placement indicating that the visit 64 took place at the home of the foster parent or kinship placement; and

65 (11) A statement indicating the reason any witnesses including the foster parents were not 66 interviewed by the guardian ad litem if those witnesses were requested to be interviewed.

67 ~~(b)~~ (c) Disposition decisions. — The court shall give precedence to dispositions in the 68 following sequence:

69 (1) Dismiss the petition;

70 (2) Refer the child, the abusing parent, the battered parent or other family members to a 71 community agency for needed assistance and dismiss the petition;

72 (3) Return the child to his or her own home under supervision of the department;

73 (4) Order terms of supervision calculated to assist the child and any abusing parent or 74 battered parent or parents or custodian which prescribe the manner of supervision and care of 75 the child and which are within the ability of any parent or parents or custodian to perform;

76 (5) Upon a finding that the abusing parent or battered parent or parents are presently 77 unwilling or unable to provide adequately for the child's needs, commit the child temporarily to the 78 care, custody, and control of the state department, a licensed private child welfare agency, or a 79 suitable person who may be appointed guardian by the court. The court order shall state:

80 (A) That continuation in the home is contrary to the best interests of the child and why;

81 (B) Whether or not the department has made reasonable efforts, with the child's health 82 and safety being the paramount concern, to preserve the family, or some portion thereof, and to 83 prevent or eliminate the need for removing the child from the child's home and to make it possible 84 for the child to safely return home;

85 (C) Whether the department has made reasonable accommodations in accordance with 86 the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U. S. C. § 12101 et seq., to parents with disabilities 87 in order to allow them meaningful access to reunification and family preservation services;

88 (D) What efforts were made or that the emergency situation made those efforts 89 unreasonable or impossible; and 90 (E) The specific circumstances of the situation which made those efforts unreasonable if 91 services were not offered by the department. The court order shall also determine under what 92 circumstances the child's commitment to the department are to continue. Considerations pertinent 93 to the determination include whether the child should:

94 (i) Be considered for legal guardianship;

95 (ii) Be considered for permanent placement with a fit and willing relative; or 96 (iii) Be placed in another planned permanent living arrangement, but only in cases where 97 the child has attained 16 years of age and the department has documented to the circuit court a

98 compelling reason for determining that it would not be in the best interests of the child to follow
99 one of the options set forth in subparagraphs (i) or (ii) of this paragraph. The court may order 100 services to meet the special needs of the child. Whenever the court transfers custody of a youth 101 to the department, an appropriate order of financial support by the parents or guardians shall be 102 entered in accordance with §49-4-801 through §49-4-803 of this code;

103 (6) Upon a finding that there is no reasonable likelihood that the conditions of neglect or 104 abuse can be substantially corrected in the near future and, when necessary for the welfare of 105 the child, terminate the parental, custodial and guardianship rights and responsibilities of the 106 abusing parent and commit the child to the permanent sole custody of the nonabusing parent, if 107 there be one, or, if not, to either the permanent guardianship of the department or a licensed child 108 welfare agency. The court may award sole custody of the child to a nonabusing battered parent.
109 If the court shall so find, then in fixing its dispositional order the court shall consider the following 110 factors:

111 (A) The child's need for continuity of care and caretakers;

112 (B) The amount of time required for the child to be integrated into a stable and permanent 113 home environment; and

114 (C) Other factors as the court considers necessary and proper. Notwithstanding any other 115 provision of this article, the court shall give consideration to the wishes of a child 14 years of age 116 or older or otherwise of an age of discretion as determined by the court regarding the permanent 117 termination of parental rights. No adoption of a child shall take place until all proceedings for 118 termination of parental rights under this article and appeals thereof are final. In determining 119 whether or not parental rights should be terminated, the court shall consider the efforts made by 120 the department to provide remedial and reunification services to the parent. The court order shall 121 state:

122 (i) That continuation in the home is not in the best interest of the child and why;

123 (ii) Why reunification is not in the best interests of the child;

124 (iii) Whether or not the department made reasonable efforts, with the child's health and 125 safety being the paramount concern, to preserve the family, or some portion thereof, and to 126 prevent the placement or to eliminate the need for removing the child from the child's home and 127 to make it possible for the child to safely return home, or that the emergency situation made those 128 efforts unreasonable or impossible; and 129 (iv) Whether or not the department made reasonable efforts to preserve and reunify the 130 family, or some portion thereof, including a description of what efforts were made or that those 131 efforts were unreasonable due to specific circumstances.

132 (7) For purposes of the court's consideration of the disposition custody of a child pursuant 133 to this subsection, the department is not required to make reasonable efforts to preserve the 134 family if the court determines:

135 (A) The parent has subjected the child, another child of the parent or any other child 136 residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent to 137 aggravated circumstances which include, but are not limited to, abandonment, torture, chronic 138 abuse, and sexual abuse;

139 (B) The parent has:

140 (i) Committed murder of the child's other parent, guardian or custodian, another child of 141 the parent, or any other child residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent 142 custody of the parent;

143 (ii) Committed voluntary manslaughter of the child's other parent, guardian or custodian, 144 another child of the parent, or any other child residing in the same household or under the 145 temporary or permanent custody of the parent;

146 (iii) Attempted or conspired to commit murder or voluntary manslaughter, or been an 147 accessory before or after the fact to either crime;

148 (iv) Committed a malicious assault that results in serious bodily injury to the child, the 149 child's other parent, guardian or custodian, to another child of the parent, or any other child 150 residing in the same household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent; or

151 (v) Committed sexual assault or sexual abuse of the child, the child's other parent, 152 guardian or custodian, another child of the parent, or any other child residing in the same 153 household or under the temporary or permanent custody of the parent.

154 (C) The parental rights of the parent to another child have been terminated involuntarily;

155 (D) A parent has been required by state or federal law to register with a sex offender 156 registry, and the court has determined in consideration of the nature and circumstances 157 surrounding the prior charges against that parent, that the child's interests would not be promoted 158 by a preservation of the family.

159 ~~(e)~~ (d) As used in this section, "No reasonable likelihood that conditions of neglect or abuse 160 can be substantially corrected" means that, based upon the evidence before the court, the 161 abusing adult or adults have demonstrated an inadequate capacity to solve the problems of abuse 162 or neglect on their own or with help. Those conditions exist in the following circumstances, which 163 are not exclusive:

164 (1) The abusing parent or parents have habitually abused or are addicted to alcohol, 165 controlled substances or drugs, to the extent that proper parenting skills have been seriously 166 impaired and the person or persons have not responded to or followed through the recommended 167 and appropriate treatment which could have improved the capacity for adequate parental 168 functioning;

169 (2) The abusing parent or parents have willfully refused or are presently unwilling to 170 cooperate in the development of a reasonable family case plan designed to lead to the child's 171 return to their care, custody and control;

172 (3) The abusing parent or parents have not responded to or followed through with a 173 reasonable family case plan or other rehabilitative efforts of social, medical, mental health, or 174 other rehabilitative agencies designed to reduce or prevent the abuse or neglect of the child, as 175 evidenced by the continuation or insubstantial diminution of conditions which threatened the 176 health, welfare, or life of the child;

177 (4) The abusing parent or parents have abandoned the child;

178 (5) The abusing parent or parents have repeatedly or seriously injured the child physically 179 or emotionally, or have sexually abused or sexually exploited the child, and the degree of family 180 stress and the potential for further abuse and neglect are so great as to preclude the use of 181 resources to mitigate or resolve family problems, or assist the abusing parent or parents in fulfilling 182 their responsibilities to the child; and 183 (6) The battered parent's parenting skills have been seriously impaired and the person 184 has willfully refused or is presently unwilling or unable to cooperate in the development of a 185 reasonable treatment plan, or has not adequately responded to or followed through with the 186 recommended and appropriate treatment plan.

187 ~~(d)~~ (e) The court may, as an alternative disposition, allow the parents or custodians an 188 improvement period not to exceed six months. During this period the court shall require the parent 189 to rectify the conditions upon which the determination was based. The court may order the child 190 to be placed with the parents, or any person found to be a fit and proper person, for the temporary 191 care of the child during the period. At the end of the period, the court shall hold a hearing to 192 determine whether the conditions have been adequately improved and at the conclusion of the 193 hearing shall make a further dispositional order in accordance with this section.

194 ~~(e)~~ (f) The court may not terminate the parental right of a parent on the sole basis that the 195 parent is participating in a medication-assisted treatment program, as regulated in §16-5Y-1 et 196 seq., for substance use disorder, as long as the parent is successfully fulfilling his or her treatment 197 obligations in the medication-assisted treatment program.
