

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 4530

BY DELEGATE WESTFALL

[Introduced January 24, 2020; Referred to the Committee on Technology and Infrastructure then the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §17A-6D-17, relating to authorizing daily passenger rental car companies to
 3 charge reasonable administrative fees when the fees are incidental to or arising from the 4 rental car transaction.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 6D. DAILY PASSENGER RENTAL CAR BUSINESS.

§17A-6D-17. Authorized administrative fees.

1 (a) As used in this section, “administrative fees” means reasonable costs associated with
 2 collecting debts arising from the master rental agreement, which may include, but are not limited
 3 to, parking tickets, tolls, and other nonmoving violations incurred by the rental customer.

4 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of §46A-2-128 of this code to the contrary, a daily
 5 passenger rental car company may collect or charge administrative fees incidental to, or arising
 6 from, the rental transaction when such administrative fees are expressly authorized by the master
 7 rental agreement and affirmatively acknowledged by the rental customer.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to permit daily passenger rental car companies to collect reasonable administrative fees incidental to, or arising from, the rental transaction when the administrative fees are expressly authorized by the master agreement and acknowledged by the customer.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
