27 (1) Not a state officer or employee; and

28 (2) Elected or appointed to an authority, a board, a commission, a committee, a council, a 29 task force, or other body designated by any name that:

30 (A) Is authorized by statute or executive order; and

31 (B) Functions in a policy or an advisory role in the executive (including the administrative)
 32 department of state government, including a separate body corporate and politic.

33 “State officer” means any of the following:

34 (1) The Governor.

35 (2) The Secretary of State.

36 (3) The State Auditor.

37 (4) The State Superintendent of Schools;

38 (5) The Treasurer.

39 (6) The Attorney General.

40 (7) The Commissioner of Agriculture.

§6B-4-2. Inspector General; powers and duties; appointment and removal; and reappointment.

1 (a) There is established the Office of the Inspector General. The Office of the Inspector
 2 General consists of the Inspector General, who is the director of the office, and an additional staff
 3 of deputy inspectors general, investigators, auditors, and clerical employees appointed by the 4 Inspector General as necessary to carry out the duties of the Inspector General.

5 (b) The Inspector General is responsible for addressing fraud, waste, abuse, and 6 wrongdoing in state governmental agencies.

7 (c) The Governor shall appoint the Inspector General with the consent of the Senate.

8 (d) The Inspector General:

9 (1) Except as provided in subdivision (2), shall be appointed for a term that expires on the 10 earlier of the date that:

11 (A) The term of the Governor who appointed the Inspector General expires; or

12 (B) The Governor leaves office;

13 (2) May only be removed from office by the Governor for:

14 (A) Neglect of duty;

15 (B) Misfeasance;

16 (C) Malfeasance; or

17 (D) Nonfeasance; and

18 (3) Must be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

19 (e) If the Governor is reelected, the Governor may reappoint the Inspector General for an 20 additional term.

§6B-4-3. Duties; criminal investigation; recommendations; annual report.

1 The Inspector General shall:

2 (1) Initiate, supervise, and coordinate investigations.

3 (2) Recommend policies and carry out other activities designed to deter, detect, and 4 eradicate fraud, waste, abuse, mismanagement, and misconduct in state government.

5 (3) Receive complaints alleging the following:

6 (A) A violation of chapter 6B of this code.

7 (B) A violation of §61-5A-1 et seq. of this code.

8 (C) The conviction of a felony during the officer's present term of office or any willful
9 unlawful behavior by a public officer in the course of his or her performance of the duties of the 10 public office.

11 (D) A violation of a statute or rule relating to the purchase of goods or services by a current 12 or former employee, state officer, special state appointee, lobbyist, or person who has a business
13 relationship with an agency.

14 (4) If the Inspector General has reasonable cause to believe that a crime has occurred or 15 is occurring, report the suspected crime to:

16 (A) The Governor; and

17 (B) Appropriate state or federal law-enforcement agencies and prosecuting authorities
18 having jurisdiction over the matter.

19 (5) Propose rules for legislative approval pursuant to §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code to 20 implement the provisions of this article.

21 (6) Ensure that the following persons are properly trained in the code of ethics.

22 (A) Employees;

23 (B) State officers;

24 (C) Special state appointees; and

25 (D) Person who have a business relationship with an agency;

26 (7) Provide advice to a state agency on developing, implementing, and enforcing policies
27 and procedures to prevent or reduce the risk of fraudulent or wrongful acts within the agency.

28 (8) Recommend legislation to the Governor and the Legislature to strengthen public 29 integrity laws, including the code of ethics for state officers, employees, special state appointees, 30 and persons who have a business relationship with an agency, including whether additional 31 specific state officers, employees, or special state appointees should be required to file a financial 32 disclosure statement under §6B-2-6 of this code.

33 (9) Annually submit a report to the Legislature detailing the Inspector General's activities.

34 (10) Prescribe and provide forms for statements required to be filed under this article.

35 (11) Accept and file information that:

36 (A) Is voluntarily supplied; and

37 (B) Exceeds the requirements of this article.

38 (12) Inspect financial disclosure forms.

39 (13) Notify persons who fail to file forms required under §6B-2-1 et seq. of this code or this 40 article.

41 (14) Prepare interpretive and educational materials and programs.

§6B-4-4. Powers; subpoena and contempt; reports; serving as special prosecuting attorney; civil and criminal actions.

1 To carry out the duties described in §6B-4-3 of this code, the Inspector General has the
2 following powers:

3 (1) As part of an investigation, the Inspector General may:

4 (A) Administer oaths;

5 (B) Examine witnesses under oath;

6 (C) Issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum; and

7 (D) Examine the records, reports, audits, reviews, papers, books, recommendations,
8 contracts, correspondence, or any other documents maintained by an agency.

9 (2) The Inspector General may apply to a circuit court for an order holding an individual in 10 contempt of court if the individual refuses to give sworn testimony under a subpoena issued by 11 the Inspector General or otherwise disobeys a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum issued by the 12 Inspector General.

13 (3) The Inspector General shall prepare a report summarizing the results of every 14 investigation. The report is confidential in accordance with §6B-4-8 of this code and is not subject 15 to disclosure pursuant to §§29B-1-1 et seq. of this code.

16 (4) If the Attorney General has elected not to file a civil action for the recovery of funds
17 misappropriated, diverted, missing, or unlawfully gained, the Inspector General may file a civil 18 action for the recovery of the funds in accordance with §6B-4-6 of this code.

19 (5) The Inspector General may prosecute a criminal matter as a special prosecuting

20 attorney or special deputy prosecuting attorney in accordance with §6B-4-7 of this code.

§6B-4-5. Code of ethics; use of state property for political purpose; filing ethics complaint.

1 (a) The Inspector General shall propose rules for legislative approval pursuant to §§29A-
2 3-1 et seq. of this code, establishing a code of ethics for the conduct of state business. The code
3 of ethics must be consistent with state law.

4 (b) The code of ethics must, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, prohibit 5 the following:

6 (1) A state officer, an employee, or a special state appointee from using state materials,
7 funds, property, personnel, facilities, or equipment for a political purpose.

8 (2) Adoption of policies or rules that authorize a state officer, an employee, or a special
9 state appointee to use state materials, funds, property, personnel, facilities, or equipment for a 10 political purpose.

11 For purposes of this section, “political purpose” does not include the handling or disposing 12 of unsolicited political communications.

13 (c) A state officer or an individual designated by the state officer may use state materials,
14 funds, property, personnel, facilities, or equipment for the following:

15 (1) To coordinate the state officer’s official, personal, and political calendars.

16 (2) To provide transportation and security for:

17 (A) The state officer; and

18 (B) Any employee or special state appointee who accompanies the state officer.

19 (3) Incidental or de minimus political communications or activity involving the state officer.

20 (d) If the Inspector General investigates and determines that there is specific and credible
21 evidence that a current or former employee, a current or former state officer, a current or former 22 special state appointee, or a person who has or had a business relationship with an agency has 23 violated the code of ethics, the Inspector General may:

24 (1) File a complaint with the Ethics Commission and represent the state in a public

25 proceeding before the Ethics Commission as prescribed in §§6B-2-1 et seq. of this code; or

26 (2) File a complaint with the Ethics Commission and negotiate an agreed settlement for 27 approval by the Ethics Commission according to its rules.

§6B-4-6. Misconduct involving state business; report to Attorney General; Inspector

General's authority to bring civil action.

1 (a) This section applies if the Inspector General finds evidence of misfeasance,
2 malfeasance, nonfeasance, misappropriation, fraud, or other misconduct that has resulted in a
3 financial loss to the state or in an unlawful benefit to an individual in the conduct of state business.

4 (b) If the Inspector General finds evidence described in subsection (a) of this section, the 5 Inspector General shall certify a report of the matter to the Attorney General and provide the 6 Attorney General with any relevant documents, transcripts, or written statements. Not later than 7 180 days after receipt of the report from the Inspector General, the Attorney General shall do one
8 of the following:

9 (1) File a civil action (including an action upon a state officer's official bond) to secure for 10 the state the recovery of funds misappropriated, diverted, missing, or unlawfully gained. Upon 11 request of the Attorney General, the Inspector General shall assist the Attorney General in the 12 investigation, preparation, and prosecution of the civil action.

13 (2) Inform the Inspector General that the Attorney General does not intend to file a civil 14 action for the recovery of funds misappropriated, diverted, missing, or unlawfully gained. If the 15 Attorney General elects not to file a civil action, the Attorney General shall return to the Inspector
16 General all documents and files initially provided by the Inspector General.

17 (3) Inform the Inspector General that the Attorney General is diligently investigating the 18 matter and after further investigation may file a civil action for the recovery of funds
19 misappropriated, diverted, missing, or unlawfully gained. However, if more than 365 days have 20 passed since the Inspector General certified the report to the Attorney General, the Attorney
21 General loses the authority to file a civil action for the recovery of funds misappropriated, diverted,

22 missing, or unlawfully gained and shall return to the Inspector General all documents and files
23 initially provided by the Inspector General.

24 (c) The Inspector General may file a civil action for the recovery of funds misappropriated,
25 diverted, missing, or unlawfully gained if the Inspector General has found evidence described in 26 subsection (a) of this section and reported to the Attorney General under subsection (b) of this 27 section and:

28 (1) The Attorney General has elected under subdivision (2), subsection (b) of this section
29 not to file a civil action for the recovery of funds misappropriated, diverted, missing, or unlawfully 30 gained; or

31 (2) Under subdivision (3), subsection (b) of this section more than 365 days have passed
32 since the Inspector General certified the report to the Attorney General under subsection (b) of 33 this section and the Attorney General has not filed a civil action.

34 (d) If the Inspector General has found evidence described in subsection (a) of this section,
35 the Inspector General may institute forfeiture proceedings in a court having jurisdiction in a county
36 where property derived from or realized through the misappropriation, diversion, disappearance,
37 or unlawful gain of state funds may be located, unless a prosecuting attorney has already 38 instituted forfeiture proceedings against that property.

39 (e) The Inspector General may directly institute civil proceedings against a person who 40 has failed to pay civil penalties imposed by the Ethics Commission under §6B-2-4 of this code.

§6B-4-7. Crimes; Inspector General’s duty to report to prosecuting attorney; Governor’s recommendation; appointment of special prosecutor by court of appeals judge; selection; powers and limitations; indictment.

1 (a) (1) If the Inspector General discovers evidence of criminal activity, the Inspector
2 General shall certify to the appropriate prosecuting attorney the following information:

3 (A) The identity of any person who may be involved in the criminal activity; and

4 (B) The criminal statute that the Inspector General believes has been violated.

5           (2) In addition, the Inspector General shall provide the prosecuting attorney with any 6 relevant documents, transcripts, or written statements. If the prosecuting attorney decides to 7 prosecute the crime described in the information certified to the prosecuting attorney, or any other
8 related crimes, the Inspector General shall cooperate with the prosecuting attorney in the 9 investigation and prosecution of the case. Upon request of the prosecuting attorney, the Inspector
10 General may participate on behalf of the state in any resulting criminal trial.

11           (b) The Inspector General may request that the Governor recommend the Inspector
12 General be appointed as a special prosecuting attorney under subsection (h) of this section so 13 that the Inspector General may prosecute the matter addressed in the certification if:

14           (1) The prosecuting attorney to whom the Inspector General issues a certification under 15 subsection (a) of this section:

16           (A) Is disqualified from investigating or bringing a criminal prosecution in the matter
17 addressed in the certification;

18           (B) Does not file an information or seek an indictment not later than 180 days after the 19 date on which the Inspector General certified the information to the prosecuting attorney; or

20           (C) Refers the case back to the Inspector General; and

21           (2) The Inspector General finds that there may be probable cause to believe that a person
22 identified in a certification under subdivision (1), subsection (a) of this section has violated a 23 criminal statute identified in a certification under subdivision (2), subsection (a) of this section;

24           (c) The Governor may recommend the Inspector General be appointed as a special 25 prosecuting attorney if:

26           (1) One of the conditions set forth in subdivision (1), subsection (b) of this section relating 27 to the prosecuting attorney is met; and

28           (2) The Governor finds that the appointment of the Inspector General as a special 29 prosecuting attorney is in the best interests of justice.

30           (d)(1) If the Governor has recommended the appointment of the Inspector General as a

31 special prosecuting attorney, the Inspector General shall file a notice with the Chief Justice of the 32 Supreme Court of Appeals, stating:

33 (A) That the Governor has recommended that the Inspector General be appointed as a 34 special prosecutor;

35 (B) The name of the county in which the crime that the Inspector General intends to 36 prosecute is alleged to have been committed; and

37 (C) That the Inspector General requests the chief justice to assign a justice of the Supreme 38 Court of Appeals to determine whether the Inspector General should be appointed as a special
39 prosecuting attorney.

40 (2) Upon receipt of the notice, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall 41 randomly select a justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals to determine whether the Inspector
42 General should be appointed as a special prosecuting attorney. The Chief Justice shall exclude 43 from the random selection a justice who resided in the county in which the crime is alleged to 44 have been committed at the time the justice was elected or appointed to the Supreme Court of 45 Appeals.

46 (e) The Inspector General shall file a verified petition for appointment as a special
47 prosecuting attorney with the justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals assigned under subsection
48 (d) of this section. In the verified petition, the Inspector General shall set forth why the Inspector 49 General should be appointed as a special prosecutor. The Inspector General may support the 50 verified petition by including relevant documents, transcripts, or written statements in support of 51 the Inspector General's position. The Inspector General shall serve a copy of the verified petition, 52 along with any supporting evidence, on the prosecuting attorney to whom the case was originally 53 certified under subsection (a) of this section.

54 (f) The prosecuting attorney shall file a verified petition in support of or opposition to the 55 Inspector General's verified petition for appointment as a special prosecuting attorney not later
56 than 15 days after receipt of the Inspector General's verified petition for appointment as a special

57 prosecuting attorney.

58 (g) Upon a showing of particularized need, the justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals
59 may order the verified petitions filed by the Inspector General and the prosecuting attorney to be 60 confidential.

61 (h) (1) After considering the verified petitions, the justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals
62 may appoint the Inspector General or a prosecuting attorney, other than the prosecuting attorney
63 to whom the case was certified under this section, as a special prosecuting attorney if the justice 64 finds that:

65 (A) One of the conditions set forth in subdivision (1), subsection (b) of this section is met;
66 and

67 (B) Appointment of a special prosecuting attorney is in the best interests of justice.

68 (2) In making its determination under this subsection, the justice of the Supreme Court of 69 Appeals shall consider only the arguments and evidence contained in the verified petitions.

70 (i) (1) Except as provided in subsection (k) of this section, a special prosecuting attorney
71 appointed under this section has the same powers as the prosecuting attorney of the county.
72 However, the justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall:

73 (A) Limit the scope of the special prosecuting attorney's duties as a special prosecuting
74 attorney to include only the investigation or prosecution of a particular case or particular grand 75 jury investigation, including any matter that reasonably results from the investigation, prosecution, 76 or grand jury investigation; and

77 (B) Establish for a time certain the length of the special prosecuting attorney's term.

78 (2) If the special prosecuting attorney's investigation or prosecution acquires a broader 79 scope or requires additional time to complete, the justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals may 80 at any time increase the scope of the special prosecuting attorney's duties or establish a longer 81 term for the special prosecuting attorney.

82 (j) An Inspector General or prosecuting attorney appointed to serve as a special

83 prosecuting attorney may appoint one or more deputies who are licensed to practice law in this 84 state to serve as a special deputy prosecuting attorney. A special deputy prosecuting attorney is 85 subject to the same statutory restrictions and other restrictions imposed on the special
86 prosecuting attorney by the Supreme Court of Appeals, but otherwise has the same powers as a 87 deputy prosecuting attorney.

88 (k) An Inspector General or prosecuting attorney appointed to serve as a special 89 prosecuting attorney under this section may bring a criminal charge only after obtaining an 90 indictment from a grand jury. An Inspector General or prosecuting attorney appointed under this 91 section to serve as a special prosecuting attorney may not bring a criminal charge by filing an 92 information.

93 (l) The Inspector General or a deputy Inspector General who is licensed to practice law in 94 this state may serve as a special deputy prosecuting attorney.

95 (m) If the Supreme Court of Appeals appoints a prosecuting attorney to serve as a special
96 prosecuting attorney under this section, the Inspector General shall reimburse the prosecuting
97 attorney for the reasonable expenses of investigating and prosecuting the case.

§6B-4-8. Confidentiality of informant; exceptions; records and disclosure; penalties.

1 (a) The identity of any individual who discloses in good faith to the Inspector General
2 information alleging a violation of a state or federal statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance is 3 confidential and may not be disclosed to anyone other than the Governor, the staff of the office of 4 the Inspector General, or an authority to whom the investigation is subsequently referred or 5 certified, unless:

6 (1) The Inspector General makes a written determination that it is in the public interest to 7 disclose the individual's identity; or

8 (2) The individual consents in writing to disclosure of the individual's identity.

9 (b) The investigative records of the Inspector General may be kept confidential, in whole 10 or in part.

11 (c) This subsection does not apply to a person who is a party to an action brought by the 12 Inspector General. Information received by the Inspector General is not required to be produced 13 in the course of discovery unless ordered by a court after a showing of:

14 (1) Particularized need; and

15 (2) Proof that the information requested cannot be obtained from any other source.

16 (d) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, a person who knowingly or 17 intentionally discloses: (1) Confidential information or records; or (2) the identity of a person 18 whose identity is confidential under subsection (a) of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor and,
19 upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or confined in jail for not more than six 20 months, or both fined and confined.

21 (e) A person may disclose confidential information or records or the identity of a person
22 whose identity is confidential under subsection (a) of this section if the Governor authorizes the 23 disclosure of this information in the public interest.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to create an office of the Inspector General.
