1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §61-11-26 and §61-11-26a of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as 2 amended, all relating generally to expungement of certain criminal convictions; allowing a 3 person seeking expungement of convictions in multiple counties to file the petition in his 4 or her county of residence; clarifying that prosecuting attorneys in any county of conviction
5 wherein expungement is sought be provided notice of petition; eliminating the requirement
6 that the chief law-enforcement officer or head of a municipal law-enforcement agency
7 where the offense for which expungement is sought be given notice where such agency
8 was not the arresting agency; modifying non-expungable offenses to allow expungement 9 of burglaries of buildings which are not dwellings; allowing expungement of an unrelated 10 felony if person has a conviction for driving under the influence if said driving under the 11 influence conviction is at least five years old at the time the petition is filed; clarifying that 12 Commissioner of Corrections be served with a copy of the petition for expungement if the 13 petitioner was confined or imprisoned for the offense for which expungement is sought; 14 clarifying that petitioner's burden of proof as to convictions for which expungement is 15 sought are the only convictions against him or her in the state; defining "expungement"; 16 and directing that upon the granting of an order of expungement all public records other 17 than those under court seal are moved and destroyed.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

135 (j) Hearing on petition for expungement. —

136 If the court sets the matter for hearing, all interested parties who have filed a notice of 137 opposition shall be notified. At the hearing, the court may inquire into the background of the

149 relating to the arrest, charge, or other matters arising out of the arrest or conviction that is ordered

159 applying for a position in which he or she would be engaging in the prevention, detection,

163 (2) A person for whom an order of expungement has been entered pursuant to this section 164 may not be found guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement, under any provision of 165 this code, because of that person's failure to recite or acknowledge the arrest, indictment,
166 information, trial, or conviction, as long as the person is in compliance with subdivision (1) of this 167 subsection.

173 subject of the records or upon a petition filed by a prosecuting attorney that inspection and 174 possible use of the records in question are necessary to the investigation or prosecution of a 175 crime in this state or another jurisdiction. If the court finds that there is a legitimate reason for 176 access and the interests of justice will be served by granting a petition to inspect the sealed 177 record, it may grant access under the terms and conditions determined by the court.

178 (n) Fees for filing petition for expungement and processing orders of expungement. — The 179 clerk of the circuit court shall charge and collect in advance the same fee for a petition for
