be unsanitary, unfit for human habitation or in such a condition that is likely to cause sickness or disease;

50 (J) Any dwelling, building or structure, because of a lack of sufficient or proper fire 51 resistance-rated construction, fire protection systems, electrical system, fuel connections, 52 mechanical system, plumbing system or other cause, is determined by the code official to be a 53 threat to life or health; or 54 (K) Any portion of a building that remains on a site after the demolition or destruction of 55 the building or structure, or whenever any building or structure is abandoned.

(b) Plenary power and authority are hereby conferred upon every municipality to adopt ordinances regulating the repair, alteration or improvement, or the vacating and closing or removal or demolition, or any combination, of any structure, dwelling or building, whether used for human habitation or not, that is unsafe, unsanitary, dangerous or detrimental to the public safety or welfare.

(c) The governing body in formally adopting any ordinance under this section shall designate the enforcement agency, which shall consist of the code enforcement agency as provided by the state building code and authorized by §29-3-5b of this code and §8-12-13 of this code; or municipal officials as may otherwise be authorized by this code; or municipal officials or agents as authorized by rules promulgated by the State Fire Commission and approved by the Legislature; or municipal officials or agents as may otherwise be authorized by the State Fire Commission. Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, for the purposes of this section any municipality that has not adopted the state building code may designate an enforcement agency consisting of the mayor, the municipal engineer or building inspector and one member at large, to be selected by and to serve at the will and pleasure of the mayor, and the ranking health officer and fire chief who shall serve as ex officio members of the enforcement agency.

(d) Any ordinance adopted under the provisions of this section must provide fair and equitable rules of procedure and any other procedures required by law or necessary and appropriate to guide the code enforcement agency, or its officials, in the investigation of any structure, dwelling or building conditions, and in any corrective action taken by the code enforcement agency.

(e) When a code enforcement agency official enters the premises of the property for investigating or inspecting any structure, dwelling, or building, the investigation shall be performed to minimize the inconvenience to the owner or persons in possession and shall be consistent with the following:

82 (1) Except in exigent circumstances and as permitted by law, the enforcement agency 83 shall provide reasonable advance notice to the owner and request permission from the owner to 84 enter the property.

85 (2) If the owner cannot be located after reasonable inquiry by the code enforcement 86 agency as required by this section, or if the owner refuses entry, the code enforcement agency 87 may obtain an administrative search warrant from either the municipal court or the magistrate 88 court located in the jurisdiction of the municipality or county where the structure, dwelling or 89 building is located. Before obtaining an administrative search warrant, a code enforcement 90 agency official is required to make a sworn statement and prima facie case showing that the code 91 enforcement agency was unable to gain access to the structure, dwelling or building after 92 reasonable and good faith efforts, and that there is a legitimate and substantial safety concern 93 involving the structure, dwelling or building that supports the requested entry.

(3) If granted by the court, and if the owner can be located, the code enforcement agency shall provide the owner a copy of the administrative search warrant five days before entering the property. If applicable, the code enforcement agency shall also provide the same notice to any tenant or other person in possession of the structure, dwelling or building.

98 (4) Entry is for the sole purpose of inspection of the structure, dwelling or building for 99 unsafe or unsanitary conditions and not for the purpose of criminal prosecution or gathering
100 evidence for use in any criminal charge or proceeding unrelated to the unsafe or unsanitary 101 condition of the structure, dwelling or building.

(f) The governing body of every municipality has plenary power and authority to may adopt an ordinance providing for the vacating, closing, removal or demolition of any dwelling, structure or building by the municipality in the absence of owner agreement or court order: Provided, That the ordinance requires the code enforcement agency to provide lawful notice to and undertake reasonable efforts to seek agreement from the owner before taking any action permitted by this section and shall comply with the requirements set forth in this subsection:

(1) Any ordinance adopted under this subsection applies only to dwellings, structures or buildings which meet the definition of unsafe, unsanitary, dangerous, or detrimental to the public safety or welfare as set forth in:

demonstrate that the structure, dwelling or building falls within one of the categories set forth in paragraph (A) or (B), subdivision (1), subsection (f) of this section, the municipality followed the procedures set forth in this subsection and the municipality had adopted the state building code at the time of the closure, demolition or other corrective action occurred.

(4) Any ordinance adopted under this subsection must shall also provide for notice to the owner of the right of the owner to apply to the circuit court for a temporary injunction or other similar relief restraining correction or demolition by the enforcement agency. If the application is made by the owner, a hearing shall be had within 20 days of the application, or as soon as reasonably possible.

(A) Continuances of the hearing provided for in this subdivision may be made for cause only. If a continuance is granted upon request by the owner, the owner is required to pay into court, in the form of a bond, any reasonable and necessary costs related to the property likely to be incurred by the municipality during the continuance.

(B) At the conclusion of a hearing held under this subdivision, if the court finds that the property is unsafe, unsanitary, dangerous, or detrimental to the public safety or welfare, the court shall make and enter an order granting the relief as requested by the municipality. The court may disburse any moneys paid into court by the owner in accordance with this section.

162 (g) The governing body of every municipality has plenary power and authority to may adopt 163 an ordinance requiring the owner of any dwelling or building under determination of the State Fire 164 Marshal, as provided in §29-3-12 of this code, or under order of the code enforcement agency of the municipality, to pay for the costs of repairing, altering or improving, or of vacating and closing, 165 166 removing or demolishing any dwelling or building and may file a lien against the real property in 167 question for an amount that reflects all costs incurred by the municipality for repairing, altering or 168 improving, or of vacating and closing, removing or demolishing any dwelling or building. Any 169 municipality that adopts an ordinance under this section may authorize the municipal court to 170 place a structure, dwelling or building into receivership when the following circumstances are

171 present:

(h) Every municipality may also institute a civil action in circuit court against the landowner or other responsible party to get an order to take corrective action up to and including demolition of any structure, dwelling or building that is unsafe, unsanitary, dangerous or detrimental to the public safety or welfare; and to recover all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the municipality with respect to the property and for reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred in the prosecution of the action:

(1) No fewer than 10 days before instituting a civil action as provided in this subsection, the municipality shall send notice to the landowner by certified mail, return receipt requested, advising the landowner of the governing body's intention to institute such action.

(2) The notice shall be sent to the most recent address of the landowner of record in the office of the assessor of the county where the subject property is located and to any other address for the landowner as may exist on record with the municipality. If, for any reason, such the certified mail is returned without evidence of proper receipt, the municipality shall resend the notice(s) by first class mail, postage prepaid, and shall also post notice on the front door or other conspicuous location on the subject property.

204 (i) To the extent not otherwise authorized by state law, all notices of violation or correction 205 for violations that do not fall within one of the categories set forth in paragraph (A) or (B), 206 subdivision (1), subsection (f) of this section issued by the enforcement agency of a municipality 207 that has adopted the state building code shall be served in accordance with the process set forth 208 in the state building code. All notices of violation or correction orders for violations that do not fall 209 within one of the categories set forth in paragraph (A) or (B), subdivision (1), subsection (f) of this 210 section issued by a code enforcement agency of a municipality that has not adopted the state 211 building code shall be served in accordance with the law of this state concerning the service of 212 process in civil actions, except that personal service may be made by a code enforcement agency 213 official and the method of service effectuated by mail by the clerk of a court as permitted by Rule 214 4(d)(1)(D) of the West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure is effectuated by mailing by a code 215 enforcement agency official and shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the property that is 216 the subject of the notice of violation or correction.

(j) Any violation of an ordinance adopted under this section, may be prosecuted by the municipality consistent with state and local laws. Unless otherwise authorized by state law, prosecution of a violation shall be initiated by a complaint presented to and sworn or affirmed before a municipal judge or other municipal official with lawful authority to hear and determine violations of municipal code in the municipality where the offense is alleged to have occurred. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the presentation and oath or affirmation shall be made by a code enforcement agency official or municipal attorney showing reason to have reliable

224 information and belief. If from the facts stated in the complaint the municipal judge or other 225 municipal official with lawful authority to hear and determine violations of municipal code finds 226 probable cause, the complaint becomes the charging instrument initiating a criminal proceeding. 227 A complaint lawfully authorized by this subsection along with a summons setting forth the date, 228 time and place of appearance before a municipal judge and or other municipal official with lawful 229 authority to hear and determine violations of municipal code shall be served in accordance with 230 the law of the State of West Virginia concerning the service of process in civil actions, except that 231 personal service of a summons and complaint may be made by a code enforcement agency 232 official. If service is made by certified mail under Rule 4(d)(1)(D) of the West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure and delivery of the summons and complaint is refused, the code enforcement agency 233 234 official, promptly upon the receipt of the notice of the refusal, shall mail to the person or entity 235 being noticed, by first class mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the summons and complaint. If the 236 first class mailing is not returned as undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Service, service of the 237 summons and complaint is presumed to have been effectuated. Upon service of the summons 238 and complaint consistent with this subsection, the violation may be prosecuted consistent with 239 state and local law.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to authorize municipalities to place certain property into receivership under certain circumstances, upon an order of the municipal court, as an alternative to demolition.
