WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2021 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2925

BY DELEGATES YOUNG, LINVILLE, PAYNTER, DEAN,

THOMPSON, AND GARCIA

[Introduced March 05, 2021; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

- A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §46A-6-111, relating to providing for the destruction of customer records that
- 3 contain personal information no longer needed by the business.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 6. GENERAL CONSUMER PROTECTION.

§46A-6-111. Destruction of consumer information, exception.

- 1 Unless otherwise required by federal law or regulation, a person or business shall take
- 2 reasonable steps to destroy or arrange for the destruction of a customer's records within its
- 3 custody or control containing personal information which is no longer to be retained by the person
- 4 or business by shredding, erasing or otherwise modifying the personal information in the records
- 5 to make it unreadable or indecipherable.
- 6 Upon disposal, unless otherwise required by federal law, code of federal regulations, the
- 7 Code of West Virginia, or the Code of State Rules, a person, business, or other entity in whose
- 8 possession, custody, or control a customer's records or other personally identifiable records
- 9 reside shall take reasonable measures to render such information unreadable, indecipherable,
- 10 and unrecoverable. This duty to render such information unreadable, indecipherable, and
- 11 unrecoverable shall be considered satisfied if that information or documents containing such
- 12 information is shredded, incinerated, wiped and overwritten in a manner consistent with federal
- 13 practice or destroyed.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide for the destruction of customer's records that contain personal information no longer needed by the business.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
