2022 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 4757

FISCAL NOTE

BY DELEGATES FLUHARTY, STORCH, BARRETT, RILEY,

AND MCGEEHAN

[Introduced February 15, 2022; Referred to the Committee on Finance]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §11-21-12n, relating to taxation of gambling and lottery winnings; providing
 3 those winnings are taxable income; allowing taxpayers to deduct certain losses incurred
 4 the same year; and providing for recordkeeping of those losses.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 21. PERSONAL INCOME TAX.

§11-21-12n. Taxation on gambling and lottery winnings.

1 Gains arising from gambling and lotteries are taxable as personal income. For the tax
 2 years beginning on or after January 1, 2023, when calculating gains, the taxpayer may deduct
 3 gambling and lottery losses up to the amount won for that year, but may not deduct the costs and
 4 expenses incurred in connection with the gambling and lottery activity. The taxpayer shall
 5 maintain detailed records substantiating losses if the taxpayer intends to deduct those losses.
 6 The taxpayer shall have the burden of proving any losses.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to allow gambling and lottery winnings to be written off against losses.
