11 (c)(1) The existence of any fact which would make any person ineligible for probation
 12 under subsection (b) of this section because of the commission or attempted commission of a 34 amendment.

35 Insofar as ~~such~~ the amendments relate to mandatory sentences without probation, all such 36 matters requiring ~~such~~ that sentence shall be proved beyond a reasonable doubt in all cases tried 37 by the jury or the court.

38 (d) For the purpose of this section, the term "firearm" means any instrument which will, or

48 ~~such that~~ study or diagnosis may be made available to any law-enforcement agency or other party
49 without that person's consent, or admissible in any court of this state, unless the information

8 (4) That in every case in which the probationer has been convicted of an offense defined
9 ~~set forth in section twelve, article eight, chapter sixty-one of this code or article eight-b or eight-d~~ 10 ~~§61-3C-14b, §61-8-12, §61-8A-1 et seq., §61-8B-1 et seq., §61-8C-1 et seq., and §61-8D-1 et~~ 11 ~~seq. of this code of said chapter,~~ against a child, the probationer may not live in the same 12 residence as any minor child, nor exercise visitation with any minor child and may have no contact
13 with the victim of the offense: Provided, That the probationer may petition the court of the circuit

25 determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the fee without undue hardship.

26 (b) In addition, the court may impose, subject to modification at any time, any other 27 conditions which it may determine advisable, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

29 within the period of probation, to any party injured by the crime for which he or she has been 30 convicted: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and makes

37 the court, for the support of his or her dependents; and

41 confinement in an indeterminate sentence, but in no case may the period of confinement exceed 42 six consecutive months. The court may sentence the defendant within the six-month period to 47 of confinement and release except to the extent directed by the court. If a period of confinement

48 is required as a condition of probation, the court shall make special findings that other conditions 49 of probation are inadequate and that a period of confinement is necessary.

53 reoffending and moderate to high criminogenic need, as determined by the standardized risk and 54 needs assessment adopted by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia under §62-12-6(d), 55 of this code, and applied by a probation officer or day report staff. In eligible cases, circuit courts 56 may impose a term of up to one year: Provided, That notwithstanding the results of the 57 standardized risk and needs assessment, a judge may impose, as a term of probation, 58 participation in a day report center program upon making specific written findings of fact as to the 59 reason for departing from the requirements of this subdivision.

60 (2) The day report center staff shall determine which services a person receives based on 61 the results of the standardized risk and needs assessment and taking into consideration the other 62 conditions of probation set by the court.

63 (d) For the purposes of this article, “day report center” means a court-operated or court-64 approved facility where persons ordered to serve a sentence in this type of facility are required to 65 report under the terms and conditions set by the court for purposes which include, but are not 66 limited to, counseling, employment training, alcohol or drug testing or other medical testing.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to clarify eligibility for probation and parole conditions on release for sex offenses and carrying a period of extended supervision. The bill also adds offenses which limit a convicted person's ability to live in a residence with minor children.
