WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2023 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2164

By Delegate Keaton

[Introduced January 11, 2023; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article, designated §55-7L-1, §55-7L-2, and §55-7L-3, all relating to permitting civil actions by a social media website user for censorship or suppression of social media user's speech;
 providing definitions; stating defenses to civil action; and authorizing the Attorney General to bring action on behalf of a social media user.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 7L. PROHIBITION OF SOCIAL MEDIA CENSORSHIP ACT. §55-7L-1. Definitions.

- 1 As used in this article,
- 2 "Algorithm" means a set of instructions designed to perform a specific task;
- 3 "Hate speech" means content that a person arbitrarily finds offensive based on his or her 4 personal moral code;
- 5 "Obscene" means content that to the average person, applying contemporary community
- 6 standards, the dominant theme of the material taken as a whole appeals to prurient interest and
- 7 lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value;
- 8 "Political speech" means speech relating to the state, government, body politic, public
- 9 administration, or government policymaking, including speech by the government or by
- 10 candidates for office, and any speech relating to social issues. The term does not include speech
- 11 concerning the administration of, or the law relating to, the civil aspects of government; and
- 12 "Social media website" means a website or application that enables users to communicate
- 13 with each other by posting information, comments, messages, or images and:
- 14 (1) Is open to the public;
- 15 (2) Has more than 75 million users; and
- 16 (3) Has not been specifically affiliated with any one religion or political party from its
- 17 inception.

§55-7L-2. Action for censoring or suppression of social media user's speech.
