1 A BILL to amend and reenact §62-12-9 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended relating to 2 requiring that the Division of Corrections provide each probationer with physical copies of 3 their birth certificate and Social Security Administration card upon release from a facility.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 12. PROBATION AND PAROLE.

§62-12-9. Conditions of release on probation.

1 (a) Release on probation is conditioned upon the following:

2 (1) That the probationer may not, during the term of his or her probation, violate any 3 criminal law of this or any other state or of the United States;

4 (2) That the probationer may not, during the term of his or her probation, leave the state
5 without the consent of the court which placed him or her on probation;

6 (3) That the probationer complies with the conditions prescribed by the court for his or her 7 supervision by the probation officer;

8 (4) That in every case in which the probationer has been convicted of an offense ~~set forth~~
9 defined in §61-3C-14b, §61-8-12, §61-8A-1 et seq., §61-8B-1 et seq., §61-8C-1 et seq., and §61-10 8D-1 et seq. of this code against a child, the probationer may not live in the same residence as any 11 minor child, nor exercise visitation with any minor child and may have no contact with the victim of 12 the offense: Provided, That the probationer may petition the court of the circuit in which he or she 13 was convicted for a modification of this term and condition of his or her probation and the burden
14 rests upon the probationer to demonstrate that a modification is in the best interest of the child;

15 (5) That the probationer pay a fee, not to exceed $20 per month, to defray costs of 16 supervision: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and 17 makes a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the fee without undue 18 hardship. All moneys collected as fees from probationers pursuant to this subdivision shall be 19 deposited with the circuit clerk who shall, on a monthly basis, remit the moneys collected to the 20 State Treasurer for deposit in the State General Revenue Fund; and

21 (6) That the probationer is required to pay the fee described in §62-11C-4 of this code:
22 Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and makes a 23 determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the fee without undue hardship.

24 (b) In addition, the court may impose, subject to modification at any time, any other 25 conditions which it may determine advisable, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

26 (1) That the probationer make restitution or reparation, in whole or in part, immediately or 27 within the period of probation, to any party injured by the crime for which he or she has been 28 convicted: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition of probation and makes 29 a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay restitution without undue hardship;

30 (2) That the probationer pays any fine assessed and the costs of the proceeding in 31 installments directed by the court: Provided, That the court conducts a hearing prior to imposition 32 of probation and makes a determination on the record that the offender is able to pay the costs
33 without undue hardship;

34 (3) That the probationer makes contributions from his or her earnings, in sums directed by 35 the court, for the support of his or her dependents; and

36 (4) That the probationer, in the discretion of the court, is required to serve a period of 37 confinement in jail of the county in which he or she was convicted for a period not to exceed one 38 third of the minimum sentence established by law or one third of the least possible period of 39 confinement in an indeterminate sentence, but in no case may the period of confinement exceed 40 six consecutive months. The court may sentence the defendant within the six-month period to 41 intermittent periods of confinement including, but not limited to, weekends or holidays and may 42 grant to the defendant intermittent periods of release in order that he or she may work at his or her 43 employment or for other reasons or purposes as the court may determine appropriate: Provided, 44 That the provisions of article eleven-a of this chapter do not apply to intermittent periods of 45 confinement and release except to the extent directed by the court. If a period of confinement is 46 required as a condition of probation, the court shall make special findings that other conditions of 47 probation are inadequate and that a period of confinement is necessary.

48 (c) Circuit courts may impose, as a condition of probation, participation in a day report 49 center.

50 (1) To be eligible, the probationer must be identified as moderate to high risk of reoffending
51 and moderate to high criminogenic need, as determined by the standardized risk and needs
52 assessment adopted by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia under subsection (d), 53 section six of this article, and applied by a probation officer or day report staff. In eligible cases, 54 circuit courts may impose a term of up to one year: Provided, That notwithstanding the results of 55 the standardized risk and needs assessment, a judge may impose, as a term of probation, 56 participation in a day report center program upon making specific written findings of fact as to the 57 reason for departing from the requirements of this subdivision.

58 (2) The day report center staff shall determine which services a person receives based on 59 the results of the standardized risk and needs assessment and taking into consideration the other 60 conditions of probation set by the court.

61 (d) For the purposes of this article, "day report center" means a court-operated or court-62 approved facility where persons ordered to serve a sentence in this type of facility are required to 63 report under the terms and conditions set by the court for purposes which include, but are not 64 limited to, counseling, employment training, alcohol or drug testing or other medical testing.

65 (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of code to the contrary, the Division of Corrections
66 shall provide to every probationer a physical copy of his or her birth certificate and a physical copy
67 of his or her Social Security Administration card upon release from any DOC facility.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require that the Division of Corrections provide each probationer with physical copies of their birth certificate and Social Security Administration card upon release from a facility.
