

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2024 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 4819

By Delegate Dillon

[Introduced January 16, 2024; Referred to the Committee on Education]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §18B-14-5, relating to requiring higher education institutions to accept the
 3 Classic Learning Test as an equivalent examination for admission and establishing a start
 4 date for this acceptance of this test for admissions purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 14. MISCELLANEOUS.

§18B-14-5. Requiring the Classic Learning Test be accepted as an alternative to the Scholastic Aptitude Test and American College Testing exam.

1 (a) All higher education institutions in West Virginia must accept the Classic Learning Test
 2 as an alternative to the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing examination
 3 (ACT).

4 (b) An assessment of what the corresponding score on the Classic Learning Test to both
 5 the ACT and SAT shall be determined and the minimum score required for the Classic Learning
 6 Test shall be published in each school's written admissions requirements and on its website.

7 (c) This shall take effect for admissions beginning in 2025 for the 2025 to 2026 academic 8 calendar.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require any institution of higher education in West Virginia to accept the CLT as an equivalent of ACT and SAT.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.