1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §11-13A-9 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended,
2 relating to due date for certain installment payments.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 13A. SEVERANCE AND BUSINESS PRIVILEGE TAX ACT.

§11-13A-9. Periodic installment payments of taxes imposed by sections three-a, three-b and three-c of this article; exceptions.

1 (a) General rule. — Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, taxes levied under
2 §11-13A-3a, §11-13A-3b, and §11-13A-3c of this code are due and payable in periodic
3 installments as follows:

4 (1) Tax of $50 or less per month. — If a person's annual tax liability under this article is
5 reasonably expected to be $50 or less per month, no installment payments of tax are required
6 under this section during that taxable year.

7 (2) Tax of more than $1,000 per month. — For taxpayers whose estimated tax liability
8 under this article exceeds $1,000 per month, the tax is due and payable in monthly installments on 9 or before the last day of the month following the month in which the tax accrued:

10 (A) Each taxpayer shall, on or before the last day of each month, make out an estimate of 11 the tax for which the taxpayer is liable for the preceding month, sign the estimate and mail it
12 together with a remittance, in the form prescribed by the Tax Commissioner, of the amount of tax
13 due to the office of the Tax Commissioner.

14 (B) In estimating the amount of tax due for each month, the taxpayer may deduct one 15 twelfth of any applicable tax credits allowable for the taxable year, and one twelfth of any annual
16 exemption allowed for that year.

17 (3) Tax of $1,000 per month or less. — For taxpayers whose estimated tax liability under 18 this article is $1,000 per month or less, the tax is due and payable in quarterly installments on or 19 before the last day of the month following the quarter in which the tax accrued:

20 (A) Each taxpayer shall, on or before the last day of the fourth, seventh, and 10th months of 21 the taxable year, make out an estimate of the tax for which the taxpayer is liable for the preceding

22 quarter, sign the same, and mail it together with a remittance, in the form prescribed by the Tax
23 Commissioner, of the amount of tax due to the office of the Tax Commissioner.

24 (B) In estimating the amount of tax due for each quarter, the taxpayer may deduct one 25 fourth of any applicable tax credits allowable for the taxable year, and one fourth of any annual
26 exemption allowed for that year.

27 (b) Exceptions. — (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the 28 Tax Commissioner, if he or she considers it necessary to ensure payment of the tax, may require 29 the return and payment under this section for periods of shorter duration than those prescribed in 30 subsection (a) of this section.

31 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, taxpayers remitting tax
32 on the privilege of severing timber may deduct the annual tax credit allowed in §11-13A-10 of this 33 code only on the annual return filed for any taxable year beginning on or after July 1, 1998. These 34 taxpayers may not deduct any portion of the annual tax credit when they determine the amount of 35 periodic installment payments of timber severance tax due during their taxable year.
