of any governing board or an immediate family member of any employee under the jurisdiction of the commission or any governing board. An individual may not serve on the council who is engaged in providing, or employed by a person or company whose primary function is to provide, workforce development services and activities.

(d) ~~Members of the council serve for staggered terms of four years. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1), subsection (a) of this section, on the effective date of this section any current member of the council maintains his or her appointment to the council and continues to serve for the remainder of the term for which originally appointed. Any additional appointment required by the provisions of said subdivision shall represent a consortia district not otherwise represented on the council.~~

(e) A member appointed by the Governor may not serve more than two consecutive terms. If the Governor intends to reappoint a member for a second term, the Governor shall do so within thirty days prior to expiration of the term. If the Governor does not reappoint within the thirty-day period, the term is deemed expired, effective on the scheduled expiration date.

(f) Upon expiration of an appointed member's term, the Governor shall appoint a successor within sixty days of the end of the term. An appointed member whose term has expired may not serve more than sixty days following expiration of the term.

(g) The Governor shall appoint a member to fill any vacancy among the eight appointed members, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy serves for the remainder of the unexpired term. The Governor shall fill the vacancy within sixty days of the occurrence of the vacancy.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate concurred in the House of Delegates amendment to the bill.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 426, as amended by the House of Delegates, was then put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 426) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 426) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the amendment by that body, passage as amended with its House of Delegates amended title, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the House of Delegates amendments, as to

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 450, Relating to sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors in certain outdoor dining areas.

On motion of Senator Unger, the message on the bill was taken up for immediate consideration.

The following House of Delegates amendments to the bill were reported by the Clerk:

By striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

That §60-1-5 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted; and that §60-8-3 of said code be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§60-1-5. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter:

“Alcohol” shall mean ethyl alcohol whatever its origin and shall include synthetic ethyl alcohol but not denatured alcohol.

“Beer” shall mean any beverage obtained by the fermentation of barley, malt, hops or any other similar product or substitute, and containing more alcohol than that of nonintoxicating beer.

“Nonintoxicating beer” shall mean any beverage, obtained by the fermentation of barley, malt, hops or similar products or substitute, and containing not more alcohol than that specified by section two, article sixteen, chapter eleven of this code.

“Wine” shall mean any alcoholic beverage obtained by the fermentation of the natural content of fruits, or other agricultural products, containing sugar.

“Spirits” shall mean any alcoholic beverage obtained by distillation and mixed with potable water and other substances in solution, and includes brandy, rum, whiskey, cordials and gin.

“Alcoholic liquor” shall include alcohol, beer, wine and spirits, and any liquid or solid capable of being used as a beverage, but shall not include nonintoxicating beer.

“Original package” shall mean any closed or sealed container or receptacle used for holding alcoholic liquor.

“Sale” shall mean any transfer, exchange or barter in any manner or by any means, for a consideration, and shall include all sales made by principal, proprietor, agent or employee.

“Selling” shall include solicitation or receipt of orders; possession for sale; and possession with intent to sell.

“Person” shall mean an individual, firm, partnership, limited partnership, corporation or voluntary association.

“Manufacture” means to distill, rectify, ferment, brew, make, mix, concoct, process, blend, bottle or fill an original package with any alcoholic liquor.

“Manufacturer” shall mean any person engaged in the manufacture of any alcoholic liquor, and among others includes a distiller, a rectifier, a wine maker and a brewer.

“Brewery” shall mean an establishment where beer is manufactured or in any way prepared.

“Winery” shall mean an establishment where wine is manufactured or in any way prepared.

“Distillery” shall mean an establishment where alcoholic liquor other than wine or beer is manufactured or in any way prepared.

“Public place” shall mean any place, building or conveyance to which the public has, or is permitted to have access, including restaurants, soda fountains, hotel dining rooms, lobbies and corridors of hotels and any highway, street, lane, park or place of public resort or amusement: Provided, That the term “public place” shall not mean or include any of the above-named places or any portion or portions thereof which qualify and are licensed under the provisions of this chapter to sell alcoholic liquors for consumption on the premises: Provided, however, That the term “public place” shall not mean or include any legally demarcated area designated solely for the consumption of beverages and freshly prepared food that directly connects and adjoins any portion or portions of a premises that qualifies and is licensed under the provisions of this chapter to sell alcoholic liquors for consumption thereupon: Provided further, That the term “public place” shall also not include a facility constructed primarily for the use of a Division I college that is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, or its successor, and used as a football, basketball, baseball, soccer or other Division I sports stadium which holds a special license to sell wine pursuant to the provisions of section three, article eight of this chapter, in the designated areas of sale and consumption of wine and other restrictions established by that section and the terms of the special license issued thereunder.

“State liquor store” shall mean a store established and operated by the commission under this chapter for the sale of alcoholic liquor in the original package for consumption off the premises.

“An agency” shall mean a drugstore, grocery store or general store designated by the commission as a retail distributor of alcoholic liquor for the West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner.

“Department” shall mean the organization through which the commission exercises powers imposed upon it by this chapter.

“Commissioner” or “commission” shall mean the West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner.

“Intoxicated” shall mean having one’s faculties impaired by alcohol or other drugs to the point where physical or mental control or both are markedly diminished.

ARTICLE 8. SALE OF WINES.

Part II. Sale of Wine Generally.

§60-8-3. Licenses; fees; general restrictions.

(a) No person may engage in business in the capacity of a winery, farm winery, supplier, distributor, retailer, private wine bed and breakfast, private wine restaurant, private wine spa or wine specialty shop without first obtaining a license from the commissioner, nor shall a person continue to engage in any activity after his or her license has expired, been suspended or revoked. No person may be licensed simultaneously as a distributor and a retailer. No person, except for a winery or farm winery, may be licensed simultaneously as a supplier and a retailer. No person may be licensed simultaneously as a supplier and a private wine bed and breakfast, private wine restaurant or a private wine spa. No person may be licensed simultaneously as a distributor and a private wine bed and breakfast, a private wine restaurant or a private wine spa. No person may be licensed simultaneously as a retailer and a private wine bed and breakfast, a private wine restaurant or a private wine spa.

(b) The commissioner shall collect an annual fee for licenses issued under this article, as follows:

- (1) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a supplier’s license;

(2) Two thousand five hundred dollars per year for a distributor's license and each separate warehouse or other facility from which a distributor sells, transfers or delivers wine shall be separately licensed and there shall be collected with respect to each location the annual license fee of $2,500 as herein provided;

(3) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a retailer's license;

(4) Two hundred fifty dollars per year for a wine specialty shop license, in addition to any other licensing fees paid by a winery or retailer holding a license, except for the amount of the license fee and the restriction to sales of winery or farm winery wines, a winery or farm winery acting as a wine specialty shop retailer is subject to all other provisions of this article which are applicable to a wine specialty shop retailer as defined in section two of this article;

(5) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a wine tasting license;

(6) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a private wine bed and breakfast license, and each separate bed and breakfast from which a licensee sells wine shall be separately licensed and there shall be collected with respect to each location the annual license fee of $150 as herein provided;

(7) Two hundred fifty dollars per year for a private wine restaurant license, and each separate restaurant from which a licensee sells wine shall be separately licensed and there shall be collected with respect to each location the annual license fee of $250 as herein provided;

(8) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a private wine spa license and each separate private wine spa from which a licensee sells wine shall be separately licensed and there shall be collected with respect to each location the annual license fee of $150 as herein provided;

(9) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a wine sampling license issued for a wine specialty shop under subsection (n) of this section;

(10) No fee shall be charged for a special one-day license under subsection (p) of this section or for a heritage fair and festival license under subsection (q) of this section; and

(11) One hundred fifty dollars per year for a direct shipper's license for a licensee who sells and ships only wine and $250 per for a direct shipper's license who ships and sells wine, nonfortified dessert wine, port, sherry or Madeira wines.

(12) Three hundred dollars per year for a multicapacity winery or farm winery license which shall enable the holder to operate as a retailer, wine specialty shop, supplier and direct shipper without obtaining an individual license for each capacity.

(c) The license period shall begin on July 1 of each year and end on June 30 of the following year and if granted for a less period, the same shall be computed semiannually in proportion to the remainder of the fiscal year.

(d) No retailer may be licensed as a private club as provided by article seven of this chapter, except as provided by subsection (k) of this section.

(e) No retailer may be licensed as a Class A retail dealer in nonintoxicating beer as provided by article sixteen, chapter eleven of this code: Provided, That a delicatessen, a caterer or party supply store which is a grocery store as defined in section two of this article and which is licensed as a Class A retail dealer in nonintoxicating beer may be a retailer under this article: Provided, however, That any delicatessen, caterer or party supply store licensed in both capacities must maintain average monthly sales exclusive of sales of wine and nonintoxicating beer which exceed the average monthly sales of nonintoxicating beer.

(f) A wine specialty shop under this article may also hold a wine tasting license authorizing the retailer to serve complimentary samples of wine in moderate quantities for tasting. Such wine specialty shop shall organize a wine taster's club, which has at least fifty duly elected or approved dues-paying members in good standing. Such club shall meet on the wine specialty shop's premises not more than one time per week and shall either meet at a time when the premises are closed to the general public, or shall meet in a separate segregated facility on the premises to which the general public is not admitted. Attendance at tastings shall be limited to duly elected or approved dues-paying members and their guests.

(g) A retailer who has more than one place of retail business shall obtain a license for each separate retail establishment. A retailer's license may be issued only to the proprietor or owner of a bona fide grocery store or wine specialty shop.

(h) The commissioner may issue a special license for the retail sale of wine at any festival or fair which is endorsed or sponsored by the governing body of a municipality or a county commission. Such special license shall be issued for a term of no longer than ten consecutive days and the fee therefor shall be $250 regardless of the term of the license unless the applicant is the manufacturer of said wine on a winery or a farm winery as defined in section five-a, article one of this chapter, in which event the fee shall be $50 if the event is held on the premises of the winery or farm winery. The application for the license shall contain information as the commissioner may reasonably require and shall be submitted to the commissioner at least thirty days prior to the first day when wine is to be sold at the festival or fair. A winery or a farm winery licensed under this subsection may exhibit, conduct tastings or sell samples, not to exceed a reasonable serving of three ounces, and may sell wine samples for consumption on the premises during the operation of a festival or fair: Provided, That for licensed wineries or farm wineries at a licensed festival or fair the tastings, samples and off-premises sales shall occur under the hours of operation as required in this article, except that on Sunday tastings, samples and off-premises sales are unlawful between the hours of 2:00 a. m. and 10:00 a. m. A special license issued other than to a winery or a farm winery may be issued to a “wine club” as defined herein below. The festival or fair committee or the governing body shall designate a person to organize a club under a name which includes the name of the festival or fair and the words “wine club”. The license shall be issued in the name of the wine club. A licensee may not commence the sale of wine as provided in this subsection until the wine club has at least fifty dues-paying members who have been enrolled and to whom membership cards have been issued. Thereafter, new members may be enrolled and issued membership cards at any time during the period for which the license is issued. A wine club licensed under the provisions of this subsection may sell wine only to its members, and in portions not to exceed eight ounces per serving. The sales shall take place on premises or in an area cordoned or segregated so as to be closed to the general public, and the general public shall not be admitted to the premises or area. A wine club licensee under the provisions of this subsection shall be authorized to serve complimentary samples of wine in moderate quantities for tasting.

A license issued under the provisions of this subsection and the licensee holding the license shall be subject to all other provisions of this article and the rules and orders of the commissioner relating to the special license: Provided, That the commissioner may by rule, regulation or order provide for certain waivers or exceptions with respect to the provisions, rules, regulations or orders as the circumstances of each festival or fair may require, including, without limitation, the right to revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to this section prior to any notice or hearing notwithstanding the provisions of section twenty-seven and twenty-eight of this article: Provided, however, That under no circumstances shall the provisions of subsection (c) or (d), section twenty of this article be waived nor shall any exception be granted with respect thereto.

A license issued under the provisions of this subsection and the licensee holding the license is not subject to the provisions of subsection (g) of this section.

(i) (A) The commissioner may issue a special license for the retail sale of wine in a professional baseball stadium. A license to sell wine granted pursuant to this subsection entitles the licensee to sell and serve wine, for consumption in a professional baseball stadium. For the purpose of this subsection, “professional baseball stadium” means a facility constructed primarily for the use of a major or minor league baseball franchisee affiliated with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, Inc., or its successor, and used as a major or minor league baseball park. Any special license issued pursuant to this subsection shall be for a term beginning on the date of issuance and ending on the next following June 30, and its fee is $250 regardless of the length of the term of the license. The application for the special license shall contain information as the commissioner may reasonably require and must be submitted to the commissioner at least thirty days prior to the first day when wine is to be sold at the professional baseball stadium. The special license may be issued in the name of the baseball franchisee or the name of the primary food and beverage vendor under contract with the baseball franchisee. These sales must take place within the confines of the professional baseball stadium, provided that the exterior of the area where wine sales may occur are surrounded by a fence or other barrier prohibiting entry except upon the franchisee’s express permission, and under the conditions and restrictions established by the franchisee, so that the wine sales area is closed to free and unrestricted entry by the general public.

(B) A license issued under this subsection and the licensee holding the license is subject to all other provisions of this article and the rules and orders of the commissioner relating to the special license: Provided, That the commissioner may by rule or order grant certain waivers or exceptions to those rules or orders as the circumstances of each professional baseball stadium may require, including, without limitation, the right to revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to this section prior to any notice or hearing notwithstanding sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight of this article: Provided, however, That under no circumstances may subsection (c) or (d), section twenty of this article be waived nor shall any exception be granted concerning those subsections.

(C) The commissioner has the authority to propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code to implement this subsection.

(j) A license to sell wine granted to a private wine bed and breakfast, private wine restaurant, private wine spa or a private club under the provisions of this article entitles the operator to sell and serve wine, for consumption on the premises of the licensee, when the sale accompanies the serving of food or a meal to its members and their guests in accordance with the provisions of this article: Provided, That a licensed private wine bed and breakfast, private wine restaurant, private wine spa or a private club may permit a person over twenty-one years of age to purchase wine, consume wine and recork or reseal, using a tamper resistant cork or seal, up to two separate bottles of unconsumed wine in conjunction with serving of food or a meal to its members and their guests in accordance with the provisions of this article and in accordance with regulations promulgated by the commissioner for the purpose of consumption of said wine off premises: Provided, however, That for this article, food or a meal provided by the private licensee means that the total food purchase, excluding beverage purchases, taxes, gratuity or other fees is at least $15: Provided further, That a licensed private wine restaurant or a private club may offer for sale for consumption off the premises, sealed bottles of wine to its customers provided that no more than one bottle is sold per each person over twenty-one years of age, as verified by the private wine restaurant or private club, for consumption off the premises. Such licensees are authorized to keep and maintain on their premises a supply of wine in quantities as may be appropriate for the conduct of operations thereof. Any sale of wine so made shall be subject to all restrictions set forth in section twenty of this article. A private wine restaurant may also be licensed as a Class A retail dealer in nonintoxicating beer as provided by article sixteen, chapter eleven of this code.

(k) With respect to subsections (h), (i), (j), (o) and (p) of this section, the commissioner shall promulgate legislative rules in accordance with the provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code with regard to the form of the applications, the suitability of both the applicant and location of the licensed premises and other legislative rules deemed necessary to carry the provisions of the subsections into effect.

(l) The commissioner shall promulgate legislative rules in accordance with the provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code to allow restaurants to serve wine with meals, and to sell wine by the bottle for off-premises consumption as provided in subsection (j) of this section. Each restaurant so licensed shall be charged an additional $100 per year fee.

(m) The commissioner shall establish guidelines to permit wines to be sold in all stores licensed for retail sales.

(n) Wineries and farm wineries may advertise off premises as provided in section seven, article twenty-two, chapter seventeen of this code.

(o) A wine specialty shop under this article may also hold a wine sampling license authorizing the wine specialty shop to conduct special wine sampling events at a licensed wine specialty shop location during regular hours of business. The wine specialty shop may serve up to three complimentary samples of wine, consisting of no more than one ounce each, to any one consumer in one day. Persons serving the complimentary samples must be twenty-one years of age and an authorized representative of the licensed wine specialty shop, winery, farm winery or a representative of a distributor or registered supplier. Distributor and supplier representatives attending wine sampling events must be registered with the commissioner. No licensee, employee or representative may furnish, give or serve complimentary samples of wine to any person less than twenty-one years of age or to a person who is physically incapacitated due to the consumption of alcoholic liquor or the use of drugs. The wine specialty shop shall notify and secure permission from the commissioner for all wine sampling events one month prior to the event. Wine sampling events may not exceed six hours per calendar day. Licensees must purchase all wines used during these events from a licensed farm winery or a licensed distributor.

(p) The commissioner may issue special one-day licenses to duly organized, nonprofit corporations and associations allowing the sale and serving of wine when raising money for athletic, charitable, educational or religious purposes. The license application shall contain information as the commissioner may reasonably require and shall be submitted to the commissioner at least thirty days prior to the event. Wines used during these events may be donated by or purchased from a licensed retailer, a distributor or a farm winery. Under no circumstances may the provision of subsection (c), section twenty of this article be waived nor may any exception be granted with respect thereto.

(q) The commissioner may issue special licenses to heritage fairs and festivals allowing the sale, serving and sampling of wine from a licensed farm winery. The license application shall contain information required by the commissioner and shall be submitted to the commissioner at least thirty days prior to the event. Wines used during these events may be donated by or purchased from a licensed farm winery. Under no circumstances may the provision of subsection (c), section twenty of this article be waived nor may any exception be granted with respect thereto. The commissioner shall propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code to implement the provisions of this subsection.

(r) (1) The commissioner may issue a special license for the retail sale of wine in a college stadium. A license to sell wine granted pursuant to this subsection entitles the licensee to sell and serve wine for consumption in a college stadium. For the purpose of this subsection, "college stadium" means a facility constructed primarily for the use of a Division I college that is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, or its successor, and used as a football, basketball, baseball, soccer or other Division I sports stadium. A special license issued pursuant to this subsection shall be for a term beginning on the date of its issuance and ending on the next following June 30, and its fee is $250 regardless of the length of the term of the license. The application for the special license shall contain information as the commissioner may reasonably require and must be submitted to the commissioner at least thirty days prior to the first day when wine is to be sold. The special license may be issued in the name of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I college or university or the name of the primary food and beverage vendor under contract with that college or university. These sales must take place within the confines of the college stadium: Provided, That the exterior of the area where wine sales may occur are surrounded by a fence or other barrier prohibiting entry except upon the college or university's express permission and under the conditions and restrictions established by the college or university, so that the wine sales area is closed to free and unrestricted entry by the general public.

(2) A license issued under this subsection and the licensee are subject to the other requirements of this article and the rules and orders of the commissioner relating to the special license: Provided, That the commissioner may by rule or order grant certain waivers or exceptions to those rules or orders as the circumstances of each the college stadium may require, including, without limitation, the right to revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to this section prior to any notice or hearing notwithstanding sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight of this article: Provided, however, That subsection (c) or (d), section twenty of this article may not be waived, nor shall any exception be granted concerning those subsections.

(3) The commissioner may propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code to implement this subsection.;

And,

By striking out the title and substituting therefor a new title, to read as follows:

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 450—A Bill to amend and reenact §60-1-5 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; and to amend and reenact §60-8-3 of said code, all relating to the licensed sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages in outdoor settings adjacent to public places; relating to the sale of liquors in liquors in outdoor dining areas adjoining an Alcohol Beverage Control Administration-licensed facility; permitting the sale of wine at certain college and university sports stadiums; establishing the conditions under which wine may be sold; setting a licensing fee; establishing who may hold a license; stating where wine may be served; granting the authority to grant waivers and exceptions and to revoke licenses; defining a term; authorizing rulemaking; and clarifying the definition of public place as it relates to such special licenses.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate concurred in the House of Delegates amendments to the bill.

Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 450, as amended by the House of Delegates, was then put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 7 p.m. tonight.

Night Session

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and proceeded to the fifth order of business.

Filed Conference Committee Reports

The Clerk announced the following conference committee report had been filed at 7:08 p.m. tonight:

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 306, Budget Bill.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow, Friday, March 14, 2014, at 11 a.m.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 2014

The Senate met at 11 a.m.

(Senator Kessler, Mr. President, in the Chair.)

Prayer was offered by the Honorable Ronald F. Miller, a senator from the tenth district, and Pastor, Shuck Memorial Baptist Church, Lewisburg, West Virginia, and West Point Baptist Church, Asbury, West Virginia.

Pending the reading of the Journal of Thursday, March 13, 2014,

On motion of Senator Green, the Journal was approved and the further reading thereof dispensed with.

The Senate proceeded to the fifth order of business.

Senator Prezioso, from the committee of conference on matters of disagreement between the two houses, as to

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 306, Budget Bill.

Submitted the following report, which was received:

Your committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses as to the amendment of the House to Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306 having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective houses, as follows:

That both houses recede from their respective positions as to the amendment of the House of Delegates, striking out everything after the enacting clause, and agree to the same as follows:

[CLERK'S NOTE: For full text of conference committee report, see Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306.]

Respectfully submitted,

Roman W. Prezioso, Jr., Chair, John R. Unger II, Robert H. Plymale, Douglas E. Facemire, Ron Stollings, Mike Hall, Dave Sypolt, Conferees on the part of the Senate.

Brent Boggs, Chair, Doug Reynolds, Larry A. Williams, Don Perdue, Everette W. Anderson, Jr., Allen V. Evans, Ray Canterbury, Conferees on the part of the House of Delegates.

Senator Prezioso, Senate cochair of the committee of conference, was recognized to explain the report.

Thereafter, on motion of Senator Prezioso, the report was taken up for immediate consideration and adopted.

Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306, as amended by the conference report, was then put upon its passage.

Pending discussion,

The question being "Shall Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306 pass?"

On the passage of the bill, as amended, the yeas were: Beach, Boley, Cann, Chafin, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Tucker, Unger, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—25.

The nays were: Barnes, Blair, Carmichael, Cole, M. Hall, Jenkins, Nohe, Sypolt and Walters—9.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Thereafter, at the request of Senator Carmichael, and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senator Blair regarding the passage of Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306 were ordered printed in the Appendix to the Journal.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the Senate returned to the second order of business and the introduction of guests.

The Senate then proceeded to the third order of business.

Executive Communications

The Clerk then presented a communication from His Excellency, the Governor, advising that on March 14, 2014, he had approved Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 58, Enr. Senate Bill No. 314, Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 322, Enr. Senate Bill No. 327, Enr. Senate Bill No. 328, Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 387, Enr. Senate Bill No. 470 and Enr. Senate Bill No. 483.

The Senate proceeded to the fourth order of business.

Senator Cookman, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 14th day of March, 2014, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bill, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

(Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 307), Authorizing community corrections programs to operate pretrial release program.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald H. Cookman,
Chair, Senate Committee.
Danny Wells,
Chair, House Committee.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 12:30 p.m. today.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and, without objection, returned to the third order of business.

Executive Communications

Senator Kessler (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
CHARLESTON

March 14, 2014

The Honorable Jeffrey V. Kessler
President, West Virginia Senate
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear President Kessler:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 307.

I disapprove this bill because it embraces more than one object in violation of section thirty, article VI of the Constitution of West Virginia. In addition to authorizing the establishment of community corrections programs for the pre-trial release of certain offenders at the county level, the bill amends the article of the West Virginia Code regulating bail bondsmen in criminal cases throughout West Virginia.

For this reason, I must disapprove the bill. However, I encourage the Legislature to reconsider this matter and return it to my desk for approval.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

cc: The Honorable Timothy Miley
The Honorable Natalie E. Tennant

Senator Unger moved that in accordance with Section 14, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, the Senate proceed to reconsider

Enr. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 307, Authorizing community corrections programs to operate pretrial release program.

Heretofore disapproved and returned by His Excellency, the Governor, with his objections.

The question being on the adoption of Senator Unger's motion that the Senate reconsider Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 307, the same was put and prevailed.

On motion of Senator Cookman, the following amendments to the bill were reported by the Clerk, considered simultaneously, and adopted:

By striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §51-10-5a; that §62-11C-5 and §62-11C-7 of said code be amended and reenacted; and that said code be amended by adding thereto a new article, designated §62-11F-1, §62-11F-2, §62-11F-3, §62-11F-4 and §62-11F-5, all to read as follows:

CHAPTER 51. COURTS AND THEIR OFFICERS.

ARTICLE 10. BAIL BONDSMEN IN CRIMINAL CASES.

§51-10-5a. Bonding fee and collateral security required by bail bondsmen.

(a) The bonding fee required by a bail bondsman shall be at least ten percent of the amount of the bond. The bonding fee received by the bondsman shall not, in the aggregate, exceed the amount of the bond.

(b) The bonding fee may be paid as follows:

(1) In full at the time of the issuance of the bond; or

(2) At least three percent paid at the issuance of the bond with the remaining percentage to be paid over a period not to exceed twelve months.

(c) When collateral or security is received by a bail bondsman a receipt shall be furnished. Copies of all receipts issued shall be kept by the bail bondsman for a minimum of five years. All receipts issued shall:

(1) Be prenumbered and used and filed in consecutive numerical order;

(2) Show the name and address of the bail bondsman;

(3) Show the name and address of the person providing the collateral;

(4) Show the amount and nature of the collateral and the date received;

(5) Show the name of the person accepting collateral; and

(6) Show the total amount of the bond for which the collateral is being accepted and the name of the defendant.

(d) When a bond is to be forfeited, the court is to give notification to the bail bondsman within twenty-four hours of the failure to appear.

CHAPTER 62. CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.ARTICLE 11C. THE WEST VIRGINIA COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS ACT.*§62-11C-5. Establishment of programs.

(a) Any county or combination of counties, or a county or counties, and a Class I or II municipality may establish and operate community corrections programs, as provided in this section, to be used both prior to trial as a condition of bond in circuit and magistrate court, as well as an alternative sentencing option for those offenders sentenced within the jurisdiction of the county or counties which establish and operate the program: Provided, That the chief judge must certify that the community corrections facility is available for use in connection with the imposition of pretrial bond conditions.

(b) Any county or combination of counties, or a county or counties, and a Class I or II municipality that seek to establish programs as authorized in this section shall submit plans and specifications for the programs to be established, including proposed budgets, for review and approval by the community corrections subcommittee established in section three of this article.

(c) Any county or combination of counties, or a county or counties, and a Class I or II municipality may establish and operate an approved community corrections program to provide alternative sanctioning options for an offender who is convicted of an offense for which he or she may be sentenced to a period of incarceration in a county or regional jail or a state correctional facility and for which probation or home incarceration may be imposed as an alternative to incarceration.

(d) Community corrections programs authorized by subsection (a) of this section may provide, but are not limited to providing, any of the following services:

- (1) Probation supervision programs;
 - (2) Community service restitution programs;
 - (3) Home incarceration programs;
 - (4) Substance abuse treatment programs;
 - (5) Sex offender containment programs;
 - (6) Licensed domestic violence offender treatment programs;
 - (7) Day reporting centers;
 - (8) Educational or counseling programs;
 - (9) Drug courts;
 - (10) Community beautification and reclamation programs for state highways, municipal, county and state parks and recreation areas and community gardens; and
 - (11) Pretrial release programs.
- (e) A county or combination of counties, or a county or counties, and a Class I or II municipality which establish and operate community corrections programs as provided in this section may contract with other counties to provide community corrections services.
- (f) For purposes of this section, the phrase “may be sentenced to a period of incarceration” means that the statute defining the offense provides for a period of incarceration as a possible penalty.
- (g) No provision of this article may be construed to allow a person participating in or under the supervision of a community corrections program to earn good time or any other reduction in sentence.

(h) Nothing in this section should be construed as to prohibit a court from imposing a surety bond as a condition of a pretrial release.

§62-11C-7. Supervision or participation fee.

(a) A circuit judge, magistrate, municipal court judge or community criminal justice board may require the payment of a supervision or participation fee from any person required to be supervised by or participate in a community corrections program. The circuit judge, magistrate, municipal court judge or community criminal justice board shall consider the person's ability to pay in determining the imposition and amount of the fee.

(b) A circuit judge, magistrate or community criminal justice board may require payment of a supervision or participation fee of $7 per person per day of pretrial supervision from the county commission pursuant to a pretrial release program established pursuant to article eleven-f of this chapter.

(c) A person supervised pursuant to the provisions of article eleven-f of this chapter who is later convicted of an offense or offenses underlying the person's participation in the pretrial release program may be assessed by the sentencing court, as a cost of prosecution, a fee not to exceed $30 per month for each month the person was in the pretrial supervision program.

(d) All fees ordered by the circuit court, magistrate court, municipal court or community criminal justice board pursuant to this section are to be paid to the community criminal justice board, who shall remit the fees monthly to the treasurer of the county designated as the fiscal agent for the board pursuant to section six of this article.

ARTICLE 11F. PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS.

§62-11F-1. Applicability.

This article applies to adults charged with one or more misdemeanors or felonies and who are incarcerated in a regional jail prior to adjudication due to their inability to post bond.

§62-11F-2. Establishment of pretrial release programs.

(a) Legislative findings and purpose. – It is the purpose of pretrial release programs to employ recommendations from the Council of State Government’s Justice Center’s Analyses and Policy Options to Reduce Spending on Corrections and Reinvest in Strategies to Increase Public Safety, by providing for uniform statewide risk assessment and monitoring of those released prior to trial, facilitating a statewide response to the problem of overcrowded regional jails and costs to county commissions.

(b) Any county, circuit or combination thereof that establishes a pretrial program pursuant to this article shall establish a local community pretrial committee that consists of:

- (1) A prosecutor, or his or her designee;
- (2) A county commissioner, or his or her designee;
- (3) A sheriff, or his or her designee;
- (4) An executive director of a community corrections program, or his or her designee;
- (5) A chief probation officer, or his or her designee; and
- (6) A member of the criminal defense bar.

(c) Pretrial release programs may monitor, supervise and assist defendants released prior to trial.

(d) Nothing in this article should be construed to prohibit a court from requiring a defendant to post a secured bond as a condition of pretrial release.

(e) In addition to funding provided pursuant to subsection (c), section three of this article, pretrial release programs may be funded by appropriations made to the Supreme Court of Appeals for such purpose.

§62-11F-3. Pretrial release program guidelines.

(a) The Supreme Court of Appeals has complete oversight and authority over all pretrial services.

(b) The Supreme Court of Appeals shall establish recommended guidelines for pretrial programs to use when ordering pretrial release for defendants whose pretrial risk assessment indicates that they are an appropriate candidate for pretrial release.

(c) The Community Corrections Subcommittee of the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Correction, pursuant to section two, article eleven-c of this chapter, shall approve policy and funding for the development, maintenance and evaluation of pretrial release programs. Any county, circuit or combination thereof that establishes a pretrial program intended to provide pretrial release services shall submit a grant proposal to the Community Corrections Subcommittee of the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Correction for review and approval.

§62-11F-4. Pretrial release assessment.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia may adopt a standardized pretrial risk assessment for use by pretrial release programs to aid in making pretrial decisions under article one-c of this chapter.

§62-11F-5. Role of pretrial release programs.

A pretrial release program established pursuant to this article shall:

(1) Collect and present the necessary information, present risk assessment and make release recommendations to the court;

(2) Present information to the court relating to the risk defendants may pose in failing to appear in court or of threatening the safety of the community or any other person and, consistent with court policy, develop release recommendations responding to risk;

(3) Develop and provide appropriate and effective supervision for all persons released pending adjudication who are assigned supervision as a condition of release;

(4) Monitor compliance of released defendants with the requirements of assigned release conditions;

(5) Promptly inform the court of all apparent violations of pretrial release conditions or arrests of persons released pending trial, including those directly supervised by pretrial services as well as those released under other forms of conditional release, and recommend appropriate modifications of release conditions;

(6) Coordinate the services of other agencies, individuals or organizations that may serve as custodians for released defendants, and advise the court as to their appropriateness, availability, reliability and capacity relating to pretrial release conditions;

(7) Review the status of detained defendants on an ongoing basis for any changes in eligibility for release options and facilitate their release as soon as feasible and appropriate;

(8) Develop and operate an accurate information management system to support prompt identification, information collections and presentation, risk assessment, release conditions selection, compliance monitoring and detention review functions essential to an effective pretrial release program; and

(9) Remind persons released before trial of their court dates to attempt to facilitate their court appearance.;

And,

By striking out the title and substituting therefor a new title, to read as follows:

Enr. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 307—An Act to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §51-10-5a; to amend and reenact §62-11C-5 and §62-11C-7 of said code; and to amend said code by adding thereto a new article, designated §62-11F-1, §62-11F-2, §62-11F-3, §62-11F-4 and §62-11F-5, all relating to the pretrial management of persons charged with committing a crime; clarifying bonding fees for persons charged with a crime; establishing minimum fees for bail bonds; setting schedule for payment of bail bond fees; requiring written prenumbered receipts for bail bond fees; establishing content requirements for bail bond receipts; requiring bail bondsmen to maintain receipt records for not less than five years; requiring courts to notify bondsmen within twenty-four hours if bond is to be forfeited; authorizing pretrial release programs; permitting certain fees to be assessed to county commissions; permitting certain fees to be assessed to persons on pretrial release upon subsequent conviction; stating applicability of pretrial release programs; establishing guidelines for pretrial release programs; providing for potential funding sources; requiring community pretrial committees to recommend release of certain persons facing criminal charges who are in regional jails prior to adjudication; setting forth the duties of pretrial release programs; clarifying that a circuit judge or a magistrate may impose a secured bond on participants in pretrial release programs; and removing day fine programs from the list of authorized community corrections programs.

The question now being on the passage of the bill, disapproved by the Governor and amended by the Senate.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—33.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Chafin—1.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Enr. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 307) passed with its title, as amended, as a result of the objections of the Governor.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Senator Kessler (Mr. President) then laid before the Senate the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
CHARLESTON

March 13, 2014

The Honorable Timothy Miley
Speaker, West Virginia House of Delegates
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear Speaker Miley:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled House Bill No. 4445.

I disapprove this bill because its object is not adequately expressed in the title. The bill modifies the definitions of “assault”, “battery” and “domestic battery”; however, its title does not make reference to the revised definition of “assault” set forth in the bill. Accordingly, I find the title of the bill inconsistent with the substance of the bill, so as to render Enrolled House Bill No. 4445 constitutionally defective.

For this reason, I must disapprove the bill. However, I encourage the Legislature to reconsider this matter in the future and return it to my desk for approval.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

cc: The Honorable Jeffrey V. Kessler
The Honorable Natalie E. Tennant

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the reconsideration, amendment and passage as amended, of a bill disapproved and returned by the Governor with his objections, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the passage, of Enr. House Bill No. 4445, Modifying the definition of “battery” and “domestic battery”.

On motion of Senator Unger, the message was taken up for immediate consideration.

Senator Unger then moved that in accordance with Section 14, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, the Senate reconsider the bill (Enr. H. B. No. 4445), heretofore disapproved and returned by His Excellency, the Governor, with his objections.

The question being on the adoption of Senator Unger’s motion that the Senate reconsider Enrolled House Bill No. 4445, the same was put and prevailed.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate concurred in the following House of Delegates amendment to the title of the bill:

Enr. House Bill No. 4445—An Act to amend and reenact §61-2-9 and §61-2-28 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, all relating amending the elements of assault and battery; and modifying the elements of “assault”, “battery”, “domestic assault” and “domestic battery” to include the use or attempted use of physical force.

The question now being on the passage of the bill, disapproved by the Governor and amended by the House of Delegates.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—33.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Chafin—1.

So a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Enr. H. B. No. 4445) passed with its title, as amended, as a result of the objections of the Governor.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 1:15 p.m. today.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and resumed business under the third order.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the adoption of the committee of conference report, passage as amended by the conference report, to take effect from passage, as to

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 306, Budget Bill.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the reconsideration, amendment and passage as amended, by a vote of a majority of all the members elected to the House of Delegates, as a result of the objections of the Governor, of

Enr. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 307, Authorizing community corrections programs to operate pretrial release program.

The Senate proceeded to the sixth order of business.

Senator Unger offered the following pre-adjournalment resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 55—Raising a committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to notify the House of Delegates that the Senate has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Senator Kessler (Mr. President), under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, appointed the following committee to notify the House of Delegates of impending Senate adjournment:

Senators Cann, D. Hall and Carmichael.

Senator Unger then offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 56—Raising a committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to join with a similar committee of the House of Delegates to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Under the provision of the foregoing resolution, Senator Kessler (Mr. President) appointed the following committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Senate is ready to adjourn:

Senators Kirkendoll, Fitzsimmons and Sypolt.

Thereafter, the President recognized the presence of a three-member delegation from the House of Delegates, namely:

Delegates Poore, Skaff and Andes, who announced that that body had completed its labors and was ready to adjourn sine die.

The President then acknowledged another delegation from the House of Delegates, consisting of Delegates Perdue, M. Poling and Azinger, who announced that they had been appointed by that body to join with the similar committee named by the Senate to wait upon His Excellency and were ready to proceed with its assignment.

Senators Kirkendoll, Fitzsimmons and Sypolt, comprising the Senate committee, then joined with the House committee and proceeded to the executive offices to notify His Excellency, the Governor, of imminent legislative adjournment, and receive any message he might desire to transmit to the members of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Cookman, the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was directed after it has examined, found truly enrolled and presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, bills passed but not presented to him prior to adjournment of the regular sixty-day and extended session of the Legislature, to file its reports with the Clerk of bills so enrolled, showing the date such bills were presented to the Governor; said reports to be included in the final Journal, together with Governor's action on said bills.

In accordance with the foregoing motion, the following reports of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills were filed as follows:

Senator Cookman, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
CHARLESTON

March 19, 2014

The Honorable Natalie E. Tennant
Secretary of State
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear Secretary Tennant:

Due to a decline in projected revenues and a long-projected increase in the state match required for Medicaid expenses, this year's budget was the most challenging to deal with in years. I believe my recommended budget was solid and fundamentally sound.

I proposed a budget relying on a two-year "bridge" of revenue from the Rainy Day Fund. My proposal tapped the Rainy Day Fund to fill budget gaps until fiscal year 2018, when the projected budget shortfalls transition to surpluses. With $914 million in cash, we have a sufficient amount in our Rainy Day Fund to deal with a two-year limited problem. As one of the creators of the State's reserve fund, I understand it was established for limited-term shortfalls, like this one.

My budget proposal borrowed $83 million for Medicaid expenses. It assured the Rainy Day Fund would remain above the 15 percent threshold recommended by Wall Street rating agencies and by bond experts to continue the State's favorable bond ratings.

Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306 built additional expenses into the budget that increase future fiscal year budgets. These increase the amount of revenue needed to balance the budget and make budget gaps deeper. Without a tax increase or other revenue source, and absent the action I am taking today, Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306 will drop the Rainy Day Fund below what is considered the recommended threshold of 15 percent down to 11.5 percent in three fiscal years.

As stewards of taxpayer money, we must be committed to fiscal responsibility and not commit one-time surplus funds to increase ongoing spending. Therefore, I have vetoed almost $67 million from Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306. In doing so:

- (1) Utilization of the Rainy Day Fund is limited to $100 million in FY 2015.
- (2) The threshold of the Rainy Day Fund does not drop below 15 percent in Fiscal Year 2016.
- (3) Our bond ratings will continue to be excellent.
- (4) The State will continue to receive the best interest rate on debt transactions.

Some of these reductions curb grants and services and, while they are difficult, they are necessary to responsibly manage future year budgets without raising taxes.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 51, Article VI of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306, passed March 14, 2014, approved with the following objections:

My first objection to the Bill is contained in Item 35, page 34, lines 26 and 27, which states:

Regional Contracting

Assistance Center 41800 375,000

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $166,785 to $208,215.

My second objection to the Bill is contained in Item 35, page 35, lines 38 and 39, which states:

Local Economic Development

Assistance (R) 81900 4,688,940

This is a significant increase over the FY 2014 appropriation and this line item has a substantial reappropriated balance available. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid growth in the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $2,838,940 to $1,850,000.

My third objection to the Bill is contained in Item 35, page 36, lines 76 through 78, which states:

From the above appropriation for Current Expenses (fund 0256, appropriation 13000) $231,250 is for TechConnect and $231,250 is for Tamarack Foundation.

The above language references an appropriation that has a zero balance. Therefore, I am deleting the language in its entirety, page 36, lines 76 through 78.

My fourth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 47, page 41, line 6, which states:

Current Expenses (R) 13000 2,797,390

In my budget adjustment letter submitted to the Legislature on February 19, 2014, I recommended an additional $600,000 for the Office of Education Performance Audits to provide for increased audits in preparation for the new school grading system. A portion of this recommendation was reallocated to other lines within the Department of Education, not consistent with my recommended intent. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $125,000 to $2,672,390.

My fifth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 47, page 42, line 40, which states:

21st Century Innovation Zones 87600 466,144

While the passage of HB 4619 during the 2014 regular session provides for an additional layer of Innovation Zones, the current level of funding has not been fully utilized and should be sufficient to meet the additional needs required by the bill. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $200,000 to $266,144.

My sixth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 47, page 42, line 41, which states:

21st Century Learners (R) 88600 2,187,598

In my budget adjustment letter submitted to the Legislature on February 19, 2014, I recommended an additional $600,000 for the Office of Education Performance Audits to provide for increased audits in preparation for the new school grading system. A portion of this recommendation was reallocated to other lines within the Department of Education, not consistent with my recommended intent. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $125,000 to $2,062,598.

My seventh objection to the Bill is contained in Item 47, page 44, lines 93 through 97, which states:

Included in the above appropriation for 21st Century Innovation Zones (fund 0313, appropriation 87600) is $200,000 for Entrepreneurship Education Priority Innovation Zones to be used in accordance with the provisions of W. Va. Code §18-5b-3.

Having reduced the appropriation to 21st Century Innovation Zones in objection five above, I am deleting the language in its entirety, page 44, lines 93 through 97.

My eighth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 47, page 44, lines 98 through 106, which states:

From the above appropriation for Educational Program Allowance (fund 0313, appropriation 99600), $100,000 shall be expended for Webster County Board of Education for Hacker Valley; $150,000 for the Randolph County Board of Education for Pickens School; and $100,000 shall be for the Preston County Board of Education for the Aurora School; $100,000 shall be for the Fayette County Board of Education for Meadow Bridge; and $85,000 is for Project Based Learning in STEM fields.

The above language directs expenditures in excess of the available appropriation. Therefore, I am deleting the phrase on page 44, lines 104 and 105, "$100,000 shall be for the Fayette County Board of Education for Meadow Bridge;" and reducing the amount in the language on page 44, line 105 from $85,000 to $66,250.

My ninth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 53, page 49, line 12, which states:

Educational Enhancements 69500 350,000

The above appropriation includes new funding for the Reconnecting McDowell - Save the Children and the Clay Center. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid new spending and building the State's base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $150,000 to $200,000.

My tenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 53, page 49, lines 28 through 31, which states:

Included in the above appropriation for Educational Enhancements (fund 0294, appropriation 69500) is $250,000 for Reconnecting McDowell - Save the Children, and $100,000 for the Clay Center.

Having reduced the appropriation to Educational Enhancements in objection nine above, I am reducing the amount in the language on page 49, line 29 from $250,000 to $125,000 and on page 49, line 31 from $100,000 to $75,000.

My eleventh objection to the Bill is contained in Item 62, page 56, lines 16 and 17, which states:

Primary Care Centers -

Mortgage Finance 41300 343,505

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce spending. An independent audit of the Department recommended the elimination of this funding because it was not tied to outcome measures. In addition, federal grant funding for capital and infrastructure investment has mitigated the need for general revenue funds for this purpose. With the expansion of Medicaid and the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, the Primary Care Centers will experience less uncompensated care and will be in a better position to deal with a reduction in the state subsidy for their mortgages. Through a structured methodology, I recommend phasing out this subsidy over the next three years. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $114,502 to $229,003.

My twelfth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 62, page 58, lines 82 through 113, which states:

Included in the above appropriation for Primary Care Centers - Mortgage Finance (fund 0407, appropriation 41300)

is $22,919 for the mortgage payment for the Lincoln Primary Care Center, Inc.; $24,359 for the mortgage payment for the Monroe Health Center; $19,510 for the mortgage payment for Roane County Family Health Care, Inc.; $22,002 for the mortgage payment for Community Care (formerly Primary Care Systems); $9,168 for the mortgage payment for the Belington Community Medical Services; $13,751 for the mortgage payment for Community Care (formerly Tri-County Health Clinic); $6,876 for the mortgage payment for Valley Health Care (Randolph); $12,176 for the mortgage payment for WomenCare (Family Care Health Center - Madison); $3,667 for the mortgage payment for Northern Greenbrier Health Clinic; $5,819 for the mortgage payment for the Women's Care, Inc. (Putnam); $9,168 for the mortgage payment for the North Fork Clinic (Pendleton); $18,335 for the mortgage payment for the Pendleton Community Care; $17,602 for the mortgage payment for Clay-Battelle Community Health Center; $22,678 for the mortgage payment for Monongahela Valley Association of Health Centers, Inc. (Marion); $15,401 for the mortgage payment for Mountaineer Community Health Center; $5,959 for the mortgage payment for the St. George Medical Clinic; $12,835 for the mortgage payment for the Bluestone Health Center; $20,627 for the mortgage payment for Wheeling Health Right; $22,002 for the mortgage payment for the Minnie Hamilton Health Care Center, Inc.; $24,752 for the mortgage payment for the Shenandoah Valley Medical Systems, Inc.; $20,627 for the mortgage payment for the Change, Inc.; and $13,274 for the mortgage payment for the Wirt County Health Services Association.

My thirteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 66, page 62, line 11, which states:

Family Resource Networks 27400 1,762,464

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $1,612,000 for this line item. At a time when we are facing major future funding challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending. Efforts are underway to ensure this service is efficiently operated and monitored for evidence-based results. Part of this effort will determine if any duplication is taking place amongst the family support programs. Cuts are never easy, but are necessary in our State’s current financial situation. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $150,464 to $1,612,000.

My fourteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 66, page 62, lines 12 and 13, which states:

Domestic Violence
Legal Services Fund 38400 400,000

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $370,000 for this line item. This line item is also supported by special revenue fees from the circuit court which are adequate to cover a reduction to this line item. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $30,000 to $370,000.

My fifteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 66, page 62, line 25, which states:

In-Home Family Education 68800 1,000,000

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $750,000 for this line item. Efforts are underway to ensure this service is efficiently operated and monitored for evidence-based results. Part of this effort will determine if any duplication is taking place amongst the family support programs. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending to better position the State to address anticipated budget gaps. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $250,000 to $750,000.

My sixteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 66, page 62, lines 37 through 39, which states:

Grants for Licensed Domestic Violence Programs and Statewide Prevention 75000 2,500,000

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $2,142,100 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending. Cuts are never easy, but are necessary in our State’s current financial situation. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $357,900 to $2,142,100.

My seventeenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 66, page 63, line 48, which states:

Children’s Trust Fund - Transfer . . . 95100 300,000

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $220,000 for this line item. Efforts are underway to ensure this service is efficiently operated and monitored for evidence-based results. Part of this effort will determine if any duplication is taking place amongst the family support programs. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending to better position the State to address anticipated budget gaps. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $80,000 to $220,000.

My eighteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 68, page 66, line 1, which states:

Unclassified 09900 $16,710,103

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $15,524,044 for this fund. While the programmatic appropriations I recommended were consolidated into one Unclassified line item, the aggregate funding level was also increased. As good stewards of the taxpayers’ dollars, there are times we must do more with less and reduce the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $1,186,059 to $15,524,044.

My nineteenth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 73, page 69, line 15, which states:

Corrections Academy 56900 1,602,129

This line increased funding for above my FY 2015 recommendation by $200,000. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $100,000 to $1,502,129.

My twentieth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, lines 1 and 2, which states:

Personal Services and Employee Benefits 00100 $59,075,965

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. The State Police have historically been able to transfer extra funds from Personal Services to other lines within their budget and do not require as large of an increase to fund the salary increases for civilian employees required under SB 486 passed during the 2014 regular session and the new State Troopers for the Internet Crimes Against Children Unit. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $507,913 to $58,568,052.

My twenty-first objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, line 3, which states:

Children’s Protection Act 09000 947,942

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $935,819 for this line item. As good stewards of the taxpayers’ dollars, there are times we must do more with less and reduce the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $12,123 to $935,819.

My twenty-second objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, line 4, which states:

Current Expenses 13000 11,219,232

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $10,397,784 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $821,448 to $10,397,784.

My twenty-third objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, line 6, which states:

Vehicle Purchase 45100 2,403,790

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $903,790 to $1,500,000.

My twenty-fourth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, lines 8 and 9, which states:

Communications and Other Equipment (R) 55800 1,338,968

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $1,268,968 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $70,000 to $1,268,968.

My twenty-fifth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, line 10, which states:

Trooper Retirement Fund 60500 4,625,240

Having reduced the appropriation for Personal Services and Employee Benefits in objection twenty above, it is necessary to reduce the appropriation proportionally for retirement matching. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $38,899 to $4,586,341.

My twenty-sixth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, line 11, which states:

Handgun Administration Expense . . . 74700 81,668

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $80,240 for this line item. Cuts are never easy, but are necessary in our State’s current fiscal situation. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $1,248 to $80,420.

My twenty-seventh objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, lines 12 and 13, which states:

Capital Outlay and
Maintenance (R)	75500	314,425

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $250,000 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $64,425 to $250,000.

My twenty-eighth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 74, page 71, lines 16 and 17, which states:

Automated Fingerprint
Identification System	89800	704,920

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $671,994 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $32,926 to $671,994.

My twenty-ninth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 76, page 73, line 5, which states:

Child Advocacy Centers (R)	45800	1,702,466

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending to better position the State to address anticipated budget gaps. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $200,000 to $1,502,466, which is the FY 2014 funding level.

My thirtieth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 76, page 73, lines 8 and 9, which states:

Sexual Assault Forensic

Examination Commission 71400 150,000

This is a new program for which a necessary level of appropriation has not yet been established. In light of this uncertainty and the ongoing budget challenges we are facing, a cautious and prudent approach be taken to control and limit new spending and the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $50,000 to $100,000.

My thirty-first objection to the Bill is contained in Item 90, page 82, lines 1 through 4, which states:

Transfer to Division of Human Services for Health Care and Title XIX Waiver

for Senior Citizens 53900 $19,457,690

At a time when we are facing major future funding challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to slow growth in the State’s base budget. The above appropriation expands an optional Medicaid program. Providing services to our seniors in their homes is an important option. Therefore, I have directed the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Resources to evaluate all the care provided to our seniors to ensure appropriate utilization of services. The expansion of Medicaid and the implementation of the Affordable Care Act should be monitored prior to significantly expanding any program without utilization data. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $3,500,000 to $15,957,690. Notwithstanding, this appropriation provides an additional 335 slots in the program.

My thirty-second objection to the Bill is contained in Item 91, page 83, lines 7 and 8, which states:

West Virginia Advance
Workforce Development (R) 89300 3,645,095

This line represents a $400,000 increase above my recommended FY 2015 budget. As good stewards of the taxpayers’ dollars, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $200,000 to $3,445,095, which is still above the FY 2014 funding level for this line item.

My thirty-third objection to the Bill is contained in Item 91, pages 83 and 84, lines 33 through 37, which states:

Included in the above appropriation for West Virginia Advance Workforce Development (fund 0596, appropriation 89300) is an additional $400,000 to be used exclusively for advanced manufacturing and energy industry specific training programs.

Having reduced the appropriation to West Virginia Advance Workforce Development in objection thirty-two above, I am reducing the amount in the language on page 83, line 35 from $400,000 to $200,000.

My thirty-fourth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 96, page 85, lines 1 and 2, which states:

West Virginia University - Parkersburg 47100 $10,081,330

My recommended FY 2015 budget included an appropriation of $9,858,752 for this line item. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending to better position the State to address anticipated budget gaps. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $222,578 to $9,858,752.

My thirty-fifth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 104, page 90, line 1, which states:

West Virginia University 45900 $103,099,869

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to slow the growth in the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $100,000 to $102,999,869.

My thirty-sixth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 104, pages 90 and 91, lines 18 through 45, which states:

Included in the above appropriation for West Virginia University (fund 0344, appropriation 45900) is $34,500 for the Marshall and WVU Faculty and Course Development International Study Project; $546,429 for the WVU Law School - Skills Program; $300,000 for the WVU Coal and Energy Research Bureau to be expended in consultation with the Board of Coal Mine Health and Safety, the Mine Safety Technology Task Force, and the DEP Advisory Council; $19,714 for the WVU College of Engineering and Mineral Resources - Diesel Training - Transfer; $500,000 for the Mining Engineering Program; $220,000 for the WVU Petroleum Engineering Program; $82,500 for the WVU - Sheep Study; $630,000 for the Davis College of Forestry Agriculture and Consumer Sciences of which $80,000 is for a Landscape Architect, $112,500 is to be used for Morgantown Farms, $112,500 is to be used for repairs at the Raymond Memorial Farm, $112,500 is to be used for Reedsville Farm, and $112,500 is to be used for Kerneysville Farm; $200,000 for Reedsville Arena and Jackson’s Mill Arena; $100,000 for the WVU - Soil Testing Program; $100,000 for a veterinarian; $50,000 for the WVU Cancer Study; $500,000 for the Center for Multiple Sclerosis Program; $150,000 for the WV

Alzheimer Disease Register; $100,000 for the rifle team; $125,000 is for the West Virginia University National Center of Excellence in Women’s Health; and $30,000 for the West Virginia University Extension Service to develop a cyber-bullying prevention program.

Having reduced the appropriation to West Virginia University in objection thirty-five above, I am reducing the amount in the language on page 90, line 21 from $546,429 to $446,429. The language also directs additional expenditures without increasing the appropriation, placing a greater strain on current resources. Therefore, I am deleting the phrase on page 91, line 41 through line 43, “$125,000 is for the West Virginia University National Center of Excellence in Women’s Health;”.

My thirty-seventh objection to the Bill is Item 149, page 112, lines 1 through 5, which states:

From the balance of funds in the Department of Administration, Board of Risk and Insurance Management, Premium Tax Savings Fund (fund 2367) the amount of $2,216,846 shall be expired to the Medical Services Trust Fund (fund 5185).

The Board of Risk and Insurance Management - Premium Tax Savings Fund is not the proper place to make an expiration to the Medical Services Trust Fund. Therefore, I am deleting the language in its entirety, page 112, lines 1 through 5.

My thirty-eighth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 233, page 146, lines 1 and 2, which states:

Medical Services Trust Fund - Transfer 51200 $147,552,295

While we are forced, for the first time, to utilize a portion of our Revenue Shortfall Reserve Fund to fund rising state Medicaid appropriations, it is critical that appropriate actions be taken to minimize the usage of the fund, which, among others, is a factor in the state’s bond rating. Early projections for next year’s FY 2016 budget show a budget gap that must be addressed next year and maintaining a healthy balance in the Revenue Shortfall Reserve Fund will serve West Virginians well.

Through the actions in this veto message, and the actions of the Legislature in the passage of HB 101 during the 2014 first extraordinary session, there will be additional funds available to appropriate to Medicaid at a later time. This allows the appropriation to Medicaid from the Revenue Shortfall Reserve Fund to be decreased to a more responsible level. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $47,552,295 to $100,000,000.

My thirty-ninth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 287, page 170, line 1, which states:

Current Expenses 13000 $3,653,750

This is a significant increase over the FY 2014 appropriation. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to slow the growth in the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $2,384,375 to $1,269,375.

My fortieth objection to the Bill is contained in Item 291, page 182, line 5, which states:

Libraries - Special Projects (R) 62500 786,250

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid building the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $786,250 to $0.

My forty-first objection to the Bill is contained in Item 292, page 183, lines 8 and 9, which states:

Senior Citizen Centers and Programs (R)	46200	2,284,750
--	--------------	------------------

This is a significant increase over the FY 2014 appropriation and this line item has a substantial reappropriated balance available. At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a cautious and prudent approach be taken to avoid growth in the State’s base budget. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $1,284,750 to $1,000,000.

My forty-second objection to the Bill is contained in Item 292, page 183, lines 25 and 26, which states:

In-Home Services and Nutrition for Senior Citizens	91700	4,420,941
---	--------------	------------------

At a time when we are facing ongoing budget challenges, it is imperative that a proactive approach be used to reduce base budget spending. Cuts are never easy, but are necessary in our State’s current financial situation. Therefore, I am reducing the appropriation by the amount of $100,000 to $4,320,941.

For the reasons stated herein, I have approved, subject to the above objections, Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 306.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

The Honorable Natalie E. Tennant
Secretary of State
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 12.

I disapprove this bill because there is a technical error in the provision amending section three, article five, chapter thirty. Specifically, the bill purports to amend subsection (g) of this section as it appeared prior to the enactment of Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2577 in 2013. Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2577 rewrote article five, and made wholesale changes to section three – including the elimination of all subsections. The amendment made to section three in Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 12 adds language to a subsection that does not appear in current law.

For this reason, I must disapprove the bill.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2165. This bill, if signed into law, would require the State Registrar and the clerks of the county commissions to issue, without charging a fee, no more than two certified copies of a veteran's death certificate to certain individuals. Although the bill's title references its impact on clerks of the county commissions, it fails to address the new obligations the bill would impose on the State Registrar. In these circumstances, the title is defective and I must, therefore, disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2165.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4425, which amends West Virginia Code §15-2-7. Unfortunately, this code section was also amended during the 2014 Regular Session of the Legislature in Enrolled Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 486. Because these bills contain alternative versions of the same code section, only one may become law. Therefore, I disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4425.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled House Bill No. 4588. I am advised the bill is unconstitutional under controlling precedent of the Supreme Court of the United States. See Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U. S. 833, 879 (1992) (holding a state “may not prohibit any woman from making the ultimate decision to terminate her pregnancy before viability”); see also Isaacson v. Horne, 716 F.3d 1213 (9th Cir. 2013), cert. denied, 134 S. Ct. 905 (Jan. 13, 2014) (declaring unconstitutional Arizona’s fetal pain statute prohibiting the termination of pregnancy at twenty weeks gestation, before the fetus is viable).

The bill is also problematic because it unduly restricts the physician-patient relationship. All patients, particularly expectant mothers, require the best, most unfettered medical judgment and advice from their physicians regarding treatment options. The medical community has made it clear to me that the criminal penalties this bill imposes will impede that advice and those options to the detriment of the health and safety of expectant mothers. West Virginia has a need for qualified, competent physicians. I fear this bill, if signed into law, would make it difficult for the Mountain State to attract and retain the obstetricians and gynecologists it requires.

In disapproving and returning the bill, I wish to highlight that I have the utmost respect for the legislative process and for the views of my able friends in the West Virginia Senate and House of Delegates on both sides of this difficult issue – an issue that, as Justice Blackmun observed, “raises moral and spiritual questions over which honorable persons can disagree sincerely and profoundly.” See Thornburgh v. American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, 476 U. S. 747, 772 (1986). I believe there is no greater gift of love than the gift of life. I have stated this time and again throughout my career and it is reflected in my legislative voting record. However, as the Governor of West Virginia, I am duty bound to “support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State.” See W. Va. Const. art. IV, §5. It is in this role that I disapprove and return Enrolled House Bill No. 4588.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Senate Bill No. 426. If signed into law, this bill would, among other things, require gubernatorial appointments to the Higher Education Policy Commission, institutional boards of governors, and the Council for Community and Technical College Education to be made within certain limited time constraints. The deadlines set forth in the bill would unreasonably restrict the time required to thoughtfully investigate and deliberate on candidates for appointment. In these circumstances, the bill restricts the broad powers of appointment afforded to the governor by the Constitution of West Virginia. See W. Va. Const. art. VII, §8. Consequently, I must disapprove and return Enrolled Senate Bill No. 426.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4254.

The aim of this bill—granting certain state employees a temporary leave of absence with pay and benefits to assist emergency aid providers during a declared State of Emergency—is admirable. However, the bill lacks critical details. For example, it authorizes and pays an employee to render aid in a disaster area where he or she could be exposed to danger, but fails to shield the state from liability. It also fails to address insurance coverage issues. Further, it does not provide the employees' immediate supervisors with guidance or criteria to consider in their assessment of whether to approve requests for paid leave. In these circumstances, the Legislature may wish to reconsider this bill in the future with an eye toward clarifying the details of Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4254.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4343. This bill aims to attract new businesses to economically depressed areas of the state by authorizing broad tax exemptions and credits for locating within a defined district, employing residents of the district, and basing operations on state-of-the-art technology.

The goals of the “Project Launchpad Act” are admirable, and I applaud its stakeholders and the Legislature for their hard work on this unique economic development effort. However, I am advised by the State Tax Department that the bill, as presently drafted, is problematic and unworkable for multiple reasons. The bill, for instance, contains a host of technical errors and inconsistencies. The Department of Commerce has also expressed concerns about the bill and the administrative challenges it would pose, if signed.

In light of the foregoing, I must disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4343.

Dear Secretary of State Tennant:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 477.

I support the policy that teachers should be provided planning periods that are reasonably unburdened by other demands. However, the revisions made to W. Va. Code §18A-4-14 prevent principals and teachers from working in a collaborative manner to arrange the instructional day. It is vital that West Virginia law reflect education policies that encourage mutual administrative engagement in joint planning. Research demonstrates this type of cooperation has a profoundly positive impact on effective teacher instruction and increases student achievement.

Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 477 would also impose additional costs on the already strained budgets of county boards of education. In light of the negative impact on teacher collaboration and county board of education budgets, I must disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 477.

Appendix – Remarks

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
 HERB SNYDER

Thursday, January 16, 2014

SENATOR SNYDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise today to draw your attention to a bill that I feel is probably one of the more important bills that I have offered in the Legislature since my tenure here. Senate Bill No. 368 (Repealing article relating to unfair trade practices) which, on its face, is a little hard to understand what it does because it is repealing a code section—an old code section, of unfair trade practice.

Why would I be interested in it? Well you've heard, particularly, the senators and delegates from the Eastern Panhandle talk about high gas prices in certain parts of the state versus others. You'll see it here—you'll see much higher gas prices in some communities and you go next door and it's not that high. It has taken a lot of digging around, Mr. President, to try to find out the root cause of this. All that the oil and gas marketers will tell you—and they're lobbyists—is that it's complex and it's complicated. It's complex and complicated how these gas prices are established. They will tell you a lot of oh—they all post them right out on the street and so forth so everybody is aware of them.

But it goes back to a 1939 law which is still law. This unfair trade practice which says retailers, all retailers on any item at all, must charge seven percent over what they paid for it. Now why is that important? And it's everything—I'm going to get to that in a second, Mr. President. But the gas wholesalers, particularly, and the retailers used that law about 25 years ago to keep the prices high. Right here in West Virginia. I don't know of any other law like this in any of the surrounding states. They got it through in 1939—a long time ago.

Times were different then to protect those small retailers and stations. Things have changed, Mr. President, because this covers everything—that was long before Wal-Marts, long before Targets, long before large shopping centers—things that are part of our everyday life today. Society has changed. Like it or not, there are very, very, very few or no mom and pop anything anymore because they have to compete.

This law doesn't allow them to compete in the open market. They must charge a certain price. Now those lawsuits, there were three of them filed—one here in Kanawha County, one somewhere else in southern West Virginia and one in Berkeley County—over this gas price issue and when that happened, it was the beginning of Go-Mart, it was the beginning of Sheetz, Mr. President. Those wholesalers and retailers didn't like it at all that those competitors were coming into their area. Selling their gas cheaper—imagine that novel concept—so they brought suit under this old 1939 law.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was President. This was right at the end of the Great Depression. Hitler was making all types of rumbblings and that same year invaded Poland. Gasoline prices were ten cents a gallon, hamburger was 17 cents a pound, average house $3,800, average car $700 in America. Imagine that. A long time ago.

It's time for us to repeal this law because it has hurt the citizens of West Virginia.

Not just the Eastern Panhandle where the prices today are 26 cents higher. It has hurt the citizens of this state for about 25 years to not allow competition. Particularly used, it's a general law in all merchandise, but it is particularly used by the gas retailers.

Now, they are going to tell you that it's complex and you can't understand it, but this is the area of law—it took us awhile to find it—that those lawsuits were filed under. While the reason it took some time, those lawsuits from roughly 25 years ago, Mr. President, are under seal in these courthouses because the oil and gas marketers—this is a fight among themselves—they don't want the public to see that they're suing each other over gas prices. But we all pay the price for that. Our citizens, for about 25 years, have paid a price for that and it's time to go.

Now, I'll end with this note. This is a general law that we should all be concerned about because you can bring suit—any retailer can bring suit. Retailers do not have to prove damages. Now I haven't seen an area of law during the time I have been on Judiciary, Mr. President, where you don't have to prove any damages to bring the suit. This law specifically says that you don't have to suffer damages to bring suit; and if you bring the suit and you are damaged, it's treble damages.

Well, Mr. President, this is one thing we can do for the citizens of West Virginia. Oil prices are set on a world market, but this is price manipulation and very much the wrong direction. This could spread. All of our citizens love Black Friday sales. Box stores sell 50 TVs at at-cost or lower than cost—called loss leader—a concept I learned about in business school 40 years ago. It's virtually illegal according to this law. Your bonus cards—everyone loves them. Ask your constituents if they'd want to get rid of their bonus cards where they get so much off the price when they buy their gas. I've got a Sheetz, I've got a Foodland and a Fuelland card and so forth here. Kroger has a big program. It's probably illegal because it's advertising something and giving discounts that only their customers can get—you have to buy Kroger's products to get those bonus points. It's probably illegal. I'm not advocating to change that; I want to get rid of the law, Mr. President. Repeal that law.

Look at the current code. How in the world did this ever get in West Virginia's code? It's 85 years ago—eight years before Robert C. Byrd became a member of the House of Delegates—this chamber was brand new. It was the seventh session of this body meeting in this chamber, Mr. President. A long time ago. Things change and this law needs to be repealed.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CLARK S. BARNES

Monday, January 20, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mr. President.

I would like to speak briefly this afternoon on this great day—Martin Luther King Jr.'s day observance—here in America. I have to apologize because I don't really have a speech ready. I've been really thinking about this for several hours. I really couldn't bring all my thoughts together on this but there is one thing that did come to me this morning. As I was driving down the highway, I realized that there are two men in the history of the United States of America who probably changed our lives here in America more than any other. They lived 100 years apart, but yet, they shared the same dream.

I thought first about Abraham Lincoln, who probably was one of the most important people in the founding of the State of West Virginia. There was an atrocity going on in America which the world was allowing to happen, and America was allowing to happen, it allowed it to happen for over 100 years. But it was time that men stood up and said this is wrong. It was time that they stood up and did something about it. Abraham Lincoln stood in the gap and said "slavery is wrong". It divided our country and it divided our state. There was a right way and there was a wrong way. Many good men died believing that they were right on both sides and believing that God was on their side. But you know what? The truth will prevail and right prevailed once again. But then for the next 100 years the people that were freed and the War Between the States and the Emancipation Proclamation suffered a great tragedy. They were looked down upon. They were not given their rights.

I remember, as a young man I spent the first few years of my young life in Greenville, South Carolina. My mother worked at Belk Simpson Department Store and, from time to time, she would take me to work with her when there was no school or when Dad wasn't around to take care of me. I'd get to go to Belk's and I remember Miss Lizzie on the elevator. She ran that elevator. She was a wonderful black lady. We spent a lot of hours together. But I remember on a trip to Belk's, as a young person, that I saw the bus driver say "Lady, get to the back of the bus" and you know why she was told that. As a young person, hardly six or seven years old, I said "Why?" I didn't understand. And then Miss Lizzie got off the elevator one day and she says "Clark, you go ahead and run the elevator for me. I have to go to the bathroom." She went to the basement and I said "Well, why are you going down there?" She said "Well, our bathroom is down there." "What do you mean your bathroom?"

She said, "There is a special bathroom for coloreds." And I asked my mother "Why is that?" You know it wasn't right. I knew at six and seven years old that it wasn't right. But people for generations experienced this kind of treatment.

You know, I had an experience just a few weeks ago where Debbie and I were invited to attend church. We attended church at Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church over on the West End of town. It was a remarkable service. It was a great message. And, folks, at the end of service, everyone joined hands to end the service. No one refused to hold my hand or hold Debbie's hand. We were surrounded by our fellow Christians. It wasn't a matter of whether we were black. It wasn't a matter of whether we were white. We joined hands and we prayed for the peace of this nation and we prayed for people. We didn't pray for black people and white people and Chinese people. We prayed for the people of our nation. The reason: Because of two men we could stand there together and do that—Abraham Lincoln and Martin Luther King, Jr. That's exactly where we should've been. You know and I think that those of us who believe in an after-life that someday we're not going to be segregated in Heaven. We're going to be singing the praises of our eternal Father as one people.

They're a couple of quotes that I have for you. First of all, I want to say a quote by Abraham Lincoln. "I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live by the light that I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, and stand with him while he is right." If Abraham would have been living in the days of Martin Luther King, I have a feeling he would have been on that Selma March. Martin Luther King said the following words: "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." He ended another speech by saying: “Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
RONALD F. MILLER

Tuesday, January 21, 2014

SENATOR MILLER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'd like, for just a moment today, to take time to remind all the members of this body that this is “Agriculture Day” here at the Legislature. It's a great day to walk around the well to view one of the oldest and most basic industries of this state—the industry of agriculture.

When you look at our state seal you're reminded of the fact that agriculture blazed the way into the frontiers of this great state. Before there was mining, or gas production, or timbering, or manufacturing, or any other way that we have developed to make a living in this state, there was agriculture. From the 40 acres and an ox, or mule, or a team of horses, to the agribusiness of chickens, and turkeys, and corn, and beef, and pork, with complex machinery—we have seen the great development of agriculture. From the small family farms to the best agriculture complexes, the Ag community continues to pave the way for the future of the state.

Ag is possible in every part of the state no matter what some may tell us. We can redevelop communities in places where mining and industry have ceased by turning used and worn pieces of soil into new sources of income as agriculture trains and teaches and points forward new ways to rebuild and reuse the land. Our small towns, and small farmers' markets, and family farms, to the urban agriculture projects and places like the West Side of Charleston—Ag continues to say that we can make life better for the people around us.

Our Commissioner of Agriculture, who is not in here today, Commissioner Walt Helmick, a former member of this body, is traveling around the state telling the story and the need to increase the production of food right here in our Mountain State. We have the land; we have the ability. There may be some things that we may need to do as a body to ease into this future but we're willing to push forward with our Agriculture and Rural Development Committee here in the Senate and, members of this body, we need each of you to make it happen.

I encourage you today to visit the displays if you have time and, when you go home, I encourage you to support West Virginia food growth as you spend your dollars. Let's rebuild our state by looking at where we have been and let's move forward to where we can be.

Thank a farmer this day.

Thank you very much.

Designating West Virginia Kids at Risk Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT J. FITZSIMMONS

Wednesday, January 22, 2014

SENATOR FITZSIMMONS: Senate Resolution No. 8 designates January 22,

2014, as “West Virginia Kids at Risk Day”. The purpose of the resolution is to recognize that the State of West Virginia, along with the West Virginia Child Care Association, have some of the nation’s very best child welfare professionals and agencies.

The West Virginia Child Care Association was established in 1979. It has 16 member agencies that work tirelessly through all parts of West Virginia. These individuals have dedicated their time to making life better for West Virginia’s children who are at risk, whether it be because of abuse, neglect, behavioral or emotional disabilities, substance abuse or delinquency. These individuals play such a vital role in our communities because oftentimes they are the only voice that an at-risk child and their families possess. It is because of the dedication, passion and skill with which these individuals perform their task that they deserve recognition here today.

Unfortunately, because of the inclement weather, the West Virginia Child Care Association representatives were not able to be here today. But we hope to have them to the Senate Chamber here in the near future, so that they may receive the formal recognition that they are due.

Mr. President, I urge adoption of the resolution.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

Thursday, January 23, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Thank you, Mr. President.

You know, this morning I read the paper and there was an article on the front page that kind of bothered me a little bit. We always talk about economic development, creating jobs and expanding services within our state to those who don’t have it. We’ve had, for several years now, a lot of discussion about the BTOP program—bringing internet to many residents around the state. We had a problem with the routers; we had a problem with the towers. Now, we had a little bit of money left over from a $142 million project and a state company wanted to utilize those extra dollars that were not used to expand internet to areas that might have internet now, but this would have enhanced it and speeded it up and created opportunities for a lot of businesses and individuals to grow business ventures here.

I’m not sure who’s at fault and I’m not going to point fingers. Was it the big company? Was it the little company’s fault? The companies involved were Frontier and a little company called Citynet. Why this project? Those extra funds could have been joined with company funds to create a private-public program and created “GigaPop” areas throughout the State of West Virginia—which would have really improved our business climate here.

But yet, the project was not approved for whatever reason. I know several of us wrote letters, we requested help, we called NTIA in DC and talked to folks. I’m a little baffled because the article says the reason that we don’t get to use the money is that the state never asked for an extension. I’m not sure I buy that whole thing. I believe that there were requests made. But it’s just one of those things to me.

I came in today—I was going to rant and rave but instead I’m sad. I think we lose. I hope there is a way to revive it because, I think, it’s a very good project and it would help a lot of citizens in the State of West Virginia. I think it would’ve been one of the best economic tools we could’ve created for the state this year.

Thank you, sir.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CRAIG BLAIR

Thursday, January 23, 2014

SENATOR BLAIR: Thank you, Mr. President.

This is the first time for me to stand up and speak on this floor. I would like for everybody to sort of grab ahold of what I put on your desk. It looks complicated—it is not. I wanted to take a few minutes to explain some of the things going on.

Those of us from the Eastern Panhandle have the luxury of driving either four or five or six hours to get here. When we do that, we leave from our state, we can't stay inside the state to get here. We actually come from either Maryland, through Maryland, or through Virginia. We get to see the gas prices along the way. As you can see, as of January 21, Martinsburg gas prices were $3.55, but when you get to the total other side of the state, it's $3.15. Even though we share the same exact gas tax—there's a huge difference.

I ask, does anybody in this room possibly believe that the wholesale price—and say it's coming up the Mississippi for the Huntington area and it's coming in from the harbor on the East Coast—that the gas, wholesale gas, price is that much different? Let's just say that it was. Look at the rankings up there on who has the highest gas tax. Pennsylvania just increased their gas tax. They're number one in our region and they're actually 6.1 cents higher than ours. But let's now go to the map and slip down to Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, which is about 45 minutes from where I live. $3.39—that's significantly less.

That's 16 cents less. If you factor in the tax difference it actually gets more than that. It goes down to being $3.33 a gallon.

Now, we've introduced a couple pieces of legislation: One was on zone pricing—didn't hear much feedback on that—but, boy, oh boy, when my good friend from Jefferson spoke the other day—well I got to hear it after that bill came in to the hopper. There was a lot of different things that came at me on that bill. I was confused by it to be quite honest with you. One of them is that when these retailers came to me they said "Look, this is unenforceable." Well, if it's unenforceable, then why do you want it so bad? I'm a free market guy. And that's what, in 1939, this legislation was designed to do—to make it so that mom and pops remained and we kept it opened.

But, going back to the AARP comment earlier, most of us here are older. We remember pulling into a gas station where they had oil out on the rack out front. You couldn't buy a sandwich at the gas station. Probably the only senator who doesn't remember that is sitting over here next to me. You could get a bottle of pop and maybe an ice cream cone. But you could get your tire fixed; you could get your oil changed. Try that today where you buy your gas. That's an evolution of the gas station—it actually takes place. It's the market.

We shouldn't be propping it up with legislation that we've got on the books that makes it so that there is a huge difference in what's going on. We've got to stop this. And here's why. The State of West Virginia is losing a huge amount of Eastern Panhandle tax revenue to Virginia. It's real easy. When I was in the House—served eight years over there—I used to joke about it. I said if I lived in the southern end of Berkeley County, I wouldn't even campaign in West Virginia. What I would do is I would get ready and go down, right across the state line, at the gas station where three out of the four cars getting their fuel have West Virginia tags. You would get to meet everybody—at least in the southern end of the county—in a matter of a week’s time. Now, factor in the fact that 30 percent of our population actually works outside the state. So, they can buy their gas cheaper in Pennsylvania, Virginia and Maryland. What is wrong with that picture? Now, I understand that our gas tax is a little bit higher but the fact of the matter is there’s something else going on. It’s taking place here and it’s certainly not the free market.

There’s another bill that’s out today, Senate Bill No. 421 (Removing certain discounts from motor fuel excise tax). I am waiting for the reaction to that. The good Senator from Jefferson and I are the sole sponsors on it. But what it is—I can’t think of another business in the state right now that gets paid to collect a tax. And that is exactly what’s happening with this bill. The wholesalers—when they collect the tax and everything—get a percentage of it back.

I encourage you to go take a look at the bill. It’s to the tune of about $2.5 million a year that doesn’t go into the Road Fund. It is going back to the wholesalers. Again, I’m free market. I don’t think government should be picking the winners and losers. I don’t believe in corporate welfare. That’s exactly what it is. If that’s the case then we need to start giving a tax credit, or a percentage of it back, to all the retailers out here and all the grocers and everybody else that collects the sales tax. We can’t be picking individuals. I say, let’s get that off the books, get that $2.5 million back into the Road Fund and get it turned into asphalt. There’s not one place in the state that we don’t need that.

I’m going to stop. I’ve gone long enough. But I encourage you to look at this. We’re all in this together. When we started this legislation—I had this printed out back in July—the prices were a lot more of the same. There’s a huge disparity when you look at it now between the east and the west. It has changed and I don’t know whether it’s because of the legislation that we have been introducing or could there possibly be another retailer-to-retailer lawsuit getting ready to take place because somebody has figured out a way to sell their fuel for less. Remember what I said on that because that is probably what is driving it down to the west.

What’s going on? We’ll soon see.

Thank you for having the patience to listen to me. If you have any questions, feel free to ask me afterwards or whenever you would like.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Relating to water resources protection

*(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for
Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 373)*

REMARKS OF HONORABLE ERIK P. WELLS

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

I’m going to rise in support of Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 373 (Relating to water resources protection). I would like to talk to the members for a moment since this was my community that really impacted everybody in this chamber.

There is a lot of concern still, even though this is a great step forward. I agree with the Chairman of the Judiciary committee. I think if this had been in place we would not even be discussing this. But as I told a reporter earlier when I was asked why didn't this already exist—my example was we had hijackings of airlines in the 70s and the 80s and we never did enough to make sure that what took place on 9/11 would never take place. We just didn't think about somebody using an airplane as a weapon of mass destruction.

There is great concern because of the misinformation that is out there. First we hear it's 5,000 gallons. Then it's 7,500 gallons. Now it's 10,000 gallons. We hear we can lift the embargo against the water and drink it, only to be followed with, if you're pregnant, don't drink it. To this day, I'm not drinking it. I'm sure I'm not the only one in this body that feels that way. There will come a time though when public confidence in our water system is regained.

This is not an issue that has just a central focus on West Virginia. Think about it. This is an issue that is going to have national implications. We were lucky in some respects. The chemical had an odor. Imagine if it did not have an odor. It could've been weeks before we realized what was taking place.

When I was in Afghanistan in 2011 one of the things they told me was don't drink the water. So I was really accustomed to seeing all the bottled water everywhere. But I was in a meeting one time and I felt, as an advisor of the United States government to the government of Afghanistan, I represented the people of my country. One of the great traditions in Afghanistan is to offer chai tea. They brought the tea in. I looked at it and, man, there was stuff floating in that water. And I'm thinking to myself I really don't want to drink that. But I wanted to be somebody who is hospitable as well. So I took a little drink here and a little drink there and just kind of set it down. I spent the next couple of days in the latrine because that water was nasty. I learned my lesson. That's why I really want to be making sure that I have an abundance of caution. So the time will come, but the time is not right now for me to drink the water.

There has been some discussion about corporate responsibility and whether or not we are over-regulating industry. I will tell you, I stand here today as somebody who wants to make sure businesses thrive in West Virginia. While I do not want to see regulation rammed down the throats of businesses—I don't want to see contaminated water rammed down the throats of West Virginia citizens either. This is a good start.

And lastly, I want to thank the people of West Virginia because they handled themselves especially well. I went to a meeting on the Capitol steps. It was a cold, cold morning, Mr. President. As I walked around, I realized I was the only elected official there. Those folks were upset and they were angry, but they were compassionate and understanding. I didn't have the answers then—I don't have all the answers today.

But this move today—in passing Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 373—is going to go a long way. The world and the nation are watching. One of the things that we have not talked about—if you want to talk about businesses, Mr. President—is the fact that we are now tarnished to a degree. There is the perception out there that the water in West Virginia is not safe to drink.

This past weekend I went to a hockey game featuring WVU and Pitt. The Pitt players were told “bring bottled water”. I'm sure in my hometown of Charleston there are probably going to be conventions that will be cancelled for fear of drinking the water.

Corporate responsibility is important. Making sure we have a thriving industry is important. But at the end of the day, if we don't have fresh drinking water because we're not willing to make the tough decisions against corporate interest, we can forget about all the small businesses throughout our districts because they won't survive either. They deserve a fighting chance. The people of West Virginia deserve a fighting chance. And this bill starts us down that right road.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
MIKE HALL
AND
HONORABLE
COREY PALUMBO

Tuesday, January 28, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: Would the chairman answer questions?

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Junior Senator from the Seventeenth yield? The Senator yields.

SENATOR M. HALL: In the exemption section—and I've tried to research this over the weekend and just couldn't get to the bottom of it so you may know—I believe it's an exception under the exceptions or the people who don't have to follow this law. It's item number twelve. I don't have the page numbers here but it reads "If you have a federal Solid Waste Disposal Act 42 U. S. C." section, so forth—you're exempt from the law. Who's exempted? Am I reading that correctly? And then it also says whoever is regulated under article eighteen of this chapter. Have you found it?

SENATOR PALUMBO: We're trying to find it.

SENATOR M. HALL: I think it's section three. There are certain people that are exempt from the law. I'm just trying to find out who.

SENATOR PALUMBO: Right. What we sort of endeavored to do when we got this bill in our committee was make sure that if there were comparable regulations already in place in federal law or state law that they didn't have to fall under this as well. There are several regulations out there that deal with the same topic but not quite to the level that we thought that they needed to be. So I think this list that's in section three, including twelve, all capture what we believe are things that are already covered in other sections of the code or federal law.

SENATOR M. HALL: Do we have an example of who? I actually went out and printed out that section—you know with Google you're able to do those things—but I just couldn't find a list of the types of companies that are being exempted here.

SENATOR PALUMBO: As far as exemption number twelve, it would be any kind of company that deals with the storage of hazardous waste. I mean that's already covered—those tanks.

SENATOR M. HALL: Would that be DuPont? Who would that be in the Kanawha Valley?

SENATOR PALUMBO: I think it could be.

SENATOR M. HALL: Okay. So it may be a lot of different industries. The public may think we're writing a law that affects them but they're being exempt. That's what I was trying to determine. There's probably a list somewhere.

SENATOR PALUMBO: And again, the reason that many of these entities are exempted is because we believe there's already similar protections in current law.

SENATOR M. HALL: The company that we're basically focusing on is not exempted under this section.

SENATOR PALUMBO: That's correct.

SENATOR M. HALL: So we're good on that. Also, the penalties section toward the end of the bill that provides for criminal and civil penalties and so forth—let's just walk through that. If somebody is found to be in violation of this act, it's the prosecutors of the counties that have to bring the accusation, correct? They're the only ones?

SENATOR PALUMBO: That's right.

SENATOR M. HALL: Is there any other prosecutorial power granted in the . . . ? I didn't see one. So, we normally have to do that.

SENATOR PALUMBO: There also would be administrative penalties available.

SENATOR M. HALL: Okay, so there is a section. Alright, Mr. President, can I just make a couple of comments about the bill now?

MR. PRESIDENT: You have the floor, Senator.

SENATOR M. HALL: Thank you.

I obviously support the bill. There were several in Putnam County though Kanawha County is the focus, but all around Winfield and around were affected by this. I think any attempt to deal with this problem—which I think this is a good one—I support.

I just wanted to make this comment though. I'm not trying to question the DEP as to why this wasn't discovered before but, in working with commercial realtors and developers in the past in West Virginia, there is a thing in the law from the Clean Water Act called the jurisdictional waterway of the United States. My classic example of this is in Hurricane. When Walgreens built a store in Hurricane there was a ditch that some said was created by the building of I-64. But the Corps of Engineers discovered that to be a jurisdictional waterway of the United States and, therefore, required that a permit be purchased from the DEP. It cost $13,000. They violated that permit. A developer went in and allowed some mud to fall into the ditch. I believe they were fined $13,000. Now I've seen this over and over. I have developers in Putnam and around that have been scrutinized about not getting mud in the stream. All over the state.

There's a fund at the DEP called the "In Lieu of Fund". If you are going to interfere with the wetland or a stream and you can't mitigate it, you can pay money. You can pay X amount of dollars. There's $26 million in that fund.

Now here's my point. It's incredible to me. The Elk River has to be a jurisdictional waterway of the United States—how a little developer in Hurricane can be watched very carefully to see that no mud gets into this stream and, yet, it got in and they got fined—and how this happened.

I understand the reasons that were stated but I just find myself amazed. I guess going forward, if it's a jurisdictional waterway or whether it's a small stream or whatever, there will probably be greater scrutiny of these more dangerous areas, I would hope. Even under our current scheme of regulation, they don't have to wait. I believe they have authority and this will give them more authority.

I just make these comments in light of what I've seen—the very careful oversight of jurisdictional waterways and, yet, somehow this one slipped through the cracks. I'm just somewhat personally amazed at that.

But I do stand to support the bill and thank you for the answers to the questions.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE CHRIS WALTERS
AND
HONORABLE
COREY PALUMBO

Tuesday, January 28, 2014

SENATOR WALTERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise as an individual that lives in the area that was tainted by Freedom Industries. First, I want to state that I think my Senior Senator did a very good job in elaborating as to what took place and the economic impact on our area and also the impact on our citizens.

The evening of January 9 I remember very specifically. My wife and I had gotten a babysitter. We were getting ready to go out on a date. We started cooking peas for my three-year-old daughter. We go out. We heard some rumors as to what was going on, but there wasn't exactly anything conclusive. My wife said to me, "Should she eat what we're cooking on the stove?" And I said, "Honey, every single concern I've ever heard, you can just boil it away." And you know, that's something that has stayed on my mind—something that's worried me.

When we got to the restaurant we were finding out on Twitter that restaurants were being asked to close all throughout the Kanawha Valley. The owners had to make their decisions to close their restaurants and shut them down. So sitting there—we already had our food in front of us—we were questioning whether or not to eat it. I guarantee this is what went through the minds of everyone. And not just Kanawha County, but Putnam County, and other areas that were affected—all nine counties.

Going on through this we noticed hotels were not taking guests. The Civic Center cancelled the events they had scheduled for that weekend. We have multiple businesses that rely on Charleston Civic Center events. People don't realize it but when they have an event, the mall is flushed with individuals in there buying from restaurants, buying from stores. Those places still have to pay rent to that mall. There were tons of businesses that, at the end of those days, had to throw out thousands of dollars of waste. They had to throw out products, those small business owners, those large business owners, at no fault of their own, had to throw products out.

Service industry workers were without tips, but they still have to make their utility bills. They still have to make their rent payments at the end of the month. They have to pay their mortgage—take care of their children's schooling. All of that is still an impact on their lives.

You know, it's nothing new to you all that I have a three-year-old child and I also have a pregnant wife. I've been asking what I can do? What long-term effects is this going to have? I know during that day my wife had consumed water, I had consumed water, everyone in Kanawha County had. It wasn't until that evening that we had figured out what really was going on. And when we had figured it out we did not have the answers. There are a lot of concerns over the citizens of Kanawha County.

Again, I said I rise in support of this bill. I think that there are a lot of good things in this bill that could prevent this from ever happening again.

Last night I was at a Town Hall and the individuals there were frustrated. They were as frustrated as we were. I reminded those individuals that, yes, I am here to represent you. Yes, I am a Senator, but I am a father first. I'm somebody who has the exact same concerns as every one of you. I've been trying to get the answers and have not been able to get all of them. I keep hearing it's inconclusive. But again, in speaking to this bill, I think there are a lot of things in it that would prevent this in the future. There were some suggestions at the Town Hall. One of the suggestions was allowing public opinion when the bill reaches the House—that the House of Delegates open its chambers to allow a public opinion phase for the people to weigh in on the bill.

There was an individual in that audience that knew more because of his experience with engineering with water chemicals. He worked in the Air Force and studied this kind of stuff—knew more than anybody I've heard from this entire process. He answered more questions for us. He talked about how to flush the systems in more detail than we had gotten. It was really an enlightening experience to hear from those individuals.

They asked questions—and I plan on asking these questions today after I'm done—as to whether there are requirements that, before the water reaches the water intake system, if there's a requirement in the bill that that water intake system have the type of specifications they have in Louisville where there are detectors to see what's coming into their water intake system. They had a lot of concerns as to this company, Freedom Industries. Yes, it does have an excess insurance policy, but with bankruptcy and what they owe to the IRS, how are we ever going to get back all the implications that happened in our society at no fault of our own? These are questions that still have not been answered.

Mr. President, I do rise in support of this bill.

Thank you.

MR. PRESIDENT: The Junior Senator from the Eighth is asking the Junior Senator from the Seventeenth to yield?

SENATOR WALTERS: Yes, sir.

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Junior Senator from the Seventeenth yield?

SENATOR PALUMBO: Yes.

MR. PRESIDENT: He will yield.

SENATOR WALTERS: For that last question I promised I would ask—is there anything in this bill that sets up requirements for PSCs to have a certain type of detection system for water that floats down the stream? Because my Senior Senator mentioned if there was no smell we probably would not have known. So, is there anything in this bill that does address that or is that something we need to help get changed once it reaches the House?

SENATOR PALUMBO: We require them to test for contamination, but there's no specific method set out to do that. So, I don't know that exactly. I don't think that exactly what your suggesting is contained in the bill.

SENATOR WALTERS: Thank you.

no, no. They have not—we'll be out there today." And they did get out there that day and tested it.

HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

Tuesday, January 28, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Thank you, Mr. President.

You know, we've heard a lot from Putnam and from Kanawha and the big population areas. I would like to tell you that I represent a little piece of the affected area—I represent Clay. And in Clay they feel like they're forgotten.

There's a little corner in Clay under the Queen Shoals PSD. You know, a week after this incident happened they were the last ones to get cleared to go ahead and flush. Well, I stayed in touch with our Adjutant General and the Guard as to what was going on. They told me, "Hey, they've got the green flag, go ahead, they can do it." Well, I called down there and I talked to the OES guy, Greg Fitzwater, and he said, "Great." He called me back 10 minutes later and said, "You know, I just talked to Sarah over there and she said no one's come out and tested the water." I called the General. "Oh, yes, they did." I called back. "No, they didn't." Well, it turns out they had not. The answer was "Well, tell them we'll be out tomorrow." I do want to thank the Guard because when I called the Guard and said, "Hey, they have not been here and they're being told that their water will not be tested til tomorrow." And the Guard said, "No,

My reason for standing here today is this bill is step one. We could talk about this bill for another month. And we could twist it and fight it and probably weaken it a little bit here and strengthen it a little bit there. But I think this is the right way to go to start out for our first step. And in time, as all the regulators do all their investigations and studies and we get all the feedback, we will be able to appropriately adjust and change those areas that we need to.

But we have to act today. We have to act now. This Senate has stepped up and done so. I appreciate everybody that's worked so hard on it. I want to compliment our Governor for being willing to participate in sharing his thoughts and his ideas out of his bill and working with us to combine them into one really good first step. I want to thank the businesses from around the state who have stepped up and said, "Hey, I might not want this additional regulation but you're right, we've got to do what we can right now to make sure this doesn't happen again."

We need to continue to work on this. Above all, my plea is don't forget the people out at Queen Shoals and the other small communities. They're at the end. They're not along the highway. They're not in a big population area. But they need this help and this protection as much as anybody else.

So, I want to say, "Let's get this done." I appreciate everybody who has been a part of this.

Mr. President, thank you for the time.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
EVAN H. JENKINS

SENATOR JENKINS: Thank you.

Based on those comments I think this is important to not only talk about the future but talk about the past and to express appreciation and thanks. I certainly couldn't pass up the opportunity to express sincere appreciation to the citizens of Culloden—like the Senator from Harrison referenced—a small outlying area.

The impact in the district that I represent was in a small area, Culloden. It's in the eastern part of Cabell County. I visited them on the first day of the emergency. It's fascinating to me that before the big help—the airlift of water coming in through the Guard and FEMA—there was about 24 hours of lag time. So what did we do during those 24 hours when we had the “do not use order”? We had Gordon Merry, our Cabell County EMS Director, take a truck down into Kentucky and load up that truck on his own—I guess with a county credit card—and paid for a truckload of water. So, within a matter of hours in Culloden, the residents of that area had bottled water available. That helped get them through those critical first hours.

So, I'm certainly not criticizing the state help. I think, in a pretty amazing amount of time, we were able to mobilize a lot of water to the affected areas. But it was these local folks that took the initiative themselves and put their own credit cards out there to address the critical needs. I've asked the Governor to help out with the reimbursement for the Cabell County EMS and others for this extraordinary help.

The citizens of eastern Cabell County, Culloden Elementary School, the principal and teachers were there when the school was closed. The teachers didn't just sit at home. They went to the volunteer fire department and were actively helping by passing out water. It was a steady flow for a solid week. The local folks, what they were able to do, what they were able to achieve, was stunning.

So, again, with all the appropriate recognition of the important step we are taking today, I think it's also important to recognize those who stepped up to the plate in such a significant way and in an amazingly coordinated way.

We have a lot of challenges ahead. We have a lot of work to do to make sure we protect the quality of our water and make sure people have safe drinking water. It's a top priority.

I look forward to passing Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 373 (Relating to water resources protection) as an important step in that direction.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ART KIRKENDOLL

Tuesday, January 28, 2014

SENATOR KIRKENDOLL: Mr. President, I, too, rise to speak to the bill and for the bill.

You know, water, evidently, is our most important resource in West Virginia. We're a unique state. Most of the industries require water. The coal industry does. The gas industry does. Not only that, families use it on a daily basis to survive. And it's sad to say but maybe—thank God there was no casualties, there was some irritation and some sickness—but maybe an event like this put us in a position that we will not see it happen again.

As I spoke in committee the other day—and it went through a lot of meetings before anybody brought it to our attention—the reason I address the situation is you can't fix a problem if you don't know where it's at and what it is. And to sit on this bill or not get this bill out to start the process . . . I'm in favor of a continual resolution. We should always look at something as important as water to make it a more decent, better, usable part of our society. But this bill has to go quick through the House and go into effect. DEP and its regulatory agencies can't fix the problem until they find the tanks.

As I spoke in committee, we have a blessed industry. We have a lot of people who use our waterways for transportation of goods and products. We have timber in our mountains. We have gas and oil. We have coal. So we have a lot of industry, thank God. And we relish that fact. But we want our people to be safe. I think once we find these tanks and learn how to regulate them—learn how to make sure they are safe so that this doesn't happen again—maybe we've moved a step forward.

So, I rise to speak to this bill and to acknowledge the fact that, maybe, the end result will be a good thing. I really, really hate the fact that people in business lost money and that people became sick. But what if we don't know what these tanks are and we would drag the deadline and not get a bill out so that DEP can work within their regulatory powers?

So, I appreciate the work of this body. I hope the House looks at it in the same way we did. But once we find it—I feel assured that our state regulators will fix the problem, do it right to where corporate and business-friendly people can live and do the same thing with environmental safety.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF HONORABLE JOHN R. UNGER II

SENATOR UNGER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I think it's evident from the speeches given here today the importance of this bill as it relates to the protection of our water resources. There has been so much discussion on this issue. Now it is time for action. I think it demonstrates that this issue runs deep—deep in each of us, our communities and our families.

Water touches all of our lives. I didn't realize how much until the weekend after the “do not use” ban was issued and I was traveling home—making calls. As many of you all have mentioned, your communities rallied together and so did the Eastern Panhandle. People came together. It wasn't the first time that we have rallied as a community. Senator from Jefferson, we have done this before with floods in the southern part of West Virginia, Senator from Mingo, and other areas.

But this one was really different because that Sunday at the church where I pastor, I talked about the situation here in Kanawha County and told some of the stories of the families that were affected. A young family had a five-year-old child. The young man says, "I'm scared to death. I mean what's going to happen to my child? We don't know the long-term effects of this. You know, I'm 40 years old, but my child is only five. If cancer or something shows up after 10 years on me, I've lived my life, but my child's just started." Anguish and fear—I've seen this in the people who live here.

So, in those small little churches in Harpers Ferry and Bolivar, people went out to collect supplies and water and to also raise funds. That particular weekend there were about 60 people in each of the congregations. I put the collection plate in the back and said if you want to donate anything, please do so. After everybody left, the money was counted and those small little churches raised $1,700—$1,700 each. Many of them said they didn't have enough money with them, but they were going to go home and bring back some more later that day.

I called General Hoyer that weekend and asked if there was any way the National Guard could help move some of the supplies that were being collected. We had collection areas and drop off areas. Word went out throughout. All the churches and the rest of the community including businesses and schools all started rallying together. Even the children started going home telling their parents about the water situation and started bringing in supplies. General Hoyer agreed that they would help move these supplies to Charleston quickly.

I've just found out that the 167th Airlift Wing of the National Guard, Mr. President, said they moved more than 60,000 pounds of donated supplies to Charleston from Berkeley and Jefferson counties alone. Now, that doesn't count the generosity that came from all over the state.

Many of us, except for a few, don't live in the area that was impacted. But I'll say it to you, Mr. President, the people that I represent in the Eastern Panhandle—although living over 300 miles away—feel the impact more than any other past disasters. Why? They could picture themselves in this situation where they could turn on the water and some pollutant would come out or nothing at all would come out. Every one of our constituents have that in their mind.

Now, think of this. The people in the Eastern Panhandle say, "Wow, if this could have happened in Charleston, the state capitol, where you have the Governor living, where you have the Legislature in session, you have the Supreme Court, you have the DEP headquarters, you have the National Guard located there, Homeland Security, all the government agencies of the State of West Virginia located right there and their water's polluted. Over 300,000 people affected and there is no protection for their water supply. What protection do we have in our particular community?" This resonates deeply.

Mr. President, it's been told by the Senators here—they're very articulate. I want to commend each and every one of the Senators in this body, Mr. President, for taking the leadership role of stepping up and moving forward. I think it's important because the people demand it. Yes, they want investigations. Yes, they want reports. They want recommendations. But more importantly—they want action. They want to have the assurance that this will never happen again—here or anywhere in West Virginia. It's important for the quality of life.

The bill we're discussing today, Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 373 (Relating to water resources protection), states very clearly up-front that "The state's water resources are vital natural resources that are essential to maintain, preserve and promote human health, quality of life and economic vitality of the state."

The one thing I want to point out that hasn't been brought up much is this debate that occurred on this particular bill that we always fall into as a state. I think it does a disservice to us when we do this. That is the debate between people and profit. You'll hear it many times. You know, we should be for the people and that's right. You also hear the aspect we don't want to harm business. We don't want to do things in a sense of discouraging jobs and job creation. But part of quality of life for many people is, of course, having a quality job. That's true. Why is it we always break down the debate between business and people, between profit and people, instead of having "or", why can't we have "and"? I'll say this—this bill is focused on water resource protection for people—that includes business, that includes farmers and the people who work in these businesses and farms.

It's also a very important thing for economic development. More than ever before, Mr. President, our environmental resources are under an enormous amount of pressure. In the twentieth century, population has grown four times; economic output, 22 times; fossil fuel consumption, 14 times; and, over the same period, water demand rose twice as fast as the population growth of the world. We only have three percent of our water resources that can actually be used for human consumption. Two percent of that three percent is actually in icebergs. So, we only use one percent of the water in the world for human consumption. So, water is one of the world's most precious resources and today cities, farmers, industries, energy suppliers, are competing daily for water needs. And as a result, costs of inadequate water management are becoming higher and higher. And, therefore, opportunities are starting to be compromised.

I had yesterday, Mr. President, the Leadership Berkeley group here; they are from the Chamber of Commerce from my area. There was a woman there that came from the very prominent business of Ecolab. It's a very, very good business in our area in manufacturing. They manufacture soaps and other types of products. They use about 300,000 gallons of water per day. I asked her the question, I said, "What would have happened if the same situation happened in the Eastern Panhandle that happened here in the Kanawha Valley? What impact would it have on Ecolab?" She told me, "We would have gone out of business. There's no way that we could have taken that water in and been able to maintain the production of our products."

This morning we met with the economic development officials from our region. I introduced them earlier when they were in the gallery. The Berkeley County Economic Development Authority Director said to—the legislators that were there—that there are two manufacturing prospects looking at the Eastern Panhandle to create jobs. They need between two million to three million gallons of water per day in what he termed "process water". Process water is directly from the river. Not the treated water but water directly from the river. I asked the question—these companies are food production, dairy processing manufacturers—and I asked the question, "Well, what did this situation do in regards to this prospect?" He says, "I'm not sure yet, but I think it could be a big problem; because who in a food industry would actually come after all the national press that's happened with the chemical spill? How can we assure the safety of their water?" That's something we need to do.

Mr. President, this bill goes into protecting our water—both for the human health and quality of life of our residents—but also it goes toward protecting our water resources for the businesses and the farmers and the others that do business in West Virginia. A reporter asked me recently: What’s going to happen in the future for West Virginia and what’s the image? My response is: I think that image is still going to be formed not by what happened in the past but what we do in the future and what we learn from this. If we learn and we wake up to this vulnerability that we have in protecting our water resources, then the rest of the country will see that. And if we put in measures to ensure the protection of our water, then I think others will start seeing that and the confidence will come back. If we do nothing, then it will be devastating both for the people who live here and any other economic activity.

Mr. President, it was talked about in the sense of this body still going forward and actually investigating and continuing to research this situation. I just want to let you know that this Senate is moving forward with these. The Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources is doing an investigation. As a matter of fact, tomorrow at 10 a.m. in 208-W we continue investigation hearings. I invite all members who are interested to participate in that as we learn more and more.

But I will also comment to you, Mr. President, this Senate is taking the leadership in protecting our water resources. Even with the passage of Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 373, we are not satisfied. “No, no, we are not satisfied and will not be satisfied until,” as the great leader that we honored a week ago, Martin Luther King said, “until justice rolls down like water and the righteousness like a mighty stream.”

Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise in support of this legislation, but I also want to take this opportunity to bring light to a situation that’s in the Senator from Wyoming and my district.

A little unincorporated town called Alpoca—just outside of Mullens in Wyoming County—contacted the Senator from Wyoming and I and said, “Well, we understand the 300,000 people and the uncertainty of the economy and the uncertainty of the safety of the drinking water. Well, what about us down here in Alpoca?”

There’s been an issue going on now for a couple years with the Eastern Wyoming Watershed—Logan County PSD. These folks have been, literally since September of last year, without potable water. There have been multiple issues that have come up. But these people called me with great despair—no opportunity for hope—and said, “We don’t expect you to do anything because we’ve tried every other avenue, but with what’s going on in the Kanawha Valley, you’re our last hope.”

What’s happening is the people of this town have to travel upwards, depending on where they live, 15 to 20 miles. They are going to an abandoned coal mine and pumping water into tanks that they have to acquire to get their own water. They take it back to their house and boil it before they can use it.

Ladies and gentlemen, to me—and I hope to you—that is unacceptable. For the last four days we have attempted everything that we can within our power. As we know, we are facilitators in this body. We have contacted the Public Service Commission. We’ve contacted the Wyoming County Commission. We have contacted the Logan County PSD. Today, actually, I’ve got a call in to Jimmy Gianato with Homeland Security. In my mind this is an issue for Homeland Security. We have to be able to supply water to the residents of West Virginia. I’ve tentatively scheduled to meet at one o’clock with the DHHR Secretary and her folks from the Bureau for Public Health. I hope that you all will rally with me to ensure that the people of Alpoqa will have potable water that they can use to cook, clean and take care of their families.

So, ladies and gentlemen, again, I take this opportunity for the issues that have occurred here in the Kanawha Valley and to bring light to what goes on in the rural parts of southern West Virginia. Again, I want to challenge anyone within earshot regardless of whether you are a private entity, a state or government agency, to help me and the Senator from Wyoming help the people from Alpoqa to get drinking water.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MITCH CARMICHAEL

Monday, February 3, 2014

SENATOR CARMICHAEL: Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise briefly this afternoon to convey a compliment that the Senate received over the weekend which I wanted to share with you and, also, to relay a concern.

The compliment is the water bill. As you attended your churches and functions this past weekend, the people of West Virginia saw an issue here and the Senate acted in a quick manner. We did it because it’s a quality of life issue and we needed to instill confidence in the people. It was the right thing to do and we did it quickly and they appreciate it. I thank you. I’m proud to be a part of a body that acts quickly when we see a problem.

The Majority Leader made a great point during the debate that a job is also a quality of life issue. It was pointed out to me that, in West Virginia, we have an economy that is not producing jobs as we should.

In fact, I got interested in this subject and started researching it a little bit. We’re ranked 46th by Forbes in terms of business competitiveness. CNBC’s ranking puts us 48th. West Virginia ranks last in workforce participation rates. We have the lowest median household income—poorest in the nation. WorkForce West Virginia reports that fewer West Virginians are working now than in 2013. In fact, we have less population. We’re one of only two states to have lost population since 2013.

Again, in West Virginia, we continue to struggle with this “judicial quagmire” designation. The list goes on and on about the economic condition of our state. Behind every one of these statistics is a precious human life without meaningful work. This lack of prosperity affects everything we do in this state; from maintaining our public infrastructure, to jobs for our citizens, to education pay for our employees and our teachers.

To the extent that we acted quickly on the water quality bill—it's just such a contrast. We started looking back and, Mr. President, here's a 1999 study by Governor Underwood regarding the tax structure and the business climate here in West Virginia and what we should do about it. Then we looked at Governor Manchin's study in 2006 about the modernization of our business climate and our economy. We have other economists that have studied our issues including the WVU economist, Russ Sobel. I want to commend our own Senator from Kanawha County for the excellent work he's done in The State Journal regarding this issue. We know what it takes to turn the economy around. We should be acting on that. It is time that we act.

To paraphrase Elvis Presley: A little less conversation a lot more action. It's time that we do this. We can be the best in West Virginia. We can be. We have such opportunity here—all of us see it—all of us have that enthusiasm to generate jobs and change this state. If we do it, if we grab this opportunity like we did the water quality issue, we can move this state forward immediately.

All of us were watching the Super Bowl last night and after the Super Bowl the quarterback from the winning team, Seattle Seahawks, was interviewed. He's relatively small, 5'11", I think. His dad always told him when he was motivating him, "Why not you? Why not you? You can be the best." He used that as motivation all throughout his career. In fact, last night they were talking from the Seahawks' standpoint, "Why not us? Why not us?"

And so, Mr. President, somebody in this United States has to be first in job creation and per capita income and jobs. I ask us, "Why not us?" We say, "That's great. Let's do it." Then why not now? Let's do it. As you look at the bills that are to be advanced through this session, you'll find things that deal with tort reform, joint and several liability, collateral source rule—other things that will fundamentally address the things that are throughout all these studies.

And so, I ask that we all grab that sense of, "why not us" and do everything we can to move this state forward.

Thank you, Mr. President. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
JOHN R. UNGER II

Tuesday, February 4, 2014

SENATOR UNGER: Thank you, Mr. President.

Over the weekend, I had some very interesting conversations with constituents of mine and also parishioners of my church that I never thought I would ever have such a conversation with. Those conversations centered around the fact that many of these people love this state, love their community, but now they're starting to talk about leaving. It disturbed me. They've been sitting down with their families and they are scared. They are nervous about what has happened here with the water situation in Charleston. But also, in a sense, they kind of lost hope.

Am I making this up? I'm really disturbed by it because some of the people that I've heard from I would have never thought they would have ever had that conversation. Of course, I, in the role of trying to give them hope said, "We're going to do things. The Senate has acted to address it and we will continue to look at the situation", but still those conversations are proceeding.

Last night, Mr. President, you and several members of this body attended a town hall meeting downtown at the First Baptist Church. We heard from various residents of their struggle. One thing that was interesting was Dr. Gupta, who's with the Health Department here in Kanawha County. He was talking about the breach of trust that has occurred. He was saying that they have been looking at the emergency room cases coming in right when this situation first occurred and before the "do not use" order, or the water ban, went out. He can show you that emergency room visits for flu-type symptoms spiked here locally. He said what's interesting is after the ban occurred, or the "do not use" order went out, it started to dip. Then when word went out that you could use the water again emergency room cases spiked. Then when it was told you could use the water unless you are a pregnant woman, elderly or a child, then it dropped and leveled off. He said at that point people just didn't have trust any longer. He's been doing a survey at each town meeting. He has found out that, of all the people doing the survey across this region, only one percent is drinking the water. Only three percent think it is safe.

We truly have a situation of breach of trust and it doesn't look like it's going to get any better. Matter of fact, it's not only the breach of trust here in this valley, but there's a breach of trust that's happening all over this state including the Eastern Panhandle where I'm from. People are talking. Mr. President, somehow we are going to have to move forward and regain that breach of trust.

Recently though, I was very disappointed. I will tell you, Mr. President, I was very disappointed that in the President's State of the Union Address, we didn't even have a mention. I thought, maybe, there would be a mention. After all, what happened here in Charleston could happen anywhere in the country because we are vulnerable with our national water resources. We are not protecting it the way we should and it's not just occurring in West Virginia. It's happening all over this country. So, I thought for sure the President would at least mention what was happening here, because he has always mentioned other areas whenever there was a crisis or a situation in other communities. But he didn't.

And then also, Mr. President, I thought for sure that when a situation like this occurred the federal folks would be here helping. Similar to what just happened recently on a cruise ship—Explorer of the Seas—where there was an outbreak of a virus. They said "one of the worst outbreaks in 20 years". The CDC was investigating the outbreak. They quarantined individuals and monitored their health. It even says that CDC officials also helped Royal Caribbean clean up the Explorer of the Seas and then approved them to go back. There were about 700 people there—about 178 passengers got sick and 11 crew members.

What happened here? More than 300,000 people were basically poisoned, or polluted, contaminated, whatever term you want to use—where are they? Where's the team that this cruise ship had coming in to help out—to figure out what this chemical is, or chemicals, or what's in the compound, what it breaks down to, is there formaldehyde or isn't there formaldehyde? Yes or no? We continue to get conflicting results.

First they said it's 5,000 gallons, then 7,500 gallons, now 10,000 gallons. They said, "Don't use the water. Use the water, but don't use the water if you're pregnant, or a child or elderly." What is it? What is it? The CDC continues, supposedly, changing their levels. People do not trust it any longer, Mr. President. I don't think if we continue down this path they're ever going to gain the trust.

So, Mr. President, I would ask that this body, tomorrow, to introduce a resolution that basically calls on the President of the United States and Congress to protect our waters—our nation’s waters—to establish provisions that will prevent chemical spills from ever happening here or anywhere else again, to direct FEMA to continue to provide water supplies in the affected areas of West Virginia until that confidence is back, to direct the CDC, the ATSDR and the EPA to assemble a team to fully analyze the released chemical and to determine the effects on human health and the environment from the exposure to the chemicals and to direct the NIH to work with local health officials to diagnose and identify the present and future impacts on health due to exposure to these chemicals.

Mr. President, by the way, the ATSDR is not a well known agency. It is the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry. It is part of, Senator from Boone, the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services. It’s a federal public health agency.

Mr. President, I ask that we send this resolution as a message to the President and Congress to basically not look at us as lab rats, not to look at us in West Virginia as poster children, but to look at us as human beings—to look at us as Americans. People of this state deserve the same response as the individuals on this Caribbean princess. We don’t deserve any less, Mr. President, so I ask that members of this body join together tomorrow on this resolution, this concurrent resolution, that will go to the House.

I call on the House to join with us on this concurrent resolution to send a message to the President of the United States and the United States Congress to act now.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

SENATOR CANN: Thank you, Mr. President.

Just one item I’d like to point out. We had a meeting the other night with Dr. Tierney who runs the Bureau for Public Health for the State of West Virginia. She has stated time and time again—and I want to make sure that it gets in the papers and the press and that the people know—that there is no, no way that any formaldehyde was created as a result of this spill.

It can’t happen. Scientifically, she says unequivocally, it cannot and did not happen as a result of this spill. We have naturally occurring [formaldehyde] all the time in a lot of different water sources but the only way that this chemical can turn to formaldehyde is if it is heated to a point in excess of 500 degrees. So in her study—and they’ve looked at this—there is no way that that occurred.

I just want to make sure that people know that and that fact doesn’t get lost in all of these discussions.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Designating Preston County Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 16)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DAVE SYPOLT

Wednesday, February 5, 2014

SENATOR SYPOLT: Today is Preston County and Tucker County Day at the Legislature. On behalf of the Senator from Taylor and myself, I would like to welcome all the businesses, agencies and members who've traveled to make the showcase and celebration of our counties a wonderful success. Furthermore, a big thank you to the members and staff who so warmly received us.

Missing today are two very important elements, however—the Mountaineer ChalleNGe Academy, for one. The ChalleNGe Academy had planned to attend and participate with the Color Guard opening the session by posting the colors and through participation in the Honorary Page Program. Everyone within the sound of my voice should be proud of the Mountaineer ChalleNGe Academy. The program of alternative education for at-risk youth has touched all 55 counties in our state. For over 20 years the program has grown. The graduating class this past December, Mr. President, graduated 157 new cadets.

Also missing today is the Preston County Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, which is one of, if not the most active chapters in the state; and, unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond their control, were unable to participate today.

Now, this year's theme is agriculture and it's for a good reason. Many have read the press releases about the West Virginia Department of Agriculture's initiative entitled "Farm to School". Preston County is one of the pilot schools. With the assistance of the Senator from Taylor, the delegates from Preston County and the School Building Authority, we secured some funding for a new processing facility.

Preston High School is the only high school in West Virginia, perhaps in the eastern United States, with a licensed slaughter and processing facility that is run by the students. Within three years Preston High School plans to supply 100 percent of the beef and pork products for the schools in Preston County and, if successful, this program will be expanded to include the adjoining counties as well.

Currently, beef is raised in West Virginia to a certain weight and then trucked out west for finishing, slaughtering and processing. Then the product is sold back to West Virginia. This opportunity will allow farming operations in Preston County and the adjoining counties to finish the beef and pork and have a market for their products.

Currently, agriculture producers in Preston County rank among the top five in several categories. We're the first in the number of farms. We're third in the number of farm acreage. We're second in the tons of hay produced, fifth in bushels of grain, second in lambs and sheep and fifth in cattle.

It is fitting to recognize Preston County for its history, culture, economy and future development in our great state.

Mr. President, I urge adoption of this resolution.

Recognizing Pinnacle Blue Mine Rescue Team

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 17)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE GREEN

Wednesday, February 5, 2014

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise in support of the resolution. I want to congratulate the members of the Pinnacle Blue Mine Rescue Team. I tell you, in addition to the members, we're proud to have not only Ryan Thorn and Juliet Terry here with the team, but also Mark Nelson.

Mr. President, I would like to take a moment to read the resolution because I think it's important that we understand and realize that, maybe, sometimes what we take for granted We're so dependent on the coal industry. I know, I can speak from experience because of the tragic incident that happened in my county of Raleigh several years ago. I know how important it is to have these folks who not only risk their lives but go in to save those of others. I, personally, want to commend each and every one of you for your commitment and your dedication, not only to your profession, but to the State of West Virginia. So, thank you.

Mr. President, it says:

"The National Coal Mine Rescue Competition is a biannual competition sponsored by the National Mining Association and administered by the United States Department of Labor's Mine Safety and Health Administration.

"Established in 1910 by the United States Bureau of Mines, the National Coal Mine Rescue Competition is the largest of its kind.

"In its 101st year, more than eighty teams from twelve states competed in the four-day competition that had events ranging from first aid, bench and pre shift to the more complex simulated mine rescue scenarios that involve hypothetical emergency situations and test the rescue and safety abilities of the competitors.

"The Pinnacle Blue Team, of Cliffs Natural Resources, completed both days of team events without a single error . . ." Not one error in two days. ". . . achieved the fastest problem-solving time on the second day of the competition.

"Due to their hard work, dedication and commitment to perfecting their craft and protecting our miners, the Pinnacle Blue Team won the 2013 National Coal Mine Rescue Competition.

"Mine rescue teams are the backbone of readiness for mine emergency response and the Pinnacle Blue Team has proven that not only do they possess the skills and preparedness necessary to keep miners safe, but they do it better than anyone else in the country.

"The Pinnacle Blue Team is a shining example of what can be accomplished with teamwork and a dedication and commitment to ensuring the safety of our miners."

Mr. President, again, I think it's a great honor. I think it's something that we need to take advantage of when we have people who have such success in their craft.

Again, I want to thank you and ask the Senate to adopt this resolution.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
RON STOLLINGS

Wednesday, February 5, 2014

SENATOR STOLLINGS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I put on your desks here a Sugar Tied to Fatal Heart Woes story. Basically, drinking two 12-ounce cans of soda substantially increases your heart attack risk.

The federal farm bill is being voted on as we speak. It takes $8 billion out of the SNAP benefits or $800 million a year. I certainly hope that, since this is a supplemental nutrition program—supplemental—that the federal government will look closely as to whether they should cover sugary sweetened drinks as we go forward. Not only as a cost-savings but also as a public health savings.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
HERB SNYDER

Wednesday, February 5, 2014

SENATOR SNYDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I wanted to rise today to draw your attention to two bills that I sponsored that were introduced today.

Senate Bill No. 487 (Authorizing municipal sales tax) allows a municipal sales tax in trade for their B&O tax. We may very well not pass this bill this year, but I wanted to start a discussion. This is picked directly out of the home rule legislation that we passed last year. It is clearly the most interesting part of, or interested in part of, the home rule legislation that we did.

Later this year we'll have 20 cities, including the four that were already in it, that will be chosen as home rule cities. I would hazard to guess that there will be many, many more applications than that for this home rule pilot project as we go forward. But one of the most appealing parts of the home rule is that the cities—all of them I believe without exception—that are looking at it would like to take part in the ability to trade their B&O tax on businesses for a one percent consumers sales tax.

Again, we'll talk about this. The bill is out there to start the discussion on this. There are some bills this year that take money from municipalities. So, I think it's a good time to look at revenue generation and their local needs for their revenue.

The next bill is Senate Bill No. 491 (Exempting sales of motor fuel from unfair trade practices) and there's a handout on your desk. This is continuing the conversation on the Unfair Trade Practices Act [sic] and gas prices. I won't belabor the subject, but I handed out what I just happened to find on the internet. It's a report "Do Gasoline Pricing Laws Affect Prices?" It's from a professor at East Carolina University in 2010.

I want to draw your attention to the introduction page which is page three. It says the Bureau of Competition, which is part of the Fair Trades Commission [sic], warns against the adoption of such laws at the federal level or extension of these laws into other states because of the possible increases in market prices to consumers. Indeed, most policy and imperial studies on gas price impacts of state gas price laws have concluded that they raise retail gas prices. It's the first time I've seen such a report. It gets to the "rubber meets the road" legislation and law as to how it affects gas prices.

So, as we continue forward the bill that was introduced today is very similar to the bill I introduced a few weeks ago and spoke on the floor about. The first bill repealed the entire Fair Trade Practices Act [sic] from 1939. You remember my floor speech about Franklin D. Roosevelt being president, etc.? This bill refines and perfects that and simply puts in an exemption that motor fuels are not covered under the Unfair Trade Practices Act [sic]. There are a number of reasons for that and I hope we continue this discussion. I appreciate the members' interest in this.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Relating to possession and administration of opioid antagonist

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 336)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
EVAN H. JENKINS

Friday, February 7, 2014

SENATOR JENKINS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I want to stand up and express appreciation to the Chair of Health and others. This is a measure that we have tried to pass for at least the last year or two and, hopefully, we will see its passage.

This epidemic relating to prescription drug abuse and now heroin emerging as the drug of choice has touched us all in a lot of profound ways.

Tragically, several months ago, my wife lost her nephew. He was a young man with an outstanding personality, had the world in the palm of his hands, and, like so many, had the disease of addiction. He had fought that disease for a number of years and was recently in an inpatient facility program for several months.

What happens, as we know too often—we've seen it in the recent profile of the actor who passed—is those who have battled addiction, who make a good faith effort, have a relapse. It's usually the first time back to using a drug like heroin that causes death because, before they went into detox, they had a level of resistance and then their body loses that resistance. The Chair of Health adequately and very appropriately described the issue of how these drugs suppress the respiratory system.

Well, my wife's nephew went through this experience. He had taken drugs one night and I'm convinced Naloxone would have saved his life. He basically, from all accounts, lived for several hours. In the street world, they put people in an ice bath of water and they do other things to try to revive the person. Well, this is what Naloxone is for—it revives the person.

But in the street world, as you know, there is a reluctance to call law enforcement. There is a reluctance to call EMS. There is a reluctance to take the person to the hospital because they don't want to be outed, so to speak.

So, Naloxone would have been a lifesaver if administered quickly because this young man didn't die instantly. He basically lived for hours and had EMS been called and got to him and administered Naloxone, there's no question in my mind he would be with us today.

So, I appreciate some of the national recognition our efforts have received in fighting the drug epidemic. This, however, was one area that we were lax in. We have attempted to pass it in years past. I'm glad we are passing it once again in the Senate. I hope the House acts accordingly and passes it this year.

This is a true lifesaver. There are states that have done this. I think it's North Carolina, and New York and others that have had just stunning results that truly save lives. So, I'm glad we are taking this step today and again, I'm certainly thinking of Adam in the passage of this bill. We miss you.

HONORABLE
RON STOLLINGS

Friday, February 7, 2014

SENATOR STOLLINGS: Thank you, Mr. President.

As we all know, today is "Go Red For Women Day"—its 10th anniversary. Many of us men are wearing red-colored ties and the ladies are appropriately dressed in red.

This is to bring attention to cardiovascular disease in women. It is indeed the number one killer in women but only 13 percent of women view heart disease as a health threat. There are several points I could make. The bottom line is we're bringing attention to cardiovascular disease in women.

The new guidelines, today actually, came out for stroke in women. We now know that a migraine with an aura increases the risk. We've always known that women taking oral contraceptives or hormone replacement therapy were at an increased risk as well as hypertension, tobacco use and high cholesterol.

So, we want everybody to: Eat a heart-healthy diet; enjoy at least 150 minutes a week of moderate-intensity aerobic physical activity and more than two days a week of muscle strengthening activities; and avoid tobacco smoke. We learned just recently that two soft drinks a day can increase your risk of having a heart attack by 30 percent.

So, members of this body, I just want to bring attention to cardiovascular disease today.

Thank you very much.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
RONALD F. MILLER

Friday, February 7, 2014

SENATOR MILLER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I want to remind everyone that today is Arts Day at the Legislature. The Senator from Fayette and I are very honored to represent a great arts center in the state in Greenbrier County and in Fayetteville.

In Lewisburg we not only have the state's theatre—Greenbrier Valley Theatre—but we also have one of the two Carnegie Halls in the nation and a trillium dance group and many other arts—creative arts—centered in that region in Fayetteville. Also, we're looking to promote that in other parts of our district.

I encourage each person here to visit the arts displays out here if they're still here when we finish on the floor. But promote arts in your community. It's a great impact, financially, in return for your community and it creates a better quality of life.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CHRIS WALTERS

SENATOR WALTERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I wanted to rise to speak to Senate Resolution No. 12 (Amending Senate Rule No. 28 relating to setting committee agendas) before we had the opportunity to vote on it. I understand that I wasn't seen when I rose and I appreciate that. I think it was a very important rule—something that should have been deliberated, something that we should really consider as a body.

What the Senate Rule did is it required that committee agendas be set 24 hours in advance with an exclusion on the last three days because of how fast-paced session is. The reason why I put that rule in is because my constituents, multiple times, have come to me and said, "I have a bill that's coming that could be on the agenda. Would you look out for it for me? Could you let me know when that's coming up so that I may come to committee and weigh in?" A lot of times committee agendas are set an hour in advance, two hours in advance, and I'm not able to give my constituents that type of heads up so public opinion can be weighed in.

As a Senator, I've tried to do everything I can to read the bills, to understand the bills, to be able to deliberate on them and to study legislation.

Last week there was a bill that was introduced on the blue list of this floor and then an hour later it was on a committee agenda to be discussed. That bill was over 20 pages long. I had no ability at that time to know it was on that committee's agenda or to really study the bill, to be able to deliberate on it, to be able to make phone calls to ask about unintentional consequences, to be able to bring in an expert to speak to it or against it.

As a Senator, I want to do my job better. I want to be able to represent my population and my constituency to the best of my ability. This rule would have been a step in the right direction to allow that to happen. It would have been a step in the right direction for everyone in this body. It allowed you all to have the proper notification to really discern legislation—to bring in the public. This Capitol, something we're so fortunate to have, anybody can come in, anybody can be here, anybody can come to this building and come to our committees and speak to us about legislation.

That Senate Rule, what it would have done is it would have given us the ability to put proper notice online to our constituents, so they would know to be here, so they could be more involved in this public process—this great process that we have—the best form of government in the entire world—and here we had the ability to get that public notification out. That was the whole intention of the rule.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE GREEN

Monday, February 10, 2014

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'd like to make you and the body aware of legislation I introduced today. Senate Bill No. 523 (Providing for additional state veterans skilled nursing facility in Beckley) would construct a nursing facility in Beckley, Raleigh County, West Virginia.

The proposed legislation designates the funds for a skilled nursing facility in Beckley, West Virginia. The money would come from the Veterans Facilities Support Fund and, also, bonds could be issued from the West Virginia Hospital Finance Board. The bill proposes to use the fund to design, construct and equip a 120-bed veterans skilled facility on more than 17 acres of land adjacent to the Jackie Withrow Hospital, formerly known as Pinecrest Hospital.

Myself and the cosponsors believe that the facility is needed because the one located in Clarksburg is at full capacity and frequently has a waiting list. With a veterans population that has now reached over 220,000 West Virginians, there is an overwhelming need for additional nursing home beds in the state to accommodate the veterans as they become unable to care for themselves.

Per capita, West Virginia has sent more of its sons and daughters into battle than any other state. The nursing facility would help those veterans as they return home. It will be a way for us to say, "Thank you for your service." We need to be there not just during the ceremonial return, but to support them when cheering fades and the everyday life trials that they face begin.

Mr. President, again, just to give you a little update—there are 17 acres that the Department of Agriculture owns behind the Jackie Withrow Hospital. The bill authorizes the Secretary for the Department of Veterans' Assistance as well as the Commissioner of Agriculture to enter into an agreement to donate that land that is currently owned by the Agriculture Commission to the Department of Veterans' Assistance.

So, again, I just want to bring light to the subject and encourage your support, not only for the legislation, but also for the veterans who have served and given so much for West Virginia.

Thank you.

Recognizing Steve Antoline,
2014 Outstanding Tree Farmer

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 24)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
GREGORY A. TUCKER

Tuesday, February 11, 2014

SENATOR TUCKER: Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it's my pleasure today to stand before you in support of Senate Resolution No. 24 (Recognizing Steve Antoline, 2014 Outstanding Tree Farmer). It recognizes a member of my community back home in Nicholas County.

This is Steve Antoline. He is the 2014 Tree Farmer of the Year. The resolution speaks to Steve's accomplishments but does not really tell the tale of Steve Antoline or the Steve Antoline that I know. Steve has been hugely successful in the business world. He's self-made. That's allowed him to pursue other passions in his life which have greatly benefitted my community and others. Steve is a huge and giant supporter of the coal industry, West Virginia in general, YMCA, Summersville Youth Athletics, 4-H, among many others.

This resolution recognizes a man of many talents and it's my pleasure to stand before the Senate today and ask that he be recognized. For that reason, I urge adoption of the resolution.

Recognizing Steve Antoline,

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 24)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE GREEN

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I, too, stand in support of the resolution for the Tree Farmer of the Year. But before I go in and read some of the details of the resolution, I want to elaborate and follow-up on what the Senator from Nicholas said.

Steve Antoline is not only this year's Tree Farmer of the Year, but Steve has been very committed to the State of West Virginia through many endeavors. Steve has operated various companies throughout the United States, including operations in natural gas production, mining, excavation, property development and medical research. In 1995, he was a founder of Superior Highwall Miners in Beckley, a West Virginia-based company, which grew to international success as the largest manufacturer of highwall mining ventures.

Steve is committed to the State of West Virginia through his involvement in the American Red Cross, Summersville Youth Athletics, West Virginia University Sports Development Council and, in 2010, then-Governor Manchin appointed Steve to the Investment Management Board.

Again, those are reasons above and beyond being the Tree Farmer of the Year. To elaborate on that I would just like to take a minute to read the resolution:

"Whereas, Steve Antoline owns and manages a 2,097-acre tree farm in Nicholas County."

Steve "was selected as West Virginia's Outstanding Tree Farmer for 2014 by the West Virginia Tree Farm Committee and its state sponsor, the West Virginia Forestry Association."

This outstanding tree farm "made a formal commitment to sound forest management practices in 2009 by enrolling in the West Virginia Tree Farm Program."

He "is committed to the long-term productivity of his property by performing sustainable forest management through selective timber harvests, timber stand improvement thinnings, wildlife habitat improvement practices" and "improved road access and water resource" enhancements.

"Over six hundred thousand board feet of storm-damaged hemlock was harvested from the Antoline Tree Farm and used to build more than three hundred twenty shower houses" in "the Summit Bechtel Boy Scout Reserve."

Steve "makes his property available for numerous educational programs and tours for visitors throughout the world."

Mr. "Antoline's Madison Farms Tree Farm is enrolled in the . . . Cooperative Forest Management Program and receives professional forest management assistance" from "forester Rick Persinger."

It is the policy of this Legislature to recognize and commend outstanding West Virginians. So, we here, do hereby commend and congratulate Steve Antoline of Nicholas County, West Virginia, upon being selected as the winner of West Virginia's Outstanding Tree Farmer award for 2014.

Above and beyond all of that, I'm here to tell you that Steve is a great West Virginian. He is committed to not only the success of our great state, but more importantly Steve is my friend. I stand here honored to ask you to support the resolution.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Tuesday, February 11, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

I'd like to stand for a moment and discuss something that has sort of been on my mind since yesterday.

I want to first start off by saying sometimes when you stand up before your colleagues, you may end up saying something that upsets folks. I thought about that before I stood up and then I decided sometimes you need to just stand up and say what's on your mind.

Mr. President, several years ago this body passed, 34 to 0, the ENDA bill (the Employment Non-Discrimination Act). It involves the fact that you should not discriminate against somebody based on their sexual orientation. Thirty-four to zero. We know how West Virginia is from the standpoint of people's beliefs. I remember being here that night and I thought what a great message from a conservative state to send out. The next year it was a much closer vote, but it still passed.

I don't hold out much hope that it's going to pass this year, but I want to tell you why I'm standing today. This is a privilege for each and every one of us to be in this body to represent our communities. One of the reasons that I enjoy sitting right here is because when people come into this body, I get to be the first person to welcome them. I will tell you up-front that I don't always agree with their politics. I will vote against some of the things they stand for, but I view them as coming into my "home" and I want to treat them with the utmost respect.

So, yesterday, the folks from Fairness West Virginia came and I was embarrassed. Literally, embarrassed. It's not something to smile about. It's not something to joke about. We have 34 members here. Twenty-two people stood up. About 11 folks didn't bother to do it. That's your political statement and that's fine. In my mind, you make your political statement on that board. You can vote against it. But to stand here and to purposely be ashamed to take a photograph with fellow West Virginians—I was ashamed.

So, I decided whether I should even make a statement or not. I will tell you, I respect all of you, but I could not be silent. There are groups that will come here and I will go up and take a photograph with them and welcome them into my "home". For as long as I remain here—I will always do that because I am proud and feel that it is a privilege to be here. What I witnessed yesterday, Mr. President, made me ashamed.

Thank you.

Designating Marshall University Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 26)

REMARKS OF HONORABLE MIKE HALL

Wednesday, February 12, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: I would like to briefly speak in favor of the resolution and make a couple comments about it.

In 1945, Cam Henderson (from whom the Henderson Center is named) went to Washington, Pennsylvania. He recruited a basketball player up there to come down to play for the Thundering Herd. He brought him down to Huntington. In 1947 he was a part of the basketball team that won the national championship. Fifteen thousand people met the team as they came back from Kansas. They won eight games in eight days with eight players. Try that today.

That basketball player met a young, pretty woman from Fayette County and they were married. And, Mr. President, that's why I'm here. That was my father and my mother. I'm here as a result of the Marshall University basketball program.

Honoring Senator Jack Yost

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 28)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
H. TRUMAN CHAFIN

Wednesday, February 12, 2014

SENATOR CHAFIN: Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it's a very special day here for the Senator from the First District. I introduced the Honorable Jim Crawford in the rear. He is a 33rd degree Mason. I just want to let you know a little bit about who the Senator from the First is in his other life.

He has a very distinguished life and it is part of the Scottish Rite of Charleston, West Virginia. In fact, he is called the SGIG (you Masonic men know that). That is the Sovereign Grand Inspector General for the Orient of West Virginia. There are 33 SGIGs of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in the southern district of the United States of America. Senator Yost is one of those.

He is indeed a distinguished West Virginian among distinguished West

Virginians. Half a million members, gentlemen and ladies, are in the Scottish Rite District of the Orient of West Virginia and we have nine valleys—one is in Bluefield, one is in Charleston, one is in Clarksburg, one is in Huntington, Logan, Martinsburg, Morgantown, Parkersburg and Wheeling. So, you can see that the Scottish Rite Freemasonry touches all parts of West Virginia geographically.

“Human progress is our cause, liberty of thought our supreme wish, freedom of conscience our mission, and the guarantee of equal rights to all people everywhere our ultimate goal”—that is the Scottish Rite Creed.

Ladies and gentlemen, I just want you to know a little bit about this distinguished West Virginian. He's a gentleman in every sense of the word. He is indeed a distinguished West Virginian. He is having a reception tonight at the Scottish Rite Temple—it's right across from 405 Capitol Street. It's absolutely beautiful down there. I hope that you will work it in to your schedule to come by and honor the Scottish Rite and all the wonderful things they do, especially for the children who have hearing loss.

The Senator from the First does a lot, Mr. President, for children. You just don't know how many children's lives he has touched by making their hearing a lot better. He raises money for them and he does so with his time. He's just a great West Virginian.

Please rise and give a round of applause, Mr. President, to our distinguished colleague.

Designating Corrections Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 30)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
WILLIAM R. LAIRD IV

Friday, February 14, 2014

SENATOR LAIRD: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise today in support of this resolution honoring our correctional professionals throughout the State of West Virginia.

Among the ranks of our state employees, it is our correctional officers who are tasked with the care, custody and control of those persons from whom society must be protected. Faced with the problems resulting from substance abuse and addiction, the overpopulation and crowded conditions at our regional jails and correctional institutions, inadequate staffing, high staff turnover rates and inadequate salary structures, we owe much more to our correctional officers than our simple thanks and appreciation for a job well done.

On this day, it is important for this Legislature to remember that the starting annual salary for an entry level correctional professional in West Virginia is $22,584. I think that we can all agree that for our correctional officers little is given to those from whom much is expected in return. I am indeed hopeful that the day may sometime come when we might be able to fairly and responsibly compensate our correctional professionals for the very difficult job they are called upon to do.

In conclusion, Mr. President, our correctional personnel at institutions throughout the State of West Virginia are an important part of the thin blue line of protection that enables us to live safely within our homes and communities. They get up each day, put on their uniforms and go to work to do a job that many of us are not prepared to do ourselves.

As a small tribute to this honorable and difficult profession, I encourage the adoption of this resolution.

Designating WV State University Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 32)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President and members of the Senate.

Today is West Virginia State University Day. West Virginia State University was the first public higher education institution in West Virginia to gain accreditation and has been continuously accredited longer than any another public college or university in West Virginia.

With a fall enrollment of 2,677, the University had an increase of almost 44 percent in first-time enrollment. As one of only two land grant research higher education institutions in West Virginia, West Virginia State University contributes significantly to state economic development efforts in areas of biotechnology, plant, micro bio, animal and environmental research. In just over a decade the University has increased its research and development funding by approximately $12 million. Additionally, as a land grant research institution, State's Extension Service serves 29 West Virginia counties on a daily basis. These services aid approximately 15,000 people throughout the year.

You can go throughout the rotunda and take a look at some of the displays they have and then this evening, in the Hawks Nest Room at the Marriot, there will be a reception at 5 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

I urge adoption of the resolution.

Recognizing Linsly School

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 33)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE CHRIS WALTERS

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

SENATOR WALTERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

Members of the Senate, today is a fine day to honor a school of which I am an alumni. The Linsly School this year is celebrating its 200th anniversary. This school is the Linsly School, the oldest prep school west of the Allegheny Mountains.

It was founded in 1814 as a Lancasterian system of schooling, where the older students worked with our younger students to help in education. This system still goes on today at the Linsly School. It's used in our Prefect System.

The Linsly School was founded coeducational and then, in 1830, it went from a group setting to an individual setting with traditional age groupings. In 1861, it became a boys-only school and then, in 1877, it became a military school. This school's roots in West Virginia run deep. In 1863, the founding of the State of West Virginia, our first State Capitol was the Linsly School's building. The Linsly

School—better yet a landmark of our state—has continued to educate and bring young minds to life.

Since 1996 the Linsly School has adopted themes for every single year. I remember when I attended school the theme was, “Never, never, never, quit” by Winston Churchill. Today the school is doing a theme that Noah Linsly trademarked, “Forward and No Retreat”.

This school has been facing forward for 200 years. This school has had a 100 percent placement of graduates into colleges and universities throughout the United States. This school enrolls 440 students and is the reason why I'm able to stand here today. The education I received was second to none. Thanks to the men that are standing here with us today to be honored.

Mr. President, I ask that we adopt the resolution.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Recognizing Linsly School

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 33)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT J. FITZSIMMONS

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

SENATOR FITZSIMMONS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I, also, rise in support of the resolution despite being a graduate of rival Wheeling Central Catholic High School.

As the Junior Senator from the Eighth said, indeed, Linsly is one of the finest academic institutions in the state and they have a national reputation for academic excellence. Their students go on to do great things in academia, sports and in the professional world.

And, Mr. President, I often times boast throughout the state that my district has one of the finest educational systems in the state and, in large part, Linsly is one of the reasons I am able to say that.

I also urge adoption of the resolution.

Regulating sale of drug products used in manufacture of methamphetamine

Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 6)*

HONORABLE
CLARK S. BARNES

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mr. President.

The comments of the Chairman are greatly appreciated and for much of what he says there certainly is no argument. We have a tremendous problem with meth. Question is, whether or not what we are doing, how we are going about it, is it the right way? How should we do it?

I rise in opposition to this bill for several reasons. I'm certainly not opposed to doing something about meth because it is a huge problem in the State of West Virginia.

The number one reason I rise in opposition is because we're making it a prescription drug which means we are turning it over to the medical community. The number one drug problem in West Virginia is prescription pain medication. It certainly doesn't take a great deal of thought to realize that when your number one problem is already in the hands of the medical community, then we may not be solving the problem by turning the meth problem over to the medical community.

Secondly, one of the things that's been discussed at great length also is the NPLEx System that just went into service in 2013. Let me comment on the Chairman's numbers of how the meth labs that we have discovered have doubled in the last year. Well, it's quite simple. We've given law enforcement the tools to work with, so they actually found the meth labs. In Upshur County, that I represent, 67 labs were uncovered, 67 drug arrests were made and half of them was because of the NPLEx System.

As we know, the NPLEx System is not going to be able to be utilized in West Virginia if and when we pass this legislation. I think that's dangerous. The Sheriffs' Association met last week and although they had taken a firm stand for prescription-only Sudafed, it's my understanding that they came away with a vote that says they are no longer taking a position on it simply because of the NPLEx System. Very important, very important issue. What this does is this makes this move underground just like our prescription pain medication is already. We don't have a handle on what moves underground.

The third point I want to make is this, Mr. President. The Chairman's amendment of today and his assessment from yesterday that gun rights will not be impacted under this bill is still up for debate. At best, it is still an open question.

Federal law prohibits unlawful possessors of controlled substances from possessing firearms. While pseudoephedrine is not a controlled substance on the federal schedule, it is a List 1 Chemical. It's defined as a substance used in the manufacture of a controlled substance. As a practical matter, if a person would be charged or convicted of a misdemeanor offense under Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 6 (Regulating sale of drug products used in manufacture of methamphetamine), to say nothing of a second offense felony indictment, they will appear on criminal background check databases. When a person attempts to purchase a firearm, they will, at a minimum, be red-flagged and their purchase may be delayed. In some instances, it may depend on the mood of the FBI employee running the background check.

Mr. President, it requires no imagination to envision Mr. Eric Holder and the President's Justice Department interpreting federal law in a way to deny gun rights to West Virginians affected by Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 6. No federal court, that our brief research could uncover, has ruled on this issue of whether a state-level controlled substance conviction could be used to deny a person's gun rights.

We would be only the third state to do this. The test case may very well come from West Virginia. Stating that there will be no consequence to gun rights under this bill is to place a great amount of faith in the Obama administration and the U. S. Justice Department to protect our gun rights.

Although well intended, I urge defeat of the bill.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Regulating sale of drug products used in manufacture of methamphetamine

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 6)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE DAVE SYPOLT

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

SENATOR SYPOLT: Thank you, Mr. President.

Just a quick comment. I had a few questions yesterday on second reading. I'll disclaim my remarks by saying that I do not sit on the committees that this bill traveled through, so I didn't have an opportunity to discuss these concerns in committee.

However, under direct question to the Chairman yesterday when I asked about the effect of having a conviction of simple possession and the ability to purchase a firearm he said it was basically addressed by page fifteen. I believe it was line 22 of the bill, which says "Provided, That the provisions of subdivision (3), subsection (a), section seven, article seven, chapter sixty-one of this code are inapplicable to persons possessing ephedrine, pseudoephedrine or phenylpropranolamine which has been lawfully purchased in the jurisdiction of sale and which is possessed with the intent that it [is to] be used in the manner . . . [in which it was] . . . intended"

Well, it was brought to my attention, and I didn't realize this, that that section of the code is actually the section that deals with the purchasing and possession of handguns.

But, there is another section of code which is not addressed in the bill. That section of code is §61-7-4. I didn't know that until this morning, otherwise, I would have brought it up yesterday. It took me two days to contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation because unbeknownst to me, yesterday was a federal holiday. When I called, I was told that I would get a return phone call, which was about 10 o'clock this morning.

At any rate, as I talked to the FBI agent and asked him about the lawful possession of firearms if someone has been convicted of a misdemeanor offense. He said that, "Oh yeah, that could be a problem." I said, "But, there's an exemption, or a proviso, in our bill under consideration that would exempt that portion of code for ownership." He said, "Well, that's probably going to be a good thing, but have you thought about §61-7-4?" I said, "I really didn't think about that." §61-7-4 is the section of code which deals with concealed carry.

So, now it's conceivable and quite possibly true that, if a person had a conviction, even though it would be a misdemeanor conviction, because there's not an exemption under this bill for concealed carry that, in fact, the person requesting the permit to carry a weapon concealed would be denied based on that conviction even though it was only a misdemeanor.

So based on that, I would urge defeat of the bill or, at the very least, to have it laid over another day to be examined.

Thank you very much.

Requiring SSAC promulgate rules allowing college preparatory team recognition

(Adoption of amendment offered by Senator Walters to Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 540)

HONORABLE
LARRY J. EDGELL

Wednesday, February 19, 2014

SENATOR EDGELL: Mr. President, everybody, I seldom stand up and speak against bills, or for bills, but this one I am vehemently opposed to.

I've talked to the SSAC. I've talked to other coaches. I coached for 15 years. The SSAC has rules. We shouldn't be interfering in those particular rules.

This bill addresses another object, which I think is probably a good idea because they're allowed to play three games and not play in the state tournament.

Private schools, some of them are members of the SSAC, but they abide by all of the rules of the SSAC. Linsly was offered an opportunity to do that and they refused to abide by the rules of the SSAC. We don't want to open up the door and let everybody open up a school and play in the SSAC.

So, I oppose this amendment.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT H. PLYMALE

Wednesday, February 19, 2014

SENATOR PLYMALE: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rarely rise to speak, but I think it's important that I talk and bring up a subject that we need to do something about this year.

As you know, I have a family member that's been ill and I'm driving back and forth between here and Huntington, or here and Wayne County, and I want to talk about the roads.

Our roads are in the worst shape that I've seen in awhile. If we don't do something for a spring paving cycle of some sort—I am concerned about the repercussions. About six or eight years ago we were on a 12 1/2-year paving cycle. By action by this body, we finally got us to about a 24-year paving cycle, but we're now back up to a 33-year paving cycle.

I don't know how much it's going to cost. I would say it's going to be between $20 and $25 million to be able to do the appropriate spring paving cycle. But we've got to find something, even if it is in the Rainy Day Fund, because this is a rainy day for our roads. If our roads are not kept and maintained, we're going to run into problems, such as economic development, as we move forward.

So, I would urge, Mr. President, that we try to do everything we can before we leave here to have some kind of paving cycle for this spring.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
WILLIAM COLE

Wednesday, February 19, 2014

SENATOR COLE: Thank you, Mr. President.

First of all, to my colleagues, thank you so much for the kind introductions you all offered my fellow car dealers today.

I wanted to share some statistics with you about the car business and how important it is to the economy of our state. There are 150 car dealers—new car dealers—in West Virginia. They represent $3.9 billion in sales. That's 14 percent of the total retail sales in this state. We employ 6,712 employees. That's an average of 45 employees per dealership. We have a $300 million payroll. That's over $45,000 per employee on average which is double the state average.

Car dealers, as all of you are aware, are major donors, supporters of their local economies. We're the first one to get called on for the elementary school yearbook all the way up, including high school. We sponsor every bowling team, every soccer team, every softball team. Anytime there's a parade, we get calls for all the convertibles we have to show up for the parades. We support Project Graduation. Maybe, more importantly, car dealers do things like endow education chairs or help raise funds or provide the funds for adding hospital wings.

We support our local media. You can't turn the TV on and not see somebody on there yelling at you to come buy a car. You know, we talk about one job affecting seven, well, consider your local media. Not only is it the tv and the radio stations but, I dare say, print advertising as we know it wouldn't be here if it wasn't for the full page color ads you see every single day from a car dealer in the newspaper.

I'm proud of my fellow dealers. I'm proud of the taxes that they pay—that they put into our economy. It's the taxes not only from good-paying jobs, but it's the taxes they pay as corporations. It's the fees they generate. Now, I'm not going to take credit for these, but the use tax, the privilege tax, for all the $3.9 billion in car sales, that generates an incredible amount of income for West Virginia.

So, I think that what my message is is that I'm proud of the part that car dealers play in our economy and I want you guys to be as well. When they show up at your door saying, "This is important to us", pay attention to them. Give credence to what they're asking—whether it's this year, next year or any time in the future. It's an incredibly important part of our state economy.

Mr. President, we're two thirds of the way through our session. It's no secret that we have a budget crisis. I wouldn't trade places with our Finance chair for any money in the world. I can't fathom the pressure that he's under. I'm not even on Finance and, yet, everybody that comes through my office says, "Please don't cut my program." Well, what programs are we talking about? Is there a single bad one? Don't cut funding for the seniors. Don't cut funding for the kids. Don't cut funding for the animals. It's always somebody or something that can't take care of themselves. We have to support higher education—education in general. We have to do all these things. I don't sleep well at night thinking about all the people that we have to say no to.

I have a saying that I use in business and it's "You can't save your way into prosperity." What we've done is continue to try to save our way to prosperity. We've cut seven and a half percent. We cut 15 percent. My worries about that is that it has about run its course, I think. I'm not going to stand here and say I don't think there's any waste in government. I think there's plenty, but it's time to get out a scalpel and actually make some changes in how we do things and not just say cut your budget back a little bit this year—everybody sort of suck it up.

I think everybody in this chamber would agree that we need jobs. We need to start to grow the top line. We need to start to grow the top line revenue. We all talk a good game about needing jobs. I would suggest that the time is now to advance the cause of job creation—not talk a good game but play a good game.

As usual, the bills—the bills that I'm talking about—the tort reform, the tax reform, the pro job, pro small business bills are all out there. They're in the hopper. But somehow, to my knowledge, not a single one of them has made it onto a committee's agenda.

You know, I understand that there's philosophical differences in what's behind bills. But when it's really time, when we've really done everything else we can do, then it's time to create some jobs and make us at least competitive with the states around us so we can compete for those jobs. I'm in a border county down south. I watch the jobs constantly go across the border to Virginia because Virginia is aggressive at it. They do a good job for their business people.

I honestly believe that it's time to do something different. I'm asking that we put those bills on the agenda—that we argue them good, bad, left, right, up, down. But let's put them out in public and talk about them. Let's consider both sides. I don't claim to have all the answers. I don't think anybody in here does. But if we have a good idea, let's work on it and make it a great idea or at least make it an idea that we can all get our arms around and begin to move our state in the proper direction.

You know, we got the announcement of the cracker plant and I have to tell you I'm proud of our Governor. I truly am. If that thing comes to fruition, that's huge. I think he called it a game changer and he's right.

But here's my question: What were the deals that had to be made in order to entice them to make this investment or to consider making the investment? Whatever they were, they're what we need to enact in legislation because it was the things that leveled the playing field. That's all we did was level the playing field. So, I think it's important that if it takes A, B and C to entice a company to come here and make an investment that we make it right for every company that would want to come here and make an investment.

And more importantly, we don't forget companies that are already here that are struggling every single day under the load that we put them under. We always talk about economic development, economic developments always go outside the state and bring somebody in. Let's not forget about the ones that are here that we're riding pretty hard right now as we try and hang in there on the state budget.

Mr. President, I would respectfully urge that you and your leadership team please advance these bills so that we may advance the cause of West Virginia.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DONALD H. COOKMAN

Wednesday, February 19, 2014

SENATOR COOKMAN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise for two things. First of all, I want to thank you, Mr. President, for allowing the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and the Blind Tapestry and Mountain Melodies to perform for us here today. I know my request came at the last moment and you were very gracious in accommodating that request and I appreciate your help, the help from your office and as well as the Doorkeeper in helping to get that together.

The state's Schools for the Deaf and the Blind—I started to say it's my pleasure and the pleasure of the Senior Senator from the Fifteenth to introduce them to you. But really when you think about it, I should say it's my pleasure and the pleasure of all the other Senators in this room to have this group here with us today because the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and the Blind is truly a state school. The students that are here today come from all over the State of West Virginia so each of you represent some of them, or more than one of them, at the school.

I just want to end my comments concerning this and I have another comment to make as well. But to end my comment in regard to the students that performed here today—you heard their school song and their director, Josh Haza, actually, I think, he is the one that's responsible for that, but I think it's very telling and very important for everyone to consider. The students sang and I don't know whether you caught it or not, but some of them cannot see the rhododendron bloom, others cannot hear the cardinal sing. This school helps those young people that cannot see the rhododendron bloom and cannot hear the cardinal sing. Hopefully, everyone in this chamber is supportive of the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and the Blind. I know you are. It's in Romney, Hampshire County. But, it's truly a state school.

So, I, again, Mr. President, thank you for allowing them to perform here today.

The second reason that I stand is a little bit more somber, I guess, and that is that I introduced a bill, Senate Bill No. 567 (Redesignating Division of Corrections as Department of Corrections), a few days ago that would consolidate basically four different agencies under one umbrella under the Department of Corrections. It's created quite a firestorm throughout the Senate, I understand.

A lot of people have gotten calls from back home, particularly from county commissioners, saying that, "Oh, my gracious. If you do that, it's going to increase our per diem, our jail bill." I just want to let everybody know here today—thank you, that's all I've got—I wanted to walk.

Anyway, I wanted all the Senators to know that I stand here as probably the biggest supporter, or one of the biggest supporters, in this room of making certain that the per diem for our regional jails that are paid for by our county commissions throughout the state are kept low. I agree with most everybody in this room. I think that that is very important when we go around our districts and talk to our county commissioners and ask them what their number one problem is. They almost unanimously say the regional jail bill. And so, I'm very cognizant of that fact.

But Senate Bill No. 567 will not do that. It is not going to increase the per diem. I think it's just a scare tactic to get some people to oppose the bill. So, basically, I'm asking that, as this bill goes through the legislative process, that everybody keep an open mind and listen to the pros and cons of Senate Bill No. 567 and see whether or not we should join 36 other states in the country that have a Commissioner of Corrections that would be similar to ours that is in this bill. Like I said, there are 36 other states that have cabinet-level secretaries designated for corrections and we would just join those other states.

So, please keep an open mind in regard to this bill as it goes through the legislative process.

Thank you very much.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
HERB SNYDER

Thursday, February 20, 2014

SENATOR SNYDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'll try to be as brief as possible. Many of you probably wonder what this handout is on your desk and I'm going to tell you in just a minute.

A number of days ago—seems like weeks ago, maybe a month or more ago—Senate Bill No. 368 (Repealing article relating to unfair trade practices) on unfair trade practices was introduced in this body. I spoke to it that day about the 1939 law. Franklin D. Roosevelt was President and, in fact, gasoline was 10 cents a gallon. It was eight years before Robert C. Byrd—the great Robert C. Byrd—became a member of the West Virginia House of Delegates. You remember that speech.

Then, it wasn't much longer I put on your desk a handout about the 30 cent difference in gas prices in the Eastern Panhandle. So, there has been a lot of discussion. All of you are very, very aware of those discussions.

Also, I left on your desk, without much of a speech, the economist's report about unfair trade laws, particularly when they're setting mandated percentages above a certain retail or wholesale price. They increase prices.

Also, many of you have shared copies of the lawsuits that have been filed. This all really started about 1995. There are many of those. We don't know how many lawsuits there have been.

But, Mr. President, just very recently when there was discussion about putting this bill on the Judiciary agenda, where it's single referenced, the oil marketers have—as they should—have come here to let us know what they think—they don't like the bill. They don't want it repealed or tampered with. In fact, the oil marketers had a reception at the Mansion last night—appropriate timing—so I'm sure a lot of you talked to them. By the way, I was told that the truckers kind of liked the bill. But at the same time, what they're against in this, they don't want to compete with each other. That's what this is about.

The Judiciary chairman has given me great deference in working with me on how to do this—we subcommitteeed it and so forth. But they don't want this tinkered with. Now what would happen? What are they afraid of? What are they afraid of? They'll have to, in the open market without these artificial price controls, they'll have to compete with each other. The very group that lobbied you in your offices a lot yesterday will have to compete with each other. What a thought in America that the open, free market would prevail.

Clearly, you know, this started my interest in this. There's a tremendous price increase between the Eastern Panhandle and the rest of the state. There is. The difference has fluctuated down during this discussion. That's a good thing. But your area is not immune to this. If you think you are, I'm going to tell you why you're not.

In 1995 this unfair trade practice (§47-11A) was used in Kanawha County when Go-Mart came. They were sued by the wholesalers at that time. They said Go-Mart couldn't sell cheaper gas. At the same exact time, the gasoline wholesaler in the Martinsburg, Berkeley County area, sued Sheetz. They both won under this law. What happened? Sheetz and Go-Mart had to raise their gas prices. Now did the public know what was happening there? This was back in '95. Now, this has happened over and over and over in different parts of the state.

They have a lawsuit in Nicholas County where Go-Mart sued U-Save. A 110-store chain sued a little four-store chain. In order to compete, that little four-store chain had the audacity to lower gas prices to get people in the door. It was sued and had to raise its gas prices.

Now, who loses here? Certainly the oil marketers have had a very dominant, great presence here. You're getting calls from those people. I remind you, they are in the oil marketing business, every one of them.

Mr. President, this bill is not about those people and whether they're going to compete with each other as this bill would make it the open, free market.

Mr. President, this bill is about the 99.9 percent of West Virginians that aren't making profits from the sale of gasoline and fuels. This bill is clearly about the citizens of West Virginia, to give them the opportunity to buy the least expensive gas on the open market without artificial control by law. It's not a question of will they use §47-11A to inflate prices—they have.

Let me use another example that I found out yesterday. I met a young lady from a very large convenience store chain—has a store over in Parkersburg. This is not just an Eastern Panhandle issue, Mr. President. It has spread and it will come to your area if this law stays on the books. In Parkersburg, Sam's Club opened and they sell gas. Well, Sam's is selling pretty cheap gas and I'm sure the people in Parkersburg like that. They were sued and had to raise their gas prices.

The public generally doesn't know what's happening, but now that you know, now that you know We're nearing the end of session and this has been discussed. This bill is about the 99.9 percent of West Virginians that are paying those gas prices. Small businesses, families, truckers, everyone, is affected by this law.

I just ask that you consider that 99.9 percent of West Virginians when you make up your mind about this bill.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DAVE SYPOLT

Thursday, February 20, 2014

SENATOR SYPOLT: Thank you, Mr. President.

Even though there wasn't a resolution adopted on the floor today recognizing homeschooling, I'd just like to mention a few things. Today is Homeschoolers' Day and you'll see that there are several displays out in the rotunda.

Homeschooling, of course, is not for everyone, but for those who choose that route, there are several reasons why they choose it.

In 1997, there was a study done of homeschooled students and they found that, on average, the homeschooled students out-performed their public school counterparts by 30 to 37 percent. In West Virginia, over 400 homeschooled students, grades K-12, were tested with the Stanford Achievement Test at the end of the 1989-90 school year. The results found that the typical homeschooled student in eight of these grade levels scored somewhat above average, which is 61 to 73 percent, compared to the performance of students at the same grade levels across the country. Two grade levels scored above average, that's 80 to 85 percent, and three grade levels scored about average, still 54 to 59 percent.

Now, the state departments of education across the nation have statistics on homeschooling in their home states also. Tennessee, Alaska, Oregon, North Carolina, Arkansas, Arizona and Nebraska all have had similar studies and found that on average homeschooled students score above average in nearly every category.

Now, putting academics aside for a moment, many parents prefer not to subject their children to the prejudices, bullying and the ill behavior found in many public school settings.

So, today, I only ask the members of the body to take a few minutes to reflect upon the many reasons that some parents decide to homeschool or to private school their children and to resolve not to ostracize those who just want the best for their families. Furthermore, I would say to the families for which homeschooling or private schooling is not really an option, let us come together to improve our public school system to make it the best it can be for everyone out there.

Now, I don't know, Mr. President, if any homeschooled students or parents are still in the gallery, but if they are, I would welcome any of them to stand up and be recognized and thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

Thursday, February 20, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I just want to follow-up my friend from Jefferson regarding our free trade protection laws. I know that he is passionate and really believes in what he's read and what he'd like to see us do. I love it when someone gets an idea and they believe that it's absolutely the right thing. I know a number of us really have a concern over this and I'm one of those. I'm not sure I agree. I'm not sure that it is the right thing to do right now.

What I do believe is that differing minds and differing ideas are how we get to the best answer. I think that it's a subject we ought to look at and it's something that, maybe, we need to study because it's a national discussion right now. The Time Warner and Comcast merger has really brought this discussion up. Big and big getting bigger. Does that necessarily help the people? Anticipation is that all cable costs will go up. We always talk about small businesses in West Virginia and what to do to help them. I believe we have a lot of small businesses that could be harmed if we take this action.

I worry about Ace Hardware in my neighborhood competing with Lowe's and Home Depot. I worry about Food Fresh staying open in face of competing with Sam's.

You know, the big box stores have the advantage on a volume basis. If this rule and this law regarding free trade stays in place, it helps a number of these small businesses. I don't believe it's just about the oil marketers. I don't believe it's just about gasoline. I think it's about a lot of small mom-and-pop industries, little shops and stores. We need to make sure we're not harming them if we take this action.

So, while I'm applauding him for his passion and his belief in this, I would stress caution and, yes, I think we ought to study it and look at it. About half our states have this; half of our states don't. Let's look at the two scenarios and see if getting rid of this really helps small businesses. I think that ought to be our number one concern and goal here. We need to give our small businesses every advantage that we can to survive.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DOUGLAS E. FACEMIRE

Thursday, February 20, 2014

SENATOR FACEMIRE: Thank you, Mr. President.

You know, this is one of these issues that I feel like I'm fairly knowledgeable about. I am a retailer and I have stores across the state and I compete with the Wal-Marts and the Kroger's and people like that of the world.

You are right, there might be some protection to small businesses here, but in reality, I don't believe so. The problem with this bill as it's written is a seven percent of cost. You can't sell below seven percent of cost-determined cost. No company has the same costs. If you're a big company, you have your own warehouse, you have your own distribution centers and so on and so forth. Your cost is always going to be cheaper than the small businessman. That's just a truth of this matter.

I've tried to fight this a couple times on different issues and what I've found out is the big boys sell cheaper because they buy cheaper. But, the one thing that we have to remember here as legislators, our foremost opinion should be what is the best for the citizens. Anytime that there's a bill in place that forces people to sell at a higher profit than they want to is not healthy for the citizens. And, guys, if you think this bill has stopped anything just look around over the past few years. The big boys are getting bigger and the smaller guys are going away. This bill offers no protection for them. But, what it does offer is for the citizens of our state to have to pay more money.

Like I said earlier, this is something I do know about. I've been in the retail business for 32 years. I started out with one small store and was able to build a smaller chain here.

But, the point of the matter is, we owe it to the citizens of our state to open up a system where a real capitalist market takes place. We all complain about the fair and unfair trade rules that our country has to face when doing business across the seas. It's the same thing today. The only thing this law does is really let the big boys get bigger and the small people suffer because they will always have a better cost of goods. The way the bill is written it really does not offer protection. Let's stop and think who's in here complaining. A lot of it is the big guys.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Designating Higher Education Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 36)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT H. PLYMALE

Friday, February 21, 2014

SENATOR PLYMALE: Thank you, Mr. President.

The demand for higher education has never been higher. Higher education is an economic engine and is a strategic asset for our state.

The state investment in higher education has declined over recent years. In 2000 and 2001, according to the SREB (Southern Regional Education Board) averages, West Virginia contributed 58.47 percent in FTE (full-time equivalent) support to the institutions. The SREB average at the time was 66 percent. In 2011 and 2012, the FTE support in West Virginia went to an all-time low of 34.51 percent. We are now one of the lowest states in the SREB.

The Senator from Marion and others, including myself, introduced a resolution, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 18 (Recognizing additional higher education funding cuts to be detrimental) that states we need to stop further cuts to higher education. The additional costs have been absorbed by the students through tuition rates and rising student debt. This combination of decreased state funding and increased costs to students and their families has a detrimental effect on the needs of our economy and our workforce.

West Virginia needs more graduates to be sustainable. West Virginia's high school population is declining—leading to a decline in potential traditional college students. It is projected that by 2018-19 high school graduates will decline by 1,000.

Despite the declining input, the economic demand for degree-holding citizens is high. According to the Carnevale report from Georgetown University, West Virginia needs to produce an initial 20,000 college graduates to sustain its current economy. With respect to educational attainment, in 2005, West Virginia ranked 16th out of 16 states and 50th nationally. In order to reach the national average of college graduates, we would have to create or import 117,984 college graduates. I think these numbers are very dismal. When you look at it, this body has continued, over the last 10 years, to cut, cut and cut higher education. We need to stand unified and stop.

Adults with higher levels of education are more active than others. This is from an obesity standpoint. College education leads to healthier lifestyles, reducing health care costs. The gap between smoking rates in four-year college graduates and high school graduates was 17 points in 2012. College-educated adults are less likely than others to be obese. Children living in households with more educated parents are less likely than other children to be obese.

College-educated mothers spend more time with children and alter the composition of that time to suit children's developmental needs more than less-educated mothers. It is a fact that, if a mother is a college graduate, then her children will most likely have a higher degree and not be in poverty and things like that.

Believe me, it's time that we finally stand and say, "No more cuts to higher education."

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ART KIRKENDOLL

Tuesday, February 25, 2014

SENATOR KIRKENDOLL: Thank you, Mr. President.

I just want to talk about a piece of legislation that didn't make it. Sometimes, maybe by not making it, a body like this finds a reason why and, maybe next time, will get it done.

As you know, my senior Senator is also a doctor. We have been meeting with people back in our area about a behavioral unit, or a geriatric psych facility, and the potential to have one. The dialogue with these people went well. This privatized person was willing to spend about $6.5 million in an existing industrial park in southern West Virginia to actually take care of people that West Virginia doesn't take care of anyway. We have some people with behavioral problems that are lodged in nursing homes, creating quite a stir and quite a problem for these people to facilitate.

So, during the process, we put together a bill. My colleagues and my senior Senator got it through the committees and did it right. When it got to where it needed to be, the last stop was the Finance committee—nothing against Finance—but we were told there were some issues because of the Fiscal Note, possibly. We also noted that there were some questions about . . . back in the 70s there was a moratorium put on nursing homes and hospital facilities regarding the number of beds that were available for people that need it. So, with all these questions coming up, naturally, this bill came to a screeching halt.

I would ask that this body find a way. We're dealing, sometimes—this is 2014—with issues that were put together by moratoriums and different things three decades ago that simply don't apply now.

Different parts of the state have different needs and requirements. In my area, we have, if you study the numbers in West Virginia, the most advanced aged population in the state. If you check the numbers of injured and somewhat injured retirees with problems due to the industries they worked in—the timber, the coal and all this—they have more of a medical need than other parts of the state.

What I'm simply trying to say is, we have medical situations that we deal with on a state level and a federal level. We study numbers in groups. We don't study needs in locations. Then we'll find out in the Senate that the Eastern Panhandle or somewhere else has different needs than we do. So, I have to step up as a legislator and make sure that I make a proper vote to help the people in that particular area.

In my area, I found out that we have huge nursing home problems, assisted living problems and, in this case, a gentleman who was willing to spend his money and we could not supply because of what's going on today and the rules and regulations . . . a certificate of need to properly let him establish 70 quality jobs—high-paying jobs with insurance—and had this worked at the industrial park, he was looking at another parcel of property to put in a long-term, short-term drug rehab. All of that is totally now on hold. We don't have either of them in this state.

So, I guess what I'm trying to say is, you've got nursing home problems, you've got medical problems and, just like we heard, the gentleman from Beckley put a request in to do a study about putting a hospital in Beckley. Now, what kind of hurdles is he going to run into once the property is given from the Agriculture Department to the state, which defrays a lot of cost?

I would ask that, sometime during interims, we do a complete study. Let's quit doing the norm year after year about the needs of West Virginia people. If we have people in one certain area that needs, let's find out how many beds they have. I guarantee you the numbers change in my county alone. I used to have three major hospitals. We've got one. My senior Senator, Boone County used to have a tremendously huge-sized hospital. It's downscaled. So, these numbers have changed, but yet, the certificate of need is on hold because of some of these rules and regulations from the 1970s.

Let's make West Virginia special for the people that have come through and worked and earned and paid their taxes and now they either need to be in an assisted living program, a nursing home and, what I was talking about, a behavioral unit or a geriatric psych ward or whatever you want to call it. Let's give these people the quality of life they need by looking at antiquated rules on the books, do a complete study to where everybody in this Legislature knows what we need to do. This gentleman wasn't asking for one quarter of state money.

But, yet, in my area he would have supplied needs for medically ill people and 70 quality jobs. Now, I've got to go back home as a legislator and tell him I couldn't get it done not because you guys didn't want to help, but because we had existing laws that sometime in the last few years we didn't need to address.

So, I guess it's a good thing we found out that I couldn't get this accomplished. I know the hurdles now for the next time that we put this together. Hopefully we'll put a study resolution together and maybe with these issues it may next time be one of my colleagues over here with the same type of interpretation that we can make it work.

So, I guess in closing, I want to thank all you guys for your work and your efforts to help me and my senior Senator have a quality health facility in our county and for the springboard of not getting it, maybe we can learn how to fix some of these things, find out our deficiencies, get rid of some of these antiquated rules and laws that we just take for granted because they will get you when you get to that certain point.

This bill was so readily absorbed in Health and the other committee it came through. People said, "Oh, sounds great." But, when it got to this hurdle it couldn't get over it and it died.

So, I'm asking that we look at it, Mr. President, and see if we can do something in the future that gives our people a better quality of life in West Virginia.

Thank you for your time.

Designating Nurses Unity Day

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 38)

REMARKS OF HONORABLE RONALD F. MILLER

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR MILLER: Today, we honor one of those professions that, as a society, we take for granted. I'm talking about nursing.

Most of us picture this person as a woman dressed in white with a funny shaped hat and a frumpy attitude. We assume that this person empties bedpans and follows around a physician as they make their rounds. How far from the truth we are.

Nurses today are both men and women. They wear scrubs and work as a partner most times, often with other medical professions, in the care of the patients.

They are the first line of health care delivery in hospitals and nursing homes. They are trained to make split second decisions that often determine the living or dying of a patient in their care.

They work long hours without a lot of respect at times. They may work 12 to 16 hours in a day. During that time they may witness firsthand the agony of a frightened parent as their two-year-old is struggling to breathe or they may find the next moment working through the sorrow of helping a young wife arrange to have the organs of her husband, who has just been killed in a car accident, donated or they may sit and hold the hand of an elderly gentleman who is slipping away to death by himself because there is no one left in the family.

While these may be part of their day, during that time they are also working to monitor patients. They are looking to make sure that medications are working or flowing or doing what they must. They are taking vitals and admissions and making sure their patients are in the best of care. They've spent three fourths of that day on their feet with legs that are aching and they still have to chart all the events that have taken place during the shift.

At the end of the shift, with some of the most basic decisions of life and death and journeys of sorrow and excitement that come with the job, they must come home to be a husband or a wife to a family. The kids may have already gone to bed. The spouse has had a busy day of his or her own and there may always be the call from a family member wanting to know if this new medication is okay to take or my son has a rash on his arm—what does that mean?

Why do I know about nursing? I married a nurse. I know of her hard work and dedicated work. She often is not too concerned about my sore muscles or my small cut because she's been in the middle of life and death all day without panic—making decisions without panic. She determines whether folks in her care often survive.

This profession is a proud and hard-working group who do not ask for praise. They deserve our respect and our support as we honor them as professionals who help lead our nation in quality health care giving.

Today, I urge adoption of this resolution and I urge support of the nurses who are with us this day.

Proposing constitutional amendment designated Right to Hunt and Fish in WV Amendment

(Adoption of Senator Palumbo's amendment to Eng. Com. Sub. for Com. Sub. for Senate Joint Resolution No. 10)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CLARK S. BARNES

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you.

I rise really in concern for the amendment. In the piece of legislation that we have, prior to the amendment, there is a provision that says, "This section shall not be construed to modify any provision of law relating to eminent domain, trespass" of "property rights."

I hunt and I fish and I believe that West Virginians constitutionally already are the recipients and the owners of the wildlife, game and fish in this state. I believe that's a constitutional guarantee. I want to protect those rights of West Virginians, but I'm very concerned about the rights of private landownership.

You know, many of our ancestors came over here back before this country was a country. One of the reasons they were trying to escape the feudal system in whichever country they came from was because the king owned all the property. The king owned all the land. The king owned all the game. It certainly was a hard road for those who came across the oceans to this land. One of the primary reasons that they came was so they could own their own land. They would have the right to say what was done on that land, who could be on that land. What I fear in this amendment is that we are trumping those private property rights which our ancestors were so concerned about.

Mr. President, I'm not urging fellow members to vote one way or the other, but I did want to express my concerns. I don't believe that the right to hunt and fish trumps private property rights.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE GREEN
AND
HONORABLE
ROMAN W. PREZIOSO, JR.

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

Would the Senator from Marion yield, please?

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Senator yield? Senator yields.

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. President.

Senator, I voted against the amendment and I'm not sure if I should have or not. We had lengthy discussions in Finance. I know we had representatives from the NRA as well as representatives from the Division of Natural Resources. We were back and forth as far as what we were actually working on, which version of the resolution. Eventually, we passed the resolution out of Finance that the NRA was in agreement with and the representatives from the Division of Natural Resources.

Currently, now with the amended version, where are we at and what resolution do we have in front of us in reference to our conversations upstairs?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: As you well know, Senator, we had a lot of discussion. The resolution was on the agenda and off the agenda. All the interested parties worked and we thought, when the resolution did get to the Finance committee agenda, that we had an amendment that was agreed upon. Once it was set down, from what I understand, there was further perfection to the amendment, which the Senator from Kanawha then introduced. The new version of what the interested parties agreed on—far as I know, it's been agreed on by all interested parties—the Senator from Kanawha intended.

I could read you the amendment as the Clerk read it.

SENATOR GREEN: No, thank you, Senator. I was just wanting to make sure because, obviously, we had a lot of debate upstairs which really wasn't about financial implications. We changed the resolution drastically and I was just wondering if we are back to the way the resolution came up to us . . .

SENATOR PREZIOSO: No.

SENATOR GREEN: . . . or at the place where we had agreement from the interested parties.

SENATOR PREZIOSO: Let me take you through the scenario of how the resolution evolved. When the resolution was introduced to the Judiciary committee, it was amended by adding just one more sentence. The resolution came to the Finance committee and all the interested parties got together and agreed on some language that was inserted into the Finance committee amendment and then it came down to the floor. The Finance committee amendment was further perfected by the Senator from Kanawha. From what I understand now, I think we've got the language right as it would appear on the 2014 ballot.

SENATOR GREEN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. President, thank you.

REMARKS OF
MIKE HALL
AND
HONORABLE
JOHN R. UNGER II

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: Would the Majority Leader yield?

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Senior Senator from Berkeley yield? Senator yields.

SENATOR M. HALL: In discussions prior to the floor session this morning, it was pointed out that some of the debate was on the language. Let me start with one that says for “the welfare of its citizens”. I understand there was one version that said “people”. It has went back and forth. Can you comment on that—the difference between “people” and “citizens”?

SENATOR UNGER: I don’t think it makes a difference one way or the other. Actually, when the amendment was drafted the Farm Bureau, landowners and all had indicated they would prefer “citizens” versus “people” because “citizens” is throughout the Constitution.

SENATOR M. HALL: So, “citizens” may be a better choice. People could also mean persons, which then expands—person then becomes a legal term for corporations and organizations and all kinds of things.

So, the intention was to limit it. Do you see what I’m saying?

SENATOR UNGER: Right.

SENATOR M. HALL: Did you all have any conversations about that?

SENATOR UNGER: Again, they were telling me that it’s one or the other, but they did indicate that “people” could expand it and also could expand it outside the State of West Virginia.

SENATOR M. HALL: So, that was the reason?

SENATOR UNGER: The fact that a “citizen” of the State of West Virginia says that you’re here—you live or you work here—also, businesses and farmers are included in that. But, if you use “people”, people is broad enough that one could argue that all people whether they are in West Virginia or not would have this protection. But the idea of this was to specifically claim it for West Virginia.

SENATOR M. HALL: Link it to the language “citizen” in the Constitution. One other question. When it says, “shall be protected, conserved, utilized and developed” I guess it assumes this, but who will do that?

SENATOR UNGER: Well, I think that any party that would be a citizen of West Virginia could bring this to bear because this is a constitutional right, but they would vote on it. I would imagine the State of West Virginia would be involved with protecting, conserving, utilizing and developing this resource for the benefit, enjoyment and general welfare of its citizens, but any citizen also could assert that right.

Also, I want to mention the idea of utilization and development. That brings in the fact that we have a natural resource that we’ve been very blessed with—a water resource that’s becoming more and more of a commodity on the international market.

Other states surrounding us do not have this, and this could be used as leverage to attract industry, manufacturing and other development of those industries that need to use this water to come to West Virginia and actually utilize it or develop it.

SENATOR M. HALL: So, what you’re saying is that this is not just a prerogative of the State of West Virginia to protect, conserve, utilize and develop, but it’s actually ensuring any citizen can?

SENATOR UNGER: Yes, if you look, it says the “welfare of its citizens consistent with and subject to the riparian rights and groundwater rights of the owners of real property”. So, if you look at the end, it has to be consistent with and subject to the present riparian rights and groundwater rights of the owners of real property.

So, if you really want to define what a citizen is, owners of real property would come in. They could be the ones that could assert this right as well.

SENATOR M. HALL: So, it would be limited to the owners of real property that could assert the right? Probably. They have the capacity because they own the property.

SENATOR UNGER: Yes, they are the only ones with the legal riparian rights.

SENATOR M. HALL: I guess when I see this and it says that, I see all kinds of things protecting, conserving, utilizing and developing—but you’re saying the state cannot say, “Hey, it’s our right to develop your water, Mr. Landowner. We supercede your right to develop it.”

SENATOR UNGER: I’ve been told, Senator, that that’s protected under another clause of eminent domain, but this particular one, no, the state cannot take that because we specifically have here, “consistent with and subject to the riparian rights and groundwater rights of the owners of real property”.

So, again, it’s really focusing in on the citizen and not the state.

SENATOR M. HALL: Okay, so the assumption is that the capacity of the state to conserve, utilize, develop and protect cannot supercede these rights that are delineated in the last line.

SENATOR UNGER: That’s right.

SENATOR M. HALL: Okay.

SENATOR UNGER: They cannot because it says it has to be consistent with and subject to those rights. So, it’s clear because the Constitution . . .

SENATOR M. HALL: Is the intent of the amendment then as it was originally expressed by you, dealing with the case in Maryland in terms of our struggle against sister states in terms of the rights of the waters of the State of West Virginia and you feel that this helps assert those rights?

The Attorney General came and talked to me about this. He said it would help a little. He didn’t say it would be a dramatic difference. Is that the intent though? It’s dealing more with these larger waterways of competitive struggles?

SENATOR UNGER: That’s correct. There are two cases. There is Maryland v. Virginia and also New York v. New Jersey. In those cases it was stated that there are three things a state needs to do to protect its water. One is to claim it for the rights of the citizens and that’s what we are doing here—that the water is the property of the citizens. Second, is the inventory, which we’ve done and third is to manage it or show some idea of managing it.

And so, in order to, any cases that go to the U. S. Supreme Court . . . that if you’re going up against another state or even if it’s a compact of states against us, we have some protection. Chesapeake Bay is one example of that. The headwaters start in West Virginia, but we do not have a seat on the Chesapeake Bay Compact. West Virginia doesn’t, but Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware do. And so, we’re just asserting our rights to our water.

SENATOR M. HALL: Okay. Just so the legislative intent can be understood to all future generations . . . the essential intent of this is to do what you just said: As the State of West Virginia, to make statements about these sort-of interstate battles. Could this constitutional amendment be used by future courts in some twisted kind of way—as courts do things—and take away the rights of the citizens in terms of their utilization of their water superceded by the state’s attempt to utilize?

I mean, we all know what happens when things are out there and how they can get twisted around. I think that’s why you had the Farm Bureau and the landowners come in and make these changes. We’ve done them in two or three days and this is going to be a constitutional amendment. It’s going to be there for a long time if it passes. So, I raise these questions to get it publicly stated for the future—our legislative intent here is not to do damage to our citizens and their rights, but rather to assert the right of the State of West Virginia and these matters that you just commented on.

SENATOR UNGER: That’s correct, Senator. Actually, what we’re voting on here is the amendment. It will go in, but ultimately we’ll be voting on the joint resolution to take it to the people and let them decide.

SENATOR M. HALL: Oh, I know that.

SENATOR UNGER: So, ultimately they’re going to decide if this amendment goes into the Constitution or not. You and some other members of this body had indicated that the present wording of it, what it used to be, wasn’t clear.

SENATOR M. HALL: This is clearer?

SENATOR UNGER: This clarifies it very well because it says it’s for the welfare, “general welfare of its citizens consistent with and subject to the riparian rights and groundwater rights of the owners of real property”.

SENATOR M. HALL: Right.

SENATOR UNGER: So, it does not capture it from the state, but it really takes it down to the citizens and their rights to the water.

SENATOR M. HALL: I just wanted it stated that I hope there are no surprises here, that we go across and people pick this apart and say, “Hey, this had an unintended consequence.” But, you’ve stated the intent. I think that’s good. I think the public can hear what that intent was and we can go with that. I just wanted to make sure that I stood up and addressed my concern that I’m not absolutely certain exactly what it does.

But it will go to the House and be considered further. If there are any problems, they will probably surface.

SENATOR UNGER: I appreciate that. Thank you.

SENATOR M. HALL: Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CRAIG BLAIR
AND
HONORABLE
JOHN R. UNGER II

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR BLAIR: Does the gentleman continue to yield?

MR. PRESIDENT: Will the Senior Senator from Berkeley yield? Senator yields.

SENATOR BLAIR: I commend you on the work that you have done here so far. I have a couple more questions for you just to make myself feel good more than anything.

Over the years, we have heard talk about whether groundwater can be taxed. If this amendment would be passed by the citizens of this state—the voters of this state—would this preclude the state from ever being able to tax the groundwater if it chose to do so by legislation? Would this amendment be able to do that?

SENATOR UNGER: This has nothing to do with taxing water or anything. If this body would pass legislation that would do that, we could do that now, but that's never been the intent. I've never heard anybody even recommend that or propose that.

SENATOR BLAIR: I understand that.

SENATOR UNGER: This does not touch that at all.

SENATOR BLAIR: So, this wouldn't exclude us from being able to do that if the citizens voted for that?

SENATOR UNGER: It wouldn't address that issue one way or another.

SENATOR BLAIR: Okay.

SENATOR UNGER: Although, I've got to say that it does assert, in a constitutional setting, the rights of the owners of real property, both riparian rights and groundwater rights that now primarily come from common law. This really asserts those rights, in the Constitution, to the water. The citizens will have a stronger foundation to fight for those rights because it would be constitutional.

SENATOR BLAIR: Two more questions. On the definition that says intended—and again these are from my concerns—out-of-state residents that own property in the State of West Virginia—this doesn't change anything for them?

SENATOR UNGER: No, it wouldn't change anything.

SENATOR BLAIR: Okay, now, tell me exactly how the title is going to read on the ballot.

SENATOR UNGER: Okay, sure. The title of it is going to be: Protecting and Conserving West Virginia's Water Resources for the Use and Benefit of its Citizens Amendment.

And then, the language will be: It shall be the policy of the State of West Virginia that the water resources of this state shall be protected, conserved, utilized and developed for the benefit, enjoyment and general welfare of its citizens consistent with and subject to the riparian rights and groundwater rights of the owners of real property.

That's what's going to be on the ballot.

SENATOR BLAIR: Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
BROOKS F. MCCABE, JR.

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR MCCABE: Mr. President, thank you.

I would like to make just a few comments about Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 391 (Providing salary increase for teachers and school service personnel)—the teacher salary and service employees pay increase—and also some reference to the salary increase for the forensic lab employees.

By passing this salary bill this afternoon we are in essence saying that we are comfortable putting in place pay raises on borrowed money. The money to balance the budget is probably going to come from some reserve account that we have in the state. Clearly, we don't have the revenues this year to match a salary increase.

That $34 million is really closer to $70 million or, maybe, even $100 million. We already know that next year we're going to have to go back again into some of our reserve accounts to balance the budget. What we don't know is two years from now, will we have to do the same thing? We are assuming not, but that is a real big assumption. From a conservative posture, the way I look at this, we have approved $100 million that we will spend out of borrowed dollars. That's the point I want to make. The reason why I didn't discuss this when the bill was before us is because I'm not challenging the need for salary increases, particularly for the teachers.

We've also got salary increases that we need for our social workers, right down the line. I mean there are dozens and dozens of cases where we know we have to provide salary increases.

We are grossly out of line, particularly on teacher salaries and we have to address that. We have kind of stuck our finger in the dike this year by putting in a modest, yet important, salary increase. We did it, in my opinion, on borrowed money.

What I would hope the Senate would do is, in the future, when we're posed with a salary increase, we look at it from the perspective of where is the money coming from. Do we have the money to spend and, most importantly, are we also addressing, at the same time, improvements in efficiency and effectiveness? We know that we have a lot of work to do in education. We have already done a lot, but we clearly have a long way to go.

We are spending billions and billions of dollars in this state on education. We know that to bring our teacher salaries up to the level that we need to have them it's going to cost us not $34 million but hundreds of millions of dollars to bring them somewhere in the middle of the pay scale of the states around us.

My question to the Senate is: Where is that money going to come from? It's hundreds of millions of dollars. If we would correct it today, instead of a $34 million funding, we would have a several hundred million dollar funding and that would have to go onto the base budget in the years ahead. We know that money is not there.

We need to figure out how to redefine, realign and rework education in a way that we can live within our means. We need to demand excellence and we need to be willing to pay for it. That means we have to have proper teacher salaries, but, at the same time, we have to be in a position to deal with it from a financial perspective.

I voted against the bill this morning because we voted on a pay increase that was necessary. We didn't have the money and, just as importantly, we made no attempt to really address the multiple issues that we know are before us in redefining and realigning education to make it work.

I know that the teachers, the organizations that support the teachers, are willing to come to the table, roll their sleeves up and absolutely address this issue. We may not need as many teachers or service employees in the future. If we don't have all the regulatory weight on their shoulders, if we don't have all the forms, all the documentation, we may not need as many administrators. We may be able to provide more efficient education in our classrooms, spend the dollars the way we need to and pay the teachers and the service personnel the way they ought to be paid.

This morning, we also passed Engrossed Committee Substitute for Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 486 (Establishing salaries and providing raises for State Police forensic lab employees) for the State Police forensic lab employees. Let me point out a difference between these two bills. That particular piece of legislation will cost us in excess of $500,000 this year and goes onto the base budget and that will go forward.

There's one big difference. We have a huge backlog sitting in our regional jails of individuals who have not had the forensic work done on their case so they cannot be brought up for trial. That cost is about $5 million a year. So, we are saddling our counties with jail costs—regional jail costs—to the tune of approximately $5 million more than they should have to pay if we had a properly staffed and efficient forensic lab. The half a million dollars that we're agreeing to spend during this session should save us the millions of dollars. It may be as much as $5 million. Much of that will be savings to our counties. That's the kind of pay raise that we ought to be focusing upon.

We know the needs are there. I'm in no way challenging the need for some of these pay increases. I'm just saying we have to match our need with our ability. We have to match our need with an improvement in efficiency, effectiveness and redesign in the system. When we give pay raises and we do not, at the same time, look at a redesign of the system, we are missing an opportunity.

I did not discuss this earlier today. I did not want to complicate the discussion of that particular bill because of the real need we have for these pay increases. But I want to point out to the Senate that, as we go forward, in my opinion, the leadership needs to come from the Senate. We've got the ability here, the expertise. We're saddling our Finance chairman with decisions that right now are among the worst of the alternatives. We're not putting in place a strategy. We're not putting in place a multi-year effort that allows the Senate Finance chairman, the Finance committee and the full Senate to address the issues before us financially.

They are significant. They are going to get worse and what we've done by passing this legislation earlier today is put the finger in the dike. We have not solved the long-term problem. From my perspective of knowing you ladies and gentlemen, the expertise is here. It's on our shoulders and we ought to go and get this solved. Hopefully, in the future when we have a salary increase, we will make sure we have the money in the bank and we'll make sure that we do a redesign of the system at the same time so efficiency and effectiveness increase as we go forward.

Thank you all.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ART KIRKENDOLL

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR KIRKENDOLL: Mr. President, on behalf of the Senator from Boone, I just want to remind everybody here that today is the anniversary of the Buffalo Creek Flood. Forty-two years ago it was a game changer. Over 100 people lost their lives. The dynamics were just totally changed. Always be mindful of that and try to prevent future catastrophes like it.

Also, I want to thank OSHA, MSA, DEP, a lot of our state and federal regulators. They got a lesson during that time frame and have made a lot of efforts to make sure that it doesn't happen again.

It stays pretty mindful back in Logan and it never goes away. We hope it never happens again.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DAVE SYPOLT

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

SENATOR SYPOLT: Thank you, Mr. President.

On behalf of the Senator from Taylor and myself, with respect to Senate Bill No. 473 (Providing undesirable highway property be offered for public utility use), I'd like to recognize the efforts of the Chair of Transportation, the Senator from Monongalia, and the Chair of Government Organization, the Senator from Jefferson, and you, Mr. President, the Senator from Marshall, the leader of our body.

Last Monday, I realized that a bill of importance to my constituents in Mineral County—the ones that are waiting to receive municipal water—had been overlooked. I spoke to the two chairmen and leadership on Monday, who each recognized its importance and agreed to help get this bill out.

Most probably didn't realize what took place, but during the afternoon session, we took a five-minute recess so Transportation and Infrastructure could meet. Then the Chairman of Government Organization agreed to waive that second reference. Then this body allowed and adopted a floor amendment.

Today, we passed the bill out. Although it's not a partisan bill by any means, I feel that it speaks volumes of this body to reach across the aisle and work together for the best interest of our constituents.

Not yet mentioned, but certainly noticed and greatly appreciated, Mr. President, were the efforts of the staff and the lawyers who worked with the Transportation and Infrastructure and Government Organization committees who, although they're charged with that duty to make sure that things happen the way they should, they certainly stepped up to cover my shortfalls and assured that everything happened in the right way and at the right time.

Mr. President, I do feel privileged and humbled to be a member of such an honorable body.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ART KIRKENDOLL

Thursday, February 27, 2014

SENATOR KIRKENDOLL: Mr. President, when I got to the office this morning, I was informed of an untimely death—Susan Hill.

When I first came here 28 months ago, I didn't know much about the secretarial pool.

Senator Browning told me about a lady, Miss Edens. She worked about two days. She had a grandchild she took care of and her nanny fell and broke her leg, so I didn't have a secretary.

Well, Miss Hill filled in quite admirably for myself and Senator Browning for numerous days until Miss Kitchen was interviewed and became my secretary. Before her untimely illness and now death, she also helped Senator Cann.

For the people who knew her, she was just a tremendous lady. She had an untimely fall and she never recovered. I just want this body to observe a moment of silence in reverence to her and her family and what they're going through. She will be sadly missed by all.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Friday, February 28, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President and members of the body.

You know, we often get requests to name bridges after constituents. Oftentimes, they are family members and, most often, they are folks who have had some degree of military service for our country.

I just wanted to take a moment to tell you a little bit about Adam, who is the reason we have this resolution today. His grandmother, Emma Johnson, along with another grandson, Chad Petersen, is in the back of the Chamber for this resolution.

Adam was killed in Iraq. He was just 19 years old. He went to Riverside High School. He graduated in 2003. After graduation, he followed in his grandfather's footsteps and enlisted in the Marine Corps—you can probably understand why considering that he was raised by his grandparents.

For those who have been in the Marine Corps, he was assigned to the 3rd Battalion, 2nd Marine Regiment, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force out of Camp Lejeune and was called to military action during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

He was killed by small-arms fire while conducting combat operations against enemy forces during Operation Spear on June 18, 2005. As I said, he was just 19 years old.

I just wanted to tell you a little bit about him because, oftentimes, we adopt these resolutions and it's just a name. I wanted to put a little bit more out there than just a name to this particular resolution.

I would urge adoption of Senate Resolution No. 42.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
WILLIAM R. LAIRD IV

Monday, March 3, 2014

SENATOR LAIRD: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise today to inform the Senate of the passing of a former member of this body—the Honorable Robert K. “Bob” Holliday from Fayette County. Former Senator Holliday died on Friday at Bowers Hospice House in Beckley at the age of 81. He is survived by his wife, Deborah Ann, seven children, eleven grandchildren and one brother.

To many of us from Fayette and Greenbrier counties, Bob Holliday has long been a political icon who represented the very best of what it meant to be a public servant. He served three terms in the House of Delegates from 1963 through 1968 before he was elected to the State Senate. He first served in the State Senate from 1969 through 1972 and was reelected as a highly respected member of this body during the period from 1981 through 1992.

During his tenure in this body, he served as Chairman of the Committee on Labor, the Committee on Education, the Committee on Interstate Cooperation and the Committee on Health and Human Resources. While there are but a few remaining members of this body who actually served with former Senator Bob Holliday, his legacy as a member of this body will always be secure.

Well before our current prison overpopulation problems, Senator Holliday was well known for his good work in undertaking the reform of our West Virginia prison system. He was an outspoken proponent of ending the death penalty in the mid-1960s.

He had a very keen interest in helping the sick and the poor and was quick in defense of the needs of the least among us. His compassion and concern for the needs of others made him a true and faithful servant of the people.

In reflecting on the service of former Senator Robert K. “Bob” Holliday, the words of Matthew 25:21 come to mind: “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.”

To the family of Senator Holliday, we extend our sorrow and regrets upon the occasion of his death. However, as a result of his life and the high principles of his belief, our State of West Virginia was made better as a result of his life.

Thank you, sir.

Memorializing life of Honorable
Robert K. “Bob” Holliday

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 44)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
RONALD F. MILLER

Tuesday, March 4, 2014

SENATOR MILLER: Thank you, Mr. President.

Robert K. Holliday left this world last week. A giant among us has departed.

Robert Holliday believed in the little person. It was the little person who kept him in office. He was not afraid to tilt at windmills of injustice. He was not afraid to take on the powers of wealth who seemed to control the people of our state. Bob Holliday fought everyday for the little people.

I hear a lot of talk in this body about the folks who live in the cottages with white picket fences. While we may talk about those cottages, Bob Holliday knew not only every cottage, but he knew well the people who lived in the rooms in those cottages behind the white picket fences.

In 1988 I made my first attempt into the world of politics in Greenbrier County.

Without a lot of funds, I decided to go door to door. I soon learned, as I would travel and work in my endeavor, that Robert Holliday had already been to those communities I would visit. This was a man serving in Charleston—a man who would come back into the district every weekend knocking on the doors of homes that were in the middle of nowhere.

I also learned, very quickly, that about every fifth person I encountered was not only going to fight and vote for Senator Holliday but they were also part of his advisory committee. I believe that must have been the largest committee I have ever encountered in my life.

Senator Holliday was a man of compassion. He was a man of passion. He was a servant of the people and he fought hard here in Charleston for the folks no one cared about. He was a hero to many.

I had an opportunity this past fall to attend a political rally along with you, Mr. President, where we honored Senator Bob Holliday. He acknowledged to all of us in his remarks that night that this would probably be his last political appearance because he knew he was ill. But the sparkle was still in his eyes and I truly do believe that fight was still in his spirit.

I am proud to represent the area that Senator Holliday was a part.

During my tenure here in the State Senate I have had to stand and say goodbye in this body to two great servants of the State of West Virginia from my district—Senator Ralph Williams and Senator Bob Holliday. What towers of leadership they were. The Senator from Fayette and myself are humble political figures when compared to these two persons. But we are very happy to have the privilege to know these servants and to represent the same folks they represented.

I appreciate the Senate taking time to listen to my remarks but also taking time to acknowledge this great man of West Virginia.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CHRIS WALTERS

SENATOR WALTERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

I will be brief in my remarks. I just wanted to talk about how great we've done here in the Senate dealing with a lot of issues this year, especially the Chairman of Finance and the Senator from Wayne, the Chair of Education, on our teacher pay raise. They were very diligent when it came to doing this. They looked at the best way, the best options to do it. And, of course, we look over at the House and see what they've done with it.

Every year, we're looking for ways to find money. Every year, we're looking for opportunities to do better, not just in every aspect of government, but also in our classrooms. That takes me to looking at what we can do to be more efficient. Efficiency and being stewards of money is something we are tasked to do as senators. There's a blaring thumb out there of inefficiency that we aren't taking on yet and I have a study resolution to look into doing that and that's the administrators and staff of RESAs in the Department of Education.

In talking to fellow members, I've heard there are over a thousand administrators who make $86,000 a year. Their staff makes over $60,000 a year. Mr. President, that's over $100 million in payments going out for people that are not in the classrooms teaching our students. With this pay raise being $34 million, we could easily have doubled that by looking at reforming our Department of Education and reforming our RESAs and finding out which employees really need to be there and comparing ratios across the nation as to administrators to students.

This ratio comparison is something we really need to look at. All across the United States you're seeing articles and reports about the student-to-administrator ratio—about the people who aren't in the classroom with our students. They are getting bigger and bigger. This bureaucracy is getting larger and larger everywhere. I know we had the school audit here in West Virginia, Mr. President; however, we really need to look at where we are compared to other states so we can find out how we are doing on our student-to-administrator ratio.

I want to encourage the members of this body to join with me on a study resolution to study the other states and how they're doing their administrator-to-student ratio and how we can look at it here in West Virginia.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
WILLIAM R. LAIRD IV

Wednesday, March 5, 2014

SENATOR LAIRD: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise today to speak on a matter of interest and concern to the citizens of the Upper Kanawha Valley portion of Fayette County. More specifically, I want to bring to your attention the concerns that I have related to the pending permanent closure of Hawks Nest Golf Course, a small nine-hole course located on U. S. Route 60 on Gauley Mountain in the Valley District of Fayette County.

While this matter may seem comparatively insignificant given most matters of public policy considered by this body, I am of the strong opinion and belief that the story of this little golf course is, in many ways, the story of Southern West Virginia and the continued decay and decline of our once proud and vibrant coal communities which contributed so much to the past industrial era economy of our great state.

By way of background, Hawks Nest Golf Course was constructed in 1937 by Union Carbide as a recreational amenity for the 2,800 workers employed at the EMCO ferroalloy plant located a short distance away on the banks of the Kanawha River at Alloy. It was from the blast furnaces of this great plant that ferroalloy was made as a critical component in the further production of the steel used to build America. The plant held the prestige of being the largest ferroalloy manufacturer in the world by controlling more than 50 percent of the market share of alloys used in the production of finer grades of steel.

As a testament to the importance of the Union Carbide plant at Alloy, in the 1930s the New River was dammed at Hawks Nest where the river was diverted through a tunnel to a hydroelectric power station located on Gauley Mountain for the production of the power required for the operation of the plant. The construction of the Hawks Nest Tunnel is well known as the site of one of our nation's greatest industrial tragedies, where over 600 workers died from silicosis either during or after working on this tunnel.

Ironically, the Hawks Nest Golf Course property is the site of Camp #1 occupied during the Depression by those many workers who constructed the tunnel and this little nine-hole golf course is situated directly atop the tunnel which lies below.

In any event, with the decline in the regional coal economy in the 1970s and '80s and increased international trade competition in the ferroalloy and steel sectors of our economy, the once proud and vibrant communities located in the Upper Kanawha Valley fell into a posture of decline.

The Union Carbide plant at Alloy was purchased by Elkem Metals Corporation, who subsequently assumed the operation of Hawks Nest Country Club. The golf course was offered for sale in 1996, but there were no buyers. Finally, with the support of the Legislature and then-Governor Cecil Underwood, and as a means to save this golf course for the recreational benefit of the citizens of the region, the Parks and Recreation Section of the Division of Natural Resources signed a lease for the operation of the course on November 2, 2000, for the sum of one dollar a year.

Following the acquisition of Hawks Nest Golf Course, substantial capital expenditures were made to improve the quality and condition of this property. From Fiscal Year 2003 through 2008, an annual average of $200,000 in operating and capital expenditures were absorbed by the park system's budget.

Despite ongoing efforts to rebuild membership and improve golf course revenues, the average self-sufficiency during this period remained at 17 percent. Accordingly, in August 2009, the Office of the Legislative Auditor published a PERD report which included, among other things, the recommendation that the Parks and Recreation Section of the DNR cancel the lease agreement and turn the operations of Hawks Nest Golf Course back to the owners.

In 2010 notification was received of the intention of the Parks and Recreation Section to close Hawks Nest Golf Course. At that time, I helped to organize stakeholder meetings involving local residents and other county officials committed to working together in an effort to improve the financial performance of this historic recreational facility for the benefit of the citizens of the Upper Kanawha Valley.

Since that time, the self-sufficiency of the course improved to 38 percent in Fiscal Year 2012 with a difference in expenses over revenue of $78,550. By any standard of measurement, the financial performance of the course has improved during the past three years.

In an effort to delay or thwart the latest attempt to close this golf course, the Fayette County Commission has pledged significant financial assistance to keep this recreational facility open for the benefit of the people. By letter to the Governor dated September 25, 2013, a sustainability plan was submitted for review by the Secretary of Commerce outlining the continued efforts to be made to improve the sustainability of this little golf course.

In conclusion, Mr. President, it appears that the time has run out on the community effort to advocate for the survival of this facility. I have been advised that the golf carts have been transferred out and the renewal lease has not been signed. Without a doubt, given the current financial posture of this state, we must indeed learn to be more businesslike in our approach to our governmental responsibilities. However, in doing so, we must not forget the underlying purpose for which our public parks and facilities exist.

According to West Virginia Code §20-5-3, the purpose of the West Virginia Division of Natural Resources Parks and Recreation Section is “to promote conservation by preserving and protecting natural areas of unique or exceptional scenic, scientific, cultural, archeological . . .” and “. . . historic significance and to provide outdoor recreational opportunities for the citizens of . . .” the “. . . state and its visitors.” It is for this greater purpose that a self-sustainability standard of 60 percent has always been accepted as being okay for our parks and recreation facilities.

For want of $78,550, the annual difference in expenses over revenues, I find it difficult to accept the permanent closure of a facility that has helped to meet the recreational needs of citizens of the Upper Kanawha Valley for the past 77 years. From my perspective, such an action to close this facility is a disinvestment in a region requiring reinvestment. In our coal communities, every time something closes, the lights grow a little dimmer.

In the past three years, the executive branch has cooperated in delaying the closure of this facility. In this regard, I have no real complaints. However, as elected members of this body, we all have the responsibility to advocate for the maintenance and needs of those state facilities located within our districts. In my position, I would fully expect you to do the same. While I have always sought to be a quiet and unassuming member of this body, the people back home expect us to be their voice on the floor of the State Senate. On behalf of the Fayette County citizens in the Upper Kanawha Valley, the words of Dylan Thomas come to mind: “Do not go gentle into that good night . . . Rage, rage against the dying of the light.”

Mr. President, I rage today on behalf of the people who live in a region that once contributed greatly to the economy of this great state.

Mr. President, I rage today on behalf of the communities who are struggling to rebuild themselves in the wake of declining populations and shrinking economic opportunities.

Mr. President, I rage today on behalf of families who want their children to learn to hit a golf ball rather than a crack pipe.

Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, thank you for allowing me to rage.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
MIKE HALL

Wednesday, March 5, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: I realize we’ve had a long session, but I would like to talk about an issue that the City of Hurricane has faced. But, before I do that, I want to say something about Ben Newhouse.

Ben is a tireless worker for the public and our county. A year ago, Ben went around the county and found 200 homes that needed to be repaired. Then, he recruited a thousand people to come to the county—who paid $450 apiece to come and do this. They came and worked on those homes all summer. He has done that more than once. His public service is just outstanding and it goes unnoticed. I wanted to publicly talk about that part of what I know he does. He is also Hurricane’s City Manager and he works diligently to try to improve the quality of life in our county.

Hurricane was one of the first towns to be set aside as a stormwater community and now there are several more. If you’re unaware of what that is, the DEP came down and said, “Well, you have to monitor your water here. You have to take care of the water quality.” They charged a local fee for it, which became a local issue that I've dealt with during my time in the Senate. But, I can say that the city itself, in working with the DEP, has done a yeomen's job in terms of water quality, in particular as it affects their water system.

Also, if you build a business in Kanawha or Putnam counties, we're going to know where the water goes. They do a good job of that. Right now I can say that, due to Ben's efforts, if you've watched the Hurricane exit over the past five to ten years, you've seen a dramatic change in businesses there. We have added a Sheetz, a Walgreens, several businesses are there and several more are coming.

But the reason I'm here today is to talk about something that started in 2010. This is an aerial photo of a lake that runs contiguous to Teays Valley Road. That is the reservoir for the water of Hurricane as well as four or five other reservoirs that are off the map. That's a 25-day supply of water.

The city has proposed (they've purchased land) a new impoundment, a new pond, which would add 17 more days of reservoir of water.

Now, here's what's happened. In 2010 when they proposed to do that—and this goes back to the Clean Water Act, which was a fine act, it helped clean up the jurisdictional waterways of the United States. But what happened was, in 2010 as they began to pursue this project, they ran into the program called the In Lieu [of] Fee Program. We say, "Do things in lieu of reading". Well, there's an In Lieu [of] Fee Program for stream and wetland mitigation. The DEP and several other agencies have put together a group to oversee this.

My frustration is these folks are overseeing that part of the water. We know what happened with other parts of our water system recently. Let me just give you some of the statistics. Last year, this group and DEP collected $13,711,000 in what are called In Lieu [of] Fees from various groups, most of whom are large companies—AEP over $5 million and several coal companies and gas companies.

What has happened is, if they have a wetland or a stream that they have to get into and they can't mitigate it, they simply pay a fee with the theory being that the money that's collected by DEP will be returned back to the watershed out of which it was taken to mitigate something. Sadly, they have apparently—and I've talked to them many times—not been able to mitigate much. Last year they collected $13 million and they spent $2 million in mitigation projects. They currently have (their balance according to their website) $23,243,000 in their account.

Now, what does this have to do with the City of Hurricane? Well, Hurricane has a stream it has to interfere with. They also have three tenths of an acre of a wetland to interfere with. So, in order to do that, the DEP initially said that they were going to charge X amount of dollars to do it. It's about $382,000 to pay the fee. They don't have the money for the fee. What they want to do, if they have to do this, is charge the citizens of the county extra money to pay this fee.

Here's what's frustrating. I don't expect anything to be done about this, Mr. President, although, I am thankful to say that Joe Manchin's office is going to come to Hurricane today. This has been four years of trying to get through this process. It's government, government and government. It's a one size fits all solution. We've called other states and asked what would happen if Hurricane were in the other states. We can't get any clear answers.

I understand wetlands and streams need to be mitigated. The frustration that I personally feel for the city and for the citizens is the fact that this is a water project. I can tell you that there have been a lot of phone calls since what happened recently with the Elk River. People came to Hurricane for water during the crisis. If you look [at the aerial photo] there aren't any aboveground tanks. There isn't anything to interfere with this. Because our county does well and our per capita income is what it is, we apparently cannot get some relief that some of the other counties might get.

So, I just wanted to introduce you to Ben who has worked on this and the engineering firm that has worked on this. I'm sure other people are listening. I don't know if anything can happen, but we'd like to get through this problem. We would like to go ahead and start work on this.

As a sidelight, if you believe you can operate a water system, Ben told me today that several PSDs are having trouble keeping people who can actually operate these water systems—there are some jobs there.

If you drive down I-64 and take a look on the right, you will see solar panels. Ben went out and actually used solar panels to run part of it. He's very environmentally friendly. I mean, I know Ben well. He's very much on the environmental side. So, it's not like we're trying to push back on regulation but we would just like somebody to hear us say, "Help us out here."

This is adding water—this is a water issue. It's a local issue. I represent them and I just want to highlight this if you don't know about it because you should know about it. I have had developers who, when they were told that they had to mitigate a stream or a wetland, they stopped their development.

This thing can hurt jobs and it's definitely a problem for our towns. Again, Mr. President, it's a federal issue. I don't think that we can expire this money from—there's $23 million sitting there—I don't think we can use it for our budget; it'd be nice.

I just wanted to highlight that and introduce you to Ben and the engineer and also Brian Woods, our County Clerk. He came here to watch this.

Mr. President, I thank you for the time. I just wanted to bring that to the front and I hope something can be done about it eventually.

Recognizing Paul Wesley Ambrose Health Policy Fellows Program

(Adoption of Senate Resolution No. 45)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT H. PLYMALE

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR PLYMALE: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'd like to speak to the resolution.

The Paul Wesley Ambrose Health Policy Fellows was started in 2009. This innovative Family Medicine Residency Program, designed to advance the ideals of service, stewardship and commitment, honors the principles passionately promoted by Dr. Paul Wesley Ambrose, a Marshall alumnus, in his efforts to improve the health and well-being of the people of West Virginia and our nation.

The character of Dr. Ambrose, who sadly lost his life in the plane crash into the Pentagon on September 11, serves as an inspiration for encouraging an attitude of selflessness and commitment to public service in these future clinicians—an attitude that will engender meaningful involvement to improve the health care of their patients.

The goals of the Paul Wesley Ambrose Health Policy Fellows Program are to encourage interest in health policy, with an emphasis on rural health. The purpose of this program is to provide bright, motivated, new physicians with experiences and tools they need to become leaders in the area of health policy.

Tracy Hendershot served as the initial Health Policy Fellow and now practices at the Coplin Medical Center in Elizabeth. I know the senators from Pleasants and Wood know him very well. As a matter of fact, he was here recently advising us on a bill in Health.

Kim Becher grew up in West Virginia and graduated from Denison University in 2002 and then from the Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine in 2011. In 2013 she was appointed and elected by the American Academy of Family Physicians as the only resident in the country on that board. And that person is from West Virginia. That's quite remarkable at that age and for her to be honored in such a way.

Kane Maiers grew up in Short Gap, West Virginia. He obtained both his undergraduate degree in Biology and medical degree from West Virginia University and has a long-standing interest in health policy in medical education and has obtained a Master's of Clinical Research from the University of Virginia to better prepare him for his work in these areas.

And now, we are welcoming for his first year, Matthew Christiansen, who was born and grew up in Spencer. After graduating from Denison University in Ohio with a degree in Biology, he worked at Yellowstone National Park and in the Bering Sea in Alaska as a fisheries biologist.

The Paul Ambrose Health Policy Fellows have worked with the House of Delegates as well as the Senate to provide valuable information on health policy issues. They have offered valuable insight to legislators on various policies and testified before committees, working to keep health policy moving in a positive direction.

Some of the topics the Ambrose Fellows have worked on is the restriction of Sudafed and to reduce meth labs in this state. They've studied primary care workforce and have studied the student debt of physicians and researched legislation regarding tobacco as well as school innovation. They wrote a section of the school innovation zones for McDowell County as well as other legislation.

It's our honor to have them here today. Accompanying them today is the recently appointed chairman, Dr. Steve Petranj, of the Department of Family and Community Health and, also, my wife, Jennifer Plymale, who is the Director of the Robert C. Byrd Center for Rural Health and Associate Dean of Admissions.

Welcome them. This is a great honor.

Regulating persons who perform work on heating, ventilating and cooling systems and fire dampers

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill No. 4392)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
BROOKS F. MCCABE, JR.

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR MCCABE: Mr. President, I'd like to make a few comments in support of this bill.

This is coming from, as has been mentioned, the Performance Evaluation and Research Division. PERD looked at this, studied it, felt that it was clearly an area that we ought to have regulated.

I might point out that part of the reason we are looking at it is not just the safety issues which are clearly paramount. I think there have been some instances in West Virginia where it directly relates to inadequately installed HVAC systems.

Kentucky and Maryland have similar legislation. Our contractors cannot work in those states without being registered here. So the contractors in Kentucky and Maryland can cross the border and work in West Virginia. We can't do likewise because we don't have a registration system.

The industry is in support of this. This is a joint effort between industry and labor to deal with safety issues and competition issues and to maintain the quality of HVAC systems.

I think everyone here realizes that heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems have become really sophisticated. Look at this building as an example. This is tens of millions of dollars, a highly complex system. Look at individual residences with all of these off-site management systems for heating and cooling.

It is a different world. Technology has moved in, in a big way, into the HVAC industry. This is, in fact, a supported piece of legislation. From my vantage point, I've had no one in the industry object, whether it's residential or homebuilders or certainly the commercial contractors (which I know very well) . . . everyone is in support of this. It makes sense.

It is a new regulatory piece of legislation, but it allows us to compete across state lines. It dramatically increases the safety of the installers. The industry is already there as far as doing this kind of work. This is just to ensure that these firms that sneak in across the border or fly-by-night firms that come in and try to undercut with discount pricing with poorly trained employees This addresses that. Frankly, with all the air quality issues, all the testing that we now have from mold and other types of conflicts that affect our air quality—this is a logical advancement.

This is not any kind of legislation that's coming out of left field. This is something that needs to happen. It's been well thought out and it's an agreed upon bill. I think everyone has looked at it carefully. Interestingly enough, we in the Legislature can take partial credit for it because it's been validated and recommended by our own PERD study.

So, with that then, Mr. President, I recommend passage.

Creating the Dangerous Wild Animals Act

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill No. 4393)

HONORABLE
DAVE SYPOLT

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR SYPOLT: Thank you, Mr. President. May I speak against the bill please?

Engrossed Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4393 (Creating the Dangerous Wild Animals Act) will punish responsible reptile and exotic animal keepers. It is overreaching legislation.

Under its own definition, in §19-34-2 it says, “Dangerous wild animal means a mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian or aquatic animal, including a hybrid, that is dangerous to humans, other animals or the environment due to its inherent nature and capability to do significant harm.”

Now, let’s think about that for a minute and then I’ll take the fluff out of it and break down the statement. “Dangerous wild animal” means an animal that is dangerous to other animals due to its inherent nature. Now, I’ll ask you this rhetorical question, “What do most wild animals eat? What do all carnivorous animals eat?” They eat other animals.

So, by definition, nearly every wild animal could be considered dangerous. In fact, Mr. President, humans are in that definition too. Although I would offer to you that most are exempted under the domesticated provision.

Under §19-34-5, the Dangerous Wild Animal Board consists of three members—one elected by the citizens, two appointed by the Governor. In other words, the majority are bureaucrats, not elected by the citizens. There are no requirements that any of the members are experts on the types of animals they seek to regulate or even a requirement that they consult with experts.

Under §19-34-3, the board may promulgate rules, but not only that, Mr. President, the board is authorized to promulgate emergency rules. This is the same board that has as members only one elected official and the other two are appointed—not subject to the public’s power of election.

Now, most of the members of this body are aware of the implication of what emergency rules mean. That means the rules are so important and so urgent that the board may promulgate them and they will immediately have the force of law without public or legislative review ahead of time.

Mr. President and members, I ask you, is that really necessary? West Virginia, to date, has not regulated these animals, but all of a sudden it’s important to get the rules into effect in the next couple of months without oversight.

Some of the proposed reptile species are commonly kept as pets and many citizens will be affected. Pet owners, who are not currently affected, must constantly worry that their pets will be listed, as the bill gives the newly created board rule-making authority.

While I understand the concerns over public safety, the exotic and reptile pet communities have evolved greatly and the pet owners are much more responsible and educated today than in the past. An estimated 30,000 residents in our state responsibly own reptiles right now.

Animal cruelty should certainly be addressed, but banning and over-regulating pet ownership are not effective means to handle this concern. This type of regulation is pushed by anti-pet groups posing as animal welfare organizations, Mr. President. It’s a shame that the great State of West Virginia should allow special interest groups to influence public policy and not protect the freedoms of our citizens. Responsible pet owners are constantly being punished by overreaching regulations.

Dangerous large animals like lions and tigers are already federally regulated. If legislation is deemed necessary, I believe it should do more than mirror what is already on the books. This bill does not.

Deer, spiders and snakes that are native cause more harm and deaths per year in our state than all wild and exotic animals do nationally in the same time frame.

There is no provision in the proposed legislation regarding what any of the permits will cost. They could be $3,000 per animal. We don't know.

There is no exemption for animals used for education purposes.

Mr. President and members, I urge a vote of "no" on Engrossed Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4393 and ask to reserve the right to close.

SENATOR SYPOLT: Thank you, Mr. President.

The Federation of Humane Organizations, in a position paper dated January 2014, has a list of incidences which occurred in West Virginia.

In November 2008 a Bengal tiger escaped. It was ultimately shot and killed by the owner. No incident.

In October 2007 a deer hunter reported seeing a male African lion. Now, even though there were no photographs taken of the lion nor plaster casts nor photographs of the paw prints, we still believe that maybe that could have happened. It's not been substantiated. No incident.

In March 2006 a 400-pound Asian brown bear had escaped and was never seen again. No incident to our knowledge.

May 2005, a leashed monkey bit a 13-year-old girl. There was an injury.

July 2003, a pet lemur escaped and was found asleep in a tree and recaptured. No incident.

July 2001, a pet monkey bit two children. So there was an incident July 2001.

August 2000, a pet chimp bit a teenager and a neighbor—an incident there.

July 1998, a chimp grappled with a postal worker. I guess that was an incident.

The point I'm trying to make is that there's been eight incidences in 16 years in West Virginia. In fact, only four of those incidences involved injury.

Now, I did a little research this morning while I was waiting for the session to start and discovered that in three years there were 11 lightning strikes of people in West Virginia. That's 3.7 per year. You're seven times more likely to be struck by lightning in West Virginia than to suffer an incident by an exotic animal. What's more, you're 14 times more likely to be struck by lightning than to be injured by an exotic animal.

Mr. President and members, I urge a vote of "no" on Engrossed Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4393.

Relating to the redirection of certain
Lottery revenues to the State Excess
Lottery Revenue Fund

*(Adoption of Senator Prezioso's motion
that Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill
No. 4333 be taken up for immediate consideration)*

HONORABLE
HERB SNYDER

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR SNYDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

It's with a very sad heart that I rise to make that objection, but I want the members to know how serious what you're dealing with is in receiving this report.

This is a nuclear bomb that will explode in Charles Town. Not Charleston, which is the center of everything we do, but Charles Town. Charles Town is the home of the golden goose called Hollywood Casino and Slots. Everyone knows it. According to the figures they sent us, $295 million in excess lottery money last year—pretty nice to fill in a lot of holes.

That casino operates, for the most part, on the initial legislation that was passed by these bodies, both bodies, in 1995—called the Racetrack Video Lottery Act. In that, you can imagine it took a few years to get to that in the original act and it was all predicated on saving horse and dog racing. Nineteen years ago that was important in this state. Many have forgotten why it was passed, but we haven't forgotten in Charles Town, West Virginia, where we have a thriving thoroughbred industry.

Now, I ask you, each one of you, in your respective counties, if that casino with horse racing was in your county, would you speak up for it? Would you speak up for it when you saw this come from the House of Delegates? Engrossed Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 4333 (Relating to the redirection of certain Lottery revenues to the State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund) came from the House of Delegates with this distribution. Everyone has seen this. This is not as it came from the House.

My, my, did it change in the Finance committee amendment. Huge change—undoing 19 years of statutory law. Undoing what this very Legislature passed in 1995 with the distributions to keep healthy horse racing and keep healthy dog racing. All the other groups like the local county governments and cities throughout the county all got money. Why would the Legislature have done that 19 years ago, Mr. President? Because gambling bills are hard to pass here so they try to make everybody happy to get enough votes to pass them. You can imagine that. We sit in the same seats.

This bill changes all of that as if it never happened. Let's back up 19 years ago when we redo this. Well, this has serious ramifications because the vote here is not the one that matters; it's the vote that happens in the local referendum election, Mr. President. That's the most important vote. That's why that money flowed for 19 years from Charles Town racetrack. Nineteen years of hundreds, Mr. President, of millions of dollars like the money for the PROMISE Scholarship. Last year, every penny for the PROMISE Scholarships came from Charles Town races and slots, ladies and gentlemen, Mr. President.

This changes all of that because instead of the statutory appropriations across the top of that sheet that this Legislature passed by a narrow margin 19 years ago and made those promises, a moral commitment as I see it, Mr. President, a moral commitment that the horse and dog racing in this state were promised that it was all done when the gambling industry rode in on the backs of the horses and dogs because they needed a place to land. It had been done in other states, Mr. President. They landed on the racetrack because those industries were in rough shape and it worked. It worked really well.

In Jefferson County thousands of people make their livings—some good livings, some squeak by—in thoroughbred racing. But this bill has the potential to change all of that. Why? Because no longer are they promised the statutory allocation that was passed 19 years ago. This bill makes it subject to legislative appropriation.

Now, imagine the feeding frenzy we will watch this year for the money. Is this body going to give a thoroughbred purse's winner his money? Maybe, maybe, 90 percent. The House bill was only taking 10 percent. They were guaranteed 90 percent, Mr. President, because they weren't touching the underlying statute. That's why the bill became 83 pages. No one saw it until today, except the Governor's Office, which I'm extremely disappointed in.

This issue of the bonding ratio means more to me because of my Chesapeake Bay bonding, an issue that I worked extremely hard on in 2011 to get passed. Promises again, Mr. President. Promises. There are twelve public treatment plants in the Eastern Panhandle pouring concrete, engineering plants—all happening on the promise that we were going to help them with issuing the bonds to help keep it off the backs of the ratepayer. Promises to the Morgan County Commission that we would help them build a new lodge at Cacapon Park.

I'm asking you to vote against those issues. That's how important it is for me to stand on this floor, Mr. President, and say those don't matter because they matter a lot to me. But, they don't matter enough to do this.

I'm asking you to not suspend the rules on this bill and put this thing to rest right now. If we can get this worked out, then fine. It'll take a two-thirds vote to pass. There's still time to work on this. Maybe everybody will start working with me instead of against me.

But, I'll end, Mr. President. Just imagine the pressure that's on me and the Senator from Berkeley. Just imagine what they're going to do. The petitions are already printed. The clever people who thought this scheme up, Mr. President (and it is a scheme), didn't pay a bit of attention to this little thing in statute that is still there—it didn't change. It's called local referendum recall and it's going to happen if this bill passes anywhere near this form. The citizens of Charles Town, West Virginia, in Jefferson County will recall their ability to have gambling at the Charles Town races and slots. I don't want to see that happen.

That's why I want this to die right here, right now, a very sudden death, right now. We will worry about the bonding later, but this needs to die right now and stop the circulation of those petitions which are already printed. If they circulate those petitions and turn the lights off on that racetrack in a few months, you're going to lose this $295 million into the excess video lottery pot. Well, we can't do PROMISE Scholarship, can't pay on the higher education bonds. The money spigot will be shut off.

I can assure you, I'm one of those citizens from Jefferson County that has a vote. If this happens, there will be a recall referendum and they will shut the lights off at Hollywood Casino.

I'm going to take up for the casino owners. They were not behind this. They literally did not plan this. It came over from the House only taking 10 percent. But what this bill does is it makes everyone come here for statutory allocation in the budget. Can you imagine? Can you imagine? These people are not dumb in Charles Town. They might be horsemen, but the other voters can see that they have been had. Had by this very Legislature.

This is the ugliest bill I have ever seen since I came here in the beginning of January of 1997, Mr. President, and it needs to end right now. Right now. Put this to bed because the next time you'll be here, you'll be called into special session on how to fix this.

One may say we need that $39 million to fill the hole in the budget. No, we don't. We sent a budget out of here balanced this morning. It's balanced. This money isn't even counted. I'm sure the House of Delegates will figure out some way to spend it if this bill passes. That's all I'm asking you.

This is extremely serious in Jefferson County because of their ability to have a referendum recall election. That's what they will do if we pass this bill.

I ask your support in rejecting the motion to move to first reading.

Relating to the redirection of certain
Lottery revenues to the State Excess
Lottery Revenue Fund

*(Adoption of Senator Prezioso's motion
that Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill
No. 4333 be taken up for immediate consideration)*

HONORABLE
ROMAN W. PREZIOSO, JR.

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR PREZIOSO: Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I can certainly appreciate the gentleman's passion, the Senator from Jefferson, for his casino and racetrack.

The Finance committee debated this bill for about three and a half hours and it's not an 83-page bill. It's a 10-page bill. The original bill as introduced by the Governor looked at all the buckets above the line and took 15 percent from each one of the buckets. It took about $20 million from the Infrastructure Fund for a total of about $39.12 million.

When the bill came over from the House, they took the Governor's bill from 15 percent to 10 percent and moved some of the other buckets around.

When the bill was debated in the Finance committee—the Lottery Commissioner was there, the Secretary of Revenue was there—we opted not to take any percentage out of any of the buckets. The only thing we did was move the buckets below the line to shore up our debt service ratios.

As I told you today when we passed the budget, we are at a critical juncture when it comes to our debt ratio. We're going to take $125 million out of the Rainy Day Fund this year. We're going to have to go back next year and probably take another $100, $150 million out. That's going to put us in jeopardy of losing our bond rating. That affects every city, town, community, state government project we have that we want to go to the bond market and procure money.

What we did, we moved those buckets below the line so that we can bolster our debt service. Right now, we can't pay for the Chesapeake bonds that have been issued. We owe money on those. If we do, we are going to fall below the debt ratio.

We can't even consider Cacapon and Beech Fork. Cacapon is a project that the Senator from Jefferson fought hard for last year.

You were elected to this Senate to make tough decisions. You're going to be given the opportunity now to look at those budgets on a yearly basis and make decisions for senior programs, for the PROMISE Scholarship, for everything that's included in those buckets. That's what you were elected for, to make those tough decisions. Put the appropriations back in the hands of the Legislature, not in law, not in statute.

I talked to Secretary Kiss. I've been a friend of his for a lot of years. We were elected in '89-90. He said if he made one mistake, it was to leave those buckets in statute and not keep it under the purview of the Senate.

Ladies and gentlemen, this bill doesn't change anything. Those formulas that the Senator from Jefferson talked about are in code. Those buckets will be filled accordingly to code. We are going to have the opportunity to look at those in the future.

Also, as we look at our declining revenues in gaming, obviously, we're going to have to make some tough decisions. You just want an across-the-board cut—the easy way. You can go back and say, “Yeah, the Governor proposed a 10 percent cut, a 15 percent cut.” Or do you want to give those buckets a realistic look, to look at each bucket and make decisions accordingly? That's all that we are doing.

When we go into conference, the only thing guaranteed is one year out of the Infrastructure Fund for $20 million. We may not even touch any of those buckets but we have the responsibility to do so if we deem necessary.

This is just a simple motion to consider the bill to be read a first time. Now, let's keep this process going. Let's stand up as Senators and legislators and make the tough decisions that you were elected to do.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Relating to the redirection of certain Lottery revenues to the State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund

(Adoption of Senator Prezioso's motion that Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill No. 4333 be taken up for immediate consideration)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
BROOKS F. MCCABE, JR.

Thursday, March 6, 2014

SENATOR MCCABE: Mr. President, I'd like to also speak in favor of the first reading.

I think this is an important bill. I'm very sensitive to the comments from the Senator from Jefferson. He is passionate in his belief. He knows who the major revenue producer is in his community, his county. We all know how important that facility is to the entire lottery program. We know that it generates the vast majority of revenue—far more than any other facility, probably more than all the rest of them combined or at least close to it. We know how important it is.

There are several things though that this bill addresses that are very important for us as a Senate to understand. First of all, as our Finance chairman from Marion County has said, we have an obligation, a constitutional obligation, to look at the budget and appropriate the dollars.

We, over time, with the best of intentions, have put not tens of millions, not hundreds of millions, but billions of dollars in statutory required funding. The Senator from Marion's budget is about $12 billion. We're actually looking in general revenue of about four and a half billion dollars. Of that four and a half billion dollars, several billion dollars are in public education, higher education, certain other things that make it very difficult for us to really deal with from a budgetary perspective with all the other problems that we have. We're really trying to manage that $12 billion on about two, two and a half billion dollars of income that we in the Legislature have the ability to appropriate.

We know how important these programs are that the Senator from Jefferson is talking about. Do you honestly think that the Finance committee in this Legislature would do what is being implied? We have a responsibility to make decisions, to make priorities and to fund those items that are most important. No one's challenging that these projects that he is specifically identifying are important. No one's challenging that they are not of the utmost importance.

The bill that was introduced by the Governor took a 15 percent permanent cut over every one of these buckets, which meant that these programs that he's talking about in that initial legislation that was proposed would take a permanent 15 percent cut. If the economy picks up, that permanent 15 percent cut is in place.

The bill went to the House. They took it up. They didn't like it. They changed it. They worked it around. They came back and said, "We're going to do a 10 percent cut for one year." The bill came over here. We looked at it.

Our budget was put together prior to this legislation because we didn't pass it, so the Finance chairman had to find other money. He has identified $34 million that is in our budget that is $34 million more than the House budget if you leave this legislation in place that the House has sent over here.

We're talking about amending that legislation, basically passing it out and not taking a 10 percent cut, which is what the House legislation says. We're saying that with this legislation, we're keeping that fully funded. So, right off the bat, there is a 10 percent increase.

Furthermore, and you can ask, well, where is that money coming from because you've got to balance the two budgets at the end of the day? The Finance chairman has in place the additional sources of funds because he came up with this—he and his staff. We've looked at it; we passed it out.

We've got the money to do this. We've got the ability to do this. We've got the ability to not take a 15 percent cut on these programs that are so important to the Senator from Jefferson County and, frankly, to everyone in this room. We have the ability to not take the 15 percent cut, not that 10 percent cut, but probably have the ability to fully fund it.

Oh, by the way, we are going to be looking at this every year because that is our job. Our constitutional job is to look at the budget, to allocate the funds. We have been for years, for very good reasons, putting things in statute. We now have billions of dollars in statute. We know that in this budget crisis that we have, we have no ability to deal with that with the couple of billion dollars that we really have to work with. So, what are the choices? The choices are, over time, to do our seven percent cuts or 10 percent cuts or 15 percent cuts, or to raise taxes.

Again, we're really focusing on what we have to deal with which is just a couple billion dollars. We have a four and a half billion dollar general revenue budget that we are passing, but you look within that budget there's a variety of things we really can't afford to touch because we have said we need to fund them.

With the passion that we have from the Senator from Jefferson County—he is very articulate as we all know—do you really think that this Legislature is going to look at those programs and say they're not necessary, that we're going to go along with the House's 10 percent cut or we might do more or less?

We know, probably more than the House, because we really focus on these kinds of issues. We know that it's the golden goose. We've got to pay attention to those programs that really provide us the leverage, the dollars, that we all use for our various programs. The dollars that the lottery creates from those programs in Jefferson County are astounding—stronger than any place in the state.

We've got other facilities in the Northern Panhandle, in my district. It's not just Jefferson County but that's the horses. That's the powerful one.

What I'm suggesting is that we need to read this bill a first time—this is an important bill. Frankly, it's a bold step because we're saying that we want to start looking at statutory funds and start bringing them back in and vote on them on an annual basis in our budget. We're also saying that we know what good programs are and aren't, but, over time, we might want to rebalance equity now and then.

My suggestion to this Senate is that we carefully look at the two billion dollars plus that we have in statutory funding. I am very sure that a number of those programs have now grown fat and less efficient because they continue to get this statutory funding with little oversight. They haven't been looked at every year. They're not lean and mean. We need to start looking at that and pulling those dollars back in and reallocate.

Does that mean we reallocate his programs? It means it's possible. Does it mean we will? We all know the value of the lottery. We also know the importance of the Charles Town facility in terms of the percentage of lottery funds that facility produces. It's the golden goose. The Senator from Jefferson's fear is we will reduce the funding for the breeders fund. I don't diminish that he feels the fear, but from my perspective, this is a bill we need to pass.

It, by the way, will allow us to immediately proceed with the funding of the bond issue for the Chesapeake Bay. That is hugely important to probably 30 percent of the geography of West Virginia in particular his area. That Chesapeake Bay program was put in place, in my opinion, largely because of the Senator from Jefferson County's hard work, his ability to understand how to find its financing. This bill allows that to occur, to occur now, this year. It also helps to protect all of our other bonding by keeping the debt service ratios in place. It also allows us to look every year at about $375 to $400 million and we have the ability to say yes, these are important programs and we need to continue to fund them.

Yes, the Senator from Jefferson County's important programs will be looked at but, looked at in terms of the value to the state. Look at the leverage he provides us with the lottery dollars that we spread all around in these various buckets. That's not going to be challenged because we look at the numbers, we understand how to make it work and we have a Finance chair and a Finance committee that is paying attention to details.

This is an important piece of legislation. It is in some ways a precursor to the kinds of things that we need to look at in the future because every time we look at a statutory piece of legislation and try to take it out of statute and put it into our annual budget process, we will have those vested interests come to us and say you're making a huge mistake. That's an issue we are going to have to deal with in the future. The Senator from Jefferson County has passionately shown us what that means at the local level.

What I would say in the case of Jefferson County, and I would say in the case of Ohio County, these programs are important. We know the dollars they create. We know we have to survive and support them. This is not about reducing their funding. This legislation allows us, gives us, in the budget process, the ability to at least keep the 10 percent cut in place and, very possibly, to restore that to full funding.

I think that's worth doing and I think that's a decision we in the Legislature ought to make. It is the constitutional authority that has been given to us. We ought to make it as sacred though and we ought to pay attention to the projects that need to be funded and those that maybe need to be looked at more closely.

The Senator from Jefferson County is worried about, in my opinion, one of those projects that we will always fund. We know it's important. We know how it drives the dollars. This legislation needs to pass. We need to read this bill for a first time.

At the same time, I understand the Senator from Jefferson County's passion, his concern and we need not to let him down. We need to show him, by our actions, that we will stand with him, but at the same time, we also understand that we need to, at some point, start pulling these dollars in, so we can appropriate them and don't let two to three billion dollars slide by every year. We fight amongst ourselves with a four and a half billion dollar budget and really only allow our Finance chairman to work with two or two and a half billion dollars.

Those days are behind us. We have to figure out another way. This is the beginning of that process and, from my personal perspective, I cannot imagine us taking an action that would be contrary to what the Senator from Jefferson County wants to see happen and for which he has fought hard and long for 19 years.

Times are changing. We need to look at things on an annual basis and fund what needs to be funded.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Designating "Take Me Home Country Roads" an official state song

(Adoption of House Concurrent Resolution No. 40)

REMARKS OF
WILLIAM COLE

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR COLE: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise today in support of House Concurrent Resolution No. 40 (Designating "Take Me Home Country Roads" an official state song) naming John Denver's "Country Roads" as an official state song.

What a fitting tribute. What a fitting honor to our state.

Mr. President, our beautiful state has taken a little bit of a hit recently with our water woes. What a great way to reshape our image, to repaint the picture, to share with America the true image and beauty that is West Virginia.

Country roads—I can think of hundreds of country roads. Our country roads—West

Virginia's country roads that are the beauty of our state and the beauty of our people.

Forty-four years ago in 1970, John Denver, Taffy Nivert and Bill Danoff wrote "Take Me Home Country Roads". What a trip this song has been on since then. Released in 1971 it was included on John Denver's breakout album, Poems, Prayers and Promises and reached number two on the Billboard Top 100 chart.

"Country Roads" isn't merely a pop song of the '70s in America. It is a song that has become part of the global language. It is heard, played, sung and celebrated all over the world. It breaks down cultural barriers, language barriers and barriers of dispute.

Not only did John Denver record it but a few others did as well. The likes of Loretta Lynn, Olivia Newton-John, Skeeter Davis, Eddy Arnold, Hawaiian legend Israel Kamakawiwo'ole and, yes, I did look that one up—and the great Ray Charles.

This song that reflects so beautifully our state, this song that lets the world know that West Virginia is indeed "almost heaven" has been recorded in French, Finnish, Czech, Slovenian, Japanese and German.

Now, members of the Senate, may I please tell you a little bit about my friend, our friend, Dreama Denver. Dreama grew up on College Avenue in Bluefield, West Virginia. I know because I was a friend of her little brother and we used to devil her unmercifully. She may not remember that—but she was hot then and she is now. We gave her a pretty rough way to go. Dreama was married to the late Bob Denver—"Gilligan" for those of you who are not of this planet.

Dreama is one of our true do-gooders in the southern part of the state. She is President of the Denver Foundation, President of West Virginia's First Honor Flight, Always Free Honor Flight, as well as Little Buddy Radio in Princeton.

A couple of years ago, she took on the mission of adding "Country Roads" as a state song in West Virginia. With the help of Marty Gearheart and every other member of the House and now, hopefully, every member of the Senate, West Virginia can now claim "Country Roads" as an official state song.

Mr. President, I urge adoption of "Almost Heaven, West Virginia".

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
H. TRUMAN CHAFIN

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR CHAFIN: Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, most of you are familiar with the name James H. "Buck" Harless. There is a book that he wrote and I encourage all of you to read it. I have read it twice now. It's called A Most Fortunate Life by Buck Harless. It's just a great read.

The greatest legacy one can leave is having lived a good life. That would certainly describe Mr. Buck Harless.

I was thinking of some words to say today in his memory. We are pleased to have his wife, Hallie, here with us this evening and his good friend, Gary White. We're also pleased to have the President of West Virginia University with us, President Gee, and many others. But the words that came into my mind as I was sitting there at my computer when I thought of Buck Harless are invincible, unbreakable, hard work, integrity, loyalty, the anchor of many foundations, a faithful son, fatherhood, perseverance, friendship, devotion.

Ladies and gentlemen, he had friends and he had a great wife, Hallie, who's here today as I said and he was a trusted individual.

Buck once told me that the power of work and the sense of duty will bring great joy to your life. Life was an attitude and Buck had a great one. You know, there is no sensation on earth comparable to what comes in doing a kind deed for someone else. I can't mention the thousands of kind deeds that Mr. Harless has done for others. It's been said that there is nothing, Mr. President, so keenly as kindness. That also describes Mr. Harless.

He, later in life, acquired great riches. As we all know, he distributed those riches unselfishly. Reputation is what men and women think of us. Character is what the angels and God knows of us. I think they have a real friend up there in Mr. Buck Harless.

Buck was a man who praised loudly and blamed softly. Buck loved many people and many institutions in many ways. Buck was a man who didn't do extraordinary things; he just did ordinary things extraordinarily well.

It's true that Buck had riches but he also had riches in talent, ideas, creativity, loving, caring, wisdom and beauty. He gave with no strings attached. He had no expectations of return. He gave because it was the right thing for him to do.

As long as I have known Mr. Buck Harless, I never knew him to know weariness nor defeat. Buck always cherished his human connections, his relationships with friends and family.

In the end it takes a pretty evenly balanced man, I suggest, to be strong in both prosperity and adversity. Buck Harless knew both well in his lifetime.

Ladies and gentlemen, it's my honor to speak to this resolution and it was indeed a most fortunate life.

Please adopt this resolution.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT H. PLYMALE

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR PLYMALE: Thank you, Mr. President.

Having worked for Mr. Harless for about nine years, I have to say that this year with his passing on January 1 and then with Dr. Clagg passing, I have lost two people that were mentors to me in many different ways.

Buck was a great person. If he called to ask you to do something, you didn't hesitate or ask why or anything like that. You knew that if he was involved, it was going to be something that was good. I've learned much from his involvement with the Mingo County Redevelopment Authority, his efforts toward the construction and consolidation of Mingo Central High School, and in the building of the road. He has so many legacies.

But the legacy I have from just knowing him was the heart that he had and how much he loved this state. He could choose to live anywhere he wanted to, but he chose to remain in West Virginia.

Now, I will tell you one story. One time we had a lumber complaint up in Maryland so we flew up to Morgantown and we went into the lumber complaint, handled the lumber complaint and he said, "Well, now you'll have to bear with me. I'm going to have to go over here and take care of some business." So, we went over to the WVU campus. We went to Mountaineer Field. He had to go visit Coach Nehlen because he wanted Coach Nehlen to give some money to something he was working on. That's how tireless this guy worked. He was always working for the betterment of this state.

He will go down in history as the person who donated the most to both WVU and to Marshall.

What a great man and what a great honor to be able to have this opportunity to speak about him.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
BROOKS F. MCCABE, JR.

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR MCCABE: Mr. President, I would also like to make a few brief comments about Buck Harless.

I first met him in the 1970s when he was having an issue with the Corps of Engineers. He was trying to provide housing in Mingo County and the Corps felt that he was encroaching upon the waterway illegally. It was my first real experience in seeing a businessman with a pure heart trying to do good and seeing a bureaucracy come up against him and create major havoc.

Obviously, with the character and strength of Buck Harless, at the end of the day, he was the victor in that effort. It turns out the Corps had completely misstepped. It was out of its boundary and, from my vantage point, Mr. Harless was right as usual.

I went on and got to know him over the years and with each year, frankly, I gained more and more admiration. We had been in a couple of projects, transactions, together that did not go well. You can tell the character of a person when you are doing combat in a transaction that has gone south. He was a gentleman, a mentor, he had a positive attitude throughout. I mean, it was just unbelievable to me, the example he provided as to how an entrepreneur should go through rough waters and, at the same time, make sure that everyone around him grew and understood and came out of that difficult situation a better and stronger person.

There is a lot in my life, in my business experience and my ethics, that I owe directly to Mr. Harless and his business associates. I could probably count on one hand the people who have directly affected me in a very positive, almost spiritual way and Buck Harless is, without doubt, on that list.

Mr. President, this resolution is just one small thing we in the Senate can do to honor someone who is truly a distinguished West Virginian who left a mark, who made the state better after he left it than when he found it. Not only the state was positively affected, but there are hundreds of individuals that he truly affected in a life-changing way.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ART KIRKENDOLL

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR KIRKENDOLL: Mr. President, I rise also to speak to the resolution.

Buck Harless is one of the few people that I took pride and really enjoyed him being a mentor. When I took office at age 29 on a commission that was a sister county to Mingo—we had a lot of problems, this and that—and Buck knew the game. It was an honor and a privilege for me to sit down in council with somebody that had a lot of plans, ideas and visions for Southern West Virginia.

I can look back and see his main man, Gary. He and Joanne have been lifelong friends of mine. I think Buck made a wise choice when he made Gary his main director of affairs and his beautiful lady that’s there with him.

But, you know, Buck just wasn’t about Mingo County. He really, truly cared about the state. Buck was a staunch Republican and I’ve always been a staunch Democrat. He is one of the few guys that had a middle-of-the-road approach when it came to sensibility if it affected people’s lives. Not only would he listen to you, you would listen to him.

I just wanted to rise out of respect and to tell this body that it was a pleasure for me to know him and be around him. He mentored me for three decades.

I went back to say, “Hi” to Hallie, his wife, and Gary. You know, I was there a lot because if you got an opportunity to talk to somebody that has already went through the process . . . He was one of the most intelligent people in the entire state. He came from humble surroundings—if you read the book—to being one of the most fiscally responsible and sound West Virginians ever through the business process. When you can listen to a guy like that, you better take the opportunity.

I consider it a pleasure and an honor to have known Buck Harless and his family. I encourage the adoption of the resolution.

(Adoption of Senator Palumbo’s amendment to Judiciary committee amendment to Eng. House Bill No. 4588)

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
COREY PALUMBO

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR PALUMBO: Thank you, Mr. President.

The amendment to the amendment that I would offer would change the reference from 20 weeks to 22 weeks. The reason I'm making this amendment is because in the committee—those who serve on the Judiciary committee know this, those who aren't on the Judiciary committee may not—counsel to the Judiciary committee very clearly and thoroughly laid out why the bill, in its current form, is unconstitutional.

There have been many cases throughout the last 30 or 40 years since Roe v. Wade was originally handed down that say that states cannot prohibit abortions before viability. When Roe v. Wade was initially handed down that was thought to be around 28, 29 weeks, maybe 30 weeks.

As medical technology has advanced, it's now basically considered to be 24 weeks post-last menstrual period. The bill, in its current form, is 20 weeks post-fertilization which is essentially 22 weeks last menstrual period. So, the bill—we had two doctors come before the committee. Neither one of those doctors believed that 22 weeks post-last menstrual period or 20 weeks post-fertilization, which is what the bill says, would get you to the point of viability.

I think the current technology and the thought of the whole medical community is 24 weeks post-last menstrual period is when you would get in the area of viability.

The Supreme Court, like I said, as recently as maybe four or five years ago has reiterated that states have no ability to prohibit abortions pre-viability. As recently as two months ago, the U. S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal from the Fifth Circuit, where the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals found a similar law in Arizona—not exactly the same but a similar law—unconstitutional.

It is my understanding that about 10 states have laws like the bill before us. They have been challenged three times and in all three occasions bills like this have been found to be unconstitutional or they've been enjoined. There's been no state or no court that I'm aware of in the country that has found the bill in its current form to be constitutional.

This amendment is not, shouldn't be taken as, a position on my part that I think that elective abortions should be had between weeks 20 and 22 because that's not what it is. This is an effort to make the bill constitutional.

One other part of the amendment—I didn't mention it—the amendment would change 20 to 22 but it would also state that if viability was determined to be sooner than that, then that's when the cut-off point would be. So, it allows for a little flexibility for the line to be moved sooner. I think this amendment would ensure this bill would be upheld in the court system, so I urge its adoption.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

I would like to speak to the amendment.

First of all, I want to say thank you to our Judiciary chair, who is correctly and rightly concerned about the constitutionality of what we're doing.

But, I would also like to remind members of our own West Virginia Constitution and the words that each and every one of us have spoken. This is the oath that we take:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Delegate) according to the best of my ability."

That's an oath that we take so strongly.

Our State Constitution says:

"Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this state."

I'm often reminded and I often hear us in debates on different issues where people want to point out that we have to follow the Constitution. We have to follow the Constitution. Why is it that we're not willing to infringe on the constitutional rights of free speech? We certainly would not infringe upon the constitutional rights of the Second Amendment. We would not pass legislation in this body to allow police officers to go up to your door and force their way in without a search warrant—Fourth Amendment of the Constitution.

I'm not a constitutional scholar. I'm not even a lawyer, but I'm somebody who realizes that the rule of law is far more important.

A professor of law and a current state senator in Maryland said this during a debate similar to this: "As lawmakers we put our hand on the Bible to swear to uphold the Constitution. We do not put our hand on the Constitution to swear to uphold the Bible."

It is amazing to me that in our day and age we will protect the right of freedom of speech, the right to bear arms, but, boy, so quickly are we willing to trample the constitutional rights of women in West Virginia.

We all know the stats for the procedure that we are talking about today—there's no more than seven in the data. We also know, based on what the Chairman of Judiciary said, that what we're doing is unconstitutional and, yet, we continue to go down the path as a body to go ahead and ignore the oath that we all took.

I will stand here and tell you as you all know, I am pro-choice. But when I walk through that door, I also don't bring my religion in here because there is a danger in following your religion when you try to institute laws. The danger is this—I would challenge anyone in this body right now who follows their religion to a T.

I'm a sinner. Most of you are going to be sinners. I've made mistakes. I've asked for forgiveness. You can't claim religion as a reason for supporting something and then turn around and violate your religion on other issues.

It's also interesting that Roe v. Wade has been upheld by a conservative Republican Supreme Court of the United States.

I know this bill is going to pass. The amendment will probably even fail. But there are times when you cannot be silent when you take an oath to uphold the Constitution and watch it be trampled in front of your own eyes.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
CLARK S. BARNES

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mr. President.

I am totally unprepared to respond to the speech that we just heard, but I would like to say, first and foremost, I do not leave my religion at the door anywhere. I bring my religion with me everywhere I go and I'm happy to put my hand on the Bible and swear to uphold the Constitution of not only the United States but of West Virginia.

I pulled out of my drawer this Bible. This Bible says in Genesis 1:27, "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over . . ." it.

Now, I am happy, also, to uphold the Constitution of the United States. The very first paragraph of the Constitution of the United States says:

"We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity . . ."

Who, my friends, Mr. President, is our Posterity? Our Posterity is our children. Whether they are children that are born or whether they are our children that are unborn. It is our responsibility. It doesn't matter who leaves their religion at the door—do what is right and uphold the Constitution which says we are responsible for those that come after us. There is none quicker and easier to identify as those that are our Posterity than unborn children.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE MIKE HALL

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: I didn't come prepared to make very many remarks on this, but I just wanted to respond to the comments that have been made.

I read a book about a year ago called The Thirteen American Arguments by Howard Fineman, who is a Pulitzer Prize-winning author for the New York Times. He made the point that we're basically a country based on arguments.

We put forth the proposition that all men are created equal and endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights—"Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." That was quoted by Lincoln at the Gettysburg Address and Martin Luther King later on. We didn't necessarily give personhood to every person initially. If you know American history well, you know that the slavery issue was fought over that.

It was Senator Seward back in the 1840s or 1850s who gave a famous speech in the United States Senate saying that African-American persons had a right to personhood, full personhood, based upon a higher power or a higher law. That speech was considered extremely radical in that era. He was arguing for personhood.

This to me is an argument about personhood. I've heard this debate, similar debates on the floor of the House. I'll never forget it. There was a strong argument—we were not going to call an unborn child a child, we were going to name it a fetus.

Howard Fineman's right. The first argument that we've had in America is over personhood and that's where we are, even now, since Roe v. Wade in 1972. Roe v. Wade, if you remember, highjacked this issue from the states by an aggressive court. There was progress on this issue around the United States but, basically overnight, it abrogated all the abortion laws in the country.

I was in seminary in 1976. We sat in a classroom—it was a Methodist school in Ohio by the way—and talked with Planned Parenthood. The comment was made about the devaluation of human life that could come as a result of this court's decision.

We're struggling over this and we're going to have a public policy debate based upon personhood. It's not easy, I understand that. It's not easy and our country is widely divided over this. I would say that the question of constitutionality . . . I've heard that argument used before having been here twenty years. I think this law is somewhat different in language than some of the others. Maybe it's close enough. It could be challenged and found unconstitutional, but it isn't until it's found that way.

We have a right as a legislative body to vote on it and though you might argue—that has been argued already—that a "yes" vote would be a violation of our oath. I just respectfully disagree with that comment.

I think that this bill, though similar, is somewhat different and it's not yet been found unconstitutional. So, as we vote on it, I don't feel like I'm violating my conscience in voting for this bill. A court may later find that to be the case, but as it goes out of here it's not until it's found unconstitutional that it is. That's my view on it. Otherwise, what the gentleman from Kanawha said would be accurate. I would be voting against my oath of office if I voted for this bill—if I believed that way.

But I just wanted to say that it's an argument we've had for years. It's legitimate to be in the public square and make the argument. If you bring to the public square some of your convictions, your religious views, are you saying that the public square is no place for any discussion? I believe the public square is a legitimate place for us to talk about things and we all bring our backgrounds to it. I would say in this discussion we're arguing, as Howard Fineman said, over personhood and rights.

So, it's legitimate to talk about this. We shouldn't be shoved off somewhere into the corner and told, "You're not allowed here because you have a religious background." I say, "No. I'm not trying to bring my creed or my confession or denomination in here. I'm simply saying when you're talking about personhood, it's a legitimate public square discussion for legitimate public policy decisions."

I wanted to make that comment as we go forward. I don't know what the outcome will be, Mr. President, but those are my comments relative to this whole issue.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
HERB SNYDER

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR SNYDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I want to talk, not so much to the members of the body but to the public, the listening audience, to those who will read the paper tomorrow or watch digital media or hear some of this as we go through this today and tomorrow. I believe, without exception, I'm speaking for all the members. This is a gut-wrenching debate.

I have five beautiful children and five grandchildren. No, six children—his, hers and ours, it's the Brady Bunch—and five grandchildren.

It's difficult. My personal choice has been life and my children have made that choice for my grandchildren. There's nothing more beautiful. Mr. President, you're an expecting father, you well know (as well as any of us) how wonderful and beautiful that is. Whether you're elected Senator or President of the Senate, nothing takes the place of a beautiful child in your arms. I think we all want that. We all want that for everyone in America. We certainly want it for everyone in West Virginia.

Sometimes things go wrong. One of the most gut-wrenching committee meetings was in Judiciary yesterday. We had the physicians who deliver babies talk about some of the things that can go wrong. The Senator from Greenbrier told me that he almost had to leave the meeting. It was so gut-wrenching—what could go wrong with a child in the womb and have to make that decision.

It literally touched me more than any other debate here that I have ever been a part of because you don't know what to do. What would you do? What would you tell that mother? This is not an easy debate at all.

I guess the closest that I came to this in my own life was on July 11, 1992. My two-year-old son fell into the pool. We were all nearby, but he slipped into the pool and was under water for several minutes. He turned completely blue at two years old in the deep end of the pool. As soon as my children saw him, my older son dived in. I bounded over the fence and got him. Luckily, I had been a lifeguard and knew CPR and revived him.

It took almost, it seemed to me to be, a lifetime to get him to breathe. In fact, all I could think about at the time was, when I couldn't get him to breathe and after the ambulance had been called, was to keep breathing for him through CPR. I told my wife, between CPR strokes, to get the baby pool—small, four-foot, plastic pool—and fill it with everything in the freezer, dump water in it. I was going to put him in ice. That's all I could think about was to cool him down. That's all I could think about.

Luckily, when his body, two years old, blue, submerged into that water, he gasped.

At that moment, I prayed that I would trade my life in that instant for his. It didn't happen. He didn't suffer brain damage and, thank God, he lived.

So this is not an easy debate for any of us. We take it extremely serious. The guiding light that I looked at, and I appreciate what the Judiciary chair is doing, is men much wiser than I that have decided this in federal court and so forth. But, it is a gut-wrenching debate that none of us take lightly.

Mr. President, I wish the best for each one of you as you decide this issue. There is no malice on any of us—no member that I've talked to. It's just a very tough decision.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I think, like many, my preference would be for it to just come up and no one speak. Vote up or down. I don't care what any of us says. All of us have already made up our minds.

This issue, this isn't the last time and it's not the first time it has come up. There's been a lot of emotion the last couple of days. I think there are many of us on this floor from many walks of life and some, such as myself, believe that this is a life. It's a human being. It's not a fetus. It's not a thing to me.

We're one of nine states that haven't done anything with this. We need to do something with this late-term action.

I can stand here and tell you that if I didn't speak up, my mother who has passed away, my wife and four daughters would all be upset with me because they believe that it's a life and they believe that we should protect it as much as we can.

We're not saying don't ever do this, don't ever have an abortion. What this bill says is that after five months, we know within a reasonable belief, that that small child feels pain. Let's just not do that. I mean, before that, you have every right you want. You can do it.

I think that everybody in this body doesn't want any doctor to be in jeopardy. I mean, the bill says, and this is any person who intentionally or recklessly performs is in violation. It says earlier in the bill that if you use reasonable judgment by a reasonable person, you are not.

I think it's reaching real hard. I think what this is trying to say is if there is a reasonable medical reason that this occurs, then no one's arguing with you. I think that's what this bill says. Now we could always argue about words and whether we should say more or should we say less. I think what this bill is trying to say, if you use reasonable judgment by a prudent person under prudent circumstances and you act in accordance with what you know as a doctor, there can be no penalty.

I applaud our Chair of Health for taking out those penalties because this isn't about penalties. It's about a life to me. If we don't protect the smallest and the weakest, then who will we protect? This is my conviction. I'm not putting it on anybody else. This is why I will support this legislation as I believe that this is a small life who has no one to speak for them, that is my voice.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
COREY PALUMBO

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR PALUMBO: Thank you, Mr. President. Real briefly, I'll close this debate.

It's real simple. I believe that this amendment to the bill will make an unconstitutional bill constitutional. It's just that simple.

There is no evidence or indication from courts around the country that what we're doing in this bill is constitutional. It is very clear from the 30 states or so that have passed bills like this in this form that my amendment would make it constitutional. We would be joining the vast majority of states that have legislation on the books like this.

No court in the country has found those kind of laws unconstitutional. But, every court that has looked at a bill like the one that is in front of us has found it to be unconstitutional.

My amendment would clearly take us from the unconstitutional position to the constitutional position. I urge adoption of it.

HONORABLE
COREY PALUMBO

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR PALUMBO: Thank you, Mr. President.

Engrossed House Bill No. 4588 (Protecting unborn children who are capable of experiencing pain by prohibiting abortion after twenty weeks) is the bill that would prohibit abortions beyond 20 weeks after fertilization.

The Judiciary committee amendment would remove most of the findings, add a definition of nonmedically viable fetus, remove the definition of woman, adjust the reporting requirements, reduce the criminal penalties so that the violation would be a misdemeanor and remove the civil remedy section.

I urge adoption of the amendment.

HONORABLE
ROMAN W. PREZIOSO, JR.

Friday, March 7, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Would the chairman yield, please?

MR. PRESIDENT: Does the Senator from Marion yield? Senator yields.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. Chairman, I'd just like to clarify the project itself. That is, this particular amendment would benefit the Justice family at The Greenbrier—is that correct? Is that not what we were told today?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: That's correct.

SENATOR BARNES: That is correct. Alright.

Do you have the figures on what the actual financial benefit would be to the Justice family?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: You're talking about the amendment?

SENATOR BARNES: Yes.

SENATOR PREZIOSO: Okay.

SENATOR BARNES: The amendment is what we're talking about, right?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: Okay, the amendment is a project—a medical facility. It's the intent, from what I understand in conversation today in the Finance committee, that this is going to be a world-class medical facility.

A doctor by the name of Dr. James Andrews has agreed to come down. I guess he's world-renowned for the work that he does with professional athletes and things of that sort.

From what I understand, the project to build the medical facility is $90 million, of which $80 million would be encumbered in this amendment over a 10-year period that he would receive back for the construction of this project.

SENATOR BARNES: I'm sorry, how much would be encumbered?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: Twenty-five percent of the qualified investment.

SENATOR BARNES: Do you have an actual amount? As I understand, the doctors who are coming down have no investment in this project. Is that correct?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: From what I understand, no they wouldn't.

SENATOR BARNES: Alright, so this is a Subchapter S corporation so any benefit that's received here is rolled back to the Justice family?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: From what I understand, it's a Chapter S for profit corporation called The Greenbrier Medical Institute.

SENATOR BARNES: Which is a Subchapter S corporation owned by the Justice family?

SENATOR PREZIOSO: I would imagine.

SENATOR BARNES: Alright, thank you. I think you've clarified it. Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Saturday, March 8, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

I'll tell everybody what I told the President. I'm upset and good people can agree to disagree but I did ask to speak to Engrossed House Bill No. 4588 (Protecting unborn children who are capable of experiencing pain by prohibiting abortion after twenty weeks) prior to the vote.

I know some folks were thinking I was going to pull a Wendy Davis. All the men in here know that women are a hell of a lot stronger than men and I would not have been able to pull that off.

What concerns me more than anything else is in eight years of being here It's interesting how we talk about West Virginia being fiftieth. Our friends on my side of the aisle over here will say, "Well, we just need Republicans in control." And, of course, the Democrats will say, "Well, we just need Democrats in control."

To me, what we really need are people willing to stand up and really vote their convictions. I realize even on this bill there are folks who are strongly behind it. But, I also know that, in the heart of hearts, for some of the members in this body, it was a political vote. It was not a policy vote.

It seems to me that the worst thing about politics today is the degree of how special interests really do play a part. You've got to make sure that the right checkbox is checked, whether it's NRA, whether it's labor or business or pro-life, pro-choice. That's why West Virginia, in my mind, is fiftieth.

Instead of really bearing down on the issues at hand, whether it be poverty in West Virginia, lack of job training in West Virginia, the education system in West Virginia, but instead we want to focus on gays, abortion and guns. I just kind of wonder when that's going to change.

I had no intention of going the whole distance, but I did want to read Roe v. Wade to you because most of you haven't bothered to read it.

I even told people with West Virginia Free that if it was 24 weeks viability of the fetus and the mother's life, that's a reasonable thing for us to do and I would support it. But instead, we have gone and passed a bill that is probably going to be knocked down and will probably be challenged here as soon as it becomes law. And for what? Not policy, but for the next election coming up in November.

We're never going to get past 50 if we are more concerned about the next election than we are the next generation.

Thank you very much, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
DONALD H. COOKMAN

Saturday, March 8, 2014

SENATOR COOKMAN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise to discuss Engrossed House Bill No. 4588 (Protecting unborn children who are capable of experiencing pain by prohibiting abortion after twenty weeks) that we just passed and to offer a different perspective to what we've done.

I, like all of you, I'm sure, received scores of e-mails, scores of telephone calls. We've been stopped in the hall, we've seen placards, we've seen signs indicating what we should do in regard to this bill.

But what I want to point out is that we're talking about children. We just happen to be talking about children in the womb. I haven't heard—no one has stopped me in the hall, no one has said anything to me at all, nobody has called me—anything about children outside the womb that have been born. I think we need to discuss this and think about it at this juncture in our legislative process.

I suspect that most of the people that contacted me had good intentions, but I also suspect that most of them really didn't know much about what actually happens to babies after they're born, after they come out of the other end of the birth canal. After being on the bench and as a Prosecuting Attorney for a total of 40-plus years, I've seen a lot of things regarding children that I think we overlooked while we debated this bill.

I think what we need to do is consider talking about the people who protest the loudest and get them to redirect their efforts to consider adoption, consider foster care, consider clothing, consider housing and, in general, consider protecting the children that are with us.

I've never seen an abortion performed. I don't ever want to see one. But I've seen a lot of things in the 40-plus years that I've discussed. I've seen a newborn baby strangled by her mother with her apron strings. I've seen a baby put into a garbage bag and thrown out with the trash.

I've seen babies born addicted to alcohol, to drugs of various sorts. I've seen babies who die as a result of being violently shaken or, at least, live a life of mental disability because of that. I've seen children have shock collars put around their necks and shocked by their parents as a form of discipline. I've seen children tied to trees as a form of discipline. I've seen children burned with cigarettes. I've seen children sexually abused. I've seen children starved. I've seen children cold. I've seen children with broken limbs, fractured skulls.

You look into the eyes of these children and they have hollow, hollow eyes. I wonder if these children were sitting in our places, in these 34 seats here today, how they would have voted on this bill. I venture to guess that many of them, if not all of them, would have said maybe abortion would have been the better route for me. Maybe it would have been simpler if I had been aborted and I wouldn't have suffered the various things that I've just mentioned to you. These children, these victims, if they were sitting here, I think they might have voted differently than how we voted.

When these things I just mentioned happened, I never received one phone call. I never received one e-mail. I never received one letter. I never had people marching up and down the street in front of the courthouse protesting what I had done in regard to these children or, more importantly, what had happened to these children. Nothing. Not a word did I hear from the various people that we've heard from in regard to this bill. No one ever threatened to vote me out of office. No one threatened to do anything to me or to my family.

I know that you believe as I do that our children are our most precious assets and we need to protect them both in and outside of the womb.

I would encourage you, no, I would implore you, to encourage your constituents that when they see a child neglected as I have they report it immediately as they're supposed to. I would implore you to encourage your constituents when they witness child neglect or abuse to not try to avoid testifying as I have seen time after time after time. I would implore you to encourage your constituents when they're asked to serve on a jury in regard to a child abuse or child neglect case to serve on that jury and not come up with lame excuses as to why you can't serve.

If there's a program in your community that helps children, such as CASA—I don't know if any of you are familiar with it, but CASA has just kind of faded away because of lack of funding, lack of support. If you see a program like that, I implore you to have your constituents get involved with it and keep it.

If you see a need in your community regarding children in any way, whether it's to feed them, clothe them, shelter them, I ask that you encourage your constituents to lend a helping hand, for them to get involved, to encourage foster care and adoption. We need to keep our eye on the ball. I encourage you to have your constituents keep their eye on the ball as well.

Children are not only just important while they're in the womb. They're our future. They are important to us after they get out of the womb when they're on this side of that birth canal as well.

I would ask that you encourage your constituents to join me in supporting and protecting our children in that fashion.

Thank you very much.

*(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill
No. 4184)*

HONORABLE
CLARK S. BARNES

Saturday, March 8, 2014

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise in objection, not to this bill but to the amendment. I do not have a problem with the project per se, but I have a great problem with how this was accomplished.

We've heard a lot in the last few hours about this project and that's one of the problems. It's just been the last few hours. We have been here now for 60 days and on the 59th day, here we go with a project that is going to give tax credits of several million dollars to The Greenbrier through a Subchapter S corporation, which means that any profits that come from it are going to go right down to the Justice family.

You know, just two days ago, we struggled over whether or not we were going to give the poor folks that were making minimum wage a 25 cents an hour increase. Twenty-five cents an hour. We struggled over that. And yet, yesterday, we have a special meeting in the Finance committee so that we can give millions of dollars in tax breaks to one of the richest people in West Virginia.

Mr. President, I don't think that's right.

I am here today, I stand here 10 years after I took this seat because of this same type of stuff that went on before. I replaced a man who the voters of the Fifteenth Senatorial District were fed up with over these last minute, last day, good ol' boy, let's roll it and let's take care of our friends. That's why I'm here.

I've heard all kinds of things today. I've heard rumors about ski slopes. I wonder what my people in Pocahontas County think about competing with a ski resort down in the next county. I don't think they would like it very much, but we haven't talked about that.

I don't think my people in Pendleton County will be very happy if I support a bill that's going to benefit a man who—yeah, we've been talking about jobs for a couple of days here, but all these jobs that are going to be created down here—the very man that killed a bill last year that would have created jobs for Pendleton County. You passed it out of the Senate. It went to the House. It had support. One man killed it. Hundreds of jobs for Pendleton County down the tubes because of one man—Jim Justice. And here we are today—we're going to give him more tax breaks.

You know what, I might have been for this project if you would have come in on day one with all the shiny brochures like they did last year for the golf course down in Pendleton County and the casino there and actually given us a presentation. But here, with two days left to go, we come in with lobbyists that are going to control the actions of this Senate. That's a shame.

This is the first time in 10 years I've had to stand up and say, my friends, I'm disappointed in you. I truly am disappointed in what we did yesterday and I am disappointed that we're even moving forward with this.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Relating to the West Virginia Tourism Development Act

*(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill
No. 4184)*

HONORABLE
RONALD F. MILLER

Saturday, March 8, 2014

SENATOR MILLER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I stand today to speak to this bill and, especially, about this amendment.

Ever since I can remember, in this state we have talked about jobs. Every one of us has had the same idea on how to create more jobs and more wealth for this state. We struggle every year to craft legislation that will help guide the state toward the possibilities of greater job and wealth creation.

Today, with this legislation, we are given an unbelievable opportunity to move our state forward with jobs and worldwide distinction.

How many of us in this body would jump at an opportunity to develop, possibly, a thousand jobs down the road for the State of West Virginia? I would hope that every one of us would do so.

How many of us would jump at the opportunity to be a world leader in a special field found right here in the Mountain State, where people can come from all over the world? I would hope that every one of us would do so.

How many of us would say, "Yes" to a project that would not only transform one county but it would transform a whole region of the state? I would hope that every one of us in this body would do so.

That, my friends, is exactly what we are doing with this bill.

I've heard the discussion on the amendment today and yesterday. I've heard what people have said about who owns The Greenbrier and how we're making special ways of providing for private wealth and I tell you that I could stand here for hours and tell you what this person at The Greenbrier has done for Southern West Virginia.

I can tell you how he has come about and been involved with children. I can tell you how he's been involved putting his own money in saving a world-renowned hotel that would have been closed if it had not been for him. I could tell you how he has a golf classic that he doesn't make money on. He puts his money in and it promotes the state in a tremendous fashion.

The Justice family is not a debate here. They have contributed millions to schools and projects and growth throughout the whole region of the state. He has not done so because he expects financial return. He has done so because he's an honorable West Virginian who fights hard for the state.

Many of you have heard me express before, probably until you're sick of it, my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 29:18, where it says, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Folks, this bill provides you with the best form to move forward. This bill provides us with a vision.

You're not being asked for a single dime out of a bad budget year. You are simply being asked to invest in the vision of what we can become and what we can do as a state. You're being asked to look forward. You're being asked to move forward with this vote. You're being asked today to vote about the future with vision to see what we can do and what we can become. I am not on Finance and I have not crafted this legislation, but I believe that we have before us today a gift.

Let's take a vote in trying to not find a problem, but let's take a vote in working toward the future. Let's vote for this bill today so that we can say to those generations after us that we were one of those persons who changed the drift of our state. Let us say that we were the body who made this difference and we are the body who will make a difference in the State of West Virginia.

I implore you to support this legislation today.

West Virginia Project Launchpad Act

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for House Bill No. 4343)

REMARKS OF HONORABLE SAMUEL J. CANN

Saturday, March 8, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Mr. President, thank you.

We have been talking about a lot of things and we've talked about jobs. This bill, I do believe, has the potential to reshape our future here in West Virginia.

The launchpad concept came out of a Vision Shared, which is joined by folks from business and folks from labor working together with concepts to move our economy forward.

This bill is a first step towards doing that. It allows cities and counties to apply to create a launchpad in their area, which is approved by the Development Office, and the Governor would also approve it. There are a lot of good things. This will have the potential to set us forward.

This morning while watching the news, and you see it every morning if you watch those early morning news shows, I kept seeing startup.ny.gov. Come to New York and start your business. It doesn't even have to be a new business but we'll give you 10 years of free taxes. No taxes for 10 years. That's what we have to compete with. If we want these kinds of jobs and these kinds of businesses here, we need to take this first step.

I want to commend everybody who has worked on this. It's been around here for a long time. We passed it once in the Senate but couldn't get it through the House. The House has passed it but couldn't get it through here. I'm hopeful this year it gets done all the way.

Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ERIK P. WELLS

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR WELLS: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

I just wanted to say that today is the final day of the sixty-day session and the last for our colleague—the Senior Senator from the Seventeenth.

I came here eight years ago and I had known the Senator before from my days as a reporter. I have just really enjoyed working with him. We have not always agreed, but most of the time we do.

I appreciate his confidence and certainly educating me about this process. He helped to temper me in terms of when things didn't go my way and you take things personally—as I think all new members probably do and then you learn that you battle in here. We all have different opinions but, at the end of the day, despite our arguments at times, I do believe that the people are really looking to do the best for West Virginia and the Senator from the Seventeenth has certainly demonstrated that.

I've really enjoyed serving these last eight years with you and I wish you, certainly, a lot of luck. I know you have a lot of plans and I hope they all come true for you.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
H. TRUMAN CHAFIN

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR CHAFIN: I wanted to also echo your colleague's remarks.

You know, it's only through caring and helping others that life's true success can be found. I've had the pleasure of serving with you for probably as long as anybody, since I have been here longer than anybody.

But, you know, ladies and gentlemen, Senator McCabe and Senator Jenkins, both, are very intelligent individuals.

We had a real crisis, a real crisis in workers' compensation a few years ago when President Tomblin was President. I was Majority Leader and we had a long conference on how to resolve it because it was just almost impossible. Labor was on one side and business on the other and, Mr. President, you remember how they had bloody hatchets. I mean it was just really tense.

It was difficult to find a solution. Do you know who we turned to? We turned to the Senator from Kanawha. He undertook the very difficult, almost impossible task of trying to work that out so this state could move forward. You did that.

A lot of people remember it. A lot of people probably don't. But you're a very caring individual and you're a great family man. I just wanted to let you know that I appreciate you and I know a lot of people appreciate you.

And the Senator from Cabell, nobody is more intelligent than you. I've watched you on Judiciary. You're absolutely brilliant. You've made amendments. You've made remarks. You've changed the whole flow of legislation when it was going one direction and we'd hear your insight and it would totally go a different direction. That's acumen, that's insight, that's intelligence. You've added a lot to this Senate.

You both are going to be greatly missed. I've really enjoyed serving with both of you. God bless you.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
LARRY J. EDGELL

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR EDGELL: Senator from Kanawha, 16 years ago we came here in a class of five and now you're leaving us. There are only two of us left.

I remember our days of huddling together up in the little place that I had for an office in those days. Week after week we would talk and we would all listen to you because you knew what was going on from the beginning and the rest of us were a bunch of rookies.

So, I am really, really going to miss you.

Thank you so much.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
SAMUEL J. CANN

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR CANN: Senator from Kanawha, congratulations on a wonderful career here.

I told you as you got up to go down there that maybe we'll have to talk to Clerk Minard and see if we can't find you a job so maybe you can come back and keep us in line next year.

But, we've been through a few battles. For some of them, I was opposite of you but we've accomplished a bunch of good things and I appreciate all those times. We've worked through workers' compensation, through medical malpractice, through several of those kinds of things, workforce development, we could go on and on, you and I both know.

But, congratulations. Enjoy life after this. It's probably more enjoyable. Enjoy your family. Enjoy wherever you go.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE
ROBERT H. PLYMALE

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR PLYMALE: Thank you, Senator from Kanawha.

It's been a pleasure serving with you and I really appreciate all the insight you've given.

Also, I would like to say to the Senator from Cabell, we've gone through a lot of things. Huntington has gone through a major transformation with many of the things we have done from Pullman Square and other significant projects. I've enjoyed serving with you and good luck.

HONORABLE
RON D. STOLLINGS

Sunday, March 9, 2014

SENATOR STOLLINGS: Thank you, Senator from Kanawha.

I think back before I came to this body. Having served with various education or economic development issues, I had certainly come in contact with you—everything from metro government and all the other visionary things. I have seen you be at the point of the arrow.

It's certainly with regret that I see you've made a change from coming here to this chamber and joining us to maybe writing books or some other visionary projects.

But, we, the State of West Virginia, has benefitted greatly from your vision, your eloquence, your ability to bring people together—here in the capital city. We're going to miss you and we're going to miss the Senator from Cabell as well.

The Senator from Cabell and I have had a relationship. Many people know I was President of the State Medical Association back in 2002-2003 and lots of things were happening.

The Senator and I worked together, arm in arm, to try to make access to care a better issue. We've talked about various public health issues and have certainly been through some battles together. Again, it's with a heavy heart that you're not going to be here.

I hope that whoever replaces you two have near the IQ that you both have because there is certainly a potential for brain drain here.

You both truly bring a lot to the Senate. I have certainly enjoyed and have grown from and been mentored by the both of you.

And again, what I urge you to do is don't be silent. We in this room here listen to people with great ideas. I will continue to listen to you and I appreciate you bringing ideas to us.

REMARKS OF
HONORABLE MIKE HALL

Thursday, March 13, 2014

SENATOR M. HALL: Thank you, Mr. President.

I'd just like to take a couple of minutes of the Senate's time and talk about an issue that surfaced in our area of Hurricane and it's also true, I think, around the valley.

You know, some things are understandable. They are going to happen. When the water crisis occurred, there was a cleanup. What was not told was where all that material was going to go.

I've just talked to the Mayor of the City of Hurricane and several citizens who live down there. I have in my possession all the permits that were given to (actually, the application for a minor permit modification) Freedom Industries to take, literally, thousands of gallons of water, some of which do have some residual of the chemical that smells like licorice to the Waste Management landfill in Hurricane.

I guess that was to be expected. We had to think that this material would have to be sent somewhere. As the official representing the area and the others who do, it would have been nice to know in advance and for the citizens to know in advance and even the city (who didn't know in advance because they don't have to). I introduced you all to Ben Newhouse the other day. He sent me an e-mail this morning saying they would like a bill that would at least give the cities and other utility providers the opportunity to review special waste permits and have a comment period. Certain things have been brought into the landfill without their knowledge.

Now, we don't have any belief that that water will seep out into the system itself but there are citizens that live around that landfill. We had a really nice day yesterday. It was warm and sunny and there was an odor all over that area.

So, I just say to those who are listening that the folks in my area are upset about this, at least about the lack of knowledge as to what would happen. I understand there are other landfills that have been utilized.

I just couldn't let the day go past, Mr. President, without at least commenting to let the folks down home and around the area know that we have now been informed. There have been news stories out there about it.

I just want to let them know that we here in the Senate are at least listening to what they're having to say.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Budget Bill

(Passage of Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 306)

HONORABLE
CRAIG BLAIR

Friday, March 14, 2014

SENATOR BLAIR: Thank you, sir.

I rise today in opposition to the budget. Not because of the work that's been done to create this budget but because of the work that hasn't been done.

The other day, I rose on the last night of session. We have all these buckets here. There's a bucket sitting on my desk. We are fighting over change right now and have been doing that.

There is an opportunity in this state to get it right. At least to be able to look and see where we can actually go out and save money without hurting anybody. And what it is is the West Virginia prevailing wage.

Look, I'm not opposed in any way to our employees making a true wage. But there is something absolutely wrong in this state when you have, for instance, a plumber that makes $35 an hour, but when you go to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics it's $22 an hour. That has the prevailing, West Virginia's prevailing wage is calculated into it.

We spend millions and millions and millions of dollars a year in prevailing wage cases. I'm going to give two examples. One is in 2013—the School Building Authority—$57.5 million. In 2012—$47.5 million. At the minimalist estimates, it's 25 percent wasted. I just showed you those numbers. If you would like to go online, feel free to do so. Go look at what West Virginia's prevailing wage is for a bricklayer. Go look and see what it is for a construction worker and then go to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and see what those numbers are.

Now, this just doesn't affect our budget and how we go about spending money in the state. It affects every municipality. It affects every county. It affects every school board.

We've got to get this right. We have an obligation to the taxpayers and our citizens to get it right. We haven't done that yet. Behind the scenes, it's the most amazing thing. I have talked to people throughout government. They say, "Yeah, we know we have a problem but we just can't seem to get it fixed."

Now, I'm going to give you another example. This is one of the most egregious ones. In my county, our Powerball winner, the two-term Democratic chair, Randy Smith (he was a magistrate as well), won the Powerball and then, in the south end of the county, he wanted to donate $1.5 million for the Parks and Recreation Center to be built there. Well, they were going to build it on school grounds. In the Eastern Panhandle, we try to keep everything in complexes so that it works out. So they were going to build it on a piece of ground on school property. It ended up, because of prevailing wage, costing $600,000 more. It would have never happened if we couldn't have went back to the Powerball winner and begged him for another $600,000 to get the job done. We didn't come to the state for it, but many, many, many times we do.

I believe that the Sissonville Fire Department was an issue not too long ago. We had something going on at Concord University.

We have built a lot of schools in the Eastern Panhandle because of the growth. My superintendent of schools has said to me many times, over and over, "For every three schools we build, we could build a fourth one." That would put more money back into the budget for every one of our areas to have better improved schools.

Again, I can't stress this enough, I'm not against a West Virginia worker making a good wage. That's probably one of the main reasons why I'm here. But to have one that is artificially inflated way above the amount, it is actually hurting everybody and picking out a few select winners and losers. In government we have no business doing that. For that reason today, I am going to vote against this budget.

I tried to amend it the other night. It failed and rightfully so. It was late in the game. But we have to get this taken care of. I beg you, somewhere along the line, to please step forward with me and look at getting this calculated to the true prevailing wage. Not eliminating it, but true prevailing wage. That's the most important thing that we could do.

Thank you, Mr. President, for giving me the opportunity to give my bucket speech.

EARL RAY TOMBLIN,
Governor.

By the Governor:

NATALIE E. TENNANT,
Secretary of State.

Senator Unger offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 101—Raising a committee to inform the House of Delegates the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session.

Resolved by the Senate:

That a committee of three be appointed by the President to inform the House of Delegates that the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum present, and is ready to proceed with the business for which the extraordinary session was called by His Excellency, the Governor.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Whereupon, the President appointed as members of such committee the following:

Senators Beach, Cookman and Blair.

Subsequently, Senator Beach, from the committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session, and is ready to proceed with the business of the session, announced that the committee had discharged its duties.

A message from the House of Delegates, by Delegates L. Phillips, Ferro and Ellem, announced that the House of Delegates has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum present, and is ready to proceed with the business stated in the proclamation convening the Legislature.

Senator Unger then offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 102—Raising a committee to wait upon the Governor.

Resolved by the Senate:

That a committee of three on the part of the Senate, to join with a similar committee on the part of the House of Delegates, be appointed by the President to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that at his call the Legislature has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum of each house present; and is ready to receive any communication or message he may be pleased to present under section seven, article seven of the Constitution of West Virginia, which provides that no business except that stated in his proclamation be considered.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Whereupon, the President appointed as members of such committee the following:

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt.

A message from the House of Delegates, by

Delegates Campbell, Moore and Border, announced that the Speaker had appointed them a committee of three to join with a similar committee on the part of the Senate to wait upon the Governor, under the provisions of Senate Resolution No. 102. Senate and House members of this select committee then proceeded to the executive offices.

Subsequently, Senator Fitzsimmons reported that the joint Senate and House committee had performed the duty assigned to it.

The Senate proceeded to the sixth order of business.

Pending announcement of meetings of standing committees of the Senate,

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 3:30 p.m. today.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and, at the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, returned to the fourth order of business.

Senator Prezioso, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Finance has had under consideration

Senate Bill No. 1001, Relating to transfer of certain revenues derived from lottery activities.

Senate Bill No. 1004, Relating to special revenue account of Department of Agriculture, Land Division.

Senate Bill No. 1005, Authorizing salary increase for county commissioners and elected county officials.

And,

Senate Bill No. 1006, Relating to debt service on state park bonds secured by State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund.

And reports the same back with the recommendation that they each do pass.

Respectfully submitted,

Roman W. Prezioso, Jr.,
Chair.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, Senate Bill No. 1005 contained in the preceding report from the Committee on Finance was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 1005 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

Senators Barnes and Sypolt, respectively, moved to be excused from voting on any matter pertaining to the bill under rule number forty-three of the Rules of the Senate, which motions prevailed.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Beach, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—30.

The nays were: Blair and Nohe—2.

Absent: None.

Excused from voting: Barnes and Sypolt—2.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 1005) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Beach, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—30.

The nays were: Blair and Nohe—2.

Absent: None.

Excused from voting: Barnes and Sypolt—2.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 1005) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Senator Prezioso, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Finance has had under consideration

Senate Bill No. 1002, Expiring funds in State Fund, General Revenue, and making supplementary appropriation to MAPS.

And reports back a committee substitute for same with the following title:

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the bill (Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 1003) contained in the preceding report from the Committee on Finance was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1003 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 1003) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 1003) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Senator Prezioso, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Finance has had under consideration

Senate Bill No. 1009, Relating to computation of local share for public school support purposes.

And reports the same back with the recommendation that it do pass.

Respectfully submitted,

Roman W. Prezioso, Jr.,
Chair.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the bill (S. B. No. 1009) contained in the preceding report from the Committee on Finance was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 1009 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: Barnes, M. Hall and Nohe—3.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 1009) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: Barnes, M. Hall and Nohe—3.

Absent: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 1009) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Without objection, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the passage by that body, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the passage of Eng. House Bill No. 101—A Bill to amend and reenact §29-22-18d of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; to amend said code by adding thereto three new sections, designated §29-22A-10d, §29-22A-10e and §29-22A-10f; to amend said code by adding thereto a new section, designated §29-22C-27a; and to amend said code by adding thereto a new section, designated §29-25-22b, all relating to the transfer of certain revenues derived from lottery activities generally; reducing the distributions to the West Virginia Infrastructure Fund to $20 million for fiscal year 2015 and increasing the percentage of funds available for grants therefrom; reducing the amount that may be transferred to the Racetrack Modernization Fund to $9 million; transferring certain revenues derived from racetrack video lottery, lottery racetrack table games and lottery historic resort hotel gaming activities to the State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund for appropriation; reducing statutory distributions to capital reinvestment, purse funds and development funds by ten percent; and authorizing distributions to be paid on a pro rata basis.

At the request of Senator Unger, and by unanimous consent, reference of the bill to a committee was dispensed with, and it was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 107) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Tucker, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: Cookman, Sypolt and Unger—3.

Absent: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 107) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the passage by that body and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the passage of Eng. House Bill No. 108—A Bill to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article, designated §15-9B-1, §15-9B-2 and §15-9B-3, all relating to establishing a regulatory system for sexual assault forensic examinations; creating the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Commission; setting forth its membership; authorizing certain additional members; requiring the commission to establish mandatory statewide protocols for conducting sexual assault forensic examinations; setting forth other powers and responsibilities of the commission; authorizing rule-making; requiring county prosecutors to convene and chair local Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Boards; authorizing counties to combine to form regional boards; and setting forth minimum requirements for local plans developed by county or regional boards.

At the request of Senator Unger, and by unanimous consent, reference of the bill to a committee was dispensed with, and it was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

The bill (Eng. H. B. No. 108) was then read a second time.

On motion of Senator Palumbo, the following amendment to the bill was reported by the Clerk and adopted:

By striking out everything after the enacting section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE 9B. SEXUAL ASSAULT EXAMINATION NETWORK.

§15-9B-1. Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Commission.

(a) There is hereby created within the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Correction the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Commission. The purpose of the commission is to establish, manage and monitor a statewide system to facilitate the timely and efficient collection of forensic evidence in sexual assault cases. As used in this article, the word "commission" means the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Commission.

(b) The commission shall be chaired by the director of the Division of Justice and Community Service. Membership on the commission shall consist of the following:

(1) A representative chosen from the membership of the West Virginia Prosecuting Attorneys Association;

(2) A representative chosen from the membership of the West Virginia Association of Counties;

(3) The Commissioner of the Bureau for Public Health, or his or her designee;

(4) A representative from the State Police Forensic Laboratory;

(5) A representative from the membership of the West Virginia Child Advocacy Network;

(6) The President of the West Virginia Hospital Association, or his or her designee;

(7) A representative from the membership of the West Virginia Foundation for Rape and Information Services;

(8) A representative of the West Virginia University Forensic and Investigative Sciences Program; and

(9) A representative of the Marshall University Forensic Science Center.

(c) If any of the representative organizations listed in subsection (b) of this section cease to exist, the director may select a person from a similar organization.

(d) The director may appoint the following additional members of the commission, as needed:

(1) An emergency room physician;

(2) A victim advocate from a rape crisis center;

(3) A sexual assault nurse examiner;

(4) A law-enforcement officer with experience in sexual assault investigations;

(5) A health care provider with pediatric and child abuse expertise; and

(6) A director of a child advocacy center.

(e) The commission shall establish mandatory statewide protocols for conducting sexual assault forensic examinations, including designating locations and providers to perform forensic examinations, establishing minimum qualifications and procedures for performing forensic examinations and establishing protocols to assure the proper collection of evidence.

§15-9B-2. Powers and duties of the commission.

(a) The commission shall facilitate the recruitment and retention of qualified health care providers that are properly qualified to conduct forensic examinations. The commission shall work with county and regional officials to identify areas of greatest need and develop and implement recruitment and retention programs to help facilitate the effective collection of evidence.

(b) The commission shall authorize minimum training requirements for providers conducting exams and establish a basic standard of care for victims of sexual assault. The commission may adopt necessary and reasonable requirements relating to establishment of a statewide training and forensic examination system, including, but not limited to, developing a data collection system to monitor adherence to established standards, assisting exam providers to receive training and support services, advocating the fair and reasonable reimbursement to exam providers and facilitating transportation services for victims to get to and from designated exam locations.

(c) The commission shall approve local plans for each area of the state on a county or regional basis. If the commission deems it necessary, it may add or remove a county or portion thereof from a region to assure that all areas of the state are included in an appropriate local plan. Upon the failure of any county or local region to propose a plan, the commission may implement a plan for that county or region.

(d) Once a plan is approved by the commission, it can only be amended or otherwise altered as provided by the rules authorized pursuant to subsection (e) of this section. Designated facilities and organizations providing services shall give the commission thirty days advance notice of their intent to withdraw from the plan. If there is a change of circumstances that would require a change in a county or regional plan, the members of the local board and the state commission shall be notified.

(e) The commission may propose rules for legislative approval, in accordance with article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code, as are necessary to implement this article.

§15-9B-3. Local Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Boards.

(a) Each county prosecutor, or his or her designee, shall convene a Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Board, or may, as an alternative, convene and chair the sexual assault response team in the county to act as the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Board. If a regional board is authorized, all county prosecutors from the designated area shall be members of the board. The prosecutors shall assure that each board be proportionally representative of the designated region. Each board may vary in membership, but should include representatives from local health care facilities, local law enforcement, multidisciplinary investigative teams, county and municipal governments and victims advocates. Each county or regional board shall develop a local plan and protocols for the area, which will address, at a minimum, the following:

(1) Identifying facilities that are appropriate for receipt and treatment of sexual assault victims;

(2) Evaluating the needs and available resources of the area, including the number of qualified physicians or nurses, or both, to facilitate and encourage 24-hour, seven-day-a-week coverage; and

(3) Developing an alternative plan in case there is a change in circumstances to ensure continuity of service.

(b) If availability of services are limited, or the remoteness of the region causes lack of adequate examination facilities or personnel, the local boards may designate local government or other resources to provide appropriate transport of victims to facilities where the victim can receive a timely and appropriate forensic examination.

The bill, as amended, was then ordered to third reading.

Having been engrossed, the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 108) was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 108) passed with its title.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 5:45 p.m. today.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and resumed business under the third order.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage, to take effect from passage, of Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 1002, Expiring funds in State Fund, General Revenue, and making supplementary appropriation to MAPS.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage, to take effect from passage, of Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 1003, Expiring funds in State Fund, General Revenue, and making supplementary appropriation to various accounts.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage of Eng. Senate Bill No. 1005, Authorizing salary increase for county commissioners and elected county officials.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage, to take effect from passage, of Eng. Senate Bill No. 1009, Relating to computation of local share for public school support purposes.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the Senate amendment to, and the passage as amended, of Eng. House Bill No. 108, Establishing a regulatory system for sexual assault forensic examinations.

The Senate again proceeded to the sixth order of business.

Senator Unger offered the following pre-adjourning resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 103—Raising a committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to notify the House of Delegates that the Senate has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Senator Kessler (Mr. President), under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, appointed the following committee to notify the House of Delegates of impending Senate adjournment:

Senators Beach, Cookman and Blair.

Subsequently, Senator Beach reported that the duties assigned by Senate Resolution No. 103 had been performed.

Thereafter, a three-member delegation from the House of Delegates, namely Delegates L. Phillips, Jones and Ellem, announced that that body also had completed its labors and was ready to adjourn sine die.

Senator Unger then offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 104—Raising a committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to join with a similar committee of the House of Delegates to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, Senator Kessler (Mr. President) appointed the following committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Senate was ready to adjourn:

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt.

Delegates Campbell, Moore and Border, then announced that they had been appointed by that body to join with the similar committee named by the Senate to wait upon His Excellency and were ready to proceed with this assignment.

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt, comprising the Senate committee, then joined the House committee and proceeded to the executive offices to notify His Excellency, the Governor, of imminent adjournment of this extraordinary session of the Legislature.

Subsequently, Senator Fitzsimmons, from the joint select committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature had completed the business of this extraordinary session and was ready to adjourn sine die, returned to the chamber and was recognized by the President. Senator Fitzsimmons then reported this mission accomplished.

At the request of Senator Cookman, unanimous consent being granted, the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was granted permission, after it has examined, found truly enrolled and presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, bills passed but not presented to him prior to adjournment of this first extraordinary session of the eighty-first Legislature in the year two thousand fourteen, to file its reports with the Clerk and that the same be included in the Journal of the last day of the session; and also, that any communications from His Excellency, the Governor, as to his action on bills after adjournment of the session, be included in the Journal.

In accordance with the foregoing unanimous consent agreement, the following reports of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills were filed as follows:

Senator Fitzsimmons, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 19th day of March, 2014, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bills, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

(Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 1002), Expiring funds in State Fund, General Revenue, and making supplementary appropriation to MAPS.

And,

(Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 1003), Expiring funds in State Fund, General Revenue, and making supplementary appropriation to various accounts.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert J. Fitzsimmons,
Member, Senate Committee.
Danny Wells,
Chair, House Committee.

Senator Palumbo, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 27th day of March, 2014, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bills, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

(S. B. No. 1005), Authorizing salary increase for county commissioners and elected county officials.

And,

(S. B. No. 1009), Relating to computation of local share for public school support purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey Palumbo,
Member, Senate Committee.
Danny Wells,
Chair, House Committee.

Senator Palumbo, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 28th day of March, 2014, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bills, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

(H. B. No. 101), Relating to the transfer of certain revenues derived from lottery activities.

(H. B. No. 104), Increasing the annual cap for collections into the Land Division special revenue account of the Department of Agriculture.

(H. B. No. 106), Relating to debt service on bonds secured by the State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund.

(H. B. No. 107), Relating to the disposal of drill cuttings and associated drilling waste generated from well sites at commercial solid waste facilities.

And,

(H. B. No. 108), Establishing a regulatory system for sexual assault forensic examinations.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey Palumbo,
Member, Senate Committee.
Danny Wells,
Chair, House Committee.

Executive Communications

Under authorization of Senate approval therefor in prior proceedings today, to include in this day's Journal communications showing the Governor's action on enrolled bills presented to him in post-session reports, the following are inserted hereinafter:

The Clerk then presented communications from His Excellency, the Governor, advising that on March 19, 2014, he had approved Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1002 and Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1003; and on March 31, 2014, he had approved Enr. Senate Bill No. 1005, Enr. Senate Bill No. 1009, Enr. House Bill No. 101, Enr. House Bill No. 104, Enr. House Bill No. 106, Enr. House Bill No. 107 and Enr. House Bill No. 108.

On motion of Senator Unger, the first extraordinary session of the Senate in the year two thousand fourteen adjourned sine die.

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION, 2014

MONDAY, MAY 19, 2014

Pursuant to the proclamation of His Excellency, the Governor, the Honorable Earl Ray Tomblin, dated the nineteenth day of May, two thousand fourteen, convening the eighty-first Legislature of West Virginia in extraordinary session today (Monday, May 19, 2014), under the provisions of section seven, article seven of the Constitution of West Virginia, the Senate assembled in its chamber in the state capitol in the City of Charleston at 12 o'clock Noon, and was called to order by its President, the Honorable Jeffrey V. Kessler.

Prayer was offered by the Honorable Ronald F. Miller, a senator from the tenth district, and Pastor, Shuck Memorial Baptist Church, Lewisburg, West Virginia, and West Point Baptist Church, Asbury, West Virginia.

On the call of the roll, the following answered to their names:

Senators Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President).

Thirty-two members having answered to their names, the President declared the presence of a quorum.

Executive Communications

Senator Kessler (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following proclamation from His Excellency, the Governor, convening the Legislature in extraordinary session, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
CHARLESTON

A P R O C L A M A T I O N

By the Governor

I, EARL RAY TOMBLIN, by virtue of the authority vested in the Governor by Section 7, Article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, do hereby call the West Virginia Legislature to convene in Extraordinary Session at noon on the nineteenth day of May, Two Thousand Fourteen, in its chambers in the State Capitol, City of Charleston, for the limited purpose of considering and acting upon the following matters:

FIRST: A supplemental appropriation bill appropriating monies from the State Fund, State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund, and supplementing and amending Chapter 13, Acts of the Legislature, Regular Session, 2014, known as the Budget Bill, by amending and replacing Title II, section five, to supplement and amend the appropriations for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2015, according to the provisions of HB 101, First Extraordinary Session, 2014, by reducing the appropriation to the West Virginia Infrastructure Council, fund 3390, Fiscal Year 2015, organization 0316, adding a new fund to distribute Excess Lottery Revenue previously not appropriated, and making an appropriation to the Division of Human Services for Medical Services, fund 5365, Fiscal Year 2015, organization 0511;

SECOND: A bill amending an Act contained in Chapter 124, Acts of the Legislature, Regular Session, 2014, and to amend and reenact Section 6, Article 5C, Chapter 21 of the West Virginia Code to modify the definition of “employer” to exempt certain employers from State maximum hour and overtime requirements; clarify the effective date of January 1, 2015, for minimum wage, maximum hour, and overtime standards; clarify the definition of “hours worked”; and authorize the Commissioner of the Division of Labor to establish emergency rules prior to January 1, 2015, to implement and administer the labor standards at issue;

THIRD: A bill amending an Act contained in Chapter 115, Acts of the Legislature, Regular Session, 2014, to establish a July 1, 2015, effective date for the affirmative defense of payment or partial payment to a contractor in an action to enforce a mechanic’s lien;

FOURTH: A bill amending the Michael Cunningham Act in the West Virginia Code to establish a December 31, 2014, deadline for electrical inspections and compliance;

FIFTH: A bill amending Section 12, Article 2, Chapter 5B of the West Virginia Code to permit up to $4,700,000 of the monies deposited into the Tourism Promotion Fund to be deposited into the Courtesy Patrol Fund based on an expenditure schedule set by the State Budget Office; and SIXTH: Legislation authorizing and appropriating the expenditure of public funds to pay the expenses of this Extraordinary Session.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

DONE at the Capitol in the City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fourteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-First year of the State.

EARL RAY TOMBLIN,
Governor.

By the Governor:

NATALIE E. TENNANT,
Secretary of State.

Senator Unger offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 201—Raising a committee to inform the House of Delegates the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session.

Resolved by the Senate:

That a committee of three be appointed by the President to inform the House of Delegates that the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum present, and is ready to proceed with the business for which the extraordinary session was called by His Excellency, the Governor.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Whereupon, the President appointed as members of such committee the following:

Senators Beach, Cookman and Blair.

Subsequently, Senator Beach, from the committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate has assembled in extraordinary session, and is ready to proceed with the business of the session, announced that the committee had discharged its duties.

A message from the House of Delegates, by Delegates Fleischauer, Diserio and Ellem, announced that the House of Delegates has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum present, and is ready to proceed with the business stated in the proclamation convening the Legislature.

Senator Unger then offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 202—Raising a committee to wait upon the Governor.

Resolved by the Senate:

That a committee of three on the part of the Senate, to join with a similar committee on the part of the House of Delegates, be appointed by the President to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that at his call the Legislature has assembled in extraordinary session, with a quorum of each house present; and is ready to receive any communication or message he may be pleased to present under section seven, article seven of the Constitution of West Virginia, which provides that no business except that stated in his proclamation be considered.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Whereupon, the President appointed as members of such committee the following:

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt.

A message from the House of Delegates, by

Delegates Campbell, Moore and Border, announced that the Speaker had appointed them a committee of three to join with a similar committee on the part of the Senate to wait upon the Governor, under the provisions of Senate Resolution No. 202. Senate and House members of this select committee then proceeded to the executive offices.

Subsequently, Senator Fitzsimmons reported that the joint Senate and House committee had performed the duty assigned to it.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Ron Yost Personal Assistance Services Program, submitting its annual report, in accordance with chapter eighteen, article ten-l, section seven of the code of West Virginia.

Which communication and report were received and filed with the Clerk.

The Clerk presented a communication from the West Virginia State Police, submitting its Post Exchange annual report as required by chapter fifteen, article two-e, section six of the code of West Virginia.

Which communication and report were received and filed with the Clerk.

The Senate proceeded to the third order of business.

Executive Communications

Senator Kessler (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor, consisting of executive nominations for appointees:

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

In compliance with Article VI, Section 51 of the Constitution, the Senate consented to receive the foregoing amendments to the Budget Bill, which were referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Senate proceeded to the sixth order of business.

On motions for leave, severally made, the following bills were introduced, read by their titles, and referred to the appropriate committees:

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2001—A Bill to amend and reenact §38-2-21 and §38-2-34 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, as contained in chapter one hundred fifteen, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 2014, all relating to delaying the effective date of the affirmative defense to an action to enforce a mechanic's lien.

Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2002—A Bill to amend and reenact §20-9-3 and §20-9-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, all relating to boat dock and marina safety; extending the deadline for electrical inspection; and extending the deadline for compliance with article.

Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2003—A Bill making a supplementary appropriation from the State Fund, State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund, by supplementing and amending chapter thirteen, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 2014, known as the Budget Bill, by supplementing and amending Title II, section five.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2004—A Bill to amend and reenact §5B-2-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to the distribution of Excess Lottery Revenue funds from the Tourism Promotion Fund to the Courtesy Patrol Fund; authorizing up to $4,700,000 of moneys deposited into the Tourism Promotion Fund be deposited in the Courtesy Patrol Fund; providing that the expenditure schedule for these funds be set by the State Budget Office in consultation with the Division of Tourism; and clarifying the authority of the Secretary of Commerce under article.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2005—A Bill to amend and reenact §21-5C-1, §21-5C-2 and §21-5C-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, as contained in chapter one hundred twenty-four, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 2014; and to amend and reenact §21-5C-6 of said code, all relating to the application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards; modifying definition of “employer”; clarifying definition of “hours worked”; clarifying operative dates; requiring legislative rules; and authorizing promulgation of emergency rules.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Petitions

Senator M. Hall presented a petition from Brenda Nott and one thousand thirty-eight West Virginia residents, requesting the Legislature to prohibit large utility vehicles from parking within six feet of a road.

Referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure.

On motion of Senator Green, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which it adopted Senator Green's motion that consideration of the executive nominations reported in earlier proceedings today be made a special order of business for 2 p.m. today.

The vote thereon having been reconsidered,

The question again being on the adoption of Senator Green's motion that consideration of the executive nominations reported in earlier proceedings today be made a special order of business for 2 p.m. today.

At the request of Senator Green, and by unanimous consent, his aforestated motion was withdrawn.

Thereafter, on motion of Senator Green, consideration of the executive nominations reported in earlier proceedings today was made a special order of business for 4 p.m. today.

Pending announcement of meetings of standing committees of the Senate, including majority and minority party caucuses,

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate recessed until 4 p.m. today.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and, at the request of Senator Unger, and by unanimous consent, returned to the fourth order of business.

Senator Green, from the Committee on Confirmations, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Confirmations has had under consideration

Senate Executive Message No. 1, dated May 19, 2014, requesting confirmation by the Senate of the nominations mentioned therein. The following list of names from Executive Message No. 1 is submitted:

1. For Executive Director, Real Estate Division, The Honorable Constantino Amores II, Charleston, Kanawha County, to serve at the will and pleasure of the Governor.

2. For Member, Economic Development Authority, Jeff Vickers, Lewisburg, Greenbrier County, for the term ending June 30, 2015.

3. For Member, Investment Management Board, Judy Hale, Winfield, Putnam County, for the term ending January 31, 2019.

4. For Member, Investment Management Board, Roger Hunter, Lewisburg, Greenbrier County, for the term ending January 31, 2018.

5. For Member, Investment Management Board, Marie Prezioso, Charleston, Kanawha County, for the term ending January 31, 2016.

6. For Member, Investment Management Board, David Haney, Hurricane, Putnam County, for the term ending January 31, 2018.

7. For Member, Mine Safety Technology Task Force, Terry Osborne, Morgantown, Monongalia County, to serve at the will and pleasure of the Governor.

8. For Member, West Virginia State University Board of Governors, E. Gail Pitchford, Charleston, Kanawha County, for the term ending June 30, 2015.

9. For Member, Shepherd University Board of Governors, Chad Robinson, Charleston, Kanawha County, for the term ending June 30, 2014.

And reports the same back with the recommendation that the Senate do advise and consent to all of the nominations listed above.

Respectfully submitted,

Mike Green,
Chair.

The time having arrived for the special order of business to consider the list of nominees for public office submitted by His Excellency, the Governor, the special order thereon was called by the President.

Thereupon, Senator Kessler (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following executive message:

Senate Executive Message No. 1, dated May 19, 2014 (shown in the Senate Journal of today, pages 7 and 8).

Senator Green then moved that the Senate advise and consent to all of the executive nominations referred to in the foregoing report from the Committee on Confirmations, except the nomination of Marie Prezioso to the Investment Management Board (being nomination number 5 in Executive Message No. 1).

The question being on the adoption of Senator Green's aforestated motion,

The roll was then taken; and

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—32.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared Senator Green's motion had prevailed and that all the executive nominations referred to in the foregoing report from the Committee on Confirmations, except the nomination of Marie Prezioso to the Investment Management Board (being nomination number 5 in Executive Message No. 1) had been confirmed.

Senator Green then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of Marie Prezioso to the Investment Management Board (being nomination number 5 in Executive Message No. 1).

Prior to the call of the roll, Senator Prezioso moved to be excused from voting under rule number forty-three of the Rules of the Senate, which motion prevailed.

The roll was then taken; and

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

Excused from voting: Prezioso—1.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared Senator Green's motion had prevailed and the nomination of Marie Prezioso to the Investment Management Board had been confirmed.

Consideration of executive nominations having been concluded, the Senate resumed business under the fourth order.

Senator Prezioso, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Finance has had under consideration

Senate Bill No. 2003, Supplementing and amending Title II Appropriations from State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund.

And reports the same back with the recommendation that it do pass.

Respectfully submitted,

Roman W. Prezioso, Jr.,
Chair.

At the request of Senator Prezioso, unanimous consent being granted, the bill (S. B. No. 2003) contained in the preceding report from the Committee on Finance was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—32.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2003 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—32.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2003) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—32.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2003) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Senator Prezioso, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Finance has had under consideration

Senate Bill No. 2004, Authorizing transfer of moneys to Courtesy Patrol Fund according to expenditure schedule set by Budget Office.

And reports back a committee substitute for same with the following title:

Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 2004 (originating in the Committee on Finance)—A Bill to amend and reenact §5B-2-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to the distribution of Excess Lottery Revenue funds from the Tourism Promotion Fund to the Courtesy Patrol Fund; authorizing up to $4,700,000 of moneys deposited into the Tourism Promotion Fund be deposited in the Courtesy Patrol Fund; and clarifying the authority of the Secretary of Commerce under article.

With the recommendation that the committee substitute do pass.

Respectfully submitted,

Roman W. Prezioso, Jr.,
Chair.

At the request of Senator Prezioso, unanimous consent being granted, the bill (Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 2004) contained in the preceding report from the Committee on Finance was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—32.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Facemire and Jenkins—2.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 2004 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. The Senate met at 12 Noon.

(Senator Kessler, Mr. President, in the Chair.)

Prayer was offered by the Honorable Mike Hall, a senator from the fourth district, and Pastor, New River Presbytery, Pliny, West Virginia.

Pending the reading of the Journal of Monday, May 19, 2014,

On motion of Senator Green, the Journal was approved and the further reading thereof dispensed with.

The Senate proceeded to the second order of business and the introduction of guests.

The Senate then proceeded to the third order of business.

Executive Communications

Senator Kessler (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following supplement to the proclamation dated May 19, 2014, from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
CHARLESTON

A P R O C L A M A T I O N

By the Governor

I, EARL RAY TOMBLIN, by virtue of the authority vested in the Governor by Section 7, Article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, do hereby AMEND the Proclamation dated the nineteenth day of May, two thousand fourteen, calling the Legislature of West Virginia to convene in Extraordinary Session at twelve o'clock noon on that date, by adding a seventh item, as follows:

SEVENTH: A bill authorizing the Common Council of the City of Richwood, Nicholas County, to extend the time for its meeting as a levying body until the thirtieth day of June, two thousand fourteen, for the purpose of placing a general levy on the ballot, to be considered by the voters of the City of Richwood, on the question of supplementing the City's budget.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

DONE at the Capitol in the City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fourteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-First year of the State.

EARL RAY TOMBLIN,
Governor.

By the Governor:

NATALIE E. TENNANT,
Secretary of State.

The Senate proceeded to the sixth order of business.

On motions for leave, severally made, the following bill was introduced and read by its title:

By Senators Kessler (Mr. President) and M. Hall (By Request of the Executive):

Senate Bill No. 2006—A Bill to extend the time to May 31, 2014, for the Common Council of the City of Richwood, Nicholas County, to meet as a levying body for the purpose of placing a general levy on the ballot on the question of supplementing the city's budget.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, reference of the bill to a committee was dispensed with, and it was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

The bill (S. B. No. 2006) was then read a second time.

On motion of Senator Tucker, the following amendment to the bill was reported by the Clerk and adopted:

By striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RICHWOOD MEETING AS A LEVYING BODY EXTENDED.

§1. Extending time for the Common Council for the City of Richwood to meet as a levying body for an election supplementing the city's budget; setting levy rate; certifying actions to the State; and for the purpose of paying all costs incurred in the laying of the additional levy.

Notwithstanding the provisions of article eight, chapter eleven of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, the Common Council of the City of Richwood, Nicholas County, is authorized to extend the time for its meeting as a levying body, setting the levy rate and certifying its actions to the State Auditor and the State Tax Commissioner by June 30, 2014, for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the City of Richwood the question of supplementing the city's budget and for the purpose of paying all costs incurred in the laying of this additional levy.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to engrossment and third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2006 was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2006) passed.

On motion of Senator Tucker, the following amendment to the title of the bill was reported by the Clerk and adopted:

Eng. Senate Bill No. 2006—A Bill to extend the time for the Common Council of the City of Richwood, Nicholas County, to meet as a levying body for the purpose of presenting to the voters of the city an election supplementing the city's budget; setting the levy rate; certifying actions to State Auditor and State Tax Commissioner; and paying all costs incurred in the laying of this additional levy.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Blair, Boley, Cann, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Wells, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—34.

The nays were: None.

Absent: None.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2006) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

The Senate proceeded to the tenth order of business.

Senate Bill No. 2005, Relating to application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards.

On first reading, coming up in regular order, was read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, May 21, 2014, at 11 a.m.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 2014

The Senate met at 11 a.m.

(Senator Kessler, Mr. President, in the Chair.)

Prayer was offered by the Honorable Jack Yost, a senator from the first district.

Pending the reading of the Journal of Tuesday, May 20, 2014,

On motion of Senator Kirkendoll, the Journal was approved and the further reading thereof dispensed with.

The Senate proceeded to the third order of business.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the amendment by that body, passage as amended, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the House of Delegates amendments, as to

Eng. Senate Bill No. 2003, Supplementing and amending Title II Appropriations from State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund.

On motion of Senator Unger, the message on the bill was taken up for immediate consideration.

The following House of Delegates amendments to the bill were reported by the Clerk:

On page seven, line eighteen, by striking out “15,649,886” and inserting in lieu thereof “14,581,522”;

Senator Unger moved that the Senate concur in the House of Delegates amendments to the bill.

Following extended discussion,

The question being on the adoption of Senator Unger's aforestated motion, the same was put and prevailed.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2003, as amended by the House of Delegates, was then put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)-30.

The nays were: Snyder-1.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells-3.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2003) passed with its title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—30.

The nays were: Snyder—1.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells—3.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. S. B. No. 2003) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the amendment by that body, passage as amended with its House of Delegates amended title, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the House of Delegates amendments, as to

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 2004, Authorizing transfer of moneys to Courtesy Patrol Fund according to expenditure schedule set by Budget Office.

On motion of Senator Unger, the message on the bill was taken up for immediate consideration.

The following House of Delegates amendments to the bill were reported by the Clerk:

On page two, section twelve, lines eight and nine, by striking out the words “in accordance with appropriations from the State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund”;

And,

By striking out the title and substituting therefor a new title, to read as follows:

Eng. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 2004—A Bill to amend and reenact §5B-2-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to the distribution of funds from the Tourism Promotion Fund; authorizing the transfer of up to $4,700,000 of moneys from the Tourism Promotion Fund to the Courtesy Patrol Fund; and designating the Secretary of Commerce as the approving authority for the expenditure of certain funds to effectively promote and market the state’s parks, state forests, state recreation areas and wildlife recreational resources.

On motion of Senator Unger, the Senate concurred in the House of Delegates amendments to the bill.

Engrossed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 2004, as amended by the House of Delegates, was then put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells—3.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 2004) passed with its House of Delegates amended title.

Senator Unger moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells—3.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 2004) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the concurrence by that body in the passage, to take effect from passage, of Eng. Senate Bill No. 2006, Extending time for Richwood Common Council to meet as levying body.

A message from The Clerk of the House of Delegates announced the passage by that body, to take effect from passage, and requested the concurrence of the Senate in the passage of Eng. House Bill No. 201—A Bill to amend and reenact §21-5C-1, §21-5C-2 and §21-5C-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, as contained in chapter one hundred twenty-four, Acts of the Legislature, regular session, 2014, and to amend and reenact §21-5C-6 of said code, all relating to the application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards; modifying the definition of the term “employer”; clarifying the definition of the term “hours worked”; clarifying operative dates; requiring legislative rules; and authorizing promulgation of emergency rules.

At the request of Senator Unger, and by unanimous consent, reference of the bill to a committee was dispensed with, and it was taken up for immediate consideration, read a first time and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Senator Unger, the constitutional rule requiring a bill to be read on three separate days was suspended by a vote of four fifths of the members present, taken by yeas and nays.

On suspending the constitutional rule, the yeas were: Barnes, Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—31.

The nays were: None.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells—3.

The bill was read a second time and ordered to third reading.

Having been engrossed, the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 201) was then read a third time and put upon its passage.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Beach, Boley, Carmichael, Chafin, Cole, Cookman, Edgell, Facemire, Fitzsimmons, Green, D. Hall, M. Hall, Jenkins, Kirkendoll, Laird, McCabe, Miller, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Snyder, Stollings, Sypolt, Tucker, Unger, Walters, Williams, Yost and Kessler (Mr. President)—30.

The nays were: Barnes—1.

Absent: Blair, Cann and Wells—3.

So, a majority of all the members present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 201) passed with its title.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Eng. H. B. No. 203) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate.

The Senate proceeded to the ninth order of business.

Eng. Senate Bill No. 2005, Relating to application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards.

On second reading, coming up in regular order, was reported by the Clerk.

On motion of Senator Unger, the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Senator Unger offered the following pre-adjournalment resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 203—Raising a committee to notify the House of Delegates the Senate is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to notify the House of Delegates that the Senate has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Senator Kessler (Mr. President), under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, appointed the following committee to notify the House of Delegates of impending Senate adjournment:

Senators Beach, Cookman and Carmichael.

Subsequently, Senator Beach reported that the duties assigned by Senate Resolution No. 203 had been performed.

Thereafter, a three-member delegation from the House of Delegates, namely Delegates Fleischauer, Jones and Hamrick, announced that that body also had completed its labors and was ready to adjourn sine die.

Senator Unger then offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 204—Raising a committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature is ready to adjourn sine die.

Resolved by the Senate:

That the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three to join with a similar committee of the House of Delegates to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature has completed its labors and is ready to adjourn sine die.

At the request of Senator Unger, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Under the provisions of the foregoing resolution, Senator Kessler (Mr. President) appointed the following committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Senate was ready to adjourn:

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt.

Delegates Campbell, Moore and Border, then announced that they had been appointed by that body to join with the similar committee named by the Senate to wait upon His Excellency and were ready to proceed with this assignment.

Senators Fitzsimmons, Stollings and Sypolt, comprising the Senate committee, then joined the House committee and proceeded to the executive offices to notify His Excellency, the Governor, of imminent adjournment of this extraordinary session of the Legislature.

Subsequently, Senator Fitzsimmons, from the joint select committee to notify His Excellency, the Governor, that the Legislature had completed the business of this extraordinary session and was ready to adjourn sine die, returned to the chamber and was recognized by the President. Senator Fitzsimmons then reported this mission accomplished.

At the request of Senator Cookman, unanimous consent being granted, the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was granted permission, after it has examined, found truly enrolled and presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, bills passed but not presented to him prior to adjournment of this second extraordinary session of the eighty-first Legislature in the year two thousand fourteen, to file its reports with the Clerk and that the same be included in the Journal of the last day of the session; and also, that any communications from His Excellency, the Governor, as to his action on bills after adjournment of the session, be included in the Journal.

In accordance with the foregoing unanimous consent agreement, the following report of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills was filed as follows:

Senator Palumbo, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills has examined, found truly enrolled, and on the 23rd day of May, 2014, presented to His Excellency, the Governor, for his action, the following bills, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates:

(S. B. No. 2003), Supplementing and amending Title II Appropriations from State Excess Lottery Revenue Fund.

(Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 2004), Authorizing transfer of moneys to Courtesy Patrol Fund according to expenditure schedule set by Budget Office.

(S. B. No. 2006), Extending time for Richwood Common Council to meet as levying body.

(H. B. No. 201), Relating to the application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards.

(H. B. No. 202), Delaying the effective date of the affirmative defense to an action to enforce a mechanic's lien.

And,

(H. B. No. 203), Relating to boat dock and marina safety.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey Palumbo,
Member, Senate Committee.
Danny Wells,
Chair, House Committee.
