

West Virginia Board of Examiners in Counseling

Annual Report of the Biennium

July 1, 2023— June 30, 2025

The Board of Examiners in Counseling exists in order to ensure that the practice of counseling and marriage and family therapy contributes to the general welfare and public interest of the state and its citizens. The Board authorizes and qualifies practitioners by establishing standards for the education, training, and character of Licensed Counselors and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists. In addition, the Board establishes regulations, conducts hearings, and initiates other actions that govern the issuing, denial, exemption, and revocation of licenses to counseling and therapy practitioners.

Executive Director's Report:

- A. Thentia Update: The Board has terminated the contract with Thentia due to inability to provide a useable product after approximately three (3) years of entering into said contract.
- B. Revision of all documents and applications – The Board members were asked to review and provide revisions to all documents and applications. Each member will be assigned documents to review and submit to Board staff to make the revisions needed. (M/S/P: Ward/Ward).

Miscellaneous/Other Business:

- A. Anthony Onorato provides a Counseling Compact update; background checks are needed for all new compact applicants.
- B. Renaming of "Provisional License" – Cheryl and Durand will meet with Cyntia Parsons from BMS to get clarification on the renaming of the license for billing purposes.
- C. Revision of licensure rules will be submitted once the Counseling Compact information has been formalized.
- D. Art Therapy presentation provided by Susan Ridley, Associate Professor of Creative Arts Therapy Chair, West Liberty University – Ms. Ridley provided information pertaining to the possibility of adding an Art Therapy license to the Board. When asked how many potential licensees there were currently in the pipeline, Ms. Ridley said there were currently five (5) students in the present cohort for Art Therapy. The counseling program at West Liberty University is currently working towards accreditation. The Board discussed and found that licensure at this time was not feasible and stated that Art Therapy could be recognized as a specialization, but did not constitute the need to create a separate license.
- E. Next Board Meeting: October 11, 2024, at 10:00 AM in person

Meeting Minutes

FRIDAY, October 11, 2024 @ 10:00 AM –3:00 PM

Executive Director's Report:

- A. Database Update – WVBECE has received bids from several database companies (Accela, Certemy, and GovOS), currently waiting on Purchasing to accept one of the bids (likely Certemy).
- B. Update of BMS meeting with Cynthia Parsons regarding renaming the Provisional License in West Virginia – Began discussing logistics/reasons for implementing a licensure hierarchy similar to Ohio's (LPC -> LPCC -> LPCC-S)

New Business:

- A. Counseling Compact update – Anthony Onorato
- B. 2024 AMFTRB Conference update – Patrick Ward – Covered the integration of AI into counseling and other mental health services; handout from conference provided by P. Ward.
- C. Art Therapy licensure – Should art therapists be encouraged to pursue licensure through the WVBECE instead of creating a standalone sub-specialty (less restriction on types of work that can be done, more opportunities with full LPC licensure)? Tabled for later discussion.
- D. 2025 AASCB Conference – Takes place Feb. 9-11, 2025, in Myrtle Beach, SC. Possible attendants: Patrick Ward., Cherly Henry., Anthony Onorato.

Next Board Meeting: Friday, December 6, 2024.

Enter Executive Session (II): 1:34 PM (M/S/P: Beeson/Ward)

Re: J.H.: J.H. is not recommended for full licensure by ALPS. The Board has made the following decision regarding the completion of her licensure: J. H. must complete an additional 1700 supervision hours under a Board-approved ALPS who is not employed by her current employer. For final decision, must consider supervisor's (ALPS) judgements after new supervision period.

Motion to reject most recent supervision and move to appoint Board-appointed ALPS at supervisee's personal expense. (M/S/P: Ward/Warren)

Exit Executive Session (II): 2:14 PM (M/S/P: Ward/Warren)

Adjourn

A motion to adjourn was made at 3:20 p.m. (M/S/P: Beeson/Onorato)

Friday, April 25, 2025, 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM

- I. Call to Order
- II. Attendance
- III. Approval of Minutes: March 21, 2025
- IV. Complaint File Discussion/Presentation
  - A. 05-25 – Provisional LPC is accused by ALPS of completing notes for other clients while in active sessions (in-person and telehealth) with other clients.
  - B. 06-25 – LPC is alleged to have had 765 unopened and/or incomplete medical charts entries dating back to 2/1/2024. The employer provided the LPC with the opportunity to transfer patients to another provider, reduced the caseload, and limited new patient appointments. The LPC is currently under a corrective action plan.
  - C. 07-25 – LPC is accused of asking the now custodial parent (father) “perceived intrusive” questions pertaining to financial, medical, home and transportation arrangements. The LPC is also accused of violating a court order and overstepping authority.
  - D. 08-25 – LPC is accused of unethical behavior that is being reported by students and witnessed by colleagues. The LPC is alleged to have engaged in systematic patterns of inappropriate abuse of power and unethical boundary violations to include:
    - Seeing clients outside of their jurisdiction where they do not hold a valid license
    - Invited current clients to be guess speakers in their class
    - Allowed a student to listen to a counseling session conducted over the phone and to practice out of their home office (practice) when the students are not under a formal supervision plan
    - Allowing untrained first year students to conduct client sessions
    - The LPC allegedly did not keep progress notes nor required students that were seeing clients on his behalf to keep progress notes as well
  - E. Legal Updates – Joanne Vella, Board AG
