WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

REGULAR SESSION, 1997

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 350

(By Senators TOUBUN, MR. PRESIDENT, AND BURKALEW,
By REQUEST OF THE EXECUTIVE)

PASSED APRIL 10, 1997

In Effect FROM Passage

ENROLLED

Senate Bill No. 350

(BY SENATORS TOMBLIN, MR. PRESIDENT, AND BUCKALEW, BY REQUEST OF THE EXECUTIVE)

[Passed April 10, 1997; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating generally to the state tax division; increasing salary of tax commissioner; and specifying effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. SUPERVISION.

§11-1-1. Office of tax commissioner continued and designated the state tax division; appointment, term, oath, bond and compensation of commissioner; powers and duties generally; sections of division; assistant tax commissioner; assistant attorneys general to assist commissioner.

1 (a) The office of the tax commissioner shall be continued
2 in all respects as heretofore constituted in the state
3 government, but is hereby designated as the state tax
4 division of the department of tax and revenue.

5 (b) The tax commissioner shall be the chief executive 6 officer of the state tax division and shall be appointed by 7 the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the 8 Senate, to serve at the will and pleasure of the governor 9 for the term for which the governor was elected and until 10 a successor has been appointed and has qualified.

11 (c) The tax commissioner, before entering upon the 12 duties of office, shall take the oath or affirmation pre-
13 scribed by section 5, article IV of the constitution. The tax 14 commissioner shall give bond with good security, to be 15 approved by the governor, in the penalty of fifteen thou-
16 sand dollars. The salary of the tax commissioner shall be 17 sixty-five thousand dollars a year or the amount specified
18 in section two-a, article seven, chapter six of this code, 19 whichever amount is greater. The tax commissioner shall 20 be repaid his or her actual disbursements for traveling 21 expenses. The tax commissioner shall be provided with an 22 office in the capitol and with furniture, office equipment
23 and clerical assistance as shall be necessary.

24 (d) The tax commissioner shall have control and supervi-
25 sion of the state tax division and shall be responsible for 26 the work of each of its sections or other subunits. Each 27 section or bureau shall be headed by a director appointed 28 by the tax commissioner and who shall be responsible to 29 the tax commissioner for the work of his or her section or 30 bureau. The tax commissioner may create such sections or 31 bureaus and employ staff or employees as may be neces-
32 sary to administer the state tax laws for which the tax 33 commissioner or tax division is responsible, within the 34 amount of expenditures appropriated for operation of the 35 tax division by the Legislature. The tax commissioner
36 shall have authority to appoint an assistant tax commis-

37 sioner who shall be his or her principal assistant. The 38 powers and duties vested in the tax commissioner by this 39 chapter and any other provisions of law may be delegated 40 by the tax commissioner to the assistant or other employ-
41 ees, but the tax commissioner shall be responsible for all
42 official acts of such delegates.

43 (e) The tax commissioner, if he or she deems such action
44 necessary, may request the attorney general to appoint 45 assistant attorneys general who shall perform duties as 46 may be required by the tax commissioner. The attorney 47 general, in pursuance of such request, may select and 48 appoint assistant attorneys general, with the consent of 49 the tax commissioner, to serve during the will and plea-
50 sure of the attorney general, and the assistants shall be 51 paid out of any funds made available for that purpose by 52 the Legislature to the state tax division.

That Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
