20 CHAPTER 9A. VETERANS' AFFAIRS.
21
22 ARTICLE 1. DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS.
24 A state agency to be known as Effective January 14, 2013, The 25 West Virginia Division of Veterans' Affairs is hereby created.
and established within the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety redesignated the Department of Veteran’s Assistance for the purpose of aiding, assisting, counseling and advising, and looking after the rights and interests of, all persons known as veterans who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard as defined by the laws of the United States and whose separation therefrom has been other than dishonorable and who are citizens and residents of this state, and the widows, dependents and orphans, who are or have become citizens and residents of this state, or all persons known as veterans who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard as defined by the laws of the United States and whose separation therefrom has been other than dishonorable.

All references in this code to the West Virginia Division of Veterans' Affairs and the Director of the West Virginia Division of Veterans' Affairs shall mean the Department of Veteran’s Assistance and the Secretary of the Department of Veteran’s Assistance, respectively.

§9A-1-2. Veterans’ council; administration of department.

There is continued the “Veterans’ Council” consisting of nine members who must be citizens and residents of this state and who have served in and been honorably discharged or separated under honorable conditions from the Armed Forces of the United States and whose service was within a time of war as defined by the laws of the United States, either Public Law No. 2 -- 73rd Congress, or Public Law No. 346 -- 78th Congress, and amendments thereto. At least one member of the council must be a veteran of World War II, at least one member of the council must be a veteran of the Korean Conflict, at least two members of the council must be veterans of the Vietnam era, at least one member must be a veteran of the first Gulf War and at least one member must be a veteran of the Afghanistan or Iraqi Conflicts. The members of the veterans' council must be selected with special reference to their ability and fitness to effectuate the purposes of this article.

A director and such veterans' affairs officers, assistants and employees as may be deemed advisable, shall administer the West Virginia division of veterans' affairs Department of Veteran’s Assistance.

ARTICLE 1. DIVISION OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS.

§9A-1-4. Duties and functions of Veterans' Council; appointment of secretary; honoring academic achievement at military academies.

(a) It is the duty and function of the Veterans' Council to advise the director on the general administrative policies of the division department, to select, at their first meeting in each fiscal year commencing on July 1, a chairman to serve one year, to advise the director secretary on rules as may be necessary, to advise the Governor and the Legislature with respect to legislation affecting the interests of veterans, their widows, dependents and orphans and to make annual reports to the Governor respecting the service of the division department. The director secretary has the same eligibility and qualifications prescribed for members of the Veterans' Council. The Governor shall appoint a director for a term of six years, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Before making the appointment the Governor shall request the council of the West Virginia division of veterans' affairs to furnish a full and complete report concerning the qualifications and suitability of the proposed appointee. The director may only be removed by the Governor for cause, but shall have upon his or her own request an open hearing before the Governor on the complaints or charges lodged against him or her. The action of the Governor shall be final. The director secretary ex officio shall be the executive secretary of the Veterans' Council, shall keep the minutes of each meeting and be in charge of all records of the division department.

(b) The Veterans' Council may annually honor each West
Virginian graduating from the U.S. Military Academy, the U.S. Naval Academy, the U.S. Air Force Academy and the U.S. Coast Guard Academy with the highest grade point average by bestowing upon him or her the “West Augusta Award.” The award shall be in a design and form established by the council and include the famous Revolutionary War phrase from which the award’s name is derived: “Once again our brethren from West Augusta have answered the call to duty.” The council shall coordinate the manner of recognition of the recipient at graduation ceremonies with each academy.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to redesignate the Division of Veterans’ Affairs to the Department of Veteran’s Assistance and to provide that the department be supervised by a secretary level administrator.
