12 and shall perform such duties as the Attorney General may require of them.

13 (c) All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby amended 14 to be in harmony with the provisions of this section.

§5-3-3a. Competitive bidding required for private attorneys, special assistant attorneys general.

1 (a) The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this section, have the following 2 meanings:

3 (1) "Contingency fee legal arrangement or contract" means any legal fee arrangement that 4 provides for a private attorney or special assistant Attorney General to be paid a percentage of 5 any recovery associated with any claims brought by the private attorney or special assistant 6 Attorney General on behalf of the state or to be paid through a court-approved award of attorney's 7 fees.

8 (2) "Deputy or assistant Attorney General" means an attorney employed by the state as a 9 staff attorney in the Attorney General's office.

10 (3) "Private attorney" means any attorney who is neither an assistant Attorney General on 11 the Attorney General's staff nor an employee of another state agency.

12 (4) "Special assistant Attorney General" means an attorney that has been retained or 13 appointed by the Attorney General to assist in the legal representation of the State.

14 (5) "State" means the State of West Virginia, including state officers, departments, boards, 15 commissions, divisions, bureaus, councils and units of organization, however designated, of the 16 executive branch of state government and any of its agents.

17 (b) The state may not enter into any contingency fee legal arrangement or contract with a 18 private attorney unless the Attorney General, or his or her designee, makes a written 19 determination prior to entering into such a contract that the legal representation is both cost-20 effective and in the best interest of the public. Any written determination shall include specific 21 findings for each of the following factors:

22 (1) Whether sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources exist within the 23 Attorney General's office to handle the matter;

24 (2) The time and labor required; the novelty, complexity and difficulty of the questions 25 involved; and the skill requisite to perform the attorney services properly;

26 (3) The geographic area where the attorney services are to be provided, as well as any 27 potential costs associated with providing legal services in that geographic area; and 28 (4) The amount of experience desired for the particular kind of legal services to be 29 provided and the need for a private attorney's experience with similar issues or cases.

30 (c) If the Attorney General, or his or her designee, makes the written determination 31 described in subsection (b) of this section, the Attorney General shall request proposals from 32 private attorneys to represent the state accordingly on the basis of a fee arrangement as set forth 33 in subsection (h) of this section, unless the Attorney General, or his or her designee, makes a 34 written determination that one of the following factors applies:

35 (1) An emergency situation exists that requires time-sensitive legal services that cannot 36 be adequately provided by the Office of Attorney General and for which insufficient time exists to 37 complete the customary competitive bidding process;

38 (2) An appointment, or the continuation of an appointment, is necessary to avoid disruption 39 in pending legal matters by allowing previously appointed outside counsel to continue providing 40 legal representation; or

41 (3) The legal services are to be provided on a pro bono basis, and therefore will not benefit 42 from a competitive bidding process.

43 (d) Any requests for proposal shall be posted to the website of the Office of the Attorney 44 General. The time period under which the proposal is open should be clearly stated.

45 (e) When soliciting proposals from private attorneys to represent the state on the basis of 46 a fee arrangement as set forth in subsection (h) of this section, the Attorney General, or his or her 47 designee, shall consider the following factors when determining the most competitive proposal for 48 legal services and make a written determination as to the application of these factors, prior to 49 entering into any contract for outside legal services:

50 (1) Whether the private attorneys possess the requisite skills and expertise needed to 51 handle the legal matters in question;

52 (2) Whether the private attorneys possess requisite staffing and support to handle the 53 scope of the litigation or matter;

54 (3) Whether the private attorneys or any members of the private attorneys' law firm have 55 been subject to discipline by the West Virginia State Bar, or other entities, for unethical conduct;

56 (4) Whether the private attorneys have been peer rated and, if so, what peer ratings they 57 have received, along with any other recognitions or awards for legal services;

58 (5) The estimated fees, costs and expenses of the private attorneys to perform the legal 59 services requested;

60 (6) The willingness of the private attorneys to enter into alternative billing arrangements;

61 (7) Whether the private attorneys are in compliance with all applicable laws of the State of 62 West Virginia;

63 (8) Any potential disqualifying conflicts of interest between the private attorneys and the 64 state;

65 (9) Any relevant input from the state entity client, if applicable, regarding the needed legal 66 services; and

67 (10) Any such other relevant factors as may be identified by the Attorney General or his 68 or her designee.

69 (f) If, after soliciting proposals for legal services, the Attorney General, or his or her 70 designee, determines that the proposals received are insufficient based on an application of the 71 factors set forth in subsection (e) of this section, additional proposals may be solicited pursuant 72 to subsections (b), (c) and (e) of this section.

73 (g) The state shall not enter into a contingency fee legal arrangement or contract as 74 defined herein for private attorney services unless the following requirements are met throughout 75 the contract period and any extensions thereof:

76 (1) The Attorney General, or the deputy or assistant Attorney General involved in the case, 77 shall retain control over the course and conduct of the case;

78 (2) The Attorney General, or the deputy or assistant Attorney General with supervisory 79 authority, is personally involved in overseeing the litigation;

80 (3) The Attorney General, or the deputy or assistant Attorney General involved in the case, 81 retains veto power over any decisions made by any appointed private attorneys; and 82 (4) Decisions regarding settlement of the case are reserved exclusively to the discretion 83 of the state or other client entity. An appropriate representative of the Attorney General's office 84 shall attend settlement conferences whenever possible.

85 (h) The state may not enter into any fee arrangement that provides for the private attorney 86 to receive an aggregate fee in excess of:

87 (1) Twenty five percent of the first $10 million recovered; plus

88 (2) Twenty percent of any portion of the recovery between $10 million and $15 million; 89 plus

90 (3) Fifteen percent of any portion of the recovery between $15 million and $20 million; plus

91 (4) Ten percent of any portion of the recovery between $20 million and $25 million; plus 92 (5) Five percent of any portion of the recovery exceeding $25 million.

93 In no event shall the aggregate fee for any legal matter exceed $50 million for any matters 94 arising from a single event or occurrence, exclusive of reasonable costs and expenses, and 95 irrespective of the number of lawsuits filed or the number of private attorneys retained to achieve 96 the recovery. Any legal fees shall not be based on penalties or fines awarded or any amounts 97 attributable to penalties or fines.

98 To the extent that any private attorneys are to be paid through a court-approved award of 99 attorney's fees, their appointment to represent the state is contingent upon the acceptance of the 100 fee limitations set forth herein. To the extent that any award of attorney's fees is subject to judicial 101 discretion, the private attorneys appointed pursuant to this section may not accept an award of 102 attorney fees greater than the fee limitations outlined in this subsection.

103 (i) The Attorney General shall develop a standard addendum to every contract for private 104 attorney services that shall be used in all cases, describing in detail what is expected of both the 105 contracted private attorney and the Attorney General's office, including, without limitation, the 106 requirements listed in subsection (h) of this section.

107 (j) Subject to the provisions of subsection (l) of this section, the Attorney General's written 108 determination to enter into any legal arrangement or contract with a private attorney shall be 109 posted on the Attorney General's website for public inspection within ten business days after the 110 selection of a private attorney and shall remain posted on the website for the duration of the 111 contract for legal services, including any extensions or amendments thereto. Any and all written 112 determinations made pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section shall also be posted on the 113 Attorney General's website for public inspection within ten business days after the issuance of 114 the written determination. Any payment of fees as set forth in subsection (h) of this section shall 115 be posted on the Attorney General's website within thirty calendar days after the payment of such 116 fees to the private attorney and shall remain posted on the website for at least three hundred 117 sixty-five calendar days thereafter.

118 (k) Any private attorney under contract to provide services to the state shall, from the 119 inception of the contract until at least four years after the contract expires or is terminated, 120 maintain detailed current records, including documentation of all expenses, disbursements, 121 charges, credits, underlying receipts and invoices, and other financial transactions that concern 122 the provision of such legal services. In conjunction with the Attorney General's office, the private 123 attorney shall make all such records that are not covered by the attorney-client privilege or 124 otherwise confidential in nature available for inspection and copying upon request in accordance 125 with the West Virginia Freedom of Information Act, sections one through seven, inclusive, article 126 one, chapter twenty-nine-b of this code. In addition, the private attorney shall maintain detailed 127 contemporaneous time records for the attorneys, other professionals and paraprofessionals 128 working on the matter for a period of at least four years and shall promptly provide these records 129 to the Attorney General upon request.

130 (l) The Attorney General retains the right to temporarily waive the disclosure requirements 131 set forth in subsection (j) of this section upon making a written determination that:

132 (1) A waiver is necessary to protect attorney-client or privileged information; or 133 (2) Immediate disclosure of the existence of an arrangement or contract with a private 134 attorney, or any other sensitive information, could compromise the initiation, handling or 135 conclusion of any investigation or case matter handled by the office of Attorney General.

136 Once any risks to the attorney-client privilege or confidential work product are no longer 137 present, the office of Attorney General shall make any and all suspended disclosures as soon as 138 possible and all subsequent disclosures in accordance with the time frame and manner set forth 139 by subsection (j) of this section.

140 (m) Once a private attorney is appointed pursuant to this section, he or she may thereafter 141 be designated as a special assistant Attorney General, and, upon such appointment, shall provide 142 representation subject to the terms contained in subsection (g) of this section.

143 (n) If the Attorney General's office chooses to not be involved in a legal matter as a result 144 of a conflict of interest, and thus cannot implement in good faith the provisions of this section as 145 a result of the conflict, then the process set forth herein shall be implemented by the client state 146 entity needing representation, with the assistance of the Department of Administration if 147 necessary.

148 (o) No members of a private law firm, or members of their staff, which is under contract to 149 provide legal services to the state pursuant to this section, after the effective date of this section, 150 may contribute to the election campaign for the office of Attorney General during the pendency of 151 the contract or for any election for said office occurring during the term of the contract.

152 (p) Nothing in this section expands the authority of any state agency or state agent to enter 153 into contracts nor shall it be deemed to change any existing law that authorizes a state agency or 154 state agent to employ its own counsel or enter into contracts for legal services.

§5-3-4. Annual report to Governor, President of the Senate and Speaker of the House.

1 (a) The Attorney General shall annually, on or before November 1, deliver to the Governor, 2 President of the Senate and Speaker of the House a report of detailing:

3 (1) The state and condition of the several causes, in which the state is a party, pending in 4 courts mentioned in section two of this article.

5 (2) The use of any fee arrangements as provided in subsection (h), section three-a of this 6 article with private attorneys in the preceding year. At a minimum, the report shall:

7 (A) Identify all new fee arrangements entered into during the year and all previously 8 executed fee arrangements that remain current during any part of the year and for each contract 9 describe:

10 (i) The name of the private attorney with whom the state has contracted, including the 11 name of the attorney's law firm;

12 (ii) The nature and status of the legal matter;

13 (iii) The name of the parties to the legal matter;

- 14 (iv) The amount of the recovery; and 15 (v) The amount of any legal fees paid.
16 (B) Include copies of any written determinations made pursuant to section three-a of this 17 article during the year.
18 (b) The Attorney General's annual report shall be posted on the Attorney General's 19 website within thirty days of submitting the report to the Governor, President of the Senate and 20 Speaker of the House, and shall remain posted on the website for at least two years thereafter.
21 (c) Nothing in this section shall be considered to require the Attorney General to report or 22 disclose any information protected by the attorney-client or other privilege.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to clarify the powers of the Attorney General to enter into contingency fee legal arrangements or contracts with private attorneys outside the Attorney General's office. The bill sets forth fee limitations and additional terms for such private attorneys and requires the Attorney General to utilize a competitive bidding process for the selection of private attorneys.
