2017 REGULAR SESSION

Enrolled

Committee Substitute

for

Senate Bill 233

SENATOR TRUMP, original sponsor

[Passed April 1, 2017; in effect 90 days from passage]

1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §62-1D-2 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 generally to the Wiretapping and Electronic Surveillance Act; excluding from protection 3 under the act oral communications uttered in a child care center where there are written 4 notices posted informing persons that their oral communications are subject to being 5 intercepted; and defining “child care center”.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

1 That §62-1D-2 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and 2 reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1D. WIRETAPPING AND ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE ACT.

§62-1D-2. Definitions.

1 As used in this article, unless the context in which used clearly requires otherwise, the 2 following terms have the meanings indicated:

3 (a) “Aggrieved person” means a person who was a party to any intercepted wire, oral or 4 electronic communication or a person against whom the interception was directed.

5 (b) “Child care center” means a facility maintained by the state or any county or 6 municipality thereof, or any agency or facility maintained by an individual, firm, corporation, 7 association or organization, public or private, that is licensed by Department of Health and Human 8 Resources for the care of children in any setting.

9 (c) “Communications common carrier” means any telegraph company or telephone 10 company and any radio common carrier.

11 (d) “Contents” when used with respect to any wire, oral or electronic communication, 12 includes any information concerning the substance, purport or meaning of that communication.

13 (e) “Electronic, mechanical or other device” means any device or apparatus: (i) Which can 14 be used to intercept a wire, oral or electronic communication; or (ii) the design of which renders it
15 primarily useful for the surreptitious interception of any such communication. There is excepted 16 from this definition:

17 (1) Any telephone or telegraph instrument, equipment or facility or any component thereof:

18 (a) Furnished to the subscriber or user by a provider of wire or electronic communication service
19 in the ordinary course of its business and being used by the subscriber or user in the ordinary 20 course of its business; or furnished by the subscriber or user for connection to the facilities of the 21 service and used in the ordinary course of its business; or (b) being used by a communications 22 common carrier in the ordinary course of its business or by an investigative or law-enforcement 23 officer in the ordinary course of his or her duties; or

24 (2) A hearing aid or similar device being used to correct subnormal hearing to not better 25 than normal; or

26 (3) Any device used in a lawful consensual monitoring including, but not limited to, tape 27 recorders, telephone induction coils, answering machines, body transmitters and pen registers.

28 (f) "Intercept" means the aural or other acquisition of the contents of any wire, electronic 29 or oral communication through the use of any electronic, mechanical or other device.

30 (g) "Designated judge" means a circuit court judge designated by the Chief Justice of the 31 West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals to hear and rule on applications for the interception of 32 wire, oral or electronic communications.

33 (h) "Investigative or law-enforcement officer" means a member or members of the West
34 Virginia State Police who is or are empowered by law to conduct investigations of or to make 35 arrest for offenses enumerated in this chapter.

36 (i) "Oral communication" means any oral communication uttered by a person exhibiting an 37 expectation that the communication is not subject to interception under circumstances justifying 38 the expectation. The term does not include:

39 (A) An electronic communication; or

40 (b) An oral communication uttered in any child care center where there are written notices 41 posted informing persons that their oral communications are subject to being intercepted.

42 (j) "Pen register" means a device which records or decodes electronic or other impulses 43 which identify the numbers dialed or otherwise transmitted on the telephone line to which the 44 device is attached, but the term does not include any device used by a provider or customer of a 45 wire or electronic communication service for billing, or recording as an incident to billing, for 46 communications services provided by the provider or any device used by a provider or customer
47 of a wire communication service for cost accounting or other like purposes in the ordinary course 48 of its business.

49 (k) "Person" means any person, individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, 50 trust or corporation and includes any police officer, employee or agent of this state or of a political 51 subdivision thereof.

52 (l) "Wire communication" means any aural transfer made in whole or in part through the 53 use of facilities for the transmission of communications by the aid of wire, cable or other like 54 connection between the point of origin and the point of reception (including the use of the 55 connection in a switching station) furnished or operated by any person engaged in providing or 56 operating the facilities for the transmission of interstate or foreign communications or 57 communications affecting interstate or foreign commerce and the term includes any electronic 58 storage of the communication, but the term does not include the radio portion of a cordless 59 telephone communication that is transmitted between the cordless telephone handset and the 60 base unit.

61 (m) "Electronic communication" means any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, 62 sounds, data or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electro-63 magnetic, photoelectronic or photooptical system but does not include:

64 (1) The radio portion of a cordless telephone communication that is transmitted between 65 the cordless telephone handset and the base unit;

66 (2) Any wire or oral communication; or

67 (3) Any combination made through a tone-only paging device.

68 (n) "User" means any person or entity who or which uses an electronic communication 69 service and is duly authorized by the provider of the service to engage in the use.

70 (o) "Electronic communications system" means any wire, radio, electromagnetic, 71 photooptical or photoelectronic facilities for the transmission of electronic communications, and 72 any computer facilities or related electronic equipment for the electronic storage of the 73 communications.

74 (p) "Electronic communication service" means any service which provides to users thereof 75 the ability to send or receive wire or electronic communications.

76 (q) "Aural transfer" means a transfer containing the human voice at any point between and 77 including the point of origin and the point of reception.

78 (r) "Trap and trace device" means a device which captures the incoming electronic or other 79 impulses which identify the originating number of an instrument or device from which a wire or 80 electronic communication was transmitted.
