§5-26-3. Definitions.

1 As used in this article:

2 (1) "Director" means the executive director of the Herbert Henderson Office of Inclusion.

3 (2) "Initiative" means the West Side Revive Comprehensive Community Development
4 Initiative operating under a collaborative of local community-based nonprofit organizations in 5 Charleston, West Virginia.

6 (3) "Office" means the Herbert Henderson Office of Inclusion.

§5-26-4. Establishment of a community-based pilot demonstration to address poverty, substance abuse and other social determinants of health to improve community and populations' health; to improve labor force participation; to support economic development; through comprehensive community development in rural, suburban and urban communities across West Virginia; operation of project; objectives.

1 (a) Effective July 1, 2017, the office shall establish a community-based pilot demonstration
2 project, for the duration of four years, to develop a model to promote public health through 3 comprehensive community development in communities across West Virginia. The director shall
4 support the pilot project by working with the Governor's Cabinet Secretaries, to coordinate state
5 agencies' activities and involvement, and by identifying potential funding sources. The director
6 shall take the lead role in coordinating the activities of the state agencies. The project shall be
7 operated by the West Side Revive Comprehensive Community Development Initiative, a
8 collaborative of local community-based nonprofit organizations in Charleston, West Virginia. If 9 funds are available, the pilot project may receive funding from the Office of Inclusion Fund,
10 established in section two of this article. The project is designed to be executed by coordinating 11 existing funded projects.

12 (b) The pilot project shall operate in the West Side neighborhood of Charleston, West
13 Virginia, and shall operate out of a centrally located building owned by a local nonprofit 14 organization to coordinate services for members of the community. The pilot project shall be 15 overseen by a collaborative of local nonprofit organizations.

16 (c) The objective of the pilot project is to create a template to address poverty, substance
17 abuse and other social determinants of health; to improve community and populations' health; to 18 improve labor force participation; and to support economic development through comprehensive 19 community development in rural, suburban and urban communities across West Virginia. The 20 plan will later serve as a model for initiatives across the state. In operating the pilot project, the 21 initiative shall collaborate with other organizations and agencies to:

22 (1) Promote early childhood development;

23 (2) Reduce childhood poverty;

24 (3) Reduce childhood obesity;

25 (4) Promote third grade reading proficiency;

26 (5) Promote STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Math) and 27 prevocational education;

28 (6) Reduce school truancy and drop-outs;

29 (7) Promote comprehensive education reform;

30 (8) Coordinate social services to foster comprehensive youth and family development;

31 (9) Reduce delinquency of children;

32 (10) Reduce child abuse and neglect;

33 (11) Promote health and wellness;

34 (12) Reduce domestic violence;

35 (13) Develop a comprehensive plan to prevent and treat substance abuse;

36 (14) Provide job training and workforce development;

- 37 (15) Promote economic development;
- 38 (16) Provide housing rehabilitation, weatherization and construction; and
- 39 (17) Promote adult and juvenile offender reentry into the community.
- 40 (d) In order to further the objectives of the pilot project, the initiative shall leverage existing
- 41 resources, including, but not limited to, housing and urban development services provided by the
- 42 federal government and any youth, education and family services offered by the state government
- 43 or other local organizations.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to establish a community-based pilot project to promote public health through comprehensive community development in communities across West Virginia, and to support this project through the Herbert Henderson Office of Inclusion (formerly the Herbert Henderson Office of Minority Affairs).
