1 A BILL to amend and reenact §4-2A-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating
 2 to limiting the number of days members of the Legislature may receive compensation
 3 during an extended and extraordinary session if the budget bill has not been enacted.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 2A. COMPENSATION FOR AND EXPENSES OF MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

§4-2A-3. Compensation for members of the Legislature during any extension of regular session or during extraordinary session, limitation if budget bill not enacted.

1 Each member of the Legislature shall receive, in addition to the basic compensation
 2 provided ~~for~~ in section two of this article, additional compensation of $150 per day for each day
 3 of attendance in person upon any business of the Senate or House of Delegates, as the case
 4 may be, on each day upon which the Senate or House of Delegates is actually called to order
 5 during each extension of regular session or during extraordinary session of the Legislature:
 6 Provided, That no member of the Legislature may receive compensation for more than five days
 7 of attendance for all extended or extraordinary sessions, following the regular session of the 8 Legislature, during which the budget bill has not been enacted for the upcoming fiscal year. The 9 additional compensation shall be paid from time to time during any extended session or 10 extraordinary session, as prescribed by rules established by the Legislative Auditor.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to limit the compensation of members of the Legislature to no more than five days in a special session where a budget bill has not been enacted.
