

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2018 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

Senate Bill 9

FISCAL NOTE

BY SENATOR TRUMP

[Introduced January 10, 2018; Referred to the Committee on Education; and then to the Committee on Finance]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §18-9A-13, relating to adding an amount to the appropriation for serving
 3 exceptional students with high-cost/high-acuity special needs that is based on the 4 reduction in net enrollment multiplied by the average net state aid per pupil for the 5 preceding school year; limiting the amount added; and providing for disbursement of 6 amount added.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 9A. PUBLIC SCHOOL SUPPORT.

§18-9A-13. Allowance for exceptional students with high-cost/high-acuity special needs.

1 Commencing with the 2019 fiscal year, the amount of the reduction in state aid that is due
 2 to the decrease in net enrollment from the preceding school year, calculated by multiplying the
 3 reduction in net enrollment by the average net state aid per pupil for the preceding school year,
 4 shall be added to the appropriation made to the Department of Education pursuant to §18-20-5
 5 of this code: Provided, That the amount added to the appropriation pursuant to this section is
 6 limited to the amount that the funds appropriated pursuant to §18-20-5 of this code and available
 7 federal funds were insufficient to reimburse all eligible county boards fully for the costs of serving
 8 the high-cost/high-acuity special needs students in the most recent year available. The amount 9 added shall be disbursed to county boards to assist them with serving exceptional students with 10 high-cost/high-acuity special needs in accordance with section five, article twenty of this chapter.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to direct certain school funding to assist county boards of education with serving exceptional students with high-cost/high-acuity special needs.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.