

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2019 REGULAR SESSION

Committee Substitute

for

House Bill 2941

BY DELEGATES GRAVES, HIGGINBOTHAM, KESSINGER,
SUMMERS, BARRETT, LAVENDER-BOWE, STORCH,
STEELE, QUEEN, DOYLE AND HANSHAW (MR. SPEAKER)

[Originating in the Committee on Finance;

February 21, 2019.]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §11-13X-3, §11-13X-4, §11-13X-5, §11-13X-6, §11-13X-8, 2 §11-13X-11, §11-13X-12, and §11-13X-13 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as 3 amended, all relating to the West Virginia Film Industry Investment Act; reinstating the 4 film investment tax credit; providing the coordination and management by the West
5 Virginia Development Office; excluding short-term depreciation from credit; raising the 6 minimum threshold of expenditures to qualify for credit; establishing an annual limit in 7 credits available; requiring the Development Office to develop a database of locations, 8 music, and other resources to be made available to film production teams; and requiring 9 state agencies to solicit bids from West Virginia vendors for film or video projects if 10 available.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 13X. WEST VIRGINIA FILM INDUSTRY INVESTMENT ACT.

§11-13X-3. Definitions.

1 (a) General. — When used in this article, or in the administration of this article, terms
2 defined in subsection (b) of this section have the meanings ascribed to them by this section,
3 unless a different meaning is clearly required by the context in which the term is used.

36 national or international commercial exploitation.

37 ~~(6)~~ "Film office" means the West Virginia Film Office, which is a division of the West
38 Virginia Department of Commerce

39 (7) "Postproduction expenditure" means a transaction that occurs in West Virginia or with 40 a West Virginia vendor after the completion of principal photography, including editing and 41 negative cutting, Foley recording and sound effects, automatic dialogue replacement (also known 42 as ADR or dubbing), special effects or visual effects, including computer-generated imagery or 43 other effects, scoring and music editing, sound editing, beginning and end credits, soundtrack 44 production, subtitling or addition of sound or visual effects; but not including an expenditure for 45 advertising, marketing, distribution or expense payments.

46 (8) "Qualified project" means a feature length theatrical or direct-to-video motion picture,
47 a made-for-television motion picture, a commercial or other promotional video, a music video,
48 commercial still photography, a television pilot program, a television series and a television mini-49 series that incurs a minimum of ~~$25,000~~ $50,000 in direct production expenditures and post-
50 production expenditures, as defined by this subsection, in West Virginia. The term excludes news 51 or current affairs programming, a weather or market program, an interview or talk show, a sporting 52 event or show, an awards show, a gala, a production that solicits funds, a home shopping
53 program, a program that primarily markets a product or service, political advertising or a concert 54 production.

55 A qualified project may be produced on any single media or multimedia program that:

56 (A) Is fixed on film, digital medium, videotape, computer disk, laser disc or other similar 57 delivery medium;

58 (B) Can be viewed or reproduced;

59 (C) Is not intended to and does not violate §61-8C-1 et seq. of this code;

60 (D) Does not contain obscene matter or sexually explicit conduct, as defined by §61-8A-1 61 et seq. of this code;

62 (E) Is intended for reasonable commercial exploitation for the delivery medium used; and

63 (F) Does not contain content that portrays the State of West Virginia in a significantly 64 derogatory manner.

65 (9) "Tax Commissioner" means the West Virginia State Tax Commissioner or his or her 66 designee.

§11-13X-4. Creation of the tax credit.

1 (a) An eligible company may apply for, and the Tax Commissioner shall allow, a
2 nonrefundable tax credit in an amount equal to the percentage specified in §11-13X-5 of this code 3 of:

4 (1) Direct production expenditures incurred in West Virginia that are directly attributable to 5 the production in West Virginia of a qualified project ~~and that~~ which expenditures occur in West
6 Virginia or with a West Virginia vendor; and

7 (2) Postproduction expenditures incurred in West Virginia that are:

8 (A) Directly attributable to the production of a qualified project;

9 (B) For services performed in West Virginia.

10 (b) Expenditures utilized by an eligible company for purposes of calculating the tax credit
11 authorized by this article shall in no event be utilized by the eligible company for the purpose 12 calculating or qualifying investment for claiming the economic opportunity tax credit authorized by 13 §11-13Q-1 et seq. of this code or the manufacturing investment tax credit authorized by 14 §11-13S-1 et seq. of this code.

§11-13X-5. Amount of credit allowed; limitation of the credits.

1 (a) Base allowance. — The amount of credit allowed to every eligible company, except as 2 provided in subsection (b) of this section, is 27 percent.

3 (b) Extra allowance for hiring of local workers. — Any amount allowed in subsection (a) of 4 this section shall be increased by an additional four percent if the eligible company, or its 5 authorized payroll service company, employs 10 or more West Virginia residents as part of its full-6 time employees working in the state or as apprentices working in the state.

7 (c) Application of the credits. — The tax credit allowed under this section shall be applied
8 to the eligible company's state tax liability as provided in §11-13X-7 of this code.

9 (d) Limitation of the credits. — No more than ~~$5~~ $10 million of the tax credits may be 10 allocated by the ~~film~~ development office in any given West Virginia state fiscal year: Provided,
11 That the development office may allocate a greater amount of credit for any feature length film
12 produced with “West Virginia” in the title or if the subject of the film is clearly identified as West
13 Virginia. The ~~film~~ development office shall allocate the tax credits in the order the applications 14 therefor are received.

§11-13X-6. Requirements for credit.

1 (a) In order for any eligible company to claim a tax credit under this article, it shall comply
2 with the following requirements:

3 (1) If the qualified project contains production credits, the eligible company shall agree,
4 upon request by the ~~film~~ development office, to recognize the State of West Virginia with the 5 following acknowledgment in the end credit roll: “Filmed in West Virginia with assistance of the 6 West Virginia Film Industry Investment Act”;

7 (2) Apply to the ~~film~~ development office on forms and in the manner the ~~film~~ development 8 office may prescribe; and

9 (3) Submit to the ~~film~~ development office information required by the ~~film~~ development 10 office to demonstrate conformity with the requirements of this section and shall agree in writing:

11 (A) To pay all obligations the eligible company has incurred in West Virginia; and

12 (B) To delay filing of a claim for the tax credit authorized by this article until the ~~film~~
13 development office delivers written notification to the Tax Commissioner that the eligible company 14 has fulfilled all requirements for the credit.

15 The ~~film~~ development office shall determine the eligibility of the company and the 16 qualification of each project, and shall report this information to the Tax Commissioner in a manner
17 and at times the ~~film~~ development office and the Tax Commissioner shall agree upon.

18 (b) Upon completion of a qualified project:

19 (1) An eligible company shall have filed all required West Virginia tax reports and returns
20 and paid any balance of West Virginia tax due on those returns;

21 (2) All claims for the tax credit shall be filed with an expense verification report prepared 22 by an independent certified public accountant, utilizing "agreed upon procedures" which are 23 prescribed by the ~~film~~ development office in accordance with generally accepted auditing
24 standards in the United States. The certified public accountant will render a report as to the 25 qualification of the credits, consistent with guidelines to be determined by the ~~film~~ development
26 office and approved by the Tax Commissioner; and

27 (3) An eligible company claiming an extra allowance for employing local workers shall 28 submit to the ~~film~~ development office documentation verifying West Virginia residency for all 29 individuals claimed to qualify for the extra allowance. The documentation shall include the name, 30 home address and telephone number for all individuals used to qualify for the extra allowance.

31 (c) If the requirements of this section have been complied with, the ~~film~~ development office 32 shall approve the film tax credit and issue a document granting the appropriate tax credit to the 33 eligible company and shall report this information to the Tax Commissioner.

§11-13X-8. Uses of credit; unused credit; carry forward; carry back prohibited; expiration and forfeiture of credit.

1 (a) No credit is allowed under this section against any employer withholding taxes imposed
2 by §11-21-1 et seq. of this code.

3 (b) If the tax credit allowed under this article in any taxable year exceeds the sum of the 4 taxes enumerated in subsections (b), (c), or (d) of §11-13X-7 of this code, for that taxable year,
5 the excess may be applied against those taxes, in the order and manner stated in §11-13X-7 of 6 this code, for succeeding taxable years until the earlier of the following:

7 (1) The full amount of the excess tax credit is used;

8 (2) The expiration of the second taxable year after the taxable year in which the 9 expenditures occurred. The tax credit remaining thereafter is forfeited; or 10 (3) The excess tax credit is transferred or sold.

11 (c) No carryback is allowed to a prior taxable year that does not have qualified 12 expenditures for the amount of any unused portion of any annual credit allowance.

13 (d) The transfer or sale of this credit does not extend the time in which the credit can be 14 used. The carry forward period for credit that is transferred or sold begins on the date on which 15 the credit was originally issued by the ~~film~~ development office.

16 (e) Any tax credit certificate issued in accordance with this article, which has been issued
17 to an eligible company, and to the extent not previously claimed against the tax of the eligible 18 company or the owner of the certificate, may be transferred or sold by such eligible company to 19 another West Virginia taxpayer, subject to the following conditions:

20 (1) A single transfer or sale may involve one or more transferees, assignees or purchasers.
21 A transfer or sale of the credits may involve multiple transfers to one or more transferees,
22 assignees or purchasers;

23 (2) Transferors and sellers shall apply to the ~~film~~ development office for approval of any 24 transfer, sale or assignment of the tax credit. Any amount of the tax credit that has been 25 transferred or assigned shall be subject to the same limitations and conditions that apply to the 26 eligible company's or seller's entitlement, use and application of the credit. The application for 27 sale, transfer or assignment of the credit shall include the transferor's tax credit balance prior to 28 transfer, the credit certificate number, the name of the seller, the transferor's remaining tax credit 29 balance after transfer, if any, all tax identification numbers for both transferor and transferee, the 30 date of transfer, the amount transferred, a copy of the credit certificate and any other information
31 required by the ~~film~~ development office or the Tax Commissioner.

32 (3) The ~~film~~ development office shall not approve the transfer or assignment of a tax credit
33 if the seller or transferor has an outstanding tax obligation with the State of West Virginia for any 34 prior taxable year.

35 (f) The transferee, assignee or purchaser shall apply such credits in the same manner and 36 against the same taxes as specified in this article.

37 (g) For purposes of this chapter, any proceeds received by the eligible company or 38 transferor for its assignment or sale of the tax credits allowed pursuant to this section are exempt
39 from the West Virginia consumers sales and service tax, use tax, the corporate net income tax, 40 and personal income tax.

41 (h) The Tax Commissioner shall not seek recourse against the transferee for any portion 42 of the credit that may be subsequently disqualified.

43 Failure to comply with this section will result in the disallowance of the tax credit until the 44 seller or transferor is in full compliance.

§11-13X-11. Tax credit review and accountability.

1 (a) Beginning on the first day of the third taxable year after the passage of this article and 2 every two years thereafter, the ~~film~~ development office shall submit to the Governor, the President
3 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates a tax credit review and accountability
4 report evaluating the cost effectiveness of the Film Industry Investment Act during the most recent 5 two-year period for which information is available. The criteria to be evaluated shall include, but 6 not be limited to, for each year of the two-year period:

- 7 (1) The number of eligible companies claiming the credit;
- 8 (2) The dollar amount of tax credit certificates issued to taxpayers;
- 9 (3) The number of new businesses created by the tax credit;
- 10 (4) The number of new jobs, if any, created by the tax credit;
- 11 (5) The amount of direct expenditures made on qualified projects; and
- 12 (6) The cost of the credit.

13 (b) Eligible companies claiming the credit shall provide any information the Tax
14 Commissioner and the ~~film~~ development office may require to prepare the report: Provided, That 15 the information provided is subject to the confidentiality and disclosure provisions of §11-10-5d

16 and §11-10-5s of this code. However, notwithstanding the provisions of §11-10-5d and §11-10-17 5s of this code, the Tax Department is hereby authorized to disclose to the film and to the 18 Development Office such tax information as may be necessary to compile the report required by 19 this section and the report required by §11-13X-12 of this code.

§11-13X-12. Economic development; utilization of state locations, talent, and production companies.

1 (a) The West Virginia Development Office, in consultation and coordination with the 2 appropriate public and private entities, shall promote, foster, encourage and monitor the 3 development of the film industry in this state as part of its comprehensive economic development
4 strategy for West Virginia and report recommendations for expanding the industry in the state to 5 the Governor and the Joint Committee on Government and Finance annually on or before 6 December 1.

7 (b) The West Virginia Development Office shall coordinate with property owners, 8 musicians and other performers, and other managers of resources suitable for film production to 9 develop a database of locations, music, and other resources available for incorporation into film
10 projects. To the greatest feasible extent, the development office shall establish methods for 11 interface with national and international databases of these resources that are available to, or 12 used by, film and video production teams in the identification and selection of location, music, and 13 other resources. The development office shall also implement means for property owners and for 14 staff in the field to connect to the state's database and to submit entries or nominations thereto.

15 (c) Every agency of the State of West Virginia that contracts for video production of 16 advertising, promotional material, educational programs, or dramatic works shall obtain bids from 17 West Virginia production companies and marketing businesses, if available, in the solicitation of 18 vendors for such projects.

§11-13X-13. Effective date, elimination of film tax credits, preservation of film tax credits earned prior to the sunset date; cessation of the West Virginia Film Office.

1 (a) The credit allowed by this article shall be allowed upon eligible expenditures occurring
2 after December 31, 2007.

3 (b) The amendments to this article enacted in the year 2009 shall apply to all taxable years
4 beginning after December 31, 2007, and shall apply with retroactive effect with relation to taxable
5 years beginning prior to the date of passage of such amendments.

6 ~~(c) No tax credits authorized under this article shall be issued following the effective date
7 of legislation establishing this subsection, §11-13X-13(d), and §11-13X-13(e) of this code in the 8 year 2018. Notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, no entitlement to any tax
9 credit under this article may result from, and no credit is available to any person for, expenditures
10 incurred following the effective date of this subsection.~~

11 ~~(d) (c)~~ Notwithstanding the provisions of §11-13X-13(c) of this code, film Film tax credits
12 to which a taxpayer has gained lawful entitlement prior to the effective date of this subsection, 13 may continue to be applied against tax liabilities, subject to the conditions, limitations, and 14 constraints applicable to such credit under this article, until exhausted or otherwise terminated in 15 accordance with the terms of this article and this code. Film tax credits to which a taxpayer has 16 gained lawful entitlement prior to the effective date of this subsection may be transferred in 17 accordance with §11-13X-8 of this code, subject to the conditions, limitations, and constraints 18 applicable to such credit under this article, until exhausted or otherwise terminated in accordance 19 with the terms of this article and this code.

20 ~~(e) (d)~~ Effective July 1, 2018, all operations of the West Virginia Film Office shall cease.
21 To the extent necessary to settle, finalize, and conclude business relating to outstanding film tax
22 credits issued prior to the effective date of the bill, the Division of Tourism is hereby authorized to 23 administer such duties for that limited purpose.
