66 event the ~~board~~ Intermediate Court of Appeals shall remand the case to the ~~chief administrative~~ 67 ~~law judge~~ Board of Review for the taking of further evidence, the ~~administrative law judge~~ Board 68 of Review shall proceed to take new, additional, or further evidence in accordance with any 69 instruction given by the ~~board court~~ within 30 days after receipt of the order remanding the case.
70 The ~~chief administrative law judge~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall give to the 71 interested parties at least 10 days' written notice of the supplemental hearing, unless the taking 72 of evidence is postponed by agreement of parties, or by the ~~administrative law judge~~ board of 73 review for good cause. After the completion of a supplemental hearing, the ~~administrative law~~
74 ~~judge~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review shall, within 60 days, render ~~his or her~~ its decision
75 affirming, reversing, or modifying the former action of the ~~administrative law judge~~ Workers' 76 Compensation Board of Review. The decision shall be appealable to, and proceeded with, by 77 the ~~board of review~~ Intermediate Court of Appeals in the same manner as other appeals. In 78 addition, upon a finding of good cause, the ~~board court~~ may remand the case to the ~~Workers'~~ 79 ~~Compensation Commission, the successor to the commission~~ Insurance Commissioner, other 80 private insurance carriers, ~~and~~ or self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, for further 81 development. Any decision made by the ~~commission, the successor to the commission~~ Insurance 82 Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, ~~and~~ or self-insured employers, whichever is 83 applicable, following a remand, shall be subject to objection to the ~~office of judges~~ Workers'
84 Compensation Board of Review and not to the ~~board~~ Intermediate Court of Appeals. The ~~board~~ 85 Intermediate Court of Appeals may remand any case as often as, in its opinion, is necessary for 86 a full development and just decision of the case.

87 ~~(e) All appeals from the action of the administrative law judge shall be decided by the~~ 88 ~~board at the same session at which they are heard, unless good cause for delay thereof be shown~~ 89 ~~and entered of record.~~

90 (f) (e) In all proceedings before the board Intermediate Court of Appeals, any party may 91 be represented by counsel.

92 (f) The amendments to this section made during the 2020 Regular Session of the 93 Legislature become effective on July 1, 2021.

§23-5-13. Continuances and supplemental hearings; claims not to be denied on technicalities.

1 (a) It is the policy of this chapter that the rights of claimants for workers' compensation be 2 determined as speedily and expeditiously as possible to the end that those incapacitated by 3 injuries and the dependents of deceased workers may receive benefits as quickly as possible in 4 view of the severe economic hardships which immediately befall the families of injured or 5 deceased workers. Therefore, the criteria for continuances and supplemental hearings "for good 6 cause shown" are to be strictly construed by the ~~chief administrative law judge and his or her~~
7 Workers' Compensation Board of Review and its authorized representatives to prevent delay 8 when granting or denying continuances and supplemental hearings. It is also the policy of this 9 chapter to prohibit the denial of just claims of injured or deceased workers or their dependents on 10 technicalities.

11 (b) The amendments to this section made during the 2020 Regular Session of the 12 Legislature become effective on July 1, 2021.

§23-5-15. Appeals from final decisions of board to Supreme Court of Appeals prior to July 1, 2021; procedure; costs.

1 (a) As provided in §23-5-8a of this code, the provisions of this section do not apply to any 2 decision issued by the Workers' Compensation Board of Review after June 30, 2021.

3 (a) ~~(b)~~ Review of any final decision of the board, including any order of remand, may be 4 prosecuted by either party or by the ~~Workers' Compensation Commission, the successor to the~~ 5 ~~commission~~ Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured 6 employers, whichever is applicable, to the Supreme Court of Appeals within 30 days from the 7 date of the final order by filing a petition therefor with the court against the board and the adverse 8 party or parties as respondents. Unless the petition for review is filed within the 30-day period, no 9 appeal or review shall be allowed, such time limitation is a condition of the right to such appeal or 10 review and hence jurisdictional. The clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall notify each of 11 the respondents and the ~~Workers' Compensation Commission, the successor to the commission~~
12 Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever 13 is applicable, of the filing of such petition. The board shall, within 10 days after receipt of the 14 notice, file with the clerk of the court the record of the proceedings had before it, including all the 15 evidence. The court or any judge thereof in vacation may thereupon determine whether or not a 16 review shall be granted. If review is granted to a nonresident of this state, he or she shall be 17 required to execute and file with the clerk before an order or review shall become effective, a 18 bond, with security to be approved by the clerk, conditioned to perform any judgment which may 19 be awarded against him or her. The board may certify to the court and request its decision of any 20 question of law arising upon the record, and withhold its further proceeding in the case, pending 21 the decision of court on the certified question, or until notice that the court has declined to docket 22 the same. If a review is granted or the certified question is docketed for hearing, the clerk shall 23 notify the board and the parties litigant or their attorneys and the ~~Workers' Compensation~~
24 ~~Commission, the successor to the commission~~ Insurance Commissioner, other private insurance 25 carriers, and self-insured employers, whichever is applicable, of that fact by mail. If a review is 26 granted or the certified question docketed, the case shall be heard by the court in the same 27 manner as in other cases, except that neither the record nor briefs need be printed. Every review 28 granted or certified question docketed prior to 30 days before the beginning of the term, shall be

29 placed upon the docket for that term. The Attorney General shall, without extra compensation, 30 represent the board in such cases. The court shall determine the matter brought before it and 31 certify its decision to the board and to the commission. The cost of the proceedings on petition, 32 including a reasonable attorney's fee, not exceeding $30 to the claimant's attorney, shall be fixed 33 by the court and taxed against the employer if the latter is unsuccessful. If the claimant, or the 34 commission (in case the latter is the applicant for review) is unsuccessful, the costs, not including 35 attorney's fees, shall be taxed against the commission, payable out of the Workers' Compensation
36 Fund, or shall be taxed against the claimant, in the discretion of the court: But there shall be no 37 cost taxed upon a certified question.

38 ~~(b)~~ (c) In reviewing a decision of the board of review, the Supreme Court of Appeals shall 39 consider the record provided by the board and give deference to the board's findings, reasoning, 40 and conclusions, in accordance with subsections ~~(c)~~, and (d) and (e) of this section.

41 ~~(c)~~ (d) If the decision of the board represents an affirmation of a prior ruling by both the 42 commission and the Office of Judges that was entered on the same issue in the same claim, the 43 decision of the board may be reversed or modified by the Supreme Court of Appeals only if the 44 decision is in clear violation of constitutional or statutory provision, is clearly the result of 45 erroneous conclusions of law, or is based upon the board's material misstatement or 46 mischaracterization of particular components of the evidentiary record. The court may not conduct 47 a de novo reweighing of the evidentiary record. If the court reverses or modifies a decision of the 48 board pursuant to this subsection, it shall state with specificity the basis for the reversal or 49 modification and the manner in which the decision of the board clearly violated constitutional or 50 statutory provisions, resulted from erroneous conclusions of law, or was based upon the board's 51 material misstatement or mischaracterization of particular components of the evidentiary record.

52 ~~(d)~~ (e) If the decision of the board effectively represents a reversal of a prior ruling of either 53 the commission or the Office of Judges that was entered on the same issue in the same claim, 54 the decision of the board may be reversed or modified by the Supreme Court of Appeals only if 55 the decision is in clear violation of constitutional or statutory provisions, is clearly the result of 56 erroneous conclusions of law, or is so clearly wrong based upon the evidentiary record that even 57 when all inferences are resolved in favor of the board's findings, reasoning, and conclusions, 58 there is insufficient support to sustain the decision. The court may not conduct a de novo 59 reweighing of the evidentiary record. If the court reverses or modifies a decision of the board 60 pursuant to this subsection, it shall state with specificity the basis for the reversal or modification 61 and the manner in which the decision of the board clearly violated constitutional or statutory 62 provisions, resulted from erroneous conclusions of law, or was so clearly wrong based upon the 63 evidentiary record that even when all inferences are resolved in favor of the board's findings, 64 reasoning, and conclusions, there is insufficient support to sustain the decision.

§23-5-16. Fees of attorney for claimant; unlawful charging or receiving of attorney fees.

1 (a) An attorney's fee in excess of 20 percent of any award granted may not be charged or 2 received by an attorney for a claimant or dependent. In no case may the fee received by the 3 attorney of the claimant or dependent be in excess of 20 percent of the benefits, to be paid during 4 a period of 208 weeks. The interest on disability or dependent benefits, as provided in this chapter, 5 may not be considered as part of the award in determining the attorney's fee. However, any 6 contract entered into in excess of 20 percent of the benefits to be paid during a period of 208 7 weeks, as herein provided, is unlawful and unenforceable as contrary to the public policy of this 8 state and any fee charged or received by an attorney in violation thereof is an unlawful practice 9 and renders the attorney subject to disciplinary action.

10 (b) On a final settlement an attorney may charge a fee not to exceed 20 percent of the 11 total value of the medical and indemnity benefits: Provided, That this attorney's fee, when 12 combined with any fees previously charged or received by the attorney for permanent partial 13 disability or permanent total disability benefits may not exceed 20 percent of an award of benefits 14 to be paid during a period of 208 weeks.

15 (c) Except attorney's fees and costs recoverable pursuant to §23-2C-21(c) of this code, 16 an attorney's fee for successful recovery of denied medical benefits may be charged or received 17 by an attorney and paid by the private carrier or self-insured employer, for a claimant or dependent 18 under this section. In no event may attorney's fees and costs be awarded pursuant to both this 19 section and §23-2C-21(c) of this code.

20 (1) If a claimant successfully prevails in a proceeding relating to a denial of medical 21 benefits brought before the ~~commission, successor to the commission~~ Insurance Commissioner, 22 other private carrier, or self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, as a result of utilization 23 review, arbitration, mediation, or other proceedings, or a combination thereof, relating to denial of 24 medical benefits before the ~~Office of Judges~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review, or a court, 25 there shall additionally be charged against the private carriers or self-insured employers, 26 whichever is applicable, the reasonable costs and reasonable hourly attorney's fees of the 27 claimant. Following the successful resolution of the denial in favor of the claimant, a fee petition 28 shall be submitted by the claimant's attorney to the Insurance Commissioner or his or her 29 successors, arbitrators, mediator, the ~~Office of Judges~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review 30 or a court, whichever enters a final decision on the issue. An attorney representing a claimant 31 must submit a claim for attorney's fees and costs within 30 days following a decision in which the 32 claimant prevails and the order becomes final.

33 (2) The Insurance Commissioner or his or her successors, arbitrators, ~~mediator~~ mediators, 34 the ~~Office of Judges~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review, or a court shall enter an order 35 within 30 days awarding reasonable attorney's fees not to exceed $125 per hour and reasonable 36 costs of the claimant to be paid by the private carriers or self-insured employers, whichever is 37 applicable, which shall be paid as directed. In no event may an award of the claimant's attorney's 38 fees under this subsection exceed $500 per litigated medical issue, not to exceed $2,500 in a 39 claim.

40 (3) In determining the reasonableness of the attorney's fees to be awarded, the Insurance 41 Commissioner, arbitrator, mediator, ~~Office of Judges~~ Workers' Compensation Board of Review, 42 or court shall consider the experience of the attorney, the complexity of the issue, the hours 43 expended, and the contingent nature of the fee.

44 (d) The amendments to this section made during the 2020 regular session of the 45 Legislature become effective on July 1, 2021.

CHAPTER 29A. STATE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT.

ARTICLE 5. CONTESTED CASES.

§29A-5-4. Judicial review of contested cases.

1 (a) Any party adversely affected by a final order or decision in a contested case is entitled 2 to judicial review thereof under this chapter, but nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prevent 3 other means of review, redress, or relief provided by law.

4 (b) Proceedings for review of any final order or decision issued on or before June 30, 5 2021, shall be instituted by filing a petition, at the election of the petitioner, in either the Circuit
6 Court of Kanawha County, West Virginia, or in the circuit court of the county in which the petitioner 7 or any one of the petitioners resides or does business, or with the judge thereof in vacation, within 8 30 days after the date upon which such party received notice of the final order or decision of the 9 agency. Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, proceedings for judicial review 10 of any final order or decision issued after June 30, 2021, must be instituted by filing an appeal, at 11 the election of a party desiring appeal, to the Intermediate Court of Appeals as provided in 12 §51-11-1 et seq. of this code. A copy of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all other 13 parties of record by registered or certified mail. The petition shall state whether the appeal is taken 14 on questions of law or questions of fact, or both. No appeal bond shall be required to effect any 15 such appeal.

16 (c) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency order or decision or 17 act as a supersedeas thereto, but the agency may stay such enforcement, and the appellant, at 18 any time after the filing of his or her petition, may apply to such ~~circuit~~ court for a stay of or 19 supersedeas to such final order or decision. Pending the appeal, the court may grant a stay or 20 supersedeas upon such terms as it deems proper.

21 (d) Within 15 days after receipt of a copy of the petition by the agency, or within such 22 further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to such ~~circuit~~ court the original or 23 a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review, including a transcript of all 24 testimony and all papers, motions, documents, evidence, and records as were before the agency, 25 all agency staff memoranda submitted in connection with the case, and a statement of matters 26 officially noted; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be 27 shortened. The expense of preparing such record shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the 28 appeal. The appellant shall provide security for costs satisfactory to the court. Any party 29 unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional 30 costs involved. Upon demand by any party to the appeal, the agency shall furnish, at the cost of 31 the party requesting same, a copy of such record. In the event the complete record is not filed 32 with the court within the time provided for in this section, the appellant may apply to the court to 33 have the case docketed, and the court shall order such record filed.

34 (e) Appeals taken on questions of law, fact, or both, shall be heard upon assignments of 35 error filed in the cause or set out in the briefs of the appellant. Errors not argued by brief may be 36 disregarded, but the court may consider and decide errors which are not assigned or argued. The 37 court or judge shall fix a date and time for the hearing on the petition, but such hearing, unless by 38 agreement of the parties, shall not be held sooner than 10 days after the filing of the petition, and 39 notice of such date and time shall be forthwith given to the agency.

40 (f) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be upon the record 41 made before the agency, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the 42 agency, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken before the court. The court may 43 hear oral arguments and require written briefs.

44 (g) The court may affirm the order or decision of the agency or remand the case for further 45 proceedings. It shall reverse, vacate, or modify the order or decision of the agency if the 46 substantial rights of the petitioner or petitioners have been prejudiced because the administrative 47 findings, inferences, conclusions, decision, or order are:

48 (1) In violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; ~~or~~

49 (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency; ~~or~~

50 (3) Made upon unlawful procedures; ~~or~~

51 (4) Affected by other error of law; ~~or~~

52 (5) Clearly wrong in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole 53 record; or

54 (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted 55 exercise of discretion.

56 (h) The judgment of the circuit court or the Intermediate Court of Appeals, whichever is 57 applicable, shall be final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal to the Supreme Court 58 of Appeals of this state in accordance with the provisions of §29A-6-1 of this code.

3 is hereby conferred upon such court to hear and entertain such appeals upon application made 4 therefor in the manner and within the time provided by law for civil appeals generally: Provided,

2 decision entered by a family court after June 30, 2021, must be made to the Intermediate Court
3 of Appeals, as provided in §51-11-1 et seq. of this code.

4 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, a circuit court has no 5 jurisdiction to review a final order or decision entered by a family court after June 30, 2021, if
