Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

CHAPTER 11. TAXATION.

ARTICLE 21. PERSONAL INCOME TAX.

§11-21-12m. Additional modifications related to a Jumpstart Savings account.

(a) Modification for contributions. –

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2022, in addition to amounts authorized to be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income pursuant to §11-21-12(c) of this code, there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income for the purposes of this article an amount equal to a direct contribution to a Jumpstart Savings account for the taxable year in which the payment is made, in accordance with 18-30A-1 et seq. of this code: Provided, That the amount deducted pursuant to this subsection may not exceed $25,000 in a single taxable year: Provided, however, That the taxpayer may also elect to carry forward the modification over a period not to exceed five taxable years, beginning in the taxable year in which the contribution was made.

(b) Modification for certain distributions. –

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2022, in addition to amounts authorized to be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income pursuant to §11-21-12(c) of this code, there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income, for the purposes of this article, an amount equal to the portion of a distribution received from a Jumpstart Savings account in the taxable year that was used to pay for qualified expenses, as defined in §18-30A-11 of this code: Provided, That the amount deducted pursuant to this subsection may not exceed $25,000 for the taxable Modification for rollover of certain distributions. – In addition to amounts authorized to be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income pursuant to §11-21-12(c) of this code, there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income, for the purposes of this article:

(1) An amount equal to a distribution from a Jumpstart Savings account, if within 30 days of receiving the distribution, the account owner deposits such amount into a West Virginia ABLE account, according to the requirements of §16-48-1 et seq. of this code; and

(2) An amount equal to the portion of a distribution from a college savings account, established pursuant to §18-30-1 et seq. of this code, deposited into a Jumpstart Savings account within 30 days of receiving the distribution, if:

(A) The distribution from the college savings account is included in the account owner’s federal gross income, according to 26 U.S.C. §61 and 26 U.S.C. §529; and

(B) The account owner complies with all applicable requirements of §18-30A-1 et seq. of this code.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to decrease or otherwise impact any individual’s federal tax obligations or to authorize any act which violates federal law.

§11-21-25. Nonrefundable credit for matching contribution to employee’s Jumpstart Savings account.

As provided in §18-30A-13 of this code, a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by the provisions of this article is allowed for a matching contribution to a Jumpstart Savings account, of which the taxpayer’s employee is the designated beneficiary, for the taxable year in which the contribution was made: Provided, That the credit allowed by this section may not exceed $5,000 per employee per taxable year: Provided, however, That the amount of such tax credit may not exceed the portion of the contribution that is attributable to the taxpayer and that would otherwise be derived by the taxpayer as income from his or her business for the taxable year:
Provided further, That the employer may not claim the credit if the employer himself or herself is the account beneficiary of the account to which the matching contribution was made.

ARTICLE 24. CORPORATION NET INCOME TAX.

§11-24-10a. Nonrefundable credit for matching contribution to employee’s Jumpstart Savings account.

As provided in §18-30A-13 of this code, a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by the provisions of this article is allowed in an amount equal to a matching contribution to a Jumpstart Savings account, of which the taxpayer’s employee is the designated beneficiary, for the taxable year in which the contribution was made: Provided, That the credit allowed by this section may not exceed $5,000 per employee per taxable year.

CHAPTER 18. EDUCATION.

ARTICLE 30A. WEST VIRGINIA JUMPSTART SAVINGS ACT.

§18-30A-1. Short Title.

This article shall be known, and may be cited as, the “West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Act.”

The Legislature recognizes the importance of cultivating an environment in West Virginia, where our tradespersons and entrepreneurs can be successful in their careers and remain in their home state. The Legislature finds that a savings and investment program to assist our citizens who wish to embark on a new trade or establish a new business within this state, is an investment in the future of West Virginia and its hardworking citizens.

For the purposes of this article, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) “Account owner” means the person who opens and invests money into a Jumpstart Savings account, as provided in this article.

(2) “Beneficiary” means the person designated as a beneficiary at the time an account is established, or the individual designated as the beneficiary when beneficiaries are changed.

(3) The “board” means the West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Board created in §18-30A-5 of this code.

(4) “Direct contribution” means any amount of money deposited into a Jumpstart Savings account according to the procedures established and required by the board of the Treasurer.

(5) “Distribution” means any disbursement from an account.

(6) The term “family member,” as used to describe a person’s relationship to a designated beneficiary, includes any of the following:

(A) The spouse of the beneficiary;

(B) A child of the beneficiary or a descendant of the beneficiary’s child;

(C) A brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the beneficiary;

(D) The father or mother of the beneficiary, or an ancestor of either;

(E) A first cousin of the beneficiary;

(F) A stepfather or stepmother of the beneficiary;

(G) A son or daughter of a brother or sister of the beneficiary;

(H) A brother or sister of the father or mother of the beneficiary;

(I) A son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the beneficiary; or

(J) The spouse of any person described in paragraphs (A) through (I) of this subdivision.

(7) “Labor organization” means any organization, agency, association, union, or employee representation committee of any kind that exists, in whole or in part, to assist employees in negotiating with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, or other terms or conditions of employment.

(8) The “program” refers to the Jumpstart Savings Program established by this article.

(9) The “Treasurer” refers to the West Virginia State Treasurer or his or her designee.

§18-30A-4. West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Program established.
The West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Program is hereby established, to be operable on or before July 1, 2022. The board shall implement and administer the program under the terms and conditions required by this article.

§18-30A-5. West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Board; members; terms; compensation; proceedings generally.

(a) The West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Program shall be administered by the West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Board.

(b) The board consists of seven members and includes the following:

(1) The State Treasurer;

(2) The State Superintendent of Schools, or his or her designee;

(3) The Chancellor of the West Virginia Community and Technical College System, or his or her designee;

(4) Four other members, appointed by the Governor, with knowledge, skill, and experience in trade occupations or businesses, to be appointed as follows:

(A) A member representing a labor organization that represents tradespersons in this state;

(B) A member representing a business or entity offering apprenticeships in this state; and

(C) Two private citizens not employed by, or an officer of, the state or any political subdivision of the state.

(c) The members described in subdivision (4), subsection (b) of this section are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

(d) Only state residents are eligible for appointment to the board.

(e) Members appointed by the Governor serve a term of five years and are eligible for reappointment at the expiration of their terms. If there is a vacancy among appointed members, the Governor shall appoint a person meeting the requirements of this section to fill the unexpired term. Members of the board serve until the later of the expiration of the term for which the member was appointed or the appointment of a successor.

(f) Members of the board serve without compensation. The Treasurer may pay all reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, actually incurred by board members in the conduct of their official duties. Expense payments are made from the Jumpstart Savings Expense Account and are made at the same rate paid to state employees.

(g) The Treasurer is the chairman and presiding officer of the board and shall appoint the employees the board considers advisable or necessary.

(h) The board shall adopt bylaws and rules of procedure at its first official meeting. A majority of the members of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of the business of the board.

The board is authorized to take any action necessary to effectuate the provisions of this article and successfully administer the program, subject to applicable state and federal law, including, but not limited to the following:

(1) Adopt and amend bylaws;

(2) Execute contracts and other instruments for necessary goods and services, employ necessary personnel and engage the services of private consultants, actuaries, auditors, counsel, managers, trustees, and any other contractor or professional needed for rendering professional and technical assistance and advice: Provided, That election of these services is not subject to the provisions of §5A-3-1 et seq. of this code;

(3) Implement the program through use of financial organizations as account depositaries and managers, as provided in §18-30A-9 of this code;

(4) Develop and impose requirements, policies, procedures, and guidelines to implement and manage the program;

(5) Establish the method by which funds shall be allocated to pay for administrative costs and assess, collect, and expend administrative fees, charges, and penalties;

(6) Authorize the assessment, collection, and retention of fees and charges against the amounts paid into and the earnings on the trust funds by a financial institution, investment manager, fund manager, West Virginia Investment Management Board, or other professional managing or investing the trust funds and accounts;

(7) Invest and reinvest any of the funds and accounts under the board's control with a financial institution, an investment manager, a fund manager, the West Virginia Investment Management Board, or other professional investing the funds and accounts: Provided, That investments made under this article shall be made in accordance with the provisions of §44-6C-1 et seq. of this code:

(8) Solicit and accept gifts, including bequests or other testamentary gifts made by will, trust, or other disposition; grants; loans; aid; and property, real or personal of any nature and from any source, or to participate in any other way in any federal, state, or local governmental programs in carrying out the purposes of this article: Provided, That board shall use the property received to effectuate the desires of the donor, and shall convert the property received into cash within 90 days of receipt; and

(9) Propose legislative rules for promulgation in accordance with §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code.

(a) In order to implement and administer the program, the Treasurer shall:

(1) Provide support staff and office space for the board;

(2) Establish and monitor, at the direction of the board, the methods and processes by which the funds held in accounts are deposited and distributed;

(3) Charge and collect any necessary administrative fees, penalties, and service charges in connection with any agreement, contract, or transaction relating to the program;

(4) Develop marketing plans and promotional material to ensure that potential program beneficiaries will be aware of the program and the advantages the program offers; and

(5) Present the annual evaluations and reports required by §18-30A-16 of this code at any meeting or proceeding of the Legislature or the Office of the Governor upon request.

(b) In order to implement and administer the program, the Treasurer may:

(1) Collect all necessary information from program account holders and beneficiaries;

(2) Create forms necessary for implementation of the program;

(3) Propose rules for legislative approval, in accordance with the provisions of §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code, that are necessary to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this article; and

(4) Perform all other actions necessary to effectuate the provisions of this article, subject to applicable state and federal law.

§18-30A-8. West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Trust Fund and Expense Fund created.

(a) The West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Program Trust Fund is hereby established in the State Treasury. The fund shall be utilized if the board elects to accept deposits from contributors rather than have deposits sent directly to the program manager. Such fund shall consist of any moneys contributed in accordance with this article which are not deposited directly with the program manager. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in such savings trust fund shall be credited to the fund. At the end of any fiscal year, all unexpended and unencumbered moneys in such savings trust fund may not be credited or transferred to the State General Fund or to any other fund.

(b) (1) The West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Program Expense Fund is hereby established in the State Treasury. The fund shall consist of moneys received from the program manager, or any governmental or private grants and any state general fund appropriations, if any, for the program.

(2) All expenses incurred by the board or the Treasurer in developing and administering the program shall be payable from the West Virginia Jumpstart Savings Expense Fund.
§18-30A-9. Use of financial organizations as program depositories and managers.

(a) The board may implement the program through use of financial organizations as account depositories and managers. The board may solicit proposals from financial organizations to act as depositories and managers of the program. Financial organizations submitting proposals shall describe the investment instruments which will be held in accounts. The board may select more than one financial organization and investment instrument for the program. The board shall select financial organizations to act as program depositories and managers from among the bidding financial organizations that demonstrate the most advantageous combination, both to potential program participants and this state, based on the following criteria:

(1) The financial stability and integrity of the financial organization;

(2) The safety of the investment instrument being offered;

(3) The ability of the financial organization to satisfy record keeping and reporting requirements;

(4) The financial organization’s plan for promoting the program and the investment the organization is willing to make to promote the program;

(5) The fees, if any, proposed to be charged to the account owners;

(6) The minimum initial deposit and minimum contributions that the financial organization will require;

(7) The ability of the financial organization to accept electronic withdrawals, including payroll deduction plans; and

(8) Other benefits to the state or its residents included in the proposal, including fees payable to the state to cover expenses of operation of the program.

(b) The board may enter into any contracts with a financial organization necessary to effectuate the provisions of this article. Any management contract shall include, at a minimum, terms requiring the financial organization to:

(1) Take any action required to keep the program in compliance with requirements of this
(2) Keep adequate records of each account, keep each account segregated from each other account, and provide the board with the information necessary to prepare the statements required by this article and other applicable state and federal laws;

(3) Compile and total information contained in statements required to be prepared under this article and applicable state and federal laws and provide such compilations to the board;

(4) Provide the board with access to the books and records of the program manager and with any other information needed to determine compliance with the contract, this article, and any other applicable state or federal law;

(5) Hold all accounts for the benefit of the account owner or owners;

(6) Be audited at least annually by a firm of certified public accountants selected by the program manager and provide the results of such audit to the board;

(7) Provide the board with copies of all regulatory filings and reports made by the financial organization during the term of the management contract or while the financial organization is holding any accounts, other than confidential filings or reports that will not become part of the program. The program manager shall make available for review by the board and the Treasurer the results of any periodic examination of such manager by any state or federal banking, insurance, or securities commission, except to the extent that such report or reports may not be disclosed under law; and

(8) Ensure that any description of the program, whether in writing or through the use of any medium, is consistent with the marketing plan developed pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(c) The board may:

(1) Enter into such contracts as it deems necessary and proper for the implementation of the program;

(2) Require that an audit be conducted of the operations and financial position of the program depository and manager at any time if the board has any reason to be concerned about the financial position, the record keeping practices, or the status of accounts of such program depository and manager; and

(3) Terminate or not renew a management agreement. If the board terminates or does not renew a management agreement, the board shall take custody of accounts held by such program manager and shall seek to promptly transfer such accounts to another financial organization that is selected as a program manager or depository and into investment instruments as similar to the original instruments as possible.

§18-30A-10. Opening a Jumpstart Savings account; deposits.

(a) Beginning on July 1, 2022, a person may open a Jumpstart Savings account.

(b) To open a Jumpstart Savings account, the account owner must:

(1) Provide all information required by the Treasurer;

(2) Make a minimum opening deposit of $50; and

(3) Name a single person as the designated beneficiary: Provided, That the designated beneficiary may be the account owner himself or herself, or another person: Provided, however,
That the beneficiary may not be a business, corporation, or enterprise.

(c) The Treasurer will deposit $100 from the Jumpstart Savings Expense Fund in a newly opened Jumpstart Savings account if the following criteria are met:

(1) The designated beneficiary is a resident of West Virginia; and

(2) The account is opened when the designated beneficiary is under the age of 18 years of age; or

(3) The account is opened within the 180 days following the date of the designated beneficiary’s enrollment in an apprenticeship or educational program described in §18-30A-11(c)(1)(A) of this code.

(d) Any person may make a contribution to a Jumpstart Savings account after the account is opened, subject to applicable state and federal laws.
(e) The Treasurer shall prescribe all forms required to open and make deposits to a Jumpstart Savings account and make the forms available in a prominent location on the Treasurer’s website.

§18-30A-11. Distributions; qualified expenses.

(a) A distribution from a Jumpstart Savings account is a distribution to the account owner and any personal income tax deductions authorized by this section and §11-21-12m of this code shall be from the West Virginia adjusted gross income of the account owner.

(b) A change in the designated beneficiary of a Jumpstart Savings account is not a distribution for the purposes of this article or §11-21-1 et seq. of this code if the new beneficiary is a family member of the old beneficiary.

(c) Qualified expenses. --

(1) For the purposes of this article and §11-21-12m of this code, expenditures of distributions for the following purposes are qualified expenses:

(A) The purchase of tools, equipment, or supplies by the beneficiary to be used exclusively in an occupation or profession for which the beneficiary is required to:

(i) Complete an apprenticeship program registered and certified with the United States Department of Labor, as provided in 29 U.S.C. §50;

(ii) Complete an apprenticeship program required by Chapter 30 of this code or by legislative rules promulgated pursuant to said chapter; or

(iii) Earn an Associate degree from a community and technical college;

(B) Fees for required certification and licensure to practice a trade or occupation described in paragraph (A) of this subdivision in this state; and

(C) Costs incurred by the beneficiary that are necessary to establish a business in this state in which the beneficiary will practice an occupation or profession described in paragraph (A) of this subdivision, when the costs are exclusively incurred and paid for the purpose of operating such business.
(2) In no event shall any dues, fees, subscriptions, or any other payments to a labor organization constitute qualified expenses for the purposes of this article.

(a) As provided in §11-21-12m, a direct contribution to a Jumpstart Savings account is eligible for an income tax deduction.

(b) As provided in §11-21-12m, a distribution from a Jumpstart Savings account that is used for qualified expenses, as provided in §18-30A-11 of this code, is eligible for an income tax deduction.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to decrease or otherwise impact any individual's federal tax obligations or to authorize any act which violates federal law.

§18-30A-13. State tax credit for certain persons or entities providing matching funds.

(a) An employer that contributes matching funds to a Jumpstart Savings account, of which its employee is the beneficiary, is eligible for a tax credit not to exceed $5,000 per employee per taxable year, as provided in §11-21-25 or §11-24-10a of this code, whichever is applicable:

Provided, That an employer may not claim a credit against more than one type of tax for a single contribution: Provided, however, That the employer may not claim the credit if the matching contribution is to an account of which the employer himself or herself is the beneficiary.

(b) In order to qualify for either of the tax credits described in subsection (a) of this section, an employer must:

(1) Directly contribute an amount of funds to a Jumpstart Savings account that is equal to a contribution by the employee to such account in the same taxable year; and

(2) Submit any forms or other information, required by the Treasurer, upon making the contribution.

(a) As provided in §11-21-12m of this code, a taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction from his or her West Virginia adjusted gross income, equal to the amount of a distribution from a college savings account, established pursuant to §18-30-1 et seq. of this code, if:

(1) The distribution from the college savings account is included in the taxpayer’s federal gross income, according to 26 U.S.C. §61 and 26 U.S.C. §529; and

(2) Within 30 days of receiving the distribution, the taxpayer deposits such amount into a Jumpstart Savings account, according to the requirements of this article.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a federal tax benefit or to authorize any act which violates federal law.

§18-30A-15. Rollover of Jumpstart Savings account into a West Virginia ABLE account.

(a) As provided in §11-21-12m of this code, a taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction from his or her West Virginia adjusted gross income, equal to the amount of a distribution from a Jumpstart Savings account, established pursuant to this article, if within 30 days of receiving the distribution, the taxpayer deposits such amount into a West Virginia ABLE account, according to the requirements of §16-48-1 et seq. of this code.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a federal tax benefit or to authorize any act which violates federal law.

§18-30A-16. Reports and account; annual audit.

(a) In addition to any other requirements of this article, the board shall:

(1) Prepare and provide an annual summary of information on the financial condition of the Jumpstart Savings Trust Fund and Expense Fund and statements on the savings plan accounts to the respective account owners;

(2) Prepare, or have prepared, a quarterly report on the status of the program, including the Jumpstart Savings Trust Fund and Expense Fund, and provide a copy of the report to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance; and

(3) Prepare, or have prepared, an annual actuarial report of the Jumpstart Savings Trust Fund and transmit a copy of the report to the Governor and the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.
(b) All accounts administered under the program, including the Jumpstart Savings Trust Fund and Expense Fund, are subject to an annual external audit by an accounting firm, selected by the board, of which all members or partners assigned to head the audit are members of the American institute of certified public accountants. The audit shall comply with the requirements and standards in §5A-2-33 of this code.

§18-30A-17. Records; confidentiality.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the board and an apprenticeship provider, training or educational institution, or employer are authorized to exchange information regarding participants in the program to carry out the purposes of this article.

(b) Records containing personally identifying information regarding Jumpstart Savings account holders and beneficiaries is exempt from disclosure under §29B-1-1 et seq. of this code.

Nothing in this article creates any obligation of the board, the Treasurer, the state, or any agency or instrumentality of the state to guarantee for the benefit of any account holder or designated beneficiary with respect to the:

(1) Return of principal;

(2) Rate of interest or other return on any account; or

(3) Payment of interest or other return on any account.

Prior to the commencement of the program, the board shall promulgate rules, in accordance with the provisions of §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code, that include at a minimum, the following:

(1) Requirements for any contract to be entered between the board and an account holder upon opening a Jumpstart Savings account to ensure compliance with the requirements of this article and applicable state and federal laws;

(2) Examples of qualified expenses, as that term is described in §18-30A-11 of this code;
and

(3) Procedures for persons opening Jumpstart Savings accounts, making contributions thereto, and requesting distributions therefrom, and instructions for accessing any necessary forms.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to establish the Jumpstart Savings Program.
