72 appurtenant thereto.

§15-5-6. Emergency powers of Governor.

1 (a) The provisions of this section, and of any executive order issued pursuant to the 2 provisions of this section, are operative only during the existence of a state of emergency or state
3 of preparedness. Nothing in this section may be construed to suspend or supersede any provision 4 of the Constitution.

5 (1) The existence of a state of emergency or state of preparedness may be proclaimed by 6 the Governor or by concurrent resolution of the Legislature if the Governor in the proclamation, 7 or the Legislature in the resolution, finds that an attack upon the state or the United States has 8 occurred or is ~~anticipated in the immediate future~~ imminent, or that a natural or man-made disaster
9 of major proportions has actually occurred or is imminent within the state, or that an emergency

10 exists or may be imminent due to a large-scale threat beyond local control, and that the safety 11 and welfare of the inhabitants of this state require an invocation of the provisions of this section.

12 (2) The existence of a state of preparedness may be proclaimed by the Governor or by 13 concurrent resolution of the Legislature, if the Governor in the proclamation or the Legislature in 14 the resolution, finds that an attack upon the state or the United States is anticipated in the 15 immediate future, or that a natural or man-made disaster of major proportions is likely within the 16 state or some portion thereof, or that an emergency may be likely due to a large-scale threat 17 beyond local control, or that a major event necessitating cooperation between state and local 18 authorities, or the federal government, is imminent, and that the safety and welfare of the 19 inhabitants of this state require an invocation of the provisions of this section.

20 (b) (1) Any state of emergency or state of preparedness, whether proclaimed by the 21 Governor or by the Legislature, terminates upon the proclamation of the termination by the 22 Governor, or the passage by the Legislature of a concurrent resolution terminating the state of 23 emergency or state of preparedness: Provided, That in no case shall a state of preparedness
24 emergency last longer than ~~thirty~~ 60 days, unless the Legislature, by passage of a concurrent 25 resolution, shall extend the time period of the state of emergency: Provided, however, That such 26 extension may be renewed, if necessary, by passage of a subsequent concurrent resolution of 27 the Legislature. The Legislature may also condition, limit, terminate, or expand any action or 28 directive made either by the proclamation of the Governor relating to the state of emergency or 29 any executive order issued as a result of such proclamation. Upon proclamation by the Governor 30 of a state of emergency, the Governor may call the Legislature into special session.

31 (2) Any state of preparedness, whether proclaimed by the Governor or by the Legislature, 32 terminates upon the proclamation of the termination by the Governor, or the passage by the 33 Legislature of a concurrent resolution terminating the state of preparedness: Provided, That in no 34 case shall a state of preparedness last longer than 30 days, unless the Legislature by passage of 35 a concurrent resolution, shall extend the time period of the state of preparedness: Provided

36 however, That such extension may be renewed, if necessary, by passage of a subsequent 37 concurrent resolution of the Legislature. The Legislature may also condition, limit, terminate, or 38 expand any action or directive made either by the proclamation of the Governor relating to the 39 state of preparedness or any executive order issued as a result of such proclamation. Upon 40 proclamation by the Governor of a state of preparedness, the Governor may call the Legislature 41 into special session.

42 (c) For the purposes of calculation of the length of time of the existence of a state of 43 preparedness or state of emergency commenced according to the provisions of this section, when 44 the governor issues a proclamation declaring a state of preparedness or emergency, any 45 subsequent proclamation that substantially relates to the same circumstances that caused the 46 issuance of the initial proclamation shall be treated as a continuation of the initial proclamation for 47 that purpose, even if the prior proclamation, has, by its own terms, expired: Provided, That when 48 a state of emergency follows a state of preparedness, and they are substantially relating to the 49 same circumstances, the total time allotted for the duration of the two states combined shall be 50 no more than 60 days unless the Governor follows the requirements for extending the state of 51 emergency under subsection (b)(1) of this section.

52 (d) The Governor shall have the following delineated powers which are intended to be 53 strictly construed to authorize only those actions that are consistent with constitutional or statutory 54 law, or with final orders of those courts of competent jurisdiction to which the Governor is subject:

55 (1) So long as a ~~state of emergency~~ or state of preparedness exists, the Governor has 56 and may exercise the following additional emergency powers:

57 (~~1~~) (2) To enforce all laws and rules relating to the provision of emergency services and 58 to assume direct operational control of any or all emergency service forces and helpers in the 59 state;

60 (~~2~~) (A) To sell, lend, lease, give, or transfer state property, make purchases, or deliver 61 materials or perform functions relating to emergency services on terms and conditions he or she

62 prescribes and without regard to the limitations of any existing law and to account to the State
63 Treasurer for any funds received for the property;

64 ~~(3) To procure materials and facilities for emergency services by purchase, condemnation~~ 65 ~~under the provisions of chapter fifty four of this code or seizure pending institution of~~ 66 ~~condemnation proceedings within thirty days from the seizing thereof and to construct, lease,~~ 67 ~~transport, store, maintain, renovate or distribute the materials and facilities. Compensation for~~ 68 ~~property so procured shall be made in the manner provided in chapter fifty four of this code~~

69 (4) (B) To obtain the services of necessary personnel, required during the emergency, and 70 to compensate them for their services from his or her contingent funds or other funds available to 71 him or her;

72 ~~(5) To provide and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken~~
73 ~~or threatened area within the state and to take steps that are necessary for the receipt and care~~
74 ~~of the evacuees;~~

75 ~~(6) To control ingress and egress to and from a disaster area or an area where large scale~~
76 ~~threat exists, the movement of persons within the area and the occupancy of premises therein~~

77 ~~(7) (C)~~ To suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for 78 conduct of state business or the orders, rules of any state agency, if strict compliance therewith 79 would in any way prevent, hinder or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency;

80 ~~(8) (D)~~ To use available resources of the state and of its political subdivisions that are 81 reasonably necessary to cope with the emergency;

82 ~~(9) (E)~~ To suspend or limit the sale, dispensing or transportation of alcoholic beverages,
83 explosives and combustibles;

84 ~~(10) (F)~~ To make provision for the availability and use of temporary emergency housing; 85 and

86 ~~(11)~~ To perform and exercise other functions, powers and duties that are necessary to 87 promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population.

88 (3) In the event of the declaration of a state of emergency, the Governor shall have and 89 may exercise all the preceding powers delineated in this section for use in a state of 90 preparedness, as well as the following additional emergency powers:

91 (A) To procure facilities for emergency services by purchase, condemnation under the 92 provisions of Chapter 54 of this code or seizure pending institution of condemnation proceedings 93 within 30 days from the seizing thereof and to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate 94 or distribute the materials and facilities. Compensation for property so procured shall be made in 95 the manner provided in Chapter 54 of this code;

96 (B) To provide and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken
97 or threatened area within the state and to take steps that are necessary for the receipt and care
98 of the evacuees; and

99 (C) To control ingress and egress to and from a disaster area or an area where large-100 scale threat exists, the movement of persons within the area and the occupancy of premises 101 therein.

102 ~~(d)~~ (e) The declaration of a state of preparedness has the same effect as a declaration of 103 a state of emergency for the purposes of the Emergency Management Assistance Compact
104 established in §15-5-22 of this code and the Statewide Mutual Aid Systems set forth in §15-5-28 105 of this code.

106 (f) Any proclamation or resolution issued under this section must include, in general terms:

107 (1) a description of the nature of the disaster;

108 (2) a designation of the geographic area threatened; and

109 (3) a description of the conditions that have either:

110 (A) caused the state of emergency or preparedness; or 111 (B) made possible the termination of the state of emergency or preparedness.

112 Any such proclamation or resolution shall be disseminated as expediently as possible by 113 means which are calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and the

114 Joint Committee on Government and Finance of the Legislature and, unless the circumstances 115 attendant to the state of emergency or preparedness shall prevent or impede such filing, shall be 116 promptly filed with the Secretary of State.

117 ~~(e)~~ (g) The powers granted under this section do not authorize any action that would violate 118 the prohibitions of §15-5-19 of this code.

119 (h) Any suit filed challenging an executive order issued relating to a state of preparedness 120 or emergency pursuant to the authority granted in this section shall be limited to a petition for 121 prohibition or mandamus pursuant to Rule 16 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure of the West 122 Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. The provisions of §55-17-3 of this code are not applicable to 123 any suit filed challenging an executive order issued pursuant to this section.

124 (i) The emergency powers granted under this section do not authorize the 125 Governor to close or dictate religious practices in a house of worship during a state of 126 preparedness or state of emergency.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to clarify the authority and obligations of the Governor and Legislature relating to declared states of preparedness and emergencies; clarifying the authority of the Governor; providing requirements for any proclamation or resolution so issued; and providing directives for lawsuits filed challenging actions taken pursuant to the authority granted herein.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
