1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
2 designated §18-5-15g, relating to requiring county boards of education to permit students
3 who are homeschooled or attend private schools to enroll and take classes at the county's
4 vocational school at no additional cost beyond any costs charged to public school
5 students.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

§18-5-15g. Vocational education classes for homeschooled and private schooled students.

1 County boards of education shall permit students who are homeschooled or attend private
2 schools to enroll and take classes at the county's vocational schools, if any are provided and as
3 capacity allows, at no expense or cost greater than expenses or costs normally charged to public
4 school students: Provided, That if a homeschool or private school student is not permitted to 5 enroll in a county vocational school, the county shall notify the parent or guardian of the student
6 in writing and a copy of the written notification shall also be sent to the West Virginia Department
7 of Education.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require county boards of education to permit students who are homeschooled or attend private schools to enroll and take classes at the county's vocational school.
